THE STARTING LINEUP

SETTING THE SCENE

- Central Michigan (3-0, 0-0 Mid-American Conference) will visit Virginia (0-3, 0-0 Atlantic Coast Conference) Saturday at Scott Stadium in Charlottesville, Virginia.
 - The contest is scheduled for a 12:30 p.m. (ET) kickoff and will be broadcast on Fox Sports Detroit with Wes Durham (play-by-play), James Bates (analyst) and Jenn Hildreth (sideline) on the call.
 - The Chippewas are 3-0 for the first time since 2002.
 - A victory against Virginia would give CMU its first 4-0 start since 1985, when current Central Michigan head coach John Bonamego was a walk-on wide receiver/backup quarterback/special teamer on a team coached by Herb Deromedi.
 - The 1985 team beat Pacific, Ohio, Kent State and Western Michigan on its way to a 7-3 season.
 - Central Michigan is coming off a 44-21 victory against UNLV at Kelly/Shorts Stadium.
 - CMU earned 16 votes in the latest Associated Press Top 25 poll.
 - Central Michigan is 0-13 all time against ACC teams.
 - CMU has three victories in the month of September for the first time since the 2009 team opened with a 19-6 loss at Arizona, then beat Michigan State, 29-27, Alcorn State, 48-0 and Akron, 48-21. The 2009 team went on to a 12-2 record and a MAC title.
 - The 1991, 1992 and 1994 teams also had three victories in September. The Dick Flynn-led 1994 team went 9-3 and won the MAC title.
 - The last CMU team to win four games in September was the Herb Deromedi-led 1984 team, which opened the season with victories against Northern Michigan, East Carolina, Western Michigan and Kent State. The 1984 team finished 8-2-1.
- ## MEET VIRGINIA
- CMU played Virginia once before, on Sept. 7, 1996. The Cavaliers beat the visiting Chippewas, 55-21. Tiki Barber ran for 147 yards and two touchdowns against the Chippewas.
 - Virginia is 11-2-1 all time against Mid-American Conference teams and 10-2-1 at home against MAC teams. The only MAC victories against Virginia came in 2006 when Western beat the Cavaliers, 17-10, and in 2013 when Ball State beat Virginia, 48-27.

- Senior tailback Albert Reid leads Virginia's run game with 227 rushing yards and a pair of touchdowns. He averages 6.3 yards per carry. He ran for 126 yards on 15 carries against Oregon.
- Quarterback Kurt Benkert, a junior, averages 232.7 passing yards a game. His favorite targets so far this season are Keeon Johnson (17 receptions, 159 yards and two touchdowns), Olamide Zaccheaus (14 receptions, 157 yards and a touchdown).

HONORARY CAPTAIN

- Today's honorary CMU football captain is Bob Stebbins, a tight end who played for the Chippewas from 1984 to 1987.
- Stebbins finished with 79 receptions for 1,069 yards and two touchdowns while appearing in 40 games. He was a Second Team Academic All-American in 1987 and a four-time Academic All-Mid-American Conference honoree.
- Stebbins now is a partner at the Willkie Farr and Gallagher law firm in New York.

NEXT UP FOR THE CHIPPEWAS

- An Oct. 1 home game against Western Michigan (3-0). The Broncos are coming off a 34-10 road victory at Illinois.
- Western held off a fourth-quarter rally by Central last season and beat the Chippewas, 41-39.

