DOM STARSIA

Hall of Fame Coach Enters 20th Season at the Helm of Cavaliers

Widely regarded as one of the best teachers, motivators and tacticians in the game, Dom Starsia is in his 20th season at the helm of the Virginia men's lacrosse program.

Under Starsia's guidance, his Cavalier squads have won four NCAA titles and reached the final four 13 times. He has won more games than any coach in Atlantic Coast Conference and Virginia history, sporting a 228-72 (.760) record since coming to Charlottesville in 1993. In 19 seasons with Virginia, Starsia reached his 300th career game with the Cavaliers in 2011, fittingly it was the 2011 NCAA title game against Maryland at Baltimore's M&T Bank Stadium.

Starsia's overall record, including 10 seasons at Brown, is 329-118 (.736) in 29 years. His 329 wins are the most all-time by a coach at a Division I school, passing legendary coach Jack Emmer (326). The record-breaking triumph was an impressive 13-9 victory over No. 2 seed Cornell in the 2011 NCAA quarterfinal round on May 21. The victory was part of UVa's improbable run to the program's fifth NCAA title.

Starsia's program in 2011 became the first five-loss team and lowest national seed (No. 7) to win an NCAA title. UVa's efforts helped garner Starsia an ESPY nomination for Best Coach and a waltz down the red carpet at Los Angeles' Nokia Theatre in July 2011. Starsia was going up in his category against the likes of UConn's Jim Calhoun, Dallas Mavericks' Rick Carlisle, Auburn's Gene Chizik and Green Bay Packers' Mike McCarthy. Carlisle, ironically a UVa graduate, took home the award.

The USILA bestowed its top honor on Starsia in 2011, naming him the 2011 F. Morris Touchstone Division I Head Coach of the Year. Starsia became the first Virginia head coach to win the award, an honor, which was first presented in 1958. The accolade is Starsia's third career F. Morris Touchstone Award, previously winning at Brown in 1985 and 1991. Starsia is now in a four-way tie for the most times being awarded in the history of the USILA honor. Richard M. Moran (Cornell), Robert Scott (Johns Hopkins) and Tony Seaman (Pennsylvania/Towson) share the honor with Starsia with three career F. Morris Touchstone Awards apiece. Only Starsia is an active head coach.

No one would have figured a NCAA title in 2011 was improbable for Virginia when the Cavaliers were ranked No. 1 in the USILA coaches preseason poll and No. 2 in the Nike/Inside Lacrosse preseason media poll. They may still not have figured it was out of the realm of possibility through the first eight games of the season when UVa was ranked No. 2 with a 7-1 record. Then Virginia hit a skid, losing 4-of-5 games and losing defensive stalwart Matt Lovejoy to season ending shoulder surgery to compound other personnel changes.

After reinventing its offensive and defensive approach on the fly, UVa entered the regular season finale against No. 13 Penn with an 8-5 record and the threat of losing a NCAA first round hosting bid. Heading on the road for the first time in program history for a first round NCAA game all of a sudden became a strong possibility. UVa closed out the regular season with an impressive 11-2 victory over the Quakers, starting an impressive five game stretch where the Cavaliers played their best lacrosse of the season. Matt White's overtime goal against Bucknell in the NCAA first round capped a UVa comeback that saw the Cavaliers trail by as many as four goals in the second half and by two with two minutes left in regulation. 2011 Tewaaraton Trophy winner Steele Stanwick had 21 points in the NCAA Tournament to lead the Cavaliers, while Colin Briggs' five goals in the title game against Maryland earned the midfielder Most Outstanding Player honors of the NCAA Championship.

"The fact that we are here right now is a credit to the team and my family and the people at Virginia," said Starsia after winning his fourth title with the Cavaliers. "We had to reconfigure ourselves midway through the season - they had to decide that it was important enough to pick themselves up and get going again. The game today epitomized the kind of season that we've had - that we have started out well - put some goals in the second quarter when we got ahead a little bit and gave us some confidence going into the locker room. I am very proud of these guys and what they have done."

The 2011 title is just another bolded bullet point on an already impressive resume. Starsia is one of only three coaches in the history of the sport to win 100-plus games at two different schools. In addition to his 228 UVa wins, he won 101 games at Brown from 1983-92. Jack Emmer won 100-plus games at both Washington & Lee and Army, while Dave Urick topped the century mark at Hobart and Georgetown.

In fitting recognition of his coaching success, Starsia was inducted into the National Lacrosse Hall of Fame in November 2008, one of only four active Division I coaches so honored.

"The wins and losses are fickle at best," Starsia said during his induction speech. "It's the relationships that stand the test of time. Coaching has never been a career choice. It's my life. During my interview [with UVa], I was asked to describe myself. I didn't know how to respond. I said, 'honest, and I'll work hard.' And it's really never been more than that."

During his coaching tenure, Virginia has featured 117 All-Americans (28 first-team, 29 second-team, 25 third-team and 35 honorable mention choices), 68 All-ACC selections, eight ACC Rookies of the Year and six ACC Players of the Year. In addition, UVa has produced five NCAA Championship MVPs (Michael Watson in 1996, Conor Gill in 1999, Tillman Johnson in 2003, Matt Ward in 2006 and Colin Briggs in 2011) and 37 All-NCAA Tournament selections, all since 1994.

Starsia's program never wavers from the emphasis on sportsmanship. Following the national championship season of 2003, the program received the Jim Adams Award, the national lacrosse award for sportsmanship. The next year the team slipped to a 5-8 record but still received the Atlantic Coast Conference's Sportsmanship Award in the first year it was presented. The program then won the league's sportsmanship award for three years afterward.

"Sportsmanship remains a priority for us, and the fact that we have been able to win these award in all different kinds of seasons, I think speaks a lot about the ideals that are important in this program," said Starsia.

Excellence in Starsia's program isn't only defined by what happens on the field. His teams excel in the classroom as well. Fifteen Cavaliers have been named Scholar All-Americans under his tutelage, including at least one in five of the last six seasons. Ben Rubeor earned All-America recognition for his athletic excellence as well as his academic prowess as a junior (2007) and senior (2008). In 2008 five of the seven Cavaliers who were named All-Americans posted GPAs above 3.0. Danny Glading (2009) and Ken Clausen (2010) concluded their All-American seasons on the field as Scholar All-Americans as well.

The fall of 2009 brought national attention to his program's humanitarian efforts, highlighted by senior Max Pomper being honored with the IMLCA Boston Market Humanitarian Award for his efforts in raising nearly $10,000 for UVa's HELP crisis hotline through a flag football tournament initiated in remembering fallen teammate Will Barrow. Clausen gained national attention with his "Mustache Madness" initiative, a nation-wide effort that raised nearly $33,000 in November 2009 for prostate cancer research and awareness. Both efforts more than tripled their fundraising efforts by year three in the fall of 2011. Clausen's Mustache Madness moved its fundraising efforts to help the HEADstrong Foundation and fighting various blood cancers.

Under Starsia's direction, the Cavaliers have enjoyed a remarkable era of success that is rivaled by few programs. In addition to winning four NCAA championships, UVa has reached the title game two other times, the semifinals seven more times and the quarterfinals three times under Starsia. Overall, Virginia has advanced to the Final Four 13 times in Starsia's 19 seasons at the helm.

Virginia's 2006 squad will go down as one of the greatest in the sport's history. Starsia led the men in orange and blue to an unprecedented 17-0 record en route to the program's third national championship in eight years. The team was dominant throughout the season, winning by an average of more than eight goals per game. The offense led the country in scoring (15.28), while the defense ranked 10th, allowing fewer than eight goals per game. Eight Cavaliers were named All-America, the most in program history, and senior Matt Ward received the Tewaaraton Trophy as the best player in the nation.

The Cavaliers won their second national championship under Starsia in 2003 when they capped an exciting four-game title run with a 9-7 victory over top-ranked Johns Hopkins in the NCAA finals. The Cavaliers closed the season with a 10-game winning streak to win both the ACC and NCAA championships and finished with a 15-2 overall record.

In 1999, Starsia guided the program to its first national championship in 27 years with a thrilling 12-10 victory over Syracuse in the NCAA title game.

Virginia concluded that historic campaign with a 13-3 record. The Cavaliers also won their second ACC Tournament crown in three years with an 8-7 come-from-behind victory over top-seeded Duke.

The list of exceptional athletes to play for him reads like a "Who's Who" of the lacrosse world. Steele Stanwick (2011), Matt Ward (2006) and Chris Rotelli (2003) capped their national championship seasons by winning the Tewaaraton Trophy as the top player in the nation, giving UVa the most first-time winners of the award.

Ward was also named the USILA Player of the Year in 2006, one of three Cavaliers to win national honors that season; Michael Culver was named the Defenseman of the Year, while Kyle Dixon was selected the Midfielder of the Year.

Tillman Johnson became the only player in the program's history to win two USILA national awards in one season. He turned in two electric performances in the 2003 Final Four and was named the Player of the Year and Goalie of the Year.

Two icons of the sport-Jay Jalbert and Conor Gill-won a national championship at UVa in 1999, before going on to continued success at the professional level. Jalbert was the MVP of Major League Lacrosse in 2003, while Gill was named the league's MVP in 2004. Matt Poskay won a title with UVa in 2006 and was named the MLL's MVP in 2010.

