VIRGINIA FACTS

UNIQUELY UVA

The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to UVA's culture.

Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the University dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.

First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why you may ask? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process.

Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES

Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."

Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.

Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos" during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general use around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

THE CAVALIER MASCOT

The costumed Cavalier with a large character head debuted during Virginia's 1984 football season and has remained the official mascot of the University.

The first documented Cavalier on horseback was Francis Bell, a Virginia student from Dublin, Va., in 1947. Bell rode onto the field dressed as Cavaliers for Virginia's home football game with Harvard on the afternoon of October 11.

The Cavalier on horseback returned as the University's mascot in 1963. The UVA Polo Club provided both the horse and rider. However, the mounted Cavalier and his horse parted company in 1974 with the inception of AstroTurf at Scott Stadium.

The mounted Cavalier made its return in the Florida Citrus Bowl at the end of the 1989 football season. Due to its instant popularity, the Cavalier on horseback returned the following season on a regular basis and continues to lead the Virginia football team onto the field at the beginning of all home games.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.

One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

WAH-HOO-WAH

The origin of "Wah-hoo-wah" is uncertain. The cheer was used to root on Virginia teams as early as 1890 and may have been borrowed from Dartmouth College, whose athletics teams were once known as the Indians.

Legend attributes the yell to Natalie Floyd Otey, who sang the ballad "Where'er You Are, There Shall My Love Be" at Charlottesville's Levy Opera House in 1893. The predominantly student audience noticed that Otey warbled the first three words of the song between each of the stanzas and decided to join in the refrain. By evening's end, goes the legend, the crowd had corrupted "Where'er You Are" into "Wah-hoo-wah."

The Levy Opera House stands at the corner of High Street and Park Street and has since been renovated into an office building.

OPENING KICK

VIRGINIA MAKES MILITARY BOWL DEBUT

• Virginia returns to action in the 10th annual Military Bowl against the Navy Midshipmen. UVA is making its first bowl appearance since the 2011 Chick-fil-A Bowl.

THE SERIES VS. THE MIDSHIPMEN

- This is the 39th renewal of a rivalry that dates back to the 1889 season, the second year of Virginia football. Navy holds a 27-11 record in the all-time series, including a 19-5 mark in Annapolis.
- There is a difference in the series record between the two schools because of a game in 1895 that was scheduled for Nov. 2. UVA did not make the trip due to the historic fire that destroyed the Rotunda and its annex on Oct. 27, 1895. Navy counts the game as a forfeit win and UVA recognizes the game as mutually canceled.
- Virginia has won five straight in the series and has won three of its last four in Annapolis.
- The 1934 and 1956 meetings are the only natural site games in the series and neither venue exists today. The 1934 contest was played at Washington, D.C.'s Griffith Stadium, while the 1956 meeting took place at Baltimore's Memorial Stadium.

FIVE TOP STORYLINES

- Virginia is making its 19th bowl appearance and its first bowl matchup against a team from the American Athletic Conference. UVA is one of four bowl teams in 2017 that will play a "road game" in its bowl. Akron (Boca Raton), Iowa State (Liberty) and Wisconsin (Orange) also will face opponents in their home stadium.
- UVA's all-time leader in wins by a head coach, George Welsh, is a 1956 graduate of the Naval Academy. The Hall of Fame coach was the head coach at Navy from 1973-81 and posted a 55-46-1 record, the second most wins in program history. Coach Welsh went on to post a 134-86-3 record from 1982-2000 at Virginia.
- ILB Micah Kiser (134), FS Quin Blanding (121) and ILB Jordan Mack (105) are the only trio of teammates in the nation to each have at least 100 tackles.
- Olamide Zaccheaus (833), Andre Levrone (662) and Doni Dowling (632) are the first UVA receiving trio to have 600 or more receiving yards in the same season. The 2011 season is the only time in program history three Cavaliers even had 500 or more receiving yards in the same season.
- Olamide Zaccheaus (80) needs four receptions to pass Billy McMullen's 2001 single-season UVA record of 83 receptions.

