CARDINALS OPEN ACC PLAY AT VIRGINIA

■ Going 2-1 in non-conference play, the University of Louisville opens Atlantic Coast Conference action when it travels to Charlottesville to take on Virginia on Saturday at 12:30 p.m.

■ The Cardinals own a 4-2 advantage in the series, going 3-1 versus the Cavaliers since joining the league in 2015. The Cardinals won 38-21 last season at Cardinal Stadium and scored in the final seconds to win 32-25 in their last trip to Charlottesville in 2016.

■ Head coach Bobby Petrino is 3-1 all-time against Virginia, compiling a 1-1 mark in Charlottesville.

■ The Cardinals won their second game in a row by overcoming a 14-3 half-time deficit to squeak by Western Kentucky 20-17 last Saturday at Cardinal Stadium.

■ The Cardinals battled back from a 14-0 deficit for only the seventh time in school history, the first since overcoming a 21-0 lead by Kentucky to win 38-24 at Kroger Field during the 2015 season.

■ For the second-straight week, quarterback Malik Cunningham came off the bench to spark the Cardinals to the come-from-behind win. The Montgomery, Alabama, native rushed for a season-high 129 yards, while throwing for 88 yards. The 6-foot-1 signal caller is only the fourth signal caller to rush for 100 yards in a game, joining Benny Russell, Jim Wagoner, and Heisman Trophy winner Lamar Jackson — the school's all-time leading rusher.

■ Entering the game with seven yards rushing, Dae Williams carried nine times for 58 yards and two scores, including the game-winning one-yard run with 5:01 left in the fourth quarter.

■ For the second-straight week, defensive end Tabarius Peterson led the Cardinals in tackles, recording a career-high nine stops and a tackle for loss. Totaling eight tackles a week ago, Peterson leads the team with 20 tackles and tied for the lead with 2.0 tackles for loss.

■ Kicker Blanton Creque was a perfect 2 for 2 on field goals attempts, connecting on a pair of 23-yard attempts. With the two makes, Creque moved into a tie for fourth place all-time with 36 career field goals.

ACC OPENERS

■ The Cardinals open their fifth season in the Atlantic Coast Conference with a trip to Charlottesville to face Virginia. The Cardinals are 3-1 in ACC openers, including a 47-35 win over North Carolina last season. Overall, the Cardinals have registered a 21-11 record in their four ACC seasons.

■ In his ninth season, head coach Bobby Petrino is 5-3 in conference openers, including wins in his last two and four out of the last five contests. His last loss was a 20-17 decision at home versus Clemson in 2015.

PETRINO DOMINATES AT HOME

■ Head coach Bobby Petrino has dominated the opposition at Cardinal Stadium in his ninth season leading the Cardinals. The Helena, Montana, native has amassed a 42-7 all-time mark at home during his tenure after the 20-17 win over Western Kentucky last Saturday.

■ Petrino's teams have won home games at an 85.7 percent clip during his tenure, and own one of the longest home-winning streaks in school history after winning 22-straight games. His squads won 18-straight contests from 2003 until he departed for the NFL after the 2006 campaign. He returned to the Derby City in 2014 and captured four more home wins before dropping a 42-31 decision to Florida State on Oct. 30, 2014.

■ Petrino's team's have lit up the scoreboard in his nine seasons at Cardinal Stadium. His teams have averaged 41.8 points per contest over the span of 49 games. His squads have tallied 30 or more points 39 times and over 40 points on 28 occasions. The Cardinals scored 70 versus Cincinnati in 2004 and later equaled that mark with 70 against Charlotte in 2016.

■ In the ACC, the Cardinals are 11-4 at Cardinal Stadium and have won nine of 11 league contests at home after a 56-10 win over Syracuse to end the 2017 home slate.

■ Petrino's teams are 15-2 against non-conference opponents at Cardinal Stadium over his nine seasons. Louisville improved to 17-3 versus Conference USA opponents with the win over WKU.

PETRINO'S TEAMS SOLID ON THE ROAD

■ While head coach Bobby Petrino's teams have been stellar at home throughout his career, his road mark is equally impressive. In his ninth season with the Cardinals, Petrino has guided his squads to a 29-14 record on the road — having won eight of their last 12 games away from home. His teams are 10-2 on the road in September.

■ In ACC play, the Cardinals are 9-7 on the road — winning five of their last eight games away from home in league play. UofL finished 2-2 on the road last season, capturing victories at North Carolina and Florida State, while dropping games at NC State and Wake Forest.

■ The Cardinals are 15-9 on the road in non-conference play with Petrino at the helm.

PETRINO APPROACHING 120

■ Head coach Bobby Petrino continues to climb up the charts. In 15 seasons, Petrino's teams have registered 119 career wins, which is tied for 13th among active coaches. With his next victory, he would become the 12th active coach to register 120 career victories.

■ By securing his 120th career victory, he'd become the 112th coach all-time to have won at least 120 games while coaching at FBS schools and his 119 wins are 113th.

■ Currently, he's one of seven coaches in the ACC with over 100 career wins, joining Georgia Tech's Paul Johnson, Miami's Mark Richt, Wake Forest's Dave Clawson, Virginia's Bronco Mendenhall, Duke's David Cutcliffe, and Clemson's Dabo Swinney.

■ Petrino's .709 career winning percentage ranks 11th among active head coaches.

LOUISVILLE VERSUS THE ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE

■ Louisville begins its fifth season in the Atlantic Coast Conference, posting an overall record of 21-11. The Cardinals finished 2017 with a 4-4 mark in the league, it's worst since joining the league in 2014.

■ The Cardinals recorded identical 5-3 records in 2014 and 2015 before tying Clemson for the Atlantic Division title in 2016 with a 7-1 record.

■ All-time, the Cardinals are 54-59-1 against current teams from the ACC. Louisville has played Florida State a total of 18 times, the most of any league team. The Seminoles are 14-4 versus the Cardinals. Louisville is 6-4 versus Boston College; 0-4 versus Clemson; 2-0 versus Duke; 3-9-1 versus Miami; 5-3 versus North Carolina; 6-2 versus NC State; 8-9 versus Pitt; 10-6 versus Syracuse; 4-2 versus Virginia; 2-5 versus Virginia Tech; and 4-1 versus Wake Forest.

