OPENING KICK

UVA CONCLUDES NON-CONFERENCE SLATE

- Virginia returns home to host Mid-American Conference-foe Central Michigan in the Cavaliers' final non-conference test of the 2016 regular season.
- Central Michigan and Virginia are meeting for the second time.

FIVE TOP STORYLINES

- DE Andrew Brown came through in a big way at UConn with 3.5 tackles for a loss, to go with his six tackles and one sack, helping limit the Huskies to 277 yards of total offense.
- PK Alex Furbank connected on a 23-yard field goal in the first quarter of the UConn game on his first collegiate play. In fact, it was Furbank's first play of football ever. He was a soccer player that was on the roster at DIII Randolph-Macon in 2015, but didn't play in any games. His three points also gave UVA the lead for the first time in 2016.
- Virginia is playing a Mid-American Conference team for the third time in four seasons and for the 14th time overall in Charlottesville. UVA owns an 11-2-1 all-time record against teams from the MAC.
- Virginia's all-time leading rusher, Thomas Jones (3,998), made his collegiate debut against Central Michigan the only previous time these programs met in 1996. His first career rush went for 57 yards. He finished with 76 yards on five carries with one touchdown.
- UVA's 1996 win over Central Michigan served as the 99th win of Hall of Fame coach George Welsh's Virginia career. At the time it was an ACC record for victories.

DE Andrew Brown had a career day at UConn that included 3.5 TFL.

MENDENHALL AND UVA COACHING STAFF TO TAKE PART IN COACH TO CURE MD

- Bronco Mendenhall and his coaching staff will take part in Coach to Cure MD on Saturday versus Central Michigan.
- Coach to Cure MD is a nation-wide project designed to build awareness and funding to support researchers trying to find a treatment and cure for Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy research.
- The Virginia coaching staff will be wearing the Coach to Cure MD patches during Saturday's game.
- This is the ninth-annual Coach to Cure MD effort and all American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) members will wear a Coach to Cure MD logo patch during games this week.
- Coach to Cure MD is a partnership between the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) and Parent Project Muscular Dystrophy (PPMD), the largest nonprofit organization in the United States focused entirely on Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy, the leading childhood genetic killer of young men.

#HOOSRISING: BY THE NUMBERS

- 34 ILB Micah Kiser is No. 1 in the ACC and No. 10 in the nation with 34 tackles. Kiser led the ACC in tackles in 2015 as a sophomore (9.75 TPG).

UNIQUELY UVA

The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to UVA's culture.

Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the University dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.

First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why you may ask? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process.

Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES

Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."

Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.

Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos" during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general use around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

THE CAVALIER MASCOT

The costumed Cavalier with a large character head debuted during Virginia's 1984 football season and has remained the official mascot of the University.

The first documented Cavalier on horseback was Francis Bell, a Virginia student from Dublin, Va., in 1947. Bell rode onto the field dressed as Cavaliers for Virginia's home football game with Harvard on the afternoon of October 11.

The Cavalier on horseback returned as the University's mascot in 1963. The UVA Polo Club provided both the horse and rider. However, the mounted Cavalier and his horse parted company in 1974 with the inception of AstroTurf at Scott Stadium.

The mounted Cavalier made its return in the Florida Citrus Bowl at the end of the 1989 football season. Due to its instant popularity, the Cavalier on horseback returned the following season on a regular basis and continues to lead the Virginia football team onto the field at the beginning of all home games.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.

One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

WAH-HOO-WAH

The origin of "Wah-hoo-wah" is uncertain. The cheer was used to root on Virginia teams as early as 1890 and may have been borrowed from Dartmouth College, whose athletics teams were once known as the Indians.

Legend attributes the yell to Natalie Floyd Otey, who sang the ballad "Where'er You Are, There Shall My Love Be" at Charlottesville's Levy Opera House in 1893. The predominantly student audience noticed that Otey warbled the first three words of the song between each of the stanzas and decided to join in the refrain. By evening's end, goes the legend, the crowd had corrupted "Where'er You Are" into "Wah-hoo-wah."