The Military Bowl will be the 49th career start for FS Quin Blanding, tying him with Clint Sintim and D'Brickashaw Ferguson for No. 2 all-time at UVA.

#HoosRising: BY THE NUMBERS

- 1 FS Quin Blanding's 479 career tackles are the most among all active FBS players. He ranks No. 1 all-time at UVA and No. 10 all-time in the ACC.
- 7 With 282 completions, QB Kurt Benkert needs seven more to break the UVA single-season record set by Matt Schaub (288) in 2002.
- 50 TB Daniel Hamm will play in his 50th career game against Navy. He is the 11th Cavalier to reach the 50-game plateau. The UVA record is 51 games.

VIRGINIA ON THURSDAY

- UVA is playing its 22nd all-time game on a Thursday.
- The Military Bowl is UVA's first bowl game to be played on a Thursday.
- UVA has an all-time record of 7-14 on Thursday.
- UVA's first Thursday game was on Nov. 25, 1937 at North Carolina.
- UVA's last Thursday game was on Nov. 15, 2012 vs. North Carolina.

VIRGINIA AGAINST THE AMERICAN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

- The Military Bowl is UVA's third all-time game against an AAC school (second this season), while that program is an active member of the conference, which began in 2013.
- The two previous games against an active AAC school were both against UConn, including a 38-18 win over the Huskies at Scott Stadium on Sept. 16.
- UVA is 1-1 all-time against the AAC since it started in 2013.
- UVA is 18-35 all-time against current members of the American Athletic Conference, this includes 38 games against Navy. UVA has faced AAC member East Carolina (1-2), Navy (11-27), Temple (2-0), Tulane (2-4) and UConn (2-2).

VIRGINIA AND NAVY SHARE HEAD COACHS

- There are three men that have been the head football coach at Virginia and Navy.
- John Poe was the head coach at UVA in 1893-94 and at Navy in 1896. Bill Elias led the Cavaliers from 1961-64 and was at Navy from 1965-68. George Welsh was at Navy from 1973-81 and at Virginia from 1982-2000.

WELSH COACHED 15 GAMES IN THE UVA-NAVY SERIES

- George Welsh, a 1956 alum of the Naval Academy, was the head coach in 15 of the previous 38 meetings between Virginia and Navy. He was the head coach at Navy for five meetings and the head coach at UVA for 10 meetings
- UVA's all-time leader in wins, Welsh, went 7-3 all-time against the Midshipmen as the head coach of Virginia, while going 4-1 as the head coach of Navy.

UVA RECORDS AT NAVY-MARINE CORPS STADIUM

- As the visiting team at Navy-Marine Corps Stadium, Virginia owns a couple records for the stadium.
- Stan Fischer's touchdown pass to Joe Kehoe during the 1960 meeting is the longest pass in the stadium.
- Bobby Goodman's five passing touchdowns in the 1992 meeting are the most in a single-game at the venue.

SOME CAVALIERS ARE NO STRANGER TO ANNAPOLIS

- A few Cavaliers played high school football games at Navy-Marine Corps Stadium.
- ILB Micah Kiser, a graduate of Baltimore's Gilman School, intercepted a pass and returned it 70 yards for a touchdown to help his high school beat New Jersey powerhouse Don Bosco Prep, 13-6, in 2012.
- UVA WR Andre Levrone, CB Kirk Garner and WR DJ Pratt all played in games at Navy-Marine Corps Stadium during their time at Our Lady of Good Counsel.

MENDENHALL NO STRANGER TO THE OPTION

- Bronco Mendenhall and his staff are facing the option attack for the second time this season and the 11th time in his coaching career.
- Mendenhall's BYU teams went 5-1 against Air Force and 2-0 against Georgia Tech. Since coming to Virginia, his teams are 1-1 against the Yellow Jackets for an all-time record of 8-2 against the option between his head coaching stints at BYU and UVA.