NOTING THE WESTERN KENTUCKY GAME

- Louisville improved to 96-32 all-time at home in Cardinal Stadium.
- Under head coach Bobby Petrino, Louisville is 27-7 in the month of September.
- The Cardinals are 32-11 in nonconference play under Petrino.
- Louisville wins its seventh game in school history when trailing by 14 or more points before getting its first score.
- Louisville has scored a TD all six times under Bobby Petrino in which the Cards have used an offensive lineman in the backfield.
- Louisville (Jared Goldwire) blocked Western Kentucky field goal in the third quarter, the Cardinals' first blocked field goal since Purdue on Sept. 2, 2017.
- Louisville won with 88 yards passing, its lowest passing total in a win since beating Southern Miss 21-17 on Sept. 29, 2012, with 85 yards passing in a rain storm in Hattiesburg.
- Louisville has won 20 of its last 23 games when rushing for 200 yards or more.
- Louisville wins its first game without a touchdown pass since beating Boston College 17-14 on Oct. 24, 2015.
- Dae Williams had 58 yards rushing and two touchdowns on nine carries. He is the first running back with at least two rushing touchdowns since Reggie Bonnafon ran for a pair of scores versus Kentucky on Nov. 25, 2017.
- Malik Cunningham is the fourth quarterback in Louisville history to rush for 100 yards in a game, joining Benny Russell, Jim Wagoner, and Lamar Jackson.
- With 129 yards rushing, Malik Cunningham has the 19th highest single-game rushing total ever by a Louisville quarterback

■ Blanton Creque connected on two field goals, both from 23 yards, boosting his career field goal total to 36, matching Ron Bell (1987-90) for fourth on the school's list. Creque, who also made a pair of extra points, now owns 213 career points. He is three points shy of tying David Akers (1993-96) for fourth.

■ Robert Hicks earned his first career start and paced the Cardinals' defense with 11 tackles. He is the first true freshman to lead the team in tackles since Dorian Etheridge versus Syracuse on Nov. 18, 2017.

■ Jarrett Jackson had three tackles, including one sack for the second-consecutive game.

■ C.J. Avery had four tackles and one interception in the victory. He recorded his first career interception in the first quarter.

- Jaylen Smith had three catches for 38 yards, moving into 10th on the school's career list with 2,053 receiving yards.
- Seth Dawkins had one catch and extended his streak with at least one reception to 18-consecutive games.
- Adonis Boone made an appearance in the contest, becoming the 14th true freshman to play this season.
- Lukayus McNeil earned his team-high 36th career start.

NON-CONFERENCE SUCCESS

- The Cardinals have enjoyed tremendous success against non-league foes, going 29-13 since 2011, and own five victories in the last seven out-of-league games.
- The Cardinals have won 15 of 23 contests out of league since head coach Bobby Petrino's return in 2014.
- Petrino is 32-11 versus non-conference opponents during his nine years at Louisville, including a 16-2 mark at home.
- Petrino's teams are 11-3 on the road and 5-6 in neutral site games against non-conference foes.
- Dating back to the 2010 campaign, the Cardinals are 28-10 against non-conference opponents during the regular season, and have won 10 of the last 14 games out of their league.

VERSUS RANKED FOES

- Louisville holds a 16-52-1 all-time record against teams ranked in the Associated Press top 25 after the loss to Alabama. This mark includes records of 8-13 at home, 3-31-1 at road sites and 5-8 at neutral sites.
- The Cardinals are 6-23-1 against teams ranked in the top 10, and 8-12 as a ranked team playing a ranked foe.
- Head coach Bobby Petrino owns a record of 5-16 versus ranked opponents during his tenure at Louisville, which includes a win over No. 2 Florida State in 2016.

FUTURE NON-CONFERENCE GAMES

- 2019: Sept. 2 vs. Notre Dame, Sept. 7 vs. Eastern Kentucky, Sept. 14 at Western Kentucky, Nov. 30 at Kentucky
- 2020: Sept. 19 vs. Murray State, Sept. 26 vs. Western Kentucky, Nov. 28 vs. Kentucky
- 2021: Sept. 4 vs. Mississippi, Sept. 11 vs. Eastern Kentucky, Sept. 18 vs. UCF, Nov. 27 at Kentucky
- 2022: Sept. 17 at UCF, Nov. 5 vs. James Madison, Nov. 26 vs. Kentucky

PETRINO TOPS IN WINNING PERCENTAGE

- Head coach Bobby Petrino has enjoyed a tremendous amount of success at Louisville, winning at least eight games in all eight years, and has advanced to the postseason in each of those years.

■ Petrino owns the top winning percentage of any of the coaches at Louisville, posting a .733 percentage, besting the .712 mark by Charlie Strong (2010-2013). Petrino has totaled a mark of 77-28 and has won nine games or more six times.

■ His 77 wins are the second-most in school history, needing 42 to surpass the 118 wins Frank Camp compiled in his 23 seasons at Louisville.

■ Petrino has coached 105 games — the third most in school history - trailing Frank Camp's 215 and Howard Schnellenberger's 112 contests.

COMEBACK CARDINALS

■ The Cardinals improved to 2-1 on the season, but had to battle back from a double-digit deficit. Trailing 14-0 in the second quarter, the Cardinals scored 17 second-half points to win 20-17.

■ The comeback was the seventh in school history when trailing by 14-0 or more points and also the second time coming under head coach Bobby Petrino. The Cardinals trailed Kentucky 21-0 before battling back for a 38-24 win at Kroger Field in 2015.

■ Prior to that, the last win when trailing by two or more touchdowns came in 2008, when the Cardinals trailed Middle Tennessee 14-0 before rallying for a 42-23.

■ The Cardinals are now 11-220 when trailing by 14 or more points when trailing at any point of the game.

COMEBACKS WHEN TRAILING BY 14-0 OR MORE

20-17 vs. Western Kentucky, Sept. 15, 2018
38-24 at Kentucky, Nov. 28, 2015
42-23 vs. Middle Tennessee, Oct. 18, 2008
39-34 at East Carolina, Nov. 15, 2001
34-24 at Wichita State, Nov. 28, 1970
24-17 vs. Dayton, Oct. 4, 1969
21-20 at Wichita State, Sept. 15, 1962

THAT'S A CHANGE

■ The Cardinals have been known to light up the scoreboard under head coach Bobby Petrino. However, versus Western Kentucky last weekend, the Cardinals used their defense and a 17-point second half to pull out the 20-17 win. The victory was only the second when scoring 20 or fewer points under Petrino. The Cardinals are 2-8 in games when scoring less than 20 points in a game.

■ Prior to the win over Western Kentucky, the last time the Cardinals won a game when scoring 20 or fewer points came in a 20-17 victory over Boston College in 2015.

CARDINALS IN OVERTIME

■ College football introduced overtime during the bowl season in 1995 and adopted the system for regular season games in 1996.

■ Since then, Louisville has played 10 overtime games, but hasn't played in an extra session since 2013.

■ The Cardinals are 5-5 all-time in overtime games. Petrino is 0-2 in overtime games at Louisville and 1-3 in his career.

■ The Cardinals are 5-5 in overtime games — losing four of their last six encounters. Their last win was a 31-24 victory at Cincinnati in 2013.