The Levy Opera House stands at the corner of High Street and Park Street and has since been renovated into an office building.

BLANDING AND KISER PICKING UP IN 2016 WHERE THEY LEFT OFF IN 2015

- Micah Kiser (11.3) is leading the ACC in tackles per game and is No. 10 in the nation. Quin Blanding (9.0) is No. 4 in the ACC in tackles per game.
- Each of the past two games Blanding and Kiser have been identical in tackle production. The duo has led the team at then-No. 24 Oregon and at UConn in tackles. At Oregon both finished with nine stops, with an identical five solo stops and four assisted tackles. At UConn it was the same thing, both had 11 tackles with an identical eight solo stops and three assisted tackles.
- The difference was the opening game against Richmond when Kiser led all players with 14 tackles.
- Not much is different from 2015 as Kiser finished the season No. 1 in the ACC in tackles with 9.8 tackles per game. Blanding has finished 2014 and 2015 No. 2 in the ACC in tackles.

- His 17 receptions are already more than his output in 2014 and 2015. Johnson only recorded 13 receptions each of those seasons after grabbing 20 catches as a freshman in eight games.
- Johnson's two touchdown catches in 2016 equals his career total entering 2016. He now has four career touchdowns.

- Reid also returned one kick for 42 yards, also a career high, at Oregon.

EARNED NOT GIVEN

- UVA head coach Bronco Mendenhall has brought an "Earned Not Given" mentality to the Virginia Football program.
- When winter workouts started, players wore all black and nothing affixed with a Virginia logo. Players had to earn the right to wear the blue and orange. Then had to earn the right to wear the Virginia logo.
- Everything from access to the locker room, to numbers was part of the new "Earned Not Given" mentality. Even when it came to practice, players had to earn the next period, repeating the previous period as many times as needed until the next period was earned.

TASK UNIT LEADERS

- A lot of activities over the summer was accomplished through the task units. Accountability and discipline were two really big emphasis.
- It was the task unit leaders that determined the draft order when it came time to select numbers.
- RB Jordan Ellis received the first pick and NT Donte Wilkins received the second pick.

SCOTT STADIUM, HOME OF THE CAVALIERS

The Carl Smith Center, home of David A. Harrison III Field at Scott Stadium, with its unique architectural design, scenic setting on the University's Grounds and exceptional sight lines, is one of the nation's finest college football settings.

Opened in 1931, Scott Stadium might be one of the oldest campus college football stadiums in the nation, but you could never tell from its appearance. Numerous upgrades and expansions make it a modern home for the Cavaliers and their fans.

Scott Stadium was the gift of Frederic William Scott and Elisabeth Strother Scott, and was dedicated to the memory of his parents, Frederic Robert Scott and Frances Branch Scott.

Virginia played its dedication game at Scott Stadium on Oct. 15, 1931 against the Virginia Military Institute before a then-capacity crowd of 22,000. Prior to that season, the Cavaliers staged their home games at the University's Lambeth Field.

Virginia has played 452 games in the historic venue. UVA's all-time record at Scott Stadium stands at 255-185-12.

KICK RETURN HAS SEEN A FEW DIFFERENT FACES

- Virginia has used four different return men on kick return.
- Redshirt freshman safety Chris Sharp led UVA with four kick returns for 73 yards against Richmond. His first return went for 26 yards. Sharp had a long return of 31 yards.
- Albert Reid, Joe Reed and Taquan Mizzell have also seen time on kick return. Reid's 42-yard return at Oregon was a career long and the only kick returned by UVA in the game.
- UVA returned zero kicks at UConn on Sept. 17