Virginia claimed two national award winners in the same season for the first time ever in 1996 when Doug Knight was named Player of the Year and Michael Watson was chosen Attackman of the Year. Two more Cavaliers received USILA national awards in 1999 as Ryan Curtis was selected Defenseman of the Year and Jalbert was named Midfielder of the Year.

A native of Valley Stream, N.Y., Starsia came to UVa from his alma mater, Brown University, where he distinguished himself as an outstanding coach and athlete.

Starsia became Brown's head lacrosse coach in 1982 and compiled a 10-year record of 101-46, while establishing himself as one of the top young coaches in the game. His teams boasted the best Ivy League record and the best overall record for any Ivy League school over that 10-year span. While at Brown-where he remains second on the school's list for most wins-he developed five first-team All-Americans, 20 Ivy League first-team players, four Ivy League Players of the Year, and three Ivy League Rookies of the Year.

He took the Bears to the NCAA playoffs in five of his last six years, including the last three. The Bears won two Ivy League titles (1985 and 1991) and advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals three consecutive seasons (1990-92). Starsia led them to their finest season in 1991 with their first-ever undefeated regular season (13-0). They also won the Ivy League title and the New England Championship, and finished with a No. 2 national ranking. Starsia received his first two Morris Touchstone Award as the Division I Coach of the Year in 1985 and 1991 while at Brown.

An outstanding high school football player, Starsia had never seen a lacrosse game before entering Brown as a student in 1970. Showing natural talent for the game, however, he became one of the best defensemen in school history. He was a third-team All-American in 1973 and 1974, earning first-team All-Ivy and All-New England both years. He captained the Bears in 1974 and played in one NCAA playoff game as well as the annual North-South game.

Starsia also captained the freshman football team and played wide receiver on the varsity for two seasons. He was inducted into the Brown University Athletic Hall of Fame in 1981 and the New England Lacrosse Hall of Fame (Newton, Mass.) in 1996. He received the Frank Lanning Award for lifetime achievement of overall contribution to the Rhode Island sports community from the Rhode Island Organization of Sportswriters and Sportscasters in 1992. In 2000, Starsia

Krissy and Dom on the red carpet at the 2011 ESPY Awards

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

MARC VAN ARSDALE

Marc Van Arsdale is in his 11th year as the top assistant coach on Dom Starsia's staff and his sixth as associate head coach.

One of the outstanding teachers in the college game, he is heavily involved in all aspects of the program and serves as the team's offensive coordinator. A master offensive tactician, Van Arsdale has overseen some of the most potent offenses in school history.

In 2011 Virginia ranked No. 3 in scoring with average of 12.56 goals per game, 6.94 assists per game and 19.50 points per game. Steele Stanwick won the Tewaaratron Trophy after scoring 21 points (9 g, 12 a) in the NCAA Tournament, leading UVa to the title. Stanwick finished the season No. 3 in the nation with 2.24 assists per game and No. 4 in the nation with 4.12 points per game.

In 2010 Virginia ranked No. 3 in scoring with an average of 13.44 goals per game, 8.17 assists per game and 21.61 points per game. Chris Bockett bursted onto the scene as the sophomore scored 53 goals, second-most in a season all-time by a Cavalier. Bockett became the first UVa player to amass the 50-goal plateau since Doug Knight set the single-season record with 56 scores in 1996. The balanced scoring attack in 2010 saw 10 Cavaliers reach double figures in goals scored.

In 2009 Virginia ranked first in scoring with an average of 13.0 goals per game, 7.83 assists per game and 20.83 points per game. Garrett Billings led the team with 38 goals as all three starting attackmen scored at least 30 goals for the second straight season and only the third time in school history. Joining him in the scoring parade was Steele Stanwick (36) and Danny Glading (32). UVa also boasted a top-notch scoring midfield behind first team All-American Shamel Bratton (31) and third team All-American Brian Carroll (29).

Billings (36) and Glading (30) were also part of the 2008 starting attack trio that reached the 30-goal plateau, spearheaded by Ben Rubeor's team-leading 38 scores. Carroll chipped in 28 goals and his first third team All-American nod.

Virginia rolled to an undefeated national championship six years ago with one of the most explosive offenses in recent memory. The Cavaliers led the nation in scoring with an average of 15.82 goals per game, the most by a Division I team since the 1997 UVa squad averaged more than 18 goals per game. Their 269 goals were the most by a D-I team since UVa tallied 275 times in 1996.

Under Van Arsdale's guidance that season, Matt Ward was named the USILA Player of the Year and was awarded the Tewaaratron Trophy as the nation's top player, while Kyle Dixon was named the USILA Midfielder of the Year. Van Arsdale himself was recognized as the Division I Assistant Coach of the Year following the season.

The Cavaliers have ranked in the top 10 nationally in scoring in six of the last seven seasons, including the last four. In addition, Virginia featured the ACC leader in goals, assists and points in 2002, '03 and '06.

Van Arsdale returned to Charlottesville following a five-year stint (1997-2001) as the head coach at Pennsylvania, where he led the Quakers to a 27-39 overall record. During his first year, he coached Penn to its first .500 season (6-6) of the '90s. Following the 2000 season, he was selected to coach the South All-Stars in the Collegiate North-South Senior All-Star game.

"It would be difficult for me to describe adequately how fortunate we are to have Marc on our staff," said Starsia. "He has been a great influence on my own development, on and off the field. Everyone associated with the Virginia lacrosse program benefits from his experience and leadership. There are two head coaches on this staff."

Prior to taking over the program at Penn, Van Arsdale spent six years as an assistant coach at UVa, first under former head coach Jim Adams (1991-92) and later as a member of Starsia's first staff (1993-96). The Cavaliers reached the NCAA Championships five times in that six-year span, advancing to the national championship game in 1994 and 1996, and to the national semifinals in 1995.

During his first stint at UVa, Van Arsdale was instrumental in recruiting and developing some of the most talented offensive players to ever wear the orange and blue, including David Curry, Doug Knight, Kevin Pehlke, Tucker Radebaugh, Greg Traynor, Michael Watson and Tim Whiteley.

The native of Geneva, N.Y., is a 1985 magna cum laude graduate of Hobart College, where he excelled both academically and athletically. He played on four Division III championship teams, earning first-team All-America and National Division III Attackman of the Year honors as a senior.

Chosen the Most Valuable Player in the D-III championship game in 1983 and 1985, Van Arsdale led the Statesmen in scoring his last two seasons and played in the North-South game his senior year. He finished his collegiate career among the school's top-10 all-time leaders for assists, goals and scoring.

Van Arsdale received an NCAA postgraduate scholarship in 1985 after being named to the Dean's List all four years at Hobart. He was also chosen a Presidential Scholar and was elected a member of the Phi Beta Kappa honor society.

The 48-year-old Van Arsdale began his coaching career as an assistant men's lacrosse coach at Nazareth College in 1986. From 1987-90, he served as an assistant at his alma mater, Hobart, helping guide the Statesmen to four consecutive Division III national championships.

He was inducted into the Hobart College Athletic Hall of Fame in 2001, along with his brother Guy (Hobart class of 1983) and father William (athletic benefactor). He is also a member of the Geneva Sports Hall of Fame and Western New York Lacrosse Hall of Fame.

In addition to his extensive coaching experience, Van Arsdale has served on the USILA All-American Selection Committee and the advisory committee for team selections to the NCAA Championship.

Van Arsdale's son Owen, is a redshirt freshman on the 2012 UVa men's lacrosse team after a stellar local prep career at St. Anne's-Belfield.

VAN ARSDALE'S BIOGRAPHY AT-A-GLANCE

Born: October 1, 1963, in Orange, N.J.

Family: He is married to the former Karen Salemo of Suffern, N.Y. The couple has two children: a son, Owen (19); and a daughter, Elise (17).

Secondary School: Geneva H.S., Geneva, N.Y.

College: Graduated magna cum laude from Hobart College in 1985 with a bachelor's degree in history.

Coaching Background: Assistant men's lacrosse coach at Nazareth College (1986); assistant men's lacrosse coach and assistant men's soccer coach at Hobart (1987-90); assistant men's lacrosse coach at Virginia (1991-96); head men's lacrosse coach at the University of Pennsylvania (1997-2001), compiling an overall record of 27-39; named assistant coach at Virginia on July 31, 2001; promoted to associate head coach in Fall 2006.

JOHN WALKER ASSISTANT COACH

John Walker enters his third season as an assistant coach on Dom Starsia's coaching staff where he serves as the defensive coordinator.

In his two seasons on Grounds, Walker worked with the goalies and the faceoff crew. Under Walker in 2010, goalie Adam Ghitelman ranked No. 7 in the nation with an 8.25 goals-against average, while UVa played 14 of its 18 games against squads ranked in the top 20 nationally in scoring. In 2011 Ghitelman became the ACC's all-time goalie winner with 50 career triumphs in between the pipes, also good for

No. 3 all-time in NCAA history.

Walker came to Charlottesville after three years as the associate head lacrosse coach at the United States Military Academy Preparatory School (USMAPS) in New Jersey where he coached some of the most successful teams in USMAPS history. He is also a co-founder and program director of Winning Edge Lacrosse, which mentored many New Jersey high school players in their offensive development.

