THE OPENING KICK

- The University of Louisville closes out its home schedule on Saturday, Nov. 14 when they take on Virginia at 12:30 p.m. on the Regional Sports Network.
- The Cardinals will say goodbye to a 13-person senior class that has been one of the best in school history posting a record of 37-11, including an 11-win season in 2012 and 12 wins in 2013.
- Virginia dropped a tough 27-21 decision to Miami on Saturday after quarterback Matt Johns threw for 280 yards and Taquan Mizzell ran for a game-high 91 yards.
- Sophomore quarterback Kyle Bolin received his third career start and picked up his first win as a starter in leading the Cards to a 41-17 win over Syracuse. In recording his third 300-yard career game, Bolin went 24-of-35 for 362 yards and tied his career-high with three touchdown throws.
- Junior running back Brandon Radcliff picked up his fourth career 100-yard rushing game by totaling 117 yards on 10 carries — the first 100-yard game by a running back since he totaled 136 yards against Notre Dame last season.

Sophomore cornerback Trumaine Washington returned an interception for a touchdown versus Syracuse.

THE STORYLINES

- The Cardinals rushed for 217 yards in the 41-10 win over Syracuse on Nov. 7 — the fourth 200-yard game this season. Louisville is 3-1 this season when running for over 200 yards in a game.
- Sophomore Trumaine Washington recorded a career-high 12 tackles and four tackles for loss in the 41-10 win over Syracuse on Nov. 7. He put the Cardinals ahead to stay when he intercepted a pass and raced 39 yards for a touchdown to put the Cards ahead 14-10 in the second quarter.
- Since giving up a season-high 510 yards of total offense to Florida State, the Cardinals have yielded an average of 210.3 yards of total offense per game during the recent three-game winning streak. Louisville held Boston College to 79 yards on Oct. 24 and 266 yards versus Wake Forest on Oct. 30 and 286 to Syracuse last Saturday.
- With a pair of field goals versus Syracuse, senior kicker John Wallace broke the school record for career field goals with 62. He bested Art Carmody's mark of 60, which he set in 2007. Wallace has enjoyed an outstanding career with the Cardinals, connecting on 62-of-80 field-goal attempts.
- After picking off Syracuse's Eric Dungey off twice on Saturday, the Cardinals have upped their interception total to 15, which is the third-best total in the country. Louisville has recorded 41 interceptions over the last 22 games dating back to 2014, when they tied for the national lead with 26.

Louisville has registered a total of 41 interceptions over the last two seasons after securing two more in the win over Syracuse last Saturday. It's the most interceptions in the nation over the last two seasons.

55

With the 41-17 victory over Syracuse, head coach Bobby Petrino moved past Howard Schnellenberger into second place all-time in wins at the school. Petrino is 55-17 in six seasons at Louisville.

42.7

The Cardinals are allowing 42.7 yards rushing per game in gathering three-straight conference wins.

INTERVIEWS

Media interviews with all Louisville players and coaches MUST be arranged through the Sports Information Office. Contact Rocco Gasparro, Football SID, via email at rocco@gocards.com or by calling (502) 852-0102 to arrange interviews with head coach Bobby Petrino or players. Please give as much advance notice as possible when requesting players for midweek interviews. Offensive players are available following practice on Tuesdays and defensive players on Wednesday. Team locker rooms are off limits to media representatives at all times. Player's phone numbers will not be given to the media and players should not be called directly or contacted through social media site to arrange interviews or ask questions.

HEAD COACH BOBBY PETRINO

Louisville Head Coach Bobby Petrino will meet with the media on Mondays during the season at 1:30 p.m. in the recruiting lounge of the Howard Schnellenberger Football Complex. Contact the Sports Information Office or refer to the weekly release for exact times and location for the press conferences which will begin during the week of the first game and run throughout the season. The entire press conference is also streamed live and available to embed on websites via Gocards.com. All interview requests for Bobby Petrino are coordinated through Football SID Rocco Gasparro via email at rocco@GoCards.com or by calling (502) 852-0102. Coach Petrino will participate in the ACC head coaches' weekly teleconference with the other 13 league coaches each Wednesday.

ACC VIDEO CLIP SERVICE

Broadcast media outlets will be able to access ACC highlights and press conference excerpts via the ACC Video Clip Service (AVCS) throughout the entire 2015-16 sports calendar. This video content will only be available for download in digital files that can be accessed on the AVCS. To register for this service please contact Scott McBurney, Assistant Commissioner/Advanced Media, at smcburney@theacc.org or call 336.369.4646.

SOCIAL MEDIA

The University of Louisville Sports Information Office is making a continued effort in 2015-16 to utilize social media outlets as another way of passing information to our fans and those who cover our programs. Louisville's Football's twitter account @UofLFootball and Instagram feed @ louisvillefootball provide updated information and behind-the-scenes news as does the Cardinals' Facebook page <http://www.facebook.com/UofLFootball>.

WORKING CREDENTIALS

Credentials for Louisville home games are issued to working media only and should be requested as early as possible. Due to space constraints, credentials will be limited to working media only. If media credentials are not picked up in advance, they will be available for pickup at the West Ticket Booth located outside Gate 7 of Papa John's Cardinal Stadium. Media should enter through Gate 8 to gain access to elevators for the press box. No credentials will be mailed. Please direct all requests to: Kenny Klein (kenny@GoCards.com), Sports Information Director, University of Louisville, Louisville, Ky. 40292.

BOBBY PETRINO RADIO SHOW

Affiliates on the Louisville Radio Network carry the Bobby Petrino Show each Wednesday night at 7:00 p.m. The show originates from the Tumbleweed Restaurant on Preston Highway and is open to the public with a reservation.

POST-GAME POLICY

Post-game interviews at Papa John's Cardinal Stadium are held in the meeting rooms of the football complex. The meeting room entrance is located to the right of the walkway leading the teams to the field.

After meeting with the team, head coach Bobby Petrino will be brought into the team meeting room. Additional players upon request will also be brought into the team meeting room.

For both home and away games, the Louisville locker and training rooms are closed to the media. Football SID Rocco Gasparro will survey the media in the fourth quarter for player requests.

LOUISVILLE HEAD COACH BOBBY PETRINO

The architect of one of the greatest runs in school history from 2003-06 returned last season to take over the program he helped build during his first head coaching stint.

Leading the Cardinals from Conference USA to the BIG EAST, Petrino guided the Cardinals to a 41-9 overall record, two conference titles, and the school's first BCS Bowl appearance during that four-year stretch.

In 2014, Petrino, who returned to the Derby City after an eight-year absence, was faced with a bigger challenge of taking the Cardinals into the Atlantic Coast Conference.

As had been the case in his first four years, Petrino took the challenge head on and guided the Cardinals to their fifth-straight nine-win season.

The Cardinals went 9-4 overall, 5-3 in the ACC, with a big win over Miami in the inaugural ACC game, and wins at Boston College and Notre Dame, and closing the year with a come-from-behind victory over Kentucky. Louisville advanced to its fifth-straight bowl appearance and the fifth overall under Petrino.

After an eight-year hiatus from Louisville, University of Louisville Vice President/Director of Athletics Tom Jurich announced on Jan. 9, 2014. Bobby Petrino as the Cardinals' football coach for the second time in his career. The Cardinals' head coach from 2003-06, Petrino led UofL to unprecedented success in four seasons on the sidelines.

However, during his return this time, the Cardinals made a step up, joining the Atlantic Coast Conference. That didn't matter to Petrino, directing his team to a 9-4 overall record and a 5-3 mark in the ACC. The three losses came by a total of 19 points and to a pair of ranked foes in No. 25 Clemson and No. 2 Florida State.

Petrino, who owns a 50-13 mark overall at Louisville and a 92-34 record all-time as a collegiate coach, directed the Cardinals to their fifth-straight bowl appearance and a post-season berth in his first five seasons as the leader of the Cardinals.

During his first stint at Louisville, Petrino directed the program to a bowl game each year, but more significantly, guided the school to its first BCS victory - a 24-13 win over Wake Forest in the FedEx Orange Bowl. The 41 wins over that four-year span were the most in school history and featured an average margin of victory of 26.0.

He also showed the ability to develop players, as Petrino had 14 selected in the NFL Draft, including Amobi Okoye, who was the 10th overall selection in 2007 by the Houston Texans. Eric Wood, who was recruited by Petrino, was the 28th selection by the Buffalo Bills in 2009. Michael Bush, a fourth-round pick by the Oakland Raiders, amassed 2,514 rushing yards in three-plus seasons with the Cardinals.

Coupling his success at Louisville and Arkansas, Petrino has led his teams to eight bowl games in 10 years, including both Louisville's and Arkansas' first BCS bowl games. His programs have achieved four 10-win seasons along with top-10 finishes nationally three times. His 2006 Louisville squad and 2011 Arkansas team concluded with No. 5 rankings in the Associated Press polls.

Petrino directed the Cardinals to their first BIG EAST title in 2006, Louisville's second year in the league. He guided that squad to a 12-1 record, which tied the 2013 squad for the most wins in school history. The Cardinals ended the year with their highest national ranking in school history, finishing No. 5 in the Associated Press poll and sixth in the USA Today poll. The Cardinals opened the year going 8-0, including a win over third-ranked West Virginia, and catapulted to as high as No. 3 in the nation.

Hired for the first time at Louisville in 2003, Petrino took the reins of a program that finished 7-6 a year prior and drove the school to a 9-4 mark that resulted in an appearance in the GMAC Bowl. Petrino became the first Louisville head coach to win nine games in their first season.

By the end of his first year, Petrino's team led the league and ranked among the nation's best in total offense, rushing, and scoring. The Cardinals ranked fifth in the nation in total offense (488.9), 10th in rushing (228.2), and 15th in scoring offense (34.6). Louisville set six Conference USA records, including the mark for total yards after the Cardinals racked up 779 yards, including 445 rushing yards, in a 66-45 win over Houston.

The 2004 campaign was one of the best in school history, with Petrino leading the Cardinals to an 11-1 record that culminated in a Conference USA title and a 44-40 Liberty Bowl over 10th-ranked Boise State. The Cardinals led the nation in total offense (539.0) and scoring offense (49.8), scored 50 or more points seven times and set an NCAA record by scoring 55 or more points in five straight games.

After a 9-3 season in 2005, Petrino took Louisville to an unprecedented level the following season, finishing with a 12-1 record and a 24-13 victory over

CARDS AND CAVALIERS MEET FOR FOURTH TIME

- Louisville and Virginia will meet for the fourth time in school history when the two teams face off Saturday.
- Virginia owns a 2-1 series advantage after last season's 23-21 win over the Cardinals in Charlottesville, Va. Ian Frye booted a go-ahead field goal with 3:42 left in the game to hand the Cardinals their first loss of the season.
- This will be the first meeting between the two schools in Louisville since 1988 when the Cardinals defeated the Cavaliers 30-28.
- Head coach Bobby Petrino is 0-1 in his only appearance against Virginia.

Series Records (Virginia leads 2-1)

- 2014: UVA 23-21 (A)
- 1989: UVA 16-15 (A)
- 1988: LOU 30-28 (H)

PETRINO ON SENIOR DAY

- Head coach Bobby Petrino is a perfect 10-0 on Senior Day during his collegiate coaching career, including a perfect 5-0 as head coach of the Cardinals. He won his first Senior Day appearance 66-45 versus Houston in 2003 and 70-7 against Cincinnati in 2004.
- Petrino was also 4-0 while the head coach at Arkansas, and 1-0 in his only year at Western Kentucky.
- Petrino has averaged 53.8 points per game while at Louisville and 45.1 ppg during his collegiate coaching career on Senior Day.
- In hi return back to Louisville last year, Petrino guided the Cardinals to a 44-40 win in the first time the Cardinals faced Kentucky in the regular-season finale.

