RETIRED NUMBERS

Six Virginia players have had their uniform numbers retired and those numbers will not be worn again. Those numbers honor the most decorated players in the program's history, including Jim Dombrowski (73), Bill Dudley (35), Gene Edmonds (97), Shawn Moore (12), Joe Palumbo (48) and Frank Quavle (24).

12 Shawn Moore Martinsville, Va.

Shawn Moore (1988-90) quarterbacked UVA to two New Year's Day Bowl appearances and a share of the school's first-ever ACC championship. Virginia's all-time passing and total offense leader set over 30 combined NCAA, conference and school records. He led Virginia to the USF&G Sugar Bowl as well as a No. 1 ranking in the nation (Associated Press) for three consecutive weeks. Moore became the first ACC quarterback to lead the nation in passing efficiency (160.7) in 1990 while completing 144 of 241 passes for 2,262 yards and 21 touchdowns. Moore finished fourth in balloting for the 1990 Heisman Trophy. As a senior he was a first-team All-American and ACC Player of the Year.

24 Frank Quayle Garden City, N.Y. Frank Quayle established himself as Virginia's most versatile performer since the days of "Bullet" Bill back caught 83 passes for 1,145 yards. He was named ACC Player of the Year and the conference's overall Athlete of the Year in 1968 after rushing 175 times for 1,213 yards and catching 30 passes for 426 yards. During his three seasons in the Cavalier backfield (1966-68), Virginia went 16-14, including a 7-3 mark in 1968.

35 Bill Dudley Bluefield, Va.

As a 19-year-old senior in 1941, "Bullet" Bill Dudley led Virginia to a sparkling 8-1 record and had a hand in 206 of the 279 points that the Cavaliers scored. A great runner, 48 Joe Palumbo Beaver, Pa.

During Joe Palumbo's three varsity seasons (1949-51), Virginia posted a 23-5 mark and recorded seven shutouts. He was a first-team All-America selection that season. He was a three-time All-State selection. In 1951, Palumbo received the Outstanding Defensive Lineman Award from the Touchdown Club of Washington, D.C., was named the state of Virginia's Athlete of the Year, and participated in the Blue-Gray All-Star Game. Palumbo was inducted into the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame in August of 1999.

73 Jim

Dombrowski Williamsville, N.Y.

Dombrowski anchored Virginia's offensive line for four straight seasons (1982-85) and finished his career as UVA's first-ever unanimous All-American. The two-time winner of the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the ACC's best blocker, he helped lead UVA to three straight winning seasons and a 27-24 victory over Purdue in the 1984 Peach Bowl. He received All-America honors following Virginia's 6-5 season in 1985. Dombrowski also went on to a successful NFL career. He was selected for induction into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2008.

97 Gene Edmonds Hampton, Va.

Gene Edmonds was a halfback on winning Cavalier teams in 1948 and 1949. He was killed in a tragic automobile accident near Scott Stadium on Nov. 20, 1949, hours after scoring Virginia's second touchdown in a 28-14 loss to Tulane. Edmonds' jersey number (97) was retired as a memorial by Cavalier head coach Art Guepe and UVA Athletic Director Norton Pritchett.

RETIRED JERSEYS

Jersey retirement honors Virginia players who have significantly impacted the program. Individuals recognized in this way will have their jerseys retired, but their number will remain active.

ALL-ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE

From 1953 to 1981, the All-Atlantic Coast Conference team was selected by the Atlantic Coast Sports Writers Association (ACSWA). The Associated Press (AP) started selecting its own All-ACC team in 1982. In 1989 the ACSWA and AP combined to select one team, while United Press International (UPI) also chose a team in 1989. In 2012 the ACC coaches started their own All-ACC team to go along with the one selected by the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association (ACSMA). Both ACSMA and the ACC coaches lasted through the 2016 season as official teams. Starting in 2017, the official All-ACC team was voted on by a panel from each school which included the head coach, radio play-by-play announcer and two members of the team's beat media, as well as other national voters. The players listed below, starting in 1982, made all teams unless otherwise indicated. UVA has had 126 first-team All-ACC selections. including 78 in the last 27 seasons.

Jim Bakhtiar

1957 - FW

Jim Bakhtiar was an outstanding fullback, linebacker and kicker from 1955-57. Bakhtiar was selected to the Football Writers first-team All-America squad at fullback in 1957 after leading the ACC in rushing with 822 yards. He rushed for 2,434 yards and 13 touchdowns for his career and was the most dominant ballcarrier in the Atlantic Coast Conference's first decade. Upon completion of his career he was first in league history in rushing yards, rushing attempts and most 100-yard games.

Quin Blanding

2017 - CFN

Quin Blanding finished his career as the program's all-time leader in career tackles with 495 and assisted tackles with 235. Upon graduation, his career total of 495 tackles ranked No. 1 all-time among ACC defensive backs and is in a two-way tie for No. 6 all-time in ACC history. He started all 49 games in which he played, the most by a safety in school history. He finished No. 2 in the ACC in tackles in each of his four seasons, a feat that had never been accomplished before in league history. A three-time All-American, he helped return UVA to postseason play as a senior in the Military Bowl.

Will Brice

1995 – FW

Will Brice was named a first-team All-America punter in 1995. He also was a second-team All-America selection by The Sporting News and first-team All-ACC selection. Brice's All-America season was instrumental in leading the 1995 Cavaliers to a 9-4 record, a share of the ACC championship and a 34-27 victory over Georgia in the Peach Bowl. He had 17 punts of 50 yards or longer and he buried 26 punts inside the 20.