BREAKING IN A NEW PLACEKICKER

- UVA attempted its first field goal of 2016 in game three at UConn. Alex Furbank connected on a 23-yard field goal in his first career play of football at any level. Furbank walked-on to the UVA team during fall camp after being on the soccer roster at DIII Randolph-Macon in 2015, but did not appear in any games.
- Furbank is now the only kicker on the UVA roster that has attempted any field goals in college. Dylan Sims has appeared on kickoffs since the third game of the 2013 season, but never has attempted a field goal.
- The last time Virginia entered a season without a player with on its roster that had attempted a field goal attempt in his college career was 2012, when the two place-kickers were Drew Jarrett and Ian Frye.
- Sims attempted three PATs, making all three for his first three career points against Richmond in the season opener. Sims was 3-of-4 on PATs at then-No. 24 Oregon and is now 6-of-7 on the season. Furbank is 1-of-1 on PATs.

KURT BENKERT NOTES

BENKERT IS UVA'S STARTING QUARTERBACK

- Kurt Benkert was named the starting quarterback by head coach Bronco Mendenhall on August 24 following the final practice of fall camp.
- Benkert, a transfer from East Carolina, became (vs. Richmond) the first Cavalier quarterback to start his UVA debut since 1977 when Bryan Shumock started the season opener against NC State. Shumock switched to defensive back for the 1978 season and led UVA with four interceptions.
- Benkert was the 11th different UVA starting quarterback to start an opener in the last 12 seasons. The list includes: Matt Johns (2015), Greyson Lambert (2014), David Watford (2013), Michael Rocco (2011-12), Marc Verica (2010), Vic Hall (2009), Peter Lalich (2008), Jameel Sewell (2007), Christian Olsen (2006) and Marques Hagans (2005).

KURT BENKERT SAYS 'I DO'

- Virginia quarterback Kurt Benkert got married this summer. Him and his sweetheart, Samantha, tied the knot on July 2 at Lovers Key State Park in Fort Myers, Fla.
- Benkert doesn't wear his actual wedding band while playing football, but he does wear a band made out of silicone as a representation of that wedding band. He rotates between three colors, black, grey and white.

Bronco Mendenhall Head Coach • First Season

Bronco Mendenhall was named Virginia's head football coach on Dec. 4, 2015. He served as the head football coach at Brigham Young University for 11 years before joining the Cavalier program. Mendenhall, Virginia's 40th head football coach, has compiled an overall record of 99-43 in his 11 seasons as head coach at BYU to rank 12th in total wins among all FBS teams during that time. Mendenhall also ranks 13th in winning percentage (.697) among all active coaches with at least five years of FBS experience, and he ranks 10th among active coaches with at least 10 years of experience.

In the three seasons prior to Mendenhall becoming the head coach at BYU, the Cougars compiled an overall record of 14-21. Over the last 11 years, the Cougars are one of only 11 programs to advance to a bowl game each season (includes the 2015 season). BYU is joined by Alabama, Boise State, Clemson, Florida State, Georgia, LSU, Oklahoma, Oregon, Virginia Tech and Wisconsin on that list.

Among those 11 teams, only Florida State has achieved more bowl wins (seven) than BYU's six bowl game victories.

BYU football student-athletes have earned freshman All-America recognition in eight of the past 10 seasons. More than 60 BYU players have signed with NFL teams since Mendenhall arrived in Provo, including defensive end Ezekiel Ansah, the No. 5 overall pick in the 2013 NFL Draft and Kyle Van Noy, the No. 40 overall pick in the 2014 NFL Draft.

Under Mendenhall, the Cougars tied for seventh among all FBS programs for the most Academic All-America citations over the last decade and BYU tops all FBS programs with the most selections (39) to the National Football Foundation Hampshire Honor Society (recognizing starters and significant contributors finishing their eligibility with a 3.2 GPA or better over their college career) since the program began in 2007.

