THE COACHES

• Last year, Paul Haynes became the first Kent State head coach to win his debut since 1988, the first to win his MAC road opener since 1986 and is one of only two KSU coaches (Glen Mason) to defeat both Miami and Ohio in his first year. He was a two-time all-conference defensive back at Kent State from 1987-91, despite joining as a walk-on. He returned to his alma mater as an assistant in 1999 and was promoted to assistant head coach in 2000. After seven seasons on an Ohio State staff that won six Big Ten titles (2005-11), Haynes spent the 2012 season as defensive coordinator at Arkansas.

• Mike London (Richmond '83) earned his fourth career win over a ranked opponent, when the Cavaliers topped Louisville 23-21 on Sept. 13. Now in his fifth season, London led Virginia to a bowl appearance in just his second year in 2011. In two seasons at Richmond, he led the Spiders to an FCS national title in 2008 and a semifinal appearance in 2009. A former Richmond police detective, London was as assistant coach at Virginia for six seasons and spent one season as the defensive line coach for the Houston Texans. A defensive back at Richmond, London was named Team MVP as a senior and signed as a free agent with the Dallas Cowboys.

YOUNG UP FRONT

An injury to senior right tackle Terrell Johnson gave redshirt freshman Brock Macaulay his first career start at Ohio State, making the average career games played of the five starting linemen 6.8. Sophomore starting center Alex Nielsen appeared in his first college game in the season opener. Junior left guard Jim Katusha also made his first appearance in Division I game to open the year. The only two linemen to enter the Ohio State game with more than two career games played were sophomores Reno Reda and Wayne Scott. True freshman Nathan Puthoff has also seen time in two games at guard and could get his first start at Virginia.

- Two years ago, the average games played for a Kent State offensive lineman heading into week three was 27.0.
- Last year, Reda, Scott and Johnson were a part of an offensive line that ranked in the nation's Top 20 in fewest sacks allowed.

MORE FIRST STARTS & DEBUTS

- True freshman Jon Cunningham has started all three games at nose tackle.
- Against South Alabama, redshirt freshman Kris White got his first start at wide receiver and sophomore Nick Holley got his first start at running back and redshirt freshman Demetrius Monday made his first career start at cornerback. True freshman Zach Singer made his college debut in the defensive line rotation.
- One week earlier, sophomore James Brooks made his first college appearance, starting at wide receiver, kick returner and punt returner.
- At Ohio State, freshman Eldin Anu got his first start at wide receiver
- True freshmen linebackers Matt Sommers and Marques Moore and cornerback Jerrel Foster along with redshirt freshman Dustin Moore have all seen valuable time on both defense and special teams. Freshman Miles Hibbler has seen time at running back in all three games.
- In 2013, six Golden Flashes played as true freshmen: Nate Holley, Nick Holley, Darius Redmond, Elcee Refuge, Wayne Scott and Terence Waugh. All six are playing larger roles in 2014.

RUSHING BATTLE IS KEY...

Since 2012, Kent State is 14-2 when outgaining opponents on the ground and 1-12 when the opposition runs for more yards. The Golden Flashes outgained their opponents by over 100 rushing yards in each of their four wins last season.

...AND A STRONG FIRST HALF

Since the beginning of 2012, Kent State is 13-0 when leading at halftime and 1-13 when trailing at the break.

TOP TARGETS

Sophomore slot receiver Ernest Calhoun's 11 catches against Ohio are the second most in a game by a MAC receiver this season and the most by a Kent State receiver since 2010.

Since last season, the duo of (seniors) Casey Pierce and Chris Humphrey has combined for 95 catches, 1,097 yards and 10 touchdowns.

- Pierce was one of 38 tight ends initially named to the John Mackey Award Preseason Watch List.

After making one catch in 2012, Pierce had a breakthrough season in 2013. He led the Flashes with five touchdown grabs and his 33 total catches were the most by a Kent State tight end since 1999. Last year, Pierce was among 53 nominees for the Burlsworth Trophy, given to the nation's best player that started his career as a walk-on.

- Prior to Ohio State, Humphrey made a catch in 22 straight games. His team-leading 51 catches last season, were the ninth most in a season by a Kent State receiver and his 613 receiving yards were the most by a KSU wideout since 2010. Humphrey needs 15 catches to crack Kent State's Top 10 in career grabs. He has shown continued improvement since he first arrived in Kent and played exclusively on special teams as a freshman.

THIRD DOWN CONVERSION

Ohio State's speed on offense proved to be a difference-maker on third down attempts. The Buckeyes went 8-for-12 on third down attempts, while Ohio and South Alabama combined to go 13-for-31.