CARDINALS IN BOWL GAMES

■ Louisville has made 22 bowl appearances (eight under head coach Bobby Petrino) in school history. The TaxSlayer Bowl was the 16th different bowl the Cardinals have played in during the course of their history — sporting an all-time record of 10-11-1 and own wins in three of their last six appearances, including a 27-21 win in the Music City Bowl in 2015.

■ Dating back to 2010, the Cardinals are on a nine-year bowl streak, which is tied for 13th-longest streak in the nation. Louisville also had an impressive nine-game streak from 1998-2006 — four of which were bowls that were coached by Bobby Petrino (2003-06).

■ Of the 22 bowl appearances, 17 have come in the last 20 seasons.

■ The Cardinals failed to qualify for a bowl from 2007-09, the only three seasons since 1998 that they didn't reach the postseason.

■ The Cardinals made their first bowl game in 1958 in the Sun Bowl — a 34-20 win over Drake in El Paso, Texas.

STREAKS AND TRENDS

■ The Cardinals are 5-7 when scoring 20 points or less under head coach Bobby Petrino.

■ The Cardinals have scored just 10 points in the first half this season, including just three in the second quarter.

■ The Cardinals have five players with five or more receptions after the first three games of the season.

■ Running back Dae Williams recorded his first two touchdown game last week in the win over Western Kentucky.

■ Linebacker C.J. Avery recorded his first career interception and the first for the team in the win over Western Kentucky last Saturday.

■ The Cardinals are averaging 34 rushing attempts in their first three contests, while throwing an average of 27.3 times per game.

■ Since missing his first kick in the bowl game loss to Mississippi State, kicker Blanton Creque has made five-straight field goals after opening the season with three made field goals.

- Wide receiver Jaylen Smith has reception streak of 25 games dating back to the 2015 season.
- Wide receiver Seth Dawkins has caught a pass in 18-straight games dating back to 2016.
- The Cardinals have totaled over 400 yards of total offense in 23 of the last 29 games. Louisville was held to fewer than 300 yards of total offense for the second-straight game.
- Louisville has forced at least one turnover in 25 of the last 29 contests, and has won 19 consecutive games when not committing a turnover.
- The Cardinals have scored 30 or more points in 21 of the last 29 games dating back to 2016.

CARDINAL STADIUM RENOVATION

- The Cardinals opened a $63.25-million dollar expansion of the stadium on Sept. 8, which also included a major upgrade to the Howard Schnellenberger Football Complex.
- In the recent construction, Cardinal Stadium added approximately 6,000 seats, creating a unique look in the end zone structure and increasing the total seating capacity to about 60,800. The construction also provides about 25,000 square feet of additional space.
- While additional seating was added, the expansion also included approximately 800 modern club seats, 68 premium loge level boxes, and 12 exclusive field level suites. The club seats will have access to a premier gathering area that will provide viewing access to the field. Fans in that area will have an exclusive view to the players, who will be running onto the gridiron from a middle of the field level entrance after exiting the football complex through a tunnel.
- While the seating areas have drastically improved many of the sightlines, fans will also notice additional amenities that will enhance their game day experience. Recently, two 40-foot by 80-foot LED videoboards were installed in the north end zones and a 24-foot by 92-foot football videoboard will be installed in the south end zone. The stadium also will possess over 8,000-square feet of ribbon boards throughout the stadium, while a total of 344 feet of ribbon boards will be mounted on the east and west sides of the stadium.
- Cardinal Stadium, which first opened in 1998, featured a capacity of 42,000. In 2010, approximately 12,000 additional chairback seats were added to a second deck on the east side of the stadium in the UPS Flight Deck. The project included 33 new luxury suites on the Stites & Harbison Suite Level and 2,000 premium loge seats were added to the east side.
- A 60-foot wide Norton's Terrace was constructed at the top of the south end zone, connecting the east and west sides of the stadium. Also included in the previous expansion was the PNC Club, a 20,000-square-foot, glass-enclosed area that stretches from end zone to end zone at the loge level on the east side of the stadium.

ROSTER NOTES

- The Cardinals will play the 2018 season with one of the nation's smallest senior classes with just 11 dotting the roster. Here is a list of seniors: Micky Crum, Jack Duane, Henry Famurewa, Linwood Foy, London Iakopo, Gary McCrae, Lukayus McNeil, Evan O'Hara, Dee Smith, Jaylen Smith, and Kenny Thomas.
- The junior class has 22 student-athletes on the roster, while the redshirt freshmen and sophomores totals the largest number on the squad at 50.
- The Cardinals added 25 players to the freshman class this year.

ACADEMIC NOTES

- Louisville has always placed an emphasis on academic success, as was evident by its high APR scores over the last couple of years, producing a 977 for the 2016-17 season and a top-10 ranking in 2015-16 at 994.
- A pair of student-athletes earned a perfect 4.0 grade point average last fall, with one picking up a perfect score in the spring.
- A total of 40 student-athletes made the Athletic Director's Honor Roll earning a 3.0 GPA or better for the fall semester and 37 earned a 3.0 GPA or better for the spring semester.
- The Cardinals recorded nine graduates in the fall of 2017 and 10 graduates in the spring of 2018, including former cornerback Sam Madison.
- Henry Famurewa, London Iakopo and Lukayus McNeil are playing the 2018 season with their degrees in their pockets.

COACHING STAFF NOTES

■ Head Coach Bobby Petrino is in his 14th season as a collegiate head coach in 2018. Petrino's 14 years of experience ranks ninth nationally among all active FBS head coaches.

■ Louisville's 11 full-time coaches boast a combined 218 years of collegiate coaching experience, including 11 seasons in the National Football League.

■ The Cardinals' staff also features two coaches with a combined 11 years of NFL coaching experience including Bobby Petrino (three seasons as an NFL head coach and one season as a head coach coach) and defensive coordinator Brian VanGorder, who owns seven seasons as an assistant in the NFL.

■ Louisville welcomes three new additions to its full-time coaching staff for the 2018 season. VanGorder takes over as the Cardinals' defensive coordinator, while Ryan Beard will coach Louisville's linebackers and Grady Brown tutors the cornerbacks.

BURNS RANKS FOURTH NATIONALLY IN PUNT RETURN AVERAGE

■ Not only has sophomore Rodjay Burns lifted the Cardinals on defense, he's provided a much-needed spark in the return game. The Louisville native ranks fourth nationally and leads the ACC in punt return average, posting a 30.4 yards per return mark after the first two games. Southern Mississippi's Quez Watkins leads the nation at 34.3 yards a return.

■ Burns, an Ohio State transfer, returned a punt 55 yards for a touchdown versus Indiana State on Sept. 8 and added a 36-yard play in the victory over Western Kentucky on Sept. 15.

■ After finishing 103rd in the country last season with a 5.13 return average, the Cardinals are fifth nationally with a 30.5 yard average after three games.

PETRINO NAMES FOUR CAPTAINS

■ Quarterback Jawon Pass, offensive lineman Lukayus McNeil, defensive end Jonathan Greenard and safety Dee Smith have been named captains for the Cardinals' 2018 football team.

