LARS TIFFANY

Cavaliers Usher in a New Era with Tiffany at the Helm

Lars Tiffany was named the 17th head coach in UVA men's lacrosse history on June 21, 2016.

"I'm excited to welcome Lars Tiffany to Charlottesville and the University of Virginia to lead our men's lacrosse program," UVA Director of Athletics Craig Littlepage said. "Lars is one of the country's more innovative coaches. His program is based on the development of young men as student-athletes and pushing them to excel in the classroom, in the community, and in competition. This foundation, combined with an aggressive and attacking style of play at both ends of the field, has proven to be successful over the course of his coaching career. His vision for our program to annually compete for championships and achieve high academic performance is in alignment with our goals of Uncompromised Excellence."

Tiffany has been a head coach for 12 seasons, the last 10 at Brown, his alma mater. He led the Bears to Championship Weekend in Philadelphia in 2016 behind a 16-3 record. The 16 wins in 2016 was a program record for the Bears. Brown's offense was potent in 2016, leading the nation with 16.32 goals per game. Under Tiffany's tutelage, nine Brown Bears earned All-America honors in 2016, while Dylan Molloy was the recipient of the 2016 Tewaaron Trophy and was named by the USILA its most outstanding player and attackman of the year. Brown goalie Jack Kelly was named the nation's most outstanding goalie and the winner of the 2016 Senior CLASS award for men's lacrosse.

Tiffany returned his alma mater to national prominence with Ivy League regular season titles in 2008, 2010, 2015 and 2016 and NCAA Championship berths in 2009, 2015 and 2016. Tiffany was named the New England Coach of the Year in 2008, 2009, 2015 and 2016 and earned Ivy League Coach of the Year honors in 2015 and 2016.

"Stepping into the seat as the head coach of the Virginia's Men's Lacrosse program brings both a tremendous exhilaration and responsibility," Tiffany said. "I am very fortunate to have Craig Littlepage entrust me with this program. It is also clearly understood that the coaches and athletes of Virginia Lacrosse that have come before me have established a very high bar for measuring success in Charlottesville. My staff and I are eager to begin working with the men as we establish the principles and guidelines of our aggressive, fast-paced system of play that relies upon uncompromising fitness, competitive fire and a passion, and joy, for the game of lacrosse."

Tiffany guided his 2015 team to the number one seed in the Ivy League Tournament, an Ivy League championship and NCAA Tournament berth, changing the landscape of college lacrosse with a unique fast break offense that scored 237 goals, averaging 13.94 goals per game, fifth best in the nation.

Since taking over the Brown program in 2007, Tiffany transformed the program from one that was winless in the Ivy League in 2006 into one of the preeminent teams in the Ivy League and the nation.

Tiffany guided Brown to its second Ivy League

Championship under his watch in 2010, while also earning a berth in the first-ever Ivy League Playoffs. His team also posted back-to-back winning seasons in 2013 and 2014.

In 2009, Tiffany coached Brown to its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 1997, before falling in overtime to Johns Hopkins in the NCAA First Round. His 2009 team posted a 12-4 record and was ranked as high as eighth nationally during the season, finishing the season as the 11th ranked squad in the nation.

Tiffany's 2008 squad captured the Ivy League title with a 5-1 league mark, posting an 11-3 record to earn the most wins at Brown since 1994. Brown, the number one ranked team in New England, finished 13th nationally in the final USILA coaches poll, with just six teams in the nation winning more games than the Bears.

In his first season at the helm of the Brown team, Tiffany turned the fortunes of the program in the right direction, guiding the Bears to a 7-7 record in 2007, and a national ranking as high as 18th.

Tiffany came to Brown from Stony Brook, where he was the head lacrosse coach in 2005 and 2006, posting an 18-13 overall mark. His 2006 squad finished second in America East with a 4-1 league mark and was ranked in the Top 20 in two weeks. In 2005, Tiffany's Seawolves appeared in the Top 20 for the first time ever, and were ranked as high as 14th nationally. Tiffany, the 2005 America East Coach of the Year, led Stony Brook to wins over Penn State and Rutgers, as his Seawolves boasted the number-one ranked man-up unit in Division I.

Tiffany arrived at Stony Brook after successful stints at Penn State, Dartmouth, Washington & Lee and LeMoyne. He spent his four years at Penn State (2000-2004) as the top assistant under head coach Glenn Thiel, and was involved in all facets of the lacrosse program as the team's defensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator. Tiffany's defensive units were outstanding during his four years, and in 2002, the Nittany Lions led the nation in man-down defense.

