Head Coach

KIM LEWELLEN

The 2015-16 season marks the ninth year Kim Lewellen has directed the women's golf program at Virginia. During that time she has guided the Cavaliers to the NCAA Championships eight times and led the program to its first ACC Championship.

The 2014-15 season will always be a memorable one for Lewellen. The Cavaliers shot 27-under to win the ACC title by a whopping 26 strokes. UVa placed three players on the all-conference team for the first time and the team advanced to the NCAA Championships, finishing 20th.

For her efforts, Lewellen was named the ACC Coach of the Year for the second time during her career.

In 2013-14, Lewellen's squad finished 14th at the NCAA Championships despite not having a single player on the roster who earned all-conference honors during the season. UVa was the runner-up at the ACC Championships.

Lewellen has directed Virginia to a number of outstanding accomplishments during her tenure and helped make the Cavaliers a team that is annually ranked among the tops in the nation.

One recent example of that came during the spring of 2013, when senior Brittany Altomare became the first UVa player to win the ACC individual championship and also earn first-team All-America honors.

During Lewellen's tenure, the Cavaliers have enjoyed their greatest success at the NCAA Championships.

In 2012, behind the eighth-place finish of sophomore Portland Rosen, the Cavaliers placed fourth for the second consecutive season. Rosen received honorable mention All-America honors while Altomare was named a second-team All-American.

During her tenure at Virginia, Lewellen's teams have placed fourth (2012 & 2011), eighth (2009), 12th (2008), 13th (2010) and 14th (2014) at the NCAA Championships. The only other schools to finish in the top-14 of the NCAA Championships over the same period of time are UCLA, Purdue, USC and Alabama.

Lewellen was recognized by the LPGA as its East Region college coach of the year in 2012 after also receiving the award in 2011 and 2010. In 2011 she was also named the National College Coach of the Year by the LPGA.

In 2011 Lewellen watched her first class of recruits graduate and led the Cavaliers to a fourth-place finish at the NCAA Championships, at that time the best showing in program history.

There were plenty of other highlights during the 2010-11 season. The Cavaliers won the Golfweek Conference Challenge and finished in the top four in eight of 12 tournaments, including the ACC Championships and NCAA West Regional.

Altomare placed first at the Golfweek Conference Challenge and The Landfall Tradition on the way to earning second-team All-America honors. Calle Nielson also picked up All-America accolades for the third time in her career. UVa finished the season ranked No. 5 by Golfstat and No. 7 by Golfweek.

In 2009-10 Lewellen guided a team that featured three freshmen players in its lineup to a 13th place finish at the NCAA Championships. UVa finished the season ranked No. 11 in the final Golfweek standings.

Virginia was the runner-up at the ACC Championships behind the second-place finishes of freshman Brittany Altomare and junior Calle Nielson.

Both players earned All-America honors as Nielson finished first at the NCAA West Regional and Altomare was 15th at the NCAA Championships.

In 2008-09 Lewellen was named the East Region Coach of the Year after guiding the Cavaliers to a best-ever eighth-place finish at the NCAA Championships. Her team produced three players that earned some form of All-America recognition. Ranked in the top-five of the collegiate golf polls most of the season, the Cavaliers won the LSU Golf Classic and finished in the top four in eight of 11 tournaments during the season.

In 2008, her first year as the Virginia women's golf coach, Lewellen had a big impact on the program that is still in its first decade of competition. The highly energetic Lewellen saw her team placed 12th at the NCAA Championships.

That was not the only hallmark moment during the season. The Cavaliers made a strong showing at the NCAA East Regional, placing fifth overall to earn a bid to the NCAA Championships. For her efforts, Lewellen was named the ACC Coach of the Year.

Lewellen came to Virginia after spending two seasons as the head women's coach at East Carolina. She led the Pirates to the program's first ever Conference USA Championship in 2006 and a runner-up finish in 2007. Her 2006 squad qualified for the NCAA East Regional, the third time a team from ECU reached NCAA postseason play. In 2007 the Pirate squad qualified an individual competitor for the NCAA East Regional.

Before taking over the program at East Carolina, Lewellen served as both the head men's and women's coach at The Citadel for the 2003-04 season.

Lewellen, who competed at North Carolina from 1990-93 under her maiden name of Byham, was a two-time All-ACC performer during her junior and senior seasons. In 1993 she earned first-team All-America honors from the National Golf Coaches Association, only the second Tar Heel golfer to achieve that honor. As a senior, she won medalist honors at the NCAA East Regional Championships and helped North Carolina to its second straight eighth-place finish at the NCAA Championships. Her score of 3-under 213 at the NCAA East Regional still ranks as one of the 10 lowest tournament scores in Tar Heel history.

During her collegiate career Lewellen won a total of three tournaments, including the Lady Tar Heel Classic in 1992 and the Woodbridge Collegiate in 1993. In 2003 she was honored as a member of the Atlantic Coast Conference 50th Anniversary Women's Golf Team. She was mentored at UNC by legendary coach Dot Gunnells.

Lewellen earned a bachelor's degree in speech communications and psychology from North Carolina in 1993.

After graduation, Lewellen spent one season on the Women's European Professional Golf Tour (1994-95) before gaining full membership status on the Future's Professional Golf Tour from 1997 to 1999. She claimed her first tour victory at the Briarwood Invitational in 1997. She has also competed in events on the LPGA tour from 1993 to 1997.