Ahmad Brooks

2004 – SN, CSTV

As a sophomore in 2004, Ahmad Brooks was one of three finalists for the Butkus Award. He led the team in tackling for the second year in a row (7.5/g) and earned first-team All-American honors from The Sporting News and CSTV. Brooks finished his career with 13 sacks, fourth most by a UVA linebacker, and 234 tackles. He was selected by the Cincinnati Bengals in the third round of the 2006 NFL Supplemental Draft.

Elton Brown

2004 - AFCA, WCFF

Elton Brown became just the third consensus All-American lineman in school history (joining T Jim Dombrowski in 1985 and G Mark Dixon in 1993) as a senior in 2004. That season, he won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the ACC's top blocker in voting by the league's head coaches for the second consecutive season. Brown started 39 games in his career and did not allow a sack during his senior season.

Mark Dixon

2004 – AP, UPI, FN, WCFF, FWAA, CPFN, SN

Mark Dixon earned consensus All-America honors at guard in 1993 as Virginia finished with a 7-5 record and played in the 1994 Carguest Bowl. He was also named a first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection in 1993 and received the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the ACC's best blocker. Dixon was named the ACC Offensive Lineman of the Week as a senior following his performance in Virginia's win over Georgia Tech.

Jim Dombrowski

1985 - AP, CPFN, FN, FWAA, K, SN, UPI

In 1985 Jim Dombrowski became UVA's first-ever unanimous All-American. In addition, the tackle became only the fifth Cavalier gridder to have his number (73) retired. The two-time winner of the Jacobs Blocking Trophy (recognizing the ACC's best blocker) helped lead UVA to three straight winning seasons and a 27-24 victory over Purdue in the 1984 Peach Bowl.

Bill Dudley 1941 – AP, UPI, INS, COL

As a 19-year-old senior in 1941, "Bullet" Bill Dudley he Virginia to a sparkling 8-1 record and had a hand in 206 of the 279 points that the Cavaliers scored. He led the nation that year in points scored (134) and finished second nationally in total offense (1,824 yards). A member of the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame and the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Dudley became the first Cavalier to have his number

(35) retired. He finished fifth in the 1941 Heisman balloting.

Percy Ellsworth

1995 – FN, AAFF

Percy Ellsworth became the first UVA defensive back to receive first-team All-America honors, earning that distinction in 1995. He tied for the team lead in interceptions (six) and pass breakups (12) in 1995 while leading UVA's defensive backs with 68 total tackles. Ellsworth finished his Cavalier career with 10 interceptions, tying for 12th-most in UVA history. He helped the team to back-to-back nine-win seasons as a junior and senior, a share of the 1995 ACC championship and two bowl victories.

D'Brickashaw Ferguson

2005 - AP

D'Brickashaw Ferguson finished his Virginia career as the most decorated offensive lineman in school history. He was named a first-team All-American as a senior in 2005 and was an all-ACC pick as both a junior and senior. He started all 49 games in which he played, the most by an offensive lineman in school history. His 49 career starts are the second-most starts by an offensive lineman in ACC history and a figure topped by only 13 O-linemen in FBS history at the time his career ended.

Anthony Harris

2013 - SI

Anthony Harris received first-team All-America honors following one of the best seasons ever by a UVA defensive back. He led the nation with eight interceptions in 2013, tying for the secondbest season in UVA history. The first-team All-ACC honoree set a UVA record in 2013 with at least one interception in five consecutive games (six total during the span). He finished his career tied for No. 10 all-time at UVA with 11 interceptions.

Micah Kiser

2017 - SN

Micah Kiser earned first-team All-America honors in 2017 after becoming the second player in ACC history to lead the league in tackles in three consecutive seasons. With a 3.42 GPA, he won the prestigious 2017 Campbell Trophy, which has been dubbed the "Academic Heisman," after posting the second-best tackle season in UVA history with 145 stops as a senior. Finished his career with 411 career tackles, which ranks No. 5 all-time at UVA. He recorded 21 career double-digit tackle games over his 37 career starts. A two-time All-American, he helped return UVA to postseason play as a senior in the Military Bowl.

Thomas Jones

1999 - AP, FN, FWAA, WCFF, SN, CPFN, CBS, FD, CFD

Thomas Jones was a consensus first-team All-American in 1999. He became the ACC's first consensus All-America running back since 1978 and just the third in league history. He was UVA's first consensus All-America offensive back since Bill Dudley in 1941 and the eighth consensus All-American in school history. Jones finished eighth in balloting for the Heisman Trophy. He established ACC and UVA records with 1,798 yards rushing and 2,054 all-purpose yards as a senior. Jones ranked third in the nation in rushing (163.5 ypg) and all-purpose yards (186.7 ypg), while his four 200-yard rushing games led the nation.

Patrick Kerney 1998 – FN, FWAA

A first-team All-ACC selection, Kerney finished second in balloting for the 1998 ACC Defensive Player of the Year by one vote to fellow Cavalier All-American Anthony Poindexter. Kerney was one of five finalists for the Bronko Nagurski Áward. He became the first Cavalier defensive end to earn first-team All-America honors since Chris Slade in 1992. Kerin quarterback sacks in 1998 with 15. He finished second in the conference and 10th nationally with 21 tackles for loss.

Noel LaMontagne

1999 – SN

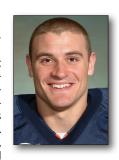

Noel LaMontagnewas recognized as a first-team All-American in 1999 and earned first-team All-ACC honors for the second consecutive year that season. He and center John St. Clair became the first two UVA offensive linemen to win first-team All-America distinction in the same season. A 1999 tri-captain, LaMontagne also won the Jim Tatum Award, given annually to the top studentathlete among the ACC's senior football players.

He helped open holes all season long for consensus All-America tailback Thomas Jones, who rushed for an ACC-record 1,798 yards.

