2-Seed Virginia Cavaliers (25-1, 11-1 ACC)

- The Cavaliers closed out the regular season with four-straight shutout victories. UVA swept in eight of their 11 ACC matches this season and three of the four matches in the ITA National Team Indoor Championship
- The Cavaliers have two singles players who completed the regular-season undefeated.
- Freshman Carl Söderlund, the top player in the ITA National Freshman/Newcomer rankings this year, has started his career with a 13-0 record, including a 7-0 mark in conference matches
- Junior Henrik Wiersholm is 19-0 this season in singles. He has won 23-consecutive singles matches, dating back to his four wins in Tulsa last year during the 2016 NCAA Team Championship. In the last two seasons. Wiersholm is a combined 44-2
- The Cavaliers have two 20-match winners in duals this season in seniors Thai-Son Kwiatkowski and Alexander Ritschard. Both players have a 20-3 record in duals this year
- The Cavaliers come into the tournament with a 131-24 mark in singles matches, which is an .845 winning percentage. The percentage improves in dual matches to .878 with 115 wins to only 16 losses. In comparison with other top-ranked teams, Wake Forest has a .745 singles winning percentage in duals (108-37) while UNC is at .787 (11-30). Ohio State is the only other top-ranked team with a singles winning percentage above .800 with the Buckeyes at .838 (114-22). The Cavaliers top singles winning percentage in recent seasons was a .795 mark (194-50) during the 2015 NCAA Championship season.
- Kwiatkowski and Ritschard are 17-1 this season as a doubles
- The Cavaliers won the doubles point in 22 of 26 matches this season. UVA dropped the doubles point in their first two matches of the season (at Vanderbilt and Kentucky) and then won it in 15 straight before being topped by Wake Forest in doubles. North Carolina also took the doubles point in their match against the Cavaliers.
- All six players in the UVA singles lineup are currently ranked
- From 2004 through 2016, the Cavaliers captured at least a share of the ACC regular season title each year, a streak broken this season by Wake Forest
- Since 2007, the Cavaliers have been the top seed in the ACC Tournament, a streak broken this season by Wake Forest
- In the last 41 matches (dating back to April 3, 2016), Virginia is 39-2, with both losses coming against Wake Forest (2016 ACC Championship match and 2017 regular-season meeting in Winston-Salem)
- Söderlund was sidelined while recovering from an injury in the first meeting of the year between Virginia and Wake Forest

2017 CAVALIER MEN'S TENNIS NOTES

MORE VIRGINIA NOTES

- UVA returned five of six singles players from its 2016 NCAA Championship lineup this year, losing their line one singles player, 2015 NCAA Singles Champion Ryan Shane, but adding freshman Carl Söderlund, the top player in the ITA National Freshman/Newcomer rankings
- The junior and senior classes of this team have won two NCAA Championships, an ITA National Team Indoor Championship and two ACC Championships
- The squad features a pair of two-time All-Americans. Thai-Son Kwiatkowski is a two-time All-American in singles and Luca Corinteli is a two-time All-American in doubles
- As a junior, Kwiatkowski won the singles and doubles titles at the 2015 ITA All-American, the first player since 2009 and fourth in the history of the ITA Men's All-American to win both titles in the same year, in Tulsa at the Case Tennis Center
- Kwiatkowski was the 2016 Atlantic Coast Conference Men's Tennis Scholar-Athlete of the Year
- Wake Forest head coach Tony Bresky was the associate head coach at UVA from 2002-10

BRIAN BOLAND FILE

- In his 16th season with Virginia
- 565-90 career record (.862)
- 444-58 at UVA (.884)
- ITA National Coach of the Year (2008 and 2016)
- Ten-time conference coach of the year, six-time ITA Regional Coach of the Year
- Boland's teams have had a No. 1 national ranking during 10 different seasons, won six ITA National Team Indoor Championships, 11 ACC Championships, 13 ACC regular season titles, advanced to the NCAA finals four-straight seasons and set the school record for wins in a year (39). His 2013 NCAA Championship squad finished the year with a perfect 30-0 record
- Boland's teams have featured three NCAA Singles Champions, three NCAA Doubles Champions, 42 All-Americans, 39 NCAA singles and 17 NCAA doubles participants, 54 All-ACC selections, three ITA National Players of the Year, two ITA National Freshmen of the Year, nine ITA Regional Rookies of the Year, four ACC Freshmen of the Year, 12 ACC Tournament MVPs, and three ACC Players of the Year.
- Boland's players have gone on to find success on the professional tour after graduation from Virginia. Three former players have cracked the top-75 of singles or doubles in the ATP Rankings and a Cavalier has participated in the main draw in each of the past 29 Grand Slams
- Boland will take over the role of USTA Player Development Head of Men's Tennis in June. In his new role, Boland will oversee all training and coaching of male junior, collegiate and pro players by USTA Player Development, and he will manage all USTA national coaches on the men's side.

140-MATCH ACC WINNING STREAK

- Virginia fell to North Carolina in the championship match of the 2016 ITA National Team Indoor Championships (2/5/16)
- Before falling to the Tar Heels, the Cavaliers had won 140 consecutive dual matches against ACC foes, the longest winning streak in conference history, in any sport. The run started with a victory over Wake Forest on May 14, 2006. The UNC match was Virginia's first to an ACC opponent since April 23, 2006.