NEWS & NOTES

ABOUT THE CMU OFFENSE

- Central Michigan's Cooper Rush was named on Monday one of eight Manning Award Stars of the Week. Rush, who won the award the previous week in leading CMU to a 30-27 upset of No. 22-ranked Oklahoma State, completed 20 of 33 passes for 352 yards and a Kelly/Shorts Stadium record six touchdowns against UNLV. He also was named the Mid-American Conference West Division co-Offensive Player of the Week.
- Rush continues to climb all-time statistical listings at CMU, in the Mid-American Conference and in the NCAA. With 10,311 career passing yards, he ranks 10th all-time in the MAC, 377 yards shy of No. 9 Chad Pennington (Marshall).
- Rush has 78 career touchdown passes, ninth all time in the MAC. He is six TD passes shy of No. 8 Ben Roethlisberger, who played at Miami from 2001-2003.
- Rush passed former CMU quarterback Ryan Radcliff on the all-time MAC passing yards list two weeks ago when he threw for 361 yards against Oklahoma State. Radcliff had 9,917 career yards from 2009-2012.
- Wide receivers Mark Chapman (13), Jesse Kroll (12) and Corey Willis (11) lead the Chippewas in receptions. All are averaging more than 60 yards per game receiving.
- Willis, coming off a six-reception (2 TDs), 108-yard performance against UNLV, has at least one touchdown reception in each of CMU's games this season.
- Chapman, a junior, who also had two touchdown catches against UNLV, had 43 receptions for 559 yards and one touchdown last season.
- Devon Spalding leads CMU in rushing with 166 yards on 31 carries, a 5.4 yards per carry average.
- Led by Spalding's 135 rushing yards, Central Michigan ran for 255 yards in its season-opening 49-3 victory against Presbyterian on Sept. 1. It was the most team rushing yards in a game since CMU had 283 in a 30-19 victory against Northern Illinois on Oct. 11, 2014.
- Tight end Tyler Conklin caught the first two touchdown passes of his career against Oklahoma State. He finished with seven receptions for 96 yards.
- Conklin was named the John Mackey Tight End of the Week on Sept. 14 for his game against OSU. He has 10 catches for 151 yards this season.
- Senior Austin Stewart, best known on the CMU campus for his four seasons with the Central Michigan men's basketball team, is among the football team's receiving corps. He stands 6-foot-6, but had not played football since he was a senior at West High School in Normal, Ill.

- Austin Doan, a junior, started every game on the offensive line in 2015. This season, he moved to center, replacing Nick Beamish, who was a two-time First Team All-MAC selection.

ABOUT THE CMU DEFENSE

- Malik Fountain, a sophomore linebacker, shares the lead on CMU's defense with 18 tackles – 14 solo. He had nine tackles (eight solo) against UNLV. He also had two tackles for a loss against the Rebels.
- Senior safety Tony Annese had six solo tackles and broke up a pass against UNLV.
- Annese is on the preseason watch list for the Thorpe Award, which goes to the best defensive back in college football. Last year, Annese had 84 tackles and two interceptions.
- The CMU defense shut out UNLV in the second half last week. Six of UNLV final 10 possessions ended with a punt, one resulted in an interception and another ended in a safety.
- Senior linebacker Nathan Ricketts and freshman defensive back Sean Bunting recorded the first interceptions of their careers against UNLV. Ricketts also had five tackles.
- Ricketts is tied with Fountain for the team lead in tackles with 18. He also forced and recovered a fumble in the opener against Presbyterian.
- CMU junior cornerback Josh Cox had nine tackles (seven solo) and an interception in the Chippewas' victory at Oklahoma State. His fourth-quarter interception in the end zone kept the pressure on Oklahoma State while Central Michigan held a 24-20 lead. He is third on the team with 14 tackles.
- The Chippewas lead the Mid-American Conference with five interceptions, one more than Ohio.
- The CMU defense leads the MAC in limiting opponents from converting on third down. Through three games, opponents are 7-for-45 on third-down plays against the Chippewas.
- CMU's defense also leads the MAC in red-zone defense, with opponents scoring 62.5 percent of the time.
- CMU has allowed just 10 second-half points this season, and all of those were by Oklahoma State.
- Junior cornerback Amari Coleman returned an interception 27 yards for a touchdown late in the game against Presbyterian. He also had three tackles, including one for a loss. Coleman was named the CMU Defensive Newcomer of the Year in 2015 when he started all 13 games at cornerback. Coleman had 43 tackles last

CHIPPEWA NAME

The Central Michigan University Board of Trustees has approved the continued use of the nickname "Chippewas" in association with CMU. The university's goals are to use the name with honor and respect, increase supportive connections between CMU and Native Americans, and improve efforts to sensitize students, faculty, and staff to Native American traditions and cultures.

Media representatives have been extremely cooperative as we have worked to address this important issue. In nearly all cases, print and broadcast reporters have supported CMU's efforts to eliminate the use of symbols, headlines, and copy that present inappropriate and inaccurate images of Native Americans.

Central Michigan University is grateful for your help, and we ask for your continued cooperation and sensitivity. With your assistance, we can continue to use the Chippewa name with dignity and respect.

season, 29 unassisted.