GAME 4 AT VIRGINIA

PLAYING LIKE A VETERAN

Sophomore Nate Holley has been Kent State's leading tackler for the last five games, following 14 tackles at Ohio State. It was also the second time in three games Holley made 12 solo stops. He was named MAC East Defensive Player of the Week in following the season opener against Ohio. Holley had a hand in three defensive turnovers on three consecutive Ohio possessions. He piled up 18 tackles (12 solo), tying for the most in a game by a Kent State player since 2009 (Cobrani Mixon). He was credited with one fumble recovery and two forced fumbles, but also helped force a fumble that was credited to Jon Cunningham. He currently ranks fourth among the nation's tackling leaders and second in solo tackles. Holley had interception against South Alabama that was overturned on a penalty.

- In 2013, Holley was used on special teams in the first nine games before moving into a starting safety role.

NOT TO BE OUTDONE

Sophomore Nick Holley made his first career start at running back against South Alabama. He totaled 73 yards of offense and his first touchdown. In his last two games, Holley has run for 81 yards and made nine catches for 63 yards receiving. Last season, he made 10 tackles on special teams and recovered a fumble.

TACKLING TRIO

Three Kent State players currently rank in the MAC's Top 20 in tackles. In addition to Nate Holley, junior linebacker Matt Dellinger is 19th and junior safety Joradn Italiano is 17th. Dellinger (77) and Italiano (76) were also two of the Flashes' top three tacklers from last season. Dellinger brings experience to linebacker group that had very little last season. Also returning to the linebacking corps are sophomore Darius Redmond, who started six games in 2013.

- Dellinger just made his first career interception at Ohio State, while Italiano recovered a fumble.
- Sophomore star Elcee Refuge was among the team's leading tacklers at Ohio State with a career-high eight stops and one tackle for loss.

REARDON SETTLING IN

Kent State is now reaping the benefits of returning its starting quarterback. In the season opener, Colin Reardon had the second best completion percentage (73.1) among all MAC quarterbacks (18th FBS). Reardon's 1,957 passing yards and 12 touchdowns last season were the second most by a KSU freshman QB. He also showed the ability to run the ball, finishing third on the team with 336 rushing yards and two scores.

ESTABLISHING DEPTH

Redshirt freshman quarterback Nathan Strook made his first college appearance in the second quarter at Ohio State and completed his first pass in the second half.

WALK-ON SUCCESS STORIES

During preseason camp, Kent State awarded scholarships to sophomore Ernest Calhoun, junior Clay Miller and senior Marcus Wright, who all had success as walk-ons. Seniors Casey Pierce and Nate Vance and junior Chad Bushley also started their careers as walk-ons, before making major impacts.

- Calhoun has moved into the starting role at slot receiver and leads the team with 15 catches. Last year, he was the team's top kick returner & punt returner. Calhoun had just five carries last year, but two went for over 20 yards on reverses. He also made eight catches for 42 yards.
- Wright and Miller are both playing major roles on the defensive line. They follow in the footsteps of Vance, who tied for the team lead with 3.5 sacks last year and his 46 tackles tied for the most among Flashes defensive linemen.
- Bushley is serving as the starting long snapper on punts and kicks for the third straight year.

MORE WALK-ONS CONTRIBUTING

- Sophomore Nick Cuthbert is seeing action at safety and on special teams.
- Senior Andrew Horning took over punting duties for a portion of last season. In his first game, he averaged 42.8 on four punts.
- Junior Joe Ziccardi has been a fixture on special teams and started two games at WR last year.
- Sophomore Brad Miller served as the starting kicker for part of last season.

FLIPPING THE FIELD

Three-time Ray Guy Award Watch List member Anthony Melchiori placed four punts inside the 10 yard line at Ohio State. Melchiori also had four boots of over 50 yards in that game. He started his season with a 71-yard punt, still the longest punt in the MAC this year. It was his second career punt of over 70 yards. Melchiori has pinned nine of his 25 punts inside the 20 this year.

- At Ohio State, the Flashes had a punt blocked for the first time since 2010.
- Five of Melchiori's eight kickoffs have gone for touchbacks.

WINNING TURNOVER BATTLE

Kent State's plus three turnover margin leads the MAC and is 20th in the nation.

- An interception in the game's last minute against South Alabama was the Flashes' first turnover in four games.
- Against Ohio, Kent State forced and recovered fumbles on four straight second-half possessions.
- Having one of the top turnover margins in the nation was a major factor in Kent State's 2012 MAC East title run.

REMEMBERING JASON BITSKO

On Wednesday, Aug. 20, during a preseason camp morning practice, the Kent State football team received tragic news of the unexpected overnight death of Jason Bitsko. The fourth-year junior was slated to be the team's center after starting all 12 games at right tackle last season. Bitsko had become a team leader, mentor and friend to many both on and off the field. In his honor, every Kent State player will wear number 54 on one side of their helmet throughout the season. The logo above displays on the turf at Dix Stadium.

