ASSISTANT COACHES

DUSTIN
TAYLOR

Associate Head Coach
Third Year

Dustin Taylor joined the Virginia men's tennis coaching staff in August of 2014 after spending the previous four years at the United States Tennis Association, including two years serving as the USTA Player Development national coach for collegiate tennis. He was promoted to Associate Head Coach at the conclusion of the 2016 season after the team had won its second-straight NCAA championship.

Taylor became the first USTA national coach devoted to collegiate tennis in 2013, a role devoted to facilitating the development of top collegiate players into the top 100 of the ATP and WTA rankings. Taylor was also in charge of the USTA Collegiate National Team, which assists top collegiate stars in their transition to playing on the ATP and WTA Tours. His first three years as a USTA national coach involved coaching and training future American stars working at the USTA training center in Boca Raton, Fla.

In his first season with Virginia, Taylor helped lead the Cavaliers to their eighth consecutive ACC Championship, their 11th in the past 12 years. Virginia's ACC win streak (regular season and postseason) reached 139 straight matches, the longest streak in conference history in any sport. The season was capped by the winning the NCAA Championship and Ryan Shane becoming Virginia's third NCAA Singles Champion. Thai-Son Kwiatkowski reached the semifinals as the Cavaliers had a pair of NCAA semifinalists for first time in school history. In 2015-16, Taylor coached Kwiatkowski at the ITA All-American, mentoring the junior as he became the first player since 2009 and the fourth in the history of the tournament to win both the singles and doubles titles in the same season.

Prior to joining the USTA, Taylor was a professional coach for several top 100 players, including Ryan Sweeting, Robert Kendrick and Tim Smyczek. In 2008, he was also the head coach of the New York Sportimes in World Team Tennis, leading the team to a second-place finish in the regular season and the semifinals of the playoffs. In 2011, Taylor served as the head men's coach for the United States Pan-American team in Guadalajara, Mexico, where his doubles team won the bronze medal.

Taylor was a standout collegiate player at The University of Tulsa, where he was a four-time All-Western Athletic Conference honoree and a 2003 All-American. Taylor participated in four NCAA individual championships, highlighted by reaching the quarterfinals of the 2003 NCAA Doubles Championship. In 2004, he was named the ITA/Farnsworth Central Region Senior Player of the Year.

Taylor and his wife, Jennie, has three daughters, McKenzie, Brooklyn and Tatum.

CARLOS BENATZKY

Volunteer Assistant
First Year

Carlos Benatzky joined the Cavaliers as a volunteer assistant coach in the fall of 2016.

Since 2015, Benatzky has served as the director of tennis at Keswick Hall and Golf Club in Keswick, Va. He began his career in the sport serving as the assistant tennis professional at Wachesaw Plantation Club in Murrells Inlet, S.C., earning a promotion to co-director of tennis as well as running a junior tennis academy there. In May of 2014 he joined the Boar's Head Sports Club in Charlottesville as the high performance junior coordinator before taking the position at Keswick.

Benatzky played collegiate tennis at NCAA II Lander University in Greenwood, S.C.

Benatzky is a native of Frankfurt, Germany, later moving to Marbella, Spain, where he trained at the Hofsaess Tennis Academy, competing in national and ITF Junior tournaments. He earned a B.A. in Economics and Finance from Lander University in 2008.

He and his wife, Brooke, and their daughter, Willow, and live in Crozet.

HEAD COACH BRIAN BOLAND

For two decades, the name Brian Boland, a two-time ITA National Coach of the Year, has been synonymous with success. Beginning with five seasons at Indiana State and over the past 15 years at Virginia, Boland has proven to be one of the elite coaches in collegiate tennis. Boland led his alma mater to new heights before he came to Charlottesville and turned the Cavalier program into the dominant team in the ACC and a national powerhouse.

In three of the last four seasons, Boland has led Virginia to the pinnacle of collegiate tennis as the program captured the 2013, 2015 and 2016 NCAA Championships. It is a far journey from the Cavalier team that Boland had inherited in 2001-02, which was unranked in the ITA Top 75.

Championships, both conference and national, both team and individual, have become a constant theme of Boland's squads. In 20 seasons as a head coach, in addition to the three NCAA Championships, his teams have won five ITA National Team Indoor Championships, 14 conference championships and 18 NCAA and ITA individual national championships.

With the trio of NCAA Championships, Boland has joined exclusive company in the history of collegiate men's tennis. Since the advent of the team championship format in 1977, Boland is one of just seven coaches to lead his school to multiple titles. He is one of two current coaches are that have coached multiple NCAA Championship teams, multiple NCAA Singles Champions and multiple NCAA Doubles Champions.

Boland's resume is loaded with honors and accomplishments. His .858 career winning percentage (550-89) places him with the legends of the sport. In addition to his 2016 and 2008 ITA National Coach of the Year recognitions, Boland has won 10 conference coach of the year awards and been named ITA Regional Coach of the Year six times.