"I am very pleased to announce John's hiring as an assistant coach," said Starsia upon Walker's hire. "From a comprehensive search process, John emerged dramatically from a deep pool of talented, familiar candidates. Known only by reputation beforehand, he impressed the committee with each contact. This is an impressive young man who will bring energy, personality and a fresh perspective to our program. He will be a strong role model and a positive influence on our players, on and off the field.

"He is anxious to get started and will be involved in all aspects of the operation. I am supremely confident that alums, fans, recruits and friends of the Virginia lacrosse program will thoroughly enjoy getting to know him."

Walker was a three-time All-American attackman at the United States Military Academy (Army) and finished as the school's second all-time leading scorer with 209 points. He helped lead the team to three NCAA Championship appearances as well as a Patriot League title and was a team captain as a senior in 2006. He graduated in 2006 with a degree in law and legal systems.

Walker is the son of Wesley Walker, a two-time All-Pro wide receiver during a 13-year playing career for the New York Jets. Walker's younger brother Austin was a four-year letterwinner in lacrosse at Johns Hopkins.

The native of Dix Hills, N.Y., currently resides in Charlottesville.

RYAN BROWNING VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH

Ryan Browning enters his first season on Dom Starsia's staff as a volunteer coach. He comes to Charlottesville most recently from Goucher College in Baltimore where he was an assistant coach in 2011.

Browning will work with the UVa faceoff position, goalies and the defense.

"I am very pleased to announce that Ryan Browning will be joining our staff as the volunteer assistant for this coming 2012 season," said Starsia. "He comes to Charlottesville with the highest recommendations and quality experience. He is an enthusiastic young coach who wants to make this his profession. While he will work most closely with the face-off men, goalies and defense, he will find himself involved in all aspects of the program. We welcome some new influences on the practice field and look forward to his overall contribution."

Browning previously held the position of senior assistant coach and recruiting coordinator during the 2010 lacrosse season at Washington College. He also served as the head coach of the MIAA boys' lacrosse team at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel High School in Baltimore during the 2009 season. Browning led Mount Carmel to its highest win total of the decade.

A 2008 graduate of Salisbury University, Browning played in three NCAA Division III Championship games with the Sea Gulls, winning NCAA titles in 2007 and 2008 as their long stick midfielder. Prior to his three years at Salisbury, Browning played one year of lacrosse at Division I UMBC.

Browning played high school lacrosse at Calvert Hall in Baltimore, earning All-MIAA honors as a senior. He was a member of the Cardinals' 2003 MIAA Conference Championship team and was also an All-MIAA football player as a senior.

Browning is no stranger to Virginia athletics and the surrounding region. His father, Skip, and uncle, Lee, played football for the Cavaliers during the mid-1970's. His grandfather is coach Phil Browning, long time highly successful coach of the Fluvanna Flying Flucos.

Browning received his bachelor of arts in history from Salisbury and is currently pursuing his master degree in athletic program leadership and administration at Goucher College.

The native of Baltimore, Md., currently resides in Charlottesville.

2011 SEASON IN REVIEW

Virginia 12, Drexel 9
Feb. 19 • Charlottesville, Va.

Chris Bocklet tallied five points on four goals and Shamel Bratton added a hat trick as the No. 1 Virginia Cavaliers (1-0) topped the No. 18 Drexel Dragons (0-1), 12-9, inside Klöckner Stadium in both teams' season openers.

The Cavaliers jumped out to a 3-1 advantage on a Bocklet unassisted goal at 1:15 in the first quarter. After a Nick Trizano score at 12:56 in the second period brought the Dragons within one goal, 3-2, back-to-back scores by Bocklet and Rhamel Bratton staked UVA to a 5-2 advantage at 8:12 in the second stanza.

Drexel scored the next three goals to even the game, 5-5, with 12:40 left in the third quarter. Brendan Glynn and Scott Perri hooked up back-to-back, followed by a Robert Church score to cap the run.

UVA and Drexel traded goals back and forth until the game was knotted, 9-9. Perri scored his third goal of the game on a Kyle Bergman pass with 11:01 left in the game to bring the Dragons even. Shamel Bratton and Bocklet took over the rest of the fourth quarter to give UVA the lead for good.

Shamel Bratton scored his second and third goals of the evening and Bocklet capped the night off on a Rob Emery pass with 2:54 left in the game, giving UVA the 12-9 final advantage.

Rob Fortunato made his first career start between the pipes, saving a career-high 12 shots, 10 of which came in the second half.

UVA won the ground ball battle (46-43), was nearly perfect on clears (22-of-23) and won the faceoff war (13-11). Seven different Cavaliers scored goals and Chris LaPierre chipped in two assists for a team best.

Drexel was led by Perri's three goals (five total points). Brendan Glynn was second on the team with two scores, while Bergman and Perri each had two assists.

Game 2

Virginia 22, Mount St. Mary's 6
Feb. 22 • Charlottesville, Va.

No. 1 Virginia (2-0) rode a career-high eight points from Steele Stanwick, as the Cavaliers cruised past the Mount St. Mary's Mountaineers (0-1) inside Klöckner Stadium, 22-6.

In the victory two sets of Virginia brothers tallied points in the game. Rhamel and Shamel Bratton combined for a total of four points via three goals and one assist. Matt and Mark Cockerton tallied a total of three points, via two goals and one assist.

The Cavaliers scored the game's first seven goals, three of which were on extra-man opportunities. Rob Emery took a Stanwick pass and deposited it in the goal with 2:43 left in the first quarter to cap the 7-0 streak. Cody Lehrer scored with 52 seconds left in the quarter to put the Mountaineers on the board, 7-1.

Virginia outscored the Mount 4-1 in the second quarter to take an 11-2 lead into the intermission. Rhamel Bratton, Matt Kugler, Chris Bocklet and Stanwick all scored in the quarter.

UVA won the third quarter 7-2, highlighted by Blake Riley's first career goal off a Stanwick pass with 7:27 remaining in the quarter. Brett Schmidt and Anthony Golden scored goals for the Mount in the third quarter.

Connor English and Matt White each scored their third goals of the game in the fourth quarter, while UVA held a 4-2 edge in the final stanza. Brooks Bradley ended the game's scoring after picking up a ground ball after a save by UVA third-string goalie Connor McGee. In the melee for the ground ball, Bradley was able to flick the ball into the net.

Game 3

Virginia 11, Stony Brook 10 -- OT
Feb. 26 • Stony Brook, N.Y.

Steele Stanwick scored five goals, including the game-winning goal, to lead the No. 1 Virginia Cavaliers (3-0) to a thrilling 11-10 triumph over the No. 5 Stony Brook Seawolves (0-1) in overtime, inside LaValle Stadium. Stanwick added two assists for a game-high seven points.

With 44 seconds left in the first overtime period, Stanwick grabbed a ricochet ground ball in front of the cage and delivered the winning shot in the open net.

The overtime contest was UVA's first since beating Maryland 10-9 in seven overtimes, the longest game in NCAA DI history.

Stanwick put the Cavaliers on the board early after picking off a Seawolves clear attempt and scoring unassisted 1:22 into the game. The junior slid the ball past Rob Camosa, the Stony Brook goaltender, in a one-on-one situation.

Stony Brook scored three-straight goals to take a 3-1 lead, only the third advantage the Seawolves have ever had over UVA in the nine-game history of the series. Potential national player of the year candidate Kevin Crowley scored back-to-back goals, the first on a Mike Rooney pass with 6:57 left in the first quarter in an unsettled situation.

Crowley scored again with 8:00 left in the second stanza on a Robbie Campbell pass. Campbell then found Brett Drost with 4:32 left in the first half, capping the run.

Stanwick cut the UVA deficit to a goal, 3-2, when he scored in transition. Bray Malphrus tallied his first career assist on the scoring play. Mark Cockerton evened the score at 1:47 remaining with his unassisted score.

Drost started the second half scoring for Stony Brook with a goal via Crowley with 11:52 left in the third period, giving the Seawolves the 4-3 lead.

Virginia took over and scored the next four goals to take a 7-4 advantage. Chris Bocklet scored his lone goal of the day, Stanwick scored back-to-back goals, followed by Cockerton's second score to cap the run.

Crowley and Timmy Trenkle countered with goals for Stony Brook and UVA's lead was cut to one goal, 7-6, with 5:33 left in the game. Colin Briggs scored in transition with 4:12 left to push the score to 8-6. Matt White scored on the extra-man situation with 3:28 remaining to extend the UVA advantage to three goals, 9-6.

Stony Brook reeled off a 4-1 run to force overtime with the score knotted at 10 apiece. Crowley scored his fourth and final goal of the day with 21 seconds - followed by a Russ Bonanno goal with three seconds left sent the contest to the extra period.

Stony Brook won the overtime faceoff and reeled 3:20 off the clock, but was unable to score as Ghitelman stuffed a shot, making the save on Crowley. UVA ran the offense and after a scrum for the ball, Stanwick scored the game winner.

Virginia 22, VMI 6
Feb. 28 • Charlottesville, Va.

Twelve different players scored for the No. 1 Virginia (4-0), as the Cavaliers easily defeated the visiting VMI Keydets (1-3), inside Klöckner Stadium. Steele Stanwick and Chris Bocklet led the way with seven points apiece to help UVa head coach Dom Starsia win his 320th career game, seven away from breaking Jack Emmer's mark (326) for most wins by a head coaching while coaching at the NCAA Division I level.

