CAVALIERS

The Game

The Tribe will open the 2017 season when it plays at Virginia on Saturday at 3:30 p.m. W&M returns 10 starters (five offense/five defense) from last year's squad that ascended as high as No. 8 in the national rankings and concluded the fall by reclaiming the Capital Cup with a lopsided 34-13 victory against seventh-ranked Richmond. Virginia returns 13 starters (five offense/eight defense) from last season's team that posted a 2-10 record.

The Series

Saturday's contest at Virginia will mark the 36th meeting between the two schools, as UVA holds a 28-6-1 advantage in the all-time series. While the teams first met in 1908, this season's game will mark just the fourth matchup between the two programs in the last 22 years. W&M's last win in the series came when it opened the 2009 campaign with a 26-14 victory.

The Coaches

- William & Mary: Jimmye Laycock (W&M '70) owns a career record of 243-180-2 and is in his 38th season at the helm of the Tribe. His 243 wins rank second nationally among all active Division-I coaches, while his 109 conference victories rank second all-time in the CAA. Additionally, no active Division I head coach has been with his respective program longer than Laycock.
- Virginia: Bronco Mendenhall (Oregon State '88) is in his second season at UVA and owns a 2-10 record with the Cavaliers.

The Program

- William & Mary's all-time record stands at 571-556-41 through 123 seasons.
- During Laycock's tenure, W&M has won five conference titles, advanced to the NCAA playoffs 10 times and posted 24 winning seasons. W&M has advanced to the NCAA FCS semifinals twice - 2004, 2009.
- W&M has finished the season ranked among the top 10 nationally twice since 2009 and ranked as high as No. 1 during the 2010 campaign.
- Laycock has coached 45 All-Americans (125 total honors), while 38 W&M players have signed NFL contracts during his tenure.

Stat of the Week

Number of turnovers forced by W&M in its 26-14 victory at Virginia in 2009. In addition to the turnovers, W&M's defense limited UVA to just 269 yards of total offense and 12 first downs. The Tribe also held UVA scoreless in the second half and dominated the time of possession, 35:36-24:24.

• Game marked the fourth time in W&M's last seven games vs. FBS teams in which it owned a double-digit lead at some point during the game

• W&M marched to UVA's 30-yard line with less than 2 minutes remaining before turning the ball over on downs

• RB Mikal Abdul-Saboor rushed for 100 yards, marking his seventh-consecutive 100-yard rushing effort (dating back to the 2014 season) - a school record at the time

• W&M scored on each of its first four possessions (2 TD / 2 FG)

• QB Steve Cluley connected on three TD passes (41, 37, 4)

• FS DeAndre Houston-Carson recorded his eighth career block when he blocked a punt in the fourth quarter that resulted in a safety

• W&M recovered an onside kick to begin the second half (Keanu Reuben), marking the program's first recovered kick since 2013

• LB Josh Dulaney recorded his first career INT

• Virginia 16-play, 84-yard TD drive in the first quarter lasted 9:13 - the second longest in terms of time in school history

• W&M dominated the time of possession, 34:55-25:05

• W&M did not commit a turnovers, while forcing two and blocking a kick

W&M's Comeback Bid Falls Short at UVA, 35-29

Charlottesville, Va. - The Tribe suffered its first setback of the season, as it fell at Virginia, 35-29, on Sept. 19. Although W&M (1-1) trailed, 35-20, midway through the fourth quarter, it rallied back with a number of big plays and had a chance to win the contest in the waning minutes.

A 4-yard touchdown pass by junior quarterback Steve Cluley to sophomore wide receiver DeVonte Dedmon on a fourth-and-goal with 5:18 remaining cut UVA's (1-2) lead to 35-29. After holding Virginia to a three-and-out on the ensuing possession, which featured an 8-yard sack by senior defensive tackle Tyler Claytor, Dedmon returned UVA's punt 28 yards to give W&M starting field position near midfield with 3:01 remaining. While the College drove to the Cavaliers' 30-yard line, it was stopped on downs with 1:27 remaining before UVA ran out the clock.

Senior running back Mikal Abdul-Saboor set a school record with his seventh-consecutive 100-yard rushing effort (dating back to last season), as he posted 100 yards on 22 carries. Cluley completed 23-of-36 passes for 226 yards with three touchdowns, while Dedmon totaled seven catches for 80 yards with two scores.

Senior safety DeAndre Houston-Carson led the defense with a team-high nine tackles to go with an interception, a tackle for a loss and a blocked punt - which resulted in a safety midway through the fourth quarter and helped ignite the comeback bid.

W&M's offense was outstanding in the opening half and scored on each of its first four possessions en route to trailing just 21-20 at halftime. Cluley was especially productive in the opening 30 minutes as he completed 11-of-14 passes for 128 yards with two touchdowns.

In what was a very even game statistically, UVA outgained W&M by just two yards, 373-371.

