■ AT A GLANCE: A week after earning its first Atlantic Coast Conference victory of the season, Carolina heads north to face Virginia on Saturday, Oct. 25. The game will kick off at 12:30 p.m. and will be televised on the ACC Network.

Saturday's game is the 119th edition of the "Oldest Rivalry In The South." Only two other rivals have played more often (Minnesota vs. Wisconsin; Missouri vs. Kansas). Carolina is part of three of the longest rivalry series in ACC history against Virginia (118 previous meetings), Wake Forest (105) and NC State (104).

Carolina has won four straight against the Wahoos for the first time since winning nine straight from 1974-82. Carolina's average margin of victory in the last four games is 25.0 points and all have been by double digits. Last season, the Tar Heels beat the Cavaliers in Kenan Stadium, 45-14.

The Tar Heels are coming off an exciting 48-43 victory over Georgia Tech. Junior quarterback Marquise Williams delivered a record-breaking performance completing 38 of 47 attempts for 390 yards and four touchdowns. He also ran for a score.

Virginia lost last week at Duke, 20-13. The Cavaliers are allowing just 22.1 points per game, while the Tar Heels lead the league in scoring offense with 38.7 points per game.

SMART • FAST • PHYSICAL

QUICK HITS

- ❑ Carolina head coach Larry Fedora is 4-0 against UVA with two wins at Southern Miss and two at UNC. He is 2-0 vs. the Cavaliers in Charlottesville.
- ❑ In the last two weeks, Carolina has played in the highest scoring game in Notre Dame Stadium history (93 points, first season in 1930) and the most total offense yards in Kenan Stadium history (first season in 1927).
- ❑ Carolina ranks first in the conference and 16th in the country, averaging 38.7 points per game. The Tar Heels have scored 30 or more points in all but one game and have scored 40 or more in four of seven.
- ❑ Carolina ranks 15th nationally with 79.4 plays per game. Only Clemson (79.7) averages more in the ACC.
- ❑ Carolina's schedule is ranked the 15th-most difficult in the country by the Sagarin rankings (based on the teams UNC has played thus far).
- ❑ Five of Carolina's seven opponents thus far have been ranked in the Top 25 at some point this season (ECU, Clemson, Virginia Tech, Notre Dame, Georgia Tech).
- ❑ Five UNC players have thrown a touchdown this year. No other school in the country has five different passers with a touchdown.
- ❑ Carolina has intercepted at least one pass in six of seven games this season and returned three for touchdowns.
- ❑ Carolina is 18th in the nation in turnovers gained and 20th in interceptions.
- ❑ QB Marquise Williams is one of six players in the country leading his team in both passing yards and rushing yards.
- ❑ Williams ranks second in the ACC and 17th in the country in total offense, averaging 317.7 total yards per game. Only FSU's Jameis Winston (320.8) is averaging more in the ACC.
- ❑ Williams is sixth at UNC in career touchdown passes with 31. He needs two to tie Matt Kupec for fifth at 33.
- ❑ Williams is tied with Ronald Curry for most career rushing TDs (13) by a quarterback at UNC.
- ❑ Williams has a school-record 898 total offense yards in the last two games (435 at Notre Dame and 463 vs. Georgia Tech). The previous mark was 796 by Williams against ODU and Duke in 2013.
- ❑ Over the last 20 games, Carolina has scored 11 non-offensive touchdowns (five punt returns for touchdowns, four interception returns for touchdowns, two kickoff returns for touchdowns).
- ❑ UNC has scored on 30 of 32 red zone possessions this season with 25 TDs and five field goals.
- ❑ Sixteen different Tar Heels have caught a pass this season led by Ryan Switzer with 34.
- ❑ Carolina leads the league in kickoff coverage and has 27 touchbacks this season. The Tar Heels are 10th in the nation in kickoff return defense.

QUISE AT QB IN 2014

■ Junior Marquise Williams leads the Tar Heels in passing and rushing yards. This season, he has completed 156 of 242 attempts (.645) for 1,776 yards and 15 touchdowns. He leads the team with 448 rushing yards on 91 attempts.

■ Williams' 3,601 career passing yards ranks ninth all-time at UNC and is 194 shy of Chris Keldorf (1996-97) in eighth place and 239 shy of Matt Kupec (1976-79) in seventh place.

■ Williams has compiled three of the four highest single-game total offense performances in Carolina's last nine games dating back to the Old Dominion game last November. He set the UNC mark with 469 vs. ODU in 2013 and had 435 vs. Notre Dame on Oct. 11, 2014, and 463 vs. Georgia Tech on Oct. 18, 2014.

■ Williams has a school-record 898 total offense yards in the last two games (435 at Notre Dame and 463 tonight). The previous mark was 796 by Williams against ODU and Duke last year.

■ Williams also has 1,521 total offense yards in the last four games, a school record for any four-game stretch. The previous high was 1,322 by Bryn Renner in 2012.

LEADING IN RUSHING AND PASSING YARDS

■ Williams is one of just six players in the country leading his team in passing yards (1,776) and rushing yards (448). He also has one catch for 23 yards and touchdown this year.

