Three-Time Atlantic 10 Champions - 1996, 2014, 2016

RAMS ADVANCE TO SECOND ROUND OF NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP FOR FIRST TIME: For the third time in four seasons, the Fordham men's soccer team is once again in the NCAA Championship. After receiving the Atlantic 10's automatic bid in 2014 and 2016, the Rams received an at-large berth for the first time in program history, after finishing the year at 12-5-2 overall with an NCAA RPI ranking of 26.

However, unlike 2014 and 2016, the Rams got a monkey off their back, getting the program's first-ever NCAA win on Thursday night by defeating St. Francis Brooklyn, 3-2, in overtime at Fordham's Jack Coffey Field.

The Rams received goals from Jannik Loebe and Matthew Lewis in regulation, and then got the game-winner from Joergen Oland in the 96th minute. The win moved Fordham to 13-5-2 on the season, tying the program record for wins in a season at 13, set in 1985.

In the second round, Fordham will hit the road and head to Charlottesville, Virginia to face the #11 seed Virginia Cavaliers at 5:00 PM on Sunday at Klöckner Stadium.

The Cavaliers are 12-3-5 on the season, and finish ninth in the RPI rankings. In the final United Soccer Coaches Poll, the Cavaliers ranked #8 in the country, while being #15 in the College Soccer News Poll.

Virginia also received an at-large berth into the NCAA Championship after falling to Wake Forest in the ACC Championship game in penalty kicks.

The Cavaliers are led by Edward Opoku, who had eight goals and four assists for 20 points over 19 games, while Pablo Aguilar is right behind him in the scoring department with seven goals and four assists for 18 points. In net, Jeff Caldwell has been the starter all season long, playing all but 12 minutes this season, recording a 0.79 GAA and six shutouts.

RAMS IN THE RANKINGS (11/13): For the fourth straight week, Fordham is among United Soccer Coaches Midwest Region Poll rankings. This week, the Rams fell to eighth after being a season-high seventh in last week's poll.

In the final NCAA RPI rankings, the Rams fell two spots to #26 from #24 in this week's RPI report. Fordham is one of three Atlantic 10 teams in the top 26 teams, along with VCU (#13) and UMass (#18). All three squads made the NCAA Championship, marking the first time since 2012 that the conference has gotten at least three bids.

RAMS AMONG NATIONAL LEADERS: As of November 17th, the Fordham Rams are among the nation's top 30 in four categories this season. The Rams are 14th in shutout percentage, 22nd in goals against average, 30th in save percentage, 30th in total assists, and 24th in won-lost-tie percentage.

Individually, juniors Rashid Nuhu and Janos Loebe are also among the national leaders. Nuhu is sixth in the nation in shutouts (10), 15th in minutes played (1849:45), 28th in goals against average (0.79), while Loebe is 11th in total assists (9) and 18th in game-winning goals (4).

SERIES HISTORY: This will be the first-ever meeting between Fordham and Virginia.

LAST TIME OUT: Fordham's Joergen Oland scored the game-winning goal in the 96th minute to give the Fordham men's soccer team a 3-2 overtime win over the St. Francis Brooklyn Terriers in the opening round of the NCAA Men's Soccer Championship at Jack Coffey Field. It is Fordham's first-ever NCAA victory. In addition to being the first-ever NCAA win for the Rams, it also gave the Rams 13 wins on the season, tying the program record, set in 1985.

Things did not get off to a good start as the Terriers opened the scoring in the ninth minute, as Dominick Falanga got a cross to Leo Folla on the left side, and he slid a shot into the bottom right corner of the goal for his third marker of the season.

The score remained at 1-0 in favor of the Terriers until the 72nd minute, when Fordham knotted the game at one on a long distance effort from Jannik Loebe. Loebe dribbled up the right side and fired the ball toward goal from almost 35 yards near the sideline. The ball had plenty of movement on it and ducked inside the top right corner of the goal to tie the game at one. It was Loebe's seventh of the season, tying his career-high.

