ON DECK

- Virginia closes out the regular-season on Friday, April 17 when it hosts Virginia Tech at 6 p.m.
- The April 17 game is sponsored by Virginia529, the official college savings plan of University of Virginia Athletics. There is one point at stake in the Virginia529 Commonwealth Clash, the new point rivalry series between University of Virginia and Virginia Tech. The Cavaliers currently lead the Clash by a score of 9 to 7. Learn more about Virginia529 and this new competition at TheCommonwealthClash.com.
- The Cavaliers will also be hosting the ACC Tournament at Klöckner Stadium April 23-26.

HOOS HOT

- Casey Bocklet has had at least four points in six of the last seven games, including a career-high eight points (5g, 3a) at William & Mary
- Bocklet has scored 16 goals with six assists in the last five games
- Bocklet scored her four goals in the Duke game on four shots, her five goals at W&M on six shots and her hat trick at BC on four shots and her hat trick against Navy on threes shots
- Liza Blue had back-to-back hat tricks at W&M and BC last week and extended the streak with a four-goal game against Navy
- Blue has scored a goal in 11-straight games, including eight multi-goal performances. Blue has contributed points in 41-straight games, dating back to 2013, and has contributed at least two points in every game this season except the opener against Northwestern when she only had one assist
- Blue's four goals against Navy gave her 126 in her career, which has moved her into Virginia's top-10 career goal-scoring list
- Daniela Eppler scored half of Virginia's goals against Notre Dame, her second multi-goal performance of the season
- Morgan Stephens won a career-high nine draws against Navy, also causing two turnovers
- Stephens caused three turnovers at BC, picking up three ground balls and winning a pair of draws
- Rachel Vander Kolk had 12 saves against Navy, logging her 100th save of the season against the Mids.
- In the last four games, Vander Kolk is averaging 11.5 saves per game

NO. 4 RANKING

- After moving up to a No. 4 ranking last week, the highest in-season ranking for the Cavaliers since the 2010 season, Virginia fell to No. 6 in this week's poll
- Virginia finished the 2014 season with a final ranking of No. 4, but its highest in-season ranking was No. 6 that year

SNAPPED SIX-GAME WIN STREAK

- Virginia had won six-straight games, its longest win streak since winning seven games in a row during the 2010 season, before falling to Notre Dame on Saturday
- Of those six victories, four have been against ranked teams, three against top-10 teams and two against top-five teams

ONE-GOAL GAMES

- The Cavaliers have played four one-goal games this season, going 1-3 in those games
- Virginia earned a 16-15 road win at No. 9 Penn State
- The Cavaliers fell 13-12 in overtime to No. 16 Loyola and dropped regulation contests at No. 3 Syracuse and in the season-opening neutral-site game against No. 5 Northwestern

OPENING STRETCH

- The Cavaliers played five of their first six games on the road
- UVa played four top-10 opponents, all on the road, in its first six games, going 1-3
- The Cavaliers "home" opener against Harvard was relocated to Turf Field because of snow
- Virginia's first game at Klöckner Stadium was the 13-12 overtime loss to Loyola

100 CAREER GOALS

- Liza Blue scored her 100th career goal and won her 100th career draw control at Penn State
- Courtney Swan scored the 100th goal of her career against Duke
- Casey Bocklet scored the 100th goal of her career at Boston College

RECORD WATCH AND MILESTONES

- Liza Blue moved into the top-10 career list in goals scored in the Navy game
- Blue needs three goals to tie Debbie Easter (1980-83) for ninth place on the list at 130 goals
- Blue has 127 career draw controls, tied for seventh with Josie Owen (2008-12). She needs four to tie Caitlin Banks (2001-04) in sixth place.
- Courtney Swan's 253 career draws currently ranks second in the Cavalier record book. She is 34 draws shy of tying Brittany Kalkstein (2007-10) for the top total in career history
- Swan has 65 career assists. She needs one more to tie Tyler Leachman (2003-06) in 10th place on the list
- Casey Bocklet has 72 career assists, ranking her in 8th place on the Virginia career assist list. She needs four assists to tie Caitlin Banks (2001-04) in 7th place
- Bocklet has 178 career points. She needs six points to tie Jamie Haas (1997, 99-01) and Brittany Kalkstein (2007-10) for 10th place on the career points list

