FIVE THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW

- UVA and FSU are meeting for the third time in five years, but after Saturday the Cavaliers and Seminoles will only face each other once over the subsequent 10 seasons.
- Kevin Parks spurred up the middle for the 10-yard game-winning touchdown with 1:16 left at Doak Campbell Stadium the last time these teams met in 2011. The 14-13 UVA win is FSU's last ACC loss at home (10-game streak).
- FS Quin Blanding is No. 1 in the ACC and No. 1 among the nation's freshmen with 89 tackles. He is one of two freshmen in the nation to lead his team in tackles. Joining Blanding is NC State's Jerod Fernandez (R-Fr.) with 61 through eight games.
- DE Eli Harold is No. 1 in the ACC and No. 17 nationally with 13.0 tackles for loss. His 35 career tackles for loss rank No. 10 all-time at UVA.
- Kevin Parks is No. 5 in the nation among active players with 3,100 career rushing yards.

UNIQUELY UVA

The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to UVA's culture.

Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the University dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.

First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why you may ask? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process.

Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES

Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."

Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.

Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos" during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general use around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

THE CAVALIER MASCOT

The costumed Cavalier with a large character head debuted during Virginia's 1984 football season and has remained the official mascot of the University.

The first documented Cavalier on horseback was Francis Bell, a Virginia student from Dublin, Va., in 1947. Bell rode onto the field dressed as Cavaliers for Virginia's home football game with Harvard on the afternoon of October 11.

The Cavalier on horseback returned as the University's mascot in 1963. The UVA Polo Club provided both the horse and rider. However, the mounted Cavalier and his horse parted company in 1974 with the inception of AstroTurf at Scott Stadium.

The mounted Cavalier made its return in the Florida Citrus Bowl at the end of the 1989 football season. Due to its instant popularity, the Cavalier on horseback returned the following season on a regular basis and continues to lead the Virginia football team onto the field at the beginning of all home games.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.

One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

WAH-HOO-WAH

The origin of "Wah-hoo-wah" is uncertain. The cheer was used to root on Virginia teams as early as 1890 and may have been borrowed from Dartmouth College, whose athletics teams were once known as the Indians.

Legend attributes the yell to Natalie Floyd Otey, who sang the ballad "Where'er You Are, There Shall My Love Be" at Charlottesville's Levy Opera House in 1893. The predominantly student audience noticed that Otey warbled the first three words of the song between each of the stanzas and decided to join in the refrain. By evening's end, goes the legend, the crowd had corrupted "Where'er You Are" into "Wah-hoo-wah."

The Levy Opera House stands at the corner of High Street and Park Street and has since been renovated into an office building.

VIRGINIA VS. FLORIDA STATE

- Virginia and Florida State are meeting for the 18th time in the programs' history, with FSU holding a 14-3 advantage in the series including an 8-1 mark in Tallahassee.
- Virginia and Florida State are playing for the Jefferson-Eppes Trophy.
- UVA's first two wins in the series came over top-five ranked FSU teams – a 33-28 win over then-No. 2 FSU in 1995 and a 26-21 victory over then-No. 4 FSU in 2005. Those wins represent the two highest-ranked foes UVA has ever defeated.

ITS BEEN GREAT SEEING YOU

- Because of the ACC's unbalanced schedule, after Saturday Virginia and Florida State will not play again until 2019.
- UVA has not hosted Florida State since 2010 and the Seminoles will not come to Scott Stadium until the 2019 meeting.
- In 2013 the ACC announced a 12-year schedule for its rotating division crossover opponents through the 2024 season. Between 2013 and 2024 UVA and Florida State are only scheduled to meet this season and 2019.
- Virginia and Florida State played every season from 1993-2006, but have only played twice since (2010 & 2011).
- In 2024 when the already announced ACC rotating crossover conference schedule is complete, UVA and Florida State will have met just four times in 19 seasons between 2006-2024.

1995 FSU-UVA GAME FEATURED 62 FUTURE NFL PLAYERS

- The Cavaliers handed FSU its first-ever loss in the ACC and snapped FSU's 29-game conference winning streak when UVA's Anthony Poindexter and Adrian Burnim were both in on the goal-line tackle of Warrick Dunn as time expired in the 1995 win over then-No. 2 Florida State.
- In all, a total of 62 players on the FSU and UVA rosters (30 from UVA) went on to play in the NFL, including 45 players who participated in the game (22 from UVA). No other ACC game has had more future NFL participants.

