OPENING KICK

THE SOUTH'S OLDEST RIVALRY

• Virginia and North Carolina will meet for the 121st time in the South's Oldest Rivalry, a series that began in 1892.

VIRGINIA VS. NORTH CAROLINA

- UVA trails the all-time series with North Carolina, 62-54-4.
- There is a difference in the series record between the two schools because of the game in 1956 that North Carolina forfeited for using an ineligible player. All of UNC's games in 1956 were forfeited by conference action. Both schools count the 1956 game as a win.
- Saturday's game will tie the rivalry for the second-longest series in NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision history.
- The two schools have met every season since 1919 and there have been only four seasons since 1900 when they did not meet (1906, 1909 and 1917-18, when football was postponed at both schools because of World War I).

RB Albert Reid has rushed for at least one touchdown in five straight games and leads UVA with seven scores (six rushing). Reid's scoring prowess has helped UVA's current three-game streak of scoring at least 30 points or more, something UVA hasn't done since 2004 (five game streak).

UNIQUELY UVA

The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to UVA's culture.

Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the University dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.

First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why you may ask? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process.

Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES

Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."

Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.

Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos" during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general use around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

THE CAVALIER MASCOT

The costumed Cavalier with a large character head debuted during Virginia's 1984 football season and has remained the official mascot of the University.

The first documented Cavalier on horseback was Francis Bell, a Virginia student from Dublin, Va., in 1947. Bell rode onto the field dressed as Cavaliers for Virginia's home football game with Harvard on the afternoon of October 11.

The Cavalier on horseback returned as the University's mascot in 1963. The UVA Polo Club provided both the horse and rider. However, the mounted Cavalier and his horse parted company in 1974 with the inception of AstroTurf at Scott Stadium.

The mounted Cavalier made its return in the Florida Citrus Bowl at the end of the 1989 football season. Due to its instant popularity, the Cavalier on horseback returned the following season on a regular basis and continues to lead the Virginia football team onto the field at the beginning of all home games.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.

One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

WAH-HOO-WAH

The origin of "Wah-hoo-wah" is uncertain. The cheer was used to root on Virginia teams as early as 1890 and may have been borrowed from Dartmouth College, whose athletics teams were once known as the Indians.

Legend attributes the yell to Natalie Floyd Otey, who sang the ballad "Where'er You Are, There Shall My Love Be" at Charlottesville's Levy Opera House in 1893. The predominantly student audience noticed that Otey warbled the first three words of the song between each of the stanzas and decided to join in the refrain. By evening's end, goes the legend, the crowd had corrupted "Where'er You Are" into "Wah-hoo-wah."

The Levy Opera House stands at the corner of High Street and Park Street and has since been renovated into an office building.

+ UVA win by forfeit

THE MOST OFFENSE TYPICALLY WINS

- In UVA vs. UNC games since 1940, the winning team has out-rushed the loser 56 of 73 times, with one game featuring the same yardage for both.
- The winning team has had more offensive yards 67 times and has been outgained just 15 times since 1940. UVA was the most recent team (2014) to outgain UNC and lose (443-374).
- The loser has outgained the winner just eight times since 1975, but it has happened six times in the last 15 years, including in 2007, 2008, 2011 and 2014.

... ON THE GROUND

- Since 2006, the Tar Heels have averaged 137.8 rushing yards per game vs. the Cavaliers, with UVA winning only four of the last 10 meetings.
- Since 1996, UNC has scored only 15 rushing touchdowns with three coming in 2015 and two coming in 1997 and 2011. In contrast, UVA has scored 29 times on the ground in that span.
- In the last 20 games, UNC's offense has scored 46 touchdowns, with 30 coming in six games (1997, 2002, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014), while the defense has scored nine touchdowns (eight interceptions and one punt return).

TURNOVERS MAKE A DIFFERENCE

- Since 1982, the Cavaliers are 15-2-1 when committing fewer turnovers than the Tar Heels. The losses occurred in 1995 and 2001, while the tie was in 1984.
- Over the last eight years, North Carolina has committed 13 turnovers, while UVA has committed 19 (which includes 10 combined from the 2010 & 2015 games).
- North Carolina is 10-2 vs. Virginia when committing fewer turnovers.
- There have been four games since 1982 where each team committed the same number of miscues and Virginia has won three (1985, 1988, 2003).