As he enters his 16th season at Virginia, Boland has built a championship caliber program in Charlottesville. In his first three seasons, he took an unranked program to its first ACC Championship. From that point, the success and accolades just kept accumulating. During his time in Charlottesville, Boland's teams have had a No. 1 national ranking during nine different seasons, won five ITA National Team Indoor Championships, 11 ACC Championships, 13 ACC regular season titles, advanced to the NCAA finals four-straight seasons and set the school record for wins in a year. Those teams featured three NCAA Singles Champions, three NCAA Doubles Champions, 44 All-Americans, 39 NCAA singles and 17 NCAA doubles participants, 54 All-ACC selections, three ITA National Players of the Year, two ITA National Freshmen of the Year, nine ITA Regional Rookies of the Year, four ACC Freshmen of the Year, 12 ACC Tournament MVPs, and three ACC Players of the Year.

Boland's players have gone on to find success on the professional tour after graduation from Virginia. Three former players have cracked the top-75 of singles or doubles in the ATP Rankings and a Cavalier has participated in the main draw in each of the past 28 Grand Slams. In 2013, Somdev Devvarman became the first UVA alumnus to reach $1 million in earnings on the ATP Tour. Treat Huey and Dominic Inglot have both cracked the top 20 of the ATP Doubles Rankings, the highest ATP ranking for a Virginia alumnus. Inglot and Huey have won a combined eight ATP Tour titles and made six Grand Slam quarterfinal appearances with Inglot reaching the 2015 semifinals at the U.S. Open and Huey advancing to the semis at the 2016 Australian Open. Inglot was also a member of Great Britain's 2015 Davis Cup Champion team.

During his tenure, Boland has proven to be a tireless worker in both recruiting and player development. His belief in team success on the court and in the classroom has been evident from the day he arrived at UVA. Those principles have been the cornerstone to the program's improvement since Boland's arrival.

Last year, the Cavaliers began the 2015-16 season as the No. 1 team in the country and entered the NCAA Tournament as the No. 1 overall seed en route to becoming just the fourth school in the modern era to win consecutive NCAA titles. It was also a season in which the team saw its incredible 140-match decade-long win streak against ACC opponents snapped in the finals of the ITA National Team Indoor Championship with a loss to North Carolina. The squad also earned its 13th-consecutive ACC regular-season title, but were edged by Wake Forest in the ACC Tournament. Months before Virginia sent three singles players and two doubles teams to the NCAA Individual Championships, Cavaliers were winning national individual championships. In September, Ryan Shane and Luca Corinteli started the year off by winning the doubles title at the Oracle ITA Masters, an elite tournament that was the first national championship of the 2015-16 season. In October, Thai-Son Kwiatkowski became the first player since 2009 and fourth in the history of the ITA Men's All-American to win the singles and doubles championships in the same year, partnering with Mac Styslinger in the doubles tournament. The season was capped off by the ITA announcing that Boland had been named the National Coach of the Year for the second time in

During the 2015 season, the Cavaliers continued their run of success with their eighth consecutive ACC Championship, their 11th in the past 12 years. The season was capped by the winning the NCAA Championship and Ryan Shane becoming Virginia's third NCAA Singles Champion. Thai-Son Kwiatkowski reached the semifinals as the Cavaliers had a pair of NCAA semifinalists for first time in school history.

In 2014, the Cavaliers broke the ACC consecutive wins record for any sport and reached the NCAA semifinals for the seventh time in eight seasons.

The 2013 season marked one of the greatest years by any program in collegiate tennis history. In addition to posting an undefeated 30-0 record, Virginia became just the 12th school to win both the NCAA Championship and ITA National Team Indoor Championship in the same year. The Cavaliers had their fifth NCAA individual champion as Jarmere Jenkins and Mac Styslinger won the NCAA Doubles Championship. Jenkins, who also reached the NCAA Singles Championship final and finished the year No. 1 in the ITA Singles Rankings, became the third Cavalier to be named ITA National Player of the Year.

In 2011-12, the Cavaliers reached their second consecutive NCAA Tournament final, won their eighth ACC championship in nine seasons and set a NCAA record by having a NCAA singles quarterfinalist for the seventh consecutive season.

In the 2010-11 season, the Cavaliers went 34-1 and reached the NCAA final, where their comeback from down 3-0 came up short in a 4-3 loss to USC. Virginia won its unprecedented fourth consecutive ITA National Team Indoor Championship and its seventh ACC championship in eight seasons. The team was ranked No. 1 for most of the season and were the first school in nearly two decades to have five players selected for the NCAA singles championship. Boland was named the 2011 USTA Virginia Coach of the Year.

In 2009-10, the Cavaliers won their third consecutive ITA National Team Indoor Championship, had their fourth consecutive undefeated ACC campaign and were ranked No. 1 in the nation for most of the season. The year was capped when Drew Courtney and Michael Shabaz won the NCAA Doubles Championship. Virginia set a school record for wins in a season with a 39-2 mark and reached the NCAA semifinals for the third time in the past four seasons. During the year, Boland became the winningest coach in Virginia tennis history.

