

2014 NCAA Division I Baseball Super Regional • Game 2

June 8, 2014 • 12 p.m.

Maryland (40-22) vs. Virginia (48-14)

VIRGINIA POST-GAME NOTES

- Virginia is now 37-30 all-time in the NCAA Tournament and 6-5 in the super regional round.
- UVa accrued 17 hits on Sunday versus Maryland, tied for the second-most all-time for the Cavaliers in an NCAA Tournament game. UVa's output equals the 17 the Cavaliers had against Richmond in a 1972 NCAA Tournament game and trails only the 18 against Princeton in a 1996 NCAA Tournament contest.
- The 17 hits also tie for the second-most by UVa this season, regular or postseason, equaling a May 16 outing at Wake Forest.
- UVa has recorded at least one hit in 16 of the 18 innings of this Charlottesville Super Regional.
- Virginia hitters have been hit by a pitch six times against Maryland this super regional, bringing its 2014 NCAA Tournament total to 10.
- UVa's bullpen has gone 7.2 innings and has allowed only two unearned runs, while striking out seven in the Charlottesville Super Regional.
- Artie Lewicki made his first appearance out of the bullpen since April 8 at James Madison when he went 3.0 innings.
- Lewicki earned his first career save, going 3.1 innings to close the door.
- Going 3-for-5, Mike Papi has reached base 8-of-10 times in this Charlottesville Super Regional.
- Papi extended his reached base streak to 16 games.
- Papi finished with three hits, his team-leading 20th multi-hit game and fourth three-hit game of the season.
- Kenny Towns and Daniel Pinero each notched their second three-hit game of the season.