Prior to coaching at Penn State, Tiffany was an assistant coach at Dartmouth College, where he spent the 1999 and 2000 seasons under head coach Rick Sowell. In his two seasons as defensive coordinator, the Big Green's goals allowed per game in Ivy League contests dropped from 15.3 to 9.0. Dartmouth earned its first share of the Ivy League title and a berth in the NCAA tournament in 2003.

Tiffany was an assistant coach from 1997-98 at Washington & Lee University. In 1998, the Generals went 13-3 and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Tournament while finishing fifth in the USILA Division III national rankings.

Tiffany began his collegiate coaching career at LeMoyne College, where he served as an assistant coach of men's lacrosse and co-head coach of the women's lacrosse program from 1994-96. A native of LaFayette, N.Y., Tiffany graduated from LaFayette High School where he lettered in football, basketball and lacrosse. Upon graduation from Brown, he taught biology and coached lacrosse and football at the Robert Louis Stevenson School in Pebble Beach, Calif., from 1990-94.

A 1990 graduate of Brown, Tiffany was a two-time team captain and starter on defense for three years. Tiffany played for former Virginia head coach Dom Starsia at Brown. A Biology concentrator, Tiffany played on two Brown teams that advanced to the NCAA Tournament (1987 & 1990). He was Co-MVP of the Brown squad that captured its first-ever NCAA playoff victory in 1990 (12-9 vs. UMass). Tiffany capped his career by playing in the North-South Senior All-Star game.

Lars and Tara reside in Charlottesville with their daughter, Charlotte.

TIFFANY ON DOL

"To use the word intensity to describe Theo is to not even begin to capture the essence of the extreme eagerness and energy he brings to the field. Theo's motor burns hot, churning at high RPMs. He channels this well as a long-stick midfielder, flying into the ground ball frays and chopping his way to a possession. The program is a better one due his ability to both ignore pain and to never settle for anything less than his best."

"Injured much of the fall, there were only a few chances for Matt to demonstrate to the new staff what he is capable of. But he made the most of his opportunities when he was on the practice field. ### TIFFANY ON FALK

"Jack's role this spring will be as a defensive midfielder. As one of our best one-on-one defenders, regardless of length of stick, Jack has the ability to deny an opposing offense's initial attempt to create. Jack is proficient with a strong punch and good footwork. He has a knack for anticipating the dodger's move, quite possibly due to his own past success as an initiator."

"The game of lacrosse is deeply embedded in this first-year. Right from day one, Mitch has demonstrated both savviness and slick play on the practice field. Stating he is skilled is an understatement. What is really impressive to the rest of us is how Mitch is attacking the weight room, a new concept for him. Knowing that he needs to improve his strength to become a more powerful offensive threat, Mitch has embraced his time in Everett Gathron's (UVA men's lacrosse strength & conditioning coach) facility."

"The impact has already been made, in just one fall of collegiate lacrosse. Michael is proving to all of us, daily, that he has the mindset and the skills to play right away. ### TIFFANY ON MALONEY

“Wade began the fall with a bit of a trepidation, like the a cautious bull in the china shop. This did not last long. Soon he was proving himself, smashing into anything or anyone that stood in his way. Wade is very effective using his body to knock an opponent off of his base and then using this newfound space to bring a shot that is best described as heavy. The heat he brings is startling, allowing us to stretch opposing defenses.”

- Name is pronounced Milan (like in Italy)

TIFFANY ON MURRAY

“Though Kip Turner may have provided several reasons why he preferred to not play in the goal during our fall Alumni Game, at the top of the list was potentially having to face shots from Milan. And who could blame him? A powerful athlete, Milan is already proving to be a dangerous shooter as well as an impactful dodger. The improvement this fall in his consistency of effort and stick skills has him pushing for substantial playing time as a freshman.”

As a staff we know we can ask a multitude of things of Sam because he can effectively execute at the offensive end, the defensive end and the faceoff X. And he is willing to do anything asked of him. A • 6-2 • 225 • So.
Hotchkiss School (Conn.)/Boston College
Aspen, Colo.

TIFFANY ON PISANI

"At first, we asked ourselves if it was possible. Can an MCLA player make an ACC roster? Check. This man then began to force us to ask further questions. Can he make us a better program? Check. And can he make an impact? Due to an injury, Lawson's progression was stymied this fall. But from what our staff witnessed of his bull dodging and finishing skills, we are no longer limiting our expectations of Lawson."

- Listed as the No. 8 defenseman in the country by Inside Lacrosse

TIFFANY ON REILLY

"The first fall of collegiate lacrosse had its ups and downs for Jack. But the holdup for him was injury-related. As he grew more comfortable and healthier, we witnessed the improvement. New York, N.Y.