Scores of Petrino's Senior Day Contests

EXPERIENCE...

- Four out-going seniors will conclude their home season having played at least 40 games during their Louisville careers. Kicker John Wallace, linebacker James Burgess defensive end Sheldon Rankins and defensive back Jermaine Reve all played 40 or more games during their UofL careers.
- Wallace will appear in his team-leading 46th game of his career on Saturday, while Burgess will play in his 45th game at Louisville. Rankins will make his 43rd appearance and Reve will play in his 41st career game.
- Burgess will likely make his team-high 39th career start in the game versus Virginia on Saturday.

CARDS LOOKING TIE MARK FOR ACC WINS

- Louisville will look for his fifth ACC win when it hosts Virginia on Saturday afternoon. A win over the Cavaliers would match last season's five-win campaign in the Cardinals' first season in the ACC.
- The Cards are looking for their fourth-straight league win, which would be the first time they secured four-straight conference wins since the 2013 season during their last season in the American Athletic Conference.

LAST MEETING

VIRGINIA 23, LOUISVILLE 21
OCT. 13, 2014 • CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (AP) - Cavaliers' Greyson Lambert threw for one touchdown and ran for another and Ian Frye kicked a 42-yard field goal with 3:41 remaining, giving Virginia a 23-21 victory against No. 21 Louisville.

The winning points came after Louisville's James Quick fumbled a punt and Kelvin Rainey recovered for Virginia at the Cardinals 25. Four plays later, Frye's third field goal of the game allowed the Cavaliers to end an 11-game slide against FBS-level competition.

Louisville had tied the game midway through the quarter, but the Cardinals' fourth turnover was too much for them to overcome. On the fumbled punt, Quick was bumped into by a teammate.

Twice in the fourth quarter, penalties against Coley kept Louisville drives alive, and each finished with a touchdown, helping them erase a 20-7 deficit. The second TD came with 6:59 to play, and Virginia got one first down on the ensuing possession, and then punted.

The victory was the first for Virginia against a ranked team since a 14-13 triumph at Florida State on Nov. 19, 2011, and was their first in their last 11 games against ACC competition.

Lambert played most of the way for Virginia, hitting Miles Gooch for a 15-yard touchdown to tie the game at 7, and scoring on a 10-yard run to give the Cavaliers a 17-7 lead in the third quarter.

Frye's 47-yard field goal made it 20-7, but then Louisville came back.

Gardner, who was pressured heavily and lifted in favor of more mobile freshman Reggie Bonafon, returned in the fourth quarter and led consecutive touchdown drives. He hit Keith Towbridge for 28 yards on one third down play, and got help from a pass interference call on linebacker Henry Coley to convert a third-and-8 play. Dominique Brown ran it in from the 6 three plays later to make it 20-14.

After a three-and-out for Virginia, the Cardinals drove again with a huge assist from the Cavaliers. On third-and-goal from the nine, Gardner had Coley and defensive end Eli Harold converging on him when he threw the ball right into the arms of linebacker Max Valles for an interception. But Harold gave Gardner a shove after he got rid of the ball, was called for roughing and the Cardinals had new life.

Gardner found James Quick from 4 yards on the next play for a 21-20 lead with 6:59 left.

Virginia took over at its 21, reached the 39 and punted, and the turnover kept it alive.

PETRINO MOVES INTO SECOND PLACE

■ Sixth-year Louisville head coach Bobby Petrino owns an 55-17(.764) record as head coach of the Cardinals. His .764 winning percentage currently ranks first at Louisville. He won his 55th game at Louisville on Nov. 7, against Syracuse to move into second place all-time in victories in school history (record: Frank Camp, 118). Petrino won his 97th career game as a head coach last week versus Syracuse.

■ His career record stands at 97-41 (.703) in his 11th season.

■ Prior to Petrino's head coaching tenure that began in 2003, the Cardinals had never recorded an 11-win season. Under Petrino, Louisville has won 11 games two times in 2004 and 2006.

■ Petrino is one of just three Louisville head coaches to coach in at least 70 games at Louisville (Frank Camp and Howard Schnellenberger.

■ Petrino is the fifth-longest tenured coach in the ACC (Frank Beamer (29), Dabo Swinney (8), David Cutcliffe (8), Jimbo Fisher (6) and Mike London(6).

■ Petrino's six -game bowl streak at Louisville is the longest at the school.

■ Petrino's .719 winning percentage (97-38) ranks 11th among active head coaches for career winning percentage.

BACK TO A BOWL

■ With the win over Syracuse, the Cardinals are just one win away from qualifying for a post-season appearance, extending their streak to six-straight bowl appearances.

■ Including last season's appearance in the Belk Bowl and run to the Elite Eight in men's basketball, Louisville has qualified for a bowl game and earned an NCAA men's basketball tournament appearance for the fifth-straight season, behind Wisconsin's streak of 13 years, Michigan State's eight years and San Diego State, who is tied with Louisville with five-straight.

■ Louisville has appeared in 19 bowls during their history and have made post-season appearances in 14 of the last 17 years.

STAFF SNAPSHOT

■ Louisville's staff includes two former Cardinals players: running backs coach Kolby Smith and defensive line coach L.D. Scott.

DOMINANT DEFENSE

■ The Cardinals have held six of their nine opponents to 20 points or less.

■ Louisville has allowed just 20 touchdown this season, giving up seven on the ground and 13 through the air, which is tied for 20th nationally.

■ Opponents have had five scoring drives that were 30 or less yards in distance.

STOP ON RED

■ Louisville has allowed opponents to reach the red zone just 19 times in nine games, ranking the Cardinals in a tie with Alabama for fifth nationally in terms of fewest red-zone chance. Michigan leads the way with only 16 attempts, while Wisconsin and NC State are second with 17 and Air Force is fourth with 18.

■ The Cardinals have allowed 17 scores in the red zone, which is tied for seventh nationally with NC State, Duke and Navy for fewest red-zone scores allowed.

RED ZONE ATTEMPTS	ATT.	SCORES
1. Michigan	16	13
2. Wisconsin	17	12
NC State	17	15
4. Air Force	18	15
5. Louisville	19	17
Alabama	19	16

■ After allowing two scores versus Syracuse last Saturday, the Cardinals have allowed just 10 touchdowns in their opponents' 19 red-zone trips, which is tied for ninth nationally. Louisville has allowed seven field goals in the red zone as well.

A TOUGH SLATE

■ Louisville's schedule is rated the 12th-most difficult in the country by Sagarin.

■ Louisville's 2015 schedule features seven teams who played in bowl games a year ago as Auburn played in the Outback Bowl (L, 34-31 to Wisconsin); Florida State played in the Rose Bowl (L, 59-20 to Oregon); NC State appeared in the St. Petersburg Bowl (W, 34-27 over UCF); Boston College played in the Pinstripe Bowl (L, 31-30 to Penn State); Clemson competed in the Russell Athletic Bowl (W, 40-6 over Oklahoma); Houston and Pittsburgh played in the Armed Forces Bowl, with the Cougars winning 35-34.

■ The 2015 schedule features three opponents who are currently ranked in the Top 25 nationally — Clemson, Florida State and Houston. Auburn began the season ranked sixth in the country.

■ The Cardinals played Samford for the first time in school history and will also make their first trip to BB&T Field in Winston-Salem on Oct. 30.

ROSTER NOTES

■ The Cardinals' roster features players from 16 states and a set of brothers who were born in Japan. There are 30 native Kentuckians on the squad, followed by 23 Florida natives and 14 from Georgia.

■ Louisville features 64 underclassmen, including 33 freshmen and 31 sophomore. The upperclassmen totals 32 junior and 14 seniors.

■ Five Cardinals will serve as captains for the 2015 season. The group includes two players on offense (offensive tackle Aaron Epps and running back Brandon Radcliff) and three on defense (linebackers James Burgess and Keith Kelsey and defensive end Sheldon Rankins).

■ True freshman Geron Christian is the brother of former UofL tight end and seventh-round draft pick of the Arizona Cardinal Gerald Christian.

■ Prior to the end of camp, head coach Bobby Petrino surprised seven walk-ons with full scholarships for the 2015 season. Wide receiver Dontez Byrd, offensive lineman Toriano Roundtree, running back Malin Jones, defensive lineman Aaron Ahner, fullback Griffin Uhl, running back Darius Skinner and long snapper Colin Holba were awarded scholarships by Petrino in late August.

ACADEMIC NOTES

■ Five Cardinals are playing this season as graduate assistants. Linebackers James Burgess and Keith Brown, while offensive tackles Aaron Epps and Kelby Johnson, and kicker John Wallace.

■ The team recorded a 2.83 grade-point average for the spring semester, the highest registered GPA in the program's history. Overall, the Cardinals had one perfect 4.0 GPA, and saw 36 student-athletes post a 3.0 or higher and 70 athletes over a 2.5 GPA. For the year, the Cardinals had 24 student-athletes receive their degrees.

ONE-POINT WINS

■ The Cardinals evened their record with a 20-19 win over Wake Forest on Oct. 30. It was the first one-point win for the Cardinals since 2009 when UofL defeated Syracuse 10-9 at home on Nov. 14.

■ The one-point victory over Wake Forest was the smallest margin of victory in Petrino's career at Louisville. His previous mark came last week in the 17-14 win over Boston College. He had four-points wins over Kentucky last season and Boise State in the 2004 Liberty Bowl.

■ The 20 points was the second-lowest scoring total in a win under Bobby Petrino. The lowest scoring output in a win came versus Boston College on Oct. 24 in the 17-14 win.

■ The Cardinals are 14-23 all-time in one-point games during their history.

EXPERIENCE & FRESHMEN STARTERS

■ Louisville had a strong 2015 recruiting class and many of the newcomers wasted little time making an impact during preseason camp. Eleven true or redshirt freshmen are listed on the depth chart heading into the Syracuse contest.

■ The Cardinals ended up with three freshmen starters in their opening lineup versus Auburn: TE Micky Crum, QB Lamar Jackson and OT Geron Christian.

■ Freshmen continue to make an impact as Lamar Jackson has started six games at quarterback. He leads the team in rushing with 484 yards and a team-high six touchdowns, while also passing for 1,342 yards and eight touchdowns. He became the third (Chris Redman and Kyle Bolin) freshmen to pass for 300 yards in a game when he passed for 307 yards versus Florida State. Jackson set the school record for most total offense by a freshman when he totaled 396 yards versus Samford on Sept. 26.

■ Louisville might not have one of the youngest teams in the nation, but most of its contributors are youngster leading the offense. The Cardinals have played nine true freshmen and four redshirt freshmen through the first eight games, but nine of the rookies have appeared in games on the offensive side of the ball.

■ Against Florida State, the Cardinals started five freshmen on the offensive side of the football. Jaylen Smith, a true freshman, is third on the team with 18 receptions for 252 yards, while Traveon Samuel, another rookie, is sixth with 15 catches for 139 yards.

LOOKING BACK AT SYRACUSE

■ The Cardinals have won five straight games and eight of the last nine contests when scoring first after marching 75 yards on four plays for a touchdown on the opening drive.

■ Saturday marked just the second time this season Louisville has scored a touchdown on its first drive of the game.

■ Under the guidance of Petrino, Louisville improved to 44-4 when scoring 30 or more points.

■ The 41 points on Saturday were the most for Louisville in an ACC game and the most in any conference game since a 45-17 win over Temple in a Big East game in 2012.

■ Louisville finished with a season-high 579 yards of total offense – the highest total since finishing with 603 yards against Murray State on Sept. 6, 2014.

■ The Cardinals' 362 yards passing were the most since the 389 yards through the air against Kentucky on Nov. 29, 2014.