FIRST FAMILY TAKES IN 1928 MEETING

- President Calvin Coolidge and his wife, Grace, attended the 1928 Virginia vs. North Carolina Thanksgiving Day football game at UVA's Lambeth Field. The President was joined by the governors of both Virginia (Gov. Harry F. Byrd) and North Carolina (H.W. Chase). Over 20,000 spectators attended UNC's 24-20 win 88 years ago. Lambeth Field's grandstand only sat 8,000. Additional temporary bleachers helped hold the overflow crowd. More Lambeth Field's place in College Football history can be found on page 17.

NATURE OF THE RIVALRY

- There is a strong historical lineage and academic standing between UVA and UNC.
- UVA was founded by Thomas Jefferson, the third President of the United States, while UNC was the first operational state university in the United States.
- UVA had its writer-in-residence William Faulkner, while UNC is the alma mater of Thomas Wolfe.
- President Woodrow Wilson attended UVA and was president of the Jefferson Literary and Debating Society, while President James K. Polk attended UNC.
- UVA and UNC were also the first future members of the ACC to be elected to the prestigious Association of American Universities. UVA was elected in 1904 and UNC in 1922.
- UVA was the opponent for the dedication game at UNC's Kenan Stadium in 1927.
- Kenan Stadium was used as a model by the designers of Scott Stadium.

BLANDING REACHES 300 CAREER TACKLES IN 30TH CAREER GAME

- FS Quin Blanding reared his 300th career tackle against Pitt in his 30th career game. His 16th and final tackle against the Panthers made Blanding the 16th Cavalier all-time to reach 300 career tackles.
- Blanding is the third-fastest Cavalier to record 300 tackles. Charles McDaniel (1982-85) did so in 28 games, while Jamie Sharper (1993-96) reached 300 tackles in 29 games.
- Blanding reached 300 tackles the fastest of any UVA defensive back, making it to the milestone seven games sooner than Anthony Poindexter (1995-98).
- Blanding is No. 2 all-time among UVA defensive backs with 300 career tackles, trailing only Poindexter, who has 342 stops, ranking No. 11 all-time at UVA. Both Blanding and Poindexter
- UVA's Quin Blanding owns 15 double-digit tackle games over 30 collegiate games.
- Blanding owns three double-digit tackle games in 2016 (UConn, Central Michigan, Pitt)
- Blanding had six double-digit tackles games in 2015 and six as a freshman in 2014.
- Blanding has 300 career tackles, 10 per game.

BLANDING CLIMBS UVA'S CAREER TACKLE LIST

- FS Quin Blanding is No. 16 all-time at UVA with 300 career tackles. Below is where Blanding racks up all-time on UVA's career list for tackles:

Player	Career Tackles
11. Anthony Poindexter, S, 1995-98	342
12. P.J. Killian, LB, 1990-93	316
13. Phil Thomas, LB, 1986-89	306
14. Ray Savage, LB/DE, 1986-89	302
15. Jon Copper, LB, 2005-08	301
16. Quin Blanding, S, 2014-present	300

REID IS UVA'S OTHER 1,000-YARD RUSHER

- With 1,490 rushing yards, UVA's Taquan Mizzell is No. 29 all-time at UVA in career rushing, but he isn't the only Cavalier with at least 1,000 career rushing yards at the college level.
- TB Albert Reid reached 1,000 career yards at the college level in Week 3 at UConn.
- Reid currently has 1,153 rushing yards with 12 career scores.
- He rushed 122 times for 447 yards and three scores at Maryland from 2012-14.
- Reid has rushed 134 times for 706 yards and nine touchdowns in 17 career games at UVA.

RED-ZONE OFFENSE

- UVA has scored on 19 of its last 20 trips inside the red-zone, with 17 touchdowns and two field goals.
- UVA ranks second in the nation in red zone chances that ended with a touchdown (80.9 percent).
- Since Taquan Mizzell fumbled on the five-yard line against Richmond in the season-opening game, UVA scored on eight straight trips inside the red-zone, including seven touchdowns and one field goal.
- The streak was snapped on UVA's very last play of the UConn game. Alex Furbank's 20-yard field goal attempt as time expired at UConn on Sept. 17 halted UVA's streak at eight. The streak included four trips inside the red-zone at then-No. 24 Oregon, resulting in four touchdowns.

BLANDING AND KISER ATOP OF THE ACC IN TACKLES

- Micah Kiser (11.17) is leading the ACC in tackles per game and Quin Blanding (10.33) is No. 2 in the ACC in tackles per game.
- Kiser and Blanding join TCU's Ty Summers (10.67) and Travin Howard (9.67) as the only defensive duo from the same school to rank No. 1 and No. 2 in tackles for their respective conferences.
- This is old hat for Kiser and Blanding, as they were the only defensive duo from the same school in 2015 to rank No. 1 and No. 2 in their respective conferences in tackles.
- Kiser ranks No. 6 nationally in tackles, while Blanding ranks No. 15 nationally. Blanding is the only "Power 5" defensive back that ranks in the Top 20 nationally in tackles.
- Blanding finished 2014 and 2015 No. 2 in the ACC in tackles.