In 2008-09, the Cavaliers won their second consecutive ITA National Team Indoor Championship, had their third consecutive undefeated ACC campaign and were ranked No. 1 in the nation for most of the season. The year was capped when Dominic Inglot and Michael Shabaz became the first team from the ACC to win the NCAA Doubles Championship. Virginia tied a school record for wins in a season with its second straight 32-1 mark and reached the NCAA quarterfinals for the fifth consecutive season.

In 2007-08, Virginia was ranked No. 1 for the entire regular season, winning the ITA National Team Indoor Championship and the ACC regular season and tournament titles before being upset in the NCAA semifinals by eventual champion Georgia. The Cavaliers set a school record with a 32-1 record and Boland was named ITA National and Regional Coach of the Year along with taking home ACC Coach of the Year honors. The Cavaliers ended the season ranked No. 2 nationally for the second consecutive year. Somdev Devvarman concluded the season for the Cavaliers by winning his second consecutive NCAA Singles Championship. Devvarman, Treat Huey, and Dominic Inglot all were named to the ITA All-America squad.

The Cavaliers went 30-4 in 2006-07, reaching the 30-win mark for the first time in school history. Virginia became the first ACC school to reach the semifinals of the NCAA Tournament and ended the year ranked No. 2 nationally. The Cavaliers went undefeated in ACC play to win their fourth consecutive ACC regular season title and their third ACC Tournament crown in four seasons. The year was capped as Devvarman became the first ACC player to win the NCAA Singles Championship.

In 2005-06, the Cavaliers opened the season with a No. 1 national ranking, becoming the first-ever ACC school to earn the top spot in the ITA rankings. The team posted a 24-9 record, winning a share of its third consecutive ACC regular season title. Virginia reached the quarterfinals of the NCAA Tournament for the second consecutive season and finished the year ranked in the top 10 for the third straight year. At the NCAA singles championship, Devvarman reached the finals, becoming just the second Cavalier to accomplish the feat. Devvarman was one of three Cavaliers to earn All-American honors that season, the most for the Cavaliers in a single season.

The 2004-05 season was highlighted by the Cavaliers' second consecutive ACC Championship, going undefeated in league play. In February, the Cavaliers reached the finals of National Team Indoors, becoming the first school in the tournament's history to reach the finals in its first appearance. Virginia put together a then-school record 16-match win streak as they reached the NCAA quarterfinals for the first time. Boland was honored as ACC Coach of the Year and ITA Mideast Region Coach of the Year that season.

In 2003-04, the Cavaliers experienced a breakthrough season, highlighted by many program firsts. The team claimed a share of its first ACC regular season title, won its first ACC Tournament, earned its first top-10 ranking, hosted its first NCAA regional and advanced to the NCAA Championships for the first time.

Before coming to Virginia, Boland spent five seasons establishing his alma mater, Indiana State, as the dominant program in the Missouri Valley Conference along with being among the best nationally. He led the Sycamores to a 121-32 (.791) record from 1996-97 to 2000-01, including a 57-4 (.934) mark in Missouri Valley play. Boland's teams did not lose a conference match during his final three seasons in Terre Haute, winning three consecutive conference regular season and tournament titles. In four of his five seasons, Boland was recognized as the Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year and in 2000 was the ITA Region V Coach of the Year.

Among the firsts for the Sycamore program under Boland was the school's first MVC Championship (1999), first NCAA Tournament appearance (1999), first NCAA Tournament victory (2000), first ITA National Team Indoor Championship appearance (2000) and first ITA top 20 national ranking (No. 18 in 2001).

During his tenure at Indiana State, Boland also served as Director of Tennis at the Terre Haute Country Club. In addition, he and his wife Becky established the Sycamore Tennis Summer Camp, which drew hundreds of kids from across the state.

A 1995 graduate of Indiana State University, Boland earned a bachelor of science degree in political science. He and his wife, Becky, reside in Charlottesville with their children, Briana, Bryce, Brendan and Brooke.

The Cavaliers won their first NCAA Championship in 2013, defeating UCLA in the final.

• 2013 TEAM CHAMPIONS

The Virginia men's tennis team won the first NCAA Championship in program history as it defeated UCLA 4-3 in the 2013 NCAA Tournament final Tuesday at the Khan Outdoor Tennis Complex on the campus of the University of Illinois. The second-seeded Cavaliers (30-0) capped an undefeated season with the victory over the top-seeded Bruins (29-2) and became the first ACC school to win a men's tennis NCAA title.

Mitchell Frank clinched the championship with a come-from-behind 0-6, 6-4, 7-5 victory at No. 3 singles over Adrien Puget in the decisive match. Frank, who was down a break in the third set, saved a team match point before rallying for victory.