VIRGINIA RETURNS TO MARYLAND

- Virginia is playing its first game in the state of Maryland since 2013 when they went to Byrd Stadium to face the Terripans.
- That is the longest drought of playing in the bordering state of Maryland since 1957.
- After playing at Navy in 1942, UVA didn't return to Maryland for a game until 1957.

UVA-NAVY CONNECTIONS

- Six Cavaliers hail from the state of Maryland – Elliott Brown (Odenton), Kirk Garner (Baltimore), Micah Kiser (Baltimore), Andre Levrone (Laurel), Darnell Pratt (Ellicott City) and Charles Snowden (Silver Spring).
- Current Navy radio analyst Tom O'Brien is a 1971 graduate of the Naval Academy. He coached at Navy under George Welsh from 1975-81 and came to UVA with Welsh in 1982. While at Virginia he coached the offensive line and was an offensive coordinator. His first of two tenures in Charlottesville was from 1982-1996. After he was the head coach at Boston College and NC State, O'Brien returned to UVA to be the assistant head coach and tight end coach from 2013-14 before retiring from coaching following the 2014 season.
- Navy coach Ken Niumatalolo was a quarterback at Hawaii in 1987 when current UVA offensive coordinator Robert Anae was an offensive graduate assistant for the Warriors.
- Niumatalolo's son, Va'a, was a linebacker at BYU, playing for current UVA head coach Bronco Mendenhall in 2014 and 2015.
- Below is a list of previous schools and hometown connections between players on UVA's roster and those on Navy's roster:

FOUR CAVALIERS ACCEPT SENIOR BOWL INVITES

- QB Kurt Benkert, FS Quin Blanding, DE Andrew Brown and ILB Micah Kiser have all accepted invites to play in the Senior Bowl on Jan. 27, 2018 in Mobile, Ala.
- It is the first time UVA will send four players to the Senior Bowl in the same season. Previously, UVA had sent three on two previous occasions.
- In 2009 UVA sent Cedric Peerman (RB), John Phillips (TE) and Clint Sintim (LB). In 1997 UVA sent Tiki Barber (RB), James Farrior (LB) and Jamie Sharper (LB).

FIVE MORE CAVALIERS EARNED DEGREES THIS FALL

- FS Quin Blanding, WR Doni Dowling, OG/C Jake Fielier and DE Andrew Brown all earned their undergraduate degrees this December, while QB Kurt Benkert graduated with his master's degree.
- Counting Benkert's undergraduate degree, UVA has 15 football student-athletes with their degree.

BLANDING MAKES 49TH CAREER START

- FS Quin Blanding is set to make the 49th start of his UVA career, which will tie him with Clint Sintim and D'Brickshaw Ferguson for No. 2 all-time at UVA.
- The UVA record for starts is 51, which was done by defensive end Brennan Schmidt.
- Blanding has started every game Virginia has played since his arrival on Grounds in 2014.

VIRGINIA DEFENSE STRONG IN THE RED-ZONE

- UVA is allowing opponents to score only 70.3 percent (26-of-37) of the time inside the red-zone. That ranks No. 2 in the ACC and No. 5 in the nation.
- Miami was the best inside the red-zone against the Cavaliers, going 4-of-4, while Pitt was 3-of-3. The other 10 UVA opponents went a combined 19-of-30 (63.3 percent).

VIRGINIA LONG OFFENSIVE PLAYS OF 20 YARDS OR MORE

- Virginia has 71 offensive plays of 20 yards or more in 2017, which is the most since the Cavaliers had 80 in 2014.
- Of those 71 plays, 39 are on the pass. It is the most passing plays of 20 yards or more since UVA had 50 in 2012.
- Over the past 10 seasons, the 2011 (95) and 2012 (90) seasons are the two most productive of producing plays of 20 yards or more. In 2011 43 of them were passes, while the 2012 50 of them were in the air.