- Thirty percent of the rushing yardage CMU has allowed this season came on one play last week when UNLV running back Lexington Thomas broke loose for an 85-yard touchdown run.
- CMU has allowed opponents 276 yards rushing this season on 97 attempts, an average of 2.8 yards per rush.

ABOUT CMU SPECIAL TEAMS

- Senior place-kicker Brian Eavey earned Second Team All-Mid-American Conference honors last season, going 16-of-24 on field goals and 38-of-38 on extra points. He is 16-for-16 on PATs this season.
- Eavey had a 30-yard field goal against Oklahoma State.
- Eavey's career-long field goal is a 48-yarder, and he twice kicked three field goals in a game in 2015. He has made 72.7 percent of his career field goal attempts.
- Two sophomores – Cooper Mojsiejenko and Jack Sheldon – share the punter role. Mojsiejenko averages 42.7 yards per punt. Sheldon averages 34.5 and has pinned opponents inside the 20 three times in his six punts.
- Mojsiejenko handled all of the punting duties against Oklahoma State. He punted six times against the Cowboys, averaging 43.2 yards per punt.
- Mojsiejenko is the son of Ralf Mojsiejenko, the former Michigan State star who went on to punt in the NFL for seven-plus seasons.
- Sheldon is an Australian who played Australian Rules Football, but never played American football before coming to CMU.
- Sophomore Luke Idoni is the long-snapper, replacing the graduated Mike Zenk, who was a four-year starter.
- Junior wide receiver Mark Chapman had three kickoff returns for 57 yards, with a long of 26, against Oklahoma State. He averages 21.6 yards per kick return and has a season long of 33 yards. He also holds on place kicks.
- Emmett Thomas, a sophomore, is back as the Chippewas' primary return specialist. He returned one punt against Presbyterian for 26 yards, setting up a second-quarter scoring drive.
- Thomas returned 28 kicks and 10 punts in 2015, averaging 20.2 and 3.9 yards, respectively.
- Winslow Chapman, a senior defensive back, blocked a punt in the third quarter against UNLV. The block led to a safety for CMU.

HONORING DERRICK NASH

- The CMU football program lost an important member of the program on June 22, 2015 – Derrick Nash.
- Nash, a defensive back from Saginaw, was diagnosed with acute lymphoblastic leukemia in May 2013 as he neared the end of his senior year at Carrollton High School.
- After undergoing chemotherapy treatment, Nash played in the Chippewas' annual Maroon and Gold Spring Game. He was on schedule to claim a spot on the active roster when doctors discovered the leukemia had returned. He began his second round of treatment in October 2014 and did not appear in a game.
- Nash served as CMU's honorary captain for the Popeyes Bahamas Bowl in 2014.
- To honor Nash, one Chippewa wore the No. 21 in each of CMU's 13 games in the 2015 season. The honor will continue this season. As last year, No. 21 will rotate to a new player each week. Because of NCAA rules regarding uniform numbers, interior offensive lineman may not wear the number, but a player lining up at any other position – offensive, defensive or special teams – may.
- Last week, junior cornerback Josh Cox wore No. 21 against UNLV. The player to wear No. 21 against Virginia will be announced on Wednesday.

FIVE PLAYERS NAMED CAPTAINS

- Central Michigan has five captains for the 2016 season. They are senior safety Tony Annese, senior fullback Joe Bacci, senior defensive lineman Kelby Latta, senior defensive lineman Jabari Dean, and senior quarterback Cooper Rush.
- Annese, who had a season-high 11 solo tackles against Minnesota in the Quick Lane Bowl last season, has started 32 consecutive games. He is on the preseason Jim Thorpe Award Watch List. The awards goes to the best defensive back in college football.
- Bacci, relied on for his skills as a blocker as a fullback, had 11 catches for 49 yards and three touchdowns last season. He had 13 receptions in the 2014 season.
- Latta has played in 34 games in three seasons. Last year he recorded 33 tackles, including one sack.
- Dean had three tackles, including a sack, in the Quick Lane Bowl game against Minnesota.
- Rush is a captain for the second consecutive season and is among the all-time leaders in CMU football history in several offensive categories.

HEAD COACH JOHN BONAMEGO

SECOND SEASON
10-6

John Bonamego became the 28th head coach in Central Michigan football history when he was named to the post on Feb. 8, 2015.