■ Louisville surpassed the 200-yard mark in rushing for the fourth time this season finishing with 217 yards (third best in 2015) on 31 carries.

■ Sophomore Kyle Bolin set a career high for completions (24) and matched a career high for touchdowns (3) and finished the game with 362 yards on 24-of-35 passing. The three touchdowns equaled his total against Kentucky on Nov. 29, 2014.

■ The 362 yards were second highest passing total for Bolin behind only the 381 yards against Kentucky in 2014.

■ Junior Brandon Radcliff finished with a season-high 117 yards rushing on 10 carries, highlighted by a career-long 46-yard run in the second half. It was the most yards on the ground for Radcliff since rushing for 136 yards at Notre Dame last season.

■ Sophomore Jeremy Smith ran for a career-high 71 yards on career-best 13 carries and scored his third touchdown of the season. The rushing total surpassed his previous high of 58 yards rushing last week at Wake Forest.

■ Junior tight end Cole Hikutini scored his first two touchdowns with the Cardinals hauling in a 13-yard score in the second quarter and a 10-yard reception in the third quarter.

■ Junior Keith Towbridge caught his first career touchdown pass with the 12-yard reception in the fourth quarter. Towbridge finished with a career-best 53 yards receiving while matching a career-best with three receptions.

■ Junior James Quick matched a season-high with five catches and finished with 72 yards receiving, his second highest total of the season.

■ With his 19-yard field goal in the third quarter, senior John Wallace became Louisville's career field goals leader with his 61st. Wallace moved ahead of Art Carmody, who connected for 60 field goals from 2004-07.

■ The 52-yard reception by sophomore running back L.J. Scott on the opening drive was a career-long. He entered the game with five catches for 38 yards through the first eight games of 2015.

■ Louisville limited an opponent to less than 300 yards of total offense for the fifth time in the last six games after Syracuse closed Saturday's game with 286 yards. The Cardinals have won each of those five games.

■ Sophomore Trumaine Washington scored his first touchdown on a 39-yard return following his fourth interception of the season to give Louisville a 14-10 lead in the second quarter.

■ Washington's interception for a touchdown was the first Pick-6 for the Cardinals since Gerod Holliman had a 32-yarder at FIU on Sept. 20, 2014.

■ The Pick-6 for Washington marked the second touchdown by the Louisville defense this season. Senior defensive end Sheldon Rankins had the first with his 46-yard fumble recovery for a touchdown.

■ Along with the interception, Washington led the Cardinals with a career-high 12 tackles, including 11 solo stops. Prior to Saturday, Washington's previous high for tackles was seven against Auburn in the season-opener.

■ Washington had 4.0 tackles-for-loss on Saturday, equaling his career total entering the game. He also earned his third career sack and the second this season on Saturday.

■ Sophomore Chucky Williams added a career-high eight tackles, one better than his previous high of seven against Houston earlier this season.

■ Junior Devonte Fields forced one fumble and added seven tackles, one shy of his season-high of eight accomplished last week at Wake Forest.

OFFENSE NOTES

■ The Cardinals had struggled on their opening possession this season prior to Saturday's win over Syracuse. Louisville was forced to punt six times this year on its initial drive until they went right down the field versus Syracuse. The Cards drove 75 yards on four plays, capping off the drive with a four-yard run by Jeremy Smith. It was only the second time the Cardinals scored a touchdown on their opening drive, the other coming versus Samford.

■ Junior Brandon Radcliff notched his fourth 100-yard game of his career with 117 yards and 10 carries in the win over Syracuse on Nov. 7. Radcliff's 117 yards was the first 100-yard game by a running back since he rushed for 136 yards in a win over Notre Dame last season.

■ The Cardinals' 362 yards passing in the win over Syracuse were the most by the Cardinals since the 389 yards through the air against Kentucky in the 44-40 win on Nov. 29, 2014.

■ Since returning from injury, junior wide receiver James Quick has been the player everyone thought he would be after being so heavily-recruited out of Trinity High School. Quick has caught 25 passes for 409 yards and four touchdowns during that span. Over those six games, Quick is averaging a team-high 16.4 yards a reception.

■ Quick leads the team with four receiving touchdowns in only seven games played. All four of his scores have come on passes of over 18 yards, including a pair of 30-yard strikes. The speedster from Louisville is averaging 28.0 yards on his touchdown receptions.

■ Quarterback Kyle Bolin loves to throw to the tight end. In five career games where he has seen significant snaps, the native of Lexington, Ky., has completed 21 passes for 264 yards and four touchdowns to his tight ends. Coming in relief versus Houston on Sept. 12, Bolin completed four passes for 73 yards and one touchdown to Micky Crum. Bolin tossed all three of his touchdown throws against Syracuse, as Cole Hikutini totaled two and Keith Towbridge added his first career score.

■ The Cardinals averaged a season-best 8.6 yards per play last week against Syracuse. Louisville is starting to accumulate big plays over the last two weeks, totaling 12 plays of over 20 or more yards in the last two wins.

■ The Cardinals have thrown 13 touchdown passes to seven different players this season. Tight ends Cole Hikutini and Keith Towbridge were added to the list as they totaled all three touchdown passes last week against Syracuse.

DEFENSE NOTES

■ Sophomore cornerback Trumaine Washington returned an interception 39 yards for a score versus Syracuse — the first of his career. It marked the first interception return for a touchdown since Gerold Holliman scored from 32 yards against FIU last season. yards and 40 yards against Wake Forest.

■ The Cardinals have had interceptions from eight different players this season.

■ Louisville has moved to 28th nationally in third-down conversions after holding Syracuse to 4-for-18 on third down. In the last three games, the Cardinals have limited the opposition to 8-for-48 on third down, which is just 16.7 percent.

■ Louisville is third in the nation with 15 interceptions after recording two last week against Syracuse. The defense has registered multiple interceptions five times this year and have six picks in the last two wins.

■ With two sacks versus Syracuse on Saturday, the Cardinals have totaled at least one sack in 33-straight games dating back to the 2013 campaign. The last time the Cardinals didn't record a sack came versus Auburn in the 2015 season opener.

■ The Cardinals have totaled 30.0 tackles for loss in the last three wins, moving up to 25th nationally with 7.3 per game.

■ Syracuse was held to 286 yards of total offense last Saturday and were able to muster just 127 yards in the second half.

■ The Cardinals have forced 24 3-and-outs over the last three games, including 10 last week versus Syracuse.

■ Cornerback Trumaine Washington leads the team with three forced fumbles and four interceptions.

CARDS OWN BIG ADVANTAGE AT HOME

■ The Cardinals' 10 players selected were the second-most in the ACC and nationally behind Florida State's 11 selections.

■ Since Bobby Petrino's arrival in 2003, 23 Cardinals have been selected in the NFL Draft.

■ Four Cardinals have been selected in the first round since 2007.

CARDS ON THE ROAD

■ Head coach Bobby Petrino hasn't lost many games during his career, and his teams have been especially tough on the road going 25-9 during his six years at Louisville.

■ The Cardinals have currently won four of their last five games on the road, beating Wake Forest (20-19) on Oct. 30, NC State (20-13) on Oct. 3, and Boston College (38-19) and Notre Dame (31-28) last season.

■ Louisville has won 12 of its last 15 games on the road with Petrino on the sidelines, which dates back to the 2005 season. The Cardinals have won 19 of the last 25 games on the road dating back to 2011.

BOBBY PETRINO IN NOVEMBER

■ Louisville is 16-3 in games played in November under Bobby Petrino during his six seasons with the Cardinals. Petrino's teams have won six consecutive games in November, with the last loss coming to Rutgers 28-25 in 2006.

■ Louisville won all three games last season in November after wins at Boston College and Notre Dame, before closing the regular season with a 44-40 win at home over Kentucky.

■ Overall, Louisville is 12-1 in November home games under Petrino during his six seasons with the Cardinals, and have won 12-straight home games under Petrino during the calendar's 11th month. The lone loss came to Memphis 37-7 on Nov. 15, 2003.

■ The Cardinals have won eight straight games during the month of November dating back to the 2012 season, with the last loss coming to Connecticut at home 23-20 in triple overtime.

TRUE FRESHMEN UNDER BOBBY PETRINO

■ Louisville coach Bobby Petrino has never shied away from playing true freshmen, and this year is no exception as six different freshmen have started games this season.

■ In his six years with the Cardinals, a total of 39 true freshmen have seen action for Louisville, including nine in 2015. Of the 39 true freshmen who have played under Petrino, 16 have started at least once during their freshman season after Jaire Alexander became the sixth different true freshmen to start a game in 2015.

■ Players who made also made their Louisville debuts: defensive tackle Drew Bailey, wide receiver Alphonso Carter, running back Jeremy Smith, tight end Micky Crum, safety Dee Smith, long snapper Colin Holba, offensive lineman Lukayus McNeil, cornerback Shaq Wiggins, safety Josh Harvey-Clemons, tight end Cole Hikutini, wide receiver Ja'Quay Savage, wide receiver Jamari Staples, offensive lineman Kiola Mahoni, running back Malin Jones and offensive guard Khalil Hunter.

TIGHT ENDS HAVE BIG DAY

- The tight ends have always been big in Bobby Petrino's offense, and it finally showed last Saturday in the 41-17 victory over Syracuse. The duo of Cole Hikutini and Keith Towbridge combined to catch six passes for 81 yards and combined to catch all three touchdown passes.
- Hikutini, who leads the tight end group with nine receptions for 121 yards, caught three passes for 28 yards and two scores, catching a 10-yard pass for a touchdown and added one from 13 yards. The touchdowns were the first of his career
- Towbridge, who entered the game with two receptions, caught three passes for 81 yards and his first career touchdown reception. He had one of the biggest plays of the game when he recorded a 32-yard pass play on a fourth down play.

GO FOR IT

- Head coach Bobby Petrino loves make the tough call, and it shows by his propensity to go for it on fourth down. Petrino dialed the perfect play call on fourth and two when he connected with Keith Towbridge for 32 yards. The conversion made the Cardinals 7-for-11 on fourth down this season, which ranks fourth in the ACC and 32nd nationally.
- Last season, the Cardinals were 11-of-21 on fourth down calls.

SENIOR CLASS

- The Cardinals have one of the smallest senior classes in the country with just 13 players playing their fourth year in the program. Here is the list of seniors playing their final home game for the Cardinals this weekend: Corvin Lamb, James Burgess, Jermaine Reve, Darius Skinner, George Clements, Josh Appleby, John Wallace, Aaron Ahner, Kelby Johnson, Aaron Epps, Sheldon Rankins, Pio Vatuvei and Jon Brown.
- The senior class owns a combined record of 37-11 during their time at Louisville with three-straight bowl appearances. The seniors were a part of a 12-1 team in 2013 and 11-2 squad, which ended with a win over fourth-ranked Florida in the Sugar Bowl during the 2012 season.

as part of an annual series of Orlando Kickoff games.

The 2018 matchup, announced Thursday, is the second publicized game in a multi-year agreement between Florida Citrus Sports (FCSports) and ESPN Events, a division of ESPN, to host major neutral-site, regular-season college football games in the Orlando Citrus Bowl. The Orlando Citrus Bowl is already home to the Buffalo Wild Wings Citrus Bowl, Russell Athletic Bowl, and Florida Blue Florida Classic games. Neither school has played in the stadium since its near-complete reconstruction a year ago.

■ The Cardinals and Crimson Tide have met just three previous times on the gridiron, with Alabama holding a 2-1 series advantage. In the last meeting in 1991, the Cardinals defeated the No. 25 Crimson Tide 34-7 in the 1991 Fiesta Bowl.