LAST MEETING: 2011 (UVA 14, @FSU 13)

- It was an exciting finish in Tallahassee as UVA ran away with a narrow 14-13 triumph over then-No. 23 Florida State. It was UVA's first-ever win at Doak Campbell Stadium.
- Kevin Parks gave Virginia the one-point lead by running 10 yards for a touchdown with 1:16 left.
- In the final 38 seconds, a costly facemask penalty gave Florida State a crucial first down and a replay ruling gave the Seminoles a few extra seconds to attempt a potential game-winning kick.
- Florida State's Dustin Hopkins missed a 42-yard field-goal attempt with three seconds left.
- Hopkins originally set up for a 47-yard attempt, but was moved up five yards for what officials ruled was a "disconcerting signal," from a Cavaliers defender.
- Trailing 13-7 with 1:53 left, Michael Rocco led UVA 75 yards in 37 seconds for the game-winning score by Parks.
- Rocco was 22-of-31 for 238 yards and one touchdown. Parks rushed nine times for 28 yards and the game-winning score.
- Current Cavalier Darius Jennings made three catches for 13 yards in the game as a true freshman.
- Other current Cavaliers that played in the game: Anthony Harris, who made two tackles on special teams. DreQuan Hoskey made an appearance late for an injured Dom Joseph. Hoskey made a key pass break up on a deep throw on FSU's final drive. Brandon Phelps also made one tackle on special teams.

SCOTT STADIUM, HOME OF THE CAVALIERS

The Carl Smith Center, home of David A. Harrison III Field at Scott Stadium, with its unique architectural design, scenic setting on the University's Grounds and exceptional sight lines, is one of the nation's finest college football settings.

Opened in 1931, Scott Stadium might be one of the oldest campus college football stadiums in the nation, but you could never tell from its appearance. Numerous upgrades and expansions make it a modern home for the Cavaliers and their fans.

Scott Stadium was the gift of Frederic William Scott and Elisabeth Strother Scott, and was dedicated to the memory of his parents, Frederic Robert Scott and Frances Branch Scott.

Virginia played its dedication game at Scott Stadium on Oct. 15, 1931 against the Virginia Military Institute before a then-capacity crowd of 22,000. Prior to that season, the Cavaliers staged their home games at the University's Lambeth Field.

Virginia has played 443 games in the historic venue. UVa's all-time record at Scott Stadium stands at 250-181-12.

- Gooch went down with a season-ending injury in the UNC game.
- Gooch was averaging 18.1 yards on catches that result in a first down for UVa.
- He had receptions of five and three yards against UCLA, three yards against Louisville and three yards against BYU that did not result in a first down.
- Gooch had a 19-yard reception at Duke that did not result in a first down because he fumbled on the play.
- The next money receiver for first downs is Canaan Severin. Of Severin's 30 receptions, 19 have gone for a first down (63.3 percent).

AVOIDING THE SACK – UVA OFFENSIVE LINE PROTECTS

- Many questions surrounded the UVa offensive line throughout camp, especially with the graduation of Luke Bowanko and Morgan Moses to the NFL, coupled with an injury to 2013 starter Jay Whitmire that has sidelined the junior since spring practice.
- All considering, the UVa offensive line is ranked No. 9 in the nation in fewest sacks allowed.
- UVa has allowed eight sacks through the first nine games.
- With 334 passing attempts, that's one sack every 41.8 passing attempts. That trails only Duke (73.00) for the ACC lead.
- The first sack was given up by the third-string offensive line in the fourth quarter of the Richmond game when the Spiders corralled third-string quarterback David Watford.
- Against Louisville, UVa yielded three sacks against its first string line.
- A fifth sack was credited to Pitt on an intentional grounding penalty.
- North Carolina recorded a sack against UVa, its sixth allowed.
- Georgia Tech was able to sack UVa twice bringing the season total to eight.
- Through nine games in 2013 UVa had already given up 17 sacks.