The Tribe's first half touchdowns came on a pair of touchdown passes by Cluley - a 41-yard pass to Dedmon and a 37-yard strike to Caskin.

Sophomore Nick Dorka, Jr., also added a pair of field goals in the opening 30 minutes of action.

Keanu Reuben recovered an onside kick to begin second half, but W&M was unable to pick up a first down.

UVA increased the margin to 28-20 when Mizzell caught a short screen pass from Johns and raced 80 yards down the middle of the field for a touchdown with 12:29 left in the third quarter.

Shortly thereafter Maurice Canady returned a punt 74 yards for a touchdown to push UVA's lead to 35-20 with 10:00 showing in the third quarter.

W&M threatened to score early in the fourth quarter but was stopped on a fourth-and-goal from the 1-yard line. W&M's defense took advantage of the field position however, and Houston-Carson blocked a punt in the end zone with 8:57 remaining that resulted in a safety and narrowed the gap to 35-22 to help ignite the comeback bid.

William & Mary/Virginia Notes

A Tribe Win vs. Virginia Would ...

- Mark W&M's second win in its last four matchups at Virginia, as it earned a 26-14 win in 2009 and lost in 2011 (40-3) and 2015 (35-29)
- Improve W&M's all-time record vs. UVA to 7-28-1
- Improve W&M's all-time record vs. UVA in Charlottesville to 5-22
- Mark just the third season-opening win for the Tribe in the last 16 years; W&M's only other wins during that span came at Virginia, 26-14 (2009) and at Lafayette, 34-7 (2015)
- Be head coach Jimmie Laycock's 244th career win - his all-time record is 243-180-2; he currently ranks as the second winningest active D-I head coach
- Be the 572nd win the College's history - the program's all-time record stands at 571-556-41 and is in its 124th season of football

Series History

Saturday's contest at Virginia will mark the 36th meeting between the two schools, as UVA holds a 28-6-1 advantage in the all-time series.

While the teams first met in 1908, this season's game will mark just the fourth matchup between the two programs in the last 22 years.

A Look Back at the Win in 2009

One of W&M's most memorable victories in recent years was the 2009 season-opening victory at Virginia (26-14), which helped propel the Tribe to an outstanding season that eventually ended in the NCAA Semifinals.

W&M's defensive effort was outstanding all night long, as it caused seven turnovers and held the Cavaliers scoreless in the second half. Additionally, the Tribe limited Virginia to just 269 yards of total offense and 12 first downs, with just 79 yards and four first downs coming in the second half. W&M also dominated the time of possession, winning the battle by more than 11 minutes (35:36-24:24).

Redshirt freshman cornerback B.W. Webb intercepted three passes, including a 50-yard pick-six late in the fourth quarter to help punctuate the win.

Six Tribe players who participated in the win went on to earn roster spots with NFL teams - Sean Lissemore (DT), Jonathan Grimes (RB), B.W. Webb (CB), Adrian Tracy (DE), R.J. Archer (QB) and David Caldwell (S).

Recent Success Versus the FBS

W&M has performed well in most of its recent contests against FBS opponents. In addition to defeating UVA in 2009, W&M has owned second half leads in four of its last eight games against FBS foes.

Below is a quick look at some of those recent matchups.

2015	Virginia	L, 35-29
	Had chance for go-ahead TD, but final drive stalled at UVA's 30 with 1:27 left in 4Q
2013	West Virginia	L, 24-17
	W&M led by 10 midway through 3Q
2012	Maryland	L, 7-6
	W&M held UM scoreless until 9:52 remaining
2010	North Carolina	L, 21-17
	W&M led by 10 with less than 10 minutes left
2009	Virginia	W, 26-14
	W&M held UVA to just 269 total yds

W&M vs. The Atlantic Coast Conference

Since the league was formed in 1953, W&M has gone 11-40 (.216) against opponents from the ACC.

The Tribe has been very competitive in its recent matchups versus ACC teams during the past few seasons. After defeating Virginia, 26-14, in 2009, the College led at North Carolina, 17-7, with less than 10 minutes remaining before the Tar Heels rallied back with two late touchdowns to earn a 21-17 win in 2010. In 2012, the Tribe held Maryland scoreless until midway through the fourth quarter until a late go-ahead

Tribe by the Numbers

1st

W&M's national ranking in pass defense last season (154.2). Additionally, the Tribe allowed just seven passing touchdowns during the entire 2016 campaign.

Former Tribe players who are currently NFL head coaches - Mike Tomlin '95 (Pittsburgh Steelers) and Sean McDermott '98 (Buffalo Bills). Atlanta Falcons head coach Dan Quinn also has W&M ties, as he was an assistant on the Tribe's staff in 1994.

Consecutive seasons in which W&M has produced a 1,000-yard rusher.