Players leading their teams in passing and rushing yards

C.J. Brown, Maryland (1,187 passing, 362 rushing)

Tyler Murphy, Boston College (869 passing, 766 rushing)

Sam Richardson, Iowa State (1,669 passing, 319 rushing)

Justin Thomas, Georgia Tech (959 passing, 625 rushing)

Jake Waters, Kansas State (1,431 passing, 371 rushing)

Marquise Williams, North Carolina (1,776 passing, 448 rushing)

PASSING TD, RUSHING TD, RECEIVING TD

■ Twice in his career Williams has had a passing touchdown, rushing touchdown and receiving touchdown in the same game. He first accomplished the feat against Virginia in 2013 and later did it again at Notre Dame in 2014. At least as far back as 2000, no other ACC player has ever accomplished the feat.

GAME-BY-GAME HIGHLIGHTS

■ GEORGIA TECH: Completed 38 of 47 pass attempts for 390 yards and four touchdowns • Set the UNC record for completions in a game with 38 (previous was 33 by T.J. Yates vs. NC State in 2010) • Also set the UNC record for completions in consecutive games with 62 (previous record was 61 by Yates in 2010) • Broke the school record for completions in a half with 23 second-half completions (previous mark was 19 by Mark Maye and Bryn Renner (twice)) • Attempted 47 passes, which equals the third-most in a game in UNC history • Threw for 390 yards, the eighth-most in UNC single-game history • Rushed for 73 yards and gained 463 yards of total offense, the second-most in UNC single-game history • Tied the UNC record

CAROLINA-VIRGINIA

SERIES NOTES

- North Carolina leads the series with Virginia, 61-53-4, and has won four straight in the series for the first time since winning nine in a row from 1974-82.
- Carolina's margin of victory in its four consecutive wins over UVA is 25.0 points.

That includes 44-10 win in 2010, a 28-17 win in 2011, a 37-17 win in 2012 and a 45-14 win in 2013.

- In last year's game in Chapel Hill, QB Marquise Williams wore the No. 2 jersey in honor of his teammate Bryn Renner who had been lost for the season the previous week in a win over NC State. Williams did not disappoint, throwing two touchdown passes, rushing for a score and catching a 29-yard touchdown pass on a trick play from WR Quinshad Davis.

- In Carolina's most recent trip to Charlottesville in 2013, the Tar Heels knocked off the Cavaliers, 37-13, in an ESPN Thursday night game. Safety Tre Boston returned an interception for a touchdown and Bryn Renner threw two touchdown passes.

- Carolina is looking to win its third straight in Charlottesville, which has not occurred since the late 1970s. The Tar Heels lost 14-straight games in Charlottesville from 1983-2008 before snapping the streak in 2010.

- Carolina head coach Larry Fedora is 4-0 against Virginia, including two wins at UNC and two wins while coaching Southern Miss. Fedora is 2-0 in Charlottesville.

- Saturday's game will be the 119th meeting in the rivalry known as the "Oldest Rivalry in the South." Only two other rivals in the country have played more often.

- North Carolina's final game of the regular season was typically played against Virginia prior to 1950. In fact, from 1919-1950, Carolina played its regular season finale vs. Virginia 28 of 32 times.

- Ten current Tar Heels are from Virginia, including freshman linebacker Malik Carney (Alexandria), freshman defensive lineman Jeremiah Clarke (Alexandria), freshman quarterback Caleb Henderson

- Corey Holliday, Carolina's Assistant Athletic Director for Football Administration and a former Tar Heel standout, is a native of Richmond, Va. Holliday ranks second at UNC in career receiving yardage.

- Many of Carolina's greatest football players have hailed from the state of Virginia. A short list includes NFL Hall of Fame linebacker Lawrence Taylor (Williamsburg), two-time ACC Player of the Year Mike Voight (Chesapeake), two-time All-America William Fuller (Chesapeake), bruising halfback Ken Willard (Richmond), All-America offensive guard Ron Rusnak (Prince George), record-setting wide receiver Corey Holliday (Richmond), linebacker Dwight Hollier (Hampton), four-time 1,000-yard back Amos Lawrence (Norfolk), three-time first-team All-America cornerback Dre' Bly (Chesapeake) and record-setting quarterback Ronald Curry (Hampton).

■ According to the NCAA formula, which is based on the cumulative opposition record vs. FBS teams, Carolina has the 20th-most difficult schedule in the country.

POSTGAME NOTES VS. GEORGIA TECH

■ Carolina won for the first time in five games this season and snapped a five-game losing streak against Georgia Tech with a 48-43 victory. Sophomore T.J. Logan scored the game-winning touchdown on a 2-yard run with 11 seconds to play.

■ The two teams combined for 1,190 total offense yards, the most ever in a game in Kenan Stadium history. The previous high was 1,166 by UNC and Maryland in 1993. Georgia Tech gained 611 yards and UNC amassed 579. The 611 yards by the Yellow Jackets are the ninth-most by an opponent in any game and the second-most in a Tar Heel victory (Arizona State had 657 in 2002 in a UNC win).

■ In the last two weeks, Carolina has played in the highest scoring game in Notre Dame Stadium history (93 points, began play there in 1930) and the most total offense yards in Kenan Stadium history (began play here in 1927).