SCORE FIRST=WINS

■ Head coach Bobby Petrino likes to take the ball first, and with good reason. Louisville has won its last five games when scoring first and eight of the last nine contests. The last time the Cardinals scored first and lost came last season when the Cardinals raced out to a 21-0 lead versus Florida State.

■ Petrino's team are 39-7 at Louisville when scoring first in a game and are 36-4 when leading after the first quarter. Louisville led Syracuse 7-0 on Nov. 7 en route to the 41-17 win over the Orange.

■ Heading into the half, Petrino's teams are just as invincible. Louisville is 54-7 when leading at the half and are 50-5 when leading after three quarters. Louisville held a 21-10 lead against Syracuse on Nov. 7.

FIRST-QUARTER DEFICIT

■ The Cardinals got in an immediate hole last week versus Wake Forest on Oct. 30 trailing 10-0 in the first 11:24 of action. It was the worst first-quarter deficit in a win since the Cardinals trailed Rutgers 21-3 in the regular-season finale of the 2007 season. The Cardinals came back to win 41-38 under head coach Steve Kragthorpe.

TELLING IN WINS

■ The Cardinals opened the season with three-straight losses, but they have responded with wins in three of the last four games. When you look at the stats, it's easy to see why the Cardinals have turned their season around. The Cardinals have shown improvement on both sides of the football. The Cardinals are averaging 28.6 points and 182.2 yards on the ground in their five wins, including 243.6 yards passing and 428.5 yards of total offense. On defense, the Cardinals are allowing 10.0 points per game and 48.8 yards per game on the ground.

■ On the flip side, in the losses, the Cardinals were only averaging 23.2 points per game and were allowing 31.5 points per game. On the ground, Louisville averaged 106.5 yards on the ground and were allowing 187.8 yards. Louisville was held to less than 100 yards rushing in three of the losses — rushing for 70 yards versus Houston, 19 against Clemson and 99 versus Florida State.

PETRINO 30-4 AT HOME

■ Head coach Bobby Petrino improved to 30-4 at home after the 41-17 win over Syracuse last weekend.

■ Petrino's teams had won 22 straight games at Papa John's Cardinal Stadium before losing to Florida State on Oct. 30, 2014.

■ Of those 30 wins, the Cardinals have scored 60 or more points six times, 50-plus points four times and 40 points 10 times.

■ During the previous 22-game home streak, the Cardinals had recorded wins of 20 or more points 17 times.

■ The lowest output during this span came in the 17-14 win over Boston College on Oct. 24. The 17 points scored on Sept. 17 versus Clemson and Boston College are the lowest output at home under Petrino.

WINNING CLOSE GAMES

■ The Cardinals are 10-10 in one-possession games in head coach Bobby Petrino's six seasons at the helm of the UofL football program. With the 20-19 win over Wake Forest on Oct. 30. Louisville is 3-3 in one-possession games this season after the win over Wake Forest. The Cardinals had a 17-14 victory over Boston College on Oct. 24 and with a 20-13 win over NC State on Oct. 3.

■ The Cards had close losses this season to Auburn (31-24), Houston (34-31) and Clemson (20-17).

■ Petrino's teams were 2-2 last season in one-possession games after losing to Virginia (23-21) and Clemson (23-17), and recording wins over Notre Dame (31-28) and Kentucky (44-40).

ON THE ROAD IN THE ACC

■ The Cardinals are 4-3 in the ACC on the road since joining their new league in 2014, with a 2-1 mark this season and a 2-2 record in 2014. The Cardinals defeated Wake Forest 20-19 last Friday and won their ACC road opener 20-13 at NC State on Oct. 3. Louisville dropped a 41-21 decision at Florida State on Oct. 17.

■ Last season, the Cardinals picked up road wins at Syracuse and Boston College, while dropping decisions at Virginia and Clemson.

■ Louisville's dropped two of the three games by less than a touchdown on the road, falling to Virginia 21-23 and 17-23 to Clemson. The average margin of defeat on the road in the ACC is 9.3 points per game.

CARDS AT HOME IN THE ACC

■ The Cardinals are 9-5 in the ACC since joining their new league in 2014, with a 4-2 mark this season. Louisville dropped a 20-17 decision at home on Sept. 17 and the Oct. 17 42-21 loss at Florida State. Louisville picked up its first win on Oct. 3 with a road win at NC State, the 17-14 win over Boston College and last Friday's 20-19 victory over Wake Forest.

■ Petrino's teams are 5-2 at home in league play, with wins last year over Miami, Wake Forest and NC State. The Cardinals dropped their ACC opener at home this season 20-17 versus Clemson.

PETRINO VERSUS NON-CONFERENCE FOES

■ Louisville improved to 22-6 in non-conference games after the 45-3 win over Samford on Sept. 26. Louisville's only six non-conference losses under Bobby Petrino came against Houston, Auburn on Sept. 5, Georgia in the 2014 Belk Bowl, against Virginia Tech in the 2006 Gator Bowl, versus Miami (Fla.) during the 2004 season and against Miami (Ohio) in the 2003 GMAC Bowl.

■ Of the 22 wins under Petrino against non-conference opponents, three have come against Top 25 teams, 16 have come by double-digits and Louisville has scored 40 or more points in nine of the 28 games.

TRANSFERS BOLSTER ROSTER

■ The Cardinals have 20 players on the current roster who transferred to Louisville – Kevin Austin (Mesa Community College), Drew Bailey (Pearl Rier), Alphonso Carter (Iowa Western), Devonte' Fields (Trinity Valley), Josh Harvey-Clemons (Georgia), Cole Hikutini (City College of San Francisco), Khalil Hunter (Eastern Arizona), Kelby Johnson (ASA College), Malin Jones (Northwestern), Kiola Mahoni (College of San Mateo), Gio Pascascio (Glendale CC), Toriano Roundtree (Eastern Arizona), Ja'Quay Savage (Texas A&M), Jamari Staples (UAB), Pat Thomas (Georgia Military), Jeremy Smith (Fresno City Community College), Pio Vatuvei (College of San Mateo), Shaq Wiggins (Georgia), Trevon Young (Iowa Western).

MAKING BIG PLAYS

■ Even though the offense has been sporadic this season, the Cardinals have shown the ability to make big plays. The Cardinals are ranked 39th nationally in plays of over 28 with 48 this season

■ Louisville averaged a season-best 8.6 yards per plays versus Syracuse and totaled eight plays of over 20 or more yards.

■ Wide receivers James Quick and Jamari Staples have a team-best seven receptions of better than 20 yards this season.

SPECIAL TEAMS ARE SPECIAL

■ Senior punter Josh Appleby has embraced the role of the starting punter. After three years as a reserve, Appleby has flourished as senior. In a starting role, he has punted 48 times for a 40.0 per punt average, with eight punts of 50 or more yards and has placed 21 punts inside the 20-yard line. A total of .409 percent of his punts have been placed inside the opponents' 20-yard line.

■ A native of Athens, Ala., Appleby tied a season-high with eight punts for a 44.4 yard average against Wake Forest, which included a 61-yarder, and placed six of those eight punts inside the 20-yard line.

■ Appleby averaged 50.0 yards per punt in the win over Samford on Sept. 26 and 46.5 yards a punt in the loss to Houston on Sept. 12.

■ Senior placekicker John Wallace booted two field goals to break Art Carmody's school record for career field goals with 62. Wallace is 62-of-80 during his career with the Cardinals.

WALLACE BOOTS SECOND 50-YARDER

■ Senior kicker John Wallace showed his leg in the win of Samford on Sept. 26. Leading 21-3, Wallace kicked a 50-yard field goal in the second quarter of the 45-3 win over the Bulldogs. It was the second field goal of more than 50 yards in his career. He booted a career-long 51-yd field goal last year against Syracuse.

▶ Wallace is now 2-of-6 on field goals of more than 50 yards during his career.

40 IS THE NUMBER

■ The Cardinals scored 41 points in the win over Syracuse on Nov. 7 — the second time this season scoring 40 or more points this season (45 vs. Samford).

■ It marked the 32nd time in 72 games that the Cardinals score 40 or more points with Petrino on the sidelines.

■ Louisville is 31-1 when scoring 40 or more points with Petrino as head coach and have won 14-straight games when hitting that number.

SMITH PUTS TOGETHER IMPRESSIVE STRING

■ Running back Jeremy Smith, who came from Fresno City Community College, has been one of the leading rushers in the last three wins. Earning the start versus Syracuse, Smith ran for a career-high 71 yards on career-best 13 carries and scored his third touchdown of the season. The rushing total surpassed his previous high of 58 yards rushing last week at Wake Forest.

■ Over the last three games, Smith has shown his value, rushing 33 times for 180 yards and one touchdown, while averaging 5.5 yards per carry.

■ Coming off the bench versus Wake Forest, Smith carried a career-high 12 times for 58 yards. He had the game's longest run when he scampered 22 yards versus the tough Wake Forest defense.

■ Against Boston College on Oct. 24, Smith carried eight times for 51 yards against the nation's top rushing defense. Smith tallied the biggest run by a running back this season when he scampered for 49 yards.

■ Smith is third on the squad with 254 yards rushing and three scores in his first season with the Cards. A product of Hammond, La., Smith is averaging a team-best 4.5 yards per carry this season.

JACKSON THIRD ON FRESHMEN TOTAL OFFENSE LIST

■ Freshman quarterback Lamar Jackson has enjoyed a solid freshman campaign. He leads the team in rushing (484) and passing (1,342). He leads the team in total offense with 1,826 yards and 228.2 yards per game.

■ Jackson's 1,826 yards of total offense ranks second in school history for a freshman, trailing only (Teddy Bridgewater (2,195 in 2011). Jackson needs only 303 yards to break Teddy Bridgewater's school record of 2,129 yards.

RARE FRESHMAN 300-YARD GAME

■ Lamar Jackson is one of three freshmen at Louisville to pass for 300 yards in a game, joining only Chris Redman and Kyle Bolin to accomplish the feat. Jackson completed 20-of-35 passes for a career-high 307 yards and three touchdowns in the loss to Florida State on Oct. 17. Jackson's 307 yards passing ranks as the fourth-highest passing total by a freshman.

■ Redman threw for 400 yards against Southern Mississippi in and 325 against Michigan State in 1996, while Bolin passed for 381 versus Kentucky and 300 versus Georgia.

■ Jackson's 1,342 yards passing total is now third in freshman passing yards at UofL, trailing Teddy Bridgewater's total of 2,129 yards in 2011 and Redman's 1,773 yards in 1996.

SCORING 30

■ Louisville has made scoring 30 points seem quite easy under Bobby Petrino. The squad has done so 48 times in the 72 games with head coach Bobby Petrino at the helm of the Cardinals. Over that span, the Cardinals are 44-4 when tallying more than 30 points in a game. Louisville went 7-1 last year when scoring better than 30 points in a game, but did fall 34-31 to Houston on Sept. 12 prior to the 45-3 win over Samford on Sept. 26.

■ The Cardinals have lost only four games at home during his tenure at Louisville, but two of his three losses have come when the Cards have scored more than 30 points. Louisville had won 22 straight games when scoring 30 or more points before losses to Florida State last season and Houston on Sept. 12. The Cardinals are 22-2 at home when scoring 30 or more points under Petrino.

■ For comparison's sake, Louisville scored 30 or more points just 33 times over the seven years that Petrino wasn't coaching the Cardinals' program.

NO COMBINATION LOCK

■ A year after fielding the same offensive line for most of the year, the Cardinals have seen a different starting combination in five of the eight games this season.

■ The only constant has been true freshman Geron Christian, who has started all nine games this season in his rookie season. Another true freshman, Kenny Thomas has started four games before missing the Syracuse game on Nov. 7, while redshirt freshman Lukayus McNeil has made six-straight starts.

■ Tobijah Hughley, who has started seven games this season, is the most the experienced player on the offensive line with 19 starts.