The Cavaliers took a 1-0 lead by winning the doubles point, which proved crucial. At No. 1, Jarmere Jenkins and Mac Styslinger rolled to an 8-2 win over Marcus Giron and Dennis Novikov to give the Cavaliers the edge. Julen Uriguen and Justin Shane rallied from down an early break to top Alex Brigham and Clay Thompson 8-5 at No. 3 doubles to clinch the point.

In singles, each team won three first sets as the match remained close throughout. The Cavaliers extended their lead to 2-0 as Shane cruised to a 6-2, 6-2 win at No. 5 over Thompson, snapping the Bruin's 14-match win streak. UCLA answered with a pair of victories to draw even in the match, 2-2. Giron got the Bruins on the board with a 6-4, 6-4 victory over Alex Domijan at No. 2, and Dennis Mkrtchian followed with a 6-4, 6-3 victory at No. 4 over Styslinger.

Virginia retook the lead, 3-2, as Jenkins he completed a 7-6(3), 6-3 victory at No. 1 over Novikov. Jenkins, who was named the ITA National Senior Player of the Year earlier in the day, was named the NCAA Tournament Most Outstanding Player.

The final two matches on the courts went to a third set with the Cavaliers needing to win one to claim the national title. At No. 6, Karue Sell rallied for a three-set victory over Uriguen, 4-6, 6-3, 6-2 to bring UCLA even, 3-3, and set up the dramatic ending on court No. 3.

After losing the first set to Puget 6-0, Frank responded by winning the second set 6-4 to force a decisive final set. Frank went up a break 2-1 only to see Puget break back in the ensuing game. Puget broke Frank again to take a 5-3 lead and served for the match for the Bruins. On championship point, 40-30, Puget approached the net to put away a shot that would clinch the title for UCLA, but his foot stepped on the net and the point was awarded to Frank to bring the game to deuce. Frank won the two points that followed to get back on serve, 4-5.

After Frank held his serve to draw even at 5-all, he broke Puget's serve again to allow him to serve for the match at 6-5. He won the first three points to take a 40-0 lead, but Puget saved the first two championship points for Virginia. On the third championship point, Puget sailed a shot wide that sparked the Cavaliers' celebration of their first NCAA Championship.

Virginia becomes the 14th school in the 67-year history of the NCAA Men's Tennis Championship to win the title.

The Cavaliers celebrate as Mitchell Frank clinches the championship.

NCAA TEAM CHAMPIONS

The Cavaliers won their second NCAA Championship in 2015, defeating Oklahoma in the final.

• 2015 TEAM CHAMPIONS

The third-ranked Virginia men's tennis team captured its second NCAA Championship in the past three years with a 4-1 victory over top-seeded Oklahoma in Tuesday's final at the Hurd Tennis Center. The Cavaliers (29-3), who also won the title in 2013, become the sixth program in NCAA history to win multiple men's tennis championships.

The Cavaliers opened the match strong, winning the doubles point to take a 1-0 lead. Luca Corinteli and Ryan Shane gave Virginia the edge with an 8-4 win at No. 1 over Andrew Harris and Alex Ghilea. The other two matches finished simultaneously, giving Virginia a doubles sweep. Collin Altamirano and J.C. Aragone finished an 8-5 win at No. 3 over Axel Alvarez and Jose Salazar just seconds before Thai-Son Kwiatkowski and Mac Styslinger closed out their 8-5 win at No. 2 over Dane Webb and Spencer Papa.

The teams split the six first sets, each winning three. The Sooners drew even in the match, 1-1, as Papa defeated Alexander Ritschard 6-3, 6-2 at No. 5 singles. Virginia retook the lead, 2-1, when Altamirano closed out a 6-3, 6-3 victory at No. 3 over Webb. Minutes later Kwiatkowski made the score 3-1 with his 6-3, 6-4 win at No. 4 over Ghilea.

The final point was secured by senior Mitchell Frank, who also clinched the Cavaliers first national title in 2013. Frank had won the first set over Andrew Harris 7-5 at No. 2 singles and the second set was on serve at 5-5. After Frank held for 6-5, he had three match points by taking a 0-40 lead in Harris' service game. Harris saved those three chances, but Frank gained a fourth match point at ad-out. On that point, Harris hit a forehand into the net to give Frank the 7-5, 7-5 victory and the Cavaliers the national title.

Frank was named the 2015 NCAA Men's Championship Most Outstanding Player and was selected to the NCAA All-Tournament Team at No. 2 singles. He was joined on the all-tournament team by Shane (No. 1 singles), Altamirano (No. 3 singles), Kwiatkowski and Styslinger (No. 2 doubles) and Altamirano and Aragone (No. 3 doubles).

With the victory, the Cavaliers avenged all three of their regular season losses during the semifinals and finals of the NCAA Tournament. Virginia had lost to Oklahoma 4-3 on March 10 in Norman and had lost twice during the regular season to No. 2 Baylor, who the Cavaliers downed in the semifinals.