Tribe players selected in the NFL Draft since 2009 - a figure that ranks second among all FCS programs and behind only Virginia and Virginia Tech in the state of Virginia.

Consecutive seasons in which W&M has ranked among the nation's top 10 in both fewest penalties per game and fewest penalty yards per game.

10

Underclassmen (freshmen/sophomores) along the front seven (DL/LB) on W&M's Week 1 two-deep.

15

W&M touchdown drives (excluding defensive/special teams) that have lasted less than 1:00 during the last two seasons.

The William & Mary football program boasts some of the finest facilities at the FCS level, as the $28 million Zable Stadium renovation was completed in 2016 and sits adjacent to the team's $11 million Jimmie Laycock Football Center. The recent stadium renovation also includes the addition of a new state-of-the-art playing surface - FieldTurf Revolution 360.

touchdown proved to be the difference in the 7-6 decision. Two years ago at Virginia, W&M had an opportunity to score a game-winning touchdown before its final drive stalled at UVA's 30-yard line with 1:27 remaining in the 4Q.

Saturday's game will mark the 12th time in the last 14 seasons that W&M has faced an ACC team. The results of the previous 10 contests are listed below.

2004 - at North Carolina (L, 49-38)
2006 - at Maryland (L, 27-14)
2007 - at Virginia Tech (L, 44-3)
2008 - at N.C. State (L, 34-24)
2009 - at Virginia (W, 26-14)
2010 - at North Carolina (L, 21-17)
2011 - at Virginia (L, 40-3)
2012 - at Maryland (L, 7-6)
2014 - at Virginia Tech (L, 34-9)
2015 - at Virginia (L, 35-29)
2016 - at NC State (L, 48-14)

If games against current ACC members Florida State, Louisville, Miami, Pitt, Syracuse and Virginia Tech before they joined the league are taken into account, the Tribe's all-time record against current ACC teams is 19-81-1.

The Tribe's last two wins versus ACC opposition have come in Charlottesville. Prior to the victory in 2009, W&M also downed UVA in 1986, when the Tribe handed the Cavaliers a 41-37 setback.

Part of a Big Upset

While no current members of the Tribe were on the roster when W&M last defeated an FBS opponent (Virginia, 2009), W&M tight ends/fullbacks coach Mario Acitelli was part of one of college football greatest upsets in 2007 when Appalachian State defeated No. 5 Michigan. Acitelli played all 72 snaps for the Mountaineers in that memorable victory and later went on to win the 2009 Jacobs Blocking Trophy, which is awarded annually to the Southern Conference's top offensive lineman.

Opening on the Road

Tribe head coach Jimmie Laycock has opened his season at home just seven times in his 38 years at W&M (and just twice in the last 24 years – 1997 and 2007).

Although Laycock's teams have posted a 13-24 record in season openers, they have registered a 6-1 record in home lidlifters (with the lone loss coming against Delaware in 2007). W&M's last season-opening win on the road came at Virginia in 2009.

Did You Know?

The last time W&M hosted an ACC opponent in Williamsburg was in 1980, when Wake Forest made a visit to Zable Stadium and defeated the Tribe, 27-7.

Team Notes

Opening on the Road

With season-opening road games at Virginia (Sept. 2) and Norfolk State (Sept. 9), this year marks the fourth straight season in which W&M opens its campaign with back-to-back road contests.

With 243 career victories, head coach Jimmie Laycock currently ranks second in wins among all active Division-I coaches.

Tribe in the NFL

The Tribe was well represented in NFL training camps this summer, as six former players were on active rosters - Jonathan Grimes (Jaguars), DeAndre Houston Carson (Bears), Tre McBride (Titans), Luke Rhodes (Colts), Jerry Ugokwe (Saints) and B.W. Webb (Bears). Additionally, two other former players were on NFL rosters last season - Jerome Couplin III (Rams) and Sean Lissemore (Chargers).

Additionally, a pair of former Tribe players are currently serving as NFL head coaches - Mike Tomlin '95 (Pittsburgh Steelers, head coach) and Sean McDermott '98 (Buffalo Bills). Atlanta Falcons head coach Dan Quinn also has W&M ties, as he was an assistant on the Tribe's staff in 1994.

Also noteworthy is a pair of former W&M head coaches who went on to have extraordinary careers - Marv Levy and Lou Holtz. Levy served as W&M's head coach from 1964-68 and was followed by Holtz from 1969-71.

Tribe NFL Draft Picks

When All-American defensive back DeAndre Houston Carson was selected by the Chicago Bears in the sixth round of the 2016 NFL Draft, he became the sixth Tribe player drafted since 2009.

Below are a few notes about W&M's six NFL Draft picks since 2009.

- Leads the CAA and ranks second in the FCS, behind only Montana (7)
- Ranks third in the state of Virginia (behind only Virginia Tech and Virginia)
- Is more than ACC member Duke (4)

National Preseason Honor

Having established himself as one of the nation's elite offensive linemen throughout his career, W&M senior left tackle Chris Durant was selected to the STATS FCS Preseason All-America Third Team this summer.