Another milestone was passed on Monday night as UVa goalie Adam Ghitelman won his 41st career game in between the pipes, passing Kip Turner for most goalie wins in program history. Ghitelman became the 17th player all-time at the NCAA Division I level to reach the 40-win plateau with the win on Saturday at No. 5 Stony Brook.

Virginia is now 18-0 all-time against VMI in a series that dates back to 1949. After Keith Long scored unassisted at 9:41 in the first quarter for VMI, tying the score at 1-1, UVa went on a 14-0 run that ran deep into the third quarter. Virginia limited VMI from taking a shot in the second quarter, as the Cavaliers went into the intermission with a 12-1 advantage.

Bocklet and Mark Cockerton amassed four goals and three goals respectively in the first half, while Stanwick added two goals and two assists. Ghitelman gave way after two quarters to Rob Fortunato, allowing only one goal and saving three shots.

Starsia played a lot of different Cavaliers in the second half, as Pat Harbeson and Jacob Ghitelman tallied their first career goals. John Haldy and Brian McLinden also scored their first goals of the season against the Keydets.

VMI's offense was led by Long, who scored two goals. Drew Leonard, Lowell Patterson, Bobby Davis and Tyler Griffith all added goals in the setback.

Syracuse 12, Virginia 10
March 4 • Syracuse, N.Y.

An intense matchup between the No. 1 Virginia Cavaliers (4-1) and the No. 1 Syracuse Orange (3-0) saw the home team taking the contest, in front of 14,340 fans, inside the Carrier Dome. The setback snapped UVa's three-game winning streak inside the edifice. UVa and Syracuse were both ranked this week No. 1 by the USILA coaches poll, while the Cavaliers sat No. 2 in the Nike/Inside Lacrosse media poll. It was only the second time in the history of the historic poll that two teams shared the top spot. The final regular season poll in 1985 saw Johns Hopkins and the Orange share the No. 1 spot. The USILA poll began in 1973.

Shamel Bratton put UVa on the board first, 1-0, with 12:44 left in the opening period on an unassisted score from 10-yards out.

The Orange scored twice in 1:14 of play, taking a 2-1 advantage with scores from Tim Desko and Steve Ianzito. Mark Cockerton tied the game, 2-2, via a Colin Briggs pass with 8:46 left in the first quarter.

Syracuse jumped out front by three goals, 5-2, when Jovan Miller capped a run with 2:55 left in the first quarter. JoJo Marasco's goal extended Syracuse's lead to 7-4 with 11:57 left in the second quarter, finishing the Orange's scoring for the first half.

Virginia scored four-straight goals to go into the intermission with an 8-7 lead. Steele Stanwick scored on a Rhamel Bratton pass to start things. Unassisted goals by Shamel Bratton and Colin Briggs tied the game at 7-7 with 4:26 left in the first half. A Chris Bocklet from Stanwick connection with 2:53 left in the second quarter capped the scoring for the half.

Syracuse scored early in the third quarter, taking the lead, while posting the 3-1 advantage over the frame, giving the Orange a 10-9 lead entering the final quarter. Goals by Stephen Keogh, Desko and Jeremy Thompson gave the Orange the lead. Thompson and Desko scored again in the fourth, preserving the Syracuse advantage. Shamel Bratton scored his fourth goal, eighth career in the Dome, but it wasn't enough as UVa fell in the juggernaut of a game, 12-10.

Virginia goalie Adam Ghitelman made 15 saves in the goal, including many point-blank stops, keeping UVa in the contest until the final horn. Stanwick added three points and Bocklet scored twice in the loss. Chris LaPierre shined at the faceoff, winning 7-of-8 and picking up six ground balls, mostly during faceoffs.

Game 6
Virginia 14, Vermont 6
March 8 • Charlottesville, Va.

Shamel Bratton tied a career high with five goals and added an assist for a career-best six points, leading the No. 2 Virginia Cavaliers (5-1) to a 14-6 triumph over the Vermont Catamounts (3-2), inside Klöckner Stadium. Colin Briggs also had a career night with three goals and four total points in the triumph.

Virginia goalie Adam Ghitelman added to his career win total, pushing him into a tie for the all-time ACC mark of 42 victories. The current ACC mark is held by Duke's Dan Loftus, who accomplished the feat over five seasons from 2004-08. Ghitelman and Loftus now share the No. 7 all-time mark among NCAA Division I goalies.

Shamel Bratton wasted no time putting UVa ahead, 1-0, with an unassisted goal 2:09 into the game. Goals by Vermont's Drew Phillie and Ahmad Zachary put Vermont ahead, 2-1. Shamel Bratton pulled UVa even with another unassisted score with 6:33 left in the first period, but Vermont quickly answered with a Kyle Sminkey goal, giving the Catamounts the 3-2 advantage. That was the last time UVa trailed.

Mark Cockerton and Steele Stanwick scored goals, giving UVa a 4-3 lead entering the second stanza. Vermont scored on a Connor McNamara goal, starting the second quarter scoring and tying the game at 4-4. Vermont didn't get any closer as UVa went on a 10-2 run to close the game, including scoring five-straight goals.

Shamel Bratton led UVa with five goals, matching a career best that was set against Johns Hopkins in the 2009 NCAA quarterfinal round. Chris Bocklet, Rhamel Bratton and Chris LaPierre added solo goals to the cause. Cockerton was third on the team with two goals.

McNamara led Vermont with two goals, while Philie added a goal and an assist in the losing effort.

Game 7 Virginia 11, Cornell 9 March 12 • Baltimore, Md.

Colin Briggs scored three goals to pace No. 2 Virginia (6-1) to an 11-9 triumph over the No. 14 Cornell Big Red (3-2), in front of 17,057 in the Konica Minolta Face-Off Classic, inside M&T Bank Stadium. Inside Lacrosse named Briggs the MVP of the game.

Cornell scored first when Virginia defensemen Matt Lovejoy and Scott McWilliams were picked against each other behind the cage, allowing All-American Rob Pannell to score unassisted with ease 1:27 into the game. Chris LaPierre quickly tied the game at 1-1, after picking up a ground ball and scoring in transition. The goal literally blew through the back of the net with 10:49 left in the first quarter and the game was delayed five minutes as the net was fixed.

The Big Red scored again on a Pannell unassisted score, followed by a Roy Lang score, giving Cornell a 3-1 lead. The Big Red did not trail in the game until the fourth quarter, but UVa managed three ties in the process, the second coming at 3-3 after a Rhamel Bratton unassisted goal, followed by Briggs' first score with 11:10 left in the second stanza.

Lang scored again, followed by a Mike O'Neil goal, giving Cornell a two-goal lead, 5-3, with 4:55 left before the intermission. Briggs scored again on the run with 1:05 left in the first half, finishing the second quarter scoring and sending UVa into the break with a one goal deficit, 5-4.

Pannell secured the hat-trick for Cornell, pushing the Big Red's lead to 6-4, inserting a goal into the cage with 9:53 left in the third quarter, starting the second half scoring. John Haldy kept it close with a score 40 seconds later, cutting the Cornell lead to 6-5. O'Neil scored nearly three minutes later, giving Cornell a two-goal lead for the final time, 7-5.

Virginia scored four-straight goals, taking a two-goal lead of its own, 9-7. Rhamel Bratton's behind the back unassisted scored with 11:09 left to play in the game gave UVa its first lead of the game, one the Cavaliers never relinquished. Shamel Bratton capped the four-goal run after his brother put UVa up.

Rob Emery's second goal of the game and another score by Chris Bocklet pushed UVa's score to 11, rendering Pannell's fourth goal and Lang's second score fruitless as the Cavaliers held onto the triumph.

Game 8 Virginia 14, Ohio State 11 March 19 • Charlottesville, Va.

Rhamel Bratton and Steele Stanwick scored four goals apiece and Chris Bocklet added three scores to pace the No. 2 Virginia Cavaliers (7-1) to a 14-11 triumph over the No. 20 Ohio State Buckeyes (5-3), inside Klöckner Stadium. The victory is the 100th all-time in UVa's home venue, which opened in 1993.

Ohio State jumped out first, staking the Buckeyes to a 2-0 lead 7:31 into the game after goals by Michael Italiano and Keenan Ochwat.

Virginia finally registered a goal with 4:48 left in the first quarter on a Rhamel Bratton goal, via a John Haldy pass. Steele Stanwick scored with seven seconds left in the first quarter on a Shamel Bratton helper, then the junior scored again 49 seconds into the second quarter, giving UVa its first lead of the game, 3-2.

Logan Schuss evened Ohio State, 3-3, when he scored on a Jeff Tundo pass with 9:27 before the intermission. Rhamel Bratton quickly answered for UVa with his second goal of the afternoon, giving the Cavaliers a 4-3 advantage.

Tyler Frederick answered back for Ohio State, scoring with 8:14 left in the first half, tying the game at 4-4. Virginia then ripped off an 8-1 run, storming out to a 12-5 lead.

Chris Bocklet started things with a man-up goal on a Stanwick pass. Colin Briggs followed with an unassisted goal, before Stanwick registered the first half hat trick with another a man-up goal on a Shamel Bratton pass with 4:56 left in the second quarter.

Ohio State managed to break up the scoring a bit with Tundo's second goal with 2:17 before the break, but Bocklet scored again on a Briggs pass, sending UVa into the intermission with an 8-5 lead.

