- Princeton defeated UVa in the 2003 National Championship game. Virginia returned the favor in 2004, downing the Tigers in the NCAA Championship game
- The two teams have played one another at least once a year every season since 1991

- The Tiger defense has not allowed an opponent to score in double-digits this season and is allowing just 6.00 goals per game, which ranks sixth in the nation

- Loyola's Hannah Schmitt scored the first three goals in the overtime
- Swan won a draw control after the third goal, went right down and scored, putting UVa down 2 with 24 seconds remaining
- Swan won the next draw control which led to another Eppler 8-meter attempt. She scored to make it a 13-12 game

'HOOS IN THE NATIONAL RANKINGS

- Virginia is one of five programs in the NCAA to be ranked at least once in every year of the IWLCA Coaches Poll. The poll was created in 1988, with Dartmouth, Maryland, Penn State and Princeton joining Virginia as the only programs to be nationally ranked every year.
- Of those five programs, Virginia is the only program to be ranked in every week of the IWLCA coaches poll, a span of 274-straight polls.
- Of those 274 polls, the Cavaliers have been ranked among the top-10 in the nation on 236 occasions, the second-most among all NCAA programs.
- The Cavaliers have spent 15 weeks ranked No. 1, including the entire 1993 season, en route to the program's second national championship.
- Virginia debuted at No. 7 in the inaugural coaches poll on March 19, 1988. While the Cavaliers have climbed to a No. 1 ranking, the farthest they have ever fallen was to No. 19 on April 23, 2013. Virginia has only spent five weeks ranked outside the top-15.
