UNIQUELY UVA

The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to UVA's culture.

Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the University dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.

First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why you may ask? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process.

Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES

Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."

Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.

Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos" during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general use around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

THE CAVALIER MASCOT

The costumed Cavalier with a large character head debuted during Virginia's 1984 football season and has remained the official mascot of the University.

The first documented Cavalier on horseback was Francis Bell, a Virginia student from Dublin, Va., in 1947. Bell rode onto the field dressed as Cavaliers for Virginia's home football game with Harvard on the afternoon of October 11.

The Cavalier on horseback returned as the University's mascot in 1963. The UVA Polo Club provided both the horse and rider. However, the mounted Cavalier and his horse parted company in 1974 with the inception of AstroTurf at Scott Stadium.

The mounted Cavalier made its return in the Florida Citrus Bowl at the end of the 1989 football season. Due to its instant popularity, the Cavalier on horseback returned the following season on a regular basis and continues to lead the Virginia football team onto the field at the beginning of all home games.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.

One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

WAH-HOO-WAH

The origin of "Wah-hoo-wah" is uncertain. The cheer was used to root on Virginia teams as early as 1890 and may have been borrowed from Dartmouth College, whose athletics teams were once known as the Indians.

Legend attributes the yell to Natalie Floyd Otey, who sang the ballad "Where'er You Are, There Shall My Love Be" at Charlottesville's Levy Opera House in 1893. The predominantly student audience noticed that Otey warbled the first three words of the song between each of the stanzas and decided to join in the refrain. By evening's end, goes the legend, the crowd had corrupted "Where'er You Are" into "Wah-hoo-wah."

The Levy Opera House stands at the corner of High Street and Park Street and has since been renovated into an office building.

UVA STIFLES THE LOUISVILLE OFFENSE

- UVA held the Louisville Cardinals to 214 yards of total offense in each team's ACC opener on Sept. 22.
- The 214 yards of total offense are the fewest UVA has allowed to an ACC opponent since allowing 199 at Pitt in 2013.

"ZZ STOP" COMES UP BIG ON GOAL-LINE STAND AGAINST CARDINALS

- ILB Zane Zandier finished with eight tackles against Louisville, tying him for the team lead with Charles Snowden.
- No tackles were bigger for Zandier than the three he made on three consecutive rushes by Louisville during UVA's big goal-line stand in the third quarter.
- UL started the drive from the UVA three-yard line after a tipped Bryce Perkins pass by his own receiver led to a Louisville interception return to the UVA three.
- On three straight rushing plays, Zandier made two solo tackles and one assisted in forcing Louisville to attempt a 20-yard field goal for its only points of the day.

ONE-PLAY SCORING DRIVES ARE BOUNTIFUL VS. OHIO

- For the first time in program history, UVA had three one-play scoring drives in one game.
- UVA scored on a Jordan Ellis 18-yard touchdown rush, an 86-yard Olamide Zaccheaus receiving touchdown and a 75-yard Ellis rushing touchdown.
- Only once before had UVA had multiple one-play scoring drives in the same game, which came against Navy in 1990. Those plays went for 55 and 54 yards.
- Zaccheaus' 86-yard touchdown reception is the fourth-longest one-play scoring drive. Ellis' 75-yard rushing touchdown is tied for No. 7 all-time among UVA's one-play scoring drives. Another 75-yard score against Clemson in 1989 shares the spot, which was a Herman Moore receiving touchdown from Matt Blundin.