- Joined roster as a walk-on during fall practice of 2016

TIFFANY ON SPOLANSKY

"Few would have believed it, and our staff was not prepared to either. Griffin spent the first two days of tryouts doing little to earn a spot on our roster as a walk-on. But then on day three there was a spark, as Griffin demonstrated an uncanny knack for picking up ground balls and scoring goals with his long stick. He has a great deal to improve upon in other areas, but Griffin could prove to be an asset with faceoff wing-play this spring."

HIGH SCHOOL

TIFFANY ON STAFFORD

"The uncanny knack for finding a way to put the ball in the cage is highly sought after. Cam is able to do just that consistently. Lawrenceville
Princeton, N.J.

TIFFANY ON THOMPSON

"With a less than stellar start now behind him, Griffin has begun to make a positive mark on this program. His newfound humility could prove to be the most significant attribute he will carry with himself as begins the process of developing into a collegiate goaltender under Kip Turner's tutelage. Griffin is in the mix, fighting for playing time including the starting role in our cage this spring, due to his efficient ball-stopping skills."

ADMINISTRATION

TERESA A. SULLIVAN University President

Teresa A. Sullivan is the University of Virginia's eighth president. Since taking office in 2010, she has led UVA through a period of significant progress. In fall 2012, she launched a planning effort to provide a road-map for the University's future, while gathering input from 10,000 alumni, parents, students, faculty, staff, and others. This effort produced a new strategic plan for the University, the Cornerstone Plan. President Sullivan developed a new financial model for the University to ensure stability and transparency and to spur innovation in a period of significant financial pressure in higher education.

President Sullivan has assembled a highly effective leadership team and staff. Working with her team, President Sullivan has prepared UVA to tackle the serious challenges in higher education related to access, affordability, faculty compensation, and global competitiveness. UVA now has ongoing efforts, at both the unit and the pan-University levels, to reduce costs, improve processes, and enhance efficiency, while protecting the quality of the academic enterprise. In 2013, President Sullivan proposed a plan to aggressively improve faculty compensation after many years of stagnation in faculty salaries.

In spring 2013, President Sullivan led the University to completion of its $3-billion capital campaign, and quickly announced plans to raise financial support for three strategic priorities: retaining and recruiting top faculty, restoring the University's Jeffersonian Grounds, and providing needy students with scholarships. President Sullivan is a respected scholar in labor force demography and is the author or coauthor of six books and many scholarly articles.

President Sullivan is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and a Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science. She serves as Chair of the Council of Presidents for the Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges, Co-Chair of the National Research Council's Committee on Improving Higher Education's Responsiveness to Regional STEM Workforce Needs, and as a member of the Advisory Board for the Northern Virginia Technology Council. In 2016, the Governor reappointed her to the Innovation and Entrepreneurship Investment Authority.

President Sullivan came to UVA from the University of Michigan, where she was provost and executive vice president for academic affairs. Prior to her work at Michigan, Ms. Sullivan was executive vice chancellor for academic affairs for the University of Texas System, a position she held from 2002 until May 2006. She served as faculty member at the University of Texas at Austin from 1981 to 2006.

She is a graduate of Michigan State University's James Madison College, and earned her doctoral degree in sociology from the University of Chicago. She is married to Douglas Laycock, the Robert E. Scott Distinguished Professor of Law at UVA. They have two adult sons.

President Sullivan is a passionate fan of UVA athletics, and regularly attends sports events on and off Grounds.

CRAIG LITTLEPAGE Director of Athletics

Committed to preserving and building on UVA's longstanding tradition of academic and athletic excellence, Craig Littlepage is in his 16th year as Virginia's Athletics Director. Littlepage's appointment as athletics director was announced on August 21, 2001.

Littlepage served as Virginia's interim athletics director from June 1, 2001, until his permanent appointment to the position. He had also served as the University's interim athletics director from December of 1994 until July of 1995.

The first African-American athletics director in Atlantic Coast Conference history, Littlepage was named the Black Coaches Association's "Athletics Administrator of the Year" in 2003 and 2006. He was also listed on Sports Illustrated's list of the 101 most influential minorities in sports in 2003 and 2004. In March 2005, Littlepage was named one of Black Enterprise magazine's "Most Powerful African-Americans in Sports."

Littlepage has been a member of UVA's athletics administration since 1990 when he was appointed an assistant athletics director, a position he held from 1990-1991. He then spent four years as the associate director of athletics for programs and six years (1995-2001) as senior associate director of athletics, managing all aspects of the athletics department's day-to-day operations.

Littlepage leads a comprehensive 25-sport athletics program that routinely competes for championships and national rankings in many sports. At the same time, Cavalier student-athletes who exhaust their eligibility at Virginia graduate at a rate comparable to the student body as a whole. UVA student-athletes annually rank among the top Division I-A public universities in the country in graduation rates.