■ The Tar Heels committed a season-low four penalties totaling a season-low 35 yards (previous lows were five for 37 against San Diego State).

■ Carolina converted 10 of 15 third-down opportunities, a season-best percentage of .667. The previous bests were 9 of 17 (.529) against both Liberty and Notre Dame.

■ The Tar Heels also converted both of their fourth-down chances, including a 36-yard TD pass from Williams to Hollins that gave UNC a 42-31 lead early in the final quarter.

■ Carolina held the ball on offense for a season-high 28:30 against Georgia Tech.

■ Carolina had a season-high 31 first downs against Georgia Tech. That is the second consecutive week the Tar Heels compiled a season high in first downs. They had 30 against Notre Dame.

■ Carolina has gained 1,091 total offense yards in the last two games (512 against Notre Dame and 579 against Georgia Tech).

■ Carolina and Georgia Tech have combined for 209 points in the last two games played in Kenan Stadium. Georgia Tech beat Carolina, 68-50, in Chapel Hill in 2012.

GAME TIME NOTE

■ Six of Carolina's seven games this season have started at 3:30 p.m. or later. Carolina has played four night games for the first time since 2000. The Duke game on Thursday, Nov. 20, will kick off at 7:30 p.m. and will be the fifth night game of the year.

DAVIS CLIMBING THE CHARTS

■ Junior wide receiver Quinshad Davis has four touchdown catches this year. Davis ranks tied for second in school history with 19 touchdown receptions. Only Hakeem Nicks (21 from 2006-08) has more at UNC. Davis has 129 career catches, which ranks tied 10th place in UNC history (Barnes, 129).

■ Davis scored on a 20-yard touchdown pass from Williams in the second quarter at Notre Dame.

■ Davis threw his third career touchdown pass to Williams late in the third quarter at Notre Dame, a 23-yard scoring play to give Carolina the lead. Davis also threw touchdowns against Virginia (to Williams) and East Carolina (to T.J. Thorpe) in 2013. He has completed all three pass attempts of his career for touchdowns.

■ Davis became just the third player in UNC history to have double digit touchdown receptions when he posted 10 in 2013. Only Dwight Jones (12 in 2011) and Nicks (12 in 2008) have had more in a single season.

HOLLINS MAKING AN IMPACT

■ A year ago, wide receiver Mack Hollins was a special teams captain as a walk-on freshman. This year, the Rockville, Md., native is an integral part of the Tar Heels' offense. Hollins has 24 catches for a team-high 435 yards and

■ Ryan Switzer tied an NCAA single-season record and established an ACC record with five punt return touchdowns as a true freshman in 2013. He set the mark with an 86-yard score in the third quarter of Carolina's Belk Bowl victory over Cincinnati. It was the longest return of his career and the fourth-longest in school history. Chad Owens of Hawaii set the NCAA record with five in 2004.

■ Switzer is now just three shy of the NCAA career record of eight held by Texas Tech's Wes Welker (2000-03) and Oklahoma's Antonio Perkins (2001-04).

■ Switzer owns the career punt return touchdown mark at UNC, passing Johnny Branch (1929-31) and Charlie Justice (1946-49) who each had four.

■ Switzer finished 2013 with a single-season school-record 502 punt return yards, besting Bosley Allen's mark of 421 from 2000. He also set the UNC single-season record for punt return average at 20.9 (24 for 502 yards). The previous mark of 17.5 was set by Charlie Justice in 1948 (19 for 332).

■ Switzer's five punt return TDs all came in the final five games of the year. His first was on an 85-yard return vs. Virginia on Nov. 9. A week later against Pitt, he returned two punts for touchdowns. He had a 65-yarder in the second quarter and a 61-yarder in the fourth quarter with 4:46 remaining that proved to be the winning score. The next week at Kenan Stadium vs. ODU, he scored on a 64-yard punt return. He was held out of the end zone in a loss to Duke, but returned an 86-yarder against Cincinnati for the record.

■ Switzer tied the NCAA record for consecutive games with a punt return touchdown at three. He scored four times on punt returns in three straight games against Virginia, Pitt and ODU. The only other player in NCAA history to score in three consecutive games on punt returns was David Allen of Kansas State in 1998 (63 yards vs. Indiana St., Sept. 5; 69 yards vs. Northern Ill., Sept. 12; 93 yards vs. Texas, Sept. 19).

■ Switzer tied the school record for most punt return touchdowns in a game with two against Pittsburgh. The only other player in UNC history to score twice on punt returns was defensive tackle Andre Purvis who recovered two blocked punts in the end zone against Tulane in 1993. Statistically, both of those recovered punts are recorded as punt returns.

■ Switzer led the nation with five punt return touchdowns and 502 punt return yards.

a season-high five touchdowns. He is second in the ACC with five TD receptions and seventh in receiving yards per game.

■ His 91-yard touchdown catch from Williams vs. SDSU is the longest by a Tar Heel in Kenan Stadium history. It was also the third-longest pass play at any venue in school history.

■ Hollins made his first two career receptions for 40 yards, including a 33-yard touchdown in the third quarter vs. Liberty. The 33-yard catch-and-run down the left sideline was the go-ahead score that gave Carolina a 28-22 lead with 5:55 to play in the third quarter.

