Matt Moore has a goal in 25-straight games, which ranks No. 6 in the nation among active streaks.

53

Michael Kraus has at least one point in all 53 career games he has appeared in. The active streak enters the weekend tied for No. 1 in the nation.

COVERING THE CAVALIERS

UNIQUELY UVA

The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to UVA's culture.

Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the University dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.

First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why you may ask? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process.

Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES

Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."

Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.

Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos" during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general use around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

THE CAVALIER MASCOT

The costumed Cavalier with a large character head debuted during Virginia's 1984 football season and has remained the official mascot of the University.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.

One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

WAH-HOO-WAH

The origin of "Wah-hoo-wah" is uncertain. The cheer was used to root on Virginia teams as early as 1890 and may have been borrowed from Dartmouth College, whose athletics teams were once known as the Indians.

Legend attributes the yell to Natalie Floyd Otey, who sang the ballad "Where'er You Are, There Shall My Love Be" at Charlottesville's Levy Opera House in 1893. The predominantly student audience noticed that Otey warbled the first three words of the song between each of the stanzas and decided to join in the refrain. By evening's end, goes the legend, the crowd had corrupted "Where'er You Are" into "Wah-hoo-wah."

The Levy Opera House stands at the corner of High Street and Park Street and has since been renovated into an office building.

UVA VS. THE SOUTHERN CONFERENCE

- The Southern Conference is in its sixth season as a men's lacrosse conference.
- Virginia is 37-3 all-time against current members of the Southern Conference.
- Virginia is 0-1 against Air Force, 3-0 against Bellarmine, 3-2 against High Point, 6-0 against Richmond and 25-0 against VMI.
- There are three Southern Conference opponents UVA has never played: Furman, Jacksonville and Mercer.
- All three of those programs started playing lacrosse in the last eight years: Jacksonville (2010), Mercer (2011) and Furman (2014).
- The conference as a whole is very young in lacrosse. Richmond began in 2014 and High Point began in 2013. The old guard in the league are Air Force, who began playing lacrosse in 1967, and VMI, who started in 1983.
- By comparison, UVA started its first varsity lacrosse season in 1904.

TIFFANY AND WILSON HISTORY

- This is Air Force head coach Bill Wilson's fourth meeting against UVA head coach Lars Tiffany. The duo faced each other three times in Ivy League play from 2007-2009 when Wilson was the head coach at Dartmouth and Tiffany was at Brown.
- Tiffany is 10-1 all-time as a head coach against Dartmouth, but his only loss came in his first-ever game against DU and Wilson in 2007. Tiffany won the 2008 and 2009 meetings against Wilson's team.
- Wilson has also coached three previous times at Klöckner Stadium, bringing his Dartmouth team to Charlottesville in 2007, 2008 and 2009.

LAST MEETING BETWEEN UVA AND AIR FORCE ACADEMY

- Virginia's Justin Mullen scored the game's first goal less than four minutes in, but the remainder of the period saw both teams play rather deliberately. Air Force goalie Justin Pavoni recorded five of his 14 saves in the opening quarter.
- The Falcons capitalized on a Virginia turnover late in the first quarter as Dave Brown scored on a fast break opportunity with 17 seconds to go in the period.
- Virginia took a 3-1 lead into halftime behind second quarter goals by Joe Yevoli and John Christmas.
- The Falcons came out strong to start the second half and clearly controlled the pace of the game as they gained confidence. Greg Dangler brought them within one with a goal at the 4:24 mark and William Meister tied the score at three 58 seconds later. Freshman midfielder Justin Kuchta scored what proved to be the winning goal with 8:34 to go in the quarter. Meister ran the Falcons run to four straight with his second of the quarter with 5:37 left.
- Matt Ward pulled UVA within one at 5-4 by scoring the first of his three goals on the afternoon.
- Air Force tallied twice in the opening three minutes of the final period to build a 7-4 lead. Virginia battled back behind two Ward goals, the last coming with 1:50 to play. The Cavaliers lost the ensuing faceoff, but regained possession when Ricky Smith forced a Meister turnover with less than 40 seconds on the clock. Virginia called a timeout with 33 seconds remaining to set up a final play, but a stingy Falcon defense prevented UVA from getting a shot off before time expired.