Bonamego, who played at CMU for the legendary Herb Deromedi in the mid 1980s, proclaimed the position his "dream job" as he became the first CMU alum to lead the program since Bill Kelly in 1951-66.

In his first season in charge of the program, Bonamego led the Chippewas to a 7-6 finish, the Mid-American Conference West Division championship and a berth in the Quick Lane Bowl at Ford Field in Detroit.

That the Chippewas finished 6-2 in MAC play and atop their division came as a surprise to some considering that they were selected to finish fifth in the six-team West Division in a preseason poll of media who cover the league.

Just months after being named to lead the Chippewas, Bonamego was diagnosed with cancer and underwent chemotherapy and radiation treatments while simultaneously leading his troops through preseason practices.

Bonamego was pronounced cancer free in November, just as the Chippewas were surging down the stretch, winning five of their last six regular-season games.

In Bonamego's first season, eight CMU student-athletes earned All-MAC honors, including center Nick Beamish, who was named to the first team for the second consecutive season. The Chippewas placed a league-high 17 student-athletes on the Academic All-MAC team, and "I cannot put into words how humble, grateful, and proud I am to be the head coach at Central Michigan University. For me this is not, never will be, and never has been, a job. For me this is THE job.

"This is a place that, when I left a long time ago, it never left me. It has been a part of who I am, a part of everything I've done and I've passed it on with every player that I have ever touched. I'm very proud to be here and to call myself your football coach. I plan to be here a very, very, very, very, very long time."

CMU safety Kavon Frazier was selected by the Dallas Cowboys in the NFL Draft in April.

In his relatively short time in charge of the Chippewa program, the charismatic and personable Bonamego has established a strong rapport on the CMU campus, in the Mount Pleasant community, and across the state of Michigan, engaging the student body, fans, alumni and supporters with his sincerity and unbridled enthusiasm for the university and its athletic program.

Prior to taking the reins of the CMU program, Bonamego, who graduated from Paw Paw High School in southwest Michigan, spent 16 years in the National Football League as an assistant, primarily as a special teams coordinator.

Among Football Bowl Subdivision head coaches, only UCLA's Jim Mora has more NFL experience than Bonamego.

The 2016 season marks Bonamego's 28th in the coaching profession. Among his career highlights:

- During his two seasons with the Detroit Lions (2013-14) he helped punter Sam Martin record the top-two single-season marks for net punting average in team history with a 40.4-yard average in 2013 and a 40.1 mark in 2014.
- As the special teams coordinator in Jacksonville in 2012, he was instrumental in the development of rookie punter Bryan Anger, who set franchise records for punting average (47.8) and net punting average (40.8), with both totals leading all rookie punters.
- He was a member of the coaching staff of the 2011 NFC South champions, serving as the assistant special teams coordinator for the New Orleans Saints. The Saints went 13-3 that year, advancing to the divisional round of the playoffs.
- From 2008-10, Bonamego served as the special teams coordinator for the Miami Dolphins. During his time there, he developed young specialists including kicker Dan Carpenter, punter Brandon Fields, and kick returner Ted Ginn Jr. Carpenter was selected to the 2009 Pro Bowl after making 25 of 28 field-goal attempts. Fields set a franchise record for net punting average (39.9), and Ginn became the first NFL player in 42 years to have two returns for touchdowns in the same quarter. The Dolphins won the 2008 AFC East crown as they put together the biggest turnaround in NFL history, going from 1-15 in 2007 to 11-5 in '08.

- Bonamego spent the 2006-07 seasons as the Saints special teams coordinator, helping the team to the division crown and a berth in the NFC Championship game in 2006. Bonamego was part of one of the most important games in NFL history: the first post-Katrina game in the Superdome. The Saints' Steve Gleason blocked a punt vs. Atlanta, and the ball was recovered for a touchdown in the first quarter. New Orleans also blocked a field goal later in that game.
- Bonamego helped the Green Bay Packers to a pair of NFC North titles from 2003-05. The Packers went 10-6 in both 2003 and '04, capturing divisional crowns in both seasons. The club had four game-winning field goals in 2004, the most by the team since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger.
- Bonamego's first stint in the NFL was from 1999-2002 with the Jacksonville Jaguars. For the first three seasons, Bonamego worked as the assistant special teams coach under legendary NFL special teams coach Frank Gansz and was promoted to special teams coordinator in 2002. In Bonamego's first season as the Jaguars' special teams coordinator, the unit was ranked third by the Dallas Morning News. The Jaguars advanced to the AFC Championship game in 1999 after winning the AFC Central title.