A two-time All-CAA honoree, Durant also earned 2017 preseason All-CAA distinction.

Durant enters his fourth season as the Tribe's starting left tackle and has logged 30 starts during the last three years. Additionally, he has not missed a start during each of the last two seasons (23 consecutive starts).

Durant's standout play has helped W&M produce a

1,000-yard rusher during each of the last three seasons. Additionally, the Tribe allowed the league's fewest sacks per game (1.08) and led the nation in fewest tackles for a loss allowed per game (3.46) in 2015.

Preseason All-CAA

In addition to Durant's selection on the preseason All-CAA team, senior wide receiver DeVonte Dedmon also garnered the distinction.

One of the nation's most electric playmakers as both a wide receiver and a return specialist, Dedmon enters his senior season as an All-America candidate at both positions. A two-time All-CAA selection at wideout and former CAA Special Teams Player of the Year (2015), Dedmon ranked among the league's top 10 in five statistical categories last fall despite being limited for much of the season by injury.

Among the most productive wide receivers in school history, the Williamsburg, Va., native's career totals include 110 catches for 1,421 yards and 14 touchdowns. Additionally, he ranks ninth in school history in career all-purpose yards (3,093) and seventh in kickoff return yards (1,263).

Preseason CAA Rankings

The Tribe was selected to finish seventh the CAA preseason poll, which was voted on by the league's coaches and sports information directors.

Bouncing Back

Under head coach Jimmye Laycock, W&M has historically bounced back from seasons in which it failed to post a winning record (W&M was 5-6 last season), as the Tribe has registered consecutive losing seasons just three times during the past 35 years (2005-2006; 2006-2007; 2011-2012).

Looking Forward to Success in September

W&M has played well during the month of September in recent years and has posted a 23-9 mark since 2009. During the past three seasons, the Tribe has registered a 11-3 mark during the month.

It's A Winner

In his 37 full seasons at W&M, head coach Jimmye Laycock has secured 24 winning seasons.

The achievement is remarkable when considering the program had just seven winning seasons in the previous 30 years (1950 – 1979) prior to his taking control of the program for the 1980 season.

Limiting Penalties

W&M has consistently ranked among the top-10 nationally in fewest penalties per game and fewest penalty yards per game.

The chart below indicates those national rankings.

National Ranking (FCS)

Year	Fewest Pen./Gm	Fewest Pen. Yds/Gm
2016	9th (4.55)	5th (39.9)
2015	5th (4.3)	4th (37.5)

2012	8th (4.2)	8th (38.5)
2011	2nd (3.6)	2nd (30.0)

Importance of Getting Ahead

Dating back to the start of the 2013 season, W&M is 18-9 in games in which it scores first. Conversely, it is 10-12 when the opponent scores first.

Importance of Leading at Halftime

Dating back to the 2014 season, the Tribe has won 11 of its last 12 games when leading at halftime. The lone setback came at Towson last season.

Holding on to Leads

Dating back to the start of the 2013 season, W&M owns a 25-3 record when leading after three quarters.

The three losses came against Delaware, 2015; JMU, 2014; Villanova, 2013.

Mike Tomlin, Sean McDermott, Marv Levy and Lou Holtz all have ties to W&M. Tomlin (1990-94), a wide receiver, and McDermott (1993-97), a safety, are both former team captains, while Levy (1964-68) and Holtz (1969-71) both served as head coaches.

Staying in the Game

Dating back to the start of the 2009 season, W&M has suffered just 16 double-digit margin losses against FCS opponents - a stretch that covers 88 games.

Capitalizing on Turnovers

Dating back to the start of the 2013 season, W&M has generated 82 turnovers and turned them into 282 points.

Wide Margins

W&M owns an impressive average margin of victory during the past three seasons, while all but four of the Tribe's last 21 victories during that span have come by double-digit margins.

2016 - 13.6

2015 - 17.6

2014 - 15.7

Historical Success in Close Games

Since taking over the W&M football program in 1980, head coach Jimmie Laycock's squads have played in 68 games decided by three or fewer points. W&M has experienced success in those contests, totaling an impressive 37-29-2 record. W&M owns an 11-11 mark in close games on the road since 2000.

Additionally, the Tribe has posted a 7-4 record in overtime games.

One Tribe, One Family

The W&M athletic department's unofficial slogan - "One Tribe, One Family" - is especially true for the Tribe football team, as the roster features a pair of brother tandems - Josh/Justin Dulaney and Collin/Corey Parker.

W&M a Special Place for Special Teams

A Tribe standout has earned the CAA Special Teams Player of the Year honor during six of the last seven seasons - Jonathan Grimes (2010, 2011), B.W. Webb (2012), Tre McBride (2013), John Carpenter (2014) and DeVonte Dedmon (2015).

