Head Coach

BOWEN SARGENT

Every season Bowen Sargent spends as the head coach of the Virginia men's golf team, the program's list of accomplishments grows at a rapidly accelerating pace.

In his eight seasons at Virginia, Sargent has seen the Cavaliers make a steady climb to the top of the college game.

The results prove that out.

The Cavaliers have won 10 tournament titles during his tenure, 12 times players have captured medalist honors at tournaments and UVa has become a consistent participant at the NCAA Championships.

Last season he saw Ben Rusch become the first Cavalier to win the ACC championship since 1955, witnessed freshman Denny McCarthy be named the ACC Freshman of the Year and saw senior Ben Kohles crush the program's all-time tournament scoring record. The team won the VCU shootout and placed second in five other tournaments including the ACC Championships.

The Cavaliers advanced to the NCAA Championships where they placed 22nd at Riviera Country Club. In the summer of 2012, All-American Ben Kohles drew the attention of the golf world when he won his first two professional tournaments on the Web.com tour and earned his PGA Tour card.

In 2011 Virginia won three tournaments, was the runner-up in two other events and participated in the NCAA East Regional. Kohles repeated as the ACC player of the year.

In 2010 UVa made its third consecutive appearance at the NCAA Championships, one of just 12 teams in the 30-squad field to accomplish that achievement.

Virginia tied for 11th overall, just one stroke out of a playoff for the final berth in the event's match play segment. The finish matched the best ever for a UVa squad at the national championships and was the best since regional qualifying has been used to determine the championship field.

During the 2009-10 campaign Virginia placed in the top five in 11 of 13 tournaments and capped its impressive season by being ranked No. 12 in the final Golfstat poll.

UVa was second at the ACC Championships, the team's best showing since 1996, won the Cavalier Classic and saw sophomore Ben Kohles named the ACC's co-player of the year. Kohles was later recognized as the sixth All-American in the program's history.

Sargent's achievements were recognized by his conference peers when they voted him the 2010 ACC Coach of the Year. The honor was a well deserved addition to the resume of the former collegiate All-American, All-ACC selection, professional golfer and national assistant coach of the year.

During the 2008-09 season Sargent's team used a strong showing in the spring to move on to postseason play. The Cavaliers won the Argonaut Invitational and placed second at both the Seminole Invitational and the Hootie @ Bulls Bay tournament. Seeded ninth in the 14-team field at the NCAA East Regional, the Cavaliers cruised to a fourth-place finish, earning their second straight trip to the NCAA Championships, placing 27th.

For his efforts, Sargent was recognized for the second consecutive year as the state of Virginia's Golf Coach of the Year by his peers in the Commonwealth.

Sargent earned the honor a year earlier when the Cavaliers pulled off stunning rally at the 2008 NCAA East Regional Championships to return to the NAAs for the first time under his watch.

When Sargent was named UVa's head coach Aug. 31, 2004, he became the eighth person to direct the program in the last 30 years. It did not take him long to make his impact on the program.

In Sargent's first year at UVa, the Cavaliers qualified for the NCAA East Regional and placed 12th, just three shots from advancing to the NCAA Championships.

That first season under Sargent UVa recorded nine top-10 finishes and placed fifth at the ACC Championship.

In 2006 the Cavaliers experienced some growing pains, failing to make a return trip to the NCAAs. Virginia picked up its first win under Sargent when the Cavaliers won the Mason Rudolph Intercollegiate. Senior Brad Tilley ended the year on a high note by taking medalist honors at the Cavalier Classic thanks to a dramatic six-hole playoff victory.

In 2007, Sargent saw sophomore Conrad Von Borsig earn All-ACC honors and the team finish the season on a positive note by winning the Cavalier Classic by a whopping 24 strokes.

In addition to returning to the NCAAs for the first time since 2000, the Cavaliers won the Palmas Del Mar Collegiate in Puerto Rico and the Cavalier Classic for the sixth time in the program's history. The team saved its best performance for the NCAA East Regional when it made up a nine-stroke deficit and jumped from 16th to 10th on the final day of the tournament to grab the final berth to the NCAAs where UVa finished 26th.