KISER DOUBLES UP THE TACKLES

- Micah Kiser owns 10 double-digit tackle games during his 18 career starts.
- Kiser enters the North Carolina game with 199 career tackles during 30 career games.
- Kiser has recorded 184 tackles during his 18 career starts, which is every game since the start of the 2015 season.

OLAMIDE ZACCHEAUS A FAVORITE TARGET OF BENKERT

- Olamide Zaccheaus leads UVA with 423 receiving yards and five touchdowns. His 29 receptions trail only Keon Johnson's 31.
- Zaccheaus had a career day against Central Michigan when he made eight catches for 141 yards and two touchdowns.
- His 82-yard touchdown reception from Kurt Benkert is the 25th longest reception in the nation this season and the 13th longest touchdown reception in UVA program history.
- Along with a 74-yard scoring catch against Pitt, Zaccheaus is tied for No. 2 in the nation with the most receptions of 70+ yards.
- Zaccheaus came to UVA as a running back, but switched to wide receiver as a true freshman to fill a need in 2015.
- The versatile Zaccheaus also ran back kicks in 2015 and is on the preseason watch list for the Paul Hornung Award, the national honor given to the most versatile player.
- Olamide is Nigerian for "the blessing has come."

JOHNSON EMERGES AS BIG TARGET FOR BENKERT

- Senior WR Keon Johnson has 31 receptions for 305 yards and three touchdowns. His 31 receptions are the most on the team.
- His 26 receptions through UVA's first five games of 2016 equaled his 2014 and 2015 output combined. Johnson only recorded 13 receptions each of those seasons after grabbing 20 catches as a freshman in eight games.
- Johnson's two touchdown catches through the first two games of 2016 equaled his career total entering 2016. He now has five career touchdowns.
- Johnson's 305 receiving yards are more than the 138 receiving yards the senior had in 2014 and his 2015 total of 173 yards.
- Eight of his receptions have given UVA a first down on third or fourth down, including a crucial 4th and 10 at UConn that went for 34 yards.

RUSHING ATTACK IS PLAYING ITS ROLE

- After the running backs rushed for only 35 yards as a team against Richmond in the season opener, UVA received a big performance from its ground game at then-No. 24 Oregon on Sept. 10 to jumpstart the position group.
- Albert Reid's 126-yard rushing game led UVA's 220 combined rushing yards from its three backs against Oregon. Taquan Mizzell added 48 rushing yards and Jordan Ellis added 46 in the loss at Oregon.
- At Oregon, UVA's running backs gained 220 yards on 31 carries for an average of 7.1 yards per rush, while also scoring two touchdowns.
- Starting with the Oregon game, UVA's running backs have rushed for 723 yards and nine touchdowns for an average 144.6 rushing yards per game. With 129 attempts, UVA running backs are averaging 5.6 yards per rush during that span.
- Also, since Mizzell's two fumbles against Richmond, UVA running backs have not fumbled once, a span of 21 quarters.

BENKERT BREAKS UVA PASSING RECORD FOR A GAME

- Virginia quarterback Kurt Benkert broke Marc Verica's record for passing yards in a game. Benkert threw for 421 passing yards on Sept. 24 against Central Michigan, snapping Verica's 2010 record of 417 passing yards in a game that came at Duke.
- Benkert threw five touchdowns, making him the fifth Cavalier to throw five touchdowns in a game and the first since Matt Schaub in 2002 against Akron. The five touchdowns are tied for second-most by a UVA quarterback in a game.

SCOTT STADIUM, HOME OF THE CAVALIERS

The Carl Smith Center, home of David A. Harrison III Field at Scott Stadium, with its unique architectural design, scenic setting on the University's Grounds and exceptional sight lines, is one of the nation's finest college football settings.

Opened in 1931, Scott Stadium might be one of the oldest campus college football stadiums in the nation, but you could never tell from its appearance. Numerous upgrades and expansions make it a modern home for the Cavaliers and their fans.

Scott Stadium was the gift of Frederic William Scott and Elisabeth Strother Scott, and was dedicated to the memory of his parents, Frederic Robert Scott and Frances Branch Scott.

Virginia played its dedication game at Scott Stadium on Oct. 15, 1931 against the Virginia Military Institute before a then-capacity crowd of 22,000. Prior to that season, the Cavaliers staged their home games at the University's Lambeth Field.