Captains

The Tribe is led by a quartet of senior captains this season - defensive end Matt Ahola, tight end Andrew Caskin, left guard Connor Hilland and cornerback Aaron Swinton.

New Radio Team

W&M broadcasts will feature a new member this season, as former Tribe All-American and 16-year NFL veteran Mike Leach '00 will join longtime play-by-play announcer Jay Colley and Senior Assistant Athletics Director for Public Affairs Pete Clawson in the radio booth. Colley will continue to handle play-by-play duties, while Clawson and Leach will provide expert analysis and commentary.

Leach joins the broadcast team after a remarkable 16-year NFL career as a long snapper and tight end with the Arizona Cardinals, Denver Broncos and Tennessee Titans. While at W&M, Leach earned first-team Walter Camp All-America honors as a tight end during his senior season after garnering second-team All-America accolades from the Associated Press as a junior.

Chesapeake Bank Jimmie Laycock Radio Show

The Chesapeake Bank Jimmie Laycock Show will broadcast live at Paul's Deli on the Tribe's flagship stations 92.3 FM The Tide and 107.9 Bach FM each Tuesday this season. The show will begin on-site at 6:30 p.m. with the live interview airing from 7 - 7:30 p.m.

Longtime Tribe play-by-play announcer Jay Colley will host the broadcast from Paul's Deli, located at 761 Scotland Street.

Fans unable to pick up the broadcast locally can listen online at TribeAthletics.com.

Team Offensive Notes

New Coordinator

After three highly successful seasons as W&M's running backs coach, DJ Mangas was promoted to the Tribe's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in May.

One of the nation's top young coaches, Mangas (28) was the second-youngest offensive coordinator in Division I (FBS & FCS) at the time of his promotion.

In addition to producing a 1,000-yard rusher during each of the last three seasons, Tribe running backs earned all-conference distinction all three years – highlighted by first-team selections in 2014 and 2015.

Although W&M replaces three starters along its offensive line this season, including All-America RT Jerry Ugokwe, who recently signed with the New Orleans Saints, the Tribe boasts one of the nation's top duos on the left side. Both Chris Durant (LT) and Connor Hilland (LG) are four-year starters and have garnered all-conference accolades. Additionally, Durant was honored as a STATS Preseason All-America selection this summer.

Production at Wide Receiver

Led by preseason all-conference standout DeVonte Dedmon, W&M returns its top five wide receivers from last season that combined to total 114 catches for 1,456 yards and nine touchdowns.

Elite Tight End

Senior Andrew Caskin, a two-time all-conference selection, has established himself as one of the nation's top tight ends. In addition to earning 28 career starts, the All-America candidate has totaled 64 catches for 629 yards and five touchdowns during the last two seasons.

New Quarterback

With the graduation of three-year starter Steve Cluley, W&M will have a new signal caller under center this fall.

A trio of players appear on the Week 1 depth chart – junior Tommy McKee, sophomore Brandon Battle and true freshman Shon Mitchell. McKee is the lone player in the group to have earned game action.

The last W&M true freshman to play quarterback was Stan Yagiello in 1981, while the last to start was Tom Rozantz (1975).

Tradition of Success at Running Back

W&M has produced an all-conference running back during seven of the last eight seasons – highlighted by five first-team selections during the impressive span. A pair of redshirt freshmen looking to make their collegiate debuts – Noah Giles and Jaret Anderson – are listed on the Week 1 depth chart. However, talented sophomore Albert Funderburke also returns to the mix and is looking to return from a season-ending injury he suffered during the Week 4 game against Elon last fall. Prior to the setback, he had piled up 294 rushing yards on 39 carries (7.5 yards/carry) with four touchdowns.

Offensive Line Coming Up Big ... Again

W&M has ranked among the nation's best in fewest tackles for a loss allowed per game during the past few seasons.

After leading the nation in 2015 (3.46), the Tribe ranked 11th last season (4.18).

Rare Occurrence

W&M was excellent holding on to the ball last season and ranked sixth nationally in fewest fumbles lost (4).

Red Zone Success

W&M finished the 2016 campaign with outstanding production in the red zone during the final five games, as it scored touchdowns on 13 of its 18 trips inside the 20. The Tribe has failed to score on just two of those 18 opportunities inside the 20.

100-yd Games

A Tribe running back has rushed for more than 100 yards in seven of the final nine games last season.

Ground Game Production is Key

Since 2011, W&M's ability to run the ball well has been indicative of its overall success. The Tribe has averaged 198.1 rushing yards per game in its 35 wins (6,932 rushing yards), while it has averaged just 131.7 yards per game on the ground in its 34 losses (4,477 rushing yards).

Since joining the league in 1993, W&M has rushed for at least 200 yards 75 times and posted a 70-5 record in those contests.