- The breakdown for Jennings year-by-year: 2014 – 22 plays (11 kick returns, 10 receptions, 1 rush); 2013 – 20 plays (15 kick returns, 5 receptions); 2012 – 10 plays (8 receptions, 1 kick return, 1 reception); 2011 – 22 plays (18 kick returns, 3 receptions, 1 punt return).

TRACKING SENIOR WR DARIUS JENNINGS

- Jennings is also No. 11 all-time at UVa with 3,382 all-purpose yards.

VIRGINIA OFFENSIVE TRAIN STARTED ROLLING AT BYU

- UVa set a program record with 102 offensive plays at No. 21 BYU, breaking the previous record of 98 plays against South Carolina in 1968.
- The Cavaliers recorded 35 first downs, the third-most in a game in program history. The 35 first downs were one short of the UVa record of 36 that happened against Davidson in 1968 and William & Mary in 1990.
- UVa also held the ball for 40:55 against the Cougars and outgained BYU, 519-332.
- What was the difference in the game? In addition to BYU's 99-yard kick return for a touchdown, twice UVa was inside BYU's five yard line and had to settle for a field goal each time.

UVA'S RUSHING ATTACK AT BYU

- UVa rushed for 192 yards on 44 attempts (4.4 yards per rush) and two touchdowns at BYU.
- In BYU's other eight games the Cougars have limited its opponents to a combined 823 rushing yards on 279 attempts (2.9 yards per rush).

FRESHMEN SHINE AMONG UVA RECEIVING CORPS

- Redshirt freshman Andre Levrone and true freshman Doni Dowling made their collegiate debuts in solid fashion against No. 7 UCLA.
- The duo caught eight combined balls for 100 combined yards and one touchdown.
- Dowling caught five balls for 25 yards, while Levrone recorded three receptions for 75 yards and one touchdown.
- Dowling's five receptions are the most by a UVa true freshman receiver in a debut since 1972. That was the first season in which freshmen were eligible to play varsity football. The NCAA had historically prohibited freshmen from varsity competition, except during the US involvement in World War II.
- Dowling's effort passed teammate Darius Jennings' four catches in the senior's 2011 debut against William & Mary.

YOUTHFUL WIDE RECEIVING CORPS

- Outside of established senior WR Darius Jennings, the bulk of the noise made in preseason camp by the receiving corps has been made by either the young, inexperienced or tall receivers. Some are all three.
- Kyle Dockins, Miles Gooch, Keeon Johnson and Canaan Severin all register at 6-2 or taller and expect to be primary targets in the UVa offense.
- The quartet enters 2014 with 37 combined career catches between them, 20 of which belong to Johnson's stellar freshman campaign in 2013.
- Added to the deep mix will be three wide receivers making collegiate debuts in 2014. True freshmen Jamil Kamara (6-2) and Doni Dowling (6-1) will find time in the mix, as will redshirt freshman Andre Levrone (6-2).

INEXPERIENCE ON THE OFFENSIVE LINE

- With Jay Whitmire's injury to start the season, UVa has only 36 career starts combined entering the 2014 season.
- Among all FBS teams, UVa has the 14th most inexperienced offensive line to start the year.
- Among Power Five conference schools, UVa has the seventh-most inexperienced offensive line. Below is a look at who is in front of UVa:

	Power 5 School	Career OL Starts Entering 2014

2.	Ohio State	20
	Penn State	20
4.	Purdue	30

- Blanding's 89 tackles are the most by a UVa freshman since Steve Greer led UVa with 92 in 2009. It's the most by a UVa true freshman since Ahmad Brooks set the UVa freshman record for tackles with 117 in 2003.

- Nicholson is unable to perform as he still is rehabbing from an offseason surgery to fix his 'turf toe' injury.
- Nicholson made one appearance in 2014, starting vs. Kent State and recording five tackles and one interception.

FORCING AND RECOVERING FUMBLES

- UVa's defense has recovered 10 fumbles by opponents through seven games.

CANADY WITH THE PICK 6 AGAINST KENT STATE

- CB Maurice Canady's 69-yard pick-6 TD return against Kent State was the sixth longest INT return in program history, the fourth-longest INT return for a touchdown in program history and the 11th-longest INT return in the nation this year.

