ACC OPENING WEEK HIGHLIGHTS

- The ACC is featured prominently in week one of the college football season, including the first football game on ACC Network between Georgia Tech and Clemson, the Chick-fil-A Kickoff Game in Atlanta between Duke and No. 2 Alabama, three conference games and the league's traditional Labor Day Monday
- The ACC has arguably the most challenging opening slate (weeks 0/1) of any Power 5 conference. It is the only conference with all of its teams facing FBS competition in weeks 0/1. Ten ACC teams open against Power 5 competition, while the other four face teams from a group of five conference or an independent. All but two ACC teams face an opponent that made a bowl appearance last year.
- Last year's combined record of the ACC's eight non-conference opponents in weeks 0/1 is 73-31. Five of the ACC's opening-week non-conference opponents won at least 10 games last season, finishing a combined 57-10.
- Three ACC-SEC matchups are included in the first slate of games: Duke vs. Alabama in the Chick-fil-A Kickoff Game in Atlanta, Georgia; North Carolina vs. South Carolina in the Belk College Kickoff in Charlotte, North Carolina; and last Saturday's Miami vs. Florida in the Camping World Kickoff in Orlando, Florida.

THREE CONFERENCE GAMES IN WEEK ONE

■ For the first time since 2005, the opening week features three conference games. Clemson plays host to Georgia Tech on Thursday, Aug. 29. On Saturday, Aug. 31, Virginia Tech plays at Boston College and Virginia plays at Pitt. This is just the fourth time since 1990 that the ACC opening week schedule has featured three conference matchups.

ALL ACC WATCH PARTY: NOTRE DAME AT LOUIS-

■ On Labor Day (Monday, Sept. 2), fans will have the opportunity to watch Notre Dame at Louisville (8 p.m., on ESPN) with Fighting Irish and Cardinals alumni Jac Collinsworth (Notre Dame), Mike Golic Jr. (Notre Dame) and Eric Wood (Louisville) in the ACCN studio in Bristol. The group will provide in-depth analysis and reaction throughout the game.

AROUND THE ACC

- Boston College (BCeagles.com): For the second time under head coach Steve Addazio, Boston College opens the season against an ACC opponent when Virginia Tech visits Chestnut Hill this Saturday Addazio enters his seventh season at the Heights and is 5-1 in season openers. The lone loss in a season opener under Addazio was in 2016 in Ireland to Georgia Tech.
- Clemson (ClemsonTigers.com): Clemson will honor its 2018 national championship victory with signage on the south side of Memorial Stadium prior to the Georgia Tech game. This is the earliest Clemson has ever opened the season and it's the first time the Tigers have played their ACC opener at home since 2011.
- Duke (GoDuke.com): Duke faces what many observers are calling one of the most difficult schedules of the 2019 season. Two of Duke's four non-conference opponents made the CFP last season Alabama (Aug. 31) and Notre Dame (Nov. 9).
- Florida State (Seminoles.com): Florida State head coach Willie Taggart announced that James Blackman, a redshirt sophomore with 13 games of starting experience, will be the Seminoles' quarterback when they open the season against Boise State on August 31.
- Georgia Tech (RamblinWreck.com): Georgia Tech is opening the season with a conference game for only the sixth time since beginning ACC play in 1983. The Yellow Jackets are 4-2 all-time when opening the season against an ACC foe.
- Louisville (GoCards.com): Scott Satterfield makes his Louisville debut on Monday night by playing host to No. 9 Notre Dame. This is the second straight season the Cardinals have opened the year against a top 10 opponent (No. 1 Alabama in 2018).
- Miami (HurricaneSports.com): After falling to No. 8 Florida, the Hurricanes have an off week before traveling to Chapel Hill on Sept. 7 to face the Tar Heels at 8 p.m. on ACCN.
- North Carolina (GoHeels.com): Head coach Mack Brown is back on the sidelines at North Carolina for the first time in 21 years, nine months and 10 days, or 7,953 days when UNC takes on South Carolina Aug. 31. Based on available records, true freshman Sam Howell will be the first true freshman to start a season opener at Carolina in the program's history.
- NC State (GoPack.com): NC State has won its last nine home openers, including all six under head coach Dave Doeren. Under Doeren, the Pack has outscored its foes 37.0-17.5 (222-105) in those six contests, and has not yielded more than 23 points in a home opener. The Wolfpack's 11 ACC wins in the past two seasons ranks second in the league. Doeren named redshirt sophomore Matthew McKay as the starting QB vs. ECU. It will be his first career start.

Pitt (PittsburghPanthers.com): Defending ACC Coastal

Division champion Pitt faces 2019 preseason Coastal pick Virginia in the season opener at Heinz Field. Pitt coach Pat Narduzzi is undefeated (4-0) against the Cavaliers during his tenure.

- Syracuse (Cuse.com): Syracuse is beginning a campaign ranked in the national polls for the first time since QB Donovan McNabb was a senior in 1998. The Orange are No. 22 in both the preseason AP Top 25 and Amway Coaches Poll
- Virginia (VirginiaSports.com): UVA's season opener also serves as its ACC opener for the 18th time in program history. The last time this happened was 2003 (vs. Duke). This is the third time UVA has opened ACC play against Pitt since the Panthers joined the league in 2013. UVA also opened up 2013 and 2015 ACC play at Heinz Field against the Panthers.
- Virginia Tech (HokieSports.com): Virginia Tech opens the season on the road against an ACC foe for the second consecutive year as the Hokies visit Boston College (8/31). Tech will begin the season against the Eagles for the first time since 1995.
- Wake Forest (GoDeacs.com): Wake Forest led the nation last year with an average of 82.1 plays per contest. Under sixth-year head coach Dave Clawson, the Deacons have won a program-best three consecutive bowl games. The Deacons play three consecutive Friday night games to start the season.