Sargent took over the Cavalier program after working as an assistant coach at Tennessee for three seasons. He was intimately involved with the daily operations and recruiting efforts of the Volunteer program. In 2004, his last season at UT, Sargent became the second recipient of the Jan Strickland National Assistant Coach of the Year Award. Presented by the Golf Coaches Association of America, the award is given annually to the assistant coach who, among other things, has excelled in working with their student-athletes both on the course and in the classroom. That season he helped the Volunteers to three tournament wins and a No. 12 final national ranking.

Prior to coaching at Tennessee, Sargent was a professional golfer for nine years from 1992 to 2000. He is credited with eight professional victories. He has since regained his amateur status and annually competes in several area events.

Sargent's first coaching opportunity came at Vanderbilt when he worked as a volunteer assistant for the 1993-94 season.

A 1992 graduate of NC State, where he earned a bachelor's degree in communications, Sargent was a two-time honorable mention All-American. He received the honor in 1988 after his freshman year and in 1991 when he was a junior. He received All-ACC honors in 1990 and 1991.

The Wolfpack team captain in 1991, Sargent helped NC State to a 14th-place finish at the NCAA Championships that season. The team also placed 14th during his junior campaign. He played at the

Assistant Coach

JOHN SCOTT RATTAN

John Scott Rattan comes to Virginia after spending the past year as an assistant coach at Maryland working for director of intercollegiate golf Jason Rodenhaver. Rattan was the assistant coach responsible for working with the Terrapins men's golf program.

Prior to his coaching assignment at Maryland, Rattan worked as a coach at the Core Golf Academy in Orlando, Fla. There he worked with the high school and postgraduate programs in teaching all aspects of the game.

Prior to that, he was a coach at the Gary Gilchrist Golf Academy in Howey-in-the-Hills, Fla., assisting junior golfers. He also worked as an assistant pro at Columbia Country Club in Chevy Chase, Md., where he taught players of all ability levels and ages.

From 2005 to 2010, Rattan played professionally on the NGA Hooters Tour. He was as high as 54th on the money list in 2007. Rattan played in an event on the Nationwide Tour in 2008 and advanced through the first stage of the PGA Tour School in both 2005 and 2007. He twice advanced through local qualifying for the U.S. Open in 2008 and 2010.

Rattan played collegiately at Tennessee, where he was a second team All-Southeastern Conference selection in 2003-04. He also was a SEC All-Academic selection in those seasons. While with the Volunteers, he played in two U.S. Amateur Championships and in two NCAA Championships.

Rattan earned a bachelor's degree in psychology from Tennessee in 2005.

A graduate of Watkins Mill (Md.) High School, Rattan was The Washington Post All-Met Golfer of the Year in 2000 and was a four-time all-county selection. As a senior, he won the Maryland State High School Tournament.

Volunteer Assistant Coach

DR. BOB ROTELLA

Rory McIlroy, Padraig Harrington and Darren Clarke all have something in common in addition to their victories in Majors. They are all clients of Dr. Bob Rotella, who works with the Virginia golf programs as a volunteer assistant coach.

Internationally known for his work in the area of applied sports psychology, Dr. Rotella is consistently recognized as the Top Sports Psychologist in the world.

Harrington thought so much of “Dr. Bob” that as a show of appreciation he gave him one of the British Open trophies – the Claret Jug – from his back-to-back wins in 2007 and 2008.

Rotella, who resides in Keswick, meets with the Cavalier players on a regular basis to assist with their mental approach to the game. His work with many of the world’s best players provides a tremendous resource of information and knowledge for UVa’s aspiring student-athletes.

Rotella’s book, “Golf Is Not a Game of Perfect” is the best selling sport psychology book of all time and one of the three best selling golf books in history.

In 2012 he published his most recent book “The Unstoppable Golfer.” It focuses on the short game--the putts, chips, pitches and bunker shots that have such a major impact on a player’s score.