Additionally, W&M is 23-1 when out-rushing the opposition since 2013.

Quick Strike Offense

Excluding its five defensive/special teams touchdowns, W&M has posted 15 touchdown drives that have lasted less than 1:00 during the last two seasons.

Stat to Watch

Dating back through the 2011 season, W&M has struggled to win games in which it has thrown at least 30 passes and owns a 7-15 mark in such contests.

Interestingly, six of those wins have come in since the start of the 2015 season.

W&M led the nation in pass defense last season, allowing just 154.2 yards per game. En route to posting the impressive figure, W&M held more than half its opponents (six) to no more than 125 passing yards.

Team Defensive Notes

Nation's Top Pass Defense

W&M led the nation in pass defense last season, allowing just 154.2 yards per game. En route to posting the impressive figure, W&M held more than half its opponents (six) to no more than 125 passing yards.

Additionally, W&M allowed just seven passing touchdowns last season.

The impressive stat continues a tradition of keeping opponents out of the end zone through the air, as W&M has allowed just 1.0 passing touchdown per game during the last 82 games (80 TD) dating back to the start of the 2010 campaign.

Shutting Down the Pass

Since the start of the 2007 season, a span of 118 games, the Tribe has allowed more than 300 passing yards just seven times - New Hampshire (2008, 2011), Delaware (2009), Hampton (2014), James Madison (2014) and Elon (2015), Duquesne (2015).

Youth in the Front Seven

Although W&M returns a pair of senior starters on its defensive line, the Tribe's front seven features 10 freshmen and sophomores on its Week 1 two-deep.

Consistency at MLB

A total of just five players have accounted for 116 of 119 starts at MLB during the past 10 seasons. Sophomore standout Nate Atkins added his name to that list last fall.

Defensive/Special Teams Scores

W&M has returned an interception for a touchdown in four straight seasons - and seven of the last eight - entering the 2017 campaign.

Additionally, W&M has posted a defensive or special teams touchdown during each of the last 10 seasons coming into this fall.

Dating back to the 2007 season, the Tribe's defense and special teams have generated 234 points (32 touchdowns / three safeties / two PAT returns).

During the last 44 games, W&M has scored 14 defensive / special teams touchdowns as well as two safeties and two PAT returns.

Creating Turnovers

Since the start of the 2013 season, W&M has generated 82 turnovers and has posted a +23 turnover margin.

Dating back to the start of the 2015 season, the Tribe has forced at least one turnover in 21 of the last 24 games.

Additionally, W&M has recorded at least one interception in 17 of the last 20 games dating back to the 2015 season.

Tough to Score Against

W&M has established itself as one of the nation's top defensive teams during the last nine years and has finished the season ranked among the country's top 10 three times since 2009 (see below).

Year	Nat'l Ranking	Pts/gm
2013	2nd	14.0
2010	6th	16.7
2009	2nd	12.1

Dating back to 2009, W&M is allowing just 19.7 ppg during the last 90 contests (1,769 total points). During that stretch, the Tribe has posted six shutouts.

Additionally, W&M has held 13 opponents without an offensive touchdown since the start of the 2009 season.

Especially Tough at Home

The Tribe defense has been outstanding in home games since the start of the 2009 season and is allowing just 17.0 points per game at Zable Stadium during the stretch.

During the stretch of 44 games (746 points), W&M has posted six shutouts.

W&M owns a 32-12 record at home during that span.

Less Than 40

W&M has allowed just four opponents to score more than 40 points during the last 47 games (James Madison, 41 - 2015; Duquesne, 49 - 2015; Richmond, 48 - 2015; NC State, 48 - 2016).

Limiting Big Plays

Since the start of the 2011 season (70 games), W&M has allowed just 32 plays 40 yards or longer - an average of just 0.5 per contest.

During that same 70-game stretch, W&M has allowed just 21 rushes of 30 yards or longer - an average of just 0.3 per contest.

Impressive Efforts

Since the start of the 2011 season, W&M has allowed less than 300 yards of total offense in nearly 30 percent of its games (21 times in 70 games). The Tribe has posted an 18-3 record in those contests, with its only losses coming versus Elon (2016) at Maryland (2012) and at Rhode Island (2011).

Shutout History

The Tribe has posted 15 shutouts during the Laycock era, with more than a third of them (six) having come since 2009.

Describe the excitement of getting to play in your hometown (Charlottesville).

It's my second time playing at Virginia. Last time (2015), it was on my second collegiate game in which I played significantly so this has a different feel to it. I'm definitely more of a veteran player now. I'm really excited to go in there and see what I can do.

Did you grow up going to Virginia football games?

I did go to games and was excited to go, but I wouldn't say I was a true fan though. It would have been a great opportunity to go there and play but they passed on me. It definitely provides motivation.

What impact has playing football at W&M had on your life?

