CLEMSON SEEKS FIFTH STRAIGHT ACC CHAMPIONSHIP

Clemson will attempt to earn its 19th ACC Championship and 25th overall conference championship in school history on Saturday, Dec. 7, when the Atlantic Division champion Tigers face the Coastal Division champion Virginia Cavaliers. Kickoff at Bank of America Stadium in Charlotte is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. ET.

Clemson entered 2019 as the only program in ACC history to win four consecutive outright titles. With wins this week, Clemson and Oklahoma can join the 1971-75 Alabama Crimson Tide as the only members of any active FBS conference to win five straight outright titles. This week, Clemson will attempt to become the only program since the creation of conference championship games in 1992 to win five consecutive conference championship games.

The ACC title would be Clemson's sixth under Head Coach Dabo Swinney. With the win, Swinney would tie Frank Howard's school record for ACC titles and match Howard and Duke's Bill Murray for the second-most in ACC history. Swinney would pull two shy of Howard's total number of conference championships at Clemson (eight), including Southern Conference titles in 1940 and 1948.

Clemson's top-ranked scoring defense (10.1 points per game) has allowed only three points in each of its last two contests and has held opponents out of the end zone in each of the last nine quarters. After allowing only three points in each of its last two games, Clemson will attempt to hold a third consecutive opponent to single-digit points for the first time since the first three games of the 2000 season. If Clemson were to hold Virginia to three or fewer points, it would be Clemson's first streak allowing three or fewer points in three straight games since 1981.

Bolstered by what Head Coach Dabo Swinney has called the best back seven of his tenure, Clemson's pass defense has ascended to the top of every nearly statistical pass defense category. Clemson ranks first or tied for first in the country in opponent passing yards per game, opponent completions, opponent completion percentage, opponent passing yards per attempt, opponent passer rating and opponent passing touchdowns. While FBS teams have thrown at least six touchdowns in a single game 19 times this season, Clemson has allowed only six total passing touchdowns all year.

NOTES

THE TIGER 280

Three items of note in 280 characters or less:

🐾 This week, Clemson can become the first team in the conference championship game era to win five consecutive conference championship games. Clemson and Oklahoma can become the first programs since 1971-75 Alabama to win five straight outright conference titles.

🐾 Head Coach Dabo Swinney will attempt to earn his sixth career ACC title this week, which would tie Frank Howard's school record and match Howard and Duke's Bill Murray for the second-most in ACC history.

🐾 Clemson's defense leads the nation in opponent pass yards, completions, passer rating, completion pct., yards per attempt and passing TDs. This year, FBS teams have thrown six or more TDs in a single game 19 times. Clemson has allowed only six passing TDs all season.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR THIS WEEK

- Clemson winning its 25th conference championship in school history. The Tigers enter this week with four SIAA championships, two Southern Conference championships and 18 ACC championships to their credit, and their 24 total conference championships are the most among the ACC's current membership.

- Clemson securing its 19th all-time ACC championship. Clemson's current 18 ACC titles are already the most in conference history, ahead of the 15 earned by Florida State.

- Clemson attempting to become the first team in ACC history to win five consecutive ACC titles outright. Florida State earned at least a share of nine consecutive ACC titles from 1992-2000 but never earned more than three consecutive titles outright.

- Clemson attempting to join the 1971-75 Alabama Crimson Tide as the only members of any current FBS conference to win five straight outright conference titles. Oklahoma can also join that group this week.

- Clemson attempting to surpass the 1993-96 Florida Gators (four straight) to become the first team to win five consecutive conference championship games.

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney attempting to win his sixth ACC title, which would tie Frank Howard's school record and match Howard and Duke's Bill Murray for the second-most in ACC history.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 13-0 for only the third time in school history, joining the 2015 and 2018 squads that both went on to play for national championships.

- Clemson (two) attempting to tie Alabama (three) for the most 13-0 starts to a season since 2000. Clemson's two 13-0 starts are presently tied with Auburn, Boise State, Florida State and Texas for the most in that time frame.

- The 2019 Tigers attempting to win a 13th game to move into sole possession of fourth place for the most wins in a season in school history, trailing only a 15-win season in 2018 and 14-win seasons in 2015 and 2016.

- The 2019 Clemson seniors attempting to win their 54th game to pass the 2017 Alabama seniors for sole possession of the third-most in FBS history in a four-year span. Clemson would match the 2018 Alabama seniors as the fastest to 54 wins (57 games).

- Clemson attempting to win its 28th consecutive game, dating to the start of the 2018 season, to extend the longest winning streak in school history and second-longest winning streak in ACC history. A 28-game winning streak would tie for the 15th-longest streak in major college football history and pull Clemson within one game of the ACC record of 29 (2012-14 Florida State).

- Clemson attempting to extend its active streak of wins by 30 or more points to eight to break the longest streak in the AP Poll era (since 1936). Per ESPN Stats & Info, Clemson is presently tied with 2011 Houston and 1976 Michigan at seven each.

- Clemson entering the postseason as the only team in the country with 10 wins against Power Five opponents this season. Even with the inclusion of a one-point road victory against a conference opponent in late September, Clemson won its 10 regular season games against Power Five opponents by an average margin of 33.5 points, including eight victories of 31 or more points.

- Clemson entering the game with a 35.2-point scoring margin in all games this season, one-tenth of a point shy of the school record established in John Heisman's first season at Clemson in 1900 (+35.3).

- Clemson attempting to improve to 39-8-1 against Virginia all-time.

- Clemson and Virginia meeting in postseason play for the first time in series history.

- Clemson attempting to win a fourth consecutive game against Virginia for the first time since opening its all-time series against the Cavaliers with a 29-game winning streak across the 1955-89 seasons. That previous 29-game winning streak is tied for the sixth-longest winning streak in FBS history for one team over another, trailing Notre Dame over Navy (43), Nebraska over Kansas (36), Oklahoma over Kansas State (32), Florida over Kentucky (31), Penn State over Temple (31) and matching Nebraska over Kansas State (29).

- Clemson facing a fifth different Coastal Division champion during its current five-year run of ACC Championship berths (2015: North Carolina; 2016: Virginia Tech; 2017: Miami; 2018: Pitt; 2019: Virginia). This year, the Coastal Division became the first division in the championship game era to produce seven different champions in seven seasons.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 28-8 against ACC Coastal Division opponents, including postseason play, under Head Coach Dabo Swinney. Clemson has won 13 of its last 14 games against the Coastal Division since 2015.

- Clemson attempting to push its streak of consecutive victories in ACC interdivisional matchups to 10 games, dating back to the 2016 ACC Championship Game.

- Clemson attempting to defeat its 22nd consecutive ACC opponent, including postseason play, dating to October 2017 against Georgia Tech. A 22nd consecutive victory against a conference opponent (including postseason play) would be the longest such streak in school history. That streak includes 19 straight in regular season play, one shy of the school-record 20-game ACC regular season streak posted by the 1981-84 Tigers.

- Clemson attempting to earn its 21st victory in its last 23 games against top-25 teams since the start of the 2015 season.

- Clemson attempting to win its fourth consecutive neutral site contest to push Clemson to 8-1 at neutral sites since 2016. Clemson's active three-game neutral-site winning streak is the tied for the seventh-longest in the country.

- Clemson seeking its 38th victory in its last 41 games away from home.

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney attempting to improve to 16-6 in games played in NFL stadiums.

- Clemson attempting to push its winning streak in Saturday games to 42 to extend the longest Saturday winning streak in school history. Clemson's current 41-game run of consecutive Saturday victories is the longest active streak in the country.

- Clemson entering the week as the only team in the country to rank in the Top 3 in both total offense (third, 541.8 per game) and total defense (second, 232.8).

- Clemson entering the game having not allowed a touchdown in its last nine quarters. Clemson's last touchdown surrendered was in the third quarter at NC State on Nov. 9. The touchdown-free streak is Clemson's longest since a nine-quarter streak in games 10-12 of 2005 (two quarters vs. Florida State, four quarters vs. South Carolina, three quarters vs. Colorado).

- Conversely, Clemson enters the game having scored (including field goals) in 29 consecutive quarters. Clemson was last held without a point in a quarter in the third quarter of its Sept. 28 game at North Carolina. The previous long under Head Coach Dabo Swinney had been 24 straight quarters in games 4-10 of the 2015 season.

- Clemson attempting to hold a third consecutive opponent to single-digit points for the first time since the first three games of the 2000 season.

- Clemson attempting to hold a third straight opponent to three or fewer points, which would be Clemson's first streak allowing three or fewer points in three straight games since early in its 1981 national championship season.

- Clemson, which held Wake Forest to five first downs and South Carolina to nine first downs in its last two games, attempting to hold a third straight opponent to single digits in first downs since the 1954 season finale and first two games of the 1955 season.

- Clemson attempting to record 600 yards of offense for a fifth time to add to its current single-season school record for 600-yard games (four).

- Clemson attempting to reach 500 yards in an eighth straight game for the first time since an 11-game streak to end the 2015 season.

- Clemson entering the game one of only three teams in the country averaging at least 250 yards per game both rushing (252.4) and passing (285.3). Clemson has exceeded 3,000 yards passing and 3,000 yards rushing this season, the third 3,000/3,000 season in school history (2015 and 2018).

- Clemson (two) needing one more 400-yard rushing game in 2019 to break the school record for 400-yard rushing games in a season (two each by the 1950, 1992 and 2018 squads).

- Clemson (four) rushing for 300 yards in a fifth game this season to tie the school record for 300-yard rushing games in a single season (five each in 1950, 1978 and 2018).

- Clemson attempting to rush for multiple touchdowns in a 14th consecutive game for the first time since a 15-game streak across the 2016-17 seasons.

- Clemson attempting to produce more passing yards than its opponent in a 16th consecutive game, dating to last season, for the first time since an 18-game streak across the 2015-17 seasons.

- Clemson attempting to throw three or more touchdowns in eight straight games for the first time in school history.

- Clemson attempting to hold a 13th straight opponent below 300 yards of total offense to open the season. Per ESPN Stats & Info, Clemson was already the first team in searchable data dating back to 1996 to open a season by holding its first 12 opponents to 300 or fewer yards. Ohio State had matched Clemson through 11 games in this category until surrendering 396 yards to Michigan last week.

- Clemson attempting to hold a 16th consecutive opponent to 20 or fewer points for the first time since a 31-game streak across the 1937-40 seasons under Hall of Fame coaches Jess Neely and Frank Howard.

- Clemson attempting to hold an 11th consecutive opponent below 200 passing yards for the first time since a 12-game streak across the 1974-75 seasons. During Clemson's current run of four consecutive College Football Playoff berths starting in 2015, Clemson has held opponents below 200 passing yards 45 times, second-most in the country, with a 44-1 record in those contests.

- Clemson attempting to win the turnover margin in eight consecutive games for the first time under Head Coach Dabo Swinney.

- Clemson attempting to win the turnover margin for a 10th time this season, which would surpass the 2013 squad for Clemson's most such games in a season under Head Coach Dabo Swinney.

- Clemson attempting to produce a takeaway for an eighth consecutive game and for the 16th time in 17 games, dating to 2018.

- Clemson entering the game having turned the ball over zero times in four out of its last five games.

- Clemson entering the game with three defensive touchdowns in 2019. A fourth defensive touchdown this season would represent Clemson's second time in three years scoring four defensive touchdowns in a season (four in 2017).

- Clemson attempting to finish a third straight game with a 350-yard advantage in total yards for the first time in school history. Clemson has recorded a 350-yard edge in total yardage in four of its last five games, including three 400-plus-yard margins in that time frame.

- Clemson attempting to exceed 6.0 yards per play for an eighth game in a row. Clemson's current seven-game streak is the program's longest since a nine-game streak in 2015.

- Clemson (543) needing seven points to post the fourth 550-point season in school history, joining the 2018 (664), 2016 (588) and 2015 (577) seasons. The 2019 Tigers can move into a tie for second in a season in school history with 45 more points on Saturday.

- Clemson (73) needing three more touchdowns to move past the 2016 squad (75) for second-most touchdowns in a season in school history, trailing 2018 (90). Clemson's 73 touchdowns have been scored by 18 different players; last year, Clemson set a school record with 22 different players scoring touchdowns in 2018.

- Clemson (6,501) needing 499 yards to post the fourth 7,000-yard season in Clemson history. All three previous 7,000-yard seasons have come in Dabo Swinney's head coaching tenure (2015, 2016 and 2018).

- Clemson (3,077) needing 164 rushing yards to tie the 1988 Tigers (3,241) and enter the Top 5 in school history in rushing yards in a single season. The 2019 squad could move into fourth (3,245 in 1986) with 169 yards and move into third (3,345 in 2015) with 269 yards.

- Clemson (3,424) needing 576 passing yards to produce the sixth 4,000-yard passing season in school history.

- Clemson (269) needing 31 completions to post the ninth 300-completion season in school history.

- Clemson (321) needing 29 first downs to produce the fourth season with 350 first downs in school history (2015, 2016 and 2018).

- Running back Travis Etienne, who set the ACC career record for rushing touchdowns (53) and total touchdowns (57) last week, entering the game as the Football Bowl Subdivision's active career leader in each category.

- Etienne (53) needing seven more rushing touchdowns to become only the 12th player in FBS history to record 60 career rushing touchdowns, a mark reached only by Navy's Keenan Reynolds (88), Wisconsin's Montee Ball (77), Miami (Ohio)'s Travis Prentice (73), Texas' Ricky Williams (72), Louisiana Tech's Kenneth Dixon (72), Florida Atlantic's Devin Singletary (66), Indiana's Anthony Thompson (64), Texas' Cedric Benson (64), Wisconsin's Ron Dayne (63), San Diego State's Donnel Pumphrey (62) and Oregon's Royce Freeman (60).

- Etienne (342) entering the game as the highest-scoring non-kicker in ACC history. He is 21 points shy of entering the Top 10 in conference history for career scoring among all players, including kickers.

- Etienne (3,810) entering the game 72 rushing yards shy of passing James Davis (3,881) for second on Clemson's career rushing yardage leaderboard. He needs 157 rushing yards to pass Raymond Priester (3,966) for Clemson's all-time record for career rushing yards.

- Etienne attempting to reach 200 rushing yards in a game for the fourth time in his career to add to his school record for career 200-yard rushing games. He would become the first Clemson player with three 200-yard rushing games in a single season.

- Etienne (16) recording another 100-yard rushing game to tie Wayne Gallman (17 from 2014-16) for the school record for career 100-yard rushing games.

- Etienne (seven) attempting to post an eighth 100-yard rushing game this season to tie his 2018 campaign for the second-most 100-yard rushing games in a season in school history.

- Etienne attempting to rush for a touchdown in a seventh straight game to tie his career-long streak set across the first seven games of the 2018 season. It would tie that streak and Kenny Flowers' seven-game streak in 1985 for the fifth-longest in school history.