DEBUTS

- Freshman goalie Rachel Vander Kolk made her debut at Northwestern, logging five saves
- Freshman midfielder Meghan Heick also made her debut at Northwestern and was in the starting lineup for the first two games of the year
- Heick scored her first career goal at JMU
- Freshman midfielder Kasey Behr made her collegiate debut against Richmond, coming off the bench to score a goal, pick up a ground ball and win two draw controls
- Freshman midfielder Lilly DiNardo made her collegiate debut in the Harvard game
- Four Cavaliers made their Virginia debut at William & Mary. Freshmen Daniela Kelly, Jacqueline Wasilko and Ana Hagerup made their collegiate debuts in the game while Katherine Rueger, a transfer from Davidson, made her UVa debut
- Rueger picked up a ground ball and Hagerup took a shot in the W&M game

CAVALIERS VS RANKED OPPONENTS

- Virginia is 4-5 this season against ranked teams, 3-3 against top-10 teams and 1-2 against teams ranked 11-20
- Five of Virginia's first eight games were against top-10 opponents
- Eight of UVa's first 10 games were against top-20 opponents
- The game against BC was the second time this season UVa has taken on a team ranked second in the nation, falling to UNC when it was ranked No. 2
- The BC win was the second time in two weeks that Virginia took down a previously-undefeated team. Duke was 9-0, 3-0 ACC before coming to Charlottesville the Saturday before UVa defeated 10-0 BC in Newton

VS UNRANKED OPPONENTS

- Since 2007, Virginia has only lost four times to unranked opponents, going 53-4 in that span against teams not ranked in the IWLC A Top-20
- One of those losses came last season when Virginia fell 15-13 at then-unranked Princeton.

2014 NCAA TOURNAMENT

- This season Virginia has already played all three teams they faced during the 2014 NCAA Tournament, falling 13-12 in overtime to second-round opponent Princeton, falling 10-7 at North Carolina (last year's quarterfinal opponent) and 14-13 at Syracuse (last year's semifinal opponent).
- Virginia was one of six teams last season to earn a first-round bye, facing the Tigers in the 2nd round

ACC POSTGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP

- Courtney Swan has been announced as one of 53 recipients of the prestigious Weaver-James-Corrigan Award.
- These ACC postgraduate scholarships are awarded to selected student-athletes who intend to pursue a graduate degree following completion of their undergraduate requirements. Each recipient will receive $5,000 toward his or her graduate education. Those honored have performed with distinction in both the classroom and their respective sport, while demonstrating exemplary conduct in the community. An additional eight student-athletes who plan to enter a professional career in their chosen sport were named honorary recipients.

TEWAARATON WATCH LIST

- Casey Bocklet, Courtney Swan and Morgan Stephens were all named to the initial 50-player Tewaaraton Award Watch List.
- Liza Blue was one of five players added in the second round of midseason additions on April 9

ACC PLAYER OF THE WEEK SWEEP

- Casey Bocklet was named the ACC Offensive Player of the Week and Rachel Vander Kolk was named the ACC Defensive Players of the Week (March 31)
- Bocklet, who was named the co-Offensive Player of the Week the previous week, recorded a hat trick and added two assists against the previously unbeaten Eagles. She scored two of Virginia's first three goals at Boston College, setting the foundation for the Cavaliers' 6-0 run to start the game. In a 16-6 win at William & Mary, Bocklet recorded a career-high eight points on five goals and three assists. She has posted at least five points in each of Virginia's last three victories.
- Vander Kolk made an ACC single-game season-high 18 saves in Virginia's upset win at No. 2 Boston College and totaled 27 for the week after making nine in the 16-6 win at William & Mary. The freshman goalkeeper faced 41 shots by the Eagles, including five in the final two minutes of the game with Virginia leading 15-13. During that period, Vander Kolk came up with three saves and a ground ball after Cavalier teammate Wyatt Whitley caused a turnover in front of the net in the final 20 seconds of the game.
- It was the second career honor for Bocklet and the first for Vander Kolk

IL NATIONAL ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

- Rachel Vander Kolk was named Inside Lacrosse's co-National Rookie of the Week (March 31), the second time she earned this honor
- "For the Cavaliers, it was rookie Rachel Vander Kolk who made the ultimate difference in Virginia's victory over then-undefeated Boston College on Saturday. Squaring off against some of the nation's most prolific scorers, Vander Kolk made 18 saves to lift her team over its second ranked opponent in just eight days. The Severna Park (Md.) native has started in every game for UVA this season, and boasts a .413 save percentage."

