#GOHOOS: BY THE NUMBERS

1

Michael Kraus needs one assist to become the fourth Cavalier with 100+ career goals and 100+ career assists. He would be the 10th in ACC history.

5

UVA opens the 2020 season with five home games in a row. Saturday's game is No. 2 of five in a row to be played at Klöckner Stadium to start the year.

6

UVA has led the nation in ground balls in six of the last 11 seasons, including three in a row (2017-18-19).

50

Michael Kraus has at least one point in all 50 career games he has appeared in. The active streak is tied for No. 2 in the nation.

COVERING THE CAVALIERS

UNIQUELY UVA

The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to UVA's culture.

Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the University dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.

First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why you may ask? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process.

Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES

Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."

Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.

Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos" during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general use around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

THE CAVALIER MASCOT

The costumed Cavalier with a large character head debuted during Virginia's 1984 football season and has remained the official mascot of the University.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.

One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

WAH-HOO-WAH

The origin of "Wah-hoo-wah" is uncertain. The cheer was used to root on Virginia teams as early as 1890 and may have been borrowed from Dartmouth College, whose athletics teams were once known as the Indians.

Legend attributes the yell to Natalie Floyd Otey, who sang the ballad "Where'er You Are, There Shall My Love Be" at Charlottesville's Levy Opera House in 1893. The predominantly student audience noticed that Otey warbled the first three words of the song between each of the stanzas and decided to join in the refrain. By evening's end, goes the legend, the crowd had corrupted "Where'er You Are" into "Wah-hoo-wah."

The Levy Opera House stands at the corner of High Street and Park Street and has since been renovated into an office building.

Game 1Virginia 12, Loyola 9*Feb. 8 • Charlottesville, Va.

The No. 1 Virginia Cavaliers used a strong first half to outlast the No. 14 Loyola Greyhounds, 12-9, at Klöckner Stadium.

Cavalier goalie Alex Rode tied his career high with 19 saves, including 13 in the first half as Virginia built a 9-3 heading into intermission.

HOW IT HAPPENED

UVA opened the game on a 4-1 run in the first quarter, netting goals by Ian Laviano, Matt Moore and two from Payton Cormier. Moore's unassisted score at 3:16 in the first capped the run. After Loyola scored an extra-man goal at 13:42 by Adam Poitras, via a Aidan Olmstead helper, The Cavaliers reeled off five-straight goals, taking a commanding 9-2 lead.

Peter Garno started the spurt with his first collegiate goal, while Moore scored two more goals and assisted another. Michael Bienkowski capped the run on a Laviano assist. The seven-goal UVA lead was insurmountable for the Greyhounds, despite finishing the game on a 7-3 streak

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"I loved how physical we played today. We came out with really good energy. We probably had too many penalties because of that physicality and energy, but that's the style of lacrosse we want to play and we just have to rely on our man-down defense to be solid. We did a decent job man-down today, but boy, the guy behind us [Alex Rode] is who bailed us out and allowed us to breathe a little better with Alex Rode being such a wall in the cage. Seeing an extension of what he did last May, and we've seen that in practice and throughout the scrimmages, and it was really wonderful to see that come to fruition in the first game of 2020. Offensively you can see how we can go on big runs. Certainly not happy with how we played lacrosse in the second half offensively. Give credit to Loyola's zone defense and their goalie play, but I thought we became a little tight and we have to make sure we aren't going a little shorter with our possessions and that we're playing a little more free and looser." – Lars Tiffany