RECORD-SETTING DAY FOR ZACCHEAUS AGAINST OHIO

- HB Olamide Zaccheaus helped UVA with a key non-conference win over the Ohio Bobcats in Nashville.
- Zaccheaus set a UVA single-game record with 247 receiving yards, breaking a 44-year old record by Ken Shelton who had 241 receiving yards against William & Mary.
- The 247 receiving yards still is the second most by a FBS player this season, while Zaccheaus is the only ACC player with a game this season with 200+ receiving yards.
- Zaccheaus' 247 receiving yards ties him with Randy Marriott of UNC (1987) for No. 10 on the ACC's all-time ledger of single-game receiving yards.
- Zaccheaus scored on scoring strikes from Bryce Perkins of 86 and 77 yards, which is the only time in program history that a team, let alone one player, recorded multiple receptions of 75 yards or more in the same game.
- Zaccheaus was the only player in program history to record multiple receptions of 80 yards or more. He now has three, two of which have come against MAC schools. Zaccheaus had an 82-yard receiving touchdown against Central Michigan in 2016 and an 81-yard touchdown reception at North Carolina in 2017.

CAVALIERS HAVE BIG FIRST HALF AGAINST OHIO

- The Cavaliers scored 38 points in the first half against Ohio, which is the fourth-most points scored in a half in program history.
- It ties the 38 points, also scored in the first half, the Cavaliers scored against Duke in 1990.

BIG NUMBERS FOR ELLIS, PERKINS AND ZACCHEAUS

- In the win over Ohio, UVA had a quarterback (Perkins, 379), throw for 300+ yards, a running back (Ellis, 171) rush for 100+ yards and a receiver (Zaccheaus, 247) record 100+ receiving yards for the first time since the 2011 Maryland game.
- In the 2011 Maryland game Michael Rocco passed for 307 yards, Perry Jones rushed for 139 yards, while Kris Burd (112) and Tim Smith (101) each recorded over 100 yards receiving.

PERKINS SHOWCASES PASSING GAME AGAINST OHIO

- QB Bryce Perkins threw for a career-high 379 yards on 20-of-25 passing against the Ohio Bobcats. He became the 20th different Cavalier to pass for at least 300 yards in a game.
- His 379 yards are the sixth-most passing yards all-time in a game by a Cavalier.
- At one point Perkins completed 15 passes in a row against the Bobcats, which ranks No. 2 all-time at UVA for most completed passes in a row in a game. It also ties Shawn Moore for No. 2 all-time for career consecutive completions, who completed 15 passes over two games in 1989.
- Michael Rocco owns the record for most completions in a row with 18, doing so against Miami in 2012.

PERKINS CREATED MORE UVA FIRSTS AT INDIANA

- QB Bryce Perkins rushed for 123 yards at Indiana to become the first UVA quarterback to rush for 100+ yards in multiple games in a season since Bill Dudley did it four times in 1941. With 112 rushing yards against UNC, Perkins has now rushed for 100+ yards three times this season.
- Perkins is also the first Cavalier in program history to rush for 100+ yards in each of his first two career games. Perkins also rushed for 108 yards in his UVA debut against Richmond on Sept. 1.
- The only Cavalier to become relatively close to the feat was Gary Helman who rushed for 100+ yards in two of his first three career games in 1969. He rushed for only 40 yards in his collegiate debut against Clemson, but followed up in career game No. 2 with 158 rushing yards against Duke. Then Helman rushed for 148 yards in career game No. 3 against William & Mary.

A PROGRAM FIRST AGAINST RICHMOND

- For the first time in program history, UVA had a quarterback run for at least 100 yards, a second player rush for at least 100 yards and a receiver collect at least 100 receiving yards in a game. Against Richmond QB Bryce Perkins rushed for 108 yards, TB Jordan Ellis rushed for 146 yards and HB Olamide Zaccheaus recorded 101 receiving yards.
- Twice before UVA had a quarterback rush for a 100+ yards, while another Cavalier also rushed for 100+ yards: 1967 vs. Buffalo (Frank Quayle, 151 and QB Gene Arnette, 119); 1975 vs. Maryland (QB Scott Gardner, 120 and Billy Copeland, 100).