■ Against Clemson, Hollins caught two passes for 30 yards and an acrobatic 17-yard touchdown in the second quarter.

■ At Notre Dame, Hollins caught an 18-yard touchdown pass with 47 seconds to play in the fourth quarter. It was his fourth receiving score this season, which ties for the team lead with Davis. Hollins led the Tar Heels with six catches for 84 yards against the Irish.

SWITZER LEADS TEAM IN RECEPTIONS

■ WR Ryan Switzer leads the team with 34 receptions this season. His 429 receiving yards ranks second behind Mack Hollins. Switzer is fifth in the ACC with 4.9 receptions per game and sixth in receiving yards.

SMART • FAST • PHYSICAL

- Switzer has 24 punt returns for 90 yards, including a long of 30.
- Switzer caught three passes for 87 yards against Clemson, including a 75-yard catch-and-run for his first touchdown of the season.
- Switzer had a career-high nine receptions for a career-high 136 yards and two touchdowns in the win over Georgia Tech. It was the second 100-yard receiving game of his career. He had 118 vs. Old Dominion in 2013. It was also the second time he caught two TD passes in a game (had two against Old Dominion last year).

CREATING TURNOVERS

■ The Tar Heels have forced 16 turnovers this season. UNC has intercepted nine passes and returned three of them for touchdowns. The Tar Heels recovered four fumbles in the win over Liberty. Carolina ranks 18th in the nation in turnovers gained and 20th in interceptions. Last year, Carolina was 71st in the nation in turnovers gained. Carolina has intercepted at least one pass in six of the first seven games. The Tar Heels are tied for 40th in turnover margin.

THORPE'S COMEBACK

■ Junior T.J. Thorpe has broken his right foot three times during his career. He missed the entire 2012 season after injuring it in training camp. He broke the foot again in February, 2013, missing all of spring practice. He played in 2013 and finished with 24 catches for 267 yards and two touchdowns. Expected to be a major contributor this season, Thorpe broke the foot for the third time on the second day of training camp this year.

■ Thorpe missed the first two games, but returned to action against East Carolina where he caught a 35-yard touchdown pass from Ryan Switzer. A week later, he had a 41-yard catch-and-run touchdown on a tunnel screen pass from Marquise Williams.

■ Thorpe has seven catches for 118 yards and two touchdowns this year.

RUN GAME

■ Quarterback Marquise Williams leads the Tar Heels' running game with 448 yards. Against Virginia Tech, Williams rushed a career-high 19 times for 94 yards in the loss. His 94 net rushing yards included minus 33 yards charged to his rushing total resulting from Virginia Tech's five sacks. Williams gained 127 yards on the ground before the sack yardage is included in his net total.

■ Four different Tar Heels led the team in rushing in each of the first four games this season. Reserve tailback Charles Brunson had a team-high 54 yards in the Liberty win. Williams led the team with 63 yards on the ground vs. San Diego State. Junior Romar Morris was Carolina's leading rusher with nine carries for 46 yards and two touchdowns at ECU. Freshman Elijah Hood rushed for 71 yards and scored a touchdown against Clemson.

■ T.J. Logan rushed for a season-high 75 yards on 14 carries in the win over Georgia Tech. His previous high this season was 45 yards vs. Liberty.

■ TB Romar Morris scored his fourth rushing TD of the season on a 3-yard run in the third quarter to give the Tar Heels a 35-24 lead against Georgia Tech. He finished with 41 rushing yards on nine carries.

■ Carolina is averaging 153.1 rushing yards per game this season.

O-LINE YOUTH & INJURIES

■ North Carolina's youthful offensive line has been hit by injuries to two starters already this year. Landon Turner, North Carolina's most experienced offensive lineman with 21 career starts, did not play against ECU and Clemson. He returned for the Virginia Tech game. True freshman Jared Cohen made his first two career starts in Turner's place.

■ The offensive line took another hit in the loss at ECU when right tackle Jon Heck (16 consecutive starts to begin his career) went down with an injury and did not return. He did not play against Clemson or Virginia Tech, but did return at Notre Dame.

■ Against arguably the league's best defensive line at Clemson, Carolina started four sophomores and a true freshman on the offensive line.

■ With a healthy offensive line against Notre Dame and Georgia Tech, the Tar Heels posted 512 and 579 total offense yards, respectively.

WALKER WINS IT

■ Sophomore cornerback Brian Walker was named Athlon's National Defensive Player of the Week after his performance in the Tar Heels' 31-27 win over San Diego State. The Charlotte, N.C., native picked off two passes and had 126 interception return yards, including a 100-yard return for a touchdown. He became just the third player in UNC history to return an interception 100 yards for a touchdown, joining Bob Gantt vs. William & Mary in 1950 and Reggie Love vs. Tulane in 1994. He became the 94th player in NCAA history to return an interception 100 yards since records were first

BLY HEADED TO COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Former North Carolina defensive back Dre' Bly is one of 14 members of the 2014 College Football Hall of Fame class, announced in late May by the National Football Foundation. Bly will become the sixth player or coach from UNC, and first player since Don McCauley in 2001, to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame at the induction ceremony in December.