Chris Long 2007 – AP, AFČA, SN, WCFF, FWAA, CBS, RIV, AAFF

In 2007 defensive end Chris Long became just the third unanimous All-American in Virginia history and the 11th player to receive consensus All-America status. He was named the ACC's Defensive Player of the Year and won the Ted Hendricks Award as the nation's outstanding defensive end. He was also a finalist for the Nagorski Trophy, Lombardi Award and the Lott Trophy. He finished third in the nation with 14 sacks and finished 10th in the voting for the Heisman Trophy.

Eugene "Buck" Mayer 1915 - INS

Eugene "Buck" Mayer became the first player from a Southern school to earn first-team All-America honors, gaining that distinction in 1915. In one of his best individual performances, he scored five touchdowns in a 74-0 win over Richmond in 1915. The Cavaliers went on to post an 8-1 record that year, losing only to Harvard. Mayer captained UVA's 1914 squad and helped lead Virginia to a four-year record of 39-6 record from 1912-15. During his career, he scored 46 touchdowns and 293 points, records that stood for more than 80 years.

Heath Miller 2004 - AFCA, AP, WCFF, FWAA, SN

Heath Miller rewrote the UVA and ACC record books during a stellar three-year career with 144 passes for 1,703 yards and 20 touchdowns, all records for a tight end. He capped his UVA career in 2004 by winning the Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end, becoming Virginia's first major award winner since 1941. He became the second unanimous All-American in school history (Jim Dombrowski, 1985). The first unanimous All-American tight end in ACC history, he became the first UVA tight end to earn first-team All-ACC recognition twice.

Herman Moore 1990 - AP, UPI, SN, FN, FWAA

Herman Moore, half of UVA's highly-touted "Moore to Moore" pass-catch combination, was named a first-team All-American in 1990. Moore also was a unanimous first-team All-ACC selection in 1990 and finished sixth that season in the Heisman Trophy balloting. While at Virginia, he became the all-time ACC leader for most receiving yards in a season with 1,190 in 1990. He finished his career as the NCAA record-holder for most consecutive games in a season with a touchdown reception (nine in 1990) and most yards per catch in a career (22.0 average). Moore established UVA career records for most touchdown receptions (27) and most receiving yards (2,504).

Shawn Moore 1990 - AFCA, FWAA

Shawn Moore quarterbacked UVA to two New Year's Day Bowl appearances and a share of the school's first-ever ACC championship. Virginia's all-time passing and total offense leader set over 30 combined NCAA, conference and school records. Moore became the first ACC quarterback to lead the nation in passing efficiency (160.7) in 1990 while completing 144 of 241 passes for 2,262 yards and 21 touchdowns. Moore finished fourth in balloting for the 1990 Heisman Trophy, capturing more votes than any other player in ACC history at that time and was the ACC Player of the Year.

Joe Palumbo

1951 - AP. NEA

Joe Palumbo is considered the best defensive guard in Cavalier football history. During his three varsity seasons (1949-51), Virginia posted a 23-5 mark and recorded seven shutouts. Palumbo captained head coach Art Guepe's 1951 squad and was a first-team All-America selection that season. In 1951, He is one of six Cavaliers to have his number (48) retired. Palumbo was inducted into the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame in August of 1999.

John Papit 1949 - NEA

John Papit earned All-America honors in 1949. He was a rare fullback who had the speed and shiftiness to go all the way anytime he carried the ball. As a member of the 1947-50 teams, he was always the leading rusher. His best game was a 224-yard effort against Washington & Lee in 1948, which still stands as UVA's single-game rushing record. In 1949, he rushed for 1,214 yards which was Virginia's single-season rushing record until broken by Barry Word (1,224) in 1985. He is Virginia's fourth all-time leading rusher with 537 carries for 3,238 yards.

Anthony Poindexter

1997 - SN

1998 – FWAA, AP, SN, CPFN

Anthony Poindexter earned first-team All-America honors as a defensive back in 1997 and 1998, just the second two-time first-team All-American in UVA history. The 1998 ACC Defensive Player of the Year, Poindexter became only the third player in school history to earn first-team All-Conference honors three times. The two-time team captain led UVA in a number of statistical categories, including tackles (73, 10.4 per game), interceptions

(3), fumbles recovered (2) and fumbles caused (2). His three guarterback sacks in 1998 marked the most ever by a Cavalier defensive back. He finished his career ranked seventh in school history with 342 tackles.

Ray Roberts

1991 -SHNS, K

Ray Roberts started on three bowl teams and an ACC championship team at UVA. He culminated his outstanding Cavalier career as a senior in 1991, gaining first-team All-America status. Roberts was a first-team all-ACC selection and received the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the ACC's best blocker in each of his last two seasons. In 1990, the team captain blocked for an offense that scored a then ACC-record 442 points.

Ray Savage

Ray Savage earned All-America honors at defensive end/outside linebacker in 1989 as a member of one of the most successful teams in Cavalier football history. Led by Savage's brilliant defensive play, the 1989 Cavaliers rolled up a schoolrecord 10 victories, earned a share of Virginia's first-ever ACC championship and met Illinois in the 1990 Florida Citrus Bowl. Savage finished the 1989 season with 91 tackles, including 49 solo stops and one quarterback sack. He finished his outstanding career ranked fourth among UVA's all-time leading tacklers with 302 total

Tom Scott

1952 – AP, NEA

Tom Scott was UVA's first two-sport All-American (in football and lacrosse). He was a standout twoway end on the Cavalier football team, leading UVA to a superb three-year record of 24-5 from 1950-52. Virginia finished the 1951 season with an 8-1 record and ranked 13th nationally in The Associated Press' final Top-20 poll. As a senior in 1952, Scott helped lead Virginia to an 8-2 record and was selected an All-American. He also was a member of Virginia's National Champion lacrosse team in 1952 and was an All-America defenseman in 1953.