BLANDING GETS FIRST INTERCEPTION

- UVa free safety Quin Blanding recorded the first interception of his career against Richmond.
- Blanding's pick was the first of the year for UVa. The last time a true freshman made the first interception of the year for Virginia was 2011 when Demetrious Nicholson snatched one against William & Mary.
- Not only did both Blanding and Nicholson both go to Bayside High School in Virginia Beach, but are the last two true freshmen to start a season opener for Virginia.

UVA RETURNS EXPERIENCE IN THE SECONDARY

- UVa opened the 2014 season with 112 career starts among its returning defensive backs, which was the most in the nation amongst teams that run schemes with four defensive backs.
- Demetrious Nicholson leads the group with 30 career starts. He started the first 30 games of his collegiate career before being hurt in game five last season against Ball State and did not play the rest of the season.
- All-American Anthony Harris is second among returning defensive backs entering the season with 23 career starts.
- 2014 is a stark difference over 2012 when UVa was one of the four schools in the nation without a senior in the secondary and started four sophomores for most games, sometimes throwing a freshmen into the mix. 2012 sophomores Anthony Harris (12), DreQuan Hoskey (10) and Brandon Phelps (12) started the majority of the games, while 2012 freshman Maurice Canady (2) also started two games. Now they make up one of the nation's most experienced defensive backfields.
- Here is a look at the list of top returning secondaries in the nation:

	Career Starts	Defensive Scheme
1. UTSA	133	4-2-5
2. Virginia	112	4-3
3. Colorado	111	Multiple/4-3 Base
4. Ole Miss	108	Multiple
5. Arizona	105	3-3-5
6. Arkansas State	97	Multiple/4-2-5 Base
UCF	97	4-3

FRESHMAN QUIN BLANDING GETS THE STARTING NOD AT FREE SAFETY

- Freshman Quin Blanding made his collegiate debut against UCLA.
- Blanding started at free safety and was the first UVa true freshman to start a season opener at one of the two safety positions since Tony Blount did so on Sept. 11, 1976.
- Blount played strong safety for the Cavaliers in a road opener at Washington, Virginia's first-ever game against a Pac-12 school. At the time of the 1976 game it was the Pac-8 Conference.
- Blanding is the first true freshman Cavalier at any position to start a season opener since fellow UVa teammate Demetrious Nicholson did so in 2011. Nicholson and Blanding are both graduates of Bayside High School in Virginia Beach.
- Blount was a four-year letterwinner (1976-79) and starter for the Cavaliers. Current UVa defensive coordinator Jon Tenuta was Blount's backup at one point.

ANDREW BROWN IS UVA'S SECOND GATORADE NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE YEAR - ATTENDS ESPYS

- UVa freshman defensive tackle was named the 2013 Gatorade High School National Player of the Year.
- Former UVa great Terry Kirby is the only other Cavalier football player to earn the award.
- The five-star recruit is the 11th Virginia athlete to earn Gatorade National Player of the Year honors in their respective sports.
- Current UVa senior women's soccer player Morgan Brian was the 2011 Gatorade National Female Athlete of the Year.
- Seven former UVa men's soccer players and one women's basketball player also won the national honor for their respective sports.
- Brown attended the 2014 ESPYS at the Nokia Theatre in Los Angeles in July.

TENUTA GAVE UVA'S DEFENSE AN AGGRESSIVE MAKEOVER IN 2013 AND IT CONTINUES INTO 2014

- Virginia's associate head coach for defense and defensive coordinator Jon Tenuta is a UVa alum and has brought an aggressive makeover to the Cavaliers since he came home to Charlottesville in 2013.
- UVa over the six seasons prior to Tenuta Uva had the sixth-worst turnover margin in the nation. In 2012 UVa recorded only four interceptions, the fewest by a Virginia Cavalier team since the birth of the forward pass.
- Tenuta said prior to the 2013 season that "we want to create problems for the front five and never let the quarterback set his feet in the passing game."
- UVa over the past few seasons have been near the bottom nationally in turnover margin and sacks per game – Tenuta wants to change that.
- During Tenuta's first season at UVa the Cavaliers boasted Anthony Harris who led the nation in interceptions. Eli Harold was No. 4 in the nation among underclassmen with 8.5 sacks.
- Tenuta enters his 34th season of collegiate coaching and his 18th as a defensive coordinator. He has had stops in the ACC, Big Ten, Big 12 and at Notre Dame and looks to continue to create turnovers and sack numbers that have declined in recent years at UVa prior.

