2014 SEASON NOTES

DEPTH THROUGHOUT ROSTER

This is one of Brian O'Connor's deepest teams in his 11 seasons as Virginia's head coach. Twenty-two letterwinners, including eight position starters, return to form one of the most experienced and versatile rosters in the nation.

Starting pitchers Brandon Waddell and Nick Howard also return after comprising two-thirds of the UVa weekend rotation last year. Eight members of a stout bullpen are back in the mix as well.

Virginia also welcomes in a freshman class of nine players ranked as the 14th-best nationally by Baseball America.

OUTFIELD RETURNS IN TACT

Virginia returns its four starting outfielders from 2013 – Brandon Downes, Derek Fisher, Joe McCarthy and Mike Papi. All four started at least 47 games last season. Downes, Fisher and Papi all are preseason All-Americans in 2014.

Papi was a First-Team All-American last year after winning the ACC batting crown with a .381 average.

McCarthy (.336 BA, 4 HR, 51 RBI) was the 2013 ACC Freshman of the Year and earned Freshman All-America honors last year. He and Papi each are options at first base in place of Jared King, who graduated last year.

Downes recorded team highs in hits (80), doubles (20), home runs (10) and RBI (59) while batting cleanup and patrolling center field.

Fisher batted .293 while swatting seven homers and driving in 48 runs last year.

Sophomore Robert Bennie played in 13 games in his first year and joins freshman Tyler Allen and junior D.J. Hill as further outfield options.

INFIELD PIECES BACK. BUT WHERE DO THEY FIT?

Virginia returns the left side of its infield with shortstop Branden Cogswell and third basemen Nick Howard and Kenny Towns, but must replace the right side of first baseman Jared King and second baseman Reed Gragnani.

Cogswell could see time at shortstop or second base, while Howard and Towns also could play at first base. John La Prise saw limited action as a freshman, but is coming off a terrific summer in which he won the batting title and hit .407 in the Northwoods Summer League.

A pair of talented freshmen also are aiming to work their way into the lineup – Daniel Pinero at shortstop and Tony Butler at second or third. Junior Thomas Woodruff also gives the Cavaliers depth across the infield.

OPTIONS BEHIND PLATE

Virginia enters the season with three strong catchers at its disposal. Two-year starter Nate Irving returns with 105 career starts under his belt. Robbie Coman played in nine games during an injury-plagued freshman year but is expected to be a big contributor in 2014.

GRINDING OUT AT BATS

Virginia boasted one of the nation's top offenses last year, with much of that coming because of its patient approach at the plate.

Three Cavaliers ranked among the top 50 nationally in on base percentage last year – Mike Papi (second, .517), Joe McCarthy (37th (.469) and Branden Cogswell (46th, .464).

NO FREE GOS

Virginia prides itself on not giving easy passes to potential baserunners, and that was never more evident than in 2013.

UVa pitchers ranked sixth nationally in fewest walks per nine innings (2.36) and were second to Cal State Fullerton in strikeout-to-walk ratio (3.38).

The Cavaliers also hit the fourth-fewest batters of any team in the country, plunking just 29 batters in 62 games.

VETERANS COMPRISE BULK OF PITCHING STAFF

Virginia returns 11 pitchers from its 2013 roster, including eight who pitched at least 30 innings in the 2012 or 2013 seasons.

UVa brings back a pair of weekend starters, Brandon Waddell and Nick Howard. Primarily UVa's Friday starter in 2013, Waddell went 6-3 with a 3.96 ERA in 88 2/3 innings. While balancing his time at third base, Howard also was the Cavaliers' main Sunday starter and went 6-4 with a 3.38 ERA in 61 1/3 innings.

Six key members of the bullpen also are back. Sophomore Josh Sborz worked 50 innings last year with a 1.98 ERA as a reliever and starter, and could see time in either role again this year.

A trio of seniors, Whit Mayberry, Austin Young and Artie Lewicki, give UVa valuable experience and depth. Mayberry (4-0, 2.45, 51 1/3 IP) and Young (5-0, 2.25, 32 IP) were two of the Cavaliers' primary relievers in 2013. Lewicki was limited to two games in 2013 after rehabbing from offseason elbow surgery but was UVa's top pitcher at the end of 2012 and is expected to play a large role this year.