Matt White started the second half scoring for UVa with an unassisted score, 1:46 into the third quarter. Stanwick scored his fourth goal of the game at the 12:19 mark, followed by a Rhamel Bratton goal with 6:06 left in the third stanza. Shamel Bratton finished the 8-1 run with a goal assisted by Matt Kugler with 5:30 left in the period, staking UVa to the 12-5 advantage.

The Buckeyes bounced right back, scoring three straight scores, cutting the OSU deficit to four goals, 12-8. Tundo started the streak with an unassisted score, followed by two goals by Logan Schuss, the second assisted by Dominique with 1:58 remaining in the third period.

Bocklet scored again on a Shamel Bratton pass with 9:42 left in the game, halting the Ohio State streak and advancing the UVa advantage to five goals, 13-8. Schuss scored again for the Buckeyes with 6:18 left to play, cutting UVa's lead to 13-9.

Virginia finished its scoring for the game with Rhamel Bratton's fourth goal of the game with 1:32 left to play, giving UVa the 14-9 lead. Ohio State made it interesting with back-to-back goals by Italiano and Schuss, but it wasn't enough as UVa was able to secure the game's final faceoff and run out the clock, holding onto the 14-11 win.

Game 9
Johns Hopkins 12, Virginia 11
March 26 • Baltimore, Md.

Steele Stanwick had three goals and four assists for the No. 2 Virginia Cavaliers (7-2), but it wasn't enough as the No. 11 Johns Hopkins Blue Jays (6-2) broke a six-game losing streak to UVa with a 12-11 triumph inside Homewood Field.

The Blue Jays jumped out to a 4-0 lead in the first quarter, shutting the Cavaliers out for the first time in a period this season, while managing only five shots.

Chris Lightner started the scoring with an unassisted score only 2:20 into the game. Phil Castronova, Mark Goodrich and John Greeley all deposited goals in the opening period for the Blue Jays.

Virginia put its first dent in the scoreboard at the 9:28 mark in the second quarter when Matt White scored via a Steele Stanwick pass on the extra-man situation. After a Chris Boland score pushed the Hopkins advantage to 5-1, UVa scored two straight goals to cut its deficit to two goals, 5-3. Colin Briggs scored the unassisted man-down goal at 6:24, followed by a Chris Bocklet score on a Nick O'Reilly pass at 5:04.

Lee Coppersmith scored back-to-back goals to send Hopkins into the intermission with a four-goal lead, 7-3.

The Cavaliers came storming back in the third quarter, tying the game, 9-9, while going on a 6-2 scoring spurt.

After Boland's goal with 8:33 left in the third period put Johns Hopkins up 9-5, UVa ripped up four straight goals, all within the last 1:36 of the quarter. Shamel Bratton started the streak, followed by Stanwick, Rob Emery and Shamel Bratton one more time to tie the game with 33 seconds left in the third quarter.

Virginia took its first lead of the afternoon, 10-9, with 9:17 left in the game on Emery's second goal. Johns Hopkins answered, as Lee Coppersmith scored unassisted with 6:43 left in the game, knotting the game at 10-10. Stanwick scored his third goal of the game, giving UVa its final lead of the day, 11-10, with 5:41 left.

Hopkins answered quickly at 4:49 on a Rob Guida goal in an unsettled situation. Boland then put Hopkins back up for good, 12-11, with a scored at 1:39.

After getting only five shots off in the opening period, UVa ended up outshooting Johns Hopkins, 44-42. UVa also won the ground ball battle 37-30 and was perfect on 2-of-2 extra-man situations.

Stanwick lead all players with seven points on three goals and four assists. Shamel Bratton and Emery each added two goals in the losing effort. UVa goalie Adam Ghitelman saved nine shots in the loss.

Game 10
Maryland 12, Virginia 7
April 2 • Charlottesville, Va.

The No. 6 Virginia Cavaliers (7-3, 0-1 ACC) received two goals apiece from Rhamel Bratton and Chris Bocklet, but it wasn't enough as the No. 10 Maryland Terrapins (7-2, 1-2 ACC) were victorious in front of 10,545 fans, 12-7, inside Scott Stadium. The contest was UVa's first inside the football stadium since 1995.

Virginia has back-to-back losses for the first time since the 2007 season, and back-to-back regular season losses for the first time since the 2004 season.

Things looked bright early for the Cavaliers when Steele Stanwick scored with 11:32 left in the first quarter, giving UVa the 1-0 lead. Goals by Maryland's John Haus and Ryan Young put Maryland up, 2-1, after one quarter of play.

Virginia scored the next three goals, jumping out to a 4-2 advantage with 9:31 left to play before the intermission. Coling Briggs, John Haldy and Bratton all scored in the span.

Owen Blye scored on a Jesse Bernhardt pass, cutting the Maryland deficit back to one goal, 4-3. Bratton scored with 5:30 left in the second quarter, giving UVa a two-goal advantage for the final time, 5-4.

Maryland scored the next seven goals, taking a 10-5 lead. Joe Cummings scored an extra-man goal with 4:37 left in the second quarter, sending the game into the break with UVa ahead 5-4.

The Terrapins scored four goals in the third quarter and two more to start the fourth quarter before Bocklet's score with 10:09 left in the game ended the run. Cummings scored three goals in the frame and Haus had one.

Haus and Young scored in the fourth quarter, giving Maryland a 12-6 lead. Bocklet scored an extra-man opportunity with 1:23 left, but it wasn't enough.

Game 11
Virginia 11, North Carolina 10 - OT
April 9 • Charlottesville, Va.

Steele Stanwick's goal with 46 seconds remaining in overtime lifted the No. 9 Virginia Cavaliers (8-3, 1-1 ACC) over the No. 5 North Carolina Tar Heels (7-4, 1-2 ACC), 11-10, inside Klöckner Stadium. The triumph halted a two-game Virginia losing streak, a regular season first for the Cavaliers since 2004.

Virginia never trailed and the two teams were only tied twice, including at the end of regulation, 10-10, after Thomas Wood scored via a Jimmy Dunster pass with six seconds on the fourth-quarter clock.

UNC won the faceoff in the overtime period and managed three shots, but one was blocked and picked up by Bray Malphrus and UVa was out on the clear with 2:02 left in overtime. Virginia squeezed off a couple of shots before Stanwick went to his right around the cage. The junior from Baltimore, Md., was about to dodge back to his left when UNC defenseman Charlie McComas slipped and fell to ground in anticipation of the dodge. Stanwick continued around to his right and deposited the winning goal at point-blank range past UNC goalie Steven Rastivo for the win.

To start the game UVa jumped out first, scoring on a Shamel Bratton goal, assisted by Rhamel Bratton at the 10:39 mark in the first quarter. It was only the fourth time since the Brattons have been at UVa that one assisted the other on a goal and it's the second time this season.

UNC's Ryan Flanagan tied the game for the first tie with 9:44 left in the opening period. The odd scoring play came as Flanagan was clearing the ball and tried to make a pass up field. Ghitelman came out of the cage to make a play on the receiving attackman, but the ball whizzed past both players and into the net for the score.

Then the Cavaliers scored three straight goals, taking a 4-1 lead. Chris Bocklet started things by extending his nation best consecutive game goal scoring mark to 29 games, reaching the back of the cage on a Stanwick helper. Colin Briggs and Stanwick also scored during the streak.

Back-to-back goals by Michael Burns and R.G. Keenan brought the Tar Heels to within a goal just before halftime. However, Briggs dodged the Carolina defense and scored unassisted with 10 seconds remaining before the intermission, giving UVa the 5-3 lead at the break.

Billy Bitter started the second half scoring with a goal at 13:17, cutting the UNC deficit to one goal, 5-4. Rhamel Bratton answered for UVa on a Briggs pass at 9:08, pushing the Cavaliers' lead back two goals, 6-4.

The scoring was a back-and-forth affair in the third quarter, as the period ended with UVa holding a narrow one-goal lead, 7-6. Bitter's goal scored for UNC with two seconds left in the third quarter came after Ghitelman's failed clear. Ghitelman was flushed out toward the sideline after picking up a ground ball and Wood intercepted the pass, before finding Bitter for an open goal score.

Rhamel Bratton came up with a big play to start the fourth quarter. While standing in front of the crease he intercepted Wood's pass from behind the goal, and sprinted the length of the field, dodged right and then came left with the unassisted goal at 12:49 in the fourth quarter. The score pushed UVa's lead back to two goals, 8-6.

The goal was part of a 3-1 UVa run as the Cavaliers took a 10-7 lead. Nick O'Reilly capped the streak with an unassisted goal with 6:53 left in the game. UNC scored three straight goals, including the Wood score to tie the game, setting the stage for Stanwick's second overtime game-winning goal of the year.

Game 12 Duke 13, Virginia 11 April 16 • Durham, N.C.

Colin Briggs scored a career-high four goals, but it wasn't enough as the No. 7 Virginia Cavaliers (8-4, 1-2 ACC) fell to the No. 10 Duke Blue Devils (10-4, 3-0 ACC), 13-11, inside Koskinen Stadium. The hat trick for Briggs was his second straight.

Briggs started things quickly for UVa when he scored in transition off a Chris Clements pass 1:30 into the game, giving the Cavaliers the 1-0 lead to start things off.

Duke answered with three straight goals to take a 3-1 lead. David Lawson started things off with an unassisted score and then Zach Howell scored back-to-back goals to cap the run.