Bonamego earned his degree in health fitness from CMU in 1987 and turned to coaching immediately. He received an honorary doctorate degree from Central Michigan after serving as the university's commencement speaker in May 2009.

He got his start in college coaching as an assistant at Maine from 1988-91. He went to Lehigh in 1992, and spent five years as an assistant with Army from 1993-98.

During his time at Army, the Black Knights beat Navy five of six times, and finished 10-2 in 1996, recording the only 10-win season in school history. Army played Auburn that season in the Poulan/Weed Eater Independence Bowl and finished in the top 25 in both major polls.

He was a player/coach for a football team in Verona, Italy, in spring of 1987 and was the junior varsity co-coach at Mount Pleasant High School in the fall of that year.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT JOHN BONAMEGO

"It's not very often where a guy in our profession has an opportunity to coach his alma mater. It's a very special, unique opportunity. John has spoken often about having an opportunity to coach at Central Michigan, and I think it was really – I don't know if you want to call it his bucket list – but one of his ultimate goals."

BALTIMORE RAVENS HEAD COACH JOHN HARBAUGH

"John is an experienced, very enthusiastic and energetic football coach. He loves Central, and I know this opportunity has been a dream of his for many years. He has worked extremely hard to make it happen. The CMU administration has found a great motivator, and John will be a tireless recruiter. It's a bold hire and I congratulate CMU for making it."

NEW ORLEANS SAINTS HEAD COACH SEAN PAYTON

"John and I worked together for three years. Coming in as an initial member of our coaching staff in 2006, he played an important role in helping get our program pointed in the right direction. Having worked with both offensive and defensive players on special teams in 16 years in the NFL, John has the experience of interacting with players from all position groups, which will help him as a head coach. I'm happy that he's receiving this opportunity as a head coach at his alma mater and I think he has what it takes to build a strong program at Central Michigan."

IOWA HEAD COACH KIRK FERENTZ

"The thing that stuck out most about John when I worked with him at Maine was his passion and love for the game of football. He made the game enjoyable for the people around him and his energy is infectious. John's love of CMU was clear from the moment I met him and those feelings have remained strong during the past 20-plus years we have known each other. John is a fantastic teacher and he will make sure his players are prepared for every situation during a game. I think CMU has made a terrific hire and I know John will do a great job."

MOUNT PLEASANT, Mich. – Cooper Rush was solid and the run game clearly improved. And the defense? Well, all that was expected of it and more.

Central Michigan took care of business before 16,000-plus on opening night, dispatching Football Championship Subdivision Presbyterian, 49-3, Thursday at Kelly/Shorts Stadium.

Devon Spalding ran for 135 yards and Jahray Hayes scored a career-high three rushing touchdowns as the Chippewas finished with 255 yards on the ground, their highest total in a 16-game stretch dating to a 38-7 win over Eastern Michigan on Nov. 1, 2014.

“Obviously there are a lot of things we would like to do better,” said John Bonamego, who is beginning his second season in charge of the Chippewas program. “Our defense was stellar, we’re right where we hoped we would be. Offensively, we just hurt ourselves with penalties and were a bit sloppy at times.

“I talked to them at halftime, and they looked better, but there is plenty to address. We can’t win when we turn the ball over and make mistakes and have penalties in tight games down the stretch. We’re going to have to play better, and we will.”

Spalding, a junior who missed the final eight games a year ago with a shoulder injury, raced 69 yards – the longest run of his career – for a TD on the second play of the game to put CMU up, 7-0.

CMU led 14-3 at halftime, then flexed its muscle in the second half in wearing down the Blue Hose, who finished 2-9 a year ago.

Rush completed 16 of 26 passes for 237 yards and a touchdown against two interceptions.

CMU finished with 492 total yards and 23 first downs while holding the Blue Hose to 126 yards, including 44 on the ground, and six first downs. Presbyterian running back Darrell Bridges, who rushed for 1,065 yards in 2015, finished with 39 yards.

Hayes scored on a 2-yard run midway through the second quarter to extend CMU’s lead to 14-0.