I have love my time here at William & Mary. It has been an incredible experience. I have been able to play football at a very high level and also get an extraordinary education. W&M is different than any other place I've ever been. Everyone here takes the motto "One Tribe, One Family" to heart. People here care about you and want to see you succeed – both on and off the field. It's great to know we have that support behind us. And that includes helping us after graduation and beginning a career after football. The alumni network that exists and the impact that has had on me is tremendous. It has been a first-class experience.

What did you major in?

Finance. Currently, I'm pursuing a master's degree in business analytics.

What exactly is business analytics?

Businesses want to create programs, or algorithms, that can help them be more efficient and solve problems. As it relates to athletics, some people might be familiar with Michael Lewis' book, or movie, Money Ball. It's about a baseball team utilizing unique metrics to produce a more successful baseball team. It applies to many areas of business though – from healthcare to sports.

Has studying this field changed how you play football?

I'm someone who has always looked at the little things, but it has helped me look at football a bit differently. Studying things closely can help me predict where people will be on the field and how to take advantage of certain situations. If you succeed in the film room, it allows you to do a lot of good things on the field. Our coaches always say, the best players often aren't the most talented or athletic but the ones who can anticipate things the fastest.

What are your career aspirations after football?

I'm hoping to pursue a career in the finance field or use my master's degree to help me get a job with a professional sports organization.

What was the team able to accomplish this summer?

The summer workouts were excellent. A 5-6 season helps add motivation and intensity, as opposed to coming off a conference championship like we did last year. We were really, really excited to get after it this summer. We want to prove people wrong that don't think we will be good this season. We put forth relentless effort on every rep in the weight room and every sprint. We wanted to leave every workout exhausted. We wanted to have a championship mindset, so our goal was to be a championship team in the offseason. How we play in games will resemble how we prepare.

How did it translate in preseason camp?

It starts with the captains and all the older players. The younger players see that hard work and imitate that. We've prepared very hard. We want to play so hard that the coaches have to tell us to tone it back. Everyone has been very excited and enthusiastic this camp. Everyone has been excited to show what they can do in practice and compete against each other.

What is your sense of the team heading into the 2017 season?

I'm very excited about what we can accomplish. We are a young team on the offensive team, but that doesn't mean we can't achieve our highest aspirations. Every game on our schedule is winnable, but we need to focus on going 1-0 each week. However, we need avoid complacency and never go into a game thinking we can just show up and win. If we go into every game knowing we have to play harder than our opponent and give more effort, then I'm really excited where this team can go.

Describe the team unity this year.

It's been unlike anything I've ever seen. Everyone gets along. There aren't groups that separate themselves – everyone is in this together. Whether its upperclassmen and underclassmen, or different position groups, everyone gets along well. That ability to stick together will be very important, because there will be ebbs and flows during the season.

What has the dynamic been among the wide receivers?

We have a big group, and everyone does different things well. We have a quote that we use is, "use the whole chicken," which basically just means everyone has different strengths and has their own role to play. If we can build a cohesive unit who can all do something different very, very well then we will be a very, very efficient group of receivers.

Head Coach Jimmye Laycock

William & Mary Head Coach Jimmye Laycock

38th Season

Career Record: 243-180-2 (.574)

Few schools feature a better match at the helm of its program than William & Mary has with Jimmye Laycock. In a tenure that will stretch into its 38th season this fall, Laycock has worked hand-in-hand with the university's world-class academic tradition to fashion a program that is a point of pride for the campus, alumni and community.

Laycock is the nation's longest tenured Division I head coach at his current school and entered the 2017 season ranked second in wins among all active D-I (FCS and FBS) coaches with 243 victories. Laycock also ranked second all-time among conference head coaches in league wins (109) entering this fall, while the Tribe has appeared in 19 postseason contests and advanced to the NCAA Semifinals twice under his direction.

The success has led to an era of unprecedented interest and support for his program. In addition to consistent growth in attendance, evidence of this is illustrated by the $28 Zable Stadium renovation project that was completed this summer. The rejuvenated stadium, which includes and upper deck, luxury suites and a spacious state-of-the-art press box, provides an enhanced game day experience for both student-athletes as well as Tribe alumni and supporters.

On June 21, 2008, the College dedicated the $11 million Jimmye Laycock Football Center with a ceremony that featured more than 500 friends and alumni of the program. While the building carries his name and stands as a strong symbol of what Laycock has meant to the Tribe, it makes a stronger statement about the school's commitment to football and the program's proud tradition. The state-of-the-art center provides W&M with one of the finest facilities in the FCS.

As the architect of what is easily the most extended run of success in W&M's 123-year football history, Laycock has never compromised academic standards for athletic success, as his program earned recognition from the NCAA in each of the first seven seasons the organization has awarded outstanding academic achievement.