Chris LaPierre picked up a ground ball off the ensuing faceoff after Howell's second goal and split the defense to score in an unsettled possession, cutting UVa's deficit to one goal, 3-2.

Duke ended the first quarter on a 3-1 spurt, taking a 6-3 lead into the second quarter. Jordan Wolf started things off for Duke with a goal with 6:10 remaining in the period. After Chris Bocklet scored with 5:24 left for UVa, Duke received goals from Christian Walsh and Josh Offit to cap the first period scoring.

Shamel Bratton ended the Duke run and started off the second period scoring when he scored on a Nick O'Reilly pass with 9:15 left in the first half. Justin Turri answered for Duke, scoring with 5:47 left before the intermission, extending Duke's lead back to three goals, 7-4.

UVa scored the next three goals to tie the score at 7-7, overlapping into the 13:44 mark in the third quarter. Briggs scored two goals before the break and Rhamel Bratton capped the run with the first goal of the third quarter.

Duke emerged on a 4-0 run of its own, taking an 11-7 lead. Robert Rotanz scored three of the goals and Jordan Wolf tallied the other in the streak. O'Reilly cut the run when he grabbed a ricocheted shot and deposited in the goal with one second left in the third frame, cutting UVa's deficit to three goals, 11-8.

Rotanz scored again, followed by a Jake Tripucka goal, giving Duke a commanding 13-8 lead with 7:05 left to play. UVa mounted a comeback with goals by Bocklet, LaPierre and Briggs, cutting the deficit down to two goals, 13-11. Duke was able to defend UVa's final offensive push when Blue Devil goalie Dan Wigrizer stuffed Rhamel Bratton at point blank range. Duke was able to clear the ball and run out the remaining seconds for the victory.

The No. 6 Duke Blue Devils (11-4) used a 7-1 second quarter run to eliminate the No. 10 Virginia Cavaliers (8-5) from the ACC Tournament, 19-10, inside Koskinen Stadium.

The contest started out well in UVa's favor. Colin Briggs scored 1:23 into the contest on a fast break giving UVa the quick 1-0 advantage. After Duke's Josh Offit scored unassisted at 11:30 in the first quarter, Rob Emery pushed UVa up a goal again, 2-1, with a score at 7:06.

David Lawson tied the game, 2-2, with an unassisted score with 5:06 remaining in the first quarter. UVa then jumped on top, 4-2, after two quick goals. Chris Bocklet increased his nation-best goal-scoring streak to 31 games with the score on a Nick O'Reilly pass at 3:04. Matt White capped the run with an extra-man goal on an Emery pass with 55 seconds remaining in the period, staking UVa to the 4-2 lead.

Starting with Justin Turri's score with three seconds left in the first quarter, Duke scored six straight goals to take a commanding 8-4 lead. Six different Blue Devils scored during the run.

Briggs broke up the streak with his second goal at the 7:29 mark, cutting UVa's deficit to three goals, 8-5. The Cavaliers did not get any closer the rest of the evening. Duke reeled off another 6-0 run that put the Blue Devils up 14-5 with 7:04 remaining in the third quarter.

Bocklet and Rhamel Bratton ended the Duke run with back-to-back goals, cutting the UVa deficit down to seven goals, 14-7, with 5:46 left in the third period. Duke then finished the game on a 5-3 run, securing the nine-goal win.

Game 14
Virginia 11, Penn 2
April 30 • Charlottesville, Va.

Steele Stanwick matched his career high with five assists to lead the No. 11 Virginia Cavaliers (9-5) to a Senior Day win over the No. 13 Penn Quakers (8-5), 11-2, inside Klöckner Stadium.

The game started as a defensive juggernaut before Chris Bocklet scored on Stanwick's first assist with 5:51 left in the first quarter. The goal extended Bocklet's goal scoring streak to a nation-best 32 games. Rob Emery and Garrett Ince each followed with goals, giving UVa the 3-0 lead.

Will Koshansky put Penn on the board with a goal off a Corey Winkoff pass, nine seconds into the second quarter, cutting into UVa's advantage, 3-1.

UVa scored the next seven goals to take a commanding 10-1 lead with 11:27 left in the game. Stanwick dished out three assists during the run, connecting with Emery, Bocklet and John Haldy. Matt White scored during the streak, as did Haldy for the second time and Mark Cockerton capped the run in the fourth quarter.

Winkoff scored on an extra-man possession for Penn, ending the Quakers' scoring drought at the 8:34 mark in the final quarter, cutting the UVa lead down to eight goals, 10-2. Colin Briggs found Nick O'Reilly with 5:54 left in the game for the final score of the contest, finalizing the 11-2 win.

Virginia topped Penn in shots (36-25), ground balls (42-22), faceoffs (23-14), while the Quakers had more saves (14-10).

Game 15
Virginia 13, Bucknell 12 - OT
May 15 • Charlottesville, Va.

Tewaaraton finalist Steele Stanwick found Matt White for the game-winning goal with 2:33 left in overtime to push the No. 7 seeded Virginia Cavaliers (10-5) over the unseeded Bucknell Bison (14-3), 13-12, inside Klöckner Stadium in the NCAA Tournament first round.

With the win, Starsia now owns 326 career victories, tying him with Jack Emmer (326) for most victories by a head coach while at a NCAA Division I school.

The game's final sequence started with Bucknell winning the faceoff in overtime and setting up the offense. Bucknell's Billy Eisenreich started to slip on his dodge near midfield, as that transpired UVa's Blake Riley checked the ball loose. Riley picked up the ground ball and the transition was on. Stanwick received the ball behind the cage and then roll dodged, immediately finding White. The sophomore wrapped around the cage to his right and scored between the legs of Bucknell's goalie Kyle Feeney for the win. It is UVa's third overtime win this season. Stanwick scored the winning goals against Stony Brook and North Carolina earlier this season.

Bucknell started the game on a 4-1 run in the first quarter. After Chris Bocklet scored the first of his five goals to start things off, the Bison rolled off four straight goals, capped by Nick Gantsoudes' score at 5:06 in the first stanza.

The Cavaliers took a 5-2 advantage in second quarter scoring, tying the game at halftime at 6-6. UVa received goals from Matt Kugler, Rob Emery and Colin Briggs, before Bocklet capped the half with back-to-back goals.

The Bison had the largest lead of the game after the intermission, scoring the first four goals and staking Bucknell to a 10-6 advantage. Charlie Streep scored three straight goals, followed by a Todd Heritage score, capping the run for Bucknell.

Virginia cut its deficit down to two goals, 10-8, after goals by Stanwick and White with 11:34 left in the fourth quarter. Heritage scored again in a melee for a ground ball in front of the crease, giving Bucknell an 11-8 lead with 8:04 left in the fourth period.

Bocklet scored back-to-back goals, bringing UVa within one goal, 11-10. Peter Burke extended the Bison advantage back two goals, 12-10, with his score with 4:00 left on the clock. Then it was all UVa. Stanwick scored unassisted and again on a Chris LaPierre pass to even the game at 12-12.

Virginia had an extra-man chance in the closing minutes, but Bucknell held strong, forcing overtime and the exciting sudden death victory for Virginia.

Game 16
Virginia 13, Cornell 9
May 21 • Hempstead, N.Y.

Behind seven points by Steele Stanwick, the No. 7 seeded Virginia Cavaliers (11-5) stormed past the No. 2 seeded Cornell Big Red (14-3) in the quarterfinal round of the NCAA Tournament, 13-9, in front of 13,447 fans inside Hofstra's James M. Stuart Stadium. The win gives Virginia head coach Dom Starsia 327 career victories, passing coaching legend Jack Emmer for the most head coaching wins at the Division I level.

Cornell jumped out quickly on the Cavaliers, establishing themselves with a 4-1 lead with 3:57 left in the opening quarter. Chris Bocklet was the only bright spot for UVa during the run by the Big Red, when the junior extended his nation best active goal-scoring streak to 34 games, tying the game at 1-1.

The Big Red kept trying to pound the ball on offense, but after a missed Cornell shot hit pipe UVa started a decisive run in the game. In transition Blake Riley found Chris LaPierre for a goal with 2:41 left in the first period. The goal jumpstarted a 9-0 UVa run that sent the Cavaliers into the intermission with 10-4 advantage. Stanwick collected five points (1 goal and 4 assists) in the second quarter, while Bocklet and Nick O'Reilly each scored two goals in the frame to lead UVa.

The Cavaliers held Cornell scoreless for 22:32 during the commanding Virginia run. Roy Lang scored for Cornell at the 11:25 mark in the third period, halting the UVa run and cutting the Big Red deficit to five goals, 10-5.

After a Stanwick goal at 8:43 made it 11-5 UVa, Cornell scored back-to-back goals by Steve Mock and Rob Pannell, cutting the Cavaliers' lead down to five goals, 11-6, as the third quarter ended.

Pannell and Mock each scored again in the fourth, but it wasn't enough as goals by Matt White and Stanwick bookended the Cornell duo's scores, giving the Cavaliers enough offense to stave off the Big Red. Four saves by Ghitelman in the fourth quarter, including a couple in the final minutes capped the four-goal win for UVa.

Game 17
Virginia 14, Denver 8
May 28 • Baltimore, Md.