Left-handers Nathan Kirby and David Rosenberger also are back for their sophomore seasons. Kirby (4-1, 6.06, 32 2/3 IP) is expected to vie for a rotation slot, while Rosenberger (3-0, 1.38, 32 2/3 IP) will be a mainstay out of the bullpen.

Kevin Doherty, Cameron Tekker and Brett Lisle all showed improvement during the fall season and also could contribute innings.

FRESHMAN PITCHERS WILL CHALLENGE FOR INNINGS

A talented crop of freshman pitchers give Virginia a wealth of options and depth on the mound. Virginia's reigning state player of the year, Connor Jones, could be an immediate factor in a starting or relief role, as could fellow right-hander Jack Roberts.

Alec Bettinger and Ben Carraway each are right-handed options for the Cavaliers, while Adam Bleday provides UVa with another left-handed possibility.

PRESEASON NO. 1

For the first time in program history, Virginia was ranked No. 1 in the preseason by Baseball America and Perfect Game. UVa's previous best preseason ranking was No. 2 prior to the 2010 season.

UVa earned No. 1 rankings during the 2010 and 2011 seasons. Five Cavaliers earned preseason All-America honors from at least one media outlet – Cogswell, Downes, Fisher, Howard and Papi.

O'CONNOR THIRD AMONG ACTIVE COACHES IN WIN PCT., 13TH ALL-TIME

Virginia head coach Brian O'Connor is 411-149-2 (.734) in nine seasons at the helm of the Cavaliers. O'Connor's 73.4 percent winning percentage ranks third among active Division I head coaches behind only North Carolina's Mike Fox (.747), Florida State's Mike Martin (.743).

O'Connor also ranks 13th all-time in career winning percentage among all coaches with at least 10 years of head coaching experience.

MOST WINS SINCE 2009

With 245 victories since the start of the 2009 season, Virginia owns the most wins of any team in the nation in that span.

The Cavaliers have won 50 games or more three times in the last four seasons.

RECORD DEMAND AND SEASON TICKET SALES

Virginia has sold a record number of season tickets as it enters the 2014 campaign, continuing the trend of Cavalier fans making Davenport Field a primary spring destination.

More than 110,000 fans have attended Virginia games each of the past four seasons as UVa has ranked among the top 20 programs nationally in attendance each of the last three years.

UVa ranked 11th nationally in total attendance (124,374) and 16th in average attendance (3,189) last year.

Davenport Field will seat 5,025 per game this year, slightly up this year after the addition of The Clubhouse, a reserved club in left-center field. The entire reserved section in the grandstand is sold out again this year.

Coming off another postseason appearance as head coach of the Virginia baseball program, four-time ACC Coach of the Year and two-time national coach of the year Brian O'Connor continues to lead Virginia to unparalleled levels of success. Now in his 11th season as head coach of the Cavaliers, O'Connor has built his program into a powerhouse and turned Virginia Baseball into a national brand.

Virginia advanced to its first College World Series in 2009, setting off a remarkable stretch as UVa has recorded 245 wins in the last five years - the most victories of any Division I program during that time.

In this period UVa has made two trips to the College World Series and won four NCAA Regional championships, two ACC tournament titles and two ACC Coastal Division crowns. The Cavaliers are one of three teams nationally to play host to NCAA Regionals each of the last four years, racking up three 50-win seasons and spending two stints atop the national polls since 2010.

Record crowds have flocked to UVa's Davenport Field, prompting several stadium expansions to push the stadium seating capacity to 5,000 in order to meet the rapidly increasing demand. Virginia has ranked among the top 20 nationally in attendance in each of the last four seasons, with more than 110,000 fans crossing through the Davenport Field turnstiles each year.

O'Connor enters the 2014 season with a career record of 461-161-2 and a 188-99-1 (.655) record in ACC play after guiding Virginia to its 10th-consecutive NCAA regional appearance in 2012. He boasts the third-highest career winning percentage (.740) among active Division I head coaches and ranks 13th in career winning percentage all-time among all Division I head coaches with at least 10 years of experience.

Virginia is one of just eight programs in the nation to earn a berth in the NCAA tournament in each of the last 10 seasons. This success has led to record crowds, excitement and national exposure for Virginia baseball.

O'Connor boasts the third-highest winning percentage of current head coaches (74.0 percent). The 2009 NCBWA and CollegeBasebal-lInsider.com National Coach of the Year, O'Connor is the second fastest ACC coach to reach 400 career wins. His UVa teams have racked up eight 40-win seasons (39 wins in the other two years) and played host to seven NCAA regionals and three NCAA super regionals.

