HEAD COACH STEVE SWANSON

It is no coincidence that success has followed University of Virginia head coach Steve Swanson throughout his career. In his 25th season as a head coach, his 15th at Virginia, he has established himself as one of the elite coaches in collegiate soccer, and certainly one of the most respected. Swanson has led his teams to six conference championships, 20 NCAA Tournament appearances, and 24 consecutive winning seasons during his 25-year career.

During his tenure as head coach of at Virginia, Swanson has had a dramatic impact on the program since he replaced former United States National Team Head Coach April Heinrichs in the spring of 2000. Over the past 15 years, the Cavaliers are 234-74-35 (.733) under his direction, as Swanson is the winningest coach in program history. His Cavalier squads have advanced to the NCAA Round of 16 in 13 of his 15 seasons, including five quarterfinal appearances.

This season Swanson has led Virginia to its second consecutive NCAA College Cup. The Cavaliers lead the nation in scoring, averaging 3.54 goals per game, as they have posted the second 20-win season in school history.

Swanson led the Cavaliers to the best season in school history in 2013. The team set a school record with 24 wins and advanced to its first College Cup in 22 years. The Cavaliers went undefeated through the regular season (19-0 overall, 13-0 ACC) as Swanson earned NSCAA National Coach of the Year honors. On Sept. 19, 2013, Swanson became the 16th Division I coach to join the 300-win club, and the 11th to accumulate 300 wins at the Division I level. Virginia was ranked No. 1 nationally in all major polls for a majority of the season.

Swanson's track record of success is not only on the collegiate level, but also at the international level. He is currently the head coach of the United States U-23 Women's National Team and assisted the full U.S. Women's National Team during this fall's CONCACAF World Cup Qualifying. In 2012, he guided the United States to the FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup Championship in Japan and was one of 10 coaches named to the shortlist for FIFA Women's World Coach of the Year.

Swanson came to Virginia after two highly successful stops at Stanford and Dartmouth. At Dartmouth, Swanson guided the Big Green to national prominence. He did an equally impressive job at Stanford, helping maintain the program's standing as one of the premier teams in the country while leading the Cardinal to two Pac-10 titles in four seasons. In 2004, he led Virginia to the first ACC Championship in school history, making him the only coach in Division I history to win titles in three different conferences. He has since become the only coach in history to win multiple conference championships in three different conferences. Swanson also enjoyed success as a player in college and as a professional.

During his four seasons at Stanford, Swanson guided the Cardinal to an overall record of 48-27-4, two Pac-10 championships and three NCAA Tournament appearances. His 1999 squad finished with an impressive 14-4-1 record, captured a Pac-10 title and advanced to the third round of the NCAA Tournament. Three of Swanson's players were named to the 1998 All-Pac-10 team and four earned Pac-10 All-Academic recognition. Swanson also coached the 1998 Pac-10 Co-Player of the Year. In 1999, he was honored as the Pac-10 Coach of the Year.

Prior to serving as Stanford's head coach, Swanson served as both the head women's soccer coach and assistant director of athletics at Dartmouth College from 1990-1995. During his years at Dartmouth, he transformed the Big Green into a national powerhouse with an overall record of 55-35-7 (.603). Under his guidance, Dartmouth made its first two NCAA Tournament appearances in school history (1993 and 1994) and won its first two Ivy League Championships in school history (1991 and 1993). During his last three years at the helm, the Big Green was ranked in the year-end top 20. Named New England Coach of the Year in 1992, Swanson led his team to an undefeated conference season the following year en route to winning the Ivy League title for the second time in three years. His 1993 Dartmouth squad not only went through league play undefeated, but also was unscored upon in the conference.

Swanson has coached 24 All-Americans, one national player of the year, nine conference players of the year, and 79 all-conference selections. Of his former players at Dartmouth, Stanford and Virginia, 28 have played professionally in the WUSA, WPS or NWSL. In 2002, Swanson became the third coach to win at least 40 games with three different NCAA Division I women's soccer programs.

Swanson has been heavily involved with the United States youth National Teams. In addition to currently serving at the head coach of the U-23 National Team, he was the head coach of the U-16 National Team and head coach of the U-18 National Team from 2000-02 and the head coach of the U-20 Women's National Team from 2011-12. In addition, Swanson has been an assistant coach with the U-17, U-18, U-19, U-20 and full Women's National Teams in recent years.

A graduate of Michigan State in 1984, Swanson played professionally in the United States and Canada for four years before returning to school to obtain his master's degree at Iowa. He played more than 150 consecutive games in tours of duty with the Milwaukee Wave and the Chicago Shoccers of the American Indoor Soccer Association, and with AC Roma and the Windsor Wheels in the National Soccer League of Canada (NSLC). While at Michigan State, Swanson was a four-year letterwinner in soccer. He was the team's leading scorer, captain and a regional All-American his senior year.

Swanson and his wife Julie have three children: daughters Alexis and Kelsey, and son Sam.