BECTON ADDS TO OFFENSIVE LINEMEN TOUCHDOWN LIST

■ During Bobby Petrino's first stint as the head coach in 2003-06, he liked to put an offensive linemen in the backfield in short-yardage situations and give them an opportunity to score. His secret weapon during his first term at Louisville was Kurt Quarterman, who rushed four times for four yards — all resulting in touchdowns. The offensive guard scored versus UTEP on Sept. 20, 2003 for his first touchdown. He added touchdowns versus Army on Sept. 4, 2004; Rutgers on Nov. 11, 2005; and Temple on Sept. 9, 2006.

■ Petrino dusted off the old play and used 6-foot-7 offensive tackle Mekhi Becton as the latest running back. With the Cardinals leading 14-7 versus Indiana State on Sept. 8, Becton plunged in from one-yard out to up the lead to 21-7 with 14:57 left in the game.

■ The Cardinals scored for the sixth time with a lineman in the backfield when they lined up Adonis Boone in the backfield for Dae Williams' one-yard run in the fourth quarter versus Western Kentucky.

SEPTEMBER SUCCESS

■ The Cardinals played their third game in September last Saturday versus Western Kentucky. The Cardinals scored 17 second-half points to pull away from the Hilltoppers to improve to 136-97-6 in the month of September.

■ Head coach Bobby Petrino has been almost unbeatable in September by recording a 27-7 record during his nine seasons at Louisville. The Cardinals are 11-2 in their last 12 games in September after the 20-17 win last Saturday over Western Kentucky.

■ September 22 has been a good day for the Cardinals, posting a 9-2 record on that date. However, the Cardinals have dropped two of the last three games on this date.

LONGEST GAME IN SCHOOL HISTORY

■ It took two days to play Louisville's home opener versus Indiana State on Sept. 15. The Cardinals defeated the Sycamores 31-7 in a game that last 5:35 and featured three stoppages that totaled 2:33. It was the longest game in school history, besting the 4:46 contest against Kentucky on Sept. 2, 2000.

■ The first quarter started at 7:05 p.m. and finished at 10:10, a total of 3:05 that featured three stoppages in play.

14 FRESHMEN SEE ACTION

■ It's no secret the Cardinals are a younger team than they have been in the past, and the youth has been on display through the first three games. A total of 14 freshmen have made their collegiate debuts this season: Yasir Abdullah, Adonis Boone, Tutu Atwell, Chandler Jones, Jatavious Harris, Dejmi Dumervil-Jean, Robert Hicks, Jarrett Jackson, Marcus Riley, Javian Hawkins, Trennell Troutman, Telly Plummer, Jordan Travis and Hassan Hall.

■ On defense, Jackson has been the most productive player after three games, standing in a tie for sixth place with 12 tackles and is tied for the team lead with two sacks. He had his best game last Saturday versus Indiana State, recording four tackles, a sack and a forced fumble in the 31-7 win.

■ Atwell, who was one of four true freshmen to enroll early, has caught three passes for 47 yards in the first two games, while averaging 15.7 yards a reception, including a career-long 30-yarder versus Alabama on Sept. 1. Hall has carried six times for 23 yards in the first two contests.

FIRST-TIME PARTICIPANTS AND STARTERS

■ The Cardinals had to replace a number of starters and reserves from last year's squad so it was inevitable that there were going to be a number of Cardinals who have made their debuts this season. A total of 27 different players made their first appearance at Louisville. Here is a list of players who played in their first games at Louisville: Adonis Boone, Tutu Atwell, P.J. Mbanasor, Chandler Jones, Jatavious Harris, Rodjay Burns, Quen Head, Michael Boykin, Dejmi Dumervil-Jean, Keion Wakefield, Jared Goldwire, Malik Clark, Nick Okeke, P.J. Blue, Robert Hicks, Maurice Burkley, Boosie Whitlow, Jarrett Jackson, Anthony Johnson, Hassan Hall, Marlon Character, Javian Hawkins, Jordan Travis, Marcus Riley, Trennell Troutman and Telly Plummer.

■ Cornelius Sturghill, P.J. Mbanasor, Amonte Caban, Michael Boykin, Jared Goldwire, Jawon Pass, Trey Smith, and Linwood Foy each earned their first starts at Louisville versus Alabama. Mbanasor had two starts during his time at Oklahoma.

■ The Cardinals had eight first-time starters in the 31-7 win over Indiana State, four on each side of the football. On offense, Nathan Scheler, Devante Peete, TuTu Atwell, and Colin Wilson all started for the first time. Tabarius Peterson, Derek Dorsey, Rodjay Burns, and Chandler Jones were first-time starters on defense.

EXPERIENCE AMONG THE OFFENSIVE LINE

■ After the win over Western Kentucky, Louisville boasts 80 career starts among offensive linemen on the 2018 roster.

■ Senior guard Lukayus McNeil has started a team-high 36 games in which he has played during his four seasons at Louisville. He has a string of 17-straight starts on the offensive line.

■ The Cardinals have at least three returning starts at each position projected along the offensive line, except for the other tackle position alongside Mekhi Becton.

■ Guard Kenny Thomas has made 19 career starts, 2017 starting center Robbie Bell made 13 starts, Becton owns 13 career starts, and Cole Bentley has made six starts. Offensive tackle Linwood Foy has started the first three games of the 2018 campaign and center Nate Scheler has made the last two starts at center.

CUNNINGHAM CONTINUES TO PROVIDE SPARK OFF THE BENCH

■ Redshirt freshman quarterback Malik Cunningham has been quite the relief pitcher so far this season. In the last two games, Cunningham has guided the Cardinals to 44 points in picking up the last two victories. He's totaled 183 yards and one touchdown on the ground in the last two contests, while throwing for 163 yards and a score.

■ Entering the game in the second quarter with the Cardinals trailing 7-0, Cunningham rushed for 129 yards, averaging 6.1 yards per carry to spark the offense to a 20-17 win over Western Kentucky on Sept. 15. He became only the fourth quarterback to rush for 100 yards in a game, joining Benny Russell, Jim Wagoner and Lamar Jackson. It was the 19th highest single-game rushing total by a UofL quarterback.

■ The 6-foot-1 signal caller totaled 217 yards of total offense in the win over the Hilltoppers, and is second on the team with an average of 173.0 yards per contest. Cunningham is averaging 5.9 yards per play in his first two contests.

■ In the passing game, Cunningham was a solid 10 of 18 for 88 yards, including a 31-yard pass to Jaylen Smith. In the first two games, Cunningham is completing 64.0 percent of his passes, going 16 of 25 and has yet to throw his first interception.