- Etienne (1,386) needing 142 rushing yards to pass No. 2 Wayne Gallman (1,527 in 2015) on Clemson's single-season rushing yardage leaderboard. He is 272 yards away from matching his school record of 1,658, set last season.

- Etienne (1,386) needing only 114 more rushing yards this season to become the first player in school history to record multiple 1,500-yard rushing seasons.

- Etienne (16) needing two rushing touchdowns to take sole possession of the second-most rushing touchdowns in a season in school history. Lester Brown (1978), James Davis (2006) and Wayne Gallman (2016) all had 17 each, behind Etienne's record 24 rushing touchdowns in 2018.

- Etienne (16) needing only four more rushing touchdowns this season to become the first player in ACC history to record multiple seasons of 20 or more rushing touchdowns in a career. Etienne (24 in 2018) is presently one of only four players in league history with a 20-touchdown rushing season to his credit, including Pitt's James Conner (26 in 2014), Virginia Tech's Ryan Williams (21 in 2009) and Louisville's Lamar Jackson (21 in 2016).

- Etienne (18) sitting two touchdowns of any kind shy of becoming the first Clemson player with 20 total touchdowns in multiple seasons. Presently, Etienne's 2018 campaign (26) and C.J. Spiller's 2009 season (21) represent the only seasons of 20-plus touchdowns by individuals in school history.

- Etienne (4,673) needing 167 all-purpose yards to pass Derrick Hamilton (4,839) for third on Clemson's leaderboard for career all-purpose yards. Etienne needs 327 yards to join C.J. Spiller and Sammy Watkins as the only players in school history to record 5,000 career rushing yards.

- Etienne (1,725) needing 275 yards to post only the third 2,000-yard all-purpose season in school history (2,680 by C.J. Spiller in 2009, and 2,288 by Sammy Watkins in 2011).

- Etienne (two) seeking his single-season career-high third touchdown reception.

- Wide receiver Tee Higgins (24) sitting three touchdown receptions shy of the school career record, held jointly by DeAndre Hopkins and Sammy Watkins (27 each).

- Higgins (2,181) chasing No. 10 Jerry Butler (2,223), and No. 9 Derrick Hamilton (2,312) on Clemson's career receiving yardage list.

- Higgins (900) sitting 37 yards shy of breaking his single-season career high in receiving yards, set as a sophomore last season (936).

- Higgins (900) needing 100 yards to post the 11th 1,000-yard receiving season in Clemson history.

- Higgins attempting to catch a touchdown in a fifth straight game to tie his career long set across the final four games of the 2018 season and the 2019 season opener. It would tie that streak as well as five-game streaks by Deon Cain (2015), Aaron Kelly (2007) and Derrick Hamilton (2003) for the second-longest streak in school history.

- Higgins attempting to become the first player in Clemson history to catch multiple touchdowns in three consecutive games.

- Higgins (10) needing two more receiving touchdowns to tie his career high and pull into a four-way tie with himself (12 in 2018) and Sammy Watkins (12 in both 2011 and 2013) for the second-most in a season in Clemson history.

- Quarterback Trevor Lawrence attempting to throw a touchdown pass in a 23rd consecutive game. His current 22-game streak is the longest active streak in the country. (Note: UCF's McKenzie Milton had a 24-game streak prior to suffering an injury in November 2018 that will likely preclude him from playing in 2019).

- Lawrence entering the game with 60 career passing touchdowns, the second-most through a sophomore season in ACC history. The record is presently held by Jameis Winston across his first two seasons at Florida State (65).

- Lawrence (30) setting a single-season career high with his next touchdown pass, surpassing his mark of 30 set as a freshman last year.

- Lawrence (30) chasing No. 5 Tajh Boyd (33 in 2011), No. 4 Boyd (34 in 2013), No. 3 Deshaun Watson (35 in 2015) and No. 2 Boyd (36 in 2012) on the school leaderboard for touchdown passes in a single season.

- Lawrence attempting to throw three touchdown passes in eight consecutive games for the first time in his career. He is already the first Clemson quarterback to accomplish the feat in seven straight games.

- Lawrence (2,870) needing 130 more passing yards this season to become the third quarterback in Clemson history to post multiple 3,000-yard passing seasons, joining Tajh Boyd (three from 2011-13) and Deshaun Watson (two from 2015-16). Lawrence would be the first to accomplish the feat across his freshman and sophomore seasons. Another 3,000-yard season by Lawrence would be the 10th in school history.

- Lawrence (475) completing 25 passes to become the fifth player in school history to complete 500 career passes.

- Lawrence (475) completing 44 passes to pass No. 4 Cullen Harper (518) on Clemson's leaderboard for career pass completions.

- Lawrence (six) attempting to join Tajh Boyd (18), Deshaun Watson (13) and Charlie Whitehurst (eight) as the only players in school history to record at least seven career 300-yard passing games.

- Lawrence (6,710) needing 77 combined rushing and passing yards to pass Nealon Greene (6,786) for fifth on the school's leaderboard for career total offense. A combined 290 yards would make Lawrence only the fifth player in school history to combine for 7,000 career yards of total offense.

- Lawrence (68) passing Woodrow Dantzler (68) for third in school history in career total touchdown responsibility with his next passing or rushing touchdown.

- Lawrence entering the contest having thrown 147 consecutive pass attempts without an interception, dating to the first quarter at Louisville on Oct. 19. He needs 23 more passes without an interception to break his own single-season school record of 169 set last season. He needs 41 more passes without a pick to break Tajh Boyd's multi-season record of 187 from 2012-13.

- Safety Tanner Muse (four) needing two more interceptions to tie for fifth in school history in interceptions in a season.

- Kicker B.T. Potter attempting to convert a third field goal of 50 yards or more to tie Richard Jackson's school record for 50-yard field goals in a single season from 2009. Potter recorded a field goal of 51 yards against both Georgia Tech and Louisville.

- Potter (66) entering the game third in Clemson history in PATs in a single season. He trails only Greg Huegel, who made 76 PATs in 2018 and 71 PATs in 2016.

- Potter (73-for-73 for his career) entering the game 15 extra points shy of Clemson's all-time record for consecutive extra points made (88 by Mark Buchholz from 2007-08).

- Safeties K'Von Wallace and Tanner Muse (56 each) each appearing in their 57th career game to tie fullback Chad Diehl (57 from 2007-11) for fifth-most career games in school history.

CLEMSON ACC CHAMPIONSHIP HISTORY

Clemson has a 5-1 record in six previous appearances in the ACC Championship Game. In the first two appearances, Clemson played a team it faced earlier that season. But, this year's matchup represents the fifth straight time Clemson has played a team for the first time that season in the ACC Championship Game. The Tigers faced North Carolina in 2015, Virginia Tech in 2016, Miami (Fla.) in 2017 and Pitt in 2018 in their first matchup of the season in each instance.

Clemson first played in the ACC Championship Game in 2009 when Georgia Tech defeated Clemson, 39-34. Both teams rushed for over 300 yards in the game, which was the only FBS game in 2009 in which both teams had at least 300 yards rushing. It remains the only game in Clemson history in which neither team punted.

C.J. Spiller rushed for 233 yards, scored four touchdowns and had 301 all-purpose yards, all of which remain ACC Championship game records. He was named the game's MVP, the only time a player from the losing team has been honored.

Clemson won the title two years later with a 38-10 win over Virginia Tech in 2011. Virginia Tech was ranked third in the USA Today poll entering the game, and the victory tied for the highest-ranked team Clemson had defeated at the time. Clemson has since defeated a No. 2 Ohio State and twice defeated No. 1 Alabama.

Tajh Boyd had three touchdown passes and one rushing to account for four of Clemson's five touchdowns on the night in 2011, as the Tigers boasted a balanced attack that recorded 217 yards rushing and 240 yards passing. It was Clemson's first ACC Championship since 1991.

Future NFL pros Dwayne Allen, Sammy Watkins and Andre Ellington all scored touchdowns for Clemson and the Tigers' defense held Virginia Tech to just 56 yards rushing.

In 2015, the Tigers defeated North Carolina, 45-37, for the championship, a victory that gave Clemson a 13-0 record and a spot in the College Football Playoff for the first time. North Carolina was 11-1 and ranked eighth in the nation entering the game.

Deshaun Watson led a Clemson offense that gained 608 yards in 98 plays, including 319 rushing yards and 289 passing yards. Watson completed 26-of-42 passes for 289 yards and three scores. He also had 131 yards rushing on 24 attempts and two rushing touchdowns. Wayne Gallman had 187 yards on 28 attempts to lead Clemson's ground game. Artavis Scott had seven catches for 96 yards and a score. Gallman also had a career-high 68 receiving yards, giving him 255 all-purpose yards.

Clemson won the 2016 ACC Championship game in Orlando over Virginia Tech with a 42-35 victory. Clemson was ranked third in the nation entering that game and Virginia Tech was 19th. Watson helped bolster his case as a Heisman finalist by accounting for five touchdowns in the victory, including three passing touchdowns among his 23-of-34 passing performance for 288 yards while adding 17 carries for 85 yards and two touchdowns on the ground.

Top-ranked Clemson won its third straight ACC title in 2017, defeating the No. 7 Miami Hurricanes, 38-3, in Charlotte. Offensively, the Tigers were sparked by quarterback Kelly Bryant, who completed his first 15 passes for 164 yards and finished the game with 252 yards and one passing touchdown on a career-high 23 completions to earn MVP honors. The Clemson defense held Miami to just 22 yards of offense in the first quarter and 214 for the whole game, while also forcing three Hurricane turnovers in the third quarter alone.

An overview of Clemson's most recent ACC Championship appearance in 2018 is included in the following section.

MOST RECENT ACC CHAMPIONSHIP
Clemson 42, Pitt 10
(Dec. 1, 2018 at Charlotte, N.C.)

No. 2/2 Clemson became the first football team in ACC history to win four consecutive conference titles outright on a rainy night at Bank of America Stadium, defeating the Coastal champion Pitt Panthers by a score of 42-10. With the win, Clemson remained undefeated at 13-0 overall, while Pitt moved to 7-6 on the year.

Trevor Lawrence completed 12-of-24 pass attempts for 118 yards with a pair of touchdown tosses to Tee Higgins, who finished the game with 36 yards and those two scores on three receptions. Travis Etienne added 156 yards with two touchdowns on 12 carries, and Adam Choice and Lyn-J Dixon each ran for a score as well. On the defensive side of the ball, Clemson held the Pitt offense to negative yardage for the first nine minutes of the game and also limited the Panthers to just eight passing yards for the whole game. Tre Lamar topped the stat sheet with nine total tackles, and Dexter Lawrence and Isaiah Simmons each contributed two and a half of the Tigers' nine total tackles for loss.

Clemson found the end zone on the night's first play from scrimmage, as Etienne exploded for a 75-yard scoring run that gave the Tigers a 7-0 lead just 13 seconds into the matchup, good for the fastest score in ACC Championship history. The Tigers doubled that lead five minutes later, as Etienne barreled three yards for a touchdown after Simmons forced a Pitt fumble that Christian Wilkins recovered and returned 18 yards to set up the score. The Panthers got on the board with just under two minutes remaining in the first quarter on a 37-yard Alex Kessman field goal, leaving the score at 14-3 after the first 15 minutes of play.

Pitt scored the second quarter's first touchdown with seven minutes gone in it, with Qadree Ollison cutting the Clemson lead to just four points on a one-yard scoring rush. But a five-yard scoring pass from Lawrence to Higgins put the Tigers' advantage back at 10 points with five minutes left in the half. An A.J. Terrell interception returned 31 yards to the Pitt 10-yard line then set up Higgins' second touchdown reception of the night, and it came on the next play to give the Tigers a 28-10 lead that they took into halftime.

The scoreboard still read 28-10 after the third quarter, but that changed on the second play of the fourth quarter with a Choice one-yard scoring rush set up by a Justyn Ross 38-yard reception two snaps earlier. The final score of the game came in the form of a Dixon four-yard rush with just over three minutes remaining in the matchup, bringing the final score to 42-10.

ACC CHAMPIONSHIP EXPERIENCE
This will be Clemson's fifth straight appearance in the league's championship game, while it will be Virginia's first appearance.

Clemson has seven players who have played in each of the last three ACC Championship games. Those players include offensive linemen Tremayne Anchrum and Sean Pollard, safeties Denzel Johnson, Tanner Muse and K'Von Wallace and linebackers James Skalski and Chad Smith.

When it comes to participation, four active Tigers have played at least 75 snaps in ACC Championship Games.

ALL-TIME ACC CHAMPIONSHIPS

Clemson has 18 ACC championships in school history, the most in the history of the conference. Florida State ranks second with 15. The Tigers have won each of the last four titles and will attempt to extend the longest streak in school history and longest outright streak in conference history.

The Tigers are already the first ACC program to win four consecutive ACC titles outright, a streak they will attempt to extend to five on Saturday. Florida State had a streak of nine straight ACC titles, but that streak included two co-championships that prevented Bobby Bowden's Seminoles from ever winning four straight titles outright.

Clemson has 24 conference championships overall, also the most of any current ACC school. Duke ranks second among the ACC's current membership with 18 overall conference titles, including 11 Southern Conference titles and seven ACC titles.

The Tigers won the 1900, 1902 and 1903 SIAA Conference championships under John Heisman, then the 1906 SIAA title under Bob Williams. Clemson also won the 1940 and 1948 Southern Conference titles under Frank Howard. Howard won eight total conference titles, including two in the Southern Conference and six in the ACC.

SEEKING 13 WINS

A victory Saturday would make the 2019 Clemson squad just the sixth ACC team in history to record at least 13 wins in a season. The 13-win season would be Clemson's fourth and would double the most by any other ACC program (two by Florida State).

Clemson has posted the ACC's three most-recent 13-win seasons, recording a 14-1 record during both the 2015 and 2016 campaigns and a 15-0 record in 2018.

Clemson's 1981 National Championship team was the first ACC team to win 12 games in a season. Florida State accomplished the feat five times between 1993 and 2014, including a streak of three seasons with at least 12 wins from 2012-14. They won a then-record 14 games (14-0) in 2013, a mark tied by Clemson in 2015 and 2016 before being broken in 2018.

Both Pittsburgh and Miami have posted 12-win seasons in their school histories, but those years came prior to their addition to the ACC.

SENIOR CLASS SUPERLATIVES

Clemson honored its 2019 senior class with Senior Day festivities prior to its Nov. 16 contest against Wake Forest. As it enters the postseason this week, the 2019 senior class...

... holds a 53-3 overall record in the last four years, one of only four senior classes in FBS history to post at least 53 career wins in four years.

... will become the second senior class in conference history to play in four consecutive ACC Championship games, and with a win in Charlotte this week, could become the second class in conference history to win four ACC titles outright, joining Clemson's 2018 class.