In addition to earning National Coach of the Year honors in 2009, O'Connor also was named the 2006 College Baseball Foundation Coach of the Year. He is a two-time recipient of ABCA Atlantic Region Coach of the Year laurels (2004, 2009) and four-time ACC Coach of the Year honoree (2004, 2010, 2011, 2013).

Fifty-one of O'Connor's Virginia players have been selected in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft, including a school-record nine in 2010 and eight more in 2011. Lefthanded pitcher Danny Hultzen was taken second overall in the 2011 MLB Draft by the Seattle Mariners, marking UVa's highest draft pick ever.

Nine former Cavaliers have reached the major leagues after playing for O'Connor, highlighted by Washington Nationals' all-star and Gold Glove third baseman Ryan Zimmerman. Mark Reynolds (Cleveland), Joe Koshansky (Colorado), Brandon Guyer (Tampa Bay), Michael Schwimer (Toronto), Mike Ballard (Baltimore), Sean Doolittle (Oakland), David Adams (Cleveland) and Phil Gosselin (Atlanta) also have made it to baseball's highest level after playing under O'Connor while at UVa.

In 2005 Zimmerman went on to make one of the quickest jumps ever to the major leagues - two months - and in 2009 became the first former Thompson notched a silver medal with Team USA at the 2007 Pan American Games. Kline was a member of the 2011 Collegiate National Team.

Virginia also has succeeded in the classroom. In 2011 the UVa baseball program earned a public recognition award from the NCAA for its multi-year Academic Progress Rate scores. The APR provides a clear picture of the academic culture in each sport. Hultzen was a Capital One
First-Team Academic All-American in 2011, while Tyler Wilson was the winner of the esteemed Lowe's Senior CLASS Award for Baseball.

O'Connor stresses the importance of pitching, defense and fundamentals. UVa teams have thrived in the pitching game, with the Cavaliers posting the lowest ERA in the country since 2005 (3.14). Virginia has ranked in the top 20 in the country in ERA in eight of O'Connor's 10 seasons, including the 2011 season when Virginia posted a 2.24 team ERA, which was the lowest in the nation. UVa also boasted No. 3 national ERA rankings in 2005, 2006, 2007 and 2009.

Defensively, the Cavaliers also have shined under O'Connor. UVa owns the highest fielding percentage in the ACC since his arrival in 2004 (.972). Seven of the 10 teams have ranked among the nation's top 40 in fielding percentage. The 2010 and 2011 teams each set program records in fielding percentage, with a .977 (2010) and .978 (2011) marks. Both ranked seventh nationally.

Virginia's success has spilled over into the community as attendance records have been shattered while the program experiences an unparalleled wave of enthusiasm. While attendance steadily improved during O'Connor's first six years, it has skyrocketed the past three seasons. Over 110,000 fans filed came to Davenport Field in each of the last three seasons as UVa ranked among the nation's top 20 in attendance each year. Virginia has added bleacher seats to Davenport Field on four separate occasions since 2010.

UVa has ranked among the top 40 in the nation in total home attendance and average home attendance in all 10 years of O'Connor's tenure. Virginia finished a multi-million dollar stadium renovation in the spring of 2010, pushing Davenport Field among the elite in college baseball facilities.

The Cavaliers also have become a fixture in the national polls, highlighted by UVa's first-ever No. 1 ranking in 2010. Virginia was ranked UVa led the ACC in batting (.314) and ranked second nationally in runs (489) and third in scoring (7.9). Mike Papi was named a First-Team All-American while becoming UVa's first ACC batting champion since 1981. Kyle Crockett was tabbed a Third-Team All-American and finished his career with the second-lowest ERA in UVa history (1.98). Outfielder Joe McCarthy posted the highest batting average for a UVa freshman in 29 years and was tabbed the ACC Freshman of the Year and a Freshman All-American; he also was one of a league-high six Cavaliers on the All-ACC Team.

UVa played host to its sixth regional in nine years in 2012 while going 39-19-1 and earning a second-place finish in the ACC Coastal Division. Branden Kline, Justin Thompson and Keith Werman each were named to the All-ACC team, while Derek Fisher was a unanimous selection as a freshman All-American. UVa sold a record number of season tickets prior to the season.