"This is a tremendous honor and I'm thrilled to represent the University of North Carolina in the College Football Hall of Fame," said Bly. "It's a dream come true that hasn't really sunk in yet. I was fortunate to play with a great group of guys in Chapel Hill who pushed me every day to become a better player. We had one of the best defenses in the country with future NFL players all over the field. I wouldn't be accepting this honor without them and the great coaching staff under the leadership of Mack Brown."

Bly had a brilliant career in Chapel Hill from 1996-98, helping lead the Tar Heels to back-to-back Top 10 finishes and three consecutive bowl victories. The Chesapeake, Va., native remains the only player in Atlantic Coast Conference history to earn first-team All-America honors in his first three seasons.

In 1996, Bly became the first freshman defensive player in college football history to earn consensus first-team All-America honors. That season, the Tar Heels went 10-2, beat West Virginia in the Gator Bowl and finished No. 10 in the Associated Press Top 25 poll. Bly led the nation as a freshman with 11 interceptions in the regular season and added two more pass thefts in the bowl game. He was named first-team All-America by the Associated Press, The Sporting News, the Football Writers and the Walter Camp Foundation.

When Bly repeated consensus honors in 1997, he became the first two-time consensus All-America in UNC football history. Carolina claimed an 11-1 record and a No. 4 ranking in the coaches poll and No. 6 ranking by the AP. Bly was part of a Carolina defense that finished among the top five in all major categories, including pass defense, run defense and total defense.

In 1998, Bly was named first-team All-America by the Walter Camp Foundation and set the ACC career record for interceptions with 20, a record that stood until 2012.

kept in 1941. Walker finished with five tackles and assisted on a tackle for loss.

■ Against ECU, Walker picked off a pass in the first half and returned it 23 yards to set up Carolina's first touchdown. He also recovered a blocked field goal and returned it 30 yards.

WALKER AWARDS

■ In addition to the Athlon's National Defensive Player of the Week honor, Walker was named the Jim Thorpe National Defensive Back of the Week and the Co-Defensive Back of the Week by the ACC following the SDSU game. The Thorpe Award is presented at the end of the season to the nation's top defensive back.

GREAT SCOTT

■ Senior safety Tim Scott sealed the win over San Diego State with a lunging interception in the end zone with just 14 seconds left in the game. The interception was Scott's eighth as a Tar Heel, which ranks just two behind several players for ninth place on the UNC career list. Scott has picked off at least one pass all four seasons in Chapel Hill.

WALK-ON WARRIORS

■ Carolina has received enormous contributions from several players who came to Chapel Hill without a scholarship. In the Liberty game alone, Jeff Schoettmer had a 19-yard interception return for touchdown, Dominique Green recovered three fumbles and returned one for 20 yards, Mack Hollins had a 33-yard touchdown reception, Charles Brunson was the leading rusher and had a touchdown, punter Tommy Hibbard was outstanding in changing the field position and kickoff specialist Nick Weiler had eight touchbacks on nine kicks. All of those players came to Carolina as walk-ons.

■ Carolina played 15 walk-ons or former walk-ons in the Liberty game, including three starters on defense.

SCORING ON DEFENSE

■ Carolina has scored on an interception return three times this season. LB Jeff Schoettmer scored on a 19-yard pick-six against Liberty and a 29-yard return at Notre Dame. Cornerback Brian Walker scored on a 100-yard interception return vs. SDSU. Larry Fedora's teams have shown a penchant for scoring on interception returns during his head coaching career. In 2011, his Southern Miss squad set a NCAA record with eight touchdowns on interception returns.

QUICK HIT TEAM NOTES

■ Carolina ranks 15th in the country, averaging 79.4 plays per game. Defensively, however, the Tar Heels are 120th nationally, allowing 80.3 plays per game.

■ The average length of a Carolina game is three hours, 34 minutes this season. Only 10 other schools – Ball State, Baylor, Cal, East Carolina, FIU, Illinois, La.-Monroe, TCU, Toledo, West Virginia – play longer games on average.

■ Five different players have thrown touchdown passes this season. They are: QB Marquise Williams (11), QB Mitch Trubisky (2), WR Ryan Switzer (1), WR Quinshad Davis (1) and P Tommy Hibbard (1).

■ Carolina and Notre Dame combined to score 93 points in the Irish's 50-43 victory. That is the most in the history of the series. The previous high was 71 in the 45-26 Notre Dame win in 2006.

■ The 93 points in the Notre Dame game were the most combined points ever in a game in Notre Dame Stadium history (built in 1930). The previous high for Notre Dame Stadium was 92 on October 8, 2011, a 59-33 Irish win over Air Force.

■ Carolina and Notre Dame combined for 1,024 yards – 512 for Notre Dame and 512 for the Tar Heels. Carolina ran 84 plays and the Irish ran 81. This is the second time this season that both teams ran at least 80 plays in a game (East Carolina 97, UNC 82).

■ Three different Tar Heels threw touchdown passes against East Carolina. Wide receiver Ryan Switzer threw a 35-yard scoring pass to T.J. Thorpe, punter Tommy Hibbard connected on a 29-yarder with Eric Albright on a fake field goal and quarterback Mitch Trubisky had a 10-yard touchdown pass to Jack Tabb in the fourth quarter.