... is attempting to become Clemson's second straight senior class to earn four consecutive College Football Playoff berths during their careers.

... has won 45 games against Power Five conference opponents since 2016, the most in the country.

... has been ranked in the AP Top 10 in every poll of their careers, one of only two senior classes in the country able to make that claim. That includes a streak of 37 consecutive appearances in the Top 5 since 2017, the longest streak in school history.

... finished 27-1 in Death Valley, tying the 2017 and 2018 Clemson seniors for the most career wins at Memorial Stadium.

... produced a 30-2 record in ACC regular season play and a 33-2 overall record against ACC opponents. The 30th ACC regular season win tied the school record and concluded the seniors' regular season ACC careers one win shy of the all-time conference record of 31.

... finished 23-1 in ACC Atlantic Division play. The class posted 4-0 marks against five of its six Atlantic division foes (Boston College, Florida State, Louisville, NC State and Wake Forest).

... was the 14th Clemson senior class to post a perfect 4-0 record against South Carolina.

SWINNEY IN NFL STADIUMS

Saturday's game at Bank of America Stadium, home of the Carolina Panthers, will be Clemson's 12th game in an NFL stadium in the last five years. Clemson has won 12 of its last 14 games in NFL stadiums, including three last season: an ACC Championship victory at the home of the Panthers, a Cotton Bowl victory at the home of the Cowboys, and a National Championship Game at the home of the 49ers. Clemson has a 15-6 record in NFL stadiums under Head Coach Dabo Swinney.

-- ON THE OPPONENT --

SERIES HISTORY VS. VIRGINIA

Clemson holds a commanding 38-8-1 lead in the series with Virginia including a slight 9-8-1 advantage since 1990 after Clemson won the first 29 games of the series.

Virginia's last win in the series took place in 2004 in Charlottesville by a 30-10 score on a Thursday night.

Saturday's game will represent only the fourth meeting between the two teams in Dabo Swinney's tenure. Swinney first faced Virginia as a head coach in his fourth game as Clemson's interim head coach, earning a 13-3 victory in 2008. Clemson won, 34-21, the next year in a home finale that gave Clemson its first ACC Atlantic Division title. Clemson secured a 59-10 win in the teams' most recent meeting in 2013.

Clemson won the first 29 games of the series before Virginia cracked the win column with a 20-7 victory in Charlottesville in 1990. Ironically, Clemson's first win in the history of the series (in 1955) was also by a 20-7 score.

Clemson's 29-game winning streak against Virginia between 1955-89 is tied for the sixth-longest winning streak in NCAA history for one team over another, trailing Notre Dame over Navy (43), Nebraska over Kansas (36), Oklahoma over Kansas State (32), Florida over Kentucky (31), Penn State over Temple (31) and matching Nebraska over Kansas State (29).

The only tie in the series took place in 1991, a 20-20 score at Clemson that was played on Homecoming. The Tigers had 511 yards of total offense in that game yet did not win, one of only three games in Clemson history in which Clemson picked up at least 500 yards and did not earn a victory.

Clemson has outscored Virginia, 1241-682, all-time in the series. Clemson's +559 point differential in the series is its sixth-largest against any opponent in school history, trailing point margins against Wake Forest, Presbyterian, Furman, South Carolina and The Citadel.

LAST GAME VS. VIRGINIA

Clemson 59, Virginia 10

(Nov. 2, 2013 at Charlottesville, Va.)

No. 9 Clemson jumped on Virginia early and often, outscoring the Cavaliers, 35-7, in the first half en route to an eventual 59-10 victory at Scott Stadium.

Junior Sammy Watkins was the star of the proceedings, hauling in touchdowns of 33 and 96 yards on Clemson's first possession of each half, respectively. He finished the day with eight receptions for 169 yards and two touchdowns, as the battery of he and quarterback Tajh Boyd each earned ACC Player of the Week honors for their performances.

Boyd, in his return to his home state of Virginia, completed 24-of-29 passes for 377 yards and accounted for four touchdowns in the win.

Clemson led by a score of 14-7 late in the second quarter when freshman safety Jayron Kearse created two turnovers — an interception and a forced fumble — on consecutive Virginia possessions. Clemson scored three touchdowns in the final 4:18 of the first half to put the game away early.

The Tigers outgained the Cavaliers, 610-277, including a 435-163 advantage in passing yardage. Clemson was led in rushing by running back Rod McDowell, now an offensive graduate assistant on Clemson's 2019 staff, who had 70 yards and a touchdown in the contest.

ACTIVE PLAYERS: CAREER STATS VS. OPPONENT

This week will mark the first meeting with Virginia for every member of Clemson's roster. The teams last met in the fall of 2013, when Clemson's current fifth-year seniors were juniors in high school. Clemson's current true freshmen were seventh graders at that time of that meeting, a 59-10 Clemson win.

POSTGAME NOTES VS. SOUTH CAROLINA

- Clemson has now recorded a seven-game streak of 30-point wins to tie the longest streak in the AP Poll era (since 1936), per ESPN Stats & Info, matching Houston in 2011 and Michigan in 1976.

- The 35-point margin of victory was Clemson's seventh largest in series history and its largest since a 49-point win against the Gamecocks in 2016.

- Clemson entered the contest having won its last three games in the series against South Carolina by at least 21 points (49 points in 2016, 24 points in 2017 and 21 points in 2018). The fourth consecutive win of 21 points of more marks the longest streak of 21-point victories in the series by either team.

- The three points allowed by Clemson are the fewest in the series since shutting out South Carolina in 1989. Clemson allowed 179 yards, the fewest allowed by Clemson in the series since that 1989 contest (155).

- Clemson held a 12th straight opponent below 300 yards of total offense to open the season. Per ESPN Stats & Info, Clemson is the first team in searchable data dating back to 1996 to open a season by holding its first 12 opponents to 300 or fewer yards. Ohio State had held its first 11 opponents this year under 300 yards but gave up 396 yards at Michigan on Saturday.

- Clemson has now held 15 consecutive opponents to 20 or fewer points for the first time since a 31-game streak across the 1937-40 seasons under Hall of Fame coaches Jess Neely and Frank Howard.

- Clemson held a 10th consecutive opponent below 200 passing yards for the first time since the final 10 games of the 1977 regular season.

- Clemson won the turnover margin, 1-0, and has now won the turnover margin in seven consecutive games for the first time under Head Coach Dabo Swinney.

- Clemson won the turnover margin for a ninth time overall this season, which matched the 2013 squad for Clemson's most such games in a season under Head Coach Dabo Swinney.

- Clemson gained 527 yards and reached 500 yards in a seventh straight game for the first time since an 11-game streak to end the 2015 season.

- Clemson did not turn the ball over and has produced zero giveaways in four of the last five games.

- Clemson (6,501) has now posted the eighth 6,000-yard season in Clemson history. All but one of the eight 6,000-yard seasons have come in Dabo Swinney's head coaching tenure.

- Clemson has now thrown three or more touchdowns in seven straight games for the first time in school history.

- Clemson's second touchdown of the game, a 65-yard touchdown pass, was Clemson's 70th touchdown of the season, as the 2019 squad produced the fourth 70-touchdown season in school history to join the 2018 (90), 2016 (75) and 2015 (71) campaigns. Clemson's 73 touchdowns this season have been scored by 18 different players.

- During the contest, Clemson (3,077) reached 3,000 rushing yards on the season to record the seventh 3,000-yard rushing season in program history.

- Clemson rushed for multiple touchdowns in a 13th consecutive game for the first time since a 15-game streak across the 2016-17 seasons.

- Clemson out-passed South Carolina, 316-105, and produced more passing yards than its opponent in a 15th consecutive game, dating to last season, for the first time since an 18-game streak across the 2015-17 seasons.

- Quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 26-of-36 passes for 295 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions. He also rushed eight times for a career-high 66 yards.

- Lawrence's 361 combined yards of total offense were the fourth-most of his career and his second-most of the season (437 at Syracuse).

- Lawrence's 295 passing yards were Clemson's fourth-most against South Carolina in school history. Including his school-best 393 passing yards against South Carolina, Lawrence is responsible for two of the top four passing yardage performances against the Gamecocks in school history.

- Lawrence has now thrown a touchdown pass in 22 consecutive games. His current streak is the longest active streak in the country. (Note: UCF's McKenzie Milton had a 24-game streak prior to suffering an injury in November 2018 that will likely preclude him from playing in 2019).

- Lawrence (30) threw three touchdowns to tie his single-season career high in passing touchdowns (30), set as a freshman last year.

- Lawrence's third touchdown pass was his 30th of the season, as he joined Tajh Boyd and Deshaun Watson as the only players in school history to throw 30 touchdown passes in multiple seasons.

- Lawrence has now thrown three touchdown passes in seven consecutive games for the first time in his career. He had already been the first Clemson quarterback to accomplish the feat in six straight games.

- Lawrence set a school record for consecutive completions in a single game, completing 18 consecutive passes to break the mark held by Cullen Harper (15 vs. Central Michigan in 2007) and Kelly Bryant (15 vs. Miami in 2017).

- Lawrence's 18 consecutive completions tied ACC single-game records held by Virginia's Michael Rocco (vs. Miami in 2012) and North Carolina's Mitch Trubisky (vs. James Madison in 2016).

- Lawrence entered the contest having thrown 111 consecutive pass attempts without an interception, dating to the first quarter at Louisville on Oct. 19, a streak he pushed to 147. Since the start of the second quarter at Louisville, Lawrence is 112-of-147 for 1,564 yards with 19 touchdowns and no interceptions for a passer rating of 202.4 in that span.

- During the game, Lawrence (475) passed Nealon Greene (458) and Woodrow Dantzler (460) for fifth on Clemson's leaderboard for career pass completions.

- Lawrence (6,150) also passed Dantzler (6,037) for fourth on Clemson's career passing yardage leaderboard and tied Dantzler (68) for third in school history in career total touchdown responsibility.

- Running back Travis Etienne rushed 15 times for 51 yards with two rushing touchdowns.

- Etienne scored a two-yard rushing touchdown in the third quarter and a three-yard rushing touchdown in the fourth quarter.

- Etienne rushed for a touchdown in a sixth straight game for the first time since the final five games of 2018 and the 2019 season opener. It tied that streak by Etienne and a six-game streak produced by Woodrow Dantzler in 2000 for the seventh-longest streak in school history.

- The first rushing touchdown was Etienne's 15th rushing touchdown of the season, as he became the first player in Clemson history to rush for at least 15 touchdowns in multiple seasons in a career.

- The second rushing touchdown was Etienne's 53rd of his career, breaking the ACC record for career rushing touchdowns held by Pitt's James Conner. He also broke Conner's ACC record for career total touchdowns (56).

- Etienne (342) also passed Conner (338) as the highest-scoring non-kicker in ACC history in the contest and now trails only 11 kickers in career scoring in conference history.

- Etienne (1,386 this year) passed Raymond Priester for third on Clemson's single-season rushing yardage leaderboard.

- Etienne recorded his first kickoff return of the season on the game's opening kick, gaining 32 yards. It was his first kickoff return since the 2018 Sugar Bowl to conclude the 2017 season.

- Etienne (4,673) recorded 138 all-purpose yards in the game and passed Andre Ellington (4,586) for fourth on Clemson's leaderboard for career all-purpose yards.

- Wide receiver Tee Higgins caught three passes for 101 yards with two receiving touchdowns. He now has five touchdown receptions on seven catches in his last two games.

- The 100-yard receiving game was Higgins' third of the season and seventh of his career.

- During the game, Higgins (2,181) passed Hunter Renfrow (2,133) for 11th on Clemson's career receiving yardage list.

- Higgins opened the scoring with a 10-yard receiving touchdown from Lawrence in the first quarter.

- On Clemson's next drive, Higgins recorded a 65-yard touchdown reception from Lawrence.

- The touchdown was Clemson's ninth covering 50 yards or more this season, tied for its sixth-most in a season since 1950.

- Higgins has now caught multiple touchdowns in back-to-back games for the first time in his career, becoming the first Clemson receiver to catch multiple touchdown passes in back-to-back games since Deon Cain vs. Louisville and Boston College in 2016.

- Higgins' second touchdown reception was his 10th of the season. Including his 12 touchdown receptions in 2018, Higgins is now the first player in school history to post double-digit touchdown receptions in consecutive seasons. He joins Sammy Watkins (2011 and 2013) as the only players in school history to post 10 or more touchdown receptions in multiple seasons in a career.

- Higgins has now caught a touchdown in four straight games for the first time this season. He caught touchdown passes in five straight games across the final four games of the 2018 season and the 2019 season opener.

- Wide receiver Justyn Ross caught a career-high nine passes for 111 yards with a touchdown. The nine passes surpassed his seven-catch performance vs. Texas A&M earlier this season.

- The 100-yard receiving game was Ross' first of the season and the fourth of his career.

- Ross recorded a 16-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter. The touchdown reception was his seventh of the season and 16th of his career. He is now one touchdown shy of tying Perry Tuttle (17 from 1978-81) for 10th-most career receiving touchdowns in Clemson history.

- With Higgins and Ross, Clemson had two receivers record 100 receiving yards in a single game for the first time since the third game of the season at Syracuse (Tee Higgins and Amari Rodgers).

- With 60 yards in the game, Lyn-J Dixon (572) broke his single-season career high in rushing yards (547) set as a freshman last season.

- Clemson opened the game with a 14-play drive, its longest of the season and longest since an 18-play drive on the final possession of last year's College Football Playoff National Championship Game.

- Clemson finished the first quarter with a 14-0 lead and has now outscored opponents 156-10 in the opening frame this season. Clemson's 12.1-point average first-quarter differential is the largest in the country this season.

- Cornerback Derion Kendrick ended South Carolina's first possession by recording his second interception of the season. It was Clemson's second opening-drive takeaway of the season, joining K'Von Wallace's opening-drive interception at Louisville on Oct. 19.

- With Kendrick's interception, Clemson produced a takeaway for a seventh consecutive game and for the 15th time in 16 games, dating to 2018.

- Linebacker Isaiah Simmons, a Bednarik and Nagurski finalist, posted 10 tackles, 2.0 tackles for loss, a sack and a pass breakup. His 10 tackles were one shy of his season high set at Syracuse.

- Defensive tackle Jordan Williams pushed his season sack total to 2.5 and career sack total to 4.0.

- Kicker B.T. Potter recorded a 46-yard field goal in the second quarter.

- Captains for the contest were offensive lineman Gage Cervenka, safety Denzel Johnson, defensive tackle Nyles Pinckney, offensive lineman John Simpson.

WITH THE WIN

- Clemson completed its eighth undefeated regular season in school history, joining the 1900 (6-0), 1906 (4-0-3), 1948 (10-0), 1950 (8-0-1), 1981 (11-0), 2015 (12-0) and 2018 (12-0) Clemson squads. It marks Clemson's sixth time finishing a regular season without any losses or ties.