The championship was the 22nd NCAA Championship in Virginia Athletics history. Combined with men's soccer's title in the fall, 2014-15 becomes the third school year that the Cavaliers have won multiple titles. Virginia also won two titles in 1992-93 (men's soccer and women's lacrosse) and 2009-10 (men's soccer and women's rowing).

Virginia joins USC, Stanford, UCLA, Georgia and William & Mary as the only schools to have won multiple titles in the 70-year history of the NCAA Men's Tennis Championship.

Mitchell Frank reacts to clinching the championship with a win at No. 2 singles.

• 2016 TEAM CHAMPIONS

Top-seeded Virginia became just the fourth school in the modern era to win consecutive national championships when they downed Oklahoma, 4-1, on the indoor courts at the Michael D. Case Tennis Center in Tulsa, Okla.

The Cavaliers defeated Oklahoma State [4-2], Florida [4-0] and California [4-0] in Tulsa to set up a rematch of the 2015 championship.

The evening began with both teams trying to wait out a wave of strong thunderstorms. With the relentless downpours soaking the outside courts, the championship match started an hour later and was moved to the indoor courts.

The Cavaliers started off strong with J.C. Aragone and Collin Altamirano cruising to a 6-1 victory at No. 3 doubles. Thai-Son Kwiatkowski and Mac Styslinger played a tight match at No. 2, but were finally broken when serving at 5-5. Oklahoma's Alex Ghilea and Spencer Papa then held serve to take the point and tie doubles at 1-1. On court one, Ryan Shane and Luca Corinteli held serve to take a 6-5 lead and then broke the Sooners' Axel Alvarez Llamas and Andrew Harris to win 7-5 and take the doubles point.

In singles, Aragone put the Cavaliers up 2-0 with a 6-3, 6-4 victory over Florin Bragusi on court five.

Kwiatkowski, trailed 4-1 in the first set, but rallied to win it 6-4 over Spencer Papa. Kwiatkowski took the second set 6-4 to give the Cavaliers a 3-0 lead. The win was also the 100th singles victory in Kwiatkowski's Cavalier career.

On court one, Shane fell 7-6, 6-0 to Andrew Harris to give Oklahoma its point.

As court one finished, both courts four and six were headed to their deciding moments. Alexander Ritschard was facing Ghilea on four. Ritschard had dominated the first set, 6-1, but Ghilea took the second, 6-1, to send it to a third set. Ritschard rallied in the deciding set, taking a 5-2 lead and was serving for the match, but play was suspending before he could close it out.

On court six, after winning his first set 6-2, Wiersholm battled back from down two breaks in his second set to tie it up 5-5, only to go back down a break. Wiersholm again battled back and tied it back up, 6-6, to force a tiebreaker. Wiersholm was serving with a 6-2 lead in the tiebreaker with Andre Biro's return on Wiersholm's second serve going into the net to give the Cavaliers their third championship in four seasons.

Kwiatkowski was named the Outstanding Player of the Tournament. Aragone and Altamirano were named to the All-Tournament Team at No. 3 doubles with Corinteli and Shane also earning honors at No. 1. In singles, Wiersholm, Aragone, Ritschard and Kwiatkowski all were named to the All-Tournament team. Wiersholm was 4-0 in singles in Tulsa while Aragone and Ritschard were a combined 4-1. Kwiatkowski went 5-0 in singles in the six matches of the NCAA Team Championship.

NCAA INDIVIDUAL CHAMPIONS

SOMDEV DEVVARMAN

• 2007 NCAA SINGLES CHAMPION

Somdev Devvarman became the first men's tennis player in ACC history to win an NCAA Singles Championship, downing Georgia's John Isner in the 2007 final at the Dan Magill Tennis Complex in Athens, Ga. In one of the most dramatic finals in the 123-year history of the tournament, Devvarman scored a 7-6 (7), 4-6, 7-6 (2) win over the tournament's No. 1 seed.

The first set was indicative of how close the match would be. Both second-seeded Devvarman and top-seeded Isner held in each of their six service games, with neither losing any more than two points in any game. With the first set on the line, Devvarman opened up an early 3-1 lead in the tiebreaker. Isner rallied to draw even, tying the breaker at 4-4. Devvarman won the next two points, to earn two set points. However, Isner would win the next three points to take a 7-6 lead and earn his own set point. Devvarman won the next two points on his serve to take an 8-7 lead for his third set point. Up 8-7, Devvarman took advantage of a second serve from Isner and hit a return winner past the Bulldog to take the opening set.

The second set began much like the first, with neither player in danger of losing his serve in the first six games. Serving at 3-3, Devvarman was broken by Isner, who took advantage of the first break point of the match to go up 4-3. The players held serve for the remainder of the set, as Isner forced a third and deciding set by taking the second, 6-4.

The final set featured more of the same from both players, as neither player could even force a deuce on the other's serve. With the final set tied at 6-6, the national championship came down to a tiebreaker. At 1-1 in the tiebreaker, Devvarman made a difficult return of a big Isner serve that caught the Georgia player off guard as he returned it into the net. Devvarman used that momentum to win the next three points, to take a 5-1 lead at the changeover. After an Isner ace brought him to 5-2, Devvarman won the following point to give him four championship points at 6-2. On the first of those points, as he hit an ace up the middle to close out the 7-6 (7), 4-6, 7-6 (2) win.