Game 1

Virginia 12, Loyola 9
Feb. 8 • Charlottesville, Va.

The No. 1 Virginia Cavaliers used a strong first half to outlast the No. 14 Loyola Greyhounds, 12-9, at Klöckner Stadium.

Cavalier goalie Alex Rode tied his career high with 19 saves, including 13 in the first half as Virginia built a 9-3 heading into intermission.

HOW IT HAPPENED

UVA opened the game on a 4-1 run in the first quarter, netting goals by Ian Laviano, Matt Moore and two from Payton Cormier. Moore's unassisted score at 3:16 in the first capped the run. After Loyola scored an extra-man goal at 13:42 by Adam Poitras, via a Aidan Olmstead helper, The Cavaliers reeled off five-straight goals, taking a commanding 9-2 lead.

Peter Garno started the spurt with his first collegiate goal, while Moore scored two more goals and assisted another. Michael Bienkowski capped the run on a Laviano assist. The seven-goal UVA lead was insurmountable for the Greyhounds, despite finishing the game on a 7-3 streak

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"I loved how physical we played today. We came out with really good energy. We probably had too many penalties because of that physicality and energy, but that's the style of lacrosse we want to play and we just have to rely on our man-down defense to be solid. We did a decent job man-down today, but boy, the guy behind us [Alex Rode] is who bailed us out and allowed us to breathe a little better with Alex Rode being such a wall in the cage. Seeing an extension of what he did last May, and we've seen that in practice and throughout the scrimmages, and it was really wonderful to see that come to fruition in the first game of 2020. Offensively you can see how we can go on big runs. Certainly not happy with how we played lacrosse in the second half offensively. Give credit to Loyola's zone defense and their goalie play, but I thought we became a little tight and we have to make sure we aren't going a little shorter with our possessions and that we're playing a little more free and looser." – Lars Tiffany

Game 2

Virginia 12, Lehigh 8
Feb. 15 • Charlottesville, Va.

The No. 1 Virginia Cavaliers used a strong first quarter to outlast the No. 18 Lehigh Mountain Hawks, 12-8, at Klöckner Stadium.

Michael Kraus led the Cavaliers with four goals and one assist in the winning effort. The assist for Kraus gave him 100 for his career, making him the fourth Cavalier all-time to record 100+ career goals and 100+ career assists. He is also the 10th player in ACC history to accomplish this feat.

HOW IT HAPPENED

The Cavaliers opened the game on a 6-1 run to start the first quarter. Kraus scored three goals during the run, while UVA also received scores from Matt Moore, Jared Conners and Payton Cormier. Peter Garno found Cormier with 1:39 left in the first quarter to cap the strong UVA start.

Lehigh made it a game in the second quarter, scoring three-straight goals to cut UVA's lead to two goals, 6-4. Christian Mule' scored with 8:44 left in the first half to finish off the run. Lehigh didn't score again for the next 22:54 and UVA began to put the game out of reach, staking claim to a 9-4 advantage with 2:40 left to play in the third quarter. Goals by Moore and Kraus to start the fourth quarter solidified the UVA lead, 11-5, with 9:14 left to play as the Cavaliers held on for the victory.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"Contested ground balls were the critical key today. We felt like when there were two or three Lehigh men and two to three Virginia men who came up with a lot of those extra possessions, which was critical in a game where the opponent was very strong at the faceoff x as Lehigh is with both [Conor] Gaffney and [Mike] Sisselberger. Our team defense, there was some really good communication going on out there. Give Lehigh's coaching staff credit for making adjustments throughout the game. Minor adjustments, trying to go after what we were doing defensively, so we had to make some adjustments. Our young defense, really kind of spearheaded by Kyle Kology and his decision-making. He [Kology] made some really good decisions on when to slide, when to support the dodger and changing some slides at times. It's really a credit to Kyle and the rest of the defense working together. Really appreciative of the fans coming out on a near freezing temperature day but what a beautiful, sunny day to play lacrosse at Klöckner again." – Lars Tiffany

Game 3

Princeton 16, Virginia 12
Feb. 22 • Charlottesville, Va.