ACC CO-PLAYER OF THE WEEK

- Casey Bocklet was named the ACC Co-Player of the Week (March 24)
- Bocklet helped lead Virginia to a pair of wins over ranked teams, including a road win at No. 12 JMU and upsetting previously-undefeated Duke at Klockner Stadium
- Bocklet scored four goals against Duke, on four shots, while also adding an assist
- Against JMU, Bocklet had one goal with three assists

'HOOS IN THE NATIONAL RANKINGS

- Virginia is one of five programs in the NCAA to be ranked at least once in every year of the IWLCA Coaches Poll. The poll was created in 1988, with Dartmouth, Maryland, Penn State and Princeton joining Virginia as the only programs to be nationally ranked every year.
- Of those five programs, Virginia is the only program to be ranked in every week of the IWLCA coaches poll, a span of 278-straight polls.
- Of those 278 polls, the Cavaliers have been ranked among the top-10 in the nation on 240 occasions, the second-most among all NCAA programs.
- The Cavaliers have spent 15 weeks ranked No. 1, including the entire 1993 season, en route to the program's second national championship.
- Virginia debuted at No. 7 in the inaugural coaches poll on March 19, 1988. While the Cavaliers have climbed to a No. 1 ranking, the farthest they have ever fallen was to No. 19 on April 23, 2013. Virginia has only spent five weeks ranked outside the top-15.

LM NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE WEEK

- Casey Bocklet was also named the Lacrosse Magazine National Player of the Week (March 24)
- “Duke had been playing like a well-oiled machine in 2014, with a perfect 9-0 mark going into a weekend trip to Klockner Stadium. There, they met the Cavaliers and Bocklet, and left with a 9-1 mark. Bocklet’s performance in a dominating first half earns her Epoch/LM Player of the Week honors.”
- “Bocklet scored a first-half hat trick, keying the host Cavaliers to a 7-3 lead by halftime, which was expanded to 9-3 before the Blue Devils rallied late, but not enough in Virginia’s 13-10 win. Bocklet finished with a team-high four goals and an assist, leaving her with an even 16 and 16 on the spring. The win was Virginia’s third straight and bumped the Cavaliers (6-4) back into the Nike/LM Top 10.”

IL NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE WEEK

- Courtney Swan was named the Inside Lacrosse National Player of the Week (March 3)
- During an action-packed week for Virginia (2-2), the No. 8 Cavaliers dropped a one-goal decision to Syracuse, 13-14, in the Carrier Dome on Monday evening before traveling to University Park on Saturday to take on the Penn State Nittany Lions.
- Against the Orange, Swan recorded four points (1g, 3a) and picked up a pair of draw controls. When Swan took on the Nittany Lions, however, she utterly dominated the field. The Vero Beach (Fla.) native poured in four goals and dished out four assists, while collecting nine of her team’s 17 draw controls.

IL NATIONAL ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

- The same week that Courtney Swan was the Inside Lacrosse National Player of the Week (March 3), goalkeeper Rachel Vander Kolk was named IL’s co-National Rookie of the Week
- Sharing Rookie of the Week honors with Stanford’s Allit DaCar, Vander Kolk was coming off a strong week against No. 5 Syracuse and No. 12 Penn State. Against the Orange, Vander Kolk posted a career-high 10 saves. Just days later, Vander Kolk bested her career-high with a 13 save performance against the Nittany Lions. The win over Penn State marked Virginia’s first win over a ranked opponent this spring.

2014-15 US NATIONAL TEAM

- Courtney Swan and Morgan Stephens are both members of the 39-player training roster for the 2014-15 U.S. Senior Women’s National Team

2015 CAPTAINS

- Fourth-years Courtney Swan and Kelsey Gahan are this year’s captains