■ Through nine games, the Cardinals have started at least 10 different offensive linemen this year. Christian is the only player who has started all eight games this year. Other players who have started this season are: Hughley, T.C. Klusman, McNeil, Skylar Lacy, Pedro Sibiea, Thomas, Aaron Epps, Kiola Mahoni and Kelby Johnson.

DRAMA KINGS

■ Since 2008, Louisville is 20-19 in games decided by seven points or less, and the Cardinals have lost three games by a total of 13 points to start the season. It's marks the first time since 2007 that the Cardinals have dropped two straight games by 10 points or less when they fell 40-34 to Kentucky and 38-35 to Syracuse.

■ Head coach Bobby Petrino is 9-10 at Louisville in games decided by seven points or less and 23-18 during his coaching career after the 20-19 win over Wake Forest last week.

■ The Cardinals are 5-5 all-time in overtime games since the NCAA instituted the rule in 1996. Petrino is 0-2 in overtime games at Louisville.

TARGET PRACTICE

■ In all, 15 different players have caught a pass for Louisville this season: 8 wide receivers (James Quick, Jamari Staples, Jaylen Smith, Traveon Samuel, Ja'Quay Savage, Devante Peete, Javonte Bagley, Emonee Spence; 4 tight ends (Micky Crum, Cole Hikutini, Keith Towbridge, Charles Standberry; 4 running backs (Reggie Bonnafon, L.J. Scott, Brandon Radcliff, Jeremy Smith).

■ The freshmen class has been leading the way this season, totaling 62 receptions for 768 and three touchdowns. Jaylen Smith is leading the way with 23 receptions for 309 yards, while Traveon Samuel has 16 receptions for 144 yards. Devante Peete has one of the three touchdown receptions from the freshmen class, while tight end Micky Crum has the other two touchdown receptions.

■ Redshirt freshman Micky Crum is the top tight end with 13 receptions for 161 yards and a pair of scores. He recorded his first reception versus Auburn when he caught two passes for 19 yards, and had his biggest game with a 103-yard performance and six catches versus Houston.

■ After missing four games, Jamari Staples has caught 24 passes for 386 yards and two scores over the last five contests. In a one-point win over Wake Forest on Oct. 30, Staples posted his best performance, totaling 10 receptions for 133 yards and two scores. The 10 receptions were the most by a wide receiver since Ei Rogers recorded 10 versus UCF in 2013. Staples caught a 14-yard touchdown pass and a 22-yarder right before the half.

■ Junior James Quick continues to lead the team in receiving with 29 receptions for 437 yards and four touchdowns. Appearing in six games, Quick has caught at least three passes each game, including a season-best five receptions for 130 yards and a career-high three touchdowns versus Florida State on Oct. 17. He recorded five receptions for team-high 72 yards in the win over Syracuse on Nov. 7.

■ After catching two passes for 18 yards as a freshman in 2014, Javonte Bagley has seven receptions for 88 yards this year, while quarterback Reggie Bonnafon has also caught seven passes for 88 yards.

RADCLIFF'S 100 YARDS=WINS

■ Junior running back Brandon Radcliff rushed for 117 yards on 10 carries in the 41-17 win over Syracuse on Saturday. It was his fourth 100-yard game of his career, including the second in his career versus Syracuse. In a 28-6 victory over the Orange last season, Radcliff ran for 110 yards.

■ He posted the first running back to post a 100-yard game for the Cardinals since he rushed for 136 yards in the win over Notre Dame last season.

■ Radcliff has a team-best four 100-yard games in his career, and the Cardinals have won all four of those contests.

JACKSON SHATTERING RUSHING MARKS

■ Freshman quarterback Lamar Jackson was born to run to steal a phrase from Bruce Springsteen. Jackson owns three of the top 10 school marks for rushing games by a quarterback, tallying a school-best 184 yards versus Samford. He also owns the third-best mark with 121 yards against NC State and 106 yards versus Auburn, which is fifth-best.

■ A native of Pompano Beach, Fla., Jackson holds the school record for rushing yards in a season with 484 and needs just 273 yards to break the school's career mark of 756 set by Stefan Lefors (2001-04).

■ There is a telling stat that has shown up in wins and losses for the Cardinals, and it surrounds the running talent of freshman quarterback Lamar Jackson. The native of Pompano Beach, Fla., has been productive running the ball in the four wins, and not so in the four losses. Jackson is averaging 80.5 yards in the four wins this year, totaling 184 yards versus Samford and 121 against NC State. In those four victories, Jackson is averaging 5.3 yards per carry, including a 73-yard run versus Samford.

■ In the four losses this year, Jackson has been stymied in the running game. He is averaging 40.5 yards per game in those contests, being held to 16 yards against Houston, eight versus Clemson and 32 on Oct. 17 against Florida State. He is averaging just 3.2 yards per carry in the four losses.

JACKSON BECOMING BETTER PASSER

■ True freshman quarterback Lamar Jackson has been throwing the football better over the last three games. After going just 10-of-27 against NC State, Jackson has gone 54-for-86 (.628) for 744 yards and five touchdowns. He had a career-best completion percentage last week versus Wake Forest, completing 73.1 percent of his passes.

■ Jackson recorded his second multiple-touchdown game last week versus Wake Forest tossing a pair of scores to wide receiver Jamari Staples. Jackson found him for a 14-yard touchdown strike and a 22-yarder that brought the Cards to within 19-17.

■ Jackson, a product of Boynton Beach High, Jackson has thrown for over 200 yards in each of his last three games. He passed for a career-high 307 yards and three touchdowns in a loss to Florida State, and had 230 yards against Boston College and 207 last week versus Wake Forest.

QUICK SURPASSES 1,000 CAREER YARDS

■ After being sidelined late in the fourth quarter of the season-opening loss to Auburn, junior wide receiver James Quick has been a big lift to the offense since returning to the lineup. In five games since his return, Quick has caught 25 passes for 409 yards and four touchdowns,

■ In the loss to Florida State, Quick recorded a career-high three touchdown receptions after totaling five receptions for 130 yards — the third 100-yard game of his career. Quick's three receiving scores, which is tied for the third-most in school history, are the most since DeVante Parker totaled three against Kentucky last season. It's the 10th time in school history that a player totaled three or more receiving touchdowns in a game.

■ The Trinity High product registered two 100-yard games last season when he totaled a career-best 174 yards in a win over FIU and had 101 yards against Clemson.

■ Quick leads the team with 29 receptions for 437 yards, despite missing games versus Houston and Clemson.

■ Quick returned to action versus Samford, and made an immediate impact in the 45-3 victory on Sept. 26. The product of Trinity High School caught three passes for 69 yards, including a 36-yard touchdown reception.

■ The junior from Louisville, Ky., has 71 receptions for 1,076 yards and seven touchdowns in his career.

14 NEW OFFENSIVE STARTERS

■ The Cardinals lost a lot of talent on offense in wide receiver DeVante Parker, offensive linemen John Miller, Jamon Brown and Jake Smith, and running backs Dominique Brown and Michael Dyer.

■ Louisville had five new offensive starters on Sept. 5 versus Auburn and added another versus Houston. True freshman Lamar Jackson started in the backfield, while wide receiver Ja'Quay Savage, tight end Micky Crum and offensive linemen Pedro Sibiea and Geron Christian also started upfront. Wide receiver Traveon Samuel was a new starter on offense versus Houston.

■ In the win over Samford on Sept. 26, the Cardinals added four new offensive personnel in running back Jeremy Smith, offensive guard Lukayus McNeil, center T.C. Klusman and offensive tackle Kelby Johnson. Offensive tackle Kenny Thomas started for the first time versus NC State on Oct. 3.

■ Three new offensive starters made their first starts of the season versus Florida State on Oct. 17 in tight end Cole Hikutini, wide receiver Jamari Staples and guard Kiola Mahoni. Wide receiver Javonte Bagley made his first career start against Wake Forest.

NEED TO CONTROL THE BALL

■ It's easy for the Cardinals. If they hold the ball, they will win the game. In all five wins, the Cardinals have dominated the time of possession, holding a 35:38 advantage. The Cards rank 46th nationally in time of possession averaging 31:19 per game this season.

■ In the 20-19 win over Wake Forest, the Cards had an advantage of 9:40 and had a season-best 11:54 in the 17-14 victory over Boston College on Oct. 24. Louisville also had the ball 6:08 longer than NC State did in a 20-13 victory on Oct. 3.

■ In three of the four losses, the Cardinals were on the wrong end of time possession except for the season-opening loss to Auburn, where they held a 1:40 advantage over the Tigers.

NEED TO RUSH FOR 200

■ It's no secret head coach Bobby Petrino wants his offense to be balanced, but he emphasizes his team's ability to run the football.

■ Entering his sixth season as head coach of the Cardinals, Petrino's teams are an incredible 33-3 when his teams rush for over 200 yards in a game after rushing for 217 yards versus Syracuse on Nov. 7 and 203 yards in the win over NC State on Oct. 3. The Cards rushed for a season-high 288 yards versus Samford, which were the most rushing yards since UofL tallied 325 yards last year in the win over Murray State. The Cardinals were 6-1 in 2003 during Petrino's first season when rushing for over 200 yards in a game, with the only loss coming to Miami (Ohio) in the GMAC Bowl. The only other loss was a 41-38 loss at third-ranked in 2004.

■ The Cardinals have won 23 of their last 24 games when they rush for over 200 yards under Petrino with the only loss coming to Auburn on Sept. 5. The Cardinals won their last six games that season when rushing over 200 yards, and went 6-0 in 2005, 5-0 in 2006 and 3-0 last year.

■ On the flip side, the Cardinals are 4-7 when they fail to rush for over 100 yards as a team, including 1-3 this season after being held to 68 last week against Florida State. Louisville was held to 70 yards in the loss to Houston on Sept. 12 and 19 yards versus Clemson.

CARDS REACHES SEASON-HIGH

■ The Cardinals' offense got back on track versus Syracuse last Saturday at Papa John's Cardinal Stadium. Louisville totaled a season-high 579 yards in the 41-17 win over the Orange. It was the most versus an FBS team since recording 615 yards of offense versus Ohio in 2013 and the most versus a Power 5 Conference team since tallying 628 yards in a loss to Syracuse in 2007. The Cardinals have won 11-straight games when amassing over 500 yards of total offense in a game, with the last coming in 2008 — a 26-20 loss to Connecticut.

■ The Cardinals totaled a season-high 562 yards of total offense in the 45-3 win over the Bulldogs. It was only the second time in the last 17 games that the Cardinals recorded over 500 yards of total offense — the last was against Murray State last season when the Cardinals totaled 603 yards of total offense.

■ During Petrino's tenure with the Cardinals, his teams are 24-2 when his offense totals more than 500 yards of total offense on a game.

STAPLES NOTCHES FIRST 100-YARD GAME

■ Looks like wide receiver Jamari Staples is all the way back after his best performance since joining the program this season. Staples had his biggest game in a UofL uniform in the win over Wake Forest on Oct. 30. He caught a career-high 10 passes for 133 yards and his first two touchdowns. He scored on a 14-yard reception and added a 22-yarder right before the half to trim Wake's lead to 19-17.