ON THE ROAD

Since 2012, the Flashes are 8-7 in true road games, but just 2-6 since last season. Saturday will be the second largest crowd of the season, the Flashes play in front of. Ohio State drew 104,404 fans. Last year, Kent State played in two 90,000-plus venues, with back-to-back trips to LSU and Penn State.

Kent State '93 • Second Season

Paul Haynes enters his second season as head coach at Kent State University and his ninth season affiliated with the program. Haynes was introduced as the Golden Flashes' 21st head football coach on Dec. 18, 2012, 25 years after he walked on to play football at Kent State as a college freshman.

In his first season, Haynes helped produce five All-Mid-American Conference selections, an SI.com All-American (Roosevelt Nix), an Academic All-American (Jordan Italiano) and four Academic All-MAC selections, which tied for the second most in the conference.

On Aug. 29, 2013, Haynes became the first Kent State rookie head coach to win a season opener since 1988. He was also the Flashes' first rookie head coach to win a MAC road opener since 1986. At the end of the season, he joined Glen Mason as the only Kent State head coaches to defeat both Miami and Ohio in their first season.

Haynes, 45, spent the 2012 season as the defensive coordinator at Arkansas and also served as the secondary coach for the Razorbacks. Haynes joined the Arkansas staff in December 2011, taking over the Razorbacks' defense when it dominated No. 11

Kansas State 29-16 in the AT&T Cotton Bowl.

Haynes spent the previous seven seasons at Ohio State, serving as the co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach in 2011 and as defensive backs coach from 2005-10. He also worked with former Head Coach Darrell Hazell on Jim Tressel's Ohio State staff from 2005-10. In Haynes' seven years in Columbus, the Buckeyes compiled a 66-11 record, won six Big Ten titles and played in six consecutive BCS games. Ohio State defensive backs also boasted five first-team All-Americans and 10 first-team All-Big Ten selections in those seasons. Nine of the defensive backs Haynes coached at Ohio State were selected in the 2006-12 NFL Drafts, including first rounders Malcom Jenkins and Donte Whitner. In 2008, Jenkins won the Thorpe Award, as the nation's best defensive back.

The 2012 season at Arkansas was Haynes' third stint on a John L. Smith coaching staff. He also worked under Smith at Michigan State, serving as defensive backs coach from 2003-04, and at Louisville, as defensive backs coach in 2002.

This is Haynes' second homecoming at Kent State. He spent two seasons as an assistant coach under former Golden Flashes head coach Dean Pees, who is now the defensive coordinator of the Baltimore Ravens. After coaching Kent State's defensive backs in 1999, Haynes was promoted to assistant head coach and safeties coach in 2000. Haynes then moved on to the NFL in 2001, spending one season as the defensive quality control coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Haynes' coaching career also includes stops at Northern Iowa (running backs and secondary, 1997-98), Ferris State (defensive backs, 1995-96), Bowling Green (graduate assistant, 1994) and St. Francis DeSales High School in Columbus (assistant coach, 1993).

Haynes walked on at Kent State in the fall of 1987. As a freshman, he led the team in interceptions during Kent State's 7-4 season under Glen Mason. As a sophomore, Haynes led the team with 116 tackles. He earned All-MAC honors his final two years and ended his career with 440 tackles, a total that ranks seventh in Kent State history. Prior to enrolling at Kent State, Haynes earned three letters in football at St. Francis DeSales HS in Columbus.

FLASHES IN THE COACHING RANKS

Two players from Don James' 1972 squad (he himself a member of the College Football Hall of Fame) have gone on to find great coaching success of their own. Current Alabama head coach Nick Saban (defensive back, 1970-73) won a national championship with LSU in 2003 and two more with Alabama in 2009 and 2011, while Gary Pinkel (tight end, 1971-73) directed Missouri to a school-record 12 victories in 2007, finishing the season fourth in the final Associated Press poll after being ranked No. 1 earlier in the year.

Furthermore, Bob Stoops — who led Oklahoma to the 2000 national title — got his full-time coaching start as an assistant at Kent State in 1988.

In addition to recent College Football Hall of Fame inductee Lou Holtz, the list also includes former head coach Glen Mason (1986-87), who went on to find success at Minnesota, and Dean Pees (head coach, 1998-03) and Dom Capers (graduate assistant, 1972-74) who are currently defensive coordinators with the Baltimore Ravens and Green Bay Packers respectively.

RANKED OPPONENTS

Kent State is 1-25 all-time against ranked opponents, most recently falling to LSU last season. The Flashes only win against a ranked team was in 2012, visiting No. 15 Rutgers.

ACCEPTING THE CHALLENGE

In preseason camp, Head Coach Paul Haynes, Director of Athletics Joel Nielsen and President Beverly Warren participated in the ALS Ice Bucket Challenge at Dix Stadium, surrounded by the entire Kent State team. President Warren issued a challenge to Ohio President Roderick McDavis, who was doused with icewater just two days later, surrounded by Ohio's football team.
