COACHES QUOTES:

virginia's first home opener win since 1974, william and mary virginia's first shutout win since 1974, wake forest 14-0 virginia's first shutout win at home since 1973, vmi, 16-0 greg taylor's career high rushing, 19 carries for 149yards, today

RICHMOND COACH JIM TAIT:

"We never got into it. Virginia played a tremendous football game especially (Todd) Kirtley. We got unnerved early; and gave them momentum."

In response to a writer's question; concerning a feeling that Virginia may have known exactly what he (Richmond) was running, Tait;said " No. They were running pretty basic stuff."

"The defense got beat on the line. We must get this worked out quickly. (DT Mark) Seale got hurt fairly early (sprain-left knee) and tried to keep playing, but had to come out. That didn't help. And of ~~course~~ course the loss of Jesse (Williams) hurt us"

VIRGINIA COACH DICK BESTWICK:

"This sure feels different from other openers! The shutout is nice to have. It feels great to ~~x~~ win."

"The coaches really had their people prepared. We had a better football team from top to bottom." ~~This takes a long time to get here~~ The kids have worked for three and a half years to get here."

"The defensive line performed very well. Todd (Kirtley) played very well too. We have the best talent of freshmen quarterbacks too."

We're getting to be the team I thought we could be when I came. It's taken us a long to get here. More than anything else ~~xxxxxxx~~ the players never lost faith in themselves as men."

"the defensive game plan was to run a balanced attack. we have to put the pressure on. We have to be an ~~agg~~ offensive defense."

"The difference this year with Taylor is that he has one year of experience. He has the moves and the speed; he just got a chance to show it ~~o~~ today."