Below a glance at UVa nationally and in the ACC in turnover margin and sacks:

- Brooks later prepped a year at Hargrave Military and enrolled a year later.
- Brown was rated the No. 5 overall recruit in the nation and the No. 1 defensive tackle, while Blanding was rated the No. 10 overall recruit in the nation and No. 1 safety.
- Blanding and Brown join TB Taquan Mizzell as former five-star recruits on the UVa roster. Mizzell, nicknamed Smoke in high school for his elusiveness, signed in 2013 and was the first five-star recruit for the Cavaliers since Eugene Monroe in 2005.

ANTHONY HARRIS EARNS THE GRAY-CARRINGTON MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

- Established in 1971 in memory of Arthur P. "Pete" Gray IV and expanded in 1987 to include Edward C. Carrington Jr., this award honors two outstanding students whose achievements have served as an inspiration to others. Its one of the highest honors given to a UVa student.
- Winners exhibit traits that defined Pete Gray and Ed Carrington, including personal integrity, achievement, leadership and humility.
- Harris said what makes this award special is that it's not a sports award; it's an award that the entire student body is eligible for. "To actually win meant that I accomplished not only some things on the football field, but things within the social and academic community as well," said Harris. "It is a very humbling award."

HARRIS LED THE NATION IN INTS IN 2013

- Anthony Harris led the nation with eight interceptions in 2013.
- Harris set a UVa record recording at least one INT (six overall) in five straight games.
- The eight picks by Harris were four more than the entire UVa team had in 2012.

- The eight interceptions rank No. 2 all-time at UVa for most in a season.
- Harris' eight interceptions are the most by a UVa safety since Keith McMeans led the nation with nine in 1987. Harris' 2013 season is tied for No. 2 at UVa for INTs in a season with Kevin Cook (1987) and Barber.

- Matt Fortin succeeded Aiken during for the 2011 season and held the job through 2013.
- Fortin's graduation in May has forced a competition between redshirt freshmen Alex Foertsch and Tyler Shirley for the open long snapper spot.
- Shirley won the job and made his debut against UCLA.

DID YOU KNOW?

• UVA freshman Quin Blanding was named after the folk-rock song titled "The Mighty Quinn" by his mother Cory Lee. It was the first song she heard following a checkup during her seventh month of pregnancy and the moment held significant meaning to her. At that checkup the doctor's told her they thought they saw a hole in Quin's head and that it appeared to them his cerebrum wasn't connected. Quin was born completely healthy. Cory named him Quin with one "n" instead of two in recognition of that moment during pregnancy.

• Blanding's father Kevin played football at NCAA Division II Glenville State (W.V.) for current Arizona football head coach Rich Rodriguez.

• UVA WR Canaan Severin changed from number 84 to number 9 prior to the 2014 season in honor of UVA student assistant Jacoby Rainey. Rainey wore number 9 as the Woodberry Forest quarterback where a freak game accident forced the amputation of his leg. After the accident Rainey was featured on an episode of E60 and was a guest of then-Denver QB Tim Tebow at a game in Buffalo.

• UVA head coach Mike London's younger brother, Paul, was a defensive back for Virginia from 1992-95. Paul played a major part during UVA's NCAA record streak of 39 straight games with at least one interception. The streak ran from Nov. 6, 1993 through Nov. 29, 1996.

• UVA quarterback David Watford and current wide receivers coach Marques Hagans are first cousins and both were quarterbacks at Hampton High before enrolling at UVA.

• Paul Wisman also works in the press box on the UVA stats crew staff and has done so since 1956. His 59 straight years of work in the press box is the longest current streak in the nation (More on page 20).

• Current UVA offensive line coach Scott Wachenheim was the offensive coordinator at Liberty (2006-08) when UVA WR Dominique Terrell's older brother, Zach, was a standout All-Big South running back and slot receiver for the Flames.

• CB Demetrious Nicholson has been growing his signature dread locks since the summer of 2005, just before he entered the sixth grade.

• WR Kyle Dockins also has been growing his dread locks since the sixth grade, dating back to 2006.

• Air Force Academy graduate and UVA assistant coach Scott Wachenheim was awarded his bachelor's degree by then-President Ronald Reagan.