Virginia had its most prolific season in 2011, setting a program record with 56 victories, earning the No. 1 national seed in the NCAA Tournament and advancing to its second College World Series while winning ACC Tournament and Coastal Division championships. UVa went 56-12 and won its third straight NCAA regional title before taking the super regional against UC Irvine after a dramatic ninth-inning rally in Game 3. The Cavaliers then posted two wins at the CWS before eventual national champion South Carolina eliminated UVa in a 13-inning contest.

While UVa's pitching staff ranked first nationally in ERA, the Cavaliers also set a school record with a .978 fielding percentage and ranked among the top 20 nationally in batting. Seven Cavaliers were named All-ACC, with four claiming All-America honors -Hultzen, Kline, John Hicks and Will Roberts. The fan base continued to rally around the team as UVa averaged a program-best 3,298 fans per game (125,355 total).

In 2010, the Cavaliers posted a 51-14 record, setting a then-school record for wins in a season as well as ACC wins in a year (23). Record crowds packed Davenport Field, leading to seating expansions on three separate occasions. Virginia averaged 3,148 fans per game, shattering the previous record by nearly 1,400 fans per game.

Virginia also earned its first-ever No. 1 national ranking in 2010 and held that distinction for 12 weeks during the season. The Cavaliers were a national seed in the NCAA tournament for the first time, with a No. 5 seed. UVa led the conference in batting (.331) for the second straight year and set school records in runs (525), doubles (160), triples (32) and total bases (1166). Five players earned first-team All-ACC honors, with Hultzen and Parker each gleaning All-America laurels.

After a strong regular season, Virginia caught fire in the postseason, winning the ACC Baseball Championship with victories over Clemson, North Carolina, Duke and Florida State in consecutive days. UVa then traveled to the NCAA Irvine Regional and impressively topped San Diego State and soon-to-be MLB No. 1 draft pick Stephen Strasburg before shutting down top-ranked UC Irvine twice on its home field to win the regional crown. The next week, the Cavaliers rebounded from an opening-game loss to Ole Miss to win the final two contests of the NCAA Oxford Super Regional in front of hostile crowds to take the super regional title and earn a berth in the College World Series at Rosenblatt Stadium.

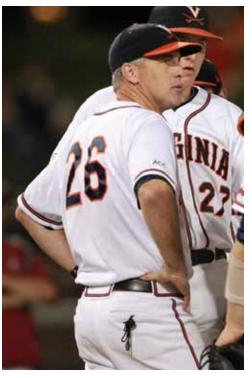

While UVa advanced to the College World Series for the first time in 2009, the process of reaching Omaha started six years prior. O'Connor was named the head baseball coach at Virginia on July 8, 2003, and he and his staff wasted no time in propelling the program to new heights.

In O'Connor's first season as head coach, the Cavaliers recorded a 44-15 overall record, 18-6 mark in the ACC and second-place ACC finish. The 18 wins were the most ever by a Cavalier team in league play at the time, and for the first time in school history, Virginia played host to an NCAA regional. Virginia swept five three-game series over conference foes, including a three-game sweep over Georgia Tech in Atlanta for the first time in school history. The Cavaliers also swept Clemson in three games for the first time since 1972.

PRIOR TO VIRGINIA

O'Connor brought a wealth of baseball experience to Charlottesville when he arrived. He came to Virginia after spending nine seasons at Notre Dame (1995-2003) under current LSU coach Paul Mainieri, for whom he served as an assistant coach from 1995-2001 before earning a promotion to associate head coach in 2001. O'Connor was named the 2001 National Assistant Coach of the Year by the American Baseball Coaches Association and Baseball America and was AFLAC National Assistant Coach of the Year in 2003.

While at Notre Dame, O'Connor worked with the Fighting Irish pitchers and served as the program's recruiting coordinator. As Notre Dame's recruiting coordinator, he led the effort that landed a nine-member group ranked as the No. 1 recruiting class in the country in 2001, as well as the sixth-ranked recruiting class in 2003 according to Baseball America.

During O'Connor's nine years at Notre Dame, the Irish compiled an overall record of 399-160-1 (.713), won six conference championships and made six trips to the NCAA Tournament. His last three Notre Dame teams were among the most successful in the school's history. The Irish compiled an overall record of 45-18 in 2003, won the Big East Conference Championship and advanced to the NCAA tournament. In 2002, Notre Dame had an overall record of 50-18, won the Big East Championship and advanced to the College World Series. The 2001 Irish team was 49-13-1, ranked No. 1 in the nation at midseason and played in the NCAA tournament.