- Clemson has now opened a season 12-0 for only the fourth time, joining a 12-0 record in every game of the 1981 season and a 12-0 mark in the first 12 games of the 2015 and 2018 seasons.

- Clemson won its first 12 games of a season for the third time under Head Coach Dabo Swinney (2015 and 2018). Swinney was already the first coach in Clemson history to coach the school to multiple 12-0 starts. Danny Ford accomplished the feat once during Clemson's 1981 national championship campaign.

- With their 12th win, the 2019 Tigers tied the 1981 and 2017 squads for the fourth-most wins in a season in school history.

- Clemson earned its 115th victory this decade to join Alabama and Ohio State of the 2010s and Penn and Yale of the 1890s as the only major college football programs since 1890 to win 115 games in a single decade.

- The 2019 Clemson seniors won their 53rd game to tie the 2017 Alabama seniors for third-most in FBS history in a four-year span. The group matched the 2018 Alabama seniors as the fastest to 53 wins (56 games).

- Clemson won its 27th consecutive game, dating to the start of the 2018 season, to extend the longest winning streak in school history and second-longest winning streak in ACC history. The 27-game winning streak now stands in sole possession of the 18th-longest streak in major college football history.

- The victory was Clemson's 10th against a Power Five conference opponent this season, the most in the country. Clemson finished the regular season having won its 10 games against Power Five opponents by an average margin of 33.5 points, including eight victories of 31 or more points.

- Clemson improved to 71-42-4 all-time against South Carolina. Clemson's 71 all-time wins against South Carolina are the program's most against any opponent.

- Clemson has now recorded six consecutive wins against South Carolina for the first time since a seven-game streak from 1934-40. That seven-game streak stands as the longest winning streak in the series by either team.

- Clemson's 2019 senior class became the 14th class in school history to defeat South Carolina in four consecutive seasons, joining the 1900, 1919, 1930, 1937, 1938, 1939, 1940, 1983, 1991, 2000, 2005, 2017 and 2018 seniors.

- Clemson moved its all-time road record against South Carolina to 52-32-3. Clemson's 52 road wins at South Carolina are more than double its most all-time road wins against any other opponent. Clemson's second-most road wins against an opponent is 25 at Wake Forest.

- Clemson won a third straight road game against South Carolina for the first time since defeating the Gamecocks on the road three times across the 2003-07 seasons.

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney improved to 7-5 all-time against South Carolina and became the first Clemson coach with wins against the Gamecocks in six straight years since Jess Neely accomplished the feat in his final six games in the series from 1934-39.

- Swinney became the fourth coach in Clemson history to defeat South Carolina seven times, joining Frank Howard (13), Danny Ford (7) and Tommy Bowden (7).

- Clemson improved to 10-1 against SEC competition since 2016 and won its 10th straight regular season game against SEC competition. Clemson's last regular season loss to an SEC team came against Georgia in 2014.

- Clemson won its 12th straight true road game, the longest active streak in the country, to tie the school-record 12-game streak from 2015-17.

- Clemson earned its 24th victory in its last 25 true road games and its 37th victory in its last 40 games away from home.

- Clemson won its 23rd consecutive regular season non-conference game. Clemson's current streak against non-conference opponents in the regular season dates to a 73-7 win against South Carolina State on Sept. 6, 2014. No member of Clemson's current roster has lost a non-conference game in regular season play.

- Clemson concluded its regular season on a 29-game regular season winning streak, the longest active streak in the country. Clemson's current regular season winning streak started following a regular season loss at Syracuse on Oct. 13, 2017.

- Clemson improved to 49-0 when scoring first since 2015.

- Clemson has now won 77 of its last 79 games when leading at halftime.

- Clemson improved to 98-2 since 2011 when leading after three quarters.

- Clemson now has a 98-2 record when totaling more first downs than its opponent since 2011.

- Clemson improved to 44-1 since 2015 when outscoring opponents in the "Middle Eight," defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half. Clemson outscored South Carolina, 10-0, in that time window.

- Clemson now has a 56-3 record when winning the turnover margin since 2011.

- Clemson improved to 64-1 when rushing for 200+ yards under Dabo Swinney.

- Clemson is now 50-0 when both passing and rushing for 200+ yards under Dabo Swinney.

- Clemson has now won 80 straight games when holding teams under 23 points (dates to 2010).

- Clemson pushed its winning streak in Saturday games to 41 to extend the longest Saturday winning streak in school history. Clemson's current run of consecutive Saturday victories is the longest active streak in the country.

- Clemson concluded the month having won 14 games in a row in November.

- Clemson has now won 73 of its last 75 games against unranked teams.

MOST WINS SINCE 2015, SECOND-MOST SINCE 2011

Clemson has a 109-15 record since starting its current stretch of 10-win seasons in 2011. Only Alabama (113-12) has more wins the last eight-plus years. The Tigers also have the second-highest winning percentage (.879) in that time frame.

10-WIN SEASONS

Clemson entered 2019 riding a streak of eight consecutive seasons with 10+ wins. The program's eighth consecutive 10-win season in 2018 tied the Tigers with the 1985-92 Miami Hurricanes and the 2004-11 Virginia Tech Hokies for the fourth-longest streak in FBS history and made Clemson one of only six programs to accomplish the feat.

By earning its 10th win of the 2019 season, Clemson became only the fourth program in FBS history to record at least nine consecutive 10-win seasons, tying the 2001-09 Texas Longhorns for the third-longest streak on record.

The record for consecutive 10-win seasons is 14, set by Florida State (1987-2000). Alabama is the only other program with an active streak of at least nine straight 10-win seasons.

The Tigers now have 16 10-win seasons in school history, with more than half coming in the last nine years under head coach Dabo Swinney. The 2019 season is Clemson's sixth with at least 12 wins, with Swinney sitting at the helm for five of them.

A CENTURY MARK FOR THE DECADE

Head Coach Dabo Swinney can vividly recall the looks he received when he said Clemson was on the cusp of the winningest decade in program history following a 2010 campaign in which the Tigers finished 6-7. In 2017, that vision became a reality with two seasons to spare when Clemson collected its 88th win of the decade in the ACC Championship Game against Miami (Fla.) to surpass the Tigers of the 1980s (87) for most wins in any decade in school history.

With a rivalry win against South Carolina to close the 2018 regular season, Clemson reached triple digits in wins in a decade for the first time in program history. Included below are the schools that have accomplished that feat.

100 WINS BY DECADE

Decade	Teams
1890s	Penn (124), Yale (116), Princeton (107), Harvard (103)

Note: FBS programs

Clemson has a 115-22 record in the decade of the 2010s. That computes to an .839 winning percentage, the best for any decade in school history and the first time Clemson has won more than 80 percent in a single decade.

In the 1980s, Clemson had a .767 winning percentage (87-25-4), the nation's fifth-best winning percentage. Clemson did not have a losing season in any year in the 1980s under Danny Ford, who coached every game in that decade. Dabo Swinney has coached every game in the decade of the 2010s, and with Clemson clinching another winning season in 2019, will finish the decade with nine winning seasons and one losing season (6-7 in 2010).

SENIORS CHASING HISTORY

The 2018 Clemson seniors left their legacy not only in program history but also in the annals of the sport, recording 55 wins to tie for the most wins by any senior class in FBS history.

Throughout the 2018 season, Head Coach Dabo Swinney reminded his players that anything Clemson had done once, they'd done again. The 2019 senior class will have the opportunity for that maxim to once again ring true.

The 2019 Clemson seniors are 53-3 since 2016, passing the 2017 Clemson seniors for the second-most in school history and standing two wins ahead of Alabama's current seniors for the best active record. The group can tie the 2018 seniors for the best four-year mark in school, conference and Football Bowl Subdivision history with 14 wins in 2019 and can own the record outright if it were to repeat with another 15-0 campaign.

The 2019 seniors are the second Clemson class and one of only four classes all-time to reach 53 career wins in a four-year span. Clemson's 2019 group did so in 56 games, tying the 2018 Alabama seniors as the quickest to that mark.

FOUR LEAGUE TITLES IN A ROW

Clemson has won four straight ACC championships, joining Oklahoma as one of just two Power Five Conference schools to have an active streak of four consecutive conference championships.

POWER FIVE CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS (2015-18)

Conference	2015	2016	2017	2018

B12	Oklahoma	Oklahoma	Oklahoma	Oklahoma
P12	Stanford	Washington	USC	Washington

From 2015-18, Clemson became the first ACC school to win four outright titles in a row. Florida State was a champion or co-champion nine years in a row from 1992-00, but never won more than three outright in a row. This week, both Clemson and Oklahoma will attempt to join the 1971-75 Alabama Crimson Tide as the only members of any current FBS conference to win five straight outright titles.

Clemson's victory in the 2018 ACC Championship Game made Clemson only the second Power Five Conference school since the inception of league championship games in 1992 to win four straight conference championship games, joining the Florida Gators, who won four straight SEC Championship Games in a row from 1993-96.

This week, Clemson can become the first school to win five straight with a victory in the 2019 ACC Championship Game.

POWER OVER THE POWER FIVE

Early in his head coaching tenure, Dabo Swinney laid out his belief to then-Clemson athletic director Terry Don Phillips that the Tigers needed to add tough non-conference challenges on top of their tests in ACC play to serve as a foundation for the program's growth.

"I had a conversation with Terry Don and said, 'Terry Don, I know we are not very good right now, but we need to play people because that is going to help me teach and help me develop the culture and the mindset that you have to have to win at the highest level,'" recounted Swinney. "I didn't think we had that, and that's what we committed to. That's what we've done."

That scheduling philosophy and culture change has resonated in the Clemson program, and since 2013, no team can claim more wins against Power Five Conference opponents than the Tigers.

ESTEEMED COMPANY

Head Coach Dabo Swinney's run of excellence in his decade-plus at Clemson has placed him in the company of college football legends.

Swinney enters this week with a winning percentage of .809, sitting as one of only 13 head coaches in history with at least 10 seasons of FBS head coaching experience to post a mark of .800 or better. That list presently includes Knute Rockne (.881), Frank Leahy (.864), Urban Meyer (.854), George Woodruff (.846), Barry Switzer (.837), Tom Osborne (.836), Fielding

Yost (.833), Percy Haughton (.832), Bob Neyland (.826), Bud Wilkinson (.826), Jock Sutherland (.812), and Bob Devaney (.806). Washington's Chris Petersen dropped from the ranks in early November.

Among the legends Swinney has already passed are College Football Hall of Famers Bo Schembechler (.775), Bear Bryant (.780) and Henry Williams (.785), as well as Nick Saban (.791 prior to NCAA adjustment), whose Crimson Tide were defeated by Swinney and the Tigers in the most recent College Football Playoff National Championship.

Against Florida State earlier this year, Swinney passed the career total of Danny Ford, who won 121 combined games at Clemson (96) and Arkansas (25).

With a win against Wofford in early November, Swinney recorded his 125th win in his 155th career game. Per records available via Sports Reference, he became the 10th-fastest coach to reach 125 career wins in terms of games coached.

DABO AT 150

In the 150-year anniversary season of college football, Head Coach Dabo Swinney coached his 150th game as leader of the Clemson program in the fourth game of the season against Charlotte. He became just the second Clemson coach to reach 150 career games, joining Hall of Famer Frank Howard, who coached 295 games as Clemson's head coach from 1940-69.

Only eight coaches have coached at least 150 games at schools presently in the Football Bowl Subdivision while achieving an .800 or better mark. Interestingly, Clemson holds a 4-0 combined all-time record against the top three coaches on the list.

TOP WIN PERCENTAGE IN ACC HISTORY

Head Coach Dabo Swinney entered the 2019 season already perched atop ACC history in overall winning percentage with a mark of .795 prior to the start of the season. He has since pushed that percentage to .810 with 12 wins in 2019.

Swinney also entered the season with a 69-16 record in ACC regular season games, a winning percentage of .812 that sat only .001 shy of College Football Hall of Famer Bobby Bowden's conference record of .813. Swinney passed Bowden in career winning percentage in ACC regular season play during Clemson's 52-14 win against Georgia Tech in the season opener. With Clemson's ACC regular season slate now concluded, Swinney's all-time record in those games now stands at 77-16 (.828).

EXCEEDING EXPECTATIONS

Clemson has equaled or exceeded its postseason AP and USA Today rankings in comparison to its preseason rankings each of the last eight years. That included quite an accomplishment in both 2016 and 2018, as it finished No. 1 by winning the national championship to exceed the school's No. 2 preseason ranking both times.

Clemson exceeded its preseason ranking each of the last eight years in the coaches poll, a streak that will come to an end in 2019 by simple virtue of Clemson opening the season atop the 2019 poll.

With regard to Associated Press voting, Clemson has exceeded its preseason ranking in the AP poll in seven of the last eight years. The lone exception came in 2013, when Clemson was picked No. 8 in the AP preseason poll and finished No. 8.

WHEN IN DOUBT, CLEMSON RESPONDS

Prior to maintaining status quo at No. 4 following a 59-7 win against Boston College, Clemson had dropped in the AP Poll following each of its three previous victories against North Carolina, Florida State and Louisville. In Head Coach Dabo Swinney's tenure, the Tigers have routinely responded well following dips in the AP rankings.

Under Swinney, Clemson is 24-4 (and 3-0 in 2019) in games in which it enters ranked lower in the AP Poll than it did in its previous contest. This includes the 2014, 2016, 2017 and 2018 season openers in which Clemson opened the season lower than its ranking from the final game of the previous campaign. Including most recently against Boston College on Oct. 26, Clemson has won its last 16 games when entering ranked lower in the AP Poll than in its previous game.

CHAMPIONSHIP HERITAGE

After being named Clemson's full-time coach in December of 2008, Head Coach Dabo Swinney set about securing his first signing class in 2009.

His first class, which he tabbed the "Dandy Dozen," brought home Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 during their junior campaign in 2011. Excluding the 2019 signing class that debuted this season, all 10 of Clemson's signing classes under Swinney have at least one ACC and/or national title to their credit in their four years at Clemson.

27 AND COUNTING

Clemson enters this week riding a 27-game winning streak dating to the 2018 season opener. Clemson's active winning streak is one of only three double-digit winning streaks in the country and is nine wins ahead of the nation's next-longest streak.

ACTIVE WINNING STREAKS (FBS)

Rk	School	Wins
1.	Clemson	27
2.	Ohio State	18
3.	LSU	13
4.	Utah	8
5.	Air Force	7

Clemson's current 27-game winning streak marks the program's 10th all-time winning streak of at least 10 games and the longest streak in team history. Clemson surpassed its previous record 17-game winning streak from 2014-15 for sole possession of the longest streak in school history with a 41-6 win against Syracuse on Sept. 14.