• Graduate assistant Jacob Hodges served as a team manager for two years (2008, 2009) and then was a three-year letterwinner as UVA's holder (2010-12).

• DE Trent Corney's older brother, Taylor, won the Bronze at the 2009 Pan American Junior Championships in the Decathlon. Taylor has also been ranked in the Top 10 in the world in the Decathlon.

• Matt Johns made his collegiate debut as the UVA holder in 2013. The first time Johns made it into a college game he had to hold in the rain on Ian Frye's 53-yard field goal in the 2013 season-opening win over BYU. Frye's kick sailed through as time expired in the first half, tying the third-longest field goal in UVA history.

• P/PK Alec Vozenilek's younger brother Rob is a member of UVA's men's basketball squad. On off days from spring football, Alec drove down to Greensboro, N.C., to support his brother and watch UVA win the ACC Tournament. Alec also attended all of UVA's NCAA Tournament games in Raleigh, N.C., and at Madison Square Garden in New York City.

JOHNS SHINES OFF THE BENCH VS. UCLA

- Matt Johns threw his first collegiate passes against No. 7 UCLA.
- His first collegiate pass came on UVa's final drive of the second quarter, he connected with Canaan Severin for 32 yards.
- The next play he rushed for nine yards before stepping out of bounds.
- Johns capped the drive on the very next play with a 29-yard scoring strike to Andre Levrone, the first collegiate touchdown for both Cavaliers.
- Johns finished the game 13-of-22 for 154 yards and two touchdowns.
- The UCLA game marked the second time Johns played quarterback for the Cavaliers.
- Johns played quarterback against VMI in 2013, but only handed the ball off.

JOHNS IS UVA'S PRIMARY HOLDER

- Johns has held on every field goal attempt and PAT since the 2013 season opener against BYU.
- The very first collegiate play for Johns came when he held on Ian Frye's 53-yard field goal as time expired in the second quarter against BYU in 2013. The field goal by Frye is tied for the third longest in UVa history.

A LOOK BACK AT COLLEGE FOOTBALL HISTORY ON THE GROUNDS OF UVA AS THE COLONNADES AT LAMBETH FIELD CELEBRATE 101 YEARS

- The colonnades at Lambeth Field turn 101 in 2014. The playing surface at Lambeth Field hosted Virginia football from 1902 until Scott Stadium opened up in the midst of the 1931 season on Oct. 15, 1931.
- Lambeth Field is the location where the American game of football that we know today, played from youth league all the way up to the NFL, was first played.
- It all started in 1909 with the death of UVA's Archer Christian.
- Christian died in 1909 as a result of injuries sustained in a football game at Georgetown on Nov. 13, 1909. Christian's death highlighted 29 football related deaths during the 1909 season. Papers from all over the country carried the front-page headline of Christian's death.
- Former UVA President Edwin A. Alderman and the father of UV athletics, William Lambeth, went to New York City to meet with other presidents and administrators from other big time universities to discuss how they could make the game of football safer.
- At the time there was legislation happening in Washington to make it illegal to play the game of football in America.
- A new rules committee that was appointed from that meeting in New York City included Lambeth and the father of American football, Walter Camp.
- Lambeth noted to the committee, which met almost on a monthly basis, that the two deaths he had seen personally were due to exhaustion. At the time there were no substitutions, if you came out you could no longer return. The original game had a lot of pulling and pushing. Players were not considered down until they really couldn't move under the pile. Lambeth suggested that the game be split into four quarters, totaling 15 minutes a piece and that players could substitute back in. Walter Camp's notes from the committee meetings credit Lambeth, in the margins, with these changes.
- The committee asked Lambeth to take the new rules back to the University of Virginia and experiment with them during the spring of 1910.
- On the Grounds of the University of Virginia, under the watchful eye of William Lambeth, a new version of American football, divided into four quarters was played for the first time in history.
- Other notable rules that were played for the first time that spring at Lambeth Field were: seven men required on the line at the time of the snap, players could no longer push or pull the ball carrier and the forward pass could now be made across the line of scrimmage.
- Virginia football returned to its roots at Lambeth Field during camp in 2013 and 2014, taking part in various scrimmages and practices on the hallowed ground.