- Staples is second on the team with 24 receptions for 386 yards and a pair of touchdowns.
- Staples recorded his first 100-yard receiving game at Louisville and the second of his career —recorded 103 yards versus Tulsa in 2013. The Lineville, Ala., product totaled just the third 100-yard receiving game by a Louisville receiver, joining James Quick and Micky Crum. Quick totaled 130 yards versus Florida State and Crum added 103 against Houston.
- Staples tied his previous career-high with four receptions for a career-best 96 yards in the victory over Boston College. Staples led the Cardinals with those four catches, and also recorded a career-best 53-yard reception.
- After missing the first four games of the season, Staples made his Louisville debut in the 20-13 win over NC State on Oct. 3. Hurting his knee on Sept. 2 in practice before the season opener against Auburn, Staples, a transfer from UAB, caught two passes for 22 yards against the Wolfpack. He came back on Oct. 17 against the Seminoles to total four receptions for 56 yards, which are all highs in his Louisville career. His 25-yard reception versus FSU was the longest reception at Louisville..
- In two seasons with the Blazers, Staples caught 40 passes for 648 yards and five touchdowns. Staples was slowed by injuries in 2014, holding him to nine receptions for 190 yards and a score. His best season came in 2013 when he caught 31 passes for 458 yards and four scores.

BOLIN LOVES THE STARTS

- Sophomore Kyle Bolin has shown that he loves the starting role. Making his third-career start last Saturday against Syracuse, the Lexington, Ky., native was 24-of-35 for 362 yards and tied a career-high with three touchdowns — all going to the tight end. He threw two touchdown passes to tight end Cole Hikutini of 13 and 10 yards and also hit Keith Towbridge with a 12-yarder.
- Bolin set a career high for completions (24) and 362 yards were second highest passing total for Bolin behind only the 381 yards against Kentucky in 2014.

- The former Lexington Catholic standout picked up his first win as a starter after dropping his first two starts. He was the starter for the first time in the 2014 Belk Bowl versus Georgia and also made a start in the ACC opener in 2015 versus Clemson.
- In only his second year receiving playing time, Bolin has thrown for 1,511 yards and eight touchdowns, while completing 101-169 (59.8) passes with six interceptions.

BOLIN STARTS (2014-2015)

NEED TO KEEP SACKS DOWN

- The Cardinals have a problem — sacks. Louisville ranks 126th out of 127 teams in sacks allowed in the country, allowing 3.78 per game. Through the first nine games of the year, the Cardinals have been sacked four or more times in six different games, including a season-high seven versus Boston College. They were also sacked four of more times versus Auburn, Clemson, NC State, Florida State and Wake Forest.
- The Cardinals did a great job protecting the passer versus Syracuse, holding the Orange to just one sack.
- Last year, the Cardinals were sacked 3.0 times a game en route to a 9-4 mark. In those four losses, the Cardinals were sacks 12 times including four in the loss to Georgia in the Belk Bowl loss.

BAGLEY SHOWS PROMISE

- Sophomore Javonte Bagley emerged in the 17-14 win over Boston College on Oct. 24. The wide receiver from Vero Beach, Fla., caught a career-high three passes for 69 yards, including a career-long 39-yard reception. Bagley has caught seven passes for 88 yards this season. He caught two passes for nine yards in the loss to Clemson and had receptions Samford and Florida State.
- Bagley caught two passes for 18 yards as a true freshman last season.

BONNAFON ACCEPTS NEW ROLE

- Sophomore Reggie Bonnafon is adapting to his new role in the UofL offense. After starting five games at quarterbacks last season and the opener versus Auburn in 2015, Bonnafon is being used out of the backfield. He had his best in his new role in the 17-14 win over Boston College, carrying 10 times for a team-high 56 yards and also catching two passes for 18 yards.
- Seeing extensive action at running back versus Florida State, Bonnafon's production was evident. In the 41-21 loss to Florida State, Bonnafon carried three times for 20 yards, including a run for nine yards. Out of the backfield, he caught a career-high three passes for 31 yards, including a career-best 23-yard reception.

- Bonnafon is fourth on the team in rushing with 146 yards and is averaging 4.4 yards per carry. He has also caught seven passes for 88 yards this season.
- Bonnafon was 8-of-13 for 67 yards as the starting quarterback in the season-opening loss to Auburn on Sept. 5.

RANKINS NOT JUST RECORDING SACKS

- Senior defensive end Sheldon Rankins has been the Cardinals' most prolific pass rushers over the last two seasons. However, the 6-foot-2, 300-pounder has showed an ability to make big plays. Rankins picked up a fumble and raced 46 yards for his first career touchdown in the win over Boston College on Oct. 24.
- Last season, Rankins recorded his first two interceptions, picking off passes versus Wake Forest in the 20-10 win and also had another one in the 38-19 victory over Boston College on the road.

YOUNG ON A TEAR

- Junior outside linebacker/defensive end Trevon Young has been a terror over the last four weeks in leading the Cardinals to a 3-1 record.
- With 3.0 sacks versus Wake Forest and 0.5 versus, Young has 6.5 sacks in his last three games (also three vs. Boston College) and 8.5 in his last four contests. His third sack caused a fumble with under two minutes remaining. He had a career-best 3.5 tackles for loss in the 20-19 win over the Demon Deacons.
- A product of Iowa Western Community College, Young leads the Cardinals with 8.5 sacks and intercepted his first career pass in the win over Syracuse on Nov. 7. Young is second in the ACC and is eighth nationally with 0.94 sacks per game.
- Young was named the ACC Defensive Lineman of the Week for the last two games versus Boston College and Wake Forest. As a team, the Cardinals recorded a season-high eight sacks against BC, but it was Young who stole the show. Young registered a career-high 3.0 sacks, including a sack on fourth down on the Eagles' final possession.

CARDS ON TWO-YEAR STREAK

- The Cardinals have been one of the best teams over the last two seasons at recording interceptions. Louisville has registered 41 interceptions over 22 games, which is the best in the country.

Total Interceptions The Past Two Seasons

1. Louisville	41
2. Boise State	38
3. Louisiana Tech	35
4. Ohio State	35
5. Ole Miss	34
6. Arkansas State	33

Auburn	33
Houston	33
9. TCU	30
10. Bowling Green	28
10. Northern Illinois	28
10. San Diego State	28
10. Utah State	28

■ In the 41-17 win over Syracuse, the Cardinals totaled a pair to give them 15 on the season. Trumaine Washington recorded his team-leading fourth on Saturday and Trevon Young recorded one from his defensive end position. Louisville is ranked third nationally in interceptions, trailing Arkansas State, who has 17 and Boise State and Temple with 16.

National Interception Leaders

1. Arkansas State	17
2. Boise State	16
3. Louisville	16
Temple	16
Connecticut	16

■ The Cardinals had a season-best four interceptions, all in the second half by four different players (UoL had three picks vs. Auburn and Samford). Freshman safety Dee Smith had his first career interception in the third quarter, the Cardinals' first pick in three games. It was the first four-interception game since Louisville totaled four last year in a 38-19 win over the Eagles.

■ Eight different players have registered interceptions this season.

TOUGH AGAINST THE RUN

■ Through nine games, Louisville's defense ranks 11th nationally in yards per game (110.6) and ninth in yards per carry (3.0), but those numbers don't effectively tell the entire story:

■ The Cardinals are facing plenty of opportunities as opponents are averaging 36.1 rushing attempts per game.

■ Louisville is tied for ninth nationally having allowed only seven rushing touchdowns this season and are tied for 10th in the country having yielded only four runs of over 20 yards (the long is 54).

■ The Cardinals completely shut down the Boston College running game as the Eagles were held to -14 yards on 30 carries and Wake Forest, who was held to 40 yards rushing on 32 carries. NC State was limited to 45 yards. Samford was limited to 71 yards in Louisville's 45-3 win on Sept. 26.

▶ The -14 yards rushing was the seventh-fewest total in school history and was the lowest since holding Wake Forest to -22 yards rushing in last season's 20-10 win over the Demon Deacons.

THIRD DOWN TOUGHNESS

▶ Opponents haven't had a lot of success converting third-down plays against the Cardinals in 2015.

▶ Louisville ranks 28th nationally in third-down defense, allowing the opposition to convert just .328 percent of the time

▶ Boston College was held to 1-of-14 on third down last week, which was the lowest percentage on the year, and Wake Forest was limited to 3-of-16 conversions and Syracuse was limited to 4-of-18.

▶ In a 20-13 win over NC State on Oct. 3, the Cardinals limited the Wolfpack to 5-of-15 third-down attempts.

▶ The Cardinals are a little behind last year's pace when they held the opposition to a 32.0 percent conversion rate.

INTENSE PRESSURE

■ With 20 sacks over the last five games, the Cardinals are rounding into form that saw them as one of the top teams at pressuring the quarterback.

■ The Cardinals got off to a slow start with six sacks in their first four games, but have responded over the last five contests, where they recorded a season-best eight in the win over Boston College. It was the biggest total since registering eight last season versus Wake Forest.

■ The Cardinals registered four sacks versus Wake Forest and a pair of sacks versus Florida State and four in the win on the road against NC State on Oct. 3.

■ Junior Trevon Young has been dominating over the last four games, recording 8.5 sacks. He entered the season with 1.0 sack, but has totaled 8.5 in the last four contests. He was credited with 3.0 sacks on Oct. 30 against Wake Forest and Boston College, while being credited with two in the loss to Florida State on Oct. 17.

■ Senior Sheldon Rankins is second on the team with 4.5 sacks and junior Keith Kelsey is third with 3.5 sacks.

■ Over the last two seasons, the Cardinals are 10-2 when recording three or more sacks in a game.

NEW STREAK STARTED

■ The Cardinals had been one of the best in the country at forcing turnovers during the last couple of seasons as was evident by their 21-game turnover streak that was stopped in the 41-21 loss to Florida State on Oct. 17. The Cardinals started a new streak last when they recorded two fumble recoveries in the win over Boston College. One of the returns resulted in a 46-yard fumble return for a touchdown by Sheldon Rankins.

■ Since being held without a turnover in the loss to Florida State on Oct. 17, the Cardinals have forced nine in the last three contests, including a season-high five in the 20-19 victory over Wake Forest on Oct. 30 and three more versus Syracuse last Saturday.

NO BIG DRIVES

■ The Cardinals held Boston College to just 79 yards of total offense in the 17-14 win on Oct. 24. It was the lowest output since the Cardinals held Wake Forest to 100 yards of offense in last season's 20-10 victory over Wake Forest.

■ The Eagles had 16 possessions in the game on Saturday and had only one drive that ended in points. Boston College scored on a six-yard drive when they picked up a fumble in Louisville territory. Louisville forced eight three-and-outs and didn't allow a drive that amassed more than 29 yards. Seven drives resulted in negative yards and the longest possession was a six-play drive on the first possession in the contest.

■ Boston College was forced to punt 12 times in the game.

BURGESS EIGHTH IN THE ACC

■ Senior linebacker James Burgess has been a steady force in the middle of the defense for the last three seasons. Appearing in 43 games, including 38 starts, the native of Homestead, Fla., has 235 career tackles during that span after having 14 stops versus Houston on Sept. 12 and 10 in the win over Boston College on Oct. 24. He tallied eight more versus Clemson and Samford. He is second on the team with 70 tackles after the first eight games of the season and ranks eighth in the ACC with 8.1 tackles per game.

■ He totaled his fifth double-digit tackle game against the Boston College, totaling 10 stops, but his career-high came this year versus Houston when he registered 14. His previous high was 11 last season in a 23-17 loss to Clemson last season and also was credited with 10 stops versus Georgia in the Belk Bowl. He ranks sixth in the ACC in tackles with an average of 8.7 per game.

■ Burgess totaled 71 tackles in 2013 and 2014, finishing third on the team in tackles with 71. He recorded five or more tackles in seven games last season.

■ He led the linebackers in tackles for loss with 10.0 and recorded three interceptions.

■ Burgess owns seven career interceptions after recording a pick in the 20-17 loss to Clemson on Sept. 17.