The success of Mendenhall's leadership approach in running the BYU football program has been highlighted in a management book, Running Into the Wind: Bronco Mendenhall -- 5 Strategies for Building a Successful Team, written by Alyson Von Feldt and Paul Gustavson, a leading management consultant specializing in leadership development and organizational design.

Mendenhall was elected in 2013 to the American Football Coaches Association Board of Trustees as the District 8 Representative and also serves on the AFCA Ethics Committee.

In his first year in 2005 after taking over a program coming off three losing seasons, Mendenhall led BYU to a 6-5 regular-season record and earned an invitation to the Maaco Bowl Las Vegas -- the team's first postseason bowl appearance in three seasons. The Cougars finished tied for second in the MWC with a 5-3 league ledger.

Following the 2006 season, Mendenhall was named the American Football Coaches Association Region IV Coach of the Year. In addition, the Football Writers Association of America named Mendenhall one of nine finalists for the prestigious Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award.

A dominant defense led BYU to its seventh winning season in as many years as the BYU football team finished the 2012 season with eight wins, a program-best fourth consecutive bowl victory and the No. 3 defense in the nation. With an 8-5 record, BYU claimed its sixth season with at least eight wins under Mendenhall's eight-year head coaching tenure. Incredibly consistent all year long, BYU finished the year ranked No. 3 in total defense, allowing just 266.1 yards per game. The Cougars ended the season ranked in the top four in five major defensive categories.

Mendenhall has served as the BYU's defensive coordinator for much of his tenure as the head coach. He returned to a full-time role with the defense again in 2015.

During his tenure in Provo, the Cougars have consistently fielded one of the nation's strongest defenses. Mendenhall's defense excels at keeping opponents out of the end zone. Entering the 2015 season, they averaged a No. 20 national ranking in scoring defense while he oversees the defense, including three top-10 ratings.

FUN FACTS

UVA'S EARLY FOOTBALL HISTORY AT LAMBETH FIELD

- The colonnades at Lambeth Field turn 103 in 2016. The playing surface at Lambeth Field hosted Virginia football from 1902 until Scott Stadium opened up in the midst of the 1931 season on Oct. 15, 1931.
- Lambeth Field is the location where the American game of football that we know today, played from youth league all the way up to the NFL, was first played.
- It all started in 1909 with the death of UVA's Archer Christian.
- Christian died in 1909 as a result of injuries sustained in a football game at Georgetown on Nov. 13, 1909. Christian's death highlighted 29 football related deaths during the 1909 season. Papers from all over the country carried the front-page headline of Christian's death.
- Former UVA President Edwin A. Alderman and the father of UV athletics, William Lambeth, went to New York City to meet with other presidents and administrators from other big time universities to discuss how they could make the game of football safer.
- At the time there was legislation happening in Washington to make it illegal to play the game of football in America.
- A new rules committee that was appointed from that meeting in New York City included Lambeth and the father of American football, Walter Camp.
- Lambeth noted to the committee, which met almost on a monthly basis, that the two deaths he had seen personally were due to exhaustion. At the time there were no substitutions, if you came out you could no longer return. The original game had a lot of pulling and pushing. Players were not considered down until they really couldn't move under the pile. Lambeth suggested that the game be split into four quarters, totaling 15 minutes a piece and that players could substitute back in. Walter Camp's notes from the committee meetings credit Lambeth, in the margins, with these changes.
- The committee asked Lambeth to take the new rules back to the University of Virginia and experiment with them during the spring of 1910.
- On the Grounds of the University of Virginia, under the watchful eye of William Lambeth, a new version of American football, divided into four quarters was played for the first time in history.
- Other notable rules that were played for the first time that spring at Lambeth Field were: seven men required on the line at the time of the snap, players could no longer push or pull the ball carrier and the forward pass could now be made across the line of scrimmage.
- Virginia football returned to its roots at Lambeth Field during camp in 2013, 2014, 2015 and 2016, taking part in various scrimmages and practices on the hallowed ground.