■ The redshirt freshman quarterback has directed 11 drives, which has led to eight scores — five touchdowns and three field goals. In five possessions versus Indiana State on Sept. 8, Cunningham scored four times (3 TD, 1 FG) in five tries, and added four more tallies (2 TD, 2 FG) in the win over Western Kentucky on Sept. 15.

■ The native of Montgomery, Ala., leads the team in rushing with 183 yards and owns one of the team's four rushing touchdowns. Cunningham is averaging 5.5 yards per carry and is averaging 91.5 yards per game on the ground.

- Cunningham played 10:26 in the game and directed the Cardinals to four scores against Indiana State on Sept. 8 — three touchdowns and a field goal. He directed an offense that gained 194 yards in 24 plays, an average of 8.1 yards per play.

- Cunningham totaled 129 yards of total offense, rushing for 54 yards and throwing for 75. He went 6-of-7 throwing the football, including a 34-yard touchdown pass to Jaylen Smith.

SMITH RETURNS TO ACTION

- Running back Jeremy Smith decided to pursue a graduate transfer after last season to play his final year. However, Smith didn't find a landing spot and returned to Louisville a week before taking on Alabama. The Hammond, La., native didn't see time versus Alabama, but was a big contributor in Louisville's win against Indiana State on Sept. 8.

- The 6-foot-2, 225-pound back, who carried once for eight yards last season, rushed six times for 56 yards to lead the squad. He had the second-longest rush of the game with a 21-yard rush in the third quarter.

- A transfer from Fresno City Community College, Smith had big seasons in 2015 and 2016. He rushed for 270 yards and three touchdowns and added 382 yards and eight scores in 2016.

RUSHING GAME GETS ON TRACK

- After being limited to 16 yards on the ground in a loss to Alabama on Sept. 1, the Cardinals' vaunted rushing attack has returned to form over the last two games, running for 403 yards on 76 attempts, which is an average of 5.3 yards per carry. ■ The Cardinals rushed for 204 yards versus Western Kentucky on Sept. 15, the 20th time in 23 games, the Cardinals have run for over 200 yards in a game. Louisville averaged 5.4 yards per carry, including a game-long 21-yard run by Dae Williams.

- In the win over Indiana State, the Cardinals ran for 199 and two scores in the 31-7 win. The Cardinals averaged 5.2 yards per carry, including a team-high 9.3 yards by Jeremy Smith.

- Louisville had three players record 50 or more yards in the win over Indiana State. Running back Jeremy Smith, in his first game since the 2017, opener carried six times for 56 yards, while Malik Cunningham rushed 12 times for 54 yards and a one-yard touchdown. Colin Wilson notched a career best 52 yards on seven carries, including a game-high 26-yard run.

- The Cardinals, who averaged 245.1 yards rushing last season, are averaging 139.7 yards per game, which still ranks 98th nationally.

ALL-DAE

- Entering the game Western Kentucky game with seven yards on 10 carries, Dae Williams provided a spark to the running game in the 20-17 win over the Hilltoppers. Williams carried nine times for 58 yards and a pair of touchdowns. The Sapula, Oklahoma, native trimmed the WKU to 14-13 when he converted and fourth and goal from the one-yard line for his first touchdown this year. Williams put the Cardinals ahead for good with another one-yard plunge with 5:01 left in the game to make the score 20-17.

- Appearing in six games last year after coming off a knee injury, Williams rushed 38 times for 235 yards and three touchdowns. The 228-pound back has rushed for 300 yards and five touchdowns in nine career games and averages a healthy 5.2 yards per rush.

SLOW STARTERS

- Louisville might need a better wake-up call after being outscored by a large margin in the first two quarters to start the season. Opponents have dominated the Cardinals in the first two quarters by a score of 49-10. The opposition holds a 28-7 advantage in the first quarter.

- The second half has been a different story as the Cardinals have rallied two second-half victories in the last two contests. In the second half this season, the Cardinals hold a 55-26 advantage, including a 38-10 mark in the fourth quarter.

- The Cardinals tallied 17 fourth-quarter points versus Indiana State on Sept. 8 and added 14 more in the win over Western Kentucky on Sept. 15.

PEETE CHIMES IN

- Injuries have slowed the promising career of junior wide receiver Devante Peete, but the Pompano Beach, Fla., product might be finding his stride in 2018. Entering the season with only 15 catches for 226 yards and one score, Peete has shown promising production in the first two games.

- The 6-foot-6 wideout is tied for third on the team with six receptions for 64 yards in the first two contests. He's averaging 10.7 yards per reception, including a season-high 15-yarder versus Indiana State.

- In the win over the Sycamores, Peete led the Cardinals with three receptions for 32 yards in the 31-7 win. It was the most receptions in a game since he totaled three for 60 yards in the 2015 season opener versus Auburn.

COULD DAWKINS MAKE BIGGER JUMP IN 2018

- The Cardinals are deep and talented at wide receiver, but one that could make a bigger jump in his third season is junior Seth Dawkins. The Columbus, Ohio, native has caught 59 passes for 929 yards and five touchdowns in 27 career games after recording one reception for 16 yards in the win over Western Kentucky.

- Dawkins had the Cardinals' longest reception of the season when he broke free for a 47-yard reception versus Alabama on Sept. 1. He is tied for the team lead with six receptions for 96 yards and is second on the team with a 16.0 yards per catch

■ After catching 11 passes as a true freshman in 2016, Dawkins grabbed a career-high 42 receptions for 642 yards and four scores. He averaged 15.3 yards per reception — finishing third with 10 receptions of over 25 yards.

■ Dawkins has caught a pass in 18-straight games dating back to the 2016 season, which is the highest mark on the team. The true junior caught a personal-high five passes for 133 yards and one score — a career-long 65-yard catch on the road versus NC State. The 6-foot-3 wideout tallied three games with five receptions and four other contests with four catches.

LAW FIRM OF DAWKINS AND SMITH

■ Louisville isn't receiving the production it normally collects from its talented group of wide receivers, but the talented duo of Seth Dawkins and Jaylen Smith continue to produce. The two have combined to catch 12 passes for 194 yards and one touchdown. While they haven't recorded the number of receptions they are used to, they are picking up big chunks of yardage.

■ The two wide outs are both averaging better than 16.0 yards a receptions, with Smith leading the way at 16.3 and Dawkins is next at 16.0 yards per catch.

■ Smith, who leads the team with three catches of 20 or more yards, is tied for the team lead with six catches for 98 yards, including a 34-yard touchdown.

■ Dawkins, a native of Columbus, Ohio, also has six catches for 96 yards and has one play of over 20 yards.

SMITH SURPASSES 2,000 YARDS

■ Senior wide receiver Jaylen Smith is one the nation's top wide receivers after missing a 1,000-yard season a year ago. Despite missing three games last year, Smith caught 60 passes for 980 yards and seven touchdowns, while averaging 16.3 yards per catch. A first-team all-ACC performer, Smith totaled four 100-yard receiving games, recording a career-high nine receptions for 183 yards and one touchdown in a 47-35 win over North Carolina. The Pascagoula, Miss., native opened the year with 117 yards on eight receptions versus Purdue, caught six passes for 118 yards in a loss to Boston College, and ended the year with 107 yards in a loss to Mississippi State.