O'Connor, who pitched on Creighton's 1991 College World Series team, tutored 17 eventual professional baseball pitchers, including 13 Major League Draft selections, at Notre Dame. He has a proven track record of developing pitchers into top-level prospects, including a pair of first-round selections - Brad Lidge in 1998 and Aaron Heilman in 2001 - who weren't drafted in the first 40 rounds coming out of high school (Lidge was a 42nd-round pick, Heilman a 55th-rounder).

PERSONAL

A native of Council Bluffs, Iowa, O'Connor is a 1993 graduate of Creighton University. As a pitcher on the Creighton baseball team under then-CU head coach and former Chicago Cubs general manager Jim Hendry, O'Connor posted a career record of 20-13 with seven saves and a 3.78 ERA. After graduating with a bachelor's degree in marketing, O'Connor was selected in the 29th round of the Major League Baseball draft by the Philadelphia Phillies. He notched a 4-2 record with a 4.03 ERA for Martinsville (Va.) of the Appalachian Class-A League in 1993 before accepting a position as pitching coach at Creighton.

O'Connor is married to the former Cindy Petratis. The couple has three children - two daughters, Ellie and Maggie, and a son, Dillon.

In his 11th season at Virginia and eighth as associate head coach, Kevin McMullan serves as Virginia's recruiting coordinator and hitting coach and works defensively with the Cavaliers' infielders and catchers. He is known as one of the top recruiters and developers of players in the country.

In a November 2012 poll of 70 Division I head coaches by Baseball America, McMullan was named the top assistant coach in college baseball.

The 2009 National Assistant Coach of the Year, McMullan has helped guide Virginia to 461 wins in his 10 seasons, an average of just over 46 wins per season. Virginia is one of just eight programs to reach each of the last 10 NCAA tournaments.

Virginia advanced to its first College World Series in 2009, setting off a remarkable stretch as UVa has recorded 245 wins in the last five years - the most victories of any Division I program during that time.

In this period UVa has made two trips to the College World Series and won four NCAA Regional championships, two ACC tournament titles and two ACC Coastal Division crowns. The Cavaliers are one of three teams nationally to play host to NCAA Regionals each of the last four years, racking up three 50-win seasons and spent two stints atop the national polls since 2010.

Virginia has led the ACC and is tied for sixth-best nationally in batting over the last five years combined. The Cavaliers own a .314 team batting average during that span and led the conference in batting in 2009, 2010 and 2013.

Defensively, the Cavaliers also have shined under McMullan, and UVa owns the highest fielding percentage in the ACC since his arrival in 2004 (.972). Seven of the 10 teams have ranked among the nation's top 40 in fielding percentage. The 2010 and 2011 teams each set program records in fielding percentage, with a .977 (2010) and .978 (2011) marks. Both ranked seventh nationally.

In 19 years as a college coach, McMullan has had over 70 players signed by professional organizations. Twenty-seven of his Virginia position players have been selected in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft, including Ryan Zimmerman (Washington Nationals), Mark Reynolds (Baltimore Orioles), Joe Koshansky (Colorado Rockies), Brandon Guyer (Tampa Bay Rays), Sean Doolittle (Oakland Athletics), David Adams (New York Yankees) and Phil Gosselin (Atlanta Braves), all of whom have reached the big leagues.

Zimmerman took just two months to jump to the major leagues and was selected as a National League All-Star in 2009, becoming the first former Cavalier to appear in the MLB All-Star Game. He also earned a Gold Glove Award in 2009 and was a Silver Slugger Award winner in 2009 and 2010. Reynolds and Koshansky each made their big league debuts in 2007, while Guyer earned his first call-up in May 2011, swatting a home run in his first at bat. Doolittle made his MLB debut in 2012 with Oakland. Adams and Gosselin each earned their big-league debuts during the 2013 season. McMullan also was vital in development of the Washington Nationals' Chad Tracy (1B-3B) while coaching him at East Carolina.