The current streak marks the third time Dabo Swinney has had a winning streak of at least 10 games. Danny Ford had three separate streaks of at least 10 games, including a 13-game streak from 1980 through the last game of the 1981 season.

Frank Howard had a 15-game winning streak from 1947-49 and was part of a 13-game streak from 1939-40. The school's first 10-game winning streak took place under Walter Riggs and John Heisman from 1899 to 1901.

20-POINT WINS & 14-POINT WINS

Clemson's 2019 squad extended two historically profound victory margin streaks early in the 2019 season.

Observers will often point to Clemson's 27-23 come-from-behind victory against Syracuse in late September of 2018 as a turning point in the team's 15-0 national championship season. Following that win, in which redshirt freshman Chase Brice led the team to victory after starting the week as the squad's third-team quarterback, Clemson won 11 straight games by at least 20 points. Per ESPN Stats & Info, Clemson's 11-game streak of 20-point wins across the 2018-19 seasons was one game shy of the 2018 Alabama Crimson Tide for the longest streak of 20-point wins in the AP Poll era (since 1936).

STREAKS OF 20-POINT WINS (AP POLL ERA)

Rk	School	Year(s)	Streak
1.	Alabama	2018	12
2.	Clemson	2018-19	11
3.	Stanford	2010-11	10
	Boise State	2002	10
	Temple	1973-74	10
	Nebraska	1971	10
	New Mexico St.	1959-60	10

That streak was broken in the second week of the 2019 season when Texas A&M scored a touchdown with only six seconds remaining to cut Clemson's margin of victory from 21 to 14.

A one-point victory against North Carolina in the final weekend in September brought Clemson's streak of 14 consecutive 14-point wins to a close. The streak tied for the third-longest in the AP Poll era, per ESPN Stats & Info.

STREAKS OF 14-POINT WINS (AP POLL ERA)

9/14/19	Syracuse	41	6	+35
9/21/19	Charlotte	52	10	+42

Since the streak was snapped in a one-point win at North Carolina in September, Clemson has responded with another seven wins of 14 or more points, meaning the Tigers have won 21 of their last 22 contests by a margin of at least 14 points. Clemson has won 20 of those 22 contests by 20 or more.

POLL STREAKS

Clemson has been ranked in the top 25 of 83 consecutive AP polls dating to the 2014 season, the third-longest active streak in the nation. That includes a streak of 74 straight top-10 rankings, tied for first in the country with Alabama.

As far as total top-25 rankings since 2011, Clemson has appeared in 138 of a possible 145 polls (95.2 percent). That is the third-most in the nation, trailing only Alabama (145) and Oklahoma (141).

ROAD WARRIORS

With a road win against South Carolina in its regular season finale, Clemson has now won 24 of its last 25 true road games and 37 of its last 40 games away from home overall.

With only neutral-site contests remaining, Clemson posted a 5-0 record on the road this year, with four road wins in ACC play plus a road victory against an SEC opponent. At Louisville on Oct. 19, Clemson won its 10th straight true road game, which marked only the second streak of 10 consecutive true road victories in the program's illustrious history. Clemson earned its 12th consecutive road victory on Nov. 30 at South Carolina, tying for the longest road winning streak in school history.

SATURDAYS ARE FOR THE TIGERS

Clemson enters this week having won each of its last 41 Saturday games. Clemson went 12-2 during the 2017 campaign, with its only losses coming on a Friday at Syracuse and a Monday on New Year's Day in the Sugar Bowl.

You have to travel back to Nov. 12, 2016, a total of 1,120 days prior to this week's contest, for Clemson's most recent loss on a Saturday.

Clemson's 41-game Saturday winning streak is the longest active streak in the FBS. The Tigers' current 40-game streak started following a 2016 loss to Pitt that was preceded by a 21-game Saturday winning streak across the 2014-16 seasons, previously the longest such streak in program history.

PLAYING TO A STANDARD

While many have attempted to center discussion of Clemson's play in 2019 on the quality of its opponents, under Head Coach Dabo Swinney, Clemson has subscribed to a philosophy of "it's not who you play, it's how you play." Inside the team's Allen N. Reeves Football Complex, a visual representation of the team's schedule includes a Clemson logo for every game in lieu of opponents' logos, not as a sign of disrespect, but rather as a visual reminder that every week Clemson is playing against its own standard as well.

The Clemson standard has been on display in the majority of the team's performances this season. SportSource Analytics tracks Relative Points and Relative Yards Per Game, described as the following:

"Sorts all FBS teams by the average percentage of points and yards they accumulated per game with respect to the opponents' normal points and yards averages. For example, if a team scores 21 points against a team that only gives up (on average) 14 points, they get a 150 percent for that game offensively. For offense, over 100 percent is considered good, and for defense under 100 percent is considered good."

The measure allows a window of insight into how Clemson has dominated its opponents relative to their typical performance, rather than leaning on the opponents' record.

RELATIVE POINTS AND YARDS PER GAME (CLEMSON, 2019)

Category	Nat'l Rank	Pct.
Offensive Points Pct./Game	7	148.1
Offensive Yards Pct./Game	7	126.4
Defensive Points Pct./Game	1	36.7
Defensive Yards Pct./Game	1	58.4

*Note: FBS opponents only

Effectively, the numbers communicate that Clemson scores 148.1 percent of the points and gains 126.4 percent of the yards typically allowed by its opponents on average, while limiting opponents to only 36.7 percent of the points and 58.4 percent of the yards it typically accrues.

In addition, Clemson ranks among the nation's best in game control, a measurement of what percentage of snaps teams have spent with various leads. Clemson has led for 85 percent of all plays this season, including holding a lead of at least 21 points for more than half of all plays and at least 35 points or more for more than a quarter of all plays.

COACHES CORNER

Clemson's performance in 2019 has become a Rorschach test of sorts for observers of college football. Included below is a sampling of what coaches responsible for preparing their teams to face Clemson have said about the Tigers this year.

North Carolina Head Coach Mack Brown on Oct. 14: "The expectation for Clemson is that they blow everybody out. You go back a couple years ago and they barely beat Syracuse, they barely beat Pittsburgh and they win a national championship and we think, 'They hung in there and it's a comeback.' Now we're saying they stink? They don't stink. They've got the best players in the country and still probably the best team in the country. The fact that we played them good, everybody is mad at them instead of being excited for us. It's weird how people look at it, but they key is to win. You're not going to blow everybody out every week."

Louisville Head Coach Scott Satterfield on Oct. 14: "I was just watching that [Florida State] film and it was 42-0 in the third quarter, I was like 'Wow, man, they turned it on.' I think when they had that off-week they got back on track. Everyone is talking about, 'What is this Clemson team? But they have won 21 straight games [prior to Oct. 19], I think 14 out of their last 15 they have won by more than 14 points. It's unbelievable that people want to try to write a story about this isn't the Clemson team we are used to. These guys are good, they are well-coached, they expect to win, and they have a lot of talent."

Former Boston College Head Coach Steve Addazio on Oct. 21: "There's no doubt in my mind that they're the No. 1 team in the country. Skilled, talented everywhere. Have proven it on the field. When I watch the tape, I see no weaknesses. I see great athletes and a great coaching staff. I think both their offensive coordinators and their defensive coordinator, those guys are elite guys and you can tell when you watch their tape how well-coached each side of the ball is."

Addazio, postgame on Oct. 26: "This Clemson team is an elite team. You're talking about a first-round draft pick quarterback. You're talking about a first-round draft pick tailback. You're talking about two first-round draft pick wide receivers. I think [they have] an outstanding offensive line. On defense, they have elite personnel everywhere. They're super, super athletic. As Dabo has mentioned, this might be the best back end he's had. Their front end, while they lost some guys, they have some really super athletic guys in there and I think you can see that. This is an elite team... This team right here, that's one of the top, elite teams in America. Absolutely. Unquestionably. Whatever anybody else was saying, I don't know what they're talking about. That's my opinion. That's one of the top, elite teams in America, so whatever anybody else was saying, I don't know what they're talking about."

600-YARD GAMES

Clemson produced its fourth 600-yard game of the season in the team's ninth game of 2019, breaking a school record set previously during the 2012, 2017 and 2018 campaigns.

Clemson's 10 600-yard games since 2017 are the third-most in the country.

Clemson's third 600-yard game of the season came in a 674-yard effort against Boston College on Oct. 26. Clemson outgained the Eagles, 674-177, in the game. The 497-yard differential was Clemson's biggest since a 545-yard advantage against Kent State on Sept. 2, 2017 and was Clemson's largest yardage differential against an ACC opponent since the conference's founding in 1953, surpassing a 464-yard advantage against Wake Forest in 2000.

Clemson added another dominant performance one week later with a 446-yard margin against Wofford.

OFFENSIVE BALANCE

During Clemson's active 27-game win streak, the Tigers have featured remarkable offensive balance. Prior to the College Football Playoff National Championship Game that dropped Clemson to 248.2 rushing yards per game for the season, Clemson's 2018 squad had been the first team in Clemson history to average at least 250 yards per game rushing and passing. Only three Clemson teams in history have averaged at least 200 yards per game of each in the same season (2000, 2015 and 2018).

This year, Clemson one of only three teams to average 250 rushing yards and 250 passing yards per game (Oklahoma and Ohio State). Of Clemson's 6,501 total yards this season, 47.3 percent of its yards have come on the ground, with 52.7 percent coming through the air. Clemson has broken the 3,000-yard mark both rushing and passing this season, making the 2019 campaign only the third 3,000/3,000 season in school history (2015 and 2018).

Clemson has exceeded both 200 passing yards and 200 rushing yards in a game 50 times under Dabo Swinney, posting a perfect record in those contests. Clemson's 16 such games since the start of the 2018 season are tied for the most in the country.

STRONG OUT OF THE GATES

"Some start fast, some start slow, but the thoroughbred is great at the final pole."

Dabo Swinney has used that horse-racing analogy with his team in 2019 to encourage his team to "run its own race" this season. As far as individual games have been concerned, Clemson has not had to worry about starting slow.

Through 12 games, Clemson has outscored opponents by a 156-10 margin (+146) in the first quarter. Presently, only 22 teams in the country (including Clemson) have a plus-146 point differential in entire games this season.

Clemson's 12.17-point average scoring differential in the first quarter is the largest in the country this season, contributing significantly to Clemson's No. 2 rank in overall scoring differential this season

In a division-clinching win against NC State on Nov. 9, Clemson finished the first quarter with a 28-0 lead. In doing so, Clemson tied its school record for first-quarter points, matching the 28 points scored against Duke in the first quarter on Nov. 3, 2012. The 28-point first quarter tied for the fourth most in any quarter in school history and was Clemson's 23rd quarter of 28 points or more all-time.

YARDS PER PLAY

Clemson shattered its school record for yards per play in 2018 at 7.35, the program's first time exceeding seven yards per play in a season. Clemson enters this week averaging 7.38 yards per play in 2019.

Including special teams, Clemson recorded a school-record 19 touchdowns of 50 yards of more in 2018. Players responsible for 17 of the 19 touchdowns of 50 yards or more returned for Clemson in 2019. Justyn Ross led Clemson with six such touchdowns, followed by four from Travis Etienne, three each from Lyn-J Dixon and Amari Rodgers, and one each by now-departed running backs Adam Choice and Tavien Feaster.

Clemson has recorded nine touchdowns of 50 yards or more in 2019, including five passing, three rushing and one via interception return. The nine 50-plus-yard touchdowns rank tied for sixth-most in a season for Clemson since 1950.

Clemson opened the 2019 season with an explosive performance in a 52-14 win against Georgia Tech. The Tigers racked up 632 yards of offense on only 79 plays, averaging 8.0 yards per play even despite a methodical 11-play, 42-yard clock-killing drive to conclude the game. Clemson amassed 411 of those yards on 49 carries, a rushing average of 8.4 yards. Against Louisville, Clemson exceeded the 8.0-yard mark again, rushing for 298 yards on 37 carries for an 8.1-yard average. Clemson posted its third 8.0-plus-yard effort of the season against Wofford, averaging 11.3 yards per carry by accruing 419 yards on 37 attempts.

Including the three such games this season, Clemson's six games with an 8.0 or better yards per carry average since 2018 are the most in the FBS, and have helped Clemson rank second in the country in yards per carry in 2019.

Clemson has produced a touchdown run of 90 yards (Travis Etienne vs. Georgia Tech), a touchdown pass of 87 yards (Trevor Lawrence to Amari Rodgers at Syracuse) and a touchdown run of 86 yards (Etienne vs. Wofford) in 2019. The 2019 Tigers joined the 2013 Clemson squad as the only teams in the program's 124-year history to post multiple touchdowns from scrimmage of 85 yards or more in a single season. This year's squad is the first to produce plays of 85 or more yards both on the ground and through the air.

PLAYERS PER GAME

Clemson played an average of 72.5 players per game in 2018, an average that far exceeded all other AP Top 25 finishers, including fellow College Football Playoff participants Alabama (55.7), Notre Dame (55.4) and Oklahoma (52.4).

The approach to creating functional depth and rewarding players ready to play has been a key philosophy for Head Coach Dabo Swinney, whose own collegiate playing career was hatched as a walk-on fighting for playing time in Alabama's receiving corps.

"We're fully committed to playing guys who deserve to play," Swinney said. "You commit to a guy early in the season, and even if a guy's only played 10 percent of the snaps, when you get to game eight or nine, they've got some good experience."

That philosophy was on display in record fashion in Clemson's Sept. 21 contest against Charlotte. In that game, Clemson played a school-record 111 players. Clemson later played 105 players against Wofford in early November.

YOUTH MOVEMENT

One year after Clemson returned a school-record 61 lettermen for the 2018 season, Clemson entered the 2019 campaign with a roster that includes 80 freshmen and sophomores.

However, despite the roster featuring the largest freshman class in Dabo Swinney's tenure at Clemson, the Tigers' youth is not devoid of experience. Last season, the first year of new redshirt regulations allowed Clemson to play a then-school-record 20 true freshmen in 2018. Clemson immediately shattered that record in its 2019 season opener, with 27 true freshmen making their collegiate debuts in that contest. An additional eight players made their debuts three weeks later against Charlotte.

First-year freshmen to play for Clemson this year include Davis Allen, LaVonta Bentley, Kaleb Boateng, Andrew Booth Jr., Joseph Charleston, David Cote, Mac Cranford, Tyler Davis, Michel Dukes, Hampton Earle, Hamp Greene, Chase Guynup, Tye Herbstreit, Jake Herbstreit, Tayquon Johnson, Sheridan Jones, Frank Ladson Jr., Jaelyn Lay, Zac McIntosh, Matt McMahan, Chez Mellusi, Joseph Ngata, Ruke Orhorhoro, Kane Patterson, Jalyn Phillips, Taisun Phommachanh, Will Putnam, Hunter Rayburn, Etinosa Reuben, Brannon Spector, Aidan Swanson, Ray Thornton III, Mason Trotter, Jonathan Weitz, Greg Williams and Lannden Zanders.