VIRGINIA HAS THREE RECEIVERS WITH 600+ RECEIVING YARDS

- For the first time in program history, UVA has three receivers with 600+ receiving yards in the same season.
- Olamide Zaccheaus (833), Andre Levrone (662) and Doni Dowling (632) all have over 600 yards receiving in 2017.
- The 2011 season (Kris Burd, Perry Jones, Tim Smith) was the only year UVA has ever had three players with at least 500 yards receiving in the same season.
- The 2010 season (Kris Burd, Dontrelle Inman) and the 2015 season (Canaan Severin, Taquan Mizzell) are the only years UVA has had at least two players with 700 yards receiving. With one game to play, UVA has a chance to equal or surpass that number.

ZACCHEAUS CLIMBS SEASON RECEPTIONS LIST

- Junior Olamide Zaccheaus is currently No. 2 on UVA's single-season reception list with 80 catches.
- His 80 receptions are the third most in the ACC and rank No. 8 nationally.
- Below is where Zaccheaus ranks all-time on UVA's single-season list for receptions:

Player, Season	Receptions
1. Billy McMullen, 2001	83
2. Olamide Zaccheaus, 2017	80
3. Taquan Mizzell, 2015	75
4. Heath Miller, 2003	70
5. Billy McMullen, 2002	69

ZACCHEAUS CLIMBS SEASON RECEIVING LIST

- Olamide Zaccheaus is currently No. 9 on UVA's single-season receiving list with 833 receiving yards.
- Below is where Zaccheaus ranks all-time on UVA's single-season list for receiving yards:

Player, Season	Receiving Yards
1. Herman Moore, 1990	1,190
2. Billy McMullen, 2001	1,060
3. Germane Crowell, 1997	969
4. Kris Burd, 2011	913
5. Billy McMullen, 2002	894
6. John Ford, 1987	855
7. Herman Moore, 1989	848
8. Heath Miller, 2003	835
9. Olamide Zaccheaus, 2017	833

GOAL-2-GO HAS BEEN UVA'S SPECIALTY

- Outside of two turnovers on downs at Pitt, UVA is 14-of-14 on scoring when they are goal-to-go.
- UVA has scored 11 touchdowns (7 rush, 4 pass) and three field goals when in a goal-to-go situation.
- More on UVA's goal-to-go situations on page 16.

UVA DEFENSE STARTS STRONG

- UVA's defense has started strong, forcing five three and outs in 12 opening drives. UVA has forced its opponent to a three and out in three of the last five games. One game they did not during that span they forced Miami to throw an interception on its sixth play of the drive, the other against Virginia Tech, UVA forced the Hokies to punt on its sixth play.
- Only Boise State (TD) and Boston College (FG) have scored on its opening drive against UVA and are the only two teams to manage more than two first downs on an opening drive.
- UVA is No. 23 in the nation and No. 4 in the ACC in three and outs forced per game with 4.33. Of UVA's 157 defensive opportunities this season, 33.1 percent of them were a three and out.

LEVRONE'S LONG TOUCHDOWNS

- Senior WR Andre Levrone has seven touchdown catches for 295 yards, or 42.14 yards per scoring reception.
- Overall, Levrone is No. 2 in the ACC and No. 9 in the nation with 21.35 yards per reception.
- Levrone has 13 receptions of 20 yards or more, the most by a Cavalier since Canaan Severin had 13 in 2015. Severin had 14 receptions of 20 yards or more in 2014, while Darius Jennings had 13 in 2014.

UVA HAS BEEN PLUS IN THE FIELD POSITION BATTLE

- Virginia has won the field position battle in seven of its 12 games. For most of the season UVA won the field position battle after losing it against Indiana and UConn. UVA lost the field position battle in the last three games (at Louisville, at Miami, vs. Virginia Tech), all Cavalier losses. UVA is 1-4 this season when losing the field position battle.
- UVA's best field position win was against William & Mary (+16), while the Boise State (+13), Pitt (+13) and Georgia Tech (+10) games have also been in the plus by double digits.
- See page 29 for more on field position.