■ Against San Diego State, the Tar Heels had two plays of 90 yards or longer in one game for the first time in school history. CB Brian Walker had a 100-yard interception return for a touchdown and WR Mack Hollins caught a 91-yard pass from Marquise Williams for a score. The Williams to Hollins pass play is the longest by the Tar Heels in Kenan Stadium history.

■ This season, the Tar Heels have recovered seven fumbles and made nine interceptions. Carolina is ranked 14th in the country in turnovers gained. That is quite a contrast from last season when Carolina recovered just seven fumbles and ranked 71st in turnovers gained and 48th in turnover margin. In the first game of 2014 vs. Liberty, the Tar Heels recovered four fumbles and forced six turnovers. That is the highest turnover total by a Carolina opponent since Boston College had six in 2009. Carolina added three interceptions in the win over SDSU, including two by cornerback Brian Walker and a pick in the end zone on SDSU's final drive by safety Tim Scott.

■ The Tar Heels ran 93 offensive plays in the win over Liberty. The last time UNC ran 90 or more plays in a game was in 1994 when UNC ran 96 plays against Georgia Tech. The previous high under Fedora was 86 vs. NC State in 2012. Carolina's season high in 2013 was 79 plays on four occasions.

■ A total of 67 players saw action in the win over Liberty, including eight true freshmen and six redshirt freshmen. The true freshmen were DB Allen Artis, WR Austin Proehl, LB Tyrell Tomlin, LB Cayson Collins, TB Elijah Hood, OG Jared Cohen, OT Bentley Spain and DT Tyler Powell. The redshirt freshmen were DE Dajaun Drennon, WR Jackson Boyer, QB Mitch Trubisky, OG Brad Henson, WR Jordan Fieulleateau and DT Nazair Jones.

■ Nine different players made their first career start in the season opener against Liberty – OT John Ferranto, OG Will Dancy, WR Bug Howard and WR Ryan Switzer on offense; DE Dajaun Drennon, DT Justin Thomason, B Shakeel Rashad, R Ryan Mangum and CB T.J. Jiles on defense.

■ Carolina scored 28 consecutive points in three minutes and 49 seconds against Liberty after falling behind 22-21. Carolina scored on a 33-yard touchdown pass from Marquise Williams to Mack Hollins, a 19-yard interception return by Jeff Schoettmer, a 15-yard run by Williams and a 4-yard pass from Mitch Trubisky to Jack Tabb to take a 49-22 lead.

■ It's unlikely that many other programs are getting as much out of their walk-on program as Carolina. A total of 15 walk-ons, or former walk-ons, played in the Liberty game, including three starters on defense - LB Jeff Schoettmer, R Ryan Mangum and S Dominique Green.

■ Carolina had just six scholarship seniors on its 2014 training camp roster and just one senior starter on offense – tight end Jack Tabb.

QUICK HIT PLAYER/COACH NOTES FROM A TO Z

■ Tight end Eric Albright is enrolled in Carolina's Master's of Accounting program at the business school. He is the only graduate student on the roster. Albright scored his first career touchdown when the Tar Heels faked a field goal in the loss at ECU. Holder Tommy Hibbard hit Albright for a 29-yard score. Albright had a 67-yard reception at Clemson.

■ Sophomore Lucas Crowley is the starter at center. He replaced Russell Bodine who left school early to enter the NFL Draft and is starting for Cincinnati. Crowley's only previous start prior to this season was at Pittsburgh where he faced All-America DT Aaron Donald. He registered five knock-down blocks in Carolina's win over the Panthers.

■ Redshirt freshman Dajaun Drennon became the first freshman to start at defensive end at UNC since Kareem Martin vs. LSU in 2010. He continues to improve and has 23 tackles, 4.5 tackles for loss and two sacks this season.

■ Head Coach Larry Fedora has never had a losing season in his six previous years as a head coach, including four at Southern Miss and two at UNC. He won his 50th career game vs. Liberty to open the 2014 season.

■ Defensive end Junior Gnonkonde moved to the United States from the Ivory Coast in Africa when he was in high school. He began playing football as a high school freshman and developed into an outstanding player. He speaks five languages, including his native French. Gnonkonde leads the team in tackles for loss. Against Georgia Tech, he posted a career-high seven tackles (all in the first half).

■ Dominique Green started all 13 games last year as a true freshman and was second on the team with three interceptions, including a 62-yard touchdown return vs. Virginia. He had three fumble recoveries in the season opener vs. Liberty and returned one for 20 yards.

■ Sophomore left tackle Jon Heck is the son of Andy Heck who was an All-America at Notre Dame and played 12 seasons in the NFL. Jon started 16 consecutive games to open his career before an injury caused him to miss two games. He has 18 career starts.

■ Senior punter Tommy Hibbard, a former walk-on from Charlotte, N.C., is on track to become just the fourth punter in UNC history to lead the team in punting average for four consecutive seasons. Hibbard was a preseason All-America pick by Phil Steele.

■ Carolina has landed the top running back in the state each of the past two seasons in T.J. Logan of Greensboro in 2012 and Elijah Hood of Charlotte in 2013. Hood enrolled at UNC in January and participated in spring practice. He squatted 605 pounds in the Tar Heels' offseason strength and conditioning workouts. Hood is an Eagle Scout who earned the honor after renovating his church parking lot while in high school.

