#1 Virginia Cavaliers (24-4, 11-1 ACC)
 Monmouth Hawks (12-9, 6-1 MAAC)

#25 Columbia Lions (17-5, 7-0 Ivy)
 #37 Penn State Nittany Lions (21-8, 6-5 Big Ten)

THIS WEEK

- Virginia is looking to make its 13th consecutive trip to the NCAA Round of 16
- The Cavaliers are one of six schools to win multiple NCAA Championships (USC, Stanford, UCLA, Georgia, William & Mary)
- UVa is one of three schools to have both the men and women in the round of 16 in each of the past six years (Georgia, UCLA)

NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY

- The Cavaliers won the NCAA Championship in 2013 and in 2015
- Virginia is making its 13th consecutive appearance and 18th overall
- The Cavaliers have a 49-10 record in the NCAA Tournament under Brian Boland
- Virginia has made at least the quarterfinals in each of the past 11 years (longest active streak in the nation)
- UVa reached the semifinals in eight of the last nine years (UVa is the only ACC team to ever reach a semifinal)
- Virginia has played in four of the last five NCAA finals, has reached the quarterfinals 11-straight seasons, made semifinal appearances in eight of the past nine years and has won the title in 2013 and 2015

WHAT'S IN A SEED?

- Virginia is the No. 1 seed in this year's tournament, the fifth time they have been the No. 1 seed
- The last time the Cavaliers were the top seed was the 2011 Tournament
- It is the 10th-straight year the Cavaliers have been a top-four seed
- The Cavaliers' 10-year streak of being a top-four seed is the longest current streak and tied for second-longest streak in tournament history (14-Stanford, 1988-2001; 10-USC, 1979-1988)
- UVa is the only team to be a top-eight seed in each of the past 13 years

2016 CAVALIER MEN'S TENNIS NOTES

ITA ATLANTIC REGION HONORS

- Ryan Shane was named the ITA Atlantic Region Senior Player of the Year and the region's honoree for the Arthur Ashe Sportsmanship and Leadership Award
- Collin Altamirano was named the ITA Atlantic Region Player to Watch after being named the Rookie of the Year last season

ACC-OLADES

- Virginia had six All-ACC selections, including every member of the ACC Tournament singles lineup
- Ryan Shane earned his second-straight first team honor
- Thai-Son Kwiatkowski was named to the second team, earning his third-straight All-ACC award
- Collin Altamirano was a second-team honoree after being on the third team last season
- J.C. Aragone, Luca Corinteli and Henrik Wiersholm all were named to the third team, earning their first All-ACC honors
- The six selections was the third time in program history that a half-dozen Cavaliers made the All-ACC team, matching the totals in 2005 and 2006
- Six was the highest number any one school placed on the team. North Carolina and Virginia Tech each had four student-athletes voted All-ACC, while NC State and Wake Forest each had three honorees

NCAA SELECTIONS

- Virginia had three players selected to the NCAA Singles Championship (Ryan Shane, Thai-Son Kwiatkowski, Collin Altamirano)
- It is the ninth-consecutive year Virginia has had at least three NCAA Singles Championship selections, the longest active streak in the nation
- Ryan Shane is the No. 8 seed in singles, the 11th consecutive year Virginia has had a seeded player, also the longest active streak in the nation
- Shane was the No. 8 seed last season when he won the NCAA Singles title
- Shane and Luca Corinteli are the No. 4 seed in the NCAA Doubles Championship
- Kwiatkowski and Mac Styslinger will also be playing in the doubles tournament
- Styslinger won the 2013 NCAA Doubles title his freshman season, playing alongside Jarmere Jenkins
- Kwiatkowski and Styslinger, who won the ITA All-American doubles championship in the fall, are 24-7 in doubles this season, including going 17-4 at No. 2 this spring
- In the fall, Kwiatkowski won both the singles and doubles titles at the ITA All-American tournament, becoming the first player since 2009 and fourth in the history of the ITA Men's All-American to win both titles in the same year.

NOTABLE

- Virginia and Columbia met last season in the Round of 16 in Waco
- Virginia is 22-2 against Penn State
- This is Monmouth's first-ever NCAA appearance and this will be the first-ever meeting between the Cavaliers and Hawks