Lewellen's role as a golf instructor dates back to her undergraduate days when she worked as a teacher and counselor at North Carolina's Golf School from 1992 to 1994. From 1995 to 1997 she worked as the teaching professional at Carmel Country Club in Charlotte, N.C. In 1997, she was nominated as North Carolina's Favorite Golf Teacher in Golf For Women Magazine. Lewellen served as the tournament director for the 2001 Carolina Celebrity Classic in Raleigh, N.C.

Lewellen was named East Carolina's women's head coach on Jan. 10, 2006, after Pirate coach Kevin Williams resigned at mid-season to become the head professional at Walnut Creek Country Club in Goldsboro, N.C.

Lewellen has appeared on The Golf Channel's reality shot "The Big Break" twice. The series allows competitors the chance to play in an LPGA tournament. In 2006 she was a member of the cast for "Big Break V: Hawaii" that was played at Turtle Bay Resort on Oahu. In 2007 she participated in "Big Break: The Reunion" which began airing in February.

Lewellen was born in Salisbury, Md. and grew up in Raleigh, N.C., She won back-to-back North Carolina State girls junior championships. While attending Broughton High School, she earned all-conference honors while competing for the boy's team.

She and her husband John, an Episcopal minister, have two sons, Jack and Simon.

Assistant Coach

CALLE NIELSON

Former Virginia All-American Calle Nielson joined the Virginia women's golf program as an assistant coach in the fall of 2014. Nielson played for Virginia from 2007 to 2011 and helped the Cavaliers to four consecutive top-15 finishes at the NCAA Championships.

Nielson served in a temporary role as an assistant coach for the Cavaliers during the 2012 NCAA Championships when former assistant coach Brian Bailie was unable to travel with the team due to a family matter.

Nielson won three tournaments during her Virginia career including the 2010 NCAA West Regional title. She had 17 top-10 finishes as a collegiate and her best outing in four NCAA Championship appearances was a sixth-place finish in 2009 as a sophomore.

Three times (2009-2011) she was named an honorable mention All-American by the National Golf Coaches Association. She was tabbed a third-team All-American by Golfweek in 2009 and picked up honorable mention All-America honors by the publication in 2010 and 2011. She earned All-ACC honors during each of her four seasons at Virginia.

A native of Nashville, Tenn., Nielson graduated from Virginia in 2011 with a degree in sociology. She played professionally on the Symetra Tour in 2012, 2013 and 2014. She has qualified for the U.S. Amateur four times (2007, 2009-2011) and has been named the Tennessee Women's Amateur Player of the Year four times (2008-2011), won the 2010 Tennessee Women's Amateur and the 2011 Women's Southern Amateur.

Volunteer Assistant Coach

DR. BOB ROTELLA

Rory McIlroy, Padraig Harrington and Darren Clarke all have something in common in addition to their victories in Majors. They are all clients of Dr. Bob Rotella, who works with the Virginia golf programs as a volunteer assistant coach.

Internationally known for his work in the area of applied sports psychology, Dr. Rotella is consistently recognized as the Top Sports Psychologist in the world.

Harrington thought so much of "Dr. Bob" that as a show of appreciation he gave him one of the British Open trophies - the Claret Jug - from his back-to-back wins in 2007 and 2008.

Rotella, who resides in Keswick, meets with the Cavalier players on a regular basis to assist with their mental approach to the game. His work with many of the world's best players provides a tremendous resource of information and knowledge for UVa's aspiring student-athletes.

Rotella's book, "Golf Is Not a Game of Perfect" is the best selling sport psychology book of all time and one of the three best selling golf books in history.

In 2012 he published his most recent book "The Unstoppable Golfer." It focuses on the short game--the putts, chips, pitches and bunker shots that have such a major impact on a player's score.

"We are extremely fortunate to have Dr. Bob Rotella as part of our support staff," said head coach Kim Lewellen. "Golfers of all abilities, from around the world, have been drawn to his teachings. His books have all become classics for golfers everywhere.

"His teachings are simple and direct -- and in the end, what 'Doc' says makes us play better golf. We are confident that his advice will improve our games just like it has many other accomplished golfers. What a privileged and invaluable resource for our student-athletes and for that we are truly grateful."

Since 1984 Dr. Bob Rotella has coached the winners of more than 74 major championships in men's, women's and senior professional golf. In 2011, he helped Darren Clarke win the British Open and Keegan Bradley win the PGA Championship. Dr. Bob Rotella also works with winners in tennis, baseball, basketball and other sports. Anyone whose work or play involves mental challenges can benefit from his proven wisdom - from performers to business leaders.

He has served on the editorial board of Golf Digest and been a columnist for that publication. He is the past president of the North American Association for Applied Sports Psychology and a contributing editor for the Sport Psychology Journal.

He has worked as a consultant for personnel for the NBA, NFL, Major League Baseball, NASCAR, PGA Tour, LPGA Tour, Senior Tour, U.S. Olympic Ski Team and the U.S. Olympic Equestrian Team.

He has served as a corporate consultant at companies including Merrill Lynch, General Electric, Ford, Tim Life, Coca Cola, Chrysler, Newsweek, Pepsi-Cola, Taco Bell and Pizza Hut.

The list of professional golfers he has consulted is exhaustive. It includes players such as Davis Love, III, Brad Faxon, Nick Price, Paul Azinger, Trevor Immelman, Billy Mayfair, Padraig Harrington, David Toms, Scott Verplank, Jeff Sluman, Fred Funk and Tom Kite.

In his more than two decades of service at the University of Virginia, Dr. Rotella was most recently Director of the Sports Psychology Department, one of the nation's best programs for sports psychology.