CLEMSON, VIRGINIA FAVORED IN ACC PRESEASON Poli

- Reigning national champion Clemson is an overwhelming preseason favorite to claim its fifth consecutive ACC football title, according to a poll of 173 media members credentialed for the 2019 ACC Kickoff in Charlotte, North Carolina. The Tigers, who posted a perfect 15-0 record last season en route to earning their second CFP championship in three years, were also chosen to repeat as Atlantic Division winners. Virginia was picked to finish atop the Coastal Division following an eight-win 2018 season that culminated with a 28-0 shutout of South Carolina in the Belk Bowl.
- Clemson was named the likely 2019 ACC champion on 170 ballots. Syracuse picked up two votes, and Virginia received one.

Since 2013, the ACC has the second-best record of any Power 5 conference in the BCS, New Year's Six and CFP games, and has the most national championships (Florida State in 2013, Clemson in 2016 & 2018).

The ACC's 19 postseason wins over the last three (2016-18) years are the most of any conference.

A league-record 10 ACC teams were ranked last year in the AP Top 25 poll, including Boston College, Clemson, Duke, Florida State, Miami, NC State, Pitt, Syracuse, Virginia and Virginia Tech. The previous ACC record for most teams ranked in a season was nine in 2008. The 10 ranked teams are tied for most among all conferences.

An ACC football player has won the Heisman Trophy or the Campbell Trophy – commonly referred to as the "Academic Heisman" – in five of the last six years, something no other league can claim. Clemson DT Christian Wilkins won the Campbell Trophy last year. He is the second consecutive winner from the ACC

In 2019, ACC teams will play more games (20) against Power 5 competition (including Notre Dame) than any of their peers.

This year, ACC teams will play more games against non-conference teams (16) ranked in last year's final Associated Press Top 25 than any other Power 5 conference.

ACC teams will play 26 games against non-conference opponents that participated in bowl games in 2018, the highest total among Power 5 conferences.

The ACC is in its sixth year of a 12-year agreement with the Capital One Orange Bowl, which will host an ACC team—either its champion or next available team—in all years when the Orange Bowl is not a semifinal site for the College Football Playoff. The opponent will be the highest ranked available team from the SEC, Big Ten or Notre Dame.

Eleven ACC football teams have an APR higher than the Division I average of 968, which ties for most among peer conferences. In all sports, the ACC leads all Power 5 conferences with 95 teams from member schools recognized in the most recent NCAA APR Public Recognition Awards.

Ten of 14 ACC Football teams earned a graduation success rate (GSR) at or above the FBS average. That was second-most among Power 5 conferences, both in terms of percentage and in total number.

The ACC remains the only Power 5 conference to have multiple teams score 90 or higher in GSR each year since 2005. Duke (96), Wake Forest (93) and Boston College (90) reached that plateau last year.

In its 2018 U.S. News and World "Best Colleges" rankings, ACC member schools combine for an average rank of 54.7, marking the 12th straight year that the ACC has led all Power 5 conferences.

ACC DIVISIONAL TIEBREAKER

If more than one team in the same division is tied for the best winning percentage in its Conference games, the procedures listed below will be followed to determine the division's representative in the Dr Pepper ACC Championship Game:

Two-Team Tie:

- 1. Head-to-head competition between the two tied teams.
- 2. Win percentage of the tied teams within the divi-
- 3. Head-to-head competition versus the team within the division with the best overall win percentage. (Divisional and non-divisional) and proceeding through the division. Multiple ties within the division will be broken from first-to-last using the league's tiebreaking procedures.
- 4. Overall win percentage versus all common non-divisional opponents.
- 5. Combined win percentage vs. all non-divisional opponents.
- 6. Win percentage versus common non-divisional opponents based on their order of finish (overall conference win percentage) and proceeding through other common non-divisional teams based upon their divisional order of finish.
- 7. The tied team with the higher ranking by the Team Rating Score metric provided by SportSource Analytics following the conclusion of regular season games.
- 8. The representative shall be chosen by a draw as administered by the Commissioner or the Commissioner's designee.

Three-Team (or More) Team Tie

(Once a team is eliminated from the tie, the tie-breaker procedures restart for the remaining teams. If the three (or more) team tie can be reduced to two teams, the two-team tiebreaker format will then be applied.)

- 1. Combined head-to-head win percentage among the tied teams.
- 2. Win percentage of the tied teams within the divi-
- 3. Head-to-head competition versus the team within the division with the best overall (divisional and non-divisional) Conference win percentage, and proceeding through the division. Multiple ties within the division will be broken first to last, using the league's tie-breaker policies.
- 4. Combined win percentage versus all common non-divisional opponents.
- Overall win percentage versus non-divisional opponents.
- 6. Win percentage versus common non-divisional opponents based upon their order of finish (overall win percentage) and proceeding through other common non-divisional opponents based upon their divisional order of finish.
- 7. The tied team with the higher ranking by the Team Rating Score metric provided by SportSource Analytics following the conclusion of regular season games.
- 8. The representative shall be chosen by a draw as administered by the Commissioner or the Commissioner's designee.