“Many golf programs have outstanding resources but none more valuable than Dr. Bob Rotella,” said Virginia coach Bowen Sargent. “Confidence plays such an important role in our sport. Having the world’s foremost authority in golf psychology assisting our team is invaluable. We are very fortunate to work with Dr. Rotella as he has a genuine passion for the University of Virginia and, obviously, golf. When asked to be our assistant Doc was excited to offer his support as we build a nationally recognized program, and for that we are truly grateful.”

Since 1984 Dr. Bob Rotella has coached the winners of more than 70 major championships in men’s, women’s and senior professional golf. In 2011, he helped Darren Clarke win the British Open and Keegan Bradley win the PGA Championship. Dr. Bob Rotella also works with winners in tennis, baseball, basketball and other sports. Anyone whose work or play involves mental challenges can benefit from his proven wisdom – from performers to business leaders.

He currently serves on the editorial board of Golf Digest and is a columnist for that publication. He is the past president of the North American Association for Applied Sports Psychology and a contributing editor for the Sport Psychology Journal.

He has worked as a consultant for personnel for the NBA, NFL, Major League Baseball, Nascar, PGA Tour, LPGA Tour, Senior Tour, U.S. Olympic Ski Team and the U.S. Olympic Equestrian Team.

He has served as a corporate consultant at companies including Merrill Lynch, General Electric, Ford, Tim Life, Coca Cola, Chrysler, Newsweek, Pepsi-Cola, Taco Bell and Pizza Hut.

The list of professional golfers he has consulted is exhaustive. It includes players such as Davis Love, III, Brad Faxon, Nick Price, Paul Azinger, Trevor Immelman, Billy Mayfair, Padraig Harrington, David Toms, Scott Verplank, Jeff Sluman, Fred Funk and Tom Kite.

In his more than two decades of service at the University of Virginia, Dr. Rotella was most recently Director of the Sports Psychology Department, one of the nation’s best programs for sports psychology.

NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP HISTORY

The legacy of Virginia golf in the annals of NCAA Championship history is nearly as old as the event itself. The NCAA began tournament play in 1939, and the University of Virginia's Dixon Brooke was crowned as its national champion the next year.

Brooke, a junior from Birmingham, Ala., was not even the number-one golfer on the Cavalier squad when he headed for the Ekwanok course in Manchester, Vt. Nevertheless, the 20-year-old overcame more experienced competitors in battling from five strokes back, taking the 36-hole match by one stroke over Harry Haverstick of Swarthmore. Brooke's dramatic comeback caused The New York Times to report: "Seldom has there been a greater demonstration of courage than the Virginia junior gave today."

Led by Brooke, the Virginia squad tied for 15th place in the 1940 team competition. In 1946, Virginia posted its best NCAA result, finishing 11th in an 18-team field.

Dixon Brooke's legacy lives on in an endowed scholarship established by his family. In addition, the Dixon Brooke Award is given annually to the Cavalier golfer who best demonstrates leadership, cooperative spirit and unselfish service.

Since the 1990s, the Virginia golf program has again risen to national prominence. The Cavaliers have reached the NCAA East Regional Tournament in 16 of the last 22 years. Virginia reached the NCAA Championships seven times during that span.

Virginia hosted the NCAA East Regional Tournament at Birdwood Golf Course.

In 1996, Lewis Chitengwa turned in Virginia's best NCAA Championship performance since Brooke's historic victory in 1940. Competing as an individual, Chitengwa finished seventh with a 293 in a talented field. His 68 in the third round was the day's low round and missed the course record by only one stroke.

In 2008, 2009 and 2010 the Cavaliers made three consecutive appearances at the NCAA Championships for the first time in school history. Virginia set several school records during the 2010 NCAA Champions where the Cavaliers finished 11th to equal the best showing in school history. Henry Smart tied The Honors Course record with a remarkable 6-under 66 during the final round to set a UVa single-round NCAA scoring records. The team shot 8-under 280 during the second round, the best single-round team score at the NAAs.

The 2012 UVa team placed 22nd at the NAAs.