Chris Slade

1992 - AP, UPI, FN, SN, FWAA, WCFF 1991 - CPFN

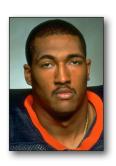

Chris Slade was the first UVA player to earn firstteam All-America honors for two seasons (1991 and 1992). He set Virginia and ACC career records for quarterback sacks with 40, including 31 unassisted. A team captain in 1992, Slade was named Defensive Player of the Year in 1992 by Football News and was a first-team All-America selection in both 1991 and 1992 Slade was named Defensive MVP of the 1990 Florida Citrus Bowl after posting a game-high 11 tackles. Slade finished fifth on UVA's list for career tackles with 299.

John St. Clair 1999 - CNNSI, CFN

John St. Clair became the first center in school history to win first-team All-America distinction in 1999. He and OG/T Noel LaMontagne are the first two UVA offensive linemen to win first-team All-America honors in the same season. St. Clair also received the 1999 Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the ACC. His play was instrumental in clearing the way for consensus All-America tailback Thomas Jones, who rushed for an ACC-record 1,798 yards. St. Clair also started at center in 1998, helping UVA lead the ACC in rushing offense (213.1 yards per game).

ACADEMIC HONORS

National Football Foundation Scholar-Athletes

In 1959. The National Football Foundation unveiled its National Scholar-Athlete program. The Foundation's National Scholar-Athlete Awards program consists of graduate fellowships that are awarded on an annual basis to a select group of college football players in their senior year of eligibility who have demonstrated outstanding academic success, exemplary community leadership and superior football performance. Every fall, The National Football Foundation's Awards Committee selects approximately 15 scholar-athletes from across the country for these prestigious fellowships that can be used for postgraduate stud-

The William V. Campbell Trophy

Named in the honor of William V. Campbell, a business executive and former player, captain and head coach at Columbia University, the trophy has become the most prestigious and desirable "academic" award in college football. The trophy, often referred to as the "Academic Heisman," recognizes an individual as the absolute best in the country for his academic success, football performance and exemplary community leadership. UVA is one of five schools with multiple Campbell Trophy winners, joining Florida (3), Ohio State (2), Tennessee (2) and Texas (2).

Bill Dudley, halfback, inducted Dec. 6, 1966 Earle "Greasy" Neale, head coach, inducted Sept. 13, 1969 Henry Jordan, defensive tackle, inducted July 29, 1995

Henry Jordan was a three-sport athlete at Virginia (football, wrestling and track & field). Selected by the Cleveland Browns in the fifth round of the 1957 NFL Draft, Jordan was traded to the Green Bay Packers in 1959. He spent the next 11 years with the Packers, playing at right defensive tackle on some of the greatest teams in pro football history. Jordan's arrival in Green Bay coincided with that of legendary coach Vince Lombardi, who led the Packers to five NFL titles. Jordan was named All-NFL in five consecutive seasons (1960-1964) and in 1967. A four-time Pro-Bowl selection, he was named Most Valuable Lineman in the 1962 Pro Bowl. Jordan died of a heart attack in 1977 at age 42. He was posthumously inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame on July 29, 1995, in Canton, Ohio.

Chris Long was the second overall draft selection by the St. Louis Rams in 2008 - Bill Dudley, drafted No. 1 overall in 1942, is the only Cavalier to be drafted higher.

Entering its 89th season as the home for Virginia football, the Carl Smith Center, home of David A. Harrison III Field at Scott Stadium, with its unique architectural design, scenic setting on the University's Grounds and exceptional sight lines, is one of the nation's finest college football settings.

Opened in 1931, Scott Stadium might be one of the oldest campus college football stadiums in the nation, but you could never tell from its appearance. Numerous upgrades and expansions over the decade fine it a modern home for the Cavaliers and their fans.

Scott Stadium was the gift of Frederic William Scott and Elisabeth Strother Scott, and was dedicated to the memory of his parents, Frederic Robert Scott and Frances Branch Scott.

Virginia played its dedication game at Scott Stadium on Oct. 15, 1931 against the Virginia Military Institute before a then-capacity crowd of 22,000. Prior to that season, the Cavaliers staged their home games at the University's Lambeth Field.

Since George Welsh's 1987 squad went a perfect 5-0 at home,

Scott Stadium has provided Virginia's team a decided advantage. Over the past 32 seasons UVA's home record stands at 136-65.

Virginia has played 470 games in the historic venue; Duke's visit in 2015 marked the 450th game in the facility. UVA's all-time record at Scott Stadium stands at 265-193-12.

Here are some of the significant changes and moments that have happened at Scott Stadium over the last 40 years:

- 1974 New aluminum seating is installed along with an Astroturf playing surface. The facility's brickwork is restored.
- 1980 The stadium's upper decks open adding 12,000 additional seats. A new press box—named in memory of longtime UVA athletic director Captain Norton Pritchett—and a President's box are also constructed.

- Oct. 9, 1982 Using portable lights, UVA plays its first night game at Scott Stadium against defending national champion Clemson.
- 1983 A permanent lighting system is installed before the start of the season.
- 1985 Bryant Hall, a dining and locker room facility located in the south end zone of the stadium, opens. The building is named in honor of J.C. Herbert Bryant, a 1932 Virginia graduate and one of the principal benefactors of the structure.
- Nov. 3, 1990 A stadium-record crowd of 49,700 attends as No. 1 Virginia faces No. 16 Georgia Tech in a nationally televised game. The Yellow Jackets win 41-38.

• Sept. 2, 1995 – Virginia dedicates its new natural grass playing field - David A. Harrison III Field – at the first home game of the season against William & Mary.

The field is named after David A. Harrison III of Hopewell, Va.,

• Nov. 2, 1995—Virginia hosts Florida State in the first-ever Thursday night game in Charlottesville. Playing in front of a sell-out crowd and a national television audience, the Cavaliers defeat the second-ranked Seminoles 33-28. Florida State becomes the highestranked team to ever fall to the Cavaliers.