UVA ATHLETIC TRAINER FOR FOOTBALL IS ONE OF A FEW

- Virginia's Kelli Pugh is one of 10 women at the FBS level that is their school's sports medicine department's primary care provider for football.
- Pugh is only one of four women at the FBS level that works with a Power-Five level program. Ariko Iso, who was with the Pittsburgh Steelers for years, is with Oregon State. Sally Nogle works with Michigan State and Kammy Powell took over football in 2016 at Minnesota.

DID YOU KNOW?

• UVA junior Quin Blanding was named by his mother Cory Lee after the movie titled "The Mighty Quinn," starring Denzel Washington and Mimi Rogers. It was the first movie she saw following a checkup during her seventh month of pregnancy and the moment held significant meaning to her. At that checkup the doctor's told her they thought they saw a hole in Quin's head and that it appeared to them his cerebrum wasn't connected. Quin was born completely healthy. Cory named him Quin with one "n" instead of two in recognition of that moment during pregnancy. She knew he will be all right and that he will be the mighty one.

• Blanding's father, Kevin, played football at NCAA Division II Glenville State (W.Va.) for current Arizona football head coach Rich Rodriguez.

• When offensive coordinator Robert Anae finished playing football, he returned home to Hawaii and served as the body model for the towering statue of the father of surfing, Duke Kahanamoku, a five-time Olympian.

The statue, created by artist Jan Fisher, is right next to the famous Waikiki Beach. Anae was a graduate assistant at Hawaii at the time and the artist needed a model, a surfer that was tall, and he went looking for the tallest surfer on the North Shore.

• UVA's oldest living football alum, Dr. John Risher, turned 106 years old this year; he also works in the press box on the UVA stats crew on game day.

• Matt Johns made his collegiate debut as the UVA holder in 2013. The first time Johns made it into a college game he had to hold in the rain on Ian Frye's 53-yard field goal in the 2013 season-opening win over BYU and now current UVA head coach Bronco Mendenhall. Frye's kick sailed through as time expired in the first half, tying the third-longest field goal in UVA history.

• Senior SS Kelvin Rainey has two brothers that have played FBS football. His older brother Johnathan played at New Mexico (2008-11), while his other older brother Derrick played at Arizona (2010-13).

• QB Connor Brewer spent two seasons playing for Rich Rodriguez at Arizona (2013-14).

• SS Kelvin Rainey's older brother, Derrick, spent four seasons (2010-13) playing at Arizona with his last two under Rodriguez. In 2013 Kelvin Rainey's brother, Derrick, was teammates with Brewer.

- Virginia's 90-yard touchdown drive in the second quarter was the program's longest since going for a 90-yard touchdown drive in 2015 against Virginia Tech in the season finale.
- Virginia's interception in the third quarter was the first forced turnover of the season by the Cavaliers.
- Virginia First Time Starters: Offense: Hasise Dubois (WR)
- Collegiate debuts: Alex Furbank (PK), Kareem Gibson (CB)
- The 23-yard field goal by PK Alex Furbank in the first quarter came on the first-ever football play of his life. Furbank never played football before walking on to UVA's team this season. He is a former soccer player who was on the roster last year at DIII Randolph-Macon, but didn't appear in any games last season.
- With six receptions against the Huskies, TB Taquan Mizzell extended his receptions streak to 36 games, which is third longest in the nation and longest by a running back.
- Mizzell now has 155 career receptions, which ranks No. 3 all-time in the UVA record book.
- Mizzell now has 1,231 career receiving yards, which places him No. 22 all-time in the UVA record books.
- Mizzell's 66 rushing yards pushes him up to 1,256 career rushing yards, placing him No. 35 all-time in the UVA record book.
- CB Juan Thornhill recorded his first career interception in the third quarter. He came up with the ball in the end zone, killing a prolonged UConn drive.
- WR Olamide Zaccheaus registered a career-high six receptions.
