ACC Men's Tennis Championships

April 25-29, 2018

Cary Tennis Center
Cary, N.C.

- Virginia is the defending ACC Champion, downing Wake Forest, 4-3, in the 2017 Championship match in Rome, Ga.
- The Cavaliers have won 12 ACC Championships (2004-05, 2007-15, 2017), tied with Duke for second-most in the history of the conference and trailing only North Carolina
- The Cavaliers lineup features one junior, one sophomore, one redshirt freshman, and four true freshmen
- Carl Soderlund is the only player on UVA's active roster to have played in last year's ACC Championship
- Junior Aswin Lizen leads the team in victories this season with a 30-5 singles record. Lizen was the ITA Atlantic Regional singles champion and the runner-up in doubles (playing with Matthew Lord). Lizen is 8-2 in his last 10 matches and is 9-1 at No. 3 singles this season. Lizen had a 3-0 career record in singles before this season. He has been ranked as high as No. 10 in the ITA singles rankings. He went 12-1 in singles in the fall and opened the spring winning his first eight singles matches to start the year 20-1. Lizen has the best ACC record among the Cavaliers, going 9-3 in conference matches. Lizen had won 10-straight matches before being edged in his last two matches, a battle against Wake's Petros Chrysochos and falling in a third-set tiebreaker to Alexandre Ribeiro at Virginia Tech on Sunday
- Sophomore Carl Soderlund is the most veteran player on this year's team. Soderlund was the 2017 ITA Atlantic Region Rookie of the Year, starting his career with 13-straight singles victories and finished the year with a 15-3 record, playing primarily No. 3 for the Cavaliers during their march to the 2017 NCAA Championship. This season, Soderlund has been the mainstay at No. 1 singles, rising to a career-high No. 27 ranking and sporting a 10-5 record on the top court
- Freshman Kyrylo Tsygura comes into the ACC Championship having won his last three matches, on three different courts (six, five and four)
- Freshman Matthew Lord is 21-12 in singles this season, including a 7-5 record in ACC play. Lord had a stretch of seven-straight singles victories this spring, snapped by a loss to UNC's Robert Kelly
- Freshman Gianni Ross was a late addition to the Cavaliers, signing an NLI in the fall and enrolling at the University for the spring season. Ross is 13-8 this season, including a 7-5 mark at No. 2 singles

2018 CAVALIER MEN'S TENNIS NOTES

- Redshirt freshman Ammar Alhaqbani missed the UNC, FSU and Miami matches in order to represent Saudi Arabia in Davis Cup Asia/Oceania World Group III matches in Hanoi, Vietnam April 2-7. This was Alhaqbani's third time competing in Davis Cup matches. He went 2-2 in singles and has a career record of 15-5
- Virginia is No. 48 in this week's ITA team rankings
- Carl Soderlund is at a career-best No. 26 in this week's singles rankings
- Aswin Lizen is ranked No. 46 in singles
- Lizen and Gianni Ross are No. 34 in doubles
- Soderlund and Matthew Lord are No. 63 in doubles
- The Cavaliers have had two doubles teams named ACC Doubles Team of the week. Aswin Lizen and Gianni Ross earned the honor on March 26 after picking up a pair of wins over ranked opponents, topping No. 11 Carlos Divar and Michael Kay of Georgia Tech, 6-1, and the No. 22 duo of Simon Baudry and Alex Favrot from Clemson, 6-2
- Carl Soderlund and Matthew Lord were named the ACC Doubles Team of the Week on April 17 after winning a pair of matches on the top court against a pair of ranked opponents, including a 6-1 victory over the No. 17 team of Ian Dempster and Skander Mansouri of Wake Forest
- First year head coach Andres Pedroso served as Virginia's associate head coach from 2010-14. During that four-year span, the Cavaliers won four ACC championships, the program's first NCAA championship (2013) and two ITA National Team Indoor titles (2011 and 2013). As a student-athlete at Duke, Pedroso helped lead the Blue Devils to four ACC titles, he was a two-time All-American and was named to the ACC 50th Anniversary Team.