• June 14, 1997 – Representing the largest single monetary gift in school history at that time, UVA alumnus and former Cavalier football player Carl W. Smith pledges $25 million to his alma mater. The University announces that the bulk of Smith's gift—$23 million—will be used toward funding the expansion and enhancement of Scott Stadium, ultimately increasing its seating capacity to 61,500 by the year 2000.

• 1998 – Located in the north end of the stadium, the 'Hoo Vision videoboard debuts for the Sept. 12 Maryland game. In conjunction with this project, the north end hillside seating area is moved 30 feet closer to the playing field 1999 – The lower level of the south bowl, including new locker rooms, is finished before the home opener vs. Wake Forest on Sept. 18.

Sept. 2. The final phase of the stadium renovation project includes the completion of the new Bryant Hall at the Carl Smith Center.

• 2001 – A crowd of 61,625 attends the home game vs. Virginia Tech, the largest attendance for a football game in Virginia state history at the time.

 2003 – Video display panels, called "ribbon boards," are installed below the upper decks on the east and west sides of the stadium.

• 2005 – The legendary rock band The Rolling Stones perform before a sold out crowd on Oct. 6.

• 2008 - A record-setting crowd of 64,947 attends the season opener vs. Southern California.

• 2009 – A new 32-foot by 57-foot videoboard replaces the existing 21foot by 28-foot screen.

• 2009 – Rock band U2 brought its famous 360° Tour to a packed Scott Stadium on Oct. 1.

 2015 – New "ribbon board" LED displays were installed and run along the fascia between the upper and lower levels completely around the stadium's horseshoe.

Built in stages from 1901-1913, Lambeth Field served as the Cavaliers' home until the construction of Scott Stadium in 1931. Named for Dr. William A. Lambeth, often called "the father of athletics" at UVA, Lambeth Field was also the home of the university's successful track and baseball teams until the early 1970s.

Completion of the stadium in 1913 provided grandstand seating for 8000 people at a cost of $35,000. Student season tickets cost $7.50 that season, while alumni tickets were $9.50. The dedication game against Vanderbilt in November 1913 saw the Cavaliers wallop the Commodores 34-0 in a game called "the football classic of the South."

GEORGEWELSH

Indoor Football Practice Facility

Officially opened during Spring 2013, the George Welsh Indoor Practice Facility gives Virginia Football one of the finest indoor facilities on the East Coast.

The 78,000 square-foot facility features a full-sized football field (120 yards long). It will has a clearance of 65 feet to its arched ceiling. A viewing platform is available for coaching and videotaping of practices.

The George Welsh Indoor Practice Facility was designed by VMDO Architects of Charlottesville, in association with Knight Architects from Atlanta.

"Anyone that has followed the development of our football program in the last 30 years knows that George Welsh is the person that consistently brought high levels of achievement on the football field at the University of Virginia," Virginia Athletics Director Craig Littlepage said. "Coach Welsh had great teams, great players, and great coaching staffs during his 19 years as our head coach. Through naming the new indoor practice facility in George Welsh's honor, we recognize the impact he and those he coached have had on our program and the University as a whole."

"At first I was surprised and didn't believe it," Welsh said.
"This is a singular honor and I feel very humble about it. I had a lot of help, between the great staff people I had and the great players I had for 19 years. It is also a tribute to those people.

"I think the indoor facility is going to help the football program. When I first heard we were going to build an indoor facility, I started thinking about the late 80s when we finally got enough money together to start the McCue Center here. For us to stay current at that time we had to have a building like that. Listening to the coaches today, the indoor facility is the big thing you have to have. I feel very honored to be associated with this."

Welsh coached the Cavaliers for 19 years from 1982 to 2000. During that span he recorded a 134-86-3 record to become the winningest coach in UVA history. In nine years at Navy he produced a 55-46-1 record for a career mark of 189-132-4 in 28 seasons. Welsh was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2004.

When Welsh took over the Virginia program in 1982, the Cavaliers had managed just two winning seasons, won only 33 conference games over the previous 29 seasons and had never been to a bowl game. Welsh reversed that trend quickly. After finishing 2-9 in his first season in Charlottesville, the team posted a 6-5 mark in 1983. The following season the Cavaliers posted an 8-2-2 record, placed second in the ACC and won the Peach Bowl.

Starting in 1987, Virginia compiled a conference record streak of 13 consecutive seasons with at least seven victories. The Cavaliers shared the ACC crown in 1989 and in 1995 and made 11 more bowl appearances.

Welsh's 1989 squad won a schoolrecord 10 games and in 1990 the Cavaliers were ranked No. 1 in both major media polls for the first time in the program's history. In 1995 the Cavaliers defeated Florida State to hand the Seminoles their first-ever ACC defeat.

Welsh was named the ACC Coach of the Year four times -1983, 1984, 1991 and 1995. He retired as the winningest coach in conference history with 134 victories. His career win total of 189 was the 24th most in Division I history at the time of his retirement.

ADMINISTRATION

JAMES E. RYAN University President

James E. Ryan serves as the ninth president of the University of Virginia. A leading expert on law and education, Ryan has written extensively about the ways in which law structures educational opportunity. His articles and essays address such topics as school desegregation, school finance, school choice, standards and testing, pre-K, and the intersection of special education and neuroscience. Ryan is also the coauthor of the textbook "Educational Policy and the Law" and the author of "Five Miles Away, A World Apart," which was published in 2010 by Oxford University Press. Ryan's most recent book, "Wait, What? And Life's Other Essential Ouestions," based on his popular 2016 commencement speech, was published in 2017 by HarperOne and is a New York Times bestseller. In addition, Ryan has authored articles on constitutional law and theory and has argued before the United States Supreme Court.