When Laycock, a 1970 grad, returned to coach his alma mater prior to the 1980 season, he inherited a program that had won six or more games in a season just four times in the previous 25 years. Few could have predicted that the College would produce nearly five times that amount of seven-win seasons over the next 37 seasons.

Individual accomplishments under Laycock have been plentiful, as he has helped 45 players earn 125 All-America honors at W&M and coached 11 Academic All-Americans. Former quarterback Lang Campbell is one of the most honored, as the 2004 season saw him earn the prestigious Payton Award, given annually to the nation's top offensive player in the FCS ranks, consensus first team All-America honors, as well as the A-10's Offensive Player of the Year and Scholar-Athlete of the Year. With eight all-league recognitions in 2016, the Tribe has produced an astounding 248 all-conference selections since 1993. Former All-American running back Jonathan Grimes accounted for 11 of those honors, as he became the most decorated player in conference history in 2011.

Since 2009, W&M has produced six NFL Draft picks - a figure that leads the CAA and ranks second nationally in the FCS. Additionally, the impressive total ranks third in the state of Virginia (behind only Virginia and Virginia Tech).

The Tribe is well represented in the pro ranks, as eight former Tribe players were on NFL rosters during the last year: Jerome Couplin III (Los Angeles Rams), Jonathan Grimes (Jacksonville Jaguars), DeAndre Houston-Carson (Chicago Bears), Sean Lismore (San Diego Chargers), Tre McBride (Tennessee Titans), Luke Rhodes (Indianapolis Colts), Jerry Ugokwe (New Orleans Saints) and B.W. Webb (Chicago Bears).

In addition to the draft picks, 12 additional Tribe players have signed free agent contracts after their senior season since the conclusion of the 2004: Lang Campbell (2005, Cleveland Browns), Dominique Thomspon (2005, St. Louis Rams), Adam O'Connor (2007, Carolina Panthers), Drew Atchison (2008, Dallas Cowboys), Mike Potts (2008, Pittsburgh Steelers), Jonathan Grimes (2011, Houston Texans), Alex Gottlieb (2011, Detroit Lions), Jerome Couplin III (2014, Detroit Lions), Jasper Coleman (2015, Houston Texans), Mike Reilly (2015, Cleveland Browns), Luke Rhodes (2016, Tampa Bay Buccaneers) and Jerry Ugokwe (Indianapolis Colts).

In addition to producing a number of professional standouts, a number of Laycock's former players have gone on to accomplish tremendous success as NFL coaches. The most prominent of those is Mike Tomlin ('95), who became the youngest head coach to win a Super Bowl in NFL history when he guided the Pittsburgh Steelers to the title in 2009. Sean McDermott ('98) was hired as the Buffalo Bills head coach in January, 2017, while Alan Williams ('92) is the Detroit Lions defensive backs coach and previously held the title of defensive coordinator for the Minnesota Vikings. Additionally, Michael Clemons ('87) was one of the CFL's most explosive players after a brief stint in the NFL and currently holds the position of Vice Chair for the Toronto Argonauts.

As a 1970 graduate of the College, Laycock played football under two legends of the game. For three years, he learned the details under the watchful eyes of Marv Levy, the legendary former head coach of the Buffalo Bills. In his last season, Hall of Fame coach Lou Holtz schooled Laycock in the finer aspects of psyche and motivation. As a sophomore, Laycock was a starter in the defensive secondary, but he was soon switched to quarterback where he completed 96 of 218 career passes for 1,366 yards.

Laycock's first full-time coaching position came at The Citadel as the offensive backfield coach under Bobby Ross, who went on to coach the NFL's San Diego Chargers and Detroit Lions. In 1975, Memphis State tabbed Laycock as its quarterback's coach and he helped the Tigers to consecutive 7-4 records.

In 1977, Laycock traveled to Clemson to serve as offensive coordinator for three years. During his tenure, he helped the Tigers fashion records of 8-3-1, 11-1 and 8-4. Clemson played bowl games in each year, defeating Ohio State 17-15 in the 1978 Gator Bowl. At that time, Laycock coached two-time All-ACC performer Steve Fuller, the Tiger quarterback who later played in the NFL, and Dwight Clark, an All-Pro receiver for the San Francisco 49ers.

A native Virginian, Laycock played football, basketball, baseball and golf at Loudoun Valley High School, where he won 12 letters and has since had his number retired and been inducted into the school's Athletics Hall of Fame. Laycock was also inducted into the Hampton Roads Sports Hall of Fame in the fall of 2010.

Laycock is married to Deirdre Connelly, a sports psychology consultant at the College. They have three children: Michael, a Captain in the U.S. Army; Mimi, a 2014 graduate of W&M, teaches for Teach for America in the Baltimore, Md., school system; and James, a recent graduate of Longwood University.

Laycock's daughter Melanie is married to Doug Johnson and is a school administrator in Atlanta, Ga. The couple has two daughters, Grail and Nolan.