Virginia has played 454 games in the historic venue. UVA's all-time record at Scott Stadium stands at 256-186-12.

KURT BENKERT NOTES

BENKERT IS UVA'S STARTING QUARTERBACK

- Benkert, a transfer from East Carolina, became (vs. Richmond) the first Cavalier quarterback to start his UVA debut since 1977 when Bryan Shumock started the season opener against NC State. Shumock switched to defensive back for the 1978 season and led UVA with four interceptions.
- Benkert was the 11th different UVA starting quarterback to start an opener in the last 12 seasons. The list includes: Matt Johns (2015), Greyson Lambert (2014), David Watford (2013), Michael Rocco (2011-12), Marc Verica (2010), Vic Hall (2009), Peter Lalich (2008), Jameel Sewell (2007), Christian Olsen (2006) and Marques Hagans (2005).

Bronco Mendenhall Head Coach • First Season

Bronco Mendenhall was named Virginia's head football coach on Dec. 4, 2015. He served as the head football coach at Brigham Young University for 11 years before joining the Cavalier program. Mendenhall, Virginia's 40th head football coach, has compiled an overall record of 99-43 in his 11 seasons as head coach at BYU to rank 12th in total wins among all FBS teams during that time. Mendenhall also ranks 13th in winning percentage (.697) among all active coaches with at least five years of FBS experience, and he ranks 10th among active coaches with at least 10 years of experience.

In the three seasons prior to Mendenhall becoming the head coach at BYU, the Cougars compiled an overall record of 14-21. Over the last 11 years, the Cougars are one of only 11 programs to advance to a bowl game each season (includes the 2015 season). BYU is joined by Alabama, Boise State, Clemson, Florida State, Georgia, LSU, Oklahoma, Oregon, Virginia Tech and Wisconsin on that list.

Among those 11 teams, only Florida State has achieved more bowl wins (seven) than BYU's six bowl game victories.

BYU football student-athletes have earned freshman All-America recognition in eight of the past 10 seasons. More than 60 BYU players have signed with NFL teams since Mendenhall arrived in Provo, including defensive end Ezekiel Ansah, the No. 5 overall pick in the 2013 NFL Draft and Kyle Van Noy, the No. 40 overall pick in the 2014 NFL Draft.

Under Mendenhall, the Cougars tied for seventh among all FBS programs for the most Academic All-America citations over the last decade and BYU tops all FBS programs with the most selections (39) to the National Football Foundation Hampshire Honor Society (recognizing starters and significant contributors finishing their eligibility with a 3.2 GPA or better over their college career) since the program began in 2007.

The success of Mendenhall's leadership approach in running the BYU football program has been highlighted in a management book, Running Into the Wind: Bronco Mendenhall -- 5 Strategies for Building a Successful Team, written by Alyson Von Feldt and Paul Gustavson, a leading management consultant specializing in leadership development and organizational design.

Mendenhall was elected in 2013 to the American Football Coaches Association Board of Trustees as the District 8 Representative and also serves on the AFCA Ethics Committee.

In his first year in 2005 after taking over a program coming off three losing seasons, Mendenhall led BYU to a 6-5 regular-season record and earned an invitation to the Maaco Bowl Las Vegas -- the team's first postseason bowl appearance in three seasons. The Cougars finished tied for second in the MWC with a 5-3 league ledger.

Following the 2006 season, Mendenhall was named the American Football Coaches Association Region IV Coach of the Year. In addition, the Football Writers Association of America named Mendenhall one of nine finalists for the prestigious Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award.

A dominant defense led BYU to its seventh winning season in as many years as the BYU football team finished the 2012 season with eight wins, a program-best fourth consecutive bowl victory and the No. 3 defense in the nation. With an 8-5 record, BYU claimed its sixth season with at least eight wins under Mendenhall's eight-year head coaching tenure. Incredibly consistent all year long, BYU finished the year ranked No. 3 in total defense, allowing just 266.1 yards per game. The Cougars ended the season ranked in the top four in five major defensive categories.

Mendenhall has served as the BYU's defensive coordinator for much of his tenure as the head coach. He returned to a full-time role with the defense again in 2015.

During his tenure in Provo, the Cougars have consistently fielded one of the nation's strongest defenses. Mendenhall's defense excels at keeping opponents out of the end zone. Entering the 2015 season, they averaged a No. 20 national ranking in scoring defense while he oversees the defense, including three top-10 ratings.