THORNHILL ALL OVER THE PLACE AT INDIANA

- SS Juan Thornhill helped UVA hold Indiana scoreless in the second half.
- Thornhill blocked a IU PAT and returned it for a defensive two-point score. It was the first time UVA scored defensive extra points since Joe Crocker did so against NC State in 1994. Crocker's points came off an interception of a two-point conversion.
- Thornhill also intercepted the eighth pass of his career in the game and added seven tackles.
- Thornhill earned ACC Defensive Back of the Week for his efforts.

TRUE FRESHMAN STARTING ON THE DEFENSIVE LINE

- Against Richmond, NT Jordan Redmond became the first UVA true freshman to start a season opener on the defensive line since 2002 when DE Kwakou Robinson started against Colorado State. He is only the fourth UVA freshman (true or redshirt) since 1986 to start a season opener on the defensive line. The others are DE Matt Conrath (RS-Fr., 2008 vs. USC) and NT Tim O'Conner (RS-Fr., 1986 vs. South Carolina).

ARMSTRONG SEES TIME IN SEASON OPENER

- QB Brennan Armstrong made his collegiate debut against Richmond in the fourth quarter.
- Armstrong is the first UVA true freshman to play quarterback in a season opener since David Watford came off the bench against William & Mary in the 2011 opener.
- Armstrong enrolled early and took part of spring practice this year (like Watford in 2011).
- Armstrong also saw time in UVA's win over Louisville, rushing for 50 yards.

VIRGINIA RUSHING GAME SPRINTS IN OPENER

- Virginia rushed for 301 yards against Richmond in the season opener, the most rushing yards so far in the Bronco Mendenhall era.
- It was the first time the Cavaliers rushed over 200 yards since tallying 262 against Virginia Tech in 2015 and the first time reaching 300 rushing yards in a game since putting up 357 rushing yards against VMI in 2013.

UVA HAS THIRD-MOST UNDERCLASSMEN IN THE NATION

- UVA has the third-most underclassmen on its roster in the nation with 88.
- UVA ranks No. 4 in the nation with 71 percent of its roster being underclassmen.
- UVA has 26 sophomores, 18 redshirt freshmen and 44 freshmen on its roster of 123.
- Below is where UVA ranks nationally:

School	Underclassmen
1. Army	115
2. Nebraska	90
3. Virginia	88
Appalachian State	88
5. Wake Forest	80
Cincinnati	80

BRYCE PERKINS NOTES

IT IS A PERK TO HAVE A NEW QB ON THE BLOCK

- QB Bryce Perkins made his first career FBS start at quarterback against Richmond in the season opener.
- Perkins transferred to UVA last January from Arizona Western Community College after leading the Matadors to the 2017 NJCAA Championship game, before falling 31-28 to East Mississippi.
- Perkins originally signed as a top recruit with hometown Arizona State, but never saw action during his two seasons in Tempe. He redshirted the 2015 season and missed the 2016 season with an injury.
- Perkins' father, Bruce, lettered at Arizona State in 1988 and 1989 as a full-back and later played briefly in the NFL. Perkins' older brother, Paul, was a three-year letterwinner at running back with the UCLA Bruins and currently plays with the New York Giants. Perkins' uncle, Don Perkins, played eight seasons in the NFL with the Cowboys.
- Perkins, who passed for 1,311 yards and rushed for 353 yards (5.1 avg.) at Arizona Western in 2017, is replacing Kurt Benkert as UVA's quarterback in 2018. Benkert set UVA's single-season passing mark (3,207) and total offense (3,144) record in 2017.

PERKINS IS UVA'S STARTING QUARTERBACK

- Bryce Perkins, a transfer from Arizona Western Community College, became (vs. Richmond) just the second Cavalier quarterback to start his UVA debut since 1977 when Bryan Shumock started the season opener against NC State. Shumock switched to defensive back for the 1978 season and led UVA with four interceptions.
- Former UVA quarterback Kurt Benkert also started his UVA debut against Richmond in 2016.
- Perkins was the 12th different UVA starting quarterback to start an opener in the last 14 seasons. The list includes: Kurt Benkert (2016-17), Matt Johns (2015), Greyson Lambert (2014), David Watford (2013), Michael Rocco (2011-12), Marc Verica (2010), Vic Hall (2009), Peter Lulich (2008), Jameel Sewell (2007), Christian Olsen (2006) and Marques Hagans (2005).