■ In 39 career games, Smith has caught 120 passes for 2,053 yards and 15 touchdowns. With 38 yards versus Western Kentucky, Smith moved to 10th in school history in receiving yards. He needs 143 yards to surpass Joshua Tinch for ninth place on the school's all-time receiving yards list.

■ Smith, a 6-foot-4 senior, caught a 34-yard touchdown pass versus Indiana State on Sept. 8 in the fourth quarter to give him 15 for his career, tying him for ninth on the school's career list for touchdown receptions. He needs one more to tie Mario Urrutia (2005-07) for eight on the school's career list.

■ With five career 100-yard receiving games, Smith needs one more to move into a tie with Jamie Asher for 10th place on the school's all-time list.

200 IS NEARLY A LOCK

■ Under head coach Bobby Petrino, the Cardinals have been almost unbeatable when rushing for more than 200 yards in a game. The Cardinals have totaled more than 200 yards on the ground in 56 games, posting a remarkable 50-6 record in those games. Louisville rushed for 204 yards versus Western Kentucky on Sept. 15.

■ Louisville was 6-1 last season when rushing for over 200 yards in a game when they set the school record for rushing yards with 3,145 and finished 15th nationally.

■ Since returning in 2014, the Cardinals have amassed a 23-4 mark when picking up more than 200 yards on the ground.

■ In his first stint with the Cardinals from 2003-06, Petrino's squad went 27-2 when hitting the mark. The Cardinals ranked 12th in 2006, eighth in 2004 and 10th in 2003 on the ground.

50-POINT GAMES

■ Louisville has scored 50+ points eight times in the last two seasons under head coach Bobby Petrino.

■ Louisville's 8-0 in those games. The school's previous record for 50-point games was 11 — coming during the 2004 and 2005 campaigns — which also came under Petrino.

■ Five of those eight 50+ points games came versus ACC opponents — 63 versus Florida State and 62 against Syracuse.

■ Prior to the 2016 season, the Cardinals produced only five 50+ games from 2007-2014.

SPREAD THE FOOTBALL AROUND

■ Through the first three games, the Cardinals leading pass catcher has only six catches, but more important, is the number of receivers that have caught passes thus far in 2018. A total of 12 players have combined to catch the 44 passes this season, including five different players with five or more catches.

■ UofL quarterbacks found eight different receivers in the season opener versus Alabama and came back to connect with eight receivers last Saturday versus Indiana State.

■ Seth Dawkins and Jaylen Smith are the two top receivers with six catches after the first three contests.

THIRD DOWN ISSUES

■ To be a consistent football team, the Cardinals have to improve on third down, both offensively and defensively. On offense last week, the Cardinals were 2 of 11 in the 20-17 victory over Western Kentucky. Through three games, the Cardinals are 11 of 37 for a 29.7 conversion rate. Louisville stands 119th nationally and 12th in the ACC.

■ While the Cardinals have struggled on third down offensively, the problems are bigger on the defensive side of the football. Louisville is allowing the opposition to convert at a 46.9 clip, which ranks 116th in the country.

■ Western Kentucky was 9 of 17 on third down last week in the 20-17 win at Cardinals Stadium.

NO PASSING

■ The Cardinals need to get their potent passing game going in 2018. After three games, the Cardinals are averaging just 168.0 yards through the air after passing for 88 yards in the win over Western Kentucky. Louisville completed 10 of 21 passes and are 44 of 82 (53.7) for the season.

■ Louisville won with 88 yards passing, its lowest passing total in a win since beating Southern Miss 21-17 on Sept. 29, 2012, with 85 yards passing in a rain storm in Hattiesburg.

■ Louisville also won its first game without a touch-down pass since beating Boston College 17-14 on Oct. 24, 2015.

■ The Cardinals passing offense is ranked 112th in the nation.

CREQUE CLIMBING THE CHARTS

■ Junior Blanton Creque continues to climb up the career charts and becoming one of the best kickers in the history of the school.

■ Creque connected on two field goals, both from 23 yards in the 20-17 win over Western Kentucky. The Shelbyville, Kentucky, native boosted his career field goal total to 36, matching Ron Bell (1987-90) for fourth on the school's list.

■ Creque is 3 for 3 on field goal attempts this season — one of 26 kickers in the country to be perfect this season.

■ The left-footed kicker who also made a pair of extra points, now owns 213 career points. He is three points shy of tying David Akers (1993-96) for fourth.

■ Connecting on two field goals in the win over Western Kentucky, Creque improved to 36-of-41 on field goal attempts for his career. Creque is the school's career leader in field goal percentage, making kicks at an 87.8 percent clip.

■ Creque is 6-of-9 on field goals of longer than 40 yards in his career, including a career long 48-yarder versus NC State last year. Creque is 30-of-33 inside of 40 yards in his third season as the team's kicker.

■ Last season, the 5-foot-11 left-footed kicker was 17-of-20 on field goal attempts and 58-of-59 on points-after-conversion last season. The 17 field goals were the third-best total in a single-season.

■ Creque scored 109 points last season, which is the fourth-most in school history and stands fifth in the school annals with 198 career points.

■ Creque had made 14-straight field goals dating back to last season, which was tied for the second-longest streak (Art Carmody) in school history before missing a field goal at FSU. Art Carmody owns the longest streak in school history by connecting on 16-straight during the 2006 season and he also hit 14 from Oct. 1, 2005 to Sept. 3, 2006.

■ As a redshirt freshman last season, Creque booted 16-of-19 field goals, which was tied for the third-most on the school's single-season list.

■ Creque is 105-of-107 on PATs for his career, which is the sixth-most made in school history.

STAYING OR GOING

■ The Cardinals are having problems staying on the field and getting the defense off the field through the first three games. UofL ranks 103rd nationally in time of possession with an average of 27:26. The Cardinals held the football for just 24:36 in the win over Western Kentucky last weekend.

■ On the flip side, the defense is having their problems getting off the field, especially last Saturday against Western Kentucky. Louisville is on the field for an average of 32:54 .. The Cardinals were on the field for 35:24 seconds in the win over the Hilltoppers last Saturday.

■ Hicks is the first freshman to total double-digit tackles since that game versus Syracuse last year.

HICKS' IMPRESSIVE FIRST START

■ True freshman Robert Hicks had to step in a the middle linebacker position with the injury to Dorian Etheridge. Hicks made the most his first career start by leading the Cardinals' defense with 11 tackles.

■ Hicks is the first true freshman to lead the team in tackles since Dorian Etheridge versus Syracuse on Nov. 18, 2017.