FUN FACTS

UVA'S EARLY FOOTBALL HISTORY AT LAMBETH FIELD

- The colonnades at Lambeth Field turn 103 in 2016. The playing surface at Lambeth Field hosted Virginia football from 1902 until Scott Stadium opened up in the midst of the 1931 season on Oct. 15, 1931.
- Lambeth Field is the location where the American game of football that we know today, played from youth league all the way up to the NFL, was first played.
- It all started in 1909 with the death of UVA's Archer Christian.
- Christian died in 1909 as a result of injuries sustained in a football game at Georgetown on Nov. 13, 1909. Christian's death highlighted 29 football related deaths during the 1909 season. Papers from all over the country carried the front-page headline of Christian's death.
- Former UVA President Edwin A. Alderman and the father of UV athletics, William Lambeth, went to New York City to meet with other presidents and administrators from other big time universities to discuss how they could make the game of football safer.
- At the time there was legislation happening in Washington to make it illegal to play the game of football in America.
- A new rules committee that was appointed from that meeting in New York City included Lambeth and the father of American football, Walter Camp.
- Lambeth noted to the committee, which met almost on a monthly basis, that the two deaths he had seen personally were due to exhaustion. At the time there were no substitutions, if you came out you could no longer return. The original game had a lot of pulling and pushing. Players were not considered down until they really couldn't move under the pile. Lambeth suggested that the game be split into four quarters, totaling 15 minutes a piece and that players could substitute back in. Walter Camp's notes from the committee meetings credit Lambeth, in the margins, with these changes.
- The committee asked Lambeth to take the new rules back to the University of Virginia and experiment with them during the spring of 1910.
- On the Grounds of the University of Virginia, under the watchful eye of William Lambeth, a new version of American football, divided into four quarters was played for the first time in history.
- Other notable rules that were played for the first time that spring at Lambeth Field were: seven men required on the line at the time of the snap, players could no longer push or pull the ball carrier and the forward pass could now be made across the line of scrimmage.
- Virginia football returned to its roots at Lambeth Field during camp in 2013, 2014, 2015 and 2016, taking part in various scrimmages and practices on the hallowed ground.

UVA ATHLETIC TRAINER FOR FOOTBALL IS ONE OF A FEW

- Virginia's Kelli Pugh is one of 10 women at the FBS level that is their school's sports medicine department's primary care provider for football.
- Pugh is only one of four women at the FBS level that works with a Power-Five level program. Ariko Iso, who was with the Pittsburgh Steelers for years, is with Oregon State. Sally Nogle works with Michigan State and Kammy Powell took over football in 2016 at Minnesota.

DID YOU KNOW?

• UVA junior Quin Blanding was named by his mother Cory Lee after the movie titled "The Mighty Quinn," starring Denzel Washington and Mimi Rogers. It was the first movie she saw following a checkup during her seventh month of pregnancy and the moment held significant meaning to her. At that checkup the doctor's told her they thought they saw a hole in Quin's head and that it appeared to them his cerebrum wasn't connected. Quin was born completely healthy. Cory named him Quin with one "n" instead of two in recognition of that moment during pregnancy. She knew he will be all right and that he will be the mighty one.

• Blanding's father, Kevin, played football at NCAA Division II Glenville State (W.Va.) for current Arizona football head coach Rich Rodriguez.

• When offensive coordinator Robert Anae finished playing football, he returned home to Hawaii and served as the body model for the towering statue of the father of surfing, Duke Kahanamoku, a five-time Olympian.

The statue, created by artist Jan Fisher, is right next to the famous Waikiki Beach. Anae was a graduate assistant at Hawaii at the time and the artist needed a model, a surfer that was tall, and he went looking for the tallest surfer on the North Shore.

• UVA's oldest living football alum, Dr. John Risher, turned 106 years old this year; he also works in the press box on the UVA stats crew on game day.

• Matt Johns made his collegiate debut as the UVA holder in 2013. The first time Johns made it into a college game he had to hold in the rain on Ian Frye's 53-yard field goal in the 2013 season-opening win over BYU and now current UVA head coach Bronco Mendenhall. Frye's kick sailed through as time expired in the first half, tying the third-longest field goal in UVA history.

• Senior SS Kelvin Rainey has two brothers that have played FBS football. His older brother Johnathan played at New Mexico (2008-11), while his other older brother Derrick played at Arizona (2010-13).

• QB Connor Brewer spent two seasons playing for Rich Rodriguez at Arizona (2013-14).

• SS Kelvin Rainey's older brother, Derrick, spent four seasons (2010-13) playing at Arizona with his last two under Rodriguez. In 2013 Kelvin Rainey's brother, Derrick, was teammates with Brewer.