SOMDEV DEVVARMAN

• 2008 NCAA SINGLES CHAMPION

Somdev Devvarman concluded his collegiate career by winning his second consecutive NCAA Singles Championship with a 6-3, 6-2 win over John-Patrick Smith of Tennessee in the 2008 final at the Michael D. Case Tennis Center in Tulsa, Okla. Devvarman needed barely an hour to win the match and complete a resume that ranks among the greatest in collegiate tennis history.

With the victory, Devvarman became the 13th player in the 124-year history of the tournament to win consecutive titles, and just the fourth to do so in the past 50 years. He joined Georgia's Mikael Pernfors (1984 and 1985) and Matias Boeker (2001 and 2002) to win consecutive NCAA Singles Championships since the current 64-player tournament format was adopted in 1977. Devvarman became the first player since USC's Dennis Ralston (1963 and 1964) to win consecutive titles without winning at least one of them on his home courts. He also joined Arizona State's Sargin Sargsian (1995) and UCLA's Benjamin Kohlloeffel (2006) as the only players to win the ITA National Indoor Singles Championship and NCAA Singles Championship in the same season. The win was also his 18th career NCAA Singles Tournament victory, extending his record for most in the current tournament format.

The match against Smith, the first unseeded player to reach the final since Virginia's Brian Vahaly in 2001, was close early in the first set. Neither player had a chance to break until Devvarman took advantage of the match's first break point opportunity to take a 5-3 lead. He held serve in the ensuing game to win the first set 6-3.

In the second set, Devvarman's momentum continued as he won a five-deuce game to break Smith's serve in the first game of the set. After holding in his first service game, he broke Smith's serve again to lead 3-0. He held that two-break advantage the remainder of the set and closed out the 6-3, 6-2 win.

Devvarman ended the season with a 44-1 singles record, tying the school record for wins in a season he set a year before. He was the first NCAA Singles Champion to finish the season with one or fewer losses since UCLA's Jimmy Connors went undefeated in 1971. Since then, NCAA Champions have included Georgia's Pernfors, Stanford's John McEnroe, Stanford's Tim Mayotte, and Texas's Kevin Curren, all of whom went on to be ranked in the world top 20, but lost multiple times in college during their championship season.

DOMINIC INGLOT & MICHAEL SHABAZ • 2009 NCAA DOUBLES CHAMPIONS

Dominic Inglot and Michael Shabaz became the first doubles team from the ACC to win the NCAA Doubles Championship, defeating No. 2 seed John-Patrick Smith and Davey Sandgren of Tennessee 3-6, 7-6(4), 6-4 in the 2009 final at the Mitchell Tennis Center in College Station, Texas.

Inglot and Shabaz were the first unseeded team to win the title since Rajeev Ram and Brian Wilson of Illinois in 2003. Ranked No. 12 entering the tournament, the Cavalier duo was the lowest ranked team to take the title since Auburn's Andrew Colombo and Mark Kovacs, ranked No. 27, won the championship in 2002, also in College Station.

In the first set, the Tennessee team jumped out to an early lead. After Sandgren held in the first game, the Volunteers rallied from a 40-0 hole to break Inglot's serve to take a 2-0 lead. That proved to be the only time the Cavalier team was broken all day. The Virginia team had three break points on Sandgren's serve when the Vol was serving for the first set at 5-3, but couldn't take advantage and Tennessee held to win the opening set.

Just like in their first round match against the top seeded team from Ole Miss and their semifinal win over UNC, Inglot and Shabaz looked to rally after losing the first set. The second set featured strong serving from both sides as neither team faced a break point and just one game went to deuce. The set went to a tiebreaker with the Volunteers looking for a title and the Cavaliers looking for a decisive third set. The UVa team went up a mini-break a 2-1 when Smith's volley went into the net. That was all the Cavalier duo needed as they won all the points on their serve and won set point off of Sandgren's to take the tiebreaker 7-4.

Inglot and Shabaz took the momentum of the tiebreaker to take an early lead in the third set. With Sandgren serving at 1-1, the Cavalier team got three break points at 0-40. The Volunteers rebounded to win the next three points to get back to deuce, but the Cavaliers followed by winning the next two for their only break of the match and a 2-1 lead. The teams held serve over the next eight games to put the match on Shabaz's racquet at 5-4. In the final game, he hit two aces and two service winners to hold at love and clinch the championship.

The title was the first doubles championship for the ACC. Inglot and Shabaz were the first ACC team to reach the final since the start of the modern NCAA Individual Championships in 1977.