The only true freshmen not to see game action for Clemson this year are injured linebackers Bryton Constantin and Matthew Maloney.

DOMINANT DEFENSE

Since the advent of the College Football Playoff in 2014, Clemson has routinely produced one of the nation's elite defenses.

Clemson has ranked in the Top 10 in the country in total defense in each of the last five seasons and has ranked among the Top 10 in scoring defense in three of those campaigns.

DEFENSE: 2018 VS. 2019

Clemson's 2018 defense became the first in school history to lead the nation in scoring defense, limiting teams to 13.1 points per game en route to a 15-0 season and a national championship. A comparison of numbers between the 2018 and 2019 Clemson defenses shows that this year's unit is matching or exceeding the output of the 2018 group that included seven players (including two reserves) that made NFL rosters this season (Christian Wilkins, Clelin Ferrell, Dexter Lawrence, Austin Bryant, Mark Fields, Trayvon Mullen and Albert Huggins).

Below is a look at 13 key defensive categories. The 2019 group is ahead of the 2018 team's season averages in nine of the 13, including scoring defense, pass defense and total defense.

BACKFIELD INVADERS

Clemson's defense calls Death Valley home but might as well file for dual residency in opponents' backfields. Since 2014, Clemson leads the nation in both sacks and tackles for loss.

Clemson recorded a banner day in both categories in the team's Week 3 win at Syracuse. In that game, Clemson posted 15 tackles for loss, tied for the fifth-most in a game in school history and the most under Head Coach Dabo Swinney. It was Clemson's most since recording 15 tackles for loss vs. Utah State on Oct. 16, 2004.

Among those 15 tackles for loss were eight sacks, tied for the eighth-most sacks in a game in school history.

MULTI-SACK GAMES

Prior to being held without a sack against option-heavy Wofford on Nov. 2, Clemson had recorded multiple sacks in each of its previous 16 games, dating to last season. Clemson has posted 24 multiple-sack games since 2018, the most in the FBS.

NO FLY ZONE

While outside observers focused on the loss of four NFL Draft picks (plus an additional undrafted free agent signing) from Clemson's defensive line after 2018, Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney spent the offseason telling anyone who would listen that the Tigers were returning the best back seven he's had in his tenure at Clemson.

Clemson's pass defense has rewarded Swinney's faith, ranking among the nation's best in nearly every key statistical pass defense category.

POINTS OFF TURNOVERS

Since the start of the 2018 postseason, Clemson's offense and defense have both been dominant in possessions starting following turnovers. Since the 2018 ACC Championship Game, the Tigers hold a 165-21 advantage against opponents in points off turnovers.

Clemson recorded a 7-0 margin in points off turnovers against Syracuse on Sept. 14, a particularly impressive stat when accounting for the degree of difficulty. In that contest, Clemson's two giveaways resulted in Syracuse starting resulting drives at the Clemson nine-yard line and Clemson three-yard line. Those two drives ended in an interception and a turnover on downs, respectively.

CLOSE-GAME SUCCESS

Though Clemson has not played a large number of one-possession games in recent times, the Tigers have proven very adept at winning such contests since 2011. The Tigers have played 29 games with a final margin of eight points or less, and Clemson's .862 winning percentage in those one-possession contests is the best in the country in that span.

OWNING THE "MIDDLE EIGHT"

During its current run of four consecutive College Football Playoff appearances dating to 2015, Clemson has frequently won one of the hidden "games within the game."

SportSource Analytics tracks the "Middle Eight," the section of the game defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half. Clemson has outscored opponents in that time window 44 times since 2015, posting a 43-1 record in those contests.

Clemson was historically strong in that category in 2018, outscoring opponents 132-10 in the middle eight, an average margin of +8.1 points per game. That per-game differential was the largest by any program in the country since 2013.

One striking example of the importance of the middle eight came in the 2018 Cotton Bowl, as Clemson and Notre Dame played a tightly contested first half that saw Clemson holding only a 9-3 advantage with four minutes left in the first half. A touchdown with 1:44 remaining pushed Clemson's lead to 16-3, and Head Coach Dabo Swinney's decision to attack on a drive originating from Clemson's 20-yard line with 48 seconds remaining resulted in another score with two seconds to play in the second quarter, giving Clemson a 23-3 lead at the break.

The importance was also on display at Florida State in 2018, as after a scoreless first quarter, Clemson held only a 14-0 lead entering the final four minutes of the first half. Clemson scored two quick touchdowns in the final four minutes of the second quarter and opened the second half with another touchdown 58 seconds into the third quarter, giving the Tigers a commanding 35-0 lead in an eventual 59-10 win.

ESTABLISHED FIREPOWER

Clemson's eye-popping, record-setting offensive campaign in 2018 was authored at the skill positions in large part by underclassmen. The group was led in passing by true freshman Trevor Lawrence (3,280 yards), in rushing by sophomore Travis Etienne (1,658) and in receiving by sophomore Tee Higgins (59 receptions, 12 touchdowns) and freshman Justyn Ross (1,000 receiving yards).

Clemson was one of only three FBS programs to produce a 3,000-yard passer, 1,500-yard rusher and

1,000-yard receiver in 2018 and one of only 20 teams (including only nine Power Five teams) to accomplish the feat this decade. If Clemson repeats the feat, it would become the first program this decade to produce a player in all three categories in back-to-back seasons.

Clemson is the first Power Five program this decade to return a 3,000-yard passer, 1,500-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver from the year before. The only other FBS program to return such a trio was Western Michigan after the 2014 season.

As noted by ESPN, the 2019 Tigers are the first team to return its leading passer, rusher and receiver from a national championship squad since 2010, when Alabama returned leading passer Greg McElroy, leading rusher Mark Ingram and leading receiver Julio Jones from its 2009 championship squad.

200-YARD RUSHING GAMES

Travis Etienne wasted no time rewriting history in 2019. He recorded a then-career-high 205 yards in the season opener against Georgia Tech, the 17th 200-yard rushing game in Clemson history. At the time, it was Etienne's second career 200-yard day, tying him with Ray Yauger, Terrence Flagler, Raymond Priester and Andre Ellington for the most in school history.

Etienne then went on a record-grabbing spree on Nov. 2 against Wofford. He posted a career-high 212 yards on only nine carries, becoming the first Clemson player to post three career 200-yard games and joining Terrence Flagler as the only players with multiple 200-yard games in a single season. Etienne set those marks in the same contest in which he rushed for his 48th career touchdown to break James Davis' career record at Clemson.

Etienne's 12 carries against Georgia Tech had been the fewest by any Clemson player in the midst of a 200-yard performance. He undercut that mark with his nine-carry performance against Wofford, becoming only the third FBS player since 2000 to rush for 200 yards on single-digit carries.

Etienne's explosive 2019 season opener resulted in an average of 17.1 yards per carry against Georgia Tech, which at the time was the second-best single-game average of his career (19.1 vs. Louisville in 2018). Against Louisville in mid-October, he ripped off 192 yards on 14 carries for a 13.7-yard average, and in early November, he posted a career-best 23.6-yard average on nine carries for 212 yards against Wofford.

The games marked the 10th, 11th and 12th times in Etienne's career that he averaged at least 10 yards per carry in a game with at least five rushing attempts. His 12 qualifying games passed Colin Kaepernick for the most by any FBS player since 2000.

ETIENNE VS. THE NATION

Since becoming Clemson's starting running back entering the 2018 season, Etienne has accrued 3,044 rushing yards and a national-best 40 rushing touchdowns. In that time frame, Etienne has single-handedly outrushed 13 FBS programs, including five Power Five schools.

AIMING AT ACC RECORDS

With a multitude of Clemson career records in hand, Etienne's next run on record books has come at the conference level, where he is the all-time ACC leader in rushing touchdowns and total touchdowns and ranks in the Top 5 in 200-yard rushing games and yards per carry.

Presently, Etienne ranks fourth according to conference thresholds in which players qualify by reaching 1,000 career rushing yards. Etienne's average is the best in conference history by any player with at least 200 career carries.

ETN1K

Etienne reached 1,000 rushing yards on the 2019 season in Clemson's ninth game despite averaging 13.7 carries per game through the team's first nine contests. In reaching the 1,000-yard mark in that game against Wofford, he tied the mark for the fastest any Clemson player has rushed for 1,000 yards in a season and became only the second Clemson player to reach 1,000 rushing yards in single-digit games.

HISTORY OF EXPLOSIVENESS

Nine of Etienne's 53 career rushing touchdowns and 57 career total touchdowns have covered at least 50 yards. His nine rushing touchdowns of 50-plus yards are the most by a Clemson player in records back to 1950, and his nine total touchdowns covering that length are the third-most in that time frame.

Including a 90-yard touchdown run in the season opener against Georgia Tech and an 86-yard touchdown run against Wofford, Etienne has two touchdown runs of 85-plus yards this season. Since 1950, he is the first Clemson player to record two touchdown runs of 85-plus yards. Etienne has three runs of 80 or more yards in his career, surpassing the previous school record held by Derrick Witherspoon and C.J. Spiller (two each).

TOUCHDOWN STREAKS

Etienne accounts for two of the nine-longest streaks of consecutive games with a rushing touchdown in school history. He enters this week having rushed for a touchdown in six straight games and can tie his longest streak (seven) by scoring on the ground again this week.

DOING MORE WITH LESS

Etienne posted school records in rushing yards (1,658) and rushing touchdowns (24) in 2018 despite recording only 204 carries. His record-setting campaign in 2018 resulted in his selection as a Doak Walker Award finalist, as he joined C.J. Spiller (2009) as only the players in Clemson history to be named as a finalist for the honor.

The award eventually went to Wisconsin's Jonathan Taylor, who turned in a superb season of his own with 2,194 yards and 16 touchdowns on 307 attempts. Taylor averaged 7.15 yards per carry and averaged a touchdown every 19.1 carries; on 104 fewer carries, Etienne averaged 8.13 yards per carry and a touchdown every 8.5 carries.

If Etienne had received the same number of carries as Taylor and maintained his per-carry averages for rushing

TEAM PRODUCTION

Clemson's 38-3 win against South Carolina on Nov. 30 represented quarterback Trevor Lawrence's 23rd career start in his 27th career game. Clemson is 27-0 in Lawrence's time at Clemson, including a 23-0 record in his starts.

Lawrence is credited with 1,426 career offensive snaps at Clemson. In that time, he has never taken a second-half snap with Clemson trailing. The only game in which Clemson has trailed in the fourth quarter in Lawrence's tenure was in 2018 against Syracuse, a game Lawrence exited in the first half with an injury.

As a team, Clemson has averaged 45.4 points in Lawrence's 23 career starts, the second-highest average for any team in the country whose quarterback has recorded 20 career starts.

300-YARD GAMES

Clemson's balance and its willingness to take what defenses offer on the ground or through the air sometimes limits opportunities for Lawrence to accrue some of the passing numbers put up around the country. But even playing in an offense that values balance and for a coach who values spreading playing time throughout the roster, Lawrence has still been able to light up defenses in his young career.

Lawrence posted five 300-yard games in his freshman campaign in 2018, including 300-yard efforts in both College Football Playoff games. He posted his sixth career 300-yard game in Week 3 of the 2019 season, throwing for a career-high 395 yards in a win at Syracuse.

UNPRECEDENTED DEBUT

In a June article examining the statistical context of Lawrence's freshman campaign, 247Sports' Chris Hummer noted, "there is no historical comparison for what Lawrence accomplished as a freshman."

In 2018, despite not starting four games, Lawrence posted the 10th season of 3,000 passing yards, 30-plus passing touchdowns, five or fewer interceptions and a 65.0 or better completion percentage by an FBS quarterback since 2000. It was only the fifth such season by a Power Five quarterback in the time frame, and the first by a freshman.

INTERCEPTION AVOIDANCE

The ascendance of Lawrence was key in Clemson's record-setting explosiveness in 2018. But often lost amid the barrage of big plays was Lawrence's ability to keep the ball in Clemson's hands.

While mild panic emerged from national observers about Lawrence's eight interceptions in 2019, Lawrence still holds Clemson's career interception rate record and is the only qualified passer in school history to throw an interception on fewer than two percent of pass attempts.

Lawrence set a single-season Clemson record by closing the 2018 season with 169 consecutive pass attempts without an interception. Lawrence threw an interception on his 13th pass attempt of the season opener against Georgia Tech, ending a streak of 182 consecutive pass attempts without an interception. Lawrence's streak ended five attempts shy of the school record held by Tajh Boyd (187, 2012-13).

-- NO. 3 WR AMARI RODGERS --

COMEBACK KID

Since his arrival at Clemson in 2017, Amari Rodgers has been hailed by coaches and teammates as one of the program's hardest workers. The work ahead of Rodgers was substantial on March 25 this season, when the junior wide receiver from Knoxville, Tenn., tore his ACL during spring practice.

Rodgers attacked his rehab with his trademark work ethic, returning to action 166 days later in Clemson's Week 2 game against Texas A&M, receiving a thunderous roar from Death Valley following his first reception.

A week later, Rodgers re-announced his presence nationally, catching four passes for 121 yards with two receiving touchdowns in a 41-6 prime-time win at Syracuse. His performance included touchdown receptions of 16 and 87 yards, the latter of which tied for the fourth-longest pass play in program history.

Rodgers' performance at Syracuse came with an odd historical parallel. The game was the first sellout at Syracuse since 1998, when Rodgers' father, Tee Martin, quarterbacked Tennessee to a win at Syracuse at the beginning of a national championship season.

-- NO. 5 WR TEE HIGGINS --

TOUCHDOWN STREAK

While teammate Justyn Ross led Clemson with 1,000 receiving yards in 2018, no Clemson receiver found the end zone last season more than Tee Higgins. The Tennessee native recorded 12 receiving touchdowns, tied with two different seasons by Sammy Watkins for the second-most in a single season in school history.

Higgins has placed himself in the midst of some of the greats presently populating Clemson's all-time leaderboard for career receiving touchdowns. On Nov. 16, he scored three touchdowns against Wake Forest, tying a school record and surging ahead of Mike Williams, Aaron Kelly and Deon Cain for third on the school leaderboard for career receiving touchdowns.

RECEIVING TOUCHDOWNS (CLEMSON HISTORY)

Rk Player, Pos.	Years	TD
1. DeAndre Hopkins, WR	2010-12	27
Sammy Watkins, WR	2011-13	27
3. Tee Higgins, WR	2017-19	24
4. Mike Williams, WR	2013-16	21
5. Aaron Kelly, WR	2005-08	20
Deon Cain, WR	2015-17	20
7. Artavis Scott, WR	2014-16	19
8. Glenn Smith, E	1949-51	18
Jordan Leggett, TE	2013-16	18
10. Perry Tuttle, WR	1978-81	17

Higgins' second and third touchdowns of the game against Wake Forest were scored 29 seconds apart, the shortest period of time between touchdowns for a Clemson player since Derrick Hamilton scored 14 seconds apart on touchdown passes from Charlie Whitehurst against Duke in 2003.