WISMAN AND RISHER HAVE BOTH WORKED ON UVA'S FOOTBALL STAT CREW FOR 50+ YEARS

- Paul Wisman and Dr. John Risher have each worked on the stats crew at Scott Stadium for over 50 years.
- Wisman enters his 59th consecutive season on the UVA stat crew, which is tied with Toledo's Chet Sullwold for the longest active streak in FBS football. Both men started in 1956.
- Risher began in 1963 and enters his 52nd season in a row.
- Risher used to be Wisman's primary care physician in Lynchburg before retiring. When Risher found out what Wisman did with UVA, he hounded him to plug him in with the stats crew too.
- Risher is UVA's oldest living football alum. He turned 104 on May 13 of this year. He golfed nine holes on his 100th birthday in 2010.
- Wisman has missed only one home game at Scott Stadium since he started working on the stat crew and that was the 2011 season-opening game against William & Mary.
- The William & Mary game in 2011 is the only home game Wiseman has missed for that matter at Scott Stadium since 1946.
- In April 2013, both Risher and Wisman were recipients of the "Order of the Crossed Sabre" award, which goes annually to someone who has contributed greatly to Virginia football.

Mike London enters his fifth season at Virginia with a complete roster of players he has recruited, a large number of returning letterwinners and all of his coaching coordinators from the 2013 campaign. Fresh off a recruiting class that included two top-10 prospects for the first time in the program's history, London believes the Cavaliers are in position to return to the form that saw UVA win eight

Facing one of the nation's toughest schedules in 2014 will be a challenge, but the energetic London feels the Cavaliers are ready to turn the corner. With recruiting classes consistently ranked among the top-30 in the nation, Virginia is in a position to erase the memories of the 2013 campaign when it went 2-10 with a roster that featured just six seniors who played on a consistent basis. In both 2012 and 2013, the Cavaliers were among the nation's leading teams in terms of playing true freshmen.

Knowing London's backstory, it is easy to understand why he is so optimistic as well as why his players enjoy and embrace his coaching approach.

A former Richmond police detective, London's time in law enforcement dealing with the entire spectrum of human emotions and actions has provided a wealth of experience that he draws on to assist players both on and off the field. There are few stressful situations he has not faced — including having a loaded pistol pointed at him and the trigger pulled, only to have the weapon malfunction and not discharge its potentially lethal round.

London also had the remarkable opportunity to save one of his daughter's lives when he was identified as a perfect match for her rare bone marrow disorder. That opportunity is one reason why London is an advocate of servitude and makes sure his players understand and embrace the concept of giving back through a variety of community services activities. One of the most visible is the team's annual bone marrow donor registration drive as part of the national "Get in the Game, Save a Life" initiative.

London's biography includes plenty of chapters of football success on the field as well.

In the spring of 2013 OT Oday Aboushi was selected by the New York Jets to mark the 30th consecutive season a UVA player has been picked in the NFL Draft, the second longest streak among ACC schools.

In 2011, he led Virginia to one of its most outstanding seasons as the Cavaliers went 8-4 during the regular season, finished second in the ACC's Coastal Division with a 5-3 mark and played Auburn in the 2011 Chick-fil-A Bowl. The Cavaliers were one win from advancing to the ACC's Championship game.

The Virginia turnaround featured four games that the team won in the final seconds. Along the way the Cavaliers became the first college football program to ever win road games at Miami and Florida State in the same season on the way to UVA being ranked in the Associated Press Top-25 poll for the first time since the 2007 season.

For his efforts, London was recognized as the Atlantic Coast Conference's Coach of the Year. He was also selected by the Fellowship of Christian Athletes to receive its 2011 Grant Teaff Coach of the Year Award. Five of his players earned either first or second-team All-ACC honors. The 2011 team saw two players — CB Chase Minnifield and OG Austin Pasztor — receive All-America honors and CB Demetrius Nicholson was named a Freshman All-American.

Since taking over the Virginia program London has worked tirelessly to build relationships with the University's faculty and staff, alumni and former players, fans and supporters and the region's high school coaches. He has made dozens of appearances, spoke at clinics and been readily available to the media.

He has had the team hold spring practices and coaches clinics across the state, including in Virginia Beach to build support and interest in one of the state's most fertile recruiting areas.