Before coming to UVA, Ryan served as dean of the Harvard Graduate School of Education. In this role, Ryan increased the size, strength, and diversity of the faculty through new hires and promotions. He established the Harvard Teacher Fellows program, an innovative teacher training program for Harvard College seniors and recent alumni, and began a school-wide effort to reimagine its master's degree programs. Ryan oversaw an expansion of professional education, including the creation of two new online certificate programs, and launched Usable Knowledge, an online resource designed to broadly disseminate actionable research findings in education. He and colleagues also embarked on an ongoing effort entitled "Fulfilling" the Promise of Diversity," intended to prepare students for careers working in diverse environments, and resulting in new courses, prominent speakers, and teaching workshops related to diversity and inclusion. Under his leadership, the school surpassed its campaign goal of $250 million more than a year ahead of schedule, and raised the largest gift in the school's history, a $35.5 million gift to establish the Zaentz Early Education Initiative.

Before his deanship, Ryan was the Matheson & Morgenthau Distinguished Professor at the University of Virginia School of Law. He also served as academic associate dean from 2005 to 2009 and founded and directed the school's Program in Law and Public Service. While at Virginia, Ryan received an All-University Teaching Award, an Outstanding Faculty Award from the State Council of Higher Education for Virginia, and several awards for his scholarship. Ryan has been a visiting professor at Harvard, Yale, and the University of Auckland. He has also served on numerous education boards and commissions, including the U.S. Department of Education's Equity and Excellence Commission and the board of the Maya Angelou Public Charter School in Washington, D.C.

Ryan received his AB summa cum laude from Yale University and his JD from the University of Virginia, which he attended on a full scholarship and from which he graduated first in his class. After law school, Ryan clerked for William H. Rehnquist, the late Chief Justice of the United States, and then worked in Newark, N.J., as a public interest lawyer before entering into teaching. Ryan and his wife, Katie, who is also an alum of the UVA School of Law, have four children.

CARLA WILLIAMS Director of Athletics

In the short time since Carla Williams was named Virginia's director of athletics in October of 2017, she has made an impact on the Cavaliers athletics landscape. Quite literally.

With a background as a studentathlete, coach and administrator, Williams' approach to leading Virginia is forward thinking. Her focus is on providing opportunities for student-athletes to maximize their college experience while establishing a culture and support system for the sport programs to compete for championships. Above all, her commitment to academic excellence is unwavering. Williams wants student-athletes at UVA to grow, prosper and prepare themselves for their futures away from athletic competitions. To ensure that approach becomes a reality, she announced The Master Plan project in 2018 that will set the course for generations of future Hoos.

The $180 million Master Plan addresses the immediate needs to upgrade facilities for the Cavalier football program and UVA Olympic Sports. Administrative buildings, sport performance centers and new playing surfaces will be the most visible phases of the project that also includes the demolition of University Hall.

The services and support areas encompassed within the project will have meaningful and lasting impacts on student-athletes in the form of leadership, ethics, stewardship, wellness and academic achievement.

It is a plan that is aggressive in scope, but one that Williams feels is needed to ensure UVA's place among the nation's leading athletics departments. The end result will provide student-athletes an unsurpassed experience in terms of personal development.

During her short tenure as UVA's athletics director, Williams has witnessed a revival of the Cavalier football program and a history-making performance by the men's basketball team. Under coach Bronco Mendenhall, UVA's football program has gone to back-to-back bowl games for the first time in 14 seasons and the Cavaliers capped the 2018 campaign with a shutout performance against South Carolina to win the Belk Bowl.

The Virginia men's basketball team won the program's first NCAA Championship in 2019, finishing the tournament with a run of three dramatic come-from-behind victories to cap an epic storyline after UVA exited the championship a year earlier as the first No. 1 seed to lose to a No. 16 seed.

The Cavalier men's lacrosse team captured its eighth national title in 2019 and helped UVA to an eighth-place finish in the Directors' Cup. Virginia also claimed the Capitol One Cup for men's sports in 2019, the second time it won the award since 2015.

In the classroom, UVA student-athletes have set record numbers for placement on the ACC Honor Roll, achieved highest grade point average totals in program history and been recognized by the NCAA for outstanding achievement on academic progress reports.

Williams' appointment at Virginia made her the first female African-American athletics director at a Power Five conference institution. At the time, she was the fifth active female athletics director at that level.

Prior to Virginia, Williams served as an athletics administrator at the University of Georgia for 13 years and was named deputy director of athletics in 2015. During Williams' tenure as an administrator at Georgia, its athletics teams won 16 NCAA team championships and 37 Southeastern Conference titles.

In her role as deputy director of athletics at Georgia, Williams was responsible for the day-to-day operations of the department and its $127 million budget. She served as administrator for the Bulldogs' football and Lady Bulldogs' women's basketball programs and also had supervisory responsibility for academic support services, business operations, compliance, event management, external operations, facilities and new construction, human resources, sports facilitators (21 sports and 15 head coaches), sports medicine, strength and conditioning, student services and ticketing. She helped to oversee $162 million in facility additions, upgrades and improvements for the UGA athletics program.

Williams served as the Georgia Athletic Association's liaison to the president's office, provost's office, general counsel, equal opportunity office and student affairs. She also served as the athletics department's deputy Title IX officer.

Williams has the unique background of competing, coaching and administering at the highest levels of intercollegiate athletics. She was an All-SEC guard on the basketball court, then helped recruit and coach some of the greatest teams in Georgia's history before moving on to become one of the highest-ranking female administrators in Division Lathletics.

Williams began her administrative career at Georgia in 2004. She served as associate athletic director (2004-2008), senior associate athletic director (2008-2011) and executive associate athletic director (2011-2015) before being promoted to deputy director of athletics.