■ Running back/kick returner T.J. Logan was one of only seven players in the NCAA to return two kickoffs in 2013 for touchdowns. This season, he ranks third in the league in kickoff return average.

■ Former quarterback Caleb Pressley elected to end his career a year early and is now the team's sideline signal caller. Pressley takes the calls from the press box and signals them to the quarterback in an NFL jersey. He signaled the plays while wearing a Julius Peppers' Green Bay jersey against Liberty, Sylvester Williams (Denver) vs. SDSU, Bruce Carter (Dallas) at ECU, Da'Norris Searcy (Buffalo) at Clemson, T.J. Yates (Atlanta) vs. Virginia Tech, Russell Bodine (Cincinnati) at Notre Dame and Eric Ebron (Detroit) vs. Georgia Tech.

■ Junior bandit Shakeel Rashad can claim a team-high six nicknames – "Shaktus," "Shakinabox," "Shaktastic," "Radio Shak," "Shakie Robinson," and "St. Shaktrick." Rashad has started the first two games of the season.

■ Linebacker Jeff Schoettmer came to Carolina as an undersized walk-on linebacker in 2011 out of Jesuit College Prep in Dallas, Texas. He has added bulk and last season ranked second on the team in tackles. Schoettmer's father, Steve, played linebacker at Duke, and his mother, Donna, played tennis at Wake Forest. Schoettmer is a friend of PGA golfer Jordan Speith, who also attended Jesuit College Prep.

■ After three years as a starting cornerback, Tim Scott has moved to safety for his senior season. He actually played his first full game at safety in the 2013 Belk Bowl vs. Cincinnati.

■ Former standout defensive tackle Ryan Sims has returned to Chapel Hill to finish his degree and serve as an undergraduate student coach. Sims was the No. 6 overall NFL draft pick (Kansas City) in 2002. Sims played on the same defensive line at UNC as Julius Peppers and helped lead the Tar Heels to a 16-10 win over Auburn in the 2001 Peach Bowl.

■ Kendrick Singleton, who goes by the nickname “Bull,” was called the most fit player on the team by strength and conditioning coach Lou Hernandez. Singleton started six games last year at wideout and will move to the “Y” position this year, a hybrid between a true wide receiver and a tight end.

■ Sam Smiley has missed 15 games in the last two years due to injury, but returned to action vs. Liberty as the starter at safety.

■ Linebacker Nathan Staub’s grandfather is Larry Morris, the Chicago Bears star who was named the MVP of the 1963 NFL championship game. Morris was dubbed the “Brahma Bull” for his bruising style of play. Staub, a sophomore from Chestnut Mountain, Ga., made his first career start last year in the Belk Bowl and had a career best six tackles.

■ CB M.J. Stewart made his first career interception early in the fourth quarter against Virginia Tech.

■ Sophomore Ryan Switzer is a fan of Christmas movies and the movie Frozen. He tied the NCAA single-season record with five punt return touchdowns in 2013 and became the first true freshman in UNC history to earn first-team All-America honors.

■ Tight end Jack Tabb is the only senior starter on the offensive side of the ball. Tabb played both tight end and linebacker a year ago, but will concentrate only on offense this year. This season, he has 17 catches for 147 yards and two touchdowns.

■ Walk-on place-kicker Nick Weiler won the kickoff duties last year and is off to an outstanding start this year. Twenty-seven of his 47 kickoffs have gone for touchbacks. He had 19 total touchbacks last year. Weiler has also claimed the starting place-kicking duties away from Thomas Moore.

■ Quarterback Marquise Williams attended George Whitfield’s spring break quarterback camp (California) earlier this year. He also served as a counselor at the Manning Passing Academy (Louisiana) just a few weeks before training camp began.

SHORT ON SENIORS

■ At the start of training camp, North Carolina had just six scholarship seniors on the roster in 2014. “It’s by far the youngest team I’ve ever coached,” says head coach Larry Fedora. Carolina has just one senior starter on offense – TE Jack Tabb – and four on defense – LB Travis Hughes, LB Jeff Schoettmer, DT Ethan Farmer and S Tim Scott. Senior defensive tackle Devonte Brown is a reserve defensive tackle.

■ Carolina’s opening day training camp roster of 105 players included a staggering 67 underclassmen (63.8 percent). Only Pittsburgh, NC State and Wake Forest have more underclassmen in the ACC and just 18 schools in the country have more. Carolina’s training camp roster was comprised of 40 freshmen and 27 sophomores, 28 juniors and 10 seniors.

■ Following training camp, Fedora awarded scholarships to punter Tommy Hibbard, deep snapper Alex Marrs and place-kicker Thomas Moore to bring the total to nine scholarship seniors for 2014.

NOTING THE OFFENSE

■ Carolina has averaged more than 425 yards per game in each of Larry Fedora’s first two seasons in Chapel Hill. Last year was just the ninth time in school history Carolina had averaged more than 400 yards per game. The last time Carolina posted back-to-back seasons with 400 yards per game was the 1993 and 1994 seasons. Only once in school history – from 1981-83 – has Carolina put together three straight seasons with 400 yards or more per game. In Fedora’s first season in 2012, Carolina set the school record with 485.6 yards per game.