The No. 7 seeded Virginia Cavaliers (12-5) rode hat tricks from Chris Bocklet, Mark Cockerton and Steele Stanwick en route to an NCAA semifinal round victory over the No. 6 seeded Denver Pioneers (15-3), 14-8, in front of 45,039 fans inside M&T Bank Stadium.

the opportunities we did create. Our guys are doing a great job."

Virginia opened the game on a 4-1 run, starting with Stanwick's goal at 11:55. Bocklet extended his nation's longest goal-scoring streak to 35 games nearly a minute later, giving UVa a 2-0 lead. After Denver's Andrew Lay put the Pioneers on the board at 9:10, UVa received goals from Nick O'Reilly and Stanwick, ending the run at 7:01 in the first quarter.

Denver cut its deficit to two, 4-2, via a Jeremy Noble goal at the 5:25 mark, but that would be the last goal the Pioneers would score over a 20:57 period as UVa tallied five straight goals and headed into the intermission with a 9-2 lead.

Five different Cavaliers scored during the run, including Rob Emery, Matt White, Bocklet, Matt Kugler and Cockerton. Bocklet's second goal of the game made him the 13th Cavalier in program history to amass 100 career goals.

DU's Mark Matthews halted the Virginia run to start the third quarter, cutting the UVa lead down to six goals, 9-3. The Cavaliers countered with another run, this time scoring four straight goals to take a 10-goal advantage, 13-3. Stanwick scored a goal and assisted Bocklet on another. Cockerton and John Haldy also scored in the run, which ended at the 8:45 mark in the third quarter.

Denver finished the game on a 5-1 run, but it wasn't enough as UVa picked up the triumph.

Virginia outshot Denver (32-26), picked up more ground balls (27-19) and won the faceoff battle (13-11). Ghitelman won the saves battle in goal for UVa (10-8).

Game 18
Virginia 9, Maryland 7
May 30 • Baltimore, Md.

Colin Briggs scored five goals and was named the Most Outstanding Player as the No. 7 seed Virginia Cavaliers (13-5) put their stamp on the program's fifth NCAA National Championship with a 9-7 triumph over the unseeded Maryland Terrapins (13-5), in front of 35,661 fans inside M&T Bank Stadium.

Virginia became the lowest seed (No. 7) and first five-loss team to win a men's lacrosse national championship. The ACC now has 12 all-time NCAA titles, the most of any conference. Virginia now has won NCAA titles in 1972, 1999, 2003, 2006 and 2011.

The game started off at a stand still as Maryland held a 1-0 lead after one quarter of play on a Grant Catalino score. It was the lowest combined goal total all-time in a NCAA Championship game. It was the first time a team had been shutout in the first period of the National Championship game since 2003 when UVa shutout Johns Hopkins (4-0).

UVa snapped its scoreless drought of 17:13 when Briggs found the back of the net only 2:13 into the second quarter. Briggs' goal jumpstarted a 4-2 Cavalier run, sending the Cavaliers into the intermission with the two goal lead, 5-3. Briggs tallied the hat trick in the period, while Nick O'Reilly and Matt White also tallied goals in the period. Mark Cockerton picked up two assists, as did O'Reilly.

Briggs scored his fourth goal of the game, starting the third quarter scoring with 12:18 left in the period. Catalino ended a 15:46 scoring drought with a score at the 6:58 mark in the third quarter, cutting the Maryland deficit to two goals, 6-4.

Catalino's goal started a 3-0 run for Maryland, tying the game at 6-6. Ryan Young tied the game on a Catalino pass at 11:43 left in the game. Young's goal was the last of significance for the Terrapins.

White scored back-to-back goals and Briggs capped his afternoon with his fifth goal of the game, taking a commanding 9-6 lead with 1:50 left in the game. Maryland's Jake Bernhardt capped the game's scoring with a goal with 16 seconds left, but it wasn't enough for the Terrapins.

Maryland won the shots battle (32-26), the ground ball battle (22-21), the faceoff battle (12-7) and UVa topped the Terrapins in saves (9-8).

ADMINISTRATION

TERESA A. SULLIVAN University President

Teresa A. Sullivan is the eighth president of the University. Before coming to U.Va., she was the Provost and Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs at the University of Michigan. She was also Professor of Sociology in the College of Literature, Science, and the Arts.

Prior to her work at the University of Michigan, Ms. Sullivan was Executive Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs for the University of Texas System, a position she held from 2002 until May 2006. In that role, she was the chief academic officer for the nine academic campuses within the University of Texas System. Ms. Sullivan first joined the University of Texas at Austin in 1975 as an instructor and then assistant professor in the Department of Sociology. From 1977-81, she was a faculty member at the University of Chicago. Ms. Sullivan returned to Texas in 1981 as a faculty member in Sociology. In 1986 she was named to the Law School faculty as well. Ms. Sullivan also held several administrative positions at Texas including: Vice President and Graduate Dean (1995-2002), Vice Provost (1994-95), Chair of the Department of Sociology (1990-92), and Director of Women's Studies (1985-87).

Ms. Sullivan's research focuses on labor force demography, with emphasis on economic marginality and consumer debt. The author or co-author of six books and more than 50 scholarly articles, her most recent work explores the question of who files for bankruptcy and why.

Ms. Sullivan is a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science. She serves as chair of the National Research Council Panel on Measuring Higher Education Productivity, and as a member of the following committees and councils: National Research Council Committee on Research Universities; Council of Presidents for the Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges; National Security Higher Education Council; and the Northern Virginia Technology Council, the trade association of the technology industry in Northern Virginia. She serves as the AAU representative on the ACE Board of Directors, and as a member of the Higher Education Advisory Committee that provides guidance for implementation of the Virginia Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2011.

A graduate of James Madison College at Michigan State University, Ms. Sullivan received her doctoral degree in sociology from the University of Chicago.

CRAIG LITTLEPAGE Director of Athletics

Committed to preserving and building on UVa's longstanding tradition of academic and athletic excellence,

Craig Littlepage is in his 11th year as Virginia's Athletics Director. Littlepage's appointment as athletics director was announced in August of 2001.

Littlepage served as Virginia's interim athletics director from June 1, 2001, until his appointment to the position. He had also served as the University's interim athletics director from December of 1994 until July of 1995.

The first African-American athletics director in Atlantic Coast Conference history, Littlepage was named the Black Coaches Association's "Athletics Administrator of the Year" in 2003 and 2006. He was also listed on Sports Illustrated's list of the 101 most influential minorities in sports in 2003 and 2004. In March 2005, Littlepage was named one of Black Enterprise magazine's "Most Powerful African-Americans in Sports."

Littlepage has been a member of UVa's athletics administration since 1990 when he was appointed an assistant athletics director, a position he held from 1990-1991. He then spent four years as the associate director of athletics for programs and six years (1995-2001) as senior associate director of athletics, managing all aspects of the athletics department's day-to-day operations.

Littlepage leads a comprehensive 25-sport athletics program that routinely competes for championships and national rankings in many sports. At the same time, Cavalier student-athletes who exhaust their eligibility at Virginia graduate at a rate comparable to the student body as a whole. Annually, UVa student-athletes rank among the top Division I-A public universities in the country in graduation rates.

Nine years ago, Littlepage outlined a number of ambitious 10-year goals for the department to achieve by 2012: graduate 100 percent of its student-athletes; win 12 national championships and 70 conference titles; fully endow all scholarships and provide the operational support required to meet all other stated goals; build and maintain high-quality facilities; annually recruit the best student-athletes in the country (based on how coaches rate their top prospects); and fully comply with Title IX.

Such goals reflect Littlepage's vision of "uncompromised excellence in intercollegiate athletics" as well as the department's overall mission to "enhance and support the intellectual purpose of the University and its exemplary academic standards and traditions."

The 2010-11 athletics year proved to be another very successful one as 21 of Virginia's 25 athletics programs advanced to postseason competition. UVa finished seventh in the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup standings, the second highest finish in school history and the third consecutive year the Cavaliers finished in the Top 10.

The men's lacrosse team won the NCAA Championship, the men's tennis team won its fourth consecutive ITA National Team Indoor Championship and UVa won two individual NCAA championships. Other top finishes in NCAA post-season competition by UVa athletics teams in 2010-11 included program-best finishes of second by the men's tennis team, a tie for third by the baseball team, fourth by the women's golf team and eighth by the men's swimming and diving team. The field hockey team reached the NCAA Tournament's semifinals for the second consecutive year and the women's rowing team finished sixth at the NCAA Championships. The baseball team earned the No. 1 national seed in the NCAA Baseball Championship and participated in the College World Series for the second time in three years.

Virginia has won six team NCAA Championships and 12 individual NCAA Championships in the last nine years. The Cavaliers have also won 47 ACC Championships in that time frame, more than any other conference school. UVa won five ACC championships in 2010-11, tying for the most of any league member. It's the fourth-consecutive athletics season UVa led the ACC in league titles.

Great progress has also been made in the area of athletics facility improvements during Littlepage's watch, including the addition of John Paul Jones Arena. The basketball arena/special events center opened in the summer of 2006 to rave reviews.

Littlepage has held many leadership roles within the NCAA, ACC, the University-at-large and professional organizations. He is currently a member of the John McLendon Foundation Steering Committee and served on the Executive Committee of the National Association of Collegiate Athletics Directors (NACDA) from 2006-10.