The tie score lasted only seconds, as the Terriers regained the lead at 2-1 on a goal by Nadim Saqui. Fordham goalkeeper Rashid Nuhu attempted to clear the ball from Saqui's possession on the right side of the box, but Saqui was just able to chip the ball inside the left post for his fourth goal of the season.

Nuhu made that goal up in the 81st minute, as he launched a free kick from midfield, and found Matthew Lewis for a looping header that bounced inside the right post to knot the game at two. It was Lewis' second goal of the season.

The game then went to overtime, where the Rams completed the comeback in the 96th minute. After a clearance, Vincenzo Zuccala picked up the ball for Fordham near midfield. He booted the ball to Connor DeFilippis for a flick-on header, which found Joergen Oland. Oland made one move and snuck the ball past the St. Francis goalkeeper for his fifth marker of the year and the game-winning goal.

A-10 ANNOUNCES ALL-CONFERENCE HONORS (11/8):

The Atlantic 10 Conference announced its men's soccer All-Conference Teams and major award winners on November 8th. Eight Fordham Rams were among the honorees, led by senior defender Matthew Lewis (Kansas City, Mo.), who named Atlantic 10 Defensive Player of the Year and First Team All-Atlantic 10.

Joining Lewis on the All-Conference First Team are senior midfielder Jannik Loebe (Kierspe, Germany), junior forward Janos Loebe (Kierspe, Germany), and junior goalkeeper Rashid Nuhu (Accra, Ghana), while sophomore defender Joergen Oland (Drammen, Norway) earned Second Team All-Atlantic 10 honors. Senior midfielder Eric Ohlendorf (Merrick, N.Y.) received All-Academic honors for the second consecutive year with freshmen midfielders Andron Kagramanyan (Thornhill, Ontario) and Jacob Bohm (Berlin, Germany) being named to the conference's All-Rookie Team.

The eight players honored are the most for the Rams, since joining the Atlantic 10 Conference, surpassing the seven acknowledged in 2011.

Lewis, who missed only two minutes of action all year, is the second Ram to receive Atlantic 10 Defensive Player of the Year honors, joining Ryan Meara in 2011. After receiving Second Team All-Atlantic 10 honors the last two years, the senior defender moved up to First Team honors this year, after leading the Fordham defense to a league-best ten shutouts. The Rams also led the league in goals against average (0.70) and fewest goals allowed (13), and have been among the national leaders in goals against average and shutouts all season long. In addition to his work on the backline, Lewis had a career-best six points offensively, posting a goal and career-high four assists, and set the career games started record at Fordham at 79 and counting, while being a game behind John Wolyniec's career game played record of 80 (1995-98).

Janos and Jannik Loebe garnered First Team All-Atlantic 10 honors for the second straight season. Janos led the Atlantic 10 in both assists (9) and shots (61), while tying for second in game-winning goals (4), fourth in points (23), and 11th in goals (7). The Rams' team leader in every offensive category, he set career-highs in assists and points, while tying his personal-best for goals, which he set last season. He was also twice named Atlantic 10 Offensive Player of the Week during the season.

Janos Loebe

Jannik finished second on the Rams with six goals and 15 points this season to go with three assists, as he has moved up the all-time Fordham scoring lists. He currently ranks eighth in career goals (22), tenth in points (56), third in games played (77), and fifth in games started (75). Most recently, he was named to the College Soccer New Team of the Week, after netting the game-winning goal in the Atlantic 10 quarterfinal over Dayton. He has now scored in all four Atlantic 10 Championships that he has been in.

A Second Team All-Atlantic 10 selection last year, Nuhu has been stellar as the Rams' final line of defense this season, having already set career-highs in wins (12) and shutouts (10) and has been named Atlantic 10 Defensive Player of the Week four times. Earlier this season, he joined Meara (2011) and Jeff Knuth (1987) as the only Ram goalkeepers to record ten shutouts in a single season. He is currently on pace to set a new best in goal against average (0.70) and goals allowed (13). Among conference netminders, Nuhu ranks first in goals against average and shutouts, second in wins and save percentage, and tied for seventh in saves.