He defines the culture for the football team by prescribing three basic tenets for his players:

- Go to Class
- Show Class
- Treat People with Dignity and Respect

The results of his actions were tangible. In his first spring semester at UVA the team posted its best cumulative grade point average in 10 years. Those results have continued to improve and during the spring of 2013, his players once again set a high mark for its GPA.

While all of those things are impressive, London is the first to remind everyone his primary goal is to reverse the fortunes of the Cavalier program on the field. Success has been a big part of the Mike London story even prior to being named the 39th coach in the Virginia program's history.

In two seasons at Richmond, London led the Spiders to a 24-5 record. In his first year at the helm, his team went 13-3 and won the Football Championship Series national title. The 2009 Spider team, ranked nine consecutive weeks at No. 1 in the FCS polls, went 11-2 and reached the quarterfinals of the FCS playoffs. His teams were 13-4 in the Colonial Athletic Association during the 2008 and 2009 campaigns.

London's efforts in 2008 earned him FCS National Coach of the Year honors from both the American Football Coaches Association and Schutt Sports/ American Football Monthly magazine. London was also honored as the Black Coaches Association Male Coach of the Year in 2008, beating out Mike Tomlin of the Super Bowl Champion Pittsburgh Steelers for the award. In addition to the national honors, London was tabbed the State Coach of the Year from both VaSID and the Peninsula Sports Club.

Under London's watch, 16 Spiders were named to the All-CAA Football Team in 2009 after placing 12 in 2008. His first year at UR, nine Spiders garnered 15 All-America awards and six were recognized on the Academic All-Conference Team. DE Lawrence Sidbury was a fourth-round NFL draft pick by the Atlanta Falcons, while RB Josh Vaughan was a free-agent signee by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Before returning to coach his alma mater, London spent six of seven seasons coaching for Al Groh at Virginia. In 2001 London joined the UVA staff for the first time as the defensive line coach. He took over the responsibilities as recruiting coordinator in 2002. In 2005 London left UVA to work as the defensive line coach for the NFL's Houston Texans. He returned to Virginia in 2006 as the defensive coordinator and defensive line coach.

During his tenure with the Cavaliers, he saw five defensive players (Chris Long, Marcus Hamilton, Chris Canty, Andrew Hoffman and Monsanto Pope) drafted by NFL teams. Long was the ACC Defensive Player of the Year in 2007, earned unanimous All-America honors, was the Ted Hendricks Award winner as the nation's top defensive end and the second overall selection in the 2008 NFL Draft.

A native of Hampton, Va., London played defensive back at Richmond from 1979-82. Under head coach Dal Shealy, he led the Spiders with six interceptions as a senior captain in 1982. In addition to earning all-state honors, he was chosen the team's MVP and received the Spiders' Coaches Award. In 1982, the Virginia Peninsula Sports Club selected him as the male in-state Athlete of the Year.

London graduated from Richmond in 1983 with a bachelor's degree in sociology and a year later received a degree in law enforcement from the Richmond Police Academy, serving as a detective for the street crimes unit from November of 1984 to July of 1989. The Dallas Cowboys signed him as a free agent in 1983.

London broke into the collegiate coaching ranks in 1989, spending two seasons with Richmond as the outside linebackers coach and admissions liaison, followed by four seasons (1991-94) as the defensive line coach at William & Mary.

He returned to Richmond for two more years (1995-96) as the outside linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator, coaching All-America LB Shawn Barber, who was a fourth-round draft pick by the Washington Redskins in 1998 and played 10 years in the NFL. London served as defensive line coach at Boston College for the 1997-2000 seasons, where he helped lead the Eagles to two bowl appearances.

London and his wife Regina, are the parents of four children — Ticynn, Korben, Jaicyn and Madicyn. He has three older children, Michael, Jr., Brandon and Kristen through a previous marriage. The 53-year-old London was born in West Point, N.Y. in 1960.

His son, Brandon, led Massachusetts in receiving in 2006 and finished his career as the school's second leading receiver. He was signed to the Miami Dolphins active roster in 2008 after spending the 2007 season on the Super Bowl Champion New York Giants practice squad. Brandon since 2010 has been with the Montreal Alouettes of the CFL. One of London's daughters, Kristen, played on the UVA women's basketball team during the 2007-08 and 2008-09 seasons. His younger brother, Paul, was a defensive back at UVA from 1991-95.