SCOTT STADIUM, HOME OF THE CAVALIERS

The Carl Smith Center, home of David A. Harrison III Field at Scott Stadium, with its unique architectural design, scenic setting on the University's Grounds and exceptional sight lines, is one of the nation's finest college football settings.

Opened in 1931, Scott Stadium might be one of the oldest campus college football stadiums in the nation, but you could never tell from its appearance. Numerous upgrades and expansions make it a modern home for the Cavaliers and their fans.

Scott Stadium was the gift of Frederic William Scott and Elisabeth Strother Scott, and was dedicated to the memory of his parents, Frederic Robert Scott and Frances Branch Scott.

Virginia played its dedication game at Scott Stadium on Oct. 15, 1931 against the Virginia Military Institute before a then-capacity crowd of 22,000. Prior to that season, the Cavaliers staged their home games at the University's Lambeth Field.

Virginia has played 467 games in the historic venue. UVA's all-time record at Scott Stadium stands at 264-193-12.

Bronco Mendenhall Head Coach • Third Season

Bronco Mendenhall is in his third season as Virginia's head football coach after being named the program's 40th head coach on Dec. 4, 2015.

In Mendenhall's second season on Grounds in 2017 he directed UVA to its first bowl game since 2011. He oversaw a defense that ranked No. 7 in the nation and No. 2 in the ACC against the pass (165.8). The group was headed by three-time first-team All-ACC player Quin Blanding, ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year Brenton Nelson and third-team All-ACC cornerback Juan Thornhill. Blanding finished his illustrious career with more All-America honors and as UVA's all-time record holder with 495 career tackles. The 495 career tackles rank tied for No. 6 all-time in ACC history and are the most by any ACC defensive back. Blanding finished each of his four seasons No. 2 in the ACC in tackles. Inside linebacker Micah Kiser was named the Campbell Trophy winner (Academic Heisman) and led the ACC in tackles for the third year in a row. Only Boston College's Luke Kuechly (2009-11) had previously accomplished the feat in league history. Kiser was also a three-time first-team All-ACC honoree and received multiple All-America honors over the 2016 and 2017 seasons, including becoming the first Cavalier since Tiki Barber in 1996 to earn both academic and athletic All-America honors in the same season when he was a second-team CoSIDA Academic All-American in 2016.

Mendenhall saw the conclusion of quarterback Kurt Benkert's collegiate career in 2017. The UVA quarterback became the first player in program history to throw for over 3,000 yards in a season. Benkert finished 2017 with 3,207 passing yards and a single-season program record 298 completions. Benkert's 25 passing touchdowns in 2017 rank No. 2 all-time at UVA for a season. The starting quarterback for each of Mendenhall's first two seasons at Virginia, Benkert leaves No. 3 all-time at UVA in career passing yards (5,759) and passing touchdowns (46), which came in 24 career games for the Cavaliers.

In Mendenhall's first season on Grounds he oversaw a secondary that boasted first-team All-ACC honoree and All-American, Quin Blanding. Blanding finished the season No. 2 in the ACC in tackles for the third year in a row with 120 stops. Inside linebacker Micah Kiser, an All-American and first-team All-ACC honoree, thrived to lead the ACC in tackles for the second year in a row with 134, which is tied with former Cavalier great Wali Rainer for fourth-most in a single season in program history. Kiser was also a second-team CoSIDA Academic All-American, becoming the first Cavalier since Tiki Barber in 1996 to earn both academic and athletic All-America honors in the same season.