The 2004 team had a 44-15 overall record and 18-6 mark in the ACC. McMullan guided Joe Koshansky to the 2004 ACC Player of the Year award, a program first. Koshansky set the school record for most RBI in a single season (67). McMullan's tutelage also sparked Zimmerman to twice set the single-season UVa hits record (92 in 2005; 90 in 2004). The Virginia pitching staff has met unparalleled success in the past 10 seasons under pitching coach Karl Kuhn. Virginia possesses one of the top pitching staffs in the nation year in and year out under the 11th-year pitching coach of the Cavaliers. Since 2005 Virginia is tied for the lowest cumulative earned run average in the nation (3.14).

In honor of his coaching success, Kuhn was named the 2010 recipient of Collegiate Baseball's Tom House Teaching Professional of the Year Award. The award recognizes excellence in teaching pitchers and acknowledges years of continued education and study of the latest pitching techniques as identified by scientific fact and biomechanical research.

In 10 seasons, Kuhn's pitching staff has won 461 games, an average of more than 46 victories per season, while Virginia is one of just eight programs to reach each of the last 10 NCAA tournaments. His staff has ranked among the top 20 teams nationally in ERA eight of the last 10 years, including a No. 1 ranking in 2011 when UVa posted the lowest ERA at UVa in 40 years. The Cavaliers also have racked up four No. 3 national ERA rankings (2005, 2006, 2007, 2009) during that time.

Virginia advanced to its first College World Series in 2009, setting off a remarkable stretch as UVa has recorded 245 wins in the last five years - the most victories of any Division I program during that time.

In this period UVa has made two trips to the College World Series and won four NCAA Regional championships, two ACC tournament titles and two ACC Coastal Division crowns. The Cavaliers are one of three teams nationally to play host to NCAA Regionals each of the last four years. UVa has racked up three 50-win seasons and spent two stints atop the national polls since 2010.

During Kuhn's tenure in Charlottesville, UVa has produced 67 shutouts, including an ACC-record 16 in 2011. The Cavaliers also have boasted a league-high 25 ACC Pitchers of the Week during the last 10 years. Kuhn's pitchers are notorious for pounding the strike zone, averaging just 2.8 walks per nine innings since 2004 - fewest in the ACC.

Three of Kuhn's former protégés at UVa have gone on to reach the major league level. Michael Schwimer (Philadelphia) and Mike Ballard (Baltimore) each reached the big leagues in 2011, while Sean Doolittle made his MLB debut in 2012 with the Oakland Athletics. Twenty-seven of Kuhn's Virginia pitchers have been selected in the Major League Baseball Draft, including Danny Hultzen, who was the second overall pick in 2011.

Kuhn has coached 11 All-Americans and 20 All-ACC honorees in his tenure at Virginia. A three-time First-Team All-American, Hultzen was Virginia's first-ever ACC Freshman of the Year in 2009, then followed it up by becoming the first-ever two-time ACC Pitcher of the Year in 2010 and 2011 before being selected second overall in the 2011 MLB Draft. In addition, Doolittle (2005-06), Jacob Thompson (2007) and Branden Kline (2011) each earned All-America honors and played for the U.S. Collegiate National Team.

Behind one of the top pitching staffs in the nation in 2009, Virginia won 49 games and earned the program's first-ever trip to the College World Series. UVa's pitchers were sensational in the road to Omaha, posting a 1.45 ERA in the regional and super regional. UVa ranked third nationally in ERA (3.23) and fewest hits allowed per nine innings (7.97), seventh in strikeouts and 18th in fewest walks allowed per nine innings (2.93). Following the season, four UVa pitchers (Andrew Carraway, Jeff Lorick, Matt Packer, Robert Poutier) were selected in the MLB Draft.

In 2008, Virginia recorded a 3.83 ERA, which ranked 11th nationally. Closer Michael Schwimer tied the single-season Virginia saves record with 14 en route to All-America laurels. Senior starting pitcher Pat McAnaney was lauded with Second-Team All-ACC honors. Jacob Thompson set the Virginia career wins record with 27, and Matt Packer led all Division I pitchers with a 1.14 ERA to become just the second UVa pitcher to lead the nation in ERA.

In 2007 the Cavaliers posted an ACC-best 2.81 team ERA with nine shutouts. Kuhn was instrumental in Thompson recording one of best seasons ever for a Virginia pitcher. Thompson went 11-0 with a 1.50 ERA, was a consensus first-team All-American and All-ACC and was named a finalist for the Roger Clemens Award. He also earned a spot on the U.S. National Team. With 11 saves, Casey Lambert became the ACC's all-time leader in saves (43) and finished sixth in NCAA history in saves.