In February 2002, he was appointed to the 10-member Division I Men's Basketball Committee by the NCAA Championship/Competition Cabinet and served a five-year term which was completed Aug. 31, 2007. In 2005-06, Littlepage served as the chair of the Men's Division I Basketball Committee and administered its selection process.

Littlepage previously was a member of the NCAA Division I Infractions Committee and the NCAA Academics, Eligibility and Compliance Cabinet, serving on the Recruiting and Student-Athlete Reinstatement Subcommittees. He chaired the Reinstatement Subcommittee in 1999-2000. He also served the NCAA on committees that studied sports wagering, postgame crowd control, basketball issues, and the College Basketball Partnership. He has participated as a presenter and mentor to the NCAA's Ethnic Minority Male Institute.

Littlepage is currently the chairman of the ACC Women's Basketball Committee and the ACC Committee on Awards. He previously chaired the ACC Student-Athlete Welfare Committee, the ACC Men's and Women's Swimming/Diving Committees, and the ACC Men's Soccer Committee.

He is a member of the Associate Faculty for the University's Center for Alcohol and Substance Education, and participates in various alcohol and drug prevention/education conferences. Littlepage also has been active in the local community, having served on the Board of Directors for the Charlottesville Ronald McDonald House and serving as a Trustee with the Mount Zion Baptist Church.

Before beginning his career in athletics administration, Littlepage served two stints as an assistant coach with the Cavalier men's basketball program, from 1976 to 1982 and from 1988 to 1990.

Littlepage held head coaching positions at Pennsylvania (1982-85) and at Rutgers (1985-88) before returning to Virginia. While he was at Penn, the Quakers won the Ivy League championship and participated in the 1985 NCAA Tournament. Littlepage was an assistant basketball coach at Villanova for two years and at Yale for one year before joining the UVa basketball program as an assistant coach in 1976.

The LaMott, Pa., native earned his bachelor's degree in economics from the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania in 1973. He was a member of three Ivy League basketball championship teams at Penn and was instrumental in the Quakers' drive to three consecutive NCAA Eastern Regional playoff appearances. Littlepage and his wife Margaret have three children, two daughters and a son.

SENIOR STAFF

JON OLIVER Executive Associate Athletics Director

Jon Oliver is in his 11th year at Virginia. His primary responsibility is oversight of the day-to-day operations of the athletics department.

Oliver is the administrative liaison for football and men's basketball and he has senior staff administrative oversight responsibilities for Academic Affairs, Equipment Room Operations, Human Resources, Facilities and Game Operations, Lifeskills, Marketing and Promotions, Sports Medicine, Sports Nutrition, Sports Psychology, Strength and Conditioning and Video Services. Oliver also serves as the Department's representative on all major facility projects.

Before coming to UVa, Oliver spent the previous six years involved in various aspects of athletic administration at Washington State University. Oliver ended his tenure at WSU as the associate athletics director for external affairs and prior to that served as the associate athletics director for finance and facilities development, the assistant athletics director for business and compliance and the director of compliance.

Oliver earned a bachelor's degree in communications from Boise State in 1994 and his law degree from the Idaho School of Law in 1997.

Oliver is a former member of the University of Idaho Law School Advisory Board and served on the NCAA's Minority Opportunities and Interests Committee. He is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and the Black Coaches & Administrators (BCA).

JANE MILLER Senior Associate Athletics Director for Programs

A 28-year veteran of the Virginia athletics department, Jane Miller has served as the senior associate director of athletics for programs since 2001. Previously, Miller was the associate athletics director for programs/senior women's administrator.

Miller serves on the University Calendar Committee, Admissions Committee and Judicial Review Board. She is a member and Vice Chair of the NCAA Division I Championships/Sports Management Cabinet, the Chair of the ACC Women's Lacrosse and is a member of the ACC Women's Basketball Committee and Men's Lacrosse Committee.

Head coach of the UVa women's lacrosse team for 12 seasons, Miller resigned her coaching duties in 1995 for a full-time administrative role. She retired as the winningest coach in UVa women's lacrosse history, compiling a record of 145-44, including two national championships and six Final Four appearances. She was elected to the Virginia chapter of the Lacrosse Hall of Fame in 1996, the New England chapter of the Lacrosse Hall of Fame in 2000 and the U.S. Lacrosse National Hall of Fame and Oliver Ames High School Hall of Fame in 2003.

A native of Easton, Mass., Miller graduated from Northeastern University in 1973 and was elected to her alma mater's Hall of Fame in 1983. She was a three-sport standout at Northeastern in basketball, field hockey and lacrosse.

Miller is a member and serves on the Board of Directors for the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletic Administrators and is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics. In May 1999, she received the Woman of Achievement Award from the UVa Women's Faculty and Professional Association and in 2009 she received the President's Award for Exemplary Service to the ACC.

DIRK KATSTRA Executive Director of the Virginia Athletics Foundation/ Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs

Dirk Katstra is in his 17th year as executive director of the Virginia Athletics Foundation and his ninth year as associate athletics director for external affairs with the athletics department.

In June 2004, Katstra was named Fundraiser of the Year by the National Association of Athletic Development Directors (NAADD) in recognition of his outstanding leadership and success in fundraising on behalf of Virginia athletics.

The annual campaign supports student athletes in all 25 sports programs in the form of scholarships, summer school, academic affairs and operational costs. The foundation is also responsible for all fund raising efforts for endowments for scholarships and operating costs. In addition, the foundation is responsible for supporting all fund raising efforts in the area of capital projects, including the new track and field facility, the recent $4 million expansion to Davenport Field and the John Paul Jones Arena, UVa's $129 million basketball arena and special events center, which opened in July 2006.

As associate director for external affairs, Katstra oversees the long-range planning and daily operations for media relations, sports publications, and the ticket office. From 1992 to 1996, Katstra served as director of annual giving for the Foundation.

A native of Stilwell, Kan., Katstra is a 1991 graduate of UVa with a degree in sport management. A member of the Cavalier basketball team from 1987 to 1991, Katstra played on three NCAA Tournament teams and was a senior captain on the 1990-91 squad.

Before joining the Virginia Athletics Foundation staff in 1992, Katstra served an internship with the athletics department's promotions and marketing office, and had administrative responsibilities with the men's basketball program.

Katstra is married to the former Michelle Massie of Charlottesville. The couple has two sons, Austin and Ryan, and daughter, Ryleigh. Katstra's father, the late Richard Katstra, lettered as a member of the UVa basketball team in 1963 and 1964.

KEITH VANDERBEEK Associate Athletics Director for Business Operations

Keith VanDerbeek is in his 27th year as an associate athletics director. The scope of his duties encompasses planning, organizing, directing and evaluating the business operations of all UVa athletics department activities.

His responsibilities include the supervision of the business operations staff and the manager of information systems, acting as financial adviser to the athletics director, and coordinating the implementation and management of the department's operating budget. He serves as the department's liaison to the University's audit, budget, financial administration, and procurement offices.

A native of Spring Valley, N.Y., VanDerbeek received a B.S. degree in economics and business from Lafayette College in Easton, Pa., in 1972 and an M.S. degree in accounting from UVa in 1977.

From 1972 to 1975, he served as credit analyst and auditor for the Chemical Bank of New York, investigating market and industry studies and compiling portfolio analyses. During his enrollment in graduate school at UVa, he taught introductory and cost accounting classes at the McIntire School of Commerce. In 1977, he was recruited as budget officer for the College of Arts and Sciences at UVa before becoming Virginia's athletics business manager in the fall of 1978.

He is a member of the National Association of College and University Business Officers, the College Athletic Business Management Association, and the National Association of Accountants.

VanDerbeek has served on numerous University-wide committees, including: Air Travel Service Committee, Capital Project Planning Committee, Centralized Accounts Payable Project, Committee on Safety and Security, Committee on Women's Concerns, Computer Resource Allocation Committee, Dining Services RFP Selection Committee, Outstanding Awards Committee, Integrated Systems Project Advisory Committee, Administration Technology Council, Human Resources Management Advisory Group and the University's Strategic Task Force for Athletics.

He and his wife, Pam, have two children: Kate and Peter.

VALERIE RICHARDSON Associate Athletics Director for Sports Programs

Valerie Richardson is in her fourth year as associate director of athletics for sports programs. Her primary area of responsibility is the supervision of multiple sports programs and their head coaches. She participates on various ACC, UVa and departmental committees and has responsibilities in long-range planning and scheduling, policy and procedure development and implementation, and budgeting. Richardson has served as both chair of the NCAA Honors Committee and as a member of the NCAA Minority Opportunities and Interests Committee.

She came to UVa from St. John's University in New York, where she was the associate athletics director for external affairs directing all major fundraising events for the office of athletics development while assisting with annual giving efforts for several programs.

Prior to working at St. John's, Richardson was the associate athletics director/senior woman administrator at Columbia University where she served as a member of the athletics department's executive management team and supervised eight athletics programs. She worked in a similar capacity at the University of California, Santa Barbara, where she supervised 10 sports programs, in addition to the compliance staff, in her role as Associate A.D./SWA.

Richardson spent six years at the West Coast Conference prior to assuming the UCSB position, serving first as Director of Championships and Membership Services before being promoted to Assistant Commissioner/SWA.

A California native, she graduated from Stanford University in 1995 with a degree in psychology. She worked as a media relations assistant at Washington State, and spent one year each as a championships intern with the NCAA and Director of Marketing for MAAC Properties. She is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics and the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletics Administrators.