Prior to joining the Bulldogs' staff, Williams was an assistant director of athletics at Vanderbilt (2000-03) and an associate director of athletics (2003-04). She oversaw 11 men's and women's sports as well as the Commodores' CHAMPS/Life Skills program. From 1997-1998, Williams was coordinator for student-athlete development and life skills at Florida State. While completing her Ph.D. in sport administration, Williams was also a graduate assistant for athletic academic support from 1998-2000.

Over the course of her career in intercollegiate athletics, Williams has administrative experience with each varsity sport sponsored by Virginia with the exceptions of field hockey, rowing, squash and wrestlina.

Williams was instrumental in Georgia's programming to enhance the lives of its student-athletes and prepare them for a life beyond athletics, including its comprehensive "The Georgia Way" program. She also helped build ties for Bulldog alumni, including the creation of UGA's NFL alumni development program. Her involvement at Georgia included serving as a member of the student-athlete conduct committee and student wellness committee. She was involved in general campus affairs which included serving on the University's Terry College of Business board of directors and being active in numerous campus personnel search committees.

NCAA and national organization committee membership are a big part of Williams' resume. She served on the executive committee (2010-2014) for the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics. She was a member of the Southeastern Conference's executive committee (2009-2011), participated on the NCAA women's basketball issues committee (2010-2014) and was an executive board member of the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletic Administrators (2007-2009).

A native of LaGrange, Ga., Williams was a three-year starter for the Lady Bulldogs from 1987-89. She finished her career with 1,115 points, 425 assists and 285 steals. Those tallies ranked No. 10, No. 2 and No. 3 among Georgia's career leaders at the completion of her career.

Williams was then an assistant coach on hall of fame coach Andy Landers' staff from 1991-96, including teams which reached the 1995 and 1996 Final Fours, finished as NCAA runner-up in 1996 and won the 1991 and 1996 SEC Championships. Following the 1995-96 season, Williams moved into administration and served as UGA's assistant director of compliance from 1996-97 before continuing her ascent up the administrative ranks at Florida State, Vanderbilt and Georgia.

Williams was an active member in her community, local schools and church and was on the board of directors for the Athens Area Community Foundation and LLL Community Group. She has served as a committee member for Oconee County School System projects and been involved in the Athens Clarke County Mentor Program.

In May 2015, Williams was recognized by the Girl Scouts of Historic Georgia as the Athens Woman of Distinction. That same year she was named one of the top-10 senior woman administrators in the NCAA by the website CollegeAD.org.

Williams and her husband Brian, who holds the title of associate professor of public policy at UVA's Frank Batten School of Leadership and Public Policy, have three children: daughters, Carmen and Camryn, and a son, Joshua.

SENIOR STAFF

Deputy Athletics Director for Administration

Jim Booz joined the Virginia athletics department as deputy athletics director in December of 2017. He was the first senior staff appointment by new athletics director Carla Williams. He had previously worked with Williams at the University of Georgia and had previously worked in the athletics department at Virginia.

Before his return to UVA, Booz was a senior administrator on Georgia's athletics staff since 2011, most recently serving as an executive associate athletic director. He joined the Bulldogs athletics staff as a senior associate director of athletics and was promoted to executive associate director of athletics in July of 2016. He was directly responsible for the oversight and long-range planning of the sports medicine and compliance units and leading a team of six sport administrators.

He served as the sport administrator for multiple nationally-ranked sport teams including UGA's gymnastics and track and field and cross country programs. Additionally, Booz assisted with the day-to-day supervision of football. He was a member of Georgia's senior council and led the department's comprehensive action plan committee.

In his previous service at Virginia, Booz was as associate director of athletics for academic affairs (2007-11) and associate athletic director for compliance (2004-07).

He was responsible for oversight and long-range planning in the academic affairs area, hiring and training staff, evaluating the program and designing its content, developing and implementing policy, and developing and managing the budget. He participated in the Athletic Directors' Institute sponsored by the Division I-A Athletic Directors' Association in July of 2006.

He was involved in numerous institutional and national programs and committees at Virginia including the UVA Presidential Leadership Program, UVA Student Information Core Advisory Committee, National Association of Athletic Academic

Advisors Strategic Planning Committee, NCAA Peer Review Team member, and was a Division 1-A Athletics Directors Institute partici-

Prior to joining the Virginia staff, Booz served as assistant athletics director for compliance at Vanderbilt from 2000-2004. He had originally joined the Vanderbilt staff in 1995 as an academic counselor before being named director of eligibility and summer programs in 1998.

Booz received his undergraduate degree in physical education and sport management from Tennessee at Martin (1995) and master's degree in higher education administration from Middle Tennessee State (1998).

He and his wife, Christine, have three children -- Claire, Maggie and Frances.

TED WHITE Deputy Athletics Director In July of 2018 Ted White was named deputy athletics director. White joined the Georgia athletics staff in 2006 as the director of the Rankin Smith Sr. Academic Center for Student-Athletes and was promoted to associate athletic director in 2009. White was elevated to Georgia's senior staff in 2011, serving as senior associate athletic director. He was responsible for the oversight of the academic support services and student development programming for over 620 student-athletes.

White served as executive associate athletic director at UGA from 2016-17 before being promoted to deputy athletic director in January of 2018. In addition to student development programming, White was responsible for the oversight of sports medicine, nutrition and student wellness for the past three years at UGA. He has been the sport administrator for the baseball and equestrian programs since 2011.

White arrived at Georgia after serving three years as director of the Academic Center for Student-Athletes at LSU from 2003-06.

Prior to his tenure at LSU, White held positions as a management team member and director of academic support at the University of California, Berkeley (1997-2001), and coordinator of academics and eligibility at the University of California, Davis (1994-97).