Offensively, in Mendenhall's first season, Taquan Mizzell became the first player in ACC history to record at least 1,500 career rushing and 1,500 career receiving yards. UVA quarterback Kurt Benkert set a couple of passing marks in UVA's new offense, including a program record for passing yards in a game with 421 against Central Michigan, which was only the second time in program history a UVA quarterback surpassed 400 passing yards in a game. Benkert reached 1,000 passing yards in four games and 2,000 passing yards in eight games, setting a program record for fastest to that standard in a season.

Mendenhall came to Charlottesville after 11 years as the head coach at Brigham Young University. In his 11 seasons, from 2005-2015, Mendenhall compiled an overall record of 99-43 at BYU to rank 12th in total wins among all FBS teams during that time.

In the three seasons prior to Mendenhall becoming the head coach at BYU, the Cougars compiled an overall record of 14-21. Over Mendenhall's 11 years at BYU, the Cougars were one of only 11 programs to advance to a bowl game each season (includes the 2015 season). BYU joined by Alabama, Boise State, Clemson, Florida State, Georgia, LSU, Oklahoma, Oregon, Virginia Tech and Wisconsin on that list.

Among those 11 teams, only Florida State has achieved more bowl wins (seven) than BYU's six bowl game victories.

The success of Mendenhall's leadership approach in running the BYU football program was highlighted in a management book, Running Into the Wind: Bronco Mendenhall -- 5 Strategies for Building a Successful Team, written by Alyson Von Feldt and Paul Gustavson, a leading management consultant specializing in leadership development and organizational design.

Mendenhall was elected in 2013 to the American Football Coaches Association Board of Trustees as the District 8 Representative and also serves on the AFCA Ethics Committee.

DID YOU KNOW?

- When offensive coordinator Robert Anae finished playing football, he returned home to Hawaii and served as the body model for the towering stature of the father of surfing, Duke Kahanamoku, a five-time Olympian.
- The statue, created by artist Jan Fisher, is right next to the famous Waikiki Beach. Anae was a graduate assistant at Hawaii at the time and the artist needed a model, a surfer that was tall, and he went looking for the tallest surfer on the North Shore.
- DL Samson Reed's father, Tanoai, played offensive line at Hawaii from 1991-94. Reed's dad, Tanoai, is the cousin of Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson and works as his Hollywood stunt double.
- Junior defensive lineman Cassius Peat is the son of Todd Peat, who played six seasons in the NFL with the Cardinals and Raiders as an offensive guard. His older brother, Andrus, was an All-American at Stanford and a former first round draft pick by the Saints (2015).
- Walk-on second year Tristan Hillerich is one of four boys. His parents, Brent and Colleen, are proud parents of two sets of twins. Tristan has a twin brother, Bart, while the pair has a younger set of twin brothers, Quinn and Grady.
- Virginia has five players on its roster who are the sons of former Cavalier football players. Joey Blount (Tony Blount), Germane Crowell (Germane Crowell, Sr.), Tucker Finkelston (Tim Finkelston), Mikey McDonald (Geoff McDonald) and Andrew Yavinsky (Marc Yavinsky).
- WR Chuck Davis won $100,000 playing the Virginia Lottery in June 2017. He spent $1 for a Cash 5 game ticket at a 7-Eleven in Ashburn, Va. He used the numbers on his grandmother's license plate on the car he drove to the market.
- DB Donovan Rolle participated in the 2011 and 2013 Scripps National Spelling Bee.
- S Vinnie Vladic's father, Larry Vladic, was college football teammates at Oregon State with UVA head coach Bronco Mendenhall in 1986 and 1987.
- Walk-on first year S Cole Lytle has a twin brother, Adam, who is a walk-on freshman on the Virginia Tech football team. Lytle's older sister, Ashley, is a UVA alum, while his older brother, Dean, currently attends Virginia Tech.