Jannik Loebe

Another member of that stellar defense is Oland, who earned Second Team All-Conference honors after being an All-Rookie Team selection in 2016. On top of his work alongside *Host institution for preliminary round games.

All games times are Eastern standard time.
Order of semifinal games will be determined after quarterfinal round games are completed.
Second semifinal game will begin play 45 minutes after the conclusion of the first game.

Rashid Nuhu

Lewis as the Rams' starting center backs, he has connected on a career-high four goals for eight points. Oland enters the Atlantic 10 semifinals on a two-game goal streak, having scored in wins at UMass and Dayton.

Ohlendorf, a Biological Sciences major with a minor in Psychology, who has a 3.8 GPA, was picked to the Atlantic 10 All-Academic Team for the second consecutive season. He has appeared in 15 games in 2017, making eight starts and recording one assist, which was against Saint Louis. He is a three-year member of the Atlantic 10 Commissioner's Honor Roll, as well as a member of Fordham's Dean's List.

With the selection of Bohm and Kagramanyan, it marked the seventh consecutive year that Fordham has had at least one All-Rookie Team selection (2016 - Oland; 2015 - Janos Loebe, Nuhu; 2014 - Jannik Loebe; 2013 - Andrew Hickey; 2012 - Kyle Bitterman; 2011 - Jack-Tim Murphy).

After missing a good amount of time early in the year, Bohm recovered to start 11 of 13 games for the Rams. He registered three goals and one assist for seven points, and was named the Atlantic 10 Rookie of the Week once. All three of his goals were game-winning tallies, which tied him for fifth in the league in that category.

Kagramanyan has fit in perfectly in the Rams' defensive midfield position, starting 17 of 18 games, and helping Fordham to all ten shutouts this season. Offensively, he has one assist on the year, which came in a win at Rhode Island.

ERIC OHLENDORF NAMED CoSIDA ACADEMIC ALL-DISTRICT (11/9):

The 2017 CoSIDA Academic All-District® Men's Soccer Teams have been released to recognize the nation's top student-athletes for their combined performances athletically and in the classroom. Among the District 1 honorees is Fordham senior midfielder Eric Ohlendorf. He is the first men's soccer player to receive Academic All-District honors since Jannik Loebe in 2015.

First-team Academic All-District® honorees advance to the CoSIDA Academic All-America® Team ballot, where first-, second- and third-team All-America honorees will be announced in December.

Just a day after receiving Atlantic 10 All-Academic honors for the second straight year, Ohlendorf picks up his first regional accolade. A Biological Sciences major with a minor in Psychology, he has a 3.82 GPA, and a three-year member of the Atlantic 10 Commissioner's Honor Roll, as well as a member of Fordham's Dean's List. This season, he has appeared in 17 games in 2017, making 10 starts and recording one assist, which was against Saint Louis.

Eric Ohlendorf

O CAPTAIN, MY CAPTAIN: Fordham seniors Matthew Lewis, Jannik Loebe, and Christopher Bazzini will serve as the 2017 team captains.

RARIFIED COMPANY: The Atlantic 10 Conference has had a number of fine players come through the league, which include former U.S. National Team members Alexi Lalas, Geoff Cameron, and Fordham's own John Wolyniec.

However, none of them can say they made fourth straight Atlantic 10 All-Championship teams, where current Ram Jannik Loebe can. Loebe became only the second Atlantic 10 player to be named to the Atlantic 10 All-Championship team four times, joining Rhode Island's Nicholas McCreath (1998-2001). He scored in all four Atlantic 10 Championships from 2014 to 2017, which included, scoring the game-winning goal in the 2014 Atlantic 10 Championship game against Rhode Island and in the 2017 A-10 quarterfinals against Dayton.