Michael Shabaz and Dominic Inglot became the first ACC doubles team to win a NCAA title in 2009

Drew Courtney and Michael Shabaz won UVA's second consecutive doubles title in 2010

DREW COURTNEY & MICHAEL SHABAZ • 2010 NCAA DOUBLES CHAMPIONS

Michael Shabaz and Drew Courtney won the 2010 NCAA Doubles Championship, the fourth NCAA Individual championship in Virginia program history.

The unseeded Cavalier duo, ranked No. 14 nationally entering the tournament, topped second-seeded John-Patrick Smith and Davey Sandgren of Tennessee in the final, 6-7(4), 6-2, 6-3.

It was the second consecutive doubles title for Shabaz, who won the 2009 championship with Dominic Inglot, also defeating the Volunteer team of Smith and Sandgren in the final.

In the 2010 final, the Cavalier team jumped out to a quick start, breaking Sandgren's serve in the opening game. They held that advantage until Shabaz was broken at 5-4 when he was serving for the opening set. The set went to a tiebreaker, which the Tennessee duo won 7-4 to take the first set.

Courtney and Shabaz regrouped in the second set and went up a break when they broke Sandgren's serve for a 3-1 lead. They held that advantage until they broke Sandgren's serve again to close out the second set 6-2.

The Cavalier team took a break lead early in the final set when they broke Sandgren's serve for the third consecutive time for a 3-1 lead. Each side held serve in the next four games to set up Courtney serving for the match at 5-3. He hit two service winners and two aces, including one on match point, to seal the victory.

Shabaz became the first player since Matt Lucena of California to win consecutive doubles titles. Lucena won the 1990 and 1991 titles, also accomplishing the feat by playing with different partners.

It was the fourth consecutive year that Virginia has won a NCAA individual championship. Somdev Devavrmn won the singles title in 2007 and 2008 before Shabaz/Inglot and Shabaz/Courtney have won the doubles title the next two years. Virginia was the first school to win individual titles in four consecutive years since USC did so in 1961-64.

NCAA INDIVIDUAL CHAMPIONS

JARMERE JENKINS & MAC STYSLINGER • 2013 NCAA DOUBLES CHAMPIONS

The Virginia duo of Jarmere Jenkins and Mac Styslinger won the fifth NCAA Individual title in school history, capturing the NCAA Doubles Championship over Chris Camillone and David Holiner of Texas 3-6, 6-2, 6-4 at the Atkins Tennis Center. Earlier in the day, Jenkins' bid for the NCAA Tennis Triple Crown came up short as he suffered a 7-6(8), 6-4 loss to Blaz Rola of Ohio State in the NCAA Singles Final.

Jenkins and Styslinger become the third NCAA Doubles Champions in Virginia history. Michael Shabaz and Dominic Inglot won the title in 2009 and Shabaz defended his title the following year, teaming with Drew Courtney.

The Cavalier pair, seeded No. 4, faced a Texas pair that were alternates that gained entry into the draw and then defeated three top-five teams to reach the final.

In the final, the Texas duo took an early 4-1 lead as the match started outdoors. As it has numerous times during the individual tournaments, thunderstorms came in and the rest of the match was played indoors. Each team held serve over the next four games as the Longhorn pair closed out the first set.

The Cavalier pair took a lead in the second set as they broke Holiner's serve to go up 3-1. They later broke Holiner's serve again four games later to close out the 6-2 set and force a third set.

In the final set, the Texas team took a 3-2 lead by breaking Styslinger's serve. The Cavalier pair answered by breaking Camillone in the next game to get back on serve at 3-3. Jenkins and Styslinger had two break points on Holiner's serve two games later, but couldn't take advantage and the final set was tied at 4-4. After Styslinger held at love for a 5-4 lead, the Cavalier pair broke Camillone in the next game to clinch the 3-6, 6-2, 6-4 victory.

Jenkins was the first player in 12 years to play in both the singles and doubles final in same season. With the victory, Styslinger became the first freshman in 10 years to win a NCAA Doubles Championship.

Ryan Shane became the 14th player of the modern era to win the NCAA Singles Title in the same season as a team title.

RYAN SHANE • 2015 NCAA SINGLES CHAMPION

Ryan Shane won Virginia's third NCAA singles title and sixth individual title by capturing the 2015 NCAA Men's Singles Championship. Shane, the No. 8 seed, rallied from down a set and a break to defeat seventh-seeded Noah Rubin of Wake Forest 3-6, 7-6(4), 6-1 at the Hawkins Indoor Tennis Center on the campus of Baylor University.

Rubin started the match strong, jumping out to a 5-0 lead in the first set. After Shane held for 5-1, he took advantage of his first break-point opportunity of the match to close to 5-2. During the changeover, rain caused the match to be moved indoors. In the first game indoors, Shane held for 5-3 before Rubin held in a four-deuce game to close out the opening set.

The second set was on serve until Rubin broke to take a 3-2 lead. He held that advantage until he served for the championship at 5-4 in the second, but Shane broke him to stay in the match. After both players held, it went to a tiebreaker. Shane was up a mini-break at 4-2 at the changeover and won the breaker 7-4 to draw even in the match.