KELSEY NINTH IN THE ACC

■ Junior linebacker Keith Kelsey has developed into a leader as was evident by being named one of the team's captains, and the Gainesville product is coming off the biggest game of his career. Kelsey totaled a career-high 15 tackles and registered two sacks and four tackles for loss in the 34-31 loss to Houston on Sept. 12. He followed that up with his second consecutive double-digit tackle game versus Clemson, recording 10 tackles in the 20-17 loss on Sept. 17.

■ Kelsey leads the team in tackles with 72 and ranks 81st in the nation and is ninth in the ACC.

■ In his first year as a starter in 2014, Kelsey, who started all 13 games last year, finished second on the team in tackles with 87, ranking 17th in the ACC. He totaled eight stops in the loss to Auburn on Sept. 5.

■ Kelsey has led the team in tackles twice this season, with his 15 versus Houston and 10 against Clemson,

GRANTHAM TEACHES TAKEAWAYS

■ Under the direction of defensive coordinator Todd Grantham, the Cardinals' defense has been very opportunistic through his first two seasons leading the defense. The defense has forced 51 turnovers over the last 22 games with Grantham leading the defense.

■ Louisville finished first in the ACC in turnovers forced in 2014 with 30 and have already forced 18 this year. The 30 turnovers forced were the most since 2001 when that team forced 2001 miscues en route to an 11-2 record and a Conference USA title.

■ Louisville has forced multiple turnovers in 17 of the last 22 games dating back to last season, including a season-high five versus Wake Forest on Oct. 30.

■ Louisville held a +5 turnover margin in its nine wins last season and are +5 in the five victories this season.

NEW SECONDARY STEPS UP

■ Heading into last season, the Cardinals had to replace both starting safeties in Calvin Pryor and Hakeem Smith, and were still able to excel. This year, the Cardinals have to replace the entire secondary as all four starters, who were in NFL training camps, need to be replaced in Charles Gaines and Terrell Floyd at cornerback and James Sample and Gerod Holliman at safety.

■ The Cardinals lost a lot of production as 21 of the 26 interceptions are gone off the roster. Holliman led the nation with 14 and Sample totaled four.

■ The Cardinals, who entered the year with zero career starts in the secondary, saw Shaq Wiggins and Trumaine Washington start at cornerback, while Josh Harvey-Clemons and Chucky Williams started at safety in each of the nine games this season.

■ The four players have totaled 11 interceptions in the first nine games, with Washington leading the team with four picks.

BELOW THE 300-YARD MARK

■ The Louisville defense is starting to round into form from the 2014 season when it was sixth in the country in total defense. The Cardinals have played their best defense last three games of the season, holding Boston College to 79 yards of total offense, Wake Forest to 266 yards and Syracuse to 286, which has elevated the Cardinals to 15th in the nation in total defense allowing 306.7 yards per game. The 79 yards of total offense was the fourth-lowest total in school history and the fewest yards allowed since Wake Forest was limited to 100 yards in last season's win over the Demon Deacons.

■ Louisville held Boston College to -14 yards rushing, which was the seventh-lowest total in school history and the lowest since Wake Forest rushed for -22 yards last season.

■ The Cardinals played outstanding defense in five of their last six games, with the lone exception being Florida State, who scored the the most points since the 'Noles scored 42 in last season's win.

■ After holding its first seven opponents to less than 300 yards of total offense last season, the Cardinals allowed each of their first three opponents to break the 300-yard plateau, coincidentally losing all three games. Since those losses, the Cardinals are allowing 256.8 yards of total offense in the last six games.

■ Over the last two seasons, the Cardinals are 13-2 when the defense holds opponents to less than 300 yards of total offense.

■ The Cardinals gave up a season-high 510 yards in the loss to Florida State, only the second time under Todd Grantham that the Cards had given up more than 500 yards of total offense in the last two seasons (505 vs. Georgia).

WASHINGTON NAMED DB OF THE WEEK

■ Sophomore cornerback Trumaine Washington was named the ACC Defensive Back of the Week for his performance in Louisville's 41-17 win over Syracuse. The Miami, Fla., native recorded a career-high 12 tackles and turned the Syracuse game around when he returned an interception 39 yards for a touchdown to put the Cards ahead to stay at 14-10. Making his eighth start, Washington tallied a career-best 4.0 tackles for loss and 1.0 sack.

■ Washington leads the team with four interceptions and owns a career-best 39 tackles. From his defensive back position, Washington has 7.0 tackles for loss, 2.0 sacks and forced a team-leading three fumbles.

CARDS MOVE UP THE SACKS LADDER

■ One of the reasons why the Cardinals were so productive on defense last year was because of the pressure they put on the quarterback. Louisville finished 12th in the country in sacks averaging 3.15 per game.

■ However, this season the Cardinals' got off to a slow start, but have started to rack up the sacks in the last five games. Louisville stands 15th in the nation with a 2.89 average, but have averaged 4.0 sacks in its last five contests.

■ The Cardinals totaled only three sacks in the first three games, but the Cardinals have totaled 20 sacks in the last five games, including eight versus Boston College on Oct. 24. Louisville totaled three sacks in the 45-3 win over Samford on Sept. 26 and four in the 20-13 victory over NC State on Oct. 3.

■ Over the last two seasons, the Cardinals are 10-2 when recording three or more sacks in a game.

NO RUSH TO SCORE

■ While the Cardinals are yielding 110.6 yards on the ground through the first nine games of the season, opponents have also totaled seven rushing touchdowns, which ranks ninth in the country. After giving up two rushing touchdowns in the season opener to Auburn, the Cardinals have yielded just four in the last four games.

■ Under the tutelage of defensive coordinator Todd Grantham, the Cardinals have allowed just 19 rushing touchdowns over the last 22 games.

■ Overall, the defense has allowed just 18 total touchdowns (seven rushing and 13 passing) and 157 total points, which stands at just 17.4 points per game. Louisville has allowed two special teams score and an offensive touchdown this season.

TWO-GAME STANDOUT

■ The Cardinals added a big-play defender when they signed outside linebacker DeVonte' Fields in February. After nine games, Fields is rounding into form and has put together two solid games. He has totaled 15 tackles, one sack and 3.5 tackles for loss in the last two contests.

■ The native of Fort Worth, Texas, is tied for the team lead on the team with 9.5 tackles for loss and has 2.5 sacks. Fields is fourth on the team in tackles with 42 through nine games at outside linebacker.

■ He made his first career start for the Cardinals in the loss to Auburn on Sept. 5. Fields totaled five tackles and 0.5 tackles for loss from his outside linebacker position as the Cardinals fell 31-24.

■ Fields had his best game as a Cardinal with eight total tackles and 2.5 tackles for loss in the 20-19 win over Wake Forest and totaled seven tackles and one tackle for loss versus Syracuse. He had six stops and a tackle for loss against Clemson. He totaled his first full sack last week in the win over Boston College.

■ Fields attended Trinity Valley Community College where he was rated as the No. 2 JUCO recruit in the country, totaling 61 tackles and 6.5 sacks in one season at Trinity Valley.

■ He started collegiate career at TCU, where he was selected as the AP Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and Defensive Newcomer of the Year in 2012.

■ Fields was voted by conference coaches as the Big 12 Defensive Freshman of the Year, where he posted 53 tackles, including 34 solo stops. He led the team with 18.5 tackles for loss and 10 sacks... was first in the Big 12 at 1.42 tackles for loss per game and third in the league with 0.77 sacks per game. His 10 sacks tied for the fourth-most in a season in TCU history and were the most by a freshman.

DEANGELO BROWN REACHES CAREER-HIGH

■ Junior defensive tackle DeAngelo Brown has emerged as a big-time run stopper during the 2015 season. The native of Savannah, Ga., has recorded a career-high 32 tackles this season, which bests his previous high of 20 he recored a year ago.

■ Brown tallied six tackles in the season opener versus Auburn and tallied four tackles in four other games during the season. The 308-pounder, who entered the year with 3.0 tackles for loss and 1.5 sacks, has tallied a career-best 5.5 tackles for loss and 2.0 sacks.

RANKINS UP THE SACKS

■ Senior defensive end Sheldon Rankins has emerged as one of the top defensive ends in the nation. Over the last two seasons, the native of Covington, Ga., has totaled 12.5 sacks. He produced a career-high 8.0 last season to lead the team, and has totaled 4.0 this season.

■ Rankins registered a season-high two sacks in the 45-3 win over Samford on Sept. 26 and added another one versus NC State on Oct. 3. Through eight games, Rankins is fourth on the team in tackles with 37 and is fourth with 8.0 tackles for loss.

■ Rankins has 16.5 career sacks and needs one more to tie Carl Powell (1995-96) for tenth place on the school's all-time sacks list.

■ Rankins had a solid first game versus Auburn, totaling seven tackles, just one off his career-best of eight, which he set last year versus FIU in a 34-3 win. He tied his career-high for tackles in the 34-31 loss to Houston when he tallied eight tackles and added eight more in the loss to Clemson.

■ Rankins was fourth on the team in tackles with a career-high 53, the highest among the UofL defensive linemen. A starter in all 13 games, Rankins registered sacks in eight games, including 1.5 in a win at Boston College.

■ The Covington, Ga., native, who was a third-team All-ACC selection last season, led the Cardinals in sacks (8.0) and tackles for loss (13.5) and was a disruptive force on the line.

Louisville 24 (0-1)

Saturday, Sept. 5 • Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.
Attendance: 73,927 • TV: CBS

ATLANTA- Will Muschamp's defense made a couple of huge plays early for No. 6 Auburn to offset three interceptions by Jeremy Johnson, and the Tigers held off Louisville and surprise quarterback Lamar Jackson for a 31-24 victory.

The Tigers' first touchdown in the season opener was set up by an interception. Justin Garrett returned a fumble 82 yards to make it 14-0.

Not that it was smooth sailing for the Tigers, who led 17-0 at halftime and seemed to be up comfortably 31-10 after a touchdown with just over 10 minutes remaining.

Jackson, a freshman who got the bulk of the playing time over three more experienced quarterbacks, led the Cardinals to a couple of late touchdowns that made Auburn sweat it out.

Bonnafon played into the second quarter before giving way to Jackson for good. The freshman was 9 of 20 passing for 100 yards. He also led the Cardinals in rushing with 106 yards on 16 carries, including a 10-yard touchdown late in the third quarter for Louisville's first TD.

The biggest play came midway through the second quarter when Louisville was driving. Bonnafon fumbled an attempted handoff, Garrett scooped it up at the 18, and off he went the other way for the touchdown, Muschamp running with him nearly stride for stride along the sideline.

Johnson was picked off twice in the first half by former Georgia safety Josh Harvey-Clemons, who sat out last season after transferring to Louisville. The Auburn quarterback was also intercepted by Trumaine Washington in the third quarter, foolishly trying to force a pass into coverage. That led to Jackson's TD run that made it 24-10.

LOUISVILLE- Forget any possible quarterback controversy for the Louisville Cardinals, whose biggest concern right now is figuring out how to just win. The odds don't look great with No. 12 Clemson coming in Thursday, especially for an 0-2 team struggling on both sides of the ball after Saturday's 34-31 loss to Houston.

This latest loss ended with sophomore Kyle Bolin at quarterback after starting the fourth quarter in relief of struggling freshman Lamar Jackson. Bolin did his best in rallying the Cardinals twice with fourth-quarter scoring drives including his 29-yard scoring pass to Micky Crum with 6:25 remaining. Louisville rallied four times overall, but Bolin couldn't complete a fifth comeback as the Cardinals fell to 0-2 for the first time since 1998. Bolin was 10 of 18 passing for 157 yards and led a touchdown drive ending with Jeremy Smith's 4-yard run for a 24-20 lead early in the fourth.

Jackson was 17 of 27 for 168 yards and a TD in his first start but threw two deep interceptions, one of which led to Kyle Bullard's 21-yard field goal for Houston. The Cardinals were outgained 462-395 and recorded four turnovers, including two interceptions by Jackson. They allowed a game-tying 100-yard kickoff return touchdown to Brandon Wilson right after John Wallace's 36-yard field goal seemed to swing momentum their way.