Higgins enters this week having scored at least one receiving touchdown in four straight games. Higgins closed the 2018 campaign with at least one touchdown in each of Clemson's final four games. With a touchdown in the first game of 2019, he pushed his consecutive games streak to five, tied for the second-most in school history. He was six feet away from extending the streak to six in the second game of the season at Texas A&M, when he was brought down at the Texas A&M 2-yard line on a highlight-reel 29-yard reception.

CONSECUTIVE GAMES WITH A RECEIVING TOUCHDOWN (CLEMSON HISTORY)

Rk	Player	Season(s)	Games
1.	DeAndre Hopkins	2012	10
2.	Tee Higgins	2018-19	5
	Deon Cain	2015	5
	Aaron Kelly	2007	5
	Derrick Hamilton	2003	5

Higgins recorded two touchdown receptions last week and has now caught multiple touchdowns in back-to-back games for the first time in his career, becoming the first Clemson receiver to catch multiple touchdown passes in back-to-back games since Deon Cain vs. Louisville and Boston College in 2016. His second score was his 10th touchdown reception of the season, as he became the first player in school history to post double-digit touchdown receptions in consecutive seasons. He joined Sammy Watkins (2011 and 2013) as the only players in school history to post 10 or more touchdown receptions in multiple seasons in a career.

-- NO. 11 LB ISAIAH SIMMONS --

MR. VERSATILITY

A track star turned safety turned linebacker turned free-ranging weapon, Clemson's Isaiah Simmons has rapidly emerged as one of college football's most versatile players.

"He was like a young giraffe running around out there. He was elbows and knees," Head Coach Dabo Swinney described of Simmons' arrival on campus. "Quickly, the one thing that showed up early was his physicality. He likes it. That showed up quick [as did] just his pure athleticism."

In addition to being Clemson's most-prolific tackler, Simmons leads Clemson this season in sacks (7.0) and tackles for loss (14.0) while also contributing six pass breakups, an interception, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. Presently, Simmons is one of only six FBS players — and one of only three in the Power Five — credited with at least 80 tackles, 10 tackles for loss and 5 sacks this season. Simmons is one of only four players on that list to have also recorded an interception.

FBS PLAYERS WITH 80 TACKLES, 10 TACKLES FOR LOSS AND 5 SACKS (2019)

Player	School	Tackles*	TFL	Sacks
Isaiah Simmons^	Clemson	84	14.0	7.0
Zane Zandler^	Virginia	85	10.5	5.0
Chazz Surratt^	North Carolina	110	13.5	6.0

Akileis Leroy^	Florida Atlantic	94	14.5	7.5

* Note - tackles as credited initially by NCAA stats, not coaches' film review; ^ Indicates players who also have an interception this season

Simmons is already the fourth Clemson player since 2000 to record at least 65 tackles, 11.5 tackles for loss and 6.0 sacks in a season. The other three to accomplish the feat are some of Clemson's most decorated defenders of the last decade (and, notably, all defensive linemen).

Da'Quan Bowers^	2010	67	26.0	15.5

* Note - tackles as credited initially by NCAA stats, not coaches' film review; ^ Indicates players who also have an interception this season

"He's what everybody's looking for because he's that hybrid guy," Swinney said of Simmons. "He's long. He can cover. He can play first, second and third down. He legitimately could go play safety. He's a guy that could probably make all-conference for us at probably three different positions if you played him there."

-- OFFENSIVE LINE --

SACKS ALLOWED

Clemson is powered up front in 2019 by one of the most senior-laden offensive lines in school history. Alongside sophomore left tackle Jackson Carman, Clemson's line includes four senior starters in left guard John Simpson, center Sean Pollard, right guard Gage Cervenka and right tackle Tremayne Anchrum.

In the season opener, Clemson started four senior offensive linemen in a game for the first time since the 2011 South Carolina game, when Phillip Price, David Smith, Antoine McClain and Landon Walker started alongside junior Dalton Freeman. The last time Clemson had four senior starters on the offensive line for the majority of a season was 2007, when sophomore Thomas Austin was joined by seniors Barry Richardson, Chris McDuffie, Brandon Pilgrim and Christian Capote.

Dating to last season, Clemson's offense has allowed only 16 total sacks in its last 20 games, including holding teams to zero sacks in nine of those 20 contests.

Clemson's protection for quarterback Trevor Lawrence has taken on an almost-mythical quality, according to Syracuse Head Coach Dino Babers, whose own prolific defensive line was held without a sack against Clemson in 2019.

"[It's like] Game of Thrones. He's got a castle, he's got a moat, he's got some dragons. That dude's protected," Babers said.

SACK DIFFERENTIAL

Clemson's domination in its current winning streak has been powered in part at the line of scrimmage, where Clemson holds a 90-28 edge over opponents in sacks in that time frame. Clemson's +62 margin in sacks since 2018 is by far the top differential in the country, as no other program can boast a sack differential greater than +52 since 2018.

NO-NAME NO MORE

The college football world became well-acquainted and familiar with the faces that populated Clemson's 2018 defensive line. In addition to producing four picks in the first four rounds of the 2019 NFL Draft, Clemson's 2018 defensive line featured some of the most gregarious names and faces in the sport in Christian Wilkins, Clelin Ferrell, Dexter Lawrence and Austin Bryant.

The average observer may not know the names and faces of Clemson's 2019 unit as well, but the unit has served notice of its arrival with an impressive start to the season. Included below is a quick collection of quotes from Dabo Swinney about each of Clemson's listed starters or co-starters on the defensive line:

- DE Justin Foster: "He's just an old salty dog. He's just steady. You can count on him. He's tough.''

- DE Xavier Thomas: "Xavier Thomas, geez. That guy is a special talent, but he's got to be a down-in, down-out special player."

- DE Logan Rudolph: "Nobody's game planning for Logan Rudolph. Nobody knows who he is, but you will. That guy is a football player."

- DT Tyler Davis: "It's not often you see a D-tackle show up and start. To see a guy start [as a true freshman] and really play at a high level... even though we've had that precedent here, that's still pretty unique."

- DT Nyles Pinckney: "He's a fourth-year guy and he looks that way. He just carries himself that way and has played some good football for us."

- DT Jordan Williams: "Tool-wise and ability-wise, he's got it all."

STOPPING THE RUN

Clemson held Texas A&M to 2.0 yards per carry on 27 carries in Week 2, the lowest yards-per-carry average allowed by Clemson since holding Boston College to 0.3 yards per carry on Nov. 10, 2018. A week after the Texas A&M game, Clemson then held Syracuse to 0.4 yards per carry in prime time.

In November, Clemson held Wake Forest to 1.7 yards per carry, marking the 20th time since 2014 that Clemson has held an opponent to 2.0 or fewer yards per carry, fourth-most in the country. Clemson is 19-1 in those contests.

Prior to facing Louisville on Oct. 19, Clemson had gone 27 consecutive games without allowing opponents to produce a 100-yard rusher, which had been the longest active streak in the country and the school's longest since at least 1980.

Clemson's two 100-yard rushers allowed since 2018 rank tied for the second-fewest in the country.

Since Brent Venables joined Clemson as defensive coordinator prior to the 2012 season, Clemson has allowed only 1.12 points per possession against FBS opponents, the second-fewest in the country in that span. No program has given up fewer points per possession against FBS opponents since 2018, as Clemson's 0.74 points allowed per possession since the start of last season makes Clemson the only program in the country to allow fewer than a full point per drive to opponents.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

In addition to Clemson's elite on-field performance in 2018, the squad simultaneously posted one of the best academic semesters in the program's history. The squad posted team records in average GPA and number of players earning a 3.0 or better, all while collecting the AFCA Academic Achievement Award for the first time in Clemson history.

In November 2019, the AFCA announced that Clemson had repeated as Academic Achievement Award winners, making Clemson the only school in the country to earn the award across both of the 2018-19 seasons.

The NCAA announced APR metrics for the 2017-18 academic year as well as public recognition awards for the Top 10 percent of programs in each sport at every level in spring of 2019. Clemson set a program record with a 992 APR for the 2017-18 academic year, third-best in the FBS, earning NCAA recognition for the eighth time in the last nine years.

Clemson is one of only 34 of the 130 FBS programs to earn at least one APR recognition since the 2009-10 academic year, one of only 28 to earn it multiple times, and one of only three programs to earn the award eight-plus times in that span.

In the second week of November, the American Football Coaches Association announced that Clemson was one of six programs to earn the 2019 AFCA Academic Achievement Award. Clemson has now won the award in back-to-back years and is the only program to repeat across the 2018-19 seasons.

ACC: WE DO THIS

Arguments about conference strength were once again en vogue during the 2019 offseason, with various pundits and commentators offering opinions on the state of the ACC and the national landscape.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney has repeatedly contended that the quality of Clemson's conference competition has been central to its postseason success.

"This league doesn't take a back seat to anyone. It's a very competitive league,'' Swinney said at ACC Kickoff in July. "At the end of the day, I think the credit goes to this conference; I think that's why we've been so successful in the postseason.''

Entering the 2019 season, the ACC:

- Has won more football national titles than any other conference since 2013 (three of the last six).

- Has had a team in either the College Football Playoff or the BCS National Championship Game in each of the past six years.

- Matched its league record with 11 bowl teams in 2018, including Boston College, Clemson, Duke, Georgia Tech, Miami, NC State, Pitt, Syracuse, Virginia, Virginia Tech and Wake Forest. The 11 bowl teams tied for the most among any conference.

- Is the only conference to send every team to at least one bowl game over the last three seasons. In addition, the ACC is tied for the most bowl teams (32) among all conferences over the last three years (11 in 2016, 10 in 2017, 11 in 2018).

- Has produced 19 postseason wins since the 2016 season, the most of any conference.

Those facts aren't lost on Swinney, who has actively contested narratives questioning the ACC's strength.

"The rhetoric used to be, 'Well, an ACC team's never going to win the national championship because they don't play anybody. So when they get to the postseason and they've gotta play the big bad boys, they can't beat them,'" Swinney said. "Well, now we win, and [they say] the only reason we win is because we don't play anybody. So you can't have it both ways."

RELATIVELY SPEAKING

Clemson's 2019 roster has many connections to college and professional athletics. Below is a list of the connections:

- Tremayne Anchrum, OL: His father, Tremayne, played college basketball at Southern California.

- Ben Batson, QB: Son of Clemson strength and conditioning coach Joey Batson.

- J.C. Chalk, TE: Grandson of former Alabama coach Gene Stallings, who was Dabo Swinney's head coach at Alabama when Swinney was a player.

- Bryton Constantin, LB: Son of Tony Harris, who played college basketball at University of New Orleans, then in NBA with the 76ers and Celtics.

- Carson Donnelly, DB: Father, Chris, played at Alabama with Dabo Swinney.

- Brian Dawkins, Jr., CB: Son of former Clemson All-American and nine-time NFL Pro Bowl safety Brian Dawkins, who was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2018.

- Hamp Greene, WR: Son of Hamp Greene, who was a kicker on Alabama's 1992 national championship squad with Dabo Swinney.

- Mike Jones Jr., LB: Son of Mike Jones Sr., who played at NC State prior to a nine-year NFL career with the Cardinals, Patriots, Rams and Titans.

- Joseph Ngata, WR: Brother of Washington linebacker Ariel Ngata.

- Ruke Orhorhoro, DE: Cousin of three family members who played or are still playing college football — Michael Ojemudia (Iowa), Mario Ojemudia (Michigan) and Ovie Oghoufo (Notre Dame).

- Patrick Phibbs, LS: Son of Bruce Phibbs, who won a Division I-AA championship with Southern Illinois in 1983 as a fullback and long snapper.

- Luke Price, TE: Brother of former Clemson offensive lineman Phillip Price.

- Amari Rodgers, WR: Son of former Tennessee quarterback Tee Martin.

- Logan Rudolph, DE: Brother of former Oklahoma State quarterback Mason Rudolph, now with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

- Will Swinney, WR: Son of Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney.

- Drew Swinney, WR: Son of Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney

- Nolan Turner, SS: Son of former Alabama player Kevin Turner, who also played eight years in the NFL with New England Patriots.

- James Skalski, LB: Father, John, played football at Oklahoma.

- Baylon Spector, LB: Son of former Clemson receiver Robbie Spector.

- Will Spiers, P: Son of former Clemson punter and baseball All-American Bill Spiers.

- Regan Upshaw, DE: Son of nine-year NFL defensive tackle Regan Upshaw

- Jake Venables, LB: Son of Clemson defensive coordinator Brent Venables.

#WRU TO THE NFL

Clemson's status as an elite producer of pro talent has been inarguable in recent years, particularly at wide receiver, where the school has adopted the moniker of "Wide Receiver U" (or #WRU in hashtag form).

Since the 2013 NFL Draft, no school has had more receivers selected in the NFL Draft than Clemson.

CLEMSON, S.C. – Behind a career-best 205 rushing yards from Travis Etienne, the No. 1/1 Clemson Tigers defeated the Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets, 52-14, at Memorial Stadium on Aug. 29. Clemson rushed for 411 yards, its most in a season-opener since 1957 and the most allowed by Georgia Tech since 1975.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence opened the scoring for the Tigers with a six-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. Lawrence completed 13-of-23 pass attempts for 168 yards and one touchdown on the day and added three carries for 24 yards with the rushing touchdown.

Etienne found the end zone three times among his 12 attempts, including a career-long and school-record-tying 90-yard touchdown run in the opening quarter. It was the longest run by any player in Memorial Stadium history. His third and final score of the night came from 48 yards out in the opening minutes of the third quarter.

Tee Higgins finished with four catches for 98 yards, including a 62-yard touchdown from Lawrence with 4:34 to go in the first half to put Clemson ahead 28-0 after two quarters. Second-half touchdowns by Lyn-J Dixon and Frank Ladson Jr. and a 51-yard field goal by B.T. Potter completed the scoring for Clemson.

Clemson forced four turnovers, including interceptions by Tanner Muse and Denzel Johnson and fumble recoveries by Baylon Spector and Xavier Kelly. The four takeaways were Clemson's most since 2015 against Notre Dame. Isaiah Simmons led the defense with nine tackles.

CLEMSON, S.C. – No. 1/1 Clemson extended its winning streak to 17 games, tying the school record set across the 2014-15 seasons, as the Tigers defeated the No. 12/11 Texas A&M Aggies inside a sold-out Memorial Stadium, 24-10.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 24-of-35 passes for 268 passing yards and one passing touchdown along with his second rushing touchdown of the season. Lyn-J Dixon led the ground attack, posting 79 yards on 11 attempts and one touchdown.