ZACCHEAUS A BIG OFFENSIVE WEAPON FOR VIRGINIA

- Junior Olamide Zaccheaus recorded his second career receiving touchdown of 80+ yards when he scored on an 81-yard pass from Kurt Benkert at North Carolina.
- It is the longest reception in the ACC this season.
- Zaccheaus is the only player in UVA history with two career receptions of 80+ yards. He also scored on an 82-yard scoring strike from Benkert in 2016 against Central Michigan.
- In UVA's six wins in 2017, Zaccheaus has caught 40 passes for 474 yards and four touchdowns, while also rushing 16 times for 132 yards and one more score.
- Over the eight wins of the Mendenhall era, Zaccheaus has caught 52 passes for 657 yards and seven touchdowns, which comes out to 12.6 yards per reception.
- His active reception streak of 28 games is the third longest active streak in the ACC.
- Zaccheaus became the 37th Cavalier all-time with 1,000 career receiving yards after his 122-yard day against UConn.
- Zaccheaus also became the 21st Cavalier to reach 100-career receptions in UVA history after grabbing four at Boise State.
- Zaccheaus' 12 receptions against Indiana on Sept. 9 are the sixth most in a single game in UVA history.
- Olamide is Nigerian for "the blessing has come."

JOE REED EXCELS ON KICK RETURN

- Wide Receiver Joe Reed has returned 26 kicks in 2017 for 743 yards (28.6 yards per return), which is No. 1 in the ACC and No. 9 nationally.
- Reed has seven returns of 30 yards or more. That is the most by a Cavalier since UVA's all-time kick return leader Darius Jennings had seven in 2014. Reed and Jennings' mark is the most at UVA since Cedric Peerman returned nine kicks in 2005 for 30 yards or more.
- With only 53 kick returns to his career resume, Reed already ranks No. 5 all-time at UVA in career kick return yards with 1,421.
- Reed's 743 kick return yards are the second most in a season by a Cavalier, trailing only Khalek Shepherd's single-season program record of 929 in 2012.
- Reed's best game this season was against Georgia Tech when he had a career-high 170 return yards and the program's eighth-longest return which went 92 yards for a touchdown.
- Reed's 25.1 yards per kick return average was No. 3 in the ACC and No. 21 in the nation in 2016.
- Below is where Reed ranks all-time among UVA's top kick returners.

Player, Career	Return Yards
1. Darius Jennings, 2011-14	1,839
2. Joe Sroba, 1974-76	1,645
3. Malcolm Pittmanm 1981-83	1,543
4. Khalek Shepherdm 2011-14	1,468
5. Joe Reed, 2016-pres.	1,421

BENKERT HAS REACHED 25 PASSING TOUCHDOWNS THROUGH 12 GAMES

- With 25 passing touchdowns, quarterback Kurt Benkert is the first Cavalier in program history to throw for at least 20 touchdowns in multiple seasons. He had 21 last year.
- With Benkert reaching 25 passing touchdowns this season, it marks only the eighth time in program history a UVA quarterback has reached the 20-passing touchdown plateau.
- Benkert's 25 touchdown passes this season ranks No. 2 all-time on UVA's single-season ledger. The program's single-season record for passing touchdowns in a season is 28 by Matt Schaub in 2002.
- Benkert is No. 1 in the ACC with 25 passing touchdowns and is No. 22 in the nation through 12 games.

Last season, TB Taquan "Smoke" Mizzell became the first player in ACC History with 1,500 career receiving and 1,500 career rushing yards. Mizzell is a current member of the Chicago Bears.

BENKERT'S TOUCHDOWN PASSES

- With 46 passing touchdowns QB Kurt Benkert is one of 10 active "Power 5" quarterbacks to have at least 40 passing touchdowns since the start of the 2016 season. Benkert and 2016 Heisman Trophy winner Lamar Jackson (53) are the only ones from the ACC.
- Baker Mayfield (Oklahoma), Luke Falk (Washington State), Jake Browning (Washington), Sam Darnold (USC), Drew Lock (Missouri), Mason Rudolph (Oklahoma State), J.T. Barrett (Ohio State) and Trace McSorley (Penn State) are the others.