TURNING DEFENSE INTO OFFENSE: Most people give a lot of the credit for the Rams' success to how the team defends, but the same group that defends is also just as responsible for the Rams' offensive success. Out of the Rams' primary defenders, Matthew Lewis, Joergen Oland, Vincenzo Zuccala, Christopher Bazzini, and Owen Lawrence, the group has contributed 10 goals and nine assists this season with goalkeeper Rashid Nuhu also adding an assist.

Oland leads the group with five goals, while Bazzini has three goals with Lewis having the other two. Lewis has a group-best four assists with Zuccala and Lawrence each having a pair of helpers. Bazzini and Nuhu round out the assist category with one each.

IRON MEN: Only two players have started every game for the Rams this season, and its no surprise they are the centerpieces of the Rams' defense. Senior defender Matthew Lewis and junior goalkeeper Rashid Nuhu are the only Rams to be introduced in the starting line-up every game this year.

Lewis has only missed two minutes of action all year, bringing his career total to 7,537 minutes, while setting the Rams' record for games started at 81, surpassing the record of 78, set by John Wolyniec (1995-98) and John Rollins (1982-85), as well as the Rams' career record of 80 games played by Wolyniec.

Nuhu has played every second of the season in the Rams' goal, and became just the third Rams' goalkeeper to reach 10 shutouts in a single season, joining Ryan Meara (2011) and Jeff Knuth (1987). His 0.78 goals against average is also just off the pace of the single season mark, which is currently held by Meara at 0.65 in 2011.

BROTHERS IN ARMS: When the Rams won the Atlantic 10 Championship in 2014, the coaching staff got an important phone call, as then-freshman Jannik Loebe's brother, Janos, decided to join his brother at Fordham in 2015.

From there, the Loebe brothers have been one of the top scoring duos in the Atlantic 10, racking up a total of 38 goals and 32 assists since the start of the 2015 season.

Each of them has also climbed the all-time Fordham lists, as they rank in the top 11 in goals, assists, and points. Janos currently sits tied for third in career assists (20), tied for ninth in points (58), and tied for tenth in goals (19). Jannik is tied for seventh in goals (23), tied for 11th in assists (12), and tied for ninth in points (58), while sitting third in games played (79) and tied for second games started (77).

TEAM RECORDS WITHIN REACH: With the win over St. Francis Brooklyn in the first round of the NCAA Championship, the Rams have reached the 13-win plateau for just the second time in team history, matching the school record of 13, set in 1985.

Fordham is also two team shutouts shy of the 1987 record of 12.

HEAD COACH JIM McELDERRY: Guiding the Rams into the NCAA Championship for the third time in his tenure is head coach Jim McElderry, who is in his 15th season at the helm.

In 2003, McElderry was hired as only the fourth head coach of the Fordham men's soccer program, and in 2014, he led the team on a magical run to their second Atlantic 10 Championship, and followed that up with another league championship in 2016.

During his tenure at Fordham, McElderry, the 2011 NSCAA Mid-Atlantic Region Coach of the Year, has shown a knack for bringing in strong recruiting classes. To date, six players have garnered preseason Atlantic 10 All-Rookie team honors, 16 postseason Atlantic 10 All-Rookie team honors (1 - 2003, 1 - 2004, 2 - 2005, 3 - 2008, 1 - 2011, 1 - 2012, 1 - 2013, 1 - 2014, 2 - 2015, 1 - 2016, 2 - 2017) and 26 All-Atlantic 10 accolades, including six during the 2011 campaign.

The level of competition McElderry puts on the field each year is also recognized on the national level as his players have received 19 NSCAA (now United Soccer Coaches) awards in the last 11 seasons, including three in 2011.

McElderry currently stands with a career record of 118-119-42.

FOREIGN IMPORTS: The Rams have relied heavily on their international roots with four nations represented.

Besides the United States, Fordham has three players from Germany (Jannik Loebe, Janos Loebe, and Jacob Bohm), one from Norway (Joergen Oland), one from Canada (Andron Kagramanyan), one from Ghana (Rashid Nuhu), and one from New Zealand (Ross Willox).