In 2006, Kuhn guided his staff to an ACC-best 3.04 team ERA. Sean Doolittle (11-2) and Thompson (10-4) earned All-ACC honors, becoming the first Cavalier

VIRGINIA ADMINISTRATION

TERESA A. SULLIVAN

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

Teresa A. Sullivan is the University of Virginia's eighth president. Since taking office in 2010, she has led UVa through a period of significant progress. In fall 2012, she launched a strategic planning effort to provide a road-map for the University's future, while gathering input from 10,000 alumni, parents, students, faculty, staff, and others.

President Sullivan developed a new financial model for the University to ensure stability and transparency and to spur innovation in a period of significant financial pressure in higher education.

President Sullivan has assembled a highly-effective leadership team, led by executive vice president and provost John Simon, executive vice president and chief operating officer Pat Hogan, senior vice president for university advancement Bob Sweeney, and a group of experienced deans, vice presidents, and staff. Working with her team, President Sullivan has prepared UVa to tackle the serious challenges in higher education related to cost-containment, affordability, faculty compensation, and the emergence of online education. UVa now has ongoing efforts, at both the unit and the pan-University levels, to reduce costs, improve processes, and enhance efficiency, while protecting the quality of the academic enterprise. In 2013, President Sullivan proposed a plan to aggressively improve faculty compensation after many years of stagnation in faculty salaries. Under her leadership, faculty and staff have been encouraged to experiment strategically with new technologies, such as massive open online courses, or MOOCs. President Sullivan also provided seed funding to allow professors to experiment with "hybrid" courses that combine the traditional classroom experience with technology-enhanced teaching.

In spring 2013, President Sullivan led the University to completion of its $3-billion capital campaign, and quickly announced plans to raise $400 million to support three strategic priorities: retaining and recruiting top faculty, restoring the University's Jeffersonian Grounds, and providing needy students with scholarships.

President Sullivan is a respected scholar in labor force demography. The author or coauthor of six books and many scholarly articles, her most recent research has focused on measuring productivity in higher education.

President Sullivan is a Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science. She serves as Vice Chair of the Council of Presidents for the Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges, and as a member of the Advisory Board for the Northern Virginia Technology Council, the trade association of the technology industry in Northern Virginia. She serves as the Association of American Universities (AAU) representative on the American Council on Education (ACE) Board of Directors, and as a member of the Higher Education Advisory Committee that provides guidance for implementation of the Virginia Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2011. In 2013, the Governor appointed her to the Innovation and Entrepreneurship Investment Authority.

President Sullivan came to UVa from the University of Michigan, where she was provost and executive vice president for academic affairs. Prior to her work at Michigan, Ms. Sullivan was executive vice chancellor for academic affairs for the University of Texas System, a position she held from 2002 until May 2006. She served as faculty member at the University of Texas at Austin from 1981 to 2006.

She is a graduate of Michigan State University's James Madison College, and earned her doctoral degree in sociology from the University of Chicago. She is married to Douglas Laycock, the Robert E. Scott Distinguished Professor of Law at UVa. They have two adult sons.

President Sullivan is a passionate fan of UVa athletics, and regularly attends sports events on and off Grounds.

CRAIG LITTLEPAGE

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Committed to preserving and building on UVa's longstanding tradition of academic and athletic excellence, Craig Littlepage is in his 13th year as Virginia's Athletics Director. Littlepage's appointment as athletics director was announced in August of 2001.

Littlepage served as Virginia's interim athletics director from June 1, 2001, until his permanent appointment to the position. He had also served as the University's interim athletics director from December of 1994 until July of 1995.

The first African-American athletics director in Atlantic Coast Conference history, Littlepage was named the Black Coaches Association's "Athletics Administrator of the Year" in 2003 and 2006. He was also listed on Sports Illustrated's list of the 101 most influential minorities in sports in 2003 and 2004. In March 2005, Littlepage was named one of Black Enterprise magazine's "Most Powerful African-Americans in Sports."

Littlepage has been a member of UVa's athletics administration since 1990 when he was appointed an assistant athletics director, a position he held from 1990-1991. He then spent four years as the associate director of athletics for programs and six years (1995-2001) as senior associate director of athletics, managing all aspects of the athletics department's day-to-day operations.