LOUISVILLE- Deshaun Watson threw two touchdown passes, Wayne Gallman ran for 139 yards and No. 11 Clemson held off Louisville 20-17 on in the Atlantic Coast Conference opener for both schools.

Despite ragged stretches including two interceptions by Watson, Clemson followed up routs of Wofford and Appalachian State with a solid conference win. The sophomore was spot on when needed, finding Hunter Renfrow and Jordan Leggett wide open down the middle for TD passes of 32 and 25 yards, respectively.

Louisville started its third quarterback in three games with Kyle Bolin, and used freshman Lamar Jackson and sophomore Reggie Bonnafon behind center in a search for offensive consistency. The combination kept the Cardinals within reach of Clemson long enough to have a last shot at a win, but Bolin's desperation pass was intercepted by Jadar Johnson in the final seconds.

Watson eventually settled down from a slow start that included James Burgess' one-handed interception of his first-quarter pass to direct Clemson's first touchdown drive early in the second. He had plenty of time to find Renfrow for the 36-yard strike with 13:12 remaining for a 7-0 lead.

Louisville's only first-half answer was John Wallace's 26-yard field goal set up by Bolin's 55-yard pass to Jalen Smith, a play that comprised nearly half of its 117 yards in the first 30 minutes. It also summed up the Cardinals' offensive struggle whether Bolin, Jackson or Bonnafon was on the field.

The Cardinals remained within reach and got to 20-17 in the fourth quarter on Traveon Samuel's 100-yard kickoff return touchdown with 9:41 left. Wallace's 38-yard attempt sailed wide left with 2:28 left, but Louisville still positioned itself to go for the win before Bolin's pass was picked off.

Saturday, Sept. 26 • Papa John's Cardinal Stadium • Louisville, Ky.
Attendance: 50,121 • TV: ESPN3

LOUISVILLE - Lamar Jackson threw one touchdown pass and ran for two more scores to lead Louisville to a 45-3 rout of Samford.

Jackson finished with 184 yards rushing, a school-record for a quarterback. He scored on keepers of 14 and 13 yards in the first six minutes of the game. His 73-yard run set up Brandon Radcliff's 2-yard touchdown run to make it 21-0. Jackson finished 15 of 22 for 212 yards passing, including a 36-yard touchdown to James Quick.

Louisville (1-3) used two early turnovers to setup scores. Cornerback Trumaine Washington forced a fumble on the second play from scrimmage and Jackson ran for a score two plays later. Washington then intercepted a Michael Eubank pass less than a minute later to spark an 80-yard drive that put the Cardinals up 14-0.

Anthony Pistelli kicked a 32-yard field goal for Samford (2-2).

Louisville, which entered averaging 109 yards per game on the ground, finished with 288 yards rushing.

Samford proved welcome relief from Louisville's tough early-season schedule that included close losses to Auburn, Houston, and Clemson that left the Cardinals 0-3 for the first time since 1984.

Quick played for the first time since injuring an ankle in the Auburn opener. He led Louisville receivers with three catches and 69 yards as 12 Cardinals caught passes.

John Wallace kicked a 50-yard field goal to give Louisville a 24-3 lead with 6:15 left in the first half.

Jackson broke the previous quarterback rushing mark set by Jim Wagoner's 162 yards in 1974. But an interception on the first play of the second quarter, and a fumble showed it wasn't a perfect night for Jackson.

Louisville had started a different quarterback in each of its first three games, the only team in the country to do so. Jackson started Louisville's second game after rushing for 106 yards and a touchdown against Auburn in relief of Reggie Bonnafon.

RALEIGH - Lamar Jackson ran and threw for touchdowns to help Louisville beat North Carolina State 20-13.

Jackson ran for 121 yards, including a 68-yard scoring sprint in the opening quarter, to lead a strong ground attack for the Cardinals (2-3, 1-1 Atlantic Coast Conference). He also threw for a 20-yard touchdown to Devante Peete in the second, giving the Cards a 14-0 lead on a day when they remained in firm control from the start.

The freshman quarterback completed just 10 of 27 passes, but the Cardinals ran for 203 yards against a defense that came in ranked third nationally by allowing just 205.8 yards.

Jacoby Brissett threw for a touchdown and Matt Dayes ran for one to lead the Wolfpack (4-1, 0-1), who managed just 228 yards and spent the entire game fighting uphill.

Louisville started 0-3 before last week's romp against Samford, with Jackson setting a school record for rushing yards (184) by a quarterback. Now the Cardinals have won two straight to build some momentum.

N.C. State carried plenty of impressive stats into its ACC opener, though playing four overmatched opponents - two picked sixth or lower in the Sun Belt, another picked next to last in its Conference USA division and a Championship Subdivision opponent - didn't reveal a lot about whether the team could make good on its goal of contending in the Atlantic Division.

The Wolfpack had a bumpy week, too, when coach Dave Doeren had to dismiss last year's leading rusher Shadrach Thornton from the team following another round of legal trouble with a midweek arrest.

N.C. State committed two big turnovers, the biggest coming in the opening quarter when Jumichael Ramos made a 48-yard catch and dragged a defender inside the 10 only to lose a fumble as he fell to the ground. Dayes also lost a fumble near midfield that the Cardinals converted into a field goal in the third.

The Wolfpack had committed one turnover through the first four games.

Louisville 21 (2-4, 1-2 ACC)
#8/#11 Florida State 41 (6-0, 4-0 ACC)

Saturday, Oct. 17 • Doak S. Campbell Stadium • Tallahassee, Fla.
Attendance: 71,225 • TV: ESPN

TALLAHASSEE - For the second straight season, Florida State is proving that it is a strong second-half team.

Trailing at halftime, the Seminoles broke open the game against Louisville with three third-quarter touchdowns in a 41-21 victory at Doak Campbell Stadium.

Everett Golson, who passed for 372 yards and three touchdowns, gave the Seminoles the lead for good with 8:05 remaining in the third quarter as he connected with Kermit Whitfield for a 70-yard touchdown up the right sideline. It is the eighth 300-yard passing game of Golson's career and his second since transferring to Florida State earlier this summer.

Golson completed passes to seven players. Whitfield set career highs for receptions (nine) and yards (172).

Dalvin Cook had his fourth 100-yard rushing game of the season with 163 yards on 22 carries and a pair of touchdowns. Cook's 54-yard touchdown, where he broke four Louisville tackles, gave the Seminoles a 13-7 lead early in the third quarter and marked his fourth score of 50-plus yards this season.

Louisville was able to stay with the Seminoles for two-and-a-half quarters, but two turnovers in the third quarter derailed any momentum. Lamar Jackson, who grew up in Pompano Beach, Florida, and came into the game with a 53.6 completion percentage, passed for a career-high 307 yards. James Quick had five receptions for 130 yards and three touchdowns.

The Cardinals had a 7-6 lead at halftime on a 18-yard touchdown pass from Jackson to Quick. Florida State's lone points in the first half came on a pair of Roberto Aguayo field goals.

LOUISVILLE - Louisville's defense had something to prove. Still stewing from allowing 510 yards at No. 9 Florida State and somewhat overshadowed by Boston College and its top-ranked defense, the Cardinals showed their stinginess early, often and particularly the Eagles' final possession. A drive in which BC hoped would at least provide an opportunity to tie went backward and ended with Trevon Young's fourth-down sack of quarterback Troy Flutie for a 4-yard loss that preserved a hard-fought 17-14 victory on Saturday.

"(Defensive coordinator Todd) Grantham kept saying all week, 'the No. 1 defense is coming and we have to outplay them,'" Cardinals linebacker Keith Kelsey said. "We've got to out-physical them and out hustle them."

The Cardinals (3-4, 2-2 Atlantic Coast Conference) did that and more.

That final stand and sack capped a dominant defensive effort for the Cardinals, who recorded a season-high eight sacks and held the Eagles to just 79 yards including minus-14 rushing. Louisville tied for the eighth-lowest yardage allowed since 1962 and provided the last word in the expected defensive battle.

Sheldon Rankins helped the effort with 46-yard fumble return in the second quarter for Louisville's second TD. The 303-pound defensive end looked pretty nimble when he scooped up Jeff Smith's fumble after being sacked by Trumaine Washington, leaping a defender as he raced down the left sideline.

Louisville allowed just one third-down conversion in 14 chances and tied their highest sack total since making eight against Wake Forest last season.

The performance offset a scoreless second half by Louisville, which gained 365 yards but allowed seven sacks and committed four turnovers. Harold Landry returned a third-quarter fumble 34 yards to set Jeff Smith's 8-yard touchdown, and Elijah Robinson's 12-yard touchdown return of a blocked punt proved BC's first TD.

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C.- Lamar Jackson threw two touchdown passes and Louisville forced five turnovers in the second half in a 20-19 victory over Wake Forest.

Jackson was 19 of 26 for 207 yards with scoring throws covering 14 and 22 yards to Jamari Staples for the Cardinals.

John Wolford was 6 of 19 for 131 yards with a 58-yard touchdown pass to Tabari Hines for the Demon Deacons (3-6, 1-5), but he threw three of his team's four second-half interceptions.

John Wallace kicked field goals of 37 and 39 yards, the latter coming after Chucky Williams' serpentine interception return and giving Louisville a one-point lead with 1:25 left in the third.

Wake Forest's Tylor Harris blocked Wallace's 36-yarder with 5:22 left and recovered at the Louisville 45, but Shaq Wiggins intercepted Wolford's deep pass for K.J. Brent with 3:31 to play.

The Demon Deacons forced a punt with 1:42 remaining but lost 13 yards in four plays. Trevon Young stripped the ball from Kendall Hinton, Devonte' Fields recovered at the Wake Forest 5 and the Cardinals ran out the clock.

Hinton finished 3 of 11 for 95 yards with an interception and a 78-yard catch-and-run touchdown throw to Cortez Lewis - Wake Forest's longest completion since 2011.

Staples had 10 catches for 133 yards for the Cardinals, who gained 317 total yards and held the Demon Deacons to 266 - 40 yards on the ground - in winning their second straight and fourth in five games.

They led 10-0 early and were up 19-17 after the opening half ended with three scores in the final 2:15.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) - Another dose of defense helped spur Louisville to the offensive explosion it has sought all season.

Kyle Bolin threw for a season-high 362 yards and three touchdowns, and Louisville gained a season-high 579 yards to rout Syracuse 41-17 for its third straight victory.

Starting in place of injured freshman Lamar Jackson, the sophomore used his first start since Clemson to complete 24 of 35 passes with an interception for the Cardinals (5-4, 4-2 Atlantic Coast Conference), who have won five of six.

Brandon Radcliff added a season-high 117 yards rushing on 10 carries while Jeremy Smith had 71 and a 4-yard touchdown on 13 attempts.

Louisville's defense meanwhile continued its recent stinginess, holding Syracuse (3-6, 1-4 ACC), which lost its sixth straight, to 286 yards and forcing three turnovers including two interceptions. Trumaine Washington returned one pickoff 39 yards for a 14-10 lead in the second quarter, and the Cardinals poured it on in outscoring the Orange 34-7 over the final three quarters.

John Wallace kicked two field goals to become Louisville's career leader with 62.

Bolin hit eight receivers with James Quick and Jamari Staples combining for nine receptions for 151 yards.

Syracuse's highlights were Ervin Phillips' 10-yard touchdown run set up by Cordell Hudson's interception, and Steve Ishmael's late 9-yard TD pass from Zack Mahoney. Starter Eric Dungey was 15 of 30 for 158 yards and two interceptions and rushed 13 times for 45 yards.