■ Hicks is the first freshman to total double-digit tackles since that game versus Syracuse last year.

KING SECOND IN THE ACC

■ After two years of not having enough work to qualify for the national rankings, junior punter Mason King can't complain about not being used enough in the first three games. The former St. Xavier product has punted 19 times. He tied a career high with eight punts and posted a solid 43.2 average, with one punt going 58 yards versus Alabama. In a driving rainstorm last week-end versus Indiana State, King was used six times for a 46.5 yard average, including a career long 64-yard punt.

■ He stands 24th nationally in punting average and leads the ACC with a 43.6 average after three weeks. He ranks ninth nationally with an average of 6.3 punts per game and 276.0 yards per contest.

■ Of his 19 punts, three have been over 50+ yards, five have landed inside the opposition's 20-yard line and seven have been fair caught.

■ The Louisville native has set the school record in consecutive years for punting average in a season at 43.9 yards per punt. Last year, King punted just 43 times, which would have ranked in the top 25 nationally, but didn't qualify based on the minimum requirements.

■ King was one of the best, helping the Cardinals finish 26th nationally in net punting at 40.1 yards per punt. In 2017, He recorded 10 boots of 50 or more yards and had four games with two of them, while adding 14 during the 2016 campaign. That same season, almost half of his punts were fair caught and 16 landed inside the opposition's 20-yard line.

■ The St. Xavier product was named the Ray Guy Award Punter of the Week by the Augusta Sports Council for his outstanding performance in the win over Indiana State. King averaged 46.5 yards per punt on six punts and pinned Indiana State inside their own 20-yard line three times. He set his career-best mark with a 64-yard punt in the second quarter that forced the Sycamores to start a drive at its own 15-yard line.

GOLDWIRE LOOKS FOR ANOTHER START

■ In the offseason, the Cardinals went looking for defensive linemen due to losses at that position, and found a good one in sophomore Jared Goldwire. A three-star recruit out of Fort Scott Community College, Goldwire signed in December and reported to Louisville in January. He was rated the No. 9 defensive tackle and the No. 33 overall player.

■ Goldwire's signing certainly paid off last Saturday in the win over Western Kentucky. Making his second career start, the Tacoma, Washington, native recorded a season-high five tackles, but made the play of the game in the third quarter.

■ With Western Kentucky holding the 14-6 lead, the Hilltoppers went on a 14-play drive and lined up for a field goal to extend the lead to two scores. Goldwire blocked the field goal and set up the Cardinals for a short touchdown.

■ Goldwire has nine tackles and one tackle for loss in three games for the Cardinals.

TRUE FRESHMAN DOMINATING

■ Freshman defensive lineman Jarrett Jackson has been one of the team's most productive rookies to start the season. Through the first three games, the Palm Beach Gardens, Fla., native is tied for sixth on the team in tackles with 12 and is tied for the team lead with a pair of sacks.

■ Coming off the bench last week versus Indiana State, Jackson recorded four tackles, picked up his first career sack, and forced a fumble in the 31-7 win over the Sycamores.

POWER FIVE TRANSFERS BOLSTER SECONDARY

■ The Cardinals have rebuilt their secondary after the loss of four starters, and a pair of transfers in cornerbacks P.J. Mbanasor and Rodjay Burns have helped that process.

■ Mbanasor, a native of Pflugerville, Texas, is tied for sixth on the team in tackles with 12 after the first three games. Making his first start versus Alabama on Sept. 1, Mbanasor led the Cardinals in tackles with nine — the most in his career.

■ A transfer from Ohio State, Burns made his first start versus Indiana State on Sept. 8 and tied for sixth on the squad in tackles with 12. After three games, Burns has made a pair of starts and is third on the squad with 1.5 tackles for loss.

VIRGINIA CAVALIERS

Virginia took advantage of early scoring opportunities and remained in control for a 45-31 win over Ohio (1-1) in Nashville at Vanderbilt Stadium in a game that was relocated due to Hurricane Florence. The Cavaliers scored two quick touchdowns after a fumble recovery led to the opening touchdown by running back Jordan Ellis (Suwanee, Ga.) then quarterback Bryce Perkins (Queen Creek, Ariz.) found Olamide Zaccheaus (Plainfield, N.J.) for a 76-yard touchdown reception. UVA scored three straight touchdowns following Ohio's first score of the game to take a 35-7 advantage with 2:52 to go in the first half. Ohio picked up a UVA fumble then scored, and followed that with an on-side kick that resulted in a touchdown to make it 35-21 at the half. Ohio cut it to as close as 10, but Virginia never relinquished the lead. Virginia started the game with three one-play scoring drives in the first quarter. The Cavaliers also finished with three scoring plays over 75 yards. Ellis ran for a 75-yard touchdown rush, while Zaccheaus had touchdown receptions of 86 yards and 77 yards.

SERIES WITH VIRGINIA

Louisville is 4-2 all-time against Virginia in a series that dates back to 1988 — a 30-28 win in Louisville over the Cavaliers. Since joining the ACC in 2014, the Cardinals are 3-1 against the Cavaliers, splitting the two meetings in Charlottesville. The Cavalier win 23-21 in 2014, and the Cardinals came back in the final seconds in 2016 to win 32-25. Last season, the Cardinals dominated the Cavaliers 38-21 behind five receptions for 84 yards and two touchdowns by wide receiver Jaylen Smith.

ABOUT VIRGINIA FOOTBALL

The Cavaliers, members of the Atlantic Coast Conference since 1953, have an all-time record of 649-595-48, while playing in 19 bowl games. The Cavaliers under Bronco Mendenhall reached the post-season last season for the first time. Former Virginia head coach George Welsh ranks second for most wins in ACC history behind Bobby Bowden of Florida State and is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame.

HEAD COACH BOBBY PETRINO

Bobby Petrino, in his ninth season at Louisville, is one of the most accomplished head coaches in the school's storied history, leading a program that has transformed itself into one of the nation's perennial powers.

Petrino has won a pair of conference championships (2004 and 2006), advanced to the postseason eight times, more than any UofL head coach, and is tied for the most bowl wins (three). The second-winningest coach in school history, trailing only Frank Camp, Petrino owns a 77-28 (.733) record at Louisville since his arrival in 2003. He ranks first in program history in conference winning percentage (.653, 66-35 record, minimum 10 games), home wins (40), AP Top 25 victories (7), and AP Top 25 finishes (five). His program has hosted ESPN's College GameDay on two occasions (vs. Florida State, 2016 vs. Clemson, 2017).

The Helena, Mont., native is in his 31st year of collegiate coaching, including his 14th as a head coach and 10th in Louisville (served as the Cardinals' offensive coordinator in 1998). He owns a career record of 119-49 (.708) in 13 seasons.

