Mark Allen is in his third season as the head coach of the Virginia men's and women's varsity squash teams. The program was named a varsity sport by the Virginia Department of Athletics in 2017.

The Cavaliers saw success during the 2018-19 season as both programs captured the inaugural Mid-Atlantic Squash Championship. The women's team concluded the year ranked 11th after finishing third at the Kurtz Cup. The team recorded a program best ranking of No. 9 during the regular season, due in large part to its 11 wins over top 25 programs. Emma Jinks finished the year ranked 21st in the CSA Individual rankings. The women's team finished the season with an 18-7 overall record.

Virginia concluded the year ranked 12th on the men's side, finishing the season with a 16-7 overall record. The team also ranked in the top 10 during the year, recording a season high ranking of ninth. The Cavaliers tallied 11 wins over top 25 ranked teams and tabbed a fourth-place finish in the Hoehn Cup. Patrick McElroy finished the year ranked 29th in the CSA Individual rankings.

Allen led the Cavaliers in their opening season as a varsity sport. The women's team finished the season ranked 13th in the nation with a 14-9 record, in addition to winning the consolation finals of the Kurtz Cup. The men's team finished the year ranked 14th, posting a 15-8 record. The Cavalier men fell in the consolation finals of the Hoehn Cup to finish sixth in the B Division. Both programs recorded their best rankings in history during the season.

Allen served as the head coach for the Virginia men's and women's club squash programs as well as the director of squash at Boars Head Sports Club from 2013-17. Under Allen's leadership, the Virginia men's and women's club squash programs held rankings inside the top 50. The men's team was ranked 19th at the conclusion of the 2017 season, while the women's team ranked 13th. Both programs were the No. 1 ranked club team nationally for the 2015-16 and the 2016-17 seasons.

Allen was named South African National Coach of the Year in 2008 and US National Squash Coach of the Year in 2005. He is also an England Squash Elite Level IV certified coach.

Prior to Virginia, Allen coached in Cape Town, South Africa as the head coach at the Western Province Cricket Club from 2007-13. Allen built the program into one of the strongest junior squash teams in the country with eight club junior players achieving a No. 1 South African junior ranking.

While in South Africa, Allen created the Pro Training Group which worked with professional squash players developing their careers. During this time, he coached two of the country's best female squash players, Tenille Schwartz (ranked 28th-WISPA) and Siyoli Waters (ranked 36th-WISPA). Additionally, he coached the first teams at Bishops School, Wynberg School and SACs School.

In 2004-07, Allen worked for Western Athletic Clubs as the head squash professional at San Francisco Bay Club and the director of squash programs at Bay Club Marin. Allen managed programs, ran tournaments, hosted international squash events and provided lessons to club members.

During this time, Allen was the head coach and manager of the U.S. National Junior Women's team. He coached the program to a fourth-place finish at the 2005 World Junior Championships, at the time a program best in a world championship event. Allen coached the team for two years, 2004-05.

In 2000-03, Allen worked with the National Capital Squash Racquets Association teaching the sport in the area for Northern Virginia and Washington, D.C. area. Additionally, he coached at Potomac High School.

Allen began his coaching career as the coach and director of squash for the Guernsey Squash Racquets Association. During his two years of coaching (1998-2000), Allen taught England's No. 1 junior player, Chris Simpson, and was the coach and manager of the Guernsey squash team that competed in the Commonwealth Games in Kuala Lumpur.

A former professional player himself, Allen led the English junior team as captain to a first-place finish at the World Junior Team Championships in 1990. He finished fourth in the World Junior Individual Championships that same season. Soon after, Allen competed professionally, achieving a world ranking of 41st.

In 1993, he attended Nottingham University where he received a B.A. in industrial economics. He captured three British University individual championship titles in addition being captain on the 1996 World Student Games champion squash team.

He currently lives in Charlottesville with his wife Tracy and their two children, Daniel and Jayden.

Grant White has served as the assistant coach for the Virginia men's and women's squash teams since the program was named a varsity sport by the Virginia Department of Athletics in 2017. Prior to the program becoming a varsity sport, White worked with the UVA club squash program, serving as a member of the coaching staff since 2011.

His second year as the men's and women's assistant coach, White helped both programs to a season best No. 9 ranking. Both the men's and women's team captured 11 wins over top 25 ranked programs during the course of the season as the women finished the year ranked 11th and the men's ranked 12th. Additionally both programs won the inaugural Mid-Atlantic Squash Championships. The women's team recorded a third-place finish at the Hoehn Cup, while the men's team finished fourth at the Kurtz Cup.

White aided the Cavaliers in their opening season as a varsity sport. The women's team finished the season ranked 13th in the nation with a 14-9 record, in addition to winning the consolation finals of the Kurtz Cup. The men's team finished the year ranked 14th, posting a 15-8 record. The Cavalier men fell in the consolation finals of the Hoehn Cup to finish sixth in the B Division. Both programs recorded their best rankings in history during the season.

White worked with the UVA club squash teams from 2011. He was the program's assistant coach since 2013 after serving as the head coach of both programs from 2011-13.

Under White's leadership, both programs gained national recognition. The men's team finished the 2013 campaign ranked 26th and the women's team finished 36th.

As an assistant coach, White helped coach the programs to top 20 finishes at the conclusion of the 2017 season (men- 19th; women- 13th). Additionally, both teams have held the title of No. 1 club team nationally since 2015.

In addition to his on-court teaching roles, White managed media and public relations as well as administrative duties related to the club teams.

While working with the UVA club squash programs, White has coached squash at the Saint Anne's-Belfield School and has served as an assistant teaching pro at Boar's Head Sports Club

He is currently working toward his Level 2 Squash Coaching Certificate.

White is the former director of squash and head teaching pro at Atlantic Coast Athletic Club. He managed the facility and helped facilitate lessons from 2011-17.

White played varsity squash and lacrosse at Bowdoin College. He helped both teams to consistent top-20 finishes. He was a co-captain of the squash team in 2003-04.

As a junior player, White was Virginia State Champion in 2000. He led his high school team (Woodberry Forest) to back-to-back Mid Atlantic Championships in 1998 and 1999.

White holds a BA in English and art history from Bowdoin College and an MFA in creative writing from Virginia Commonwealth University. He lives in Charlottesville with his wife, Mara, and their son, Virgil, and daughter, Augusta.

Moustafa Bayoumy is in his second season as an assistant coach with the men's and women's squash teams, joining the Cavaliers in January of 2019.

In his first year with the Cavaliers, Bayoumy assisted the programs in winning the Mid-Atlantic Squash Championships. Both teams advanced to the 3/4 match at the CSA Team Championships, as the women's team recorded a third-place finish at the Hoehn Cup and the men finished fourth at the Kurtz Cup. The women's team concluded the year with an 18-7 overall record. The men finished 2018-19 with a 16-7 overall record.

Bayoumy joined the Cavalier staff after competing as a student-athlete with St. Lawrence where he and his brother, Ahmed Bayoumy, became the first Saints in program history to earn four All-American honors. During his career, Bayoumy played in the top three of the Saints' lineup and helped lead St. Lawrence to a top-three national ranking, a program best at the time.

A five-year member of the Egyptian national team, Bayoumy was ranked in the top three of both the U17 and U19 age groups. He won the U19 Dutch Open Championship and both the U17 French Open and U17 German Open. Additionally, Bayoumy individually finished as the British Open runner-up and African Open runner-up, and helped his team win the African Open.

Bayoumy graduated with a double major in business and political science and a minor in sport studies from St. Lawrence.