The second half was all Chippewas. Hayes scored on a 12-yard run midway through the third quarter, then Rush connected with Corey Willis for a 46-yard touchdown pass play to make it 28-3 late in the third.

In the fourth quarter, CMU got an 8-yard TD run from Hayes, a 27-yard interception return from cornerback Amari Coleman, and a Jonathan Ward 45-yard scoring run to finish it off.

STILLWATER, Okla. - It was over. The clock read 0:00 and a 27-24 loss for the Central Michigan football team.

And then, it wasn't.

The Chippewas took advantage of a final chance with no time remaining Saturday and quarterback Cooper Rush's Hail Mary found the target as CMU stunned No. 22-ranked Oklahoma State, 30-27, at Boone Pickens Stadium.

It was the Chippewas' first win over a ranked team since it knocked off No. 18 Michigan State, 20-3, on Sept. 14, 1991, at Spartan Stadium.

Dillon Stoner tossed a 2-yard pass to James Washington with just over 5 minutes remaining to put the Cowboys in front, 27-24. The score came after CMU had fumbled on its own 20-yard line.

The Chippewas had what appeared to be their final opportunity dashed when Rush was intercepted with 1:54 to play.

Oklahoma State took over needing simply to run out the clock. With 4 seconds remaining and on fourth down, Oklahoma State quarterback Mason Rudolph threw out of bounds and was called for intentional grounding.

Though time had expired, the Chippewas received one final play because of the penalty and loss of down.

Starting at his own 49-yard line, Rush heaved a bomb to Jesse Kroll who stood at the Oklahoma State 10. The 6-foot-3 Kroll went up in front of a defender, caught the ball, and, as he was falling with his back to the goal line, lateralled to Willis.

Willis gathered the ball and raced to the far side of the field - toward the CMU sideline - and dove across the goal line with a defender on his back, giving the Chippewas the dramatic victory.

Rush completed 30 of his 42 pass attempts for 361 yards and four touchdowns.

The Cowboys, using a frantic no-huddle offense, built a 14-0 lead late in the first quarter and appeared to have CMU gasping for breath.

The teams traded field goals and CMU tied it 17-17 on Rush's second TD pass to Conklin, this one a 5-yarder, with under 6 minutes to play in the third quarter.

Oklahoma State re-took the lead on a field goal with 2:58 to play in the third. The Chippewas took their first lead of the game on a 31-yard Rush-to-Devon Spaulding TD pass with just over nine minutes to play.

MOUNT PLEASANT, Mich. – No heroics necessary this week.

A very good Cooper Rush and a stingy defense was plenty.

Rush threw for 352 yards and a Kelly/Shorts Stadium-record six touchdowns Saturday as the Central Michigan football team downed UNLV, 44-21, before 19,922.

Saturday's win, which gave CMU its first 3-0 start since 2002, came one week after CMU scored on a Hail Mary pass with no time remaining to upset No. 22-ranked Oklahoma State in Stillwater, Okla.

The Chippewas go to Virginia next weekend eyeing their first 4-0 start since 1985. After that, the Chippewas play host to archrival Western Michigan (3-0) on Oct. 1.

CMU overcame a pair of early big plays by UNLV (1-2) to seize control by halftime and win going away.

Rush connected with Mark Chapman on a 29-yard TD pass with under six minutes to play in the first half to tie the game, 21-21. Just over three minutes later, Rush hit Corey Willis for a 26-yard score to put CMU in front, 28-21.

Willis finished with six catches for 108 yards, while Chapman had 80 on five. Both scored two touchdowns.

Rush and Willis hooked up on a 31-yard TD pass play midway through the third quarter and Rush hit Brandon Childress for a 42-yard TD less than a minute into the fourth quarter to put the Chippewas in complete control.

It was vintage Rush, spreading the ball to his bevy of receivers.

The Chippewa defense limited UNLV quarterback Johnny Stanton to 131 yards on 15-of-41 passing and intercepted him twice. They also recorded a safety when Nate Brisson-Fast blocked a punt out of the end zone in the fourth quarter.

The Rebels' Lexington Thomas rushed for 113 yards, 85 of which came early in the second quarter on a TD run.

The Chippewas finished with 499 yards in total offense and had 23 first downs to UNLV's 15. The Rebels finished with 313 total yards.