One year after Clemson's top-ranked scoring defense allowed 501 yards at Texas A&M, Clemson held Texas A&M to 289 total yards on Saturday. It included holding quarterback Kellen Mond to 236 passing yards (97 through three quarters) after Mond accounted for 430 yards in the teams' meeting in 2018.

After a scoreless first quarter, Texas A&M opened the scoring on a 16-play drive that ended with a 32-yard field goal. But Clemson responded with three scoring drives to end the half. Lawrence connected with Justyn Ross for a 30-yard touchdown in the second quarter. After a 29-yard field goal by B.T. Potter, Lawrence rushed for his second touchdown of the season with 33 seconds remaining in the second quarter to push the lead to 14 at the break.

Dixon added a rushing touchdown in the second half to bring Clemson's point total to 24. Texas A&M's lone touchdown of the day came on a Jalen Wydermyer touchdown reception with only six seconds remaining, snapping a streak of 11 consecutive wins by 20 points or more, one shy of the most by any team in the AP Poll era (since 1936).

SYRACUSE, N.Y. — No. 1/1 Clemson set a new school record with its 18th consecutive victory, defeating the Syracuse Orange, 41-6, at The Dome in Clemson's first road test of the season. It was a charged atmosphere, representing the third-largest crowd in facility history and Syracuse's first home sellout since 1998.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 22-of-39 passes for a career-high 395 yards with three passing touchdowns. His 395 passing yards represented the 11th-highest single game total in school history.

Clemson had two receivers post 100-yard games. Tee Higgins recorded 150 yards on seven receptions, all in the first half, the most by a Tiger in a half since Sammy Watkins' school-record 177-yard first half against Wake Forest in 2012. Amari Rodgers added 121 yards on four catches, including touchdown receptions of 16 and 87 yards.

Clemson led throughout, with Rodgers opening the scoring. Twice, Clemson gifted Syracuse the ball inside Clemson's own 10-yard line following turnovers, but Clemson forced an interception and turnover on downs on the resulting possessions.

Despite the gaudy offensive numbers, the story of the game was Clemson's stout defense, which held Syracuse out of the end zone and helped Clemson outgain Syracuse, 612-187. Clemson finished with 15 tackles for loss, its most in the Dabo Swinney era, including eight sacks, tied for the eighth-most in a game in school history.

2019 GAME RECAPS

CLEMSON, S.C. – Top-ranked Clemson defeated Charlotte 52-10 at Memorial Stadium night in Dabo Swinney's 150th career game as head coach at Clemson. The win extended Clemson's school-record win streak to 19 games, dating to the start of the 2018 season. The Tiger defense held the 49ers to 216 yards of total offense.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence threw two touchdown passes, including a 58-yard touchdown to Tee Higgins on his first attempt of the game, as well as a two-yard touchdown pass to Cornell Powell early in the second quarter before giving way to the Tiger reserves. Chase Brice connected with Joseph Ngata for a 37-yard touchdown in the third quarter. The touchdown reception was Ngata's first career touchdown reception. Running backs Travis Etienne, Lyn-J Dixon and Michel Dukes all accounted for a rushing touchdown, respectively, as well.

Clemson held Charlotte to 63 passing yards. Safety K'Von Wallace returned a 66-yard interception for a touchdown in the first quarter, his fourth career interception and first career touchdown.

Clemson played a school-record 111 players in the contest, shattering the previous record of 94, set against The Citadel in 2017 and again against Louisville in 2018.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. - No. 1 Clemson stopped North Carolina on a two-point conversion attempt with less than two minutes remaining to defeat the Tar Heels, 21-20, at Kenan Memorial Stadium. The game marked the first time in nine years that the Tigers traveled to Chapel Hill, N.C., and represented the first time since 2002 that Clemson beat the Tar Heels in Chapel Hill.

North Carolina opened the game with a four-play touchdown drive capped by a 40-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Sam Howell to Dyami Brown. Running back Travis Etienne eventually responded for Clemson with a 13-yard touchdown in the second quarter.

After Howell produced a second passing touchdown for North Carolina, quarterback Trevor Lawrence found the end zone for his fourth rushing touchdown of the season to tie the game at 14 with less than a minute to go before halftime.

The teams traded scoreless possessions throughout the third quarter, but in the fourth quarter, Lawrence connected with Tee Higgins on a 38-yard touchdown to give the Tigers their first lead of the game with 9:54 remaining. Lawrence finished the contest having completed 18-of-30 passes for 206 yards and a career-best 45 rushing yards. Higgins finished with game highs in receptions (six) and receiving yards (129).

Trailing 21-14, North Carolina engineered a 16-play, 75-yard touchdown drive to pull within one point with 1:17 remaining. North Carolina Head Coach Mack Brown opted to try a two-point conversion attempt, but the Tiger defense stood tall, as Xavier Thomas, James Skalski and Nolan Turner combined to tackle quarterback Sam Howell to preserve the lead. A Clemson recovery on an ensuing onside kick sealed the victory.

CLEMSON, S.C. – No. 2 Clemson defeated Florida State Seminoles, 45-14, as Clemson became just the 15th FBS program — and the first in the Atlantic Coast Conference — to reach 750 all-time wins.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 17-25 passes for 170 yards and three touchdowns. Lawrence also rushed for his fifth touchdown of the season in the contest. Wide receiver Justyn Ross added two touchdown receptions in the second quarter, finishing with 61 receiving yards on five catches.

Running back Travis Etienne surpassed 3,000 career rushing yards on the afternoon, finishing with 127 rushing yards and a three-yard touchdown reception in the first quarter. Amari Rodgers added a 29-yard touchdown on a reverse to open the scoring in the second half.

Though Clemson's offense helped the Tigers run out to a quick 28-0 lead, the defense was one of the stories of the game, forcing four turnovers, including three interceptions. Cornerback Derion Kendrick recorded his first career interception, which he returned 38 yards for a pick-six. It was Clemson's second interception return for touchdown this season, giving Clemson multiple pick sixes in every season since 2013.

Clemson's 39:37 possession time was the program's longest since its school-record 42:58 possession time against North Carolina on Nov. 7, 1992.

2019 GAME RECAPS

CLEMSON	45
LOUISVILLE	10

OCT. 19, 2019
CARDINAL STADIUM • LOUISVILLE, KY.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. – No. 3/2 Clemson defeated Louisville, 45-10, at Cardinal Stadium. The Tiger defense forced three turnovers and totaled six sacks in the win, holding Louisville to just 263 yards.

Clemson racked up 551 yards offensively behind another big day from junior running back Travis Etienne in helping the Tigers to their 10th consecutive true road win.

Etienne continued his stellar play against the Cardinals, rushing for 192 yards on 14 attempts including a 49-yard touchdown run in the third quarter. It gave him 443 yards on 28 carries and three touchdowns on the ground in three career games against Louisville. It marked the first time Etienne rushed for 100-plus yards in back-to-back games since a three-game streak in 2018 against South Carolina, Pittsburgh and Notre Dame.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 20-of-29 passes and three touchdown passes despite starting the game 3-for-7 for five yards with two interceptions in the first quarter. Justyn Ross, Joseph Ngata and Cornell Powell each hauled in a touchdown reception.

Linebacker Isaiah Simmons led the defense once again, registering eight total tackles, two sacks and one pass breakup. Justin Foster tallied a career-best two sacks and 3.5 tackles for loss. K'Von Wallace and A.J. Terrell each recorded interceptions in the contest.

With the victory, Head Coach Dabo Swinney became the winningest active FBS coach by percentage among coaches with at least five seasons of experience.

BOSTON COLLEGE	7
CLEMSON	59

OCT. 26, 2019
MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. – No. 4/2 Clemson extended the nation's longest winning streak to 23 games at Memorial Stadium, dominating Boston College, 59-7, on Homecoming. Clemson outgained Boston College, 674-177, and the 497-yard differential was Clemson's largest against an ACC opponent since the conference's founding in 1953, surpassing a 464-yard advantage against Wake Forest in 2000.

Diondre Overton tied a school record with three touchdown receptions. He finished with three receptions for 119 receiving yards, with his three catches resulting in touchdowns of 22, 63 and 34 yards.

Travis Etienne recorded his fifth three-touchdown game of his Clemson career, scoring three first-half touchdowns and posting 109 yards on 16 carries. Trevor Lawrence completed 16-of-19 passes for 275 yards and three touchdowns for a career-high passer rating of 257.9. In addition to throwing two touchdowns to Overton, Lawrence found Amari Rodgers for Rodgers' third touchdown of the season on a 19-yard strike.

The Clemson defense held the Boston College rushing attack, which posted 429 yards against NC State a week earlier, to only 96 yards. The Eagles came into the contest ranked sixth in the nation and first in the ACC with 278.3 rushing yards per game. Logan Rudolph returned a fumble 39 yards to score his first career touchdown. Chad Smith led the defense with nine total tackles, a forced fumble and a sack.

WOFFORD	14
CLEMSON	59

NOV. 2, 2019
MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. – Behind a career-best 212 rushing yards from running back Travis Etienne, No. 4/3 Clemson defeated Wofford, 59-14, at Memorial Stadium on Military Appreciation Day. The win also extended Clemson's home winning streak to 21 games, tying the school record.

Etienne broke James Davis' (47 from 2005-08) school rushing touchdowns record in the second quarter on an 86-yard touchdown, his second score of the day. Etienne's 212 yards came on just nine attempts. Etienne crossed the 1,000-yard mark on the season in just nine games, tying Terrence Flagler's for fewest games needed to reach 1,000 rushing yards in a season.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence threw for three touchdowns and 218 yards in the win. Lawrence completed 12-of-16 passes and rushed for 33 yards on four attempts with a rushing touchdown. Amari Rodgers caught his fourth touchdown of the season, a 35-yard strike in the first quarter. Justyn Ross and Tee Higgins also added receiving touchdowns in the contest.

Clemson's explosive offense gave the Tigers back-to-back 600-yard games and four straight 45-point games for the first time in school history.

Isaiah Simmons recorded his first interception of the season, picking off Wofford quarterback Joe Newman in the second quarter. Jake Venables tied for a team high with eight total tackle, foru of which resulted in a loss. Conversely, Clemson's offense ran 64 plays, none of which produced negative yardage.

GAME 10

CLEMSON	55
NC STATE	10

NOV. 9, 2019
CARTER-FINLEY STADIUM • RALEIGH, N.C.

RALEIGH, N.C. – Notified just before kick of the opportunity to clinch the Atlantic Division, No. 4/3 Clemson secured its spot in the ACC Championship Game with a 55-10 win at NC State.

Clemson warmed up in its traditional white pants but switched to its championship "orange britches" right before kickoff upon being informed of Wake Forest's loss to Virginia Tech. Clemson then used a record-tying 28-point first quarter to run out to a 28-0 lead.

Running back Travis Etienne added three total touchdowns to bring his career total to 54, breaking C.J. Spiller's record for career touchdowns (51). Etienne finished the game with 112 rushing yards on 14 attempts, and hauled in three receptions for 31 yards.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 20-of-27 passes for 276 yards and three touchdowns, becoming the first Clemson quarterback to pass for three touchdowns in five consecutive games. The sophomore also rushed for a career-high 59 yards on eight attempts and found the end zone once on the ground.

Justyn Ross and Tee Higgins each recorded 33-yard touchdown receptions. Offensive lineman John Simpson scored his first career touchdown, scoring on a one-yard handoff.

Clemson forced four NC State turnovers, all fumbles, as Xavier Thomas, Chad Smith, Tyler Davis and Jack Maddox all recorded fumble recoveries. The defense allowed 290 total yards, its 10th straight opponent to accrue fewer than 300 yards to open the season.

GAME 11

WAKE FOREST	3
CLEMSON	52

NOV. 16, 2019
MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. – No. 3/3 Clemson downed Wake Forest, 52-3, on Senior Day, setting a school record with its 22nd consecutive home victory. The 49-point victory was an ACC-record sixth straight by 30 or more.

The Tigers scored on a Trevor Lawrence pass to Tee Higgins on their opening drive, then closed out the half with back-to-back scores from Lawrence to Higgins in just 29 seconds of game clock. The half's final touchdown was set up by an A.J. Terrell interception and gave the Tigers a 31-3 halftime lead. Clemson added touchdowns from Joseph Ngata, Frank Ladson Jr. and Lyn-J Dixon in the second half.

Lawrence recorded a career-high tying four touchdown passes and connected on 21-of-27 passing for 272 yards. Tee Higgins caught three touchdown passes, marking the Tigers' eighth three-touchdown receiving performance in school history and the second such performance this season. Etienne turned in 16 carries for 121 yards and a touchdown, while also catching three passes for 37 yards and took sole possession of the school record for consecutive 100-yard rushing games by reaching the mark in a sixth straight game.

Safety Tanner Muse recorded four tackles (two for loss) a sack and an interception, as the Tiger defense held Wake Forest to 105 total yards of offense (41 passing, 64 rushing). Clemson's defense forced seven three-and-outs while limiting Wake Forest to only five first downs. With the win, Clemson joined 1944 Army and 1972 Nebraska as the only teams in the AP Poll era to win four consecutive games by 45 or more points.

GAME 12

CLEMSON	38
SOUTH CAROLINA	3

NOV. 30, 2019
WILLIAMS-BRICE STADIUM • COLUMBIA, S.C.

COLUMBIA, S.C. – No. 3/3 Clemson defeated South Carolina, 38-3, at Williams-Brice Stadium, completing the eighth undefeated regular season in school history. The win marked Clemson's 27th consecutive victory and sixth in a row against the Gamecocks. Travis Etienne broke the ACC career total (57) and rushing touchdowns (53) record with his second rushing touchdowns of the game.

Etienne finished with 51 rushing yards on 15 attempts with two rushing touchdowns. Quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 26-of-36 passes and 295 yards. He threw three touchdowns, extending his streak of consecutive games with three touchdown passes to seven. Lawrence also rushed for a career best 66-yards. Lawrence set a school record with 18 consecutive completions, which tied the ACC record.

Wide receiver Tee Higgins hauled in his ninth and 10th receiving touchdowns of the year, making him the first Clemson receiver to post back-to-back seasons of double-digit touchdown receptions. Justyn Ross also added a 16-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter amidst his career-high nine receptions for 111 yards to give the Tigers a 21-3 first-half lead.

The Clemson defense held South Carolina to only 172 total yards, the Tigers' top defensive output against the Gamecocks since 1989. Cornerback Derion Kendrick recorded his second interception of the season on the game's opening possession, and linebacker Isaiah Simmons added 10 total tackles, two of them being for a loss, and a sack. With the win, Clemson tied 2011 Houston and 1976 Michigan for the longest streak of 30-point wins in the AP Poll era (seven).