Littlepage leads a comprehensive 25-sport athletics program that routinely competes for championships and national rankings in many sports. At the same time, Cavalier student-athletes who exhaust their eligibility at Virginia graduate at a rate comparable to the student body as a whole. Annually, UVa studentathletes rank among the top Division I-A public universities in the country in graduation rates.

He has outlined a number of ambitious 10-year goals for the department to achieve by 2022: graduate 100 percent of its student-athletes; win 12 national championships and 70 conference titles; fully endow all scholarships and provide the operational support required to meet all other stated goals; build and maintain high-quality facilities; annually recruit the best student-athletes in the country (based on how coaches rate their top prospects); and fully comply with Title IX.

Such goals reflect Littlepage's vision of uncompromised excellence in intercollegiate athletics as well as the department's overall mission to enhance and support the intellectual purpose of the University and its exemplary academic standards and traditions.

Virginia's first NCAA championship in men's tennis capped another successful athletics season in which teams or individuals from 19 of the Cavaliers' 25 intercollegiate athletics programs advanced to NCAA post-season competition in 2012-13. The Cavaliers finished 20th in the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup standings, their seventh consecutive top-20 finish including a school high of No. 3 in 2010.

Other team highlights from 2012-13 included the rowing team's fifth-place national finish, baseball's fourth NCAA Super Regional appearance in the last five years and the men's tennis team winning the ITA National Team Indoor Championship for the fifth time in the past six years. Jarmere Jenkins and Mac Styslinger became the third men's tennis duo in the past five years to win the NCAA Doubles Championship.

Virginia has won eight team NCAA championships and 13 individual NCAA championships in the last 11 years. The Cavaliers have also won 56 ACC championships in that time frame, more than any other conference school. UVa claimed a league-leading five ACC championships in 2012-13 and has led the ACC in league championships in five of the last six athletics seasons.

Great progress has also been made in the area of athletics facility improvements on Littlepage's watch, including the additions of the George Welsh Indoor Practice Facility (2013) and John Paul Jones Arena (2006)

Littlepage has held many leadership roles within the NCAA, ACC, the University-at-large and professional organizations. He is currently a member of the John McLendon Foundation Steering Committee and served on the Executive Committee of the National Association of Collegiate Athletics Directors (NACDA) from 2006-10.

In February 2002, he was appointed to the 10-member Division I Men's Basketball Committee by the NCAA Championship/Competition Cabinet and served a five-year term which was completed Aug. 31, 2007. In 2005-06, Littlepage served as the chair of the Men's Division I Basketball Committee and administered its selection process.

Littlepage previously was a member of the NCAA Division I Infractions Committee and the NCAA Academics, Eligibility and Compliance Cabinet, serving on the Recruiting and Student-Athlete Reinstatement Subcommittees. He chaired the Reinstatement Subcommittee in 1999-2000. He also served the NCAA on committees that studied sports wagering, postgame crowd control, basketball issues, and the College Basketball Partnership. He has participated as a presenter and mentor to the NCAA's Ethnic Minority Male Institute and the Black Coaches and Administrator Association.

Littlepage has chaired the ACC Women's Basketball Committee, ACC Committee on Awards, ACC Student-Athlete Welfare Committee, the ACC Men's and Women's Swimming/Diving Committees and the ACC Men's Soccer Committee.

He is a member of the Associate Faculty for the University's Center for Alcohol and Substance Education, and participates in various alcohol and drug prevention/education conferences. Littlepage also has been active in the local community, having served on the Board of Directors for the Charlottesville Ronald McDonald House and serving as a Trustee with the Mount Zion Baptist Church and the St. Anne's-Belfield School

Before beginning his career in athletics administration, Littlepage served two stints as an assistant coach with the Cavalier men's basketball program, from 1976-82 and from 1988-90.

Littlepage held head coaching positions at Pennsylvania (1982-85) and at Rutgers (1985-88) before returning to Virginia. While he was at Penn, the Quakers won the Ivy League championship and participated in the 1985 NCAA Tournament. Littlepage was an assistant basketball coach at Villanova for two years and at Yale for one year before joining the UVa basketball program as an assistant coach in 1976.

The LaMott, Pa., native earned his bachelor's degree in economics from the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania in 1973. He was a member of three Ivy League basketball championship teams at Penn and was instrumental in the Quakers' drive to three consecutive NCAA Eastern Regional playoff appearances.

Littlepage and his wife, Margaret, have three children, daughters Erica (27) and Erin (22), and son Murray (24).