No. 2 Virginia dropped its first game of the season, 16-12, to the Princeton Tigers at Klöckner Stadium. The loss snapped UVA's 10-game winning streak that dated back to an April 13, 2019 loss at Duke.

HOW IT HAPPENED

With Virginia leading, 7-6, with 3:58 left in the second quarter, Princeton went on a 6-1 run that put the Cavaliers on their heels for the rest of the afternoon. UVA scored on a Matt Moore singer at 4:06 in the second to tie the game, 6-6. On the ensuing faceoff, Petey LaSalla won the draw and streaked to give UVA its final lead of the game at 3:58 in the second quarter.

Tewaaraton Trophy candidate Michael Sowers, who tallied eight points in the game (4 goals, 4 assists), started the Princeton run with 1:53 left to play in the second quarter. By the time PU's Connor McCarthy scored an extra-man goal at 3:02 in the third quarter, the Tigers owned a steady 12-8 lead.

A 4-1 UVA run brought the Cavaliers to within one goal, 13-12, capped when Moore found Ian Laviano with 8:54 left to play. UVA had a chance to tie, but Laviano's shot was saved and the Tigers ran the transition, resulting in a Princeton goal by Phillip Robertson at 5:11 to start a final 3-0 run that capped the win

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"This game was played really fast. That is the way the game is meant to be played. I love how quickly Princeton moves and plays their transition offense and how quickly they got the ball up off the ground. We certainly have to learn from what happened today and learn from our opponent. The pace I think caught us off guard a little bit and I give credit to their players and the Princeton coaching staff. I think we're just starting to realize Princeton isn't just a one-man team. Michael Sowers is an incredible player, the leader in the Tewaaraton [Trophy] hunt right now, but the people around him are going hard to the goal. They are playing aggressive defense, making plays and picking up key ground balls. That's a heck of an opponent we just faced today." – Lars Tiffany

Game 4

Virginia 18, High Point 15
Feb. 25 • Charlottesville, Va.

No. 8 Virginia used a late 3-0 run to outlast the High Point Panthers, 18-15, at Klöckner Stadium. The win was the 150th by the Cavaliers at Klöckner Stadium.

HOW IT HAPPENED

High Point tied the game, 15-15, on a Devon Buckshot goal with 9:32 left in the game. UVA responded with a 3-0 run to outlast the Panthers. Ian Laviano started the run when Jeff Conner found the attackman on the crease for a goal at 2:57 in the fourth. UVA won the ensuing faceoff and in transition Jared Conners found Michael Kraus with 2:38 left in regulation. Kraus scored an empty-net goal with 43 seconds left to cap the run and secure the win.

The Panthers opened the game on a 4-1 lead after Dalton Sulver scored with 7:09 left in the first quarter. UVA responded quickly with a 9-1 run, taking a commanding 10-5 lead with 4:31 left in the second quarter. Kraus scored twice during the run and Payton Cormier finished off his first-quarter hat trick.

High Point utilized an 8-3 run to tie the game, 13-13, as time expired in the third quarter. UVA and HPU traded goals on the way to a 15-15 tie, setting up UVA's final run

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"First of all, what a huge effort by Michael Kraus. He didn't practice yesterday because of some sort of stomach bug and we weren't sure he was going to play at all today. For him to come out and score five goals and have a couple assists was a big effort. With the faceoff game, we really needed every single one of those possessions. Petey LaSalla was fantastic, as was Justin Schwenk, and that was very important because this High Point team can score goals and they can score goals quickly. Their transition game is so dynamic. We were fortunate that our clearing was 100 percent today, we were getting more possessions on faceoffs and we needed every one of those against a high-powered offense." – Lars Tiffany