White earned a bachelor of arts degree in communication from the University of California, San Diego (1992), where he was a member of the baseball team, and master's degree in sport management from the University of Richmond (1998).

He is married to Carrie Leger White and is the father of two children, Jack and Sophie.

BRITTNEY WHITESIDE Executive Associate Athletics Director

Brittney Whiteside joined the Virginia athletics department in July of 2019 as executive associate athletics director. Her responsibilities include oversight of external operations, strategic planning, Title IX and Gender Equity. She supervises men's lacrosse, women's soccer and women's basketball.

Prior to UVA, Whiteside was an athletics administrator at Appalachian State, serving as senior associate athletics director and senior woman administrator at the end of her tenure..

At Appalachian State, Whiteside was a member of the department's executive leadership team and worked closely with director of athletics Doug Gillin on management of the department's day-to-day operations. She had oversight of external operations units for marketing, ticketing, licensing and sponsorships, as well the student-athlete support areas of student-athlete leadership and development. She also served as the department's liaison to the University's chancellor's office for athletics.

The sport administrator for women's basketball, men's and women's tennis, men's soccer and men's and women's track and field/ cross country, Whiteside also helped oversee the Mountaineers' successful transition to the FBS level of football. The Mountaineers became the first team to win bowl games in the first four consecutive years after making such a transition. They claimed trophies at the 2015 and 2016 Camellia

Bowl, 2017 Dollar General Bowl and 2018 New Orleans Bowl and were most recently crowned champions of the 2018 inaugural Sun Belt Championship game.

Prior to overseeing the external units, Whiteside oversaw the studentathlete support areas of sports medicine, strength and conditioning and leadership and development. She created the Mountaineer R.I.S.E program, which is a comprehensive life skills and leadership development program that aims to develop, support and prepare student-athletes for life after athletics.

Whiteside was instrumental in implementing a comprehensive care model for student-athlete health and well-being by hiring the department's first sports dietitian, mental performance coach and sports psychologist, while transitioning the department to a medical model of care.

Whiteside came to Appalachian State from Missouri, where she served as director of external engagement with a primary focus on overseeing and coordinating all facets of the athletics premium seating program at all of Mizzou's athletics facilities. She also assisted with the development of community outreach programs and created new customer service initiatives to enhance football and basketball game day experienc-

Prior to her time at Missouri, Whiteside was a special assistant to the athletics director at her alma mater, Wright State. In that role, she worked in a variety of areas across the athletics department, including assisting in all daily internal and external operations, overseeing special projects and fundraising events, assisting with capital projects and analytical research and overseeing and administering student-athlete development and community involvement initiatives. She also designed and oversaw Wright State's student-athlete advisory committee and CHAMPS/Life Skills program, including facilitating community partners to sponsor the program.

Whiteside was a women's basketball student-athlete at Wright State from 2003-07. She was a four-time Horizon League all-conference and all-defensive team performer and finished her career ranked second on the Raiders' all-time scoring list. She was also named a strength and conditioning All-American in 2007 and Wright State's Female Athlete of the Year for 2006-07.

She went on to play professionally in Germany, spending four years as a point guard for the USC Freiburg, SV Halle Lions and TSV Amicitia basketball clubs before returning to the United States to begin her career in athletics administration.

A dean's list student throughout her academic career at Wright State, Whiteside graduated with a degree in psychology in 2007. She went on to earn a master's degree in rehabilitation counseling from Wright State in 2012.

STEVE PRITZKER Executive Associate Athletics Director/CFO

Steve Pritzker is in his first year as the executive associate athletics director for business operations and remains the chief financial officer (CFO) for the University of Virginia athletics department. Previously, Pritzker was a senior associate athletics director and associate athletics director from 2013-19.

In addition to supervising the business office, John Paul Jones arena, information technology and the equipment room, Pritzker supervises Women's Rowing, Men's Soccer, Wrestling and Women's Lacrosse. Pritzker serves as the department's primary liaison to the University's audit, budget, financial administration and procurement offices.

Pritzker returned to Virginia in 2013 after serving as the head rowing coach at lowa. He spent the previous nine years as a member of Virginia's coaching staff, from 2004 to 2012. After volunteering with the rowing team during the 2004 season, while earning his master's degree in business administration, Pritzker assumed full-time coaching responsibilities in the fall of 2005. In 2007 he was promoted to associate head coach. While at Virginia, Pritzker helped guide the Cavaliers to NCAA team championships in 2010 and 2012, along with runner-up finishes in 2005 and 2007. He also coached the Varsity 4 to four individual National Championships, as well as three National runner-up finishes. Virginia won eight ACC titles in his nine seasons.

While working with the Cavaliers' rowing program, Pritzker supported the Athletic Department on finance and budgeting matters, including forecasting and achieving financial efficiencies. He worked directly with different units within the athletics department on budget management. Pritzker's business background includes a two-year stint with Credit Suisse First Boston in New York City as a research sales analyst, and two years with Kingdon Capital Management.

A native of Alexandria, Va., Pritzker graduated from Yale and received his master's degree from UVA's Darden Graduate School of Business in 2005. He was selected as a Schwartz Research Fellow at Yale, while earning four varsity letters as a coxswain on the rowing team. While a graduate student, Pritzker was selected as a resident for the Range in the historical Academical Village at UVA on the basis of his academic achievement and service to the University.

NANCY RIVERS Senior Associate Athletics Director & Chief of Staff

Nancy Rivers joined the Virginia athletics department in 2018 as senior associate athletics director and chief of staff. She oversees facility management, game operations and human resources. Rivers has worked at the University for the past 29 years. For the past 12 years, she served as chief of staff for the president and associate vice president for administration.

Prior to working in the president's office, Rivers served as UVA's director of state governmental relations and assistant vice president. She joined the University as an associate direc-