He has outlined a number of ambitious 10-year goals for the department to achieve by 2022: graduate 100 percent of its student-athletes; win 12 national championships and 70 conference titles; fully endow all scholarships and provide the operational support required to meet all other stated goals; build and maintain high-quality facilities; annually recruit the best student-athletes in the country (based on how coaches rate their top prospects); and fully comply with Title IX.

Such goals reflect Littlepage's vision of "uncompromised excellence in intercollegiate athletics" as well as the department's overall mission to "enhance and support the intellectual purpose of the University and its exemplary academic standards and traditions."

In 2015-16, Virginia captured its second consecutive NCAA men's tennis championship to highlight another successful athletics season in which teams or individuals from 20 of the Cavaliers' 25 intercollegiate athletics programs advanced to NCAA post-season competition. UVA secured its third straight top-10 finish in the Directors' Cup standings and placed in the top 20 in the Directors' Cup standings for the 10th consecutive year.

In addition to its NCAA men's tennis championship in 2015-16, the rowing team placed third nationally and the women's swimming program finished fifth. Men's basketball made its first NCAA Elite Eight appearance since 1995 and the men's track and field team placed seventh at the NCAA Outdoor Championships and tied for eighth at the indoor championships. Women's golf, women's tennis, women's soccer and field hockey also advanced to the quarterfinals at their respective NCAA championships.

UVA captured four Atlantic Coast Conference championships and its 73 conference titles since the spring of 2002 are the most of any ACC school during that time. In 2015-16, UVA won ACC championships in women's golf (second consecutive), rowing (seventh consecutive and 16th in 17 years), women's cross country (first since 1982) and women's swimming and diving (ninth consecutive).

Great progress has also been made in the area of athletics facility improvements during Littlepage's watch, including the additions of the George Welsh Indoor Practice Facility (2013) and John Paul Jones Arena (2006).

Littlepage has held many leadership roles within the NCAA, ACC, the University-at-large and professional organizations. He is currently serving as chair of the John McLendon Foundation Steering Committee and served on the Executive Committee of the National Association of Collegiate Athletics Directors (NACDA) from 2006-10.

In February 2002, he was appointed to the 10-member Division I Men's Basketball Committee by the NCAA Championship/Competition Cabinet and served a five-year term which was completed Aug. 31, 2007. In 2005-06, Littlepage served as the chair of the Men's Division I Basketball Committee and administered its selection process.

Littlepage previously was a member of the NCAA Division I Infractions Committee and the NCAA Academics, Eligibility and Compliance Cabinet, serving on the Recruiting and Student-Athlete Reinstatement Subcommittees. He chaired the Reinstatement Subcommittee in 1999-2000. He also served the NCAA on committees that studied sports wagering, postgame crowd control, basketball issues, and the College Basketball Partnership. He has participated as a presenter and mentor to the NCAA's Ethnic Minority Male Institute, the Black Coaches and Administrator Association, and other NCAA leadership development programs designed to help aspiring athletics administrators and head coach candidates in football and basketball.

Littlepage has chaired the ACC Women's Basketball Committee, ACC Committee on Awards, ACC Student-Athlete Welfare Committee, the ACC Men's and Women's Swimming/Diving Committees and the ACC Men's Soccer Committee.

He is a member of the Associate Faculty for the University's Center for Alcohol and Substance Education, and participates in various alcohol and drug prevention/education conferences. Littlepage also has been active in the local community, having served on the Board of Directors for the Charlottesville Ronald McDonald House and serving as a Trustee with the Mount Zion Baptist Church and the St. Anne's-Belfield School.

Before beginning his career in athletics administration, Littlepage served two stints as an assistant coach with the Cavalier men's basketball program, from 1976-82 and from 1988-90.

Littlepage held head coaching positions at Pennsylvania (1982-85) and at Rutgers (1985-88) before returning to Virginia. While he was at Penn, the Quakers won the Ivy League championship and participated in the 1985 NCAA Tournament. Littlepage was an assistant basketball coach at Villanova for two years and at Yale for one year before joining the UVA basketball program as an assistant coach in 1976.

The LaMott, Pa., native earned his bachelor's degree in economics from the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania in 1973. He was a member of three Ivy League basketball championship teams at Penn and was instrumental in the Quakers' drive to three consecutive NCAA Eastern Regional playoff appearances. The 1970-71 Penn team that finished the year with a record of 28-1 was inducted into the Philadelphia Big-5 Hall of Fame in April 2016. In addition, Littlepage was inducted into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame in 2014.

Littlepage and his wife, Margaret, have three children; two daughters Erica (30) and Erin (25), and a son Murray (27).