The 57-year-old Petrino has helped Louisville maintain its notoriety in the national landscape, as the Cardinals have secured top-25 finishes in five of his eight seasons. Petrino directed the program to a No. 6 final ranking in the Associated Press poll in 2004 and 2006, making him the only coach in program history to achieve that feat.

Known as an offensive mastermind, Petrino's teams have consistently ranked in the top 10 nationally in numerous offensive categories. In eight seasons, he has guided his offensive units to six finishes in top 10 - leading the country in 2000, ending the year second in 2006, and consecutive third-place finishes in 2016 and 2017.

Scoring has never been a problem in Petrino's reign, totaling three finishes in the top five nationally in scoring offense. Petrino's 2004 team, which finished 11-1, led the country in scoring at 49.8 points per game.

Petrino's ability to develop NFL talent has been a trademark of his illustrious career — producing 34 NFL Draft selections, including four in the first round. The 2015 draft saw the Cardinals produce a school-record 10 selections, including the No. 14 pick in wide receiver DeVante Parker.

Over the last two seasons, Petrino has directed the most explosive offensive seasons in school history with the program's first Heisman Trophy winner, two-time finalist Lamar Jackson. With Jackson leading the offense, the Cardinals set six school records in 2017, most notably the most total yards of offense, rushing yards, yards per carry and yards per play.

In 2017, Jackson rewrote the UofL record book and took hold of the Atlantic Coast Conference annals as well. He became the school's all-time leading rusher and is the first player in school history to rush for over 1,300 yards in consecutive seasons. He is only the second player in NCAA history to pass for more than 9,000 yards and rush for over 4,000 in a career.

In posting an 8-5 record, the Cardinals scored over 30 points in 10 games, while totaling over 500 yards of offense on eight different occasions.

Sprinting out to a 9-1 start and jumping up to No. 3 in the country, the 2016 season started off as one to remember. ESPN College GameDay made its first appearance at Cardinal Stadium, the Cardinals had a huge win over No. 2 Florida State and were ranked as high as No. 3 in the country and 5th in the College Football Playoff Rankings.

Petrino conducted one of the best coaching jobs of his career in 2015. He guided the Cardinals to eight wins over their final 10 games, including a 27-21 victory over Texas A&M in the Music City Bowl. Jackson set a bowl record with 226 yards rushing and two touchdowns, while the Cardinals totaled 534 yards of total offense, including 307 on the ground.

Petrino transitioned the program into the ACC in 2014, guiding the Cardinals to a 9-4 record that included a win over Miami in the school's first ACC contest and a three-game winning streak to close the regular season. Louisville also earned a win at Notre Dame and a come-from-behind victory over in-state rival Kentucky.

The only head coach to serve two stints with the Cardinals (2003-06, 2014-present), Petrino has the second-most victories in the school's record books. Under his direction, the Cardinals have posted two 11-win seasons and have won seven or more games in each of his years as head coach. His first stint at Louisville boasted 41 wins over a four-year span.

Cardinal Stadium already boasts some of the finest amenities to be considered one of the elite college football venues in the country.

Built in 1998, Louisville's home recently finished a $63.25-million renovation to expand the north end zone – closing off the stadium – and enhancing the Howard Schnellenberger Football Complex. The project is scheduled to be completed in time for the September home opener.

Upon conclusion of the 2016 campaign, crews began construction and the first noticeable phase of the project will be the seating structure for the interior bowl.

Approximately 6,000 additional seats were added with the expansion, creating a unique look in the end zone structure and increasing the total seating capacity to over 60,800. The construction also provides an additional 25,000 square feet of space.

The expansion also includes about 900 modern club seats, 65 premium loge level boxes, and two exclusive field level suites. The club seats will have access to a premier gathering area that will provide viewing access to the field. Fans in that area will have an exclusive view to the players, who will be running onto the gridiron from a middle of the field level entrance after exiting the football complex through a tunnel.

On Jan. 1, 2018, renovations began on the football complex, which includes dramatic changes to the training areas and improving the overall student-athlete experience. An additional 100,000 square feet will allow the team's weight room and conditioning center to double in size, creating space for team workouts, conditioning, and an enhanced athletic training space equipped with a state-of-the-art hydrotherapy area.

A luxurious and spacious players' lounge, improvements for coaches' offices and the team locker room, and expansive theatre-style meeting areas also will be among the major improvements.

Cardinal Stadium, which first opened in 1998, featured a capacity of 42,000 and was expanded in 2010 to the present capacity of 55,000. In the last expansion, approximately 12,000 additional chairback seats were added to a second deck on the east side of the stadium in the UPS Flight Deck. The project included 33 new luxury suites on the Stites & Harbison Suite Level and 2,000 premium loge seats were added to the east side.

A 60-foot wide Norton's Terrace was constructed at the top of the south end zone, connecting the east and west sides of the stadium. Also included in the previous expansion was the PNC Club, a 20,000-square-foot, glass-enclosed area that stretches from end zone to end zone at the loge level on the east side of the stadium.

The temperature-controlled club features a full-service bar, concessions, large-screen televisions, lounge seating and tables. It also has more than 1,700 outdoor seats under cover with heaters and fans.

In addition to being available during football games, the PNC Club is used for other community and campus events throughout the year.

Still in place from the original construction, the impressive Brown and Williamson Club highlights the stadium's west side. The space extends the length of the football field and contains 28 suites. It has served as host to numerous banquets and parties.

Since 1998, the Cardinals are 96-32 at home and compiled a school record 20-game-home winning streak, which was snapped in 2007.

Stadium Facts

Stadium Record

The Cardinals are 96-32 all-time at home.

Seating Capacity

Built in 1998, stadium capacity is currently at approximately 60,800, including suites.

Playing Field

Louisville switched from natural grass to Field Turf for the 2003 season and was replaced again in 2014.

Card March

Fans are encouraged to meet the team when the Cardinals arrive for Card March, approximately 2:15 prior to kickoff. The team buses will arrive at Denny Crum Overpass and will unload and walk down the stairs. The players and coaches will make their way through the crowd behind the marching band and cheerleaders before entering the stadium.

GAME 2 ■ SEPT. 8 ■ LOUISVILLE, KY. ■ CARDINAL STADIUM

Post-Game Notes

- The Cardinals are 7-2 in home openers under head coach Bobby Petrino.
- All-time, the Cardinals are 65-32-3 in their home openers.
- Louisville has won 20-straight games against FCS opponents, including a 4-0 record under Petrino.
- The game lasted 5 hours and 35 minutes for the longest contest in program history.
- It is the first time in five years that Louisville has shut out a team in the last three quarters of a game (USF, Oct. 26, 2013).
- Rodjay Burns' 55-yard punt return TD is Louisville's first punt return TD since Jaire Alexander had one versus Florida State on Sept. 17, 2016.
- Mekhi Becton is the first offensive lineman to score a touchdown for Louisville since Kurt Quarterman in 2006.