The final set began with Shane breaking Rubin at love in the first game to take an early lead. He took a two-break lead later in the set as he broke for a 4-1 advantage. After holding for a 5-1 lead, Shane broke Rubin again to close out the three-set victory.

Shane became the 14th player in the modern era (since 1977) to win the NCAA Singles Championship after helping his school win the team title. He joins the group of Matt Mitchell (Stanford, 1977), John McEnroe (Stanford, 1978), Tim Mayotte (Stanford, 1981), Mikael Pernfors (Georgia, 1985), Dan Goldie (Stanford, 1986), Alex O'Brien (Stanford, 1992), Bob Bryan (Stanford, 1998), Alex Kim (Stanford, 2000), Matias Boeker (Georgia, 2001), Amer Delic (Illinois, 2003), Benjamin Becker (Baylor, 2004), and Steve Johnson (USC, 2011 and 2012).

SOMDEV DEVVARMAN

Class of 2008

The most accomplished player in ACC history, Somdev Devvarman capped his historic Cavalier career in 2008. A school record five-time All-American, Devvarman was also a two-time NCAA Singles Champion and a two-time ITA National Player of the Year.

As a senior in 2007-08, Devvarman dominated collegiate tennis. He posted a 44-1 singles record, won his second consecutive NCAA Singles title, was ranked No. 1 in the ITA Singles Rankings every week of the season and earned All-American honors in singles for the third time. In doubles, Devvarman and Treat Huey were ranked No. 1 in the ITA Doubles Rankings for the entire regular season and earned All-American honors for the second time. The ITA honored Devvarman as the National Player of the Year and the National Senior Player of the Year.

In 2006-07, Devvarman became the first player from the ACC to win the NCAA Singles Championship and ended the year ranked No. 1 in the ITA Rankings. He was named the ITA National Player of the Year while also winning the organization's Rafael Osuna Sportsmanship Award. Devvarman finished the year with a school record 44 singles wins and earned All-American honors for the second time in singles and for the first time in doubles as he teamed with Huey to reach the semifinals of the NCAA Tournament and ended the year ranked No. 2 by the ITA. In 2005-06 Devvarman earned All-American status for the first time as he reached the final of the NCAA Singles Tournament, falling to UCLA's Benjamin Kohloeffel.

Devvarman ended his career with a school record 158 singles wins. He also holds the NCAA record with 18 career wins in the NCAA Singles tournament.

Devvarman turned pro in June of 2008 and has had a meteoric rise up the world rankings. He began his career by winning his first four professional tournaments (two futures, one challenger, and one exhibition tournament). In 2009, he reached the final of the ATP Chennai Open, the second round of the US Open and helped India advance to the World Group of the Davis Cup. In 2010, he cracked the world top 100 for the first time in his career. In 2011 year, he reached a final of an ATP Tour event for the second time in his career at the SA Open in Johannesburg. He competed in all four grand slams that year and reached a career-high No. 62 world ranking.

He was the first Cavalier player to have his jersey retired with a ceremony on Jan. 23, 2009.

BRIAN VAHALY

Class of 2001

Virginia's first All-American, Brian Vahaly was the dominant player in the ACC during his career as a Cavalier.

The first three-time singles All-American in school history, Vahaly capped his career in 2001 by reaching the NCAA Singles Tournament final, falling to Matias Boeker of Georgia. The ACC Player of the Year in 2000 and 2001, Vahaly is the only Cavalier to earn the honor twice. He is also the one of two Virginia players to participate in four NCAA Singles Tournaments.

Ranked as high as No. 2 in the ITA Singles Rankings in his career, Vahaly finished his time at Virginia with almost every school record, including 40 singles wins in a season and 125 singles wins in his career.

In doubles, Vahaly teamed with Huntley Montgomery to earn a No. 1 doubles ranking in 2001, Virginia's first ever No. 1 national ranking. The duo were the No. 1 seed in the 2001 NCAA Doubles Tournament and reached the semifinals. They ended the year ranked No. 1 nationally by the ITA.

Following his graduation, Vahaly had the most successful professional career of any Cavalier. He reached a high of a No. 64 world singles ranking in 2003, a time when he was the only player ranked in the top 100 of the ATP tour with a college degree. He played in all four grand slam tournaments, including reaching the second round of Wimbledon in 2003. That year, he also reached the semifinals of the Kroger St. Jude Tournament in Memphis (falling to Andy Roddick) and he defeated third ranked Juan Carlos Ferrero en route to the quarterfinals of his first Tennis Masters Series event, the Pacific Life Open in Indian Wells, Calif.

Off the court, Vahaly was active during his professional career. In 2003, he started the Brian Vahaly Brighter Future Foundation to support youth and collegiate tennis along with the St. Vincent de Paul Society. That year he was featured in People magazine's "25 Hottest Bachelors" issue.

He was the second Cavalier player to have his jersey retired with a ceremony on Jan. 21, 2011.