■ Carolina has posted more than 500 yards of total offense nine times in 32 games under Larry Fedora, including a school-record 721 yards vs. ODU in 2013. UNC has gained at least 400 yards in 24 of Fedora’s 32 games as head coach.

■ Since 2012, Carolina is averaging 42.8 points per game at Kenan Stadium (18 games) and 29.4 points per game away from home (14 games).

NON-OFFENSIVE TOUCHDOWNS

■ North Carolina set a single-season school record in 2013 with eight non-offensive touchdowns. Only Florida State (9) had more in the ACC. The Tar Heels scored on five punt returns by Ryan Switzer, a pair of kickoff returns by T.J. Logan and an interception return by safety Dominque Green. The previous known high at UNC for a single-season was seven in 2009.

NORTH CAROLINA & THE NFL DRAFT

- Since 2011, North Carolina has had 10 players selected in the top two rounds of the NFL Draft, trailing only Alabama (16) and LSU (11) in that time frame.

- Five Tar Heels were picked in the 2014 NFL Draft – Eric Ebron (1st round, Detroit), Kareem Martin (3rd round, Arizona), Russell Bodine (4th round, Cincinnati), Tre Boston (4th round, Carolina) and Jabari Price (7th round, Minnesota). In addition, quarterback Bryn Renner (Denver), offensive tackle James Hurst (Baltimore), tailback A.J. Blue (Washington) and defensive tackle Tim Jackson (Houston) signed free agent deals.

- Carolina's five 2014 NFL Draftees ranked second in the ACC and tied for seventh nationally. Only LSU (9), Alabama (8), Notre Dame (8), FSU (7), Stanford (6) and Ohio State (6) had more.

- Tight end Eric Ebron became the 23rd overall first round NFL Draft pick in school history, and the seventh since 2008, when he was chosen 10th overall by the Detroit Lions.

- In Larry Fedora's two seasons at UNC, the Tar Heels have produced three first round picks – offensive guard Jonathan Cooper (seventh overall to Arizona in 2013), Sylvester Williams (28th overall to Denver in 2013) and Eric Ebron (10th overall to Detroit in 2014).

- North Carolina has produced seven first-round draft picks since 2008. That is the most of any ACC school. Florida State ranks second with six. The only other in-state schools with a first-round draft pick since 2008 are Wake Forest (1) and ECU (1).

Most First-Round NFL Draft Picks in ACC Since 2008

- 7 - Carolina - 2008, 2009, 2011, 2012, 2013 (2), 2014
- 6 - Florida State - 2010, 2011, 2013 (3), 2014
- 5 - Boston College - 2008 (2), 2009, 2011, 2012
- 3 - Virginia - 2008 (2), 2009
- 4 - Notre Dame - 2012 (2), 2013, 2014
- 4 - Louisville – 2009, 2014 (3)
- 3 - Pittsburgh - 2008, 2011, 2014
- 3 - Virginia Tech - 2008, 2012, 2014
- 3 - Clemson - 2010, 2013, 2014
- 2 - Syracuse - 2012, 2013
- 2 - Georgia Tech - 2010 (2)
- 1 - Miami – 2008
- 1 - Wake Forest - 2009
- 1 - Maryland - 2009
- 0 - Duke
- 0 - NC State

- Carolina has had 23 all-time first-round draft picks, which ranks just outside the top 25 in the country. It is, however, the most of any school in the state, ahead of NC State (15), Duke (5) and Wake Forest (4).

- Ebron was the first tight end taken in the 2014 NFL Draft. UNC head coach Larry Fedora also coached the first tight end taken in the 2009 draft when the Lions picked Oklahoma State's Brandon Pettigrew.

- Kareem Martin became the fourth Carolina defensive end taken in the last five years when he was selected by Arizona in 2014. Other recent UNC defensive ends selected include Quinton Coples in the first round of the 2012 draft, E.J. Wilson in the fourth round of the 2010 draft and Robert Quinn in the first round of the 2011 draft.

- Carolina has had seven defensive linemen picked in the last five NFL Drafts.

- In the first round of the 2013 NFL Draft, North Carolina offensive guard Jonathan Cooper was selected seventh overall by the Arizona Cardinals and defensive tackle Sylvester Williams was picked 28th overall by the Denver Broncos.

- Cooper became the first offensive guard selected in the top 10 of the NFL Draft since 1997 when Colorado's Chris Naeole was selected by the New Orleans Saints at No. 10. He became the highest selected offensive guard since Bill Fralic was taken No. 2 by Atlanta in 1985.

- In 2013, Giovani Bernard became the first running back taken in the NFL Draft when he was selected by the Cincinnati Bengals with the fifth pick of the second round (37th overall). It was the first time Carolina had produced the first tailback of the draft. Ethan Horton, a running back at UNC, was selected in the first round of the 1985 draft, but played exclusively tight end in the NFL.

- A total of 30 Carolina players have been selected in the NFL Draft since 2008, which ranks second among ACC schools. Two Tar Heels were picked in the 2008 draft, five in 2009, two in 2010, a league-high nine in 2011, two in 2012, five in 2013 and five in 2014.