BLOUNT RECORDS THE TACKLES ON SPECIAL TEAMS

- Freshman Joey Blount leads UVA with 13 tackles on special teams, 11 of which have come on kickoffs.
- Blount recorded his first career double-digit tackle game against Boston College, notching 10 stops while seeing his most playing time on defense to date.
- Blount made his first collegiate start at cornerback at Pitt for the injured Juan Thornhill.
- Blount is the son of former UVA safety, Tony Blount, who played for the Cavaliers from 1976-79 and owns the 11th-longest interception return (63) in program history.

BENKERT AND PASSES OF 80+ YARDS

- At North Carolina on Oct. 14, Kurt Benkert found Olamide Zaccheaus on an 81-yard scoring strike. The touchdown served as the fourth-longest one-play scoring drive in program history and it was Benkert's third career pass of 80 yards or more.
- In program history, only Benkert and Wayne Schuchts have three career passes of 80 yards or more.
- Benkert's first two came in 2016 at Duke (84 yards to David Eldridge) and against Central Michigan (82-yard touchdown to Zaccheaus).
- Schuchts' passes were 93 yards (to Nick Merrick, vs. Wake Forest, 1982), 85 yards (to Barry Word, vs. Wake Forest, 1983) and 80 yards (to Quentin Walker, vs. Duke, 1983).

COLEMAN GIVES UVA ADDED EDGE IN THE PUNT GAME

- Junior Lester Coleman sat his first three years on Grounds before making his collegiate debut in the season opener against William & Mary. He sat the last two years behind former first-team All-ACC punter Nicholas Conte.
- Coleman did not punt in high school until his senior season. He had played defensive line and receiver at Woodberry Forest. His high school needed a punter and because Lester's older brother, James, had walked on to UVA as a punter in 2012, Lester was asked to punt without any experience. Lester's brother, James, redshirted at UVA in 2012 and punted two times over three seasons (2013-15) before using his fifth year to be the starting punter at Western Michigan last year.
- Lester Coleman averaged 52.3 yards per punt over his seven punts against Boston College (Oct. 21) to break the single-game UVA punting record.
- The previous record belonged to Ryan Weigand, who averaged 51.6 yards per punt at Wyoming in 2007.
- Coleman had a long punt of 60 yards against the Eagles and five landed inside the 20, three of which were downed inside the 10.
- Coleman is No. 3 in the ACC and No. 22 in the nation with a 44.0 yards per punt average. Of his 64 punts, 28 have landed inside the 20 and another 23 have been for 50+ yards.
- His 28 punts inside the 20 are No. 9 in the nation and No. 2 in the ACC. his 23 punts of 50+ lead the ACC.

BLANDING AND KISER ANCHOR THE DEFENSE

- ILB Micah Kiser (11.2) and FS Quin Blanding (10.1) currently rank No. 1 and No. 2 in the ACC in tackles. This is nothing new for the duo as they finished No. 1 and No. 2 in the ACC in tackles in 2015 and 2016.
- Kiser ranks No. 5 in the nation in tackles in 2017, while Blanding ranks No. 13 in the nation.
- In 2016 Kiser (11.2) led the ACC in tackles and finished No. 4 nationally. Blanding (10.0) finished No. 2 in the ACC in tackles for the third year in a row and No. 9 nationally.
- Kiser (9.75) and Blanding (9.58) also finished No. 1 and No. 2, respectively, in the ACC in tackles in 2015.
- Since the ACC started tracking tackle leaders in 1990, no previous tandem of tacklers has led the league in tackles for two consecutive seasons until Kiser and Blanding.
- Blanding, who also finished No. 2 in the ACC in tackles in 2014 (10.25), is the only player in ACC history to finish second in tackles for three straight seasons.
- The only ACC player since 1990 to lead the league in tackles for three consecutive seasons is Boston College's Luke Kuechly (2009-11), now of the NFL's Carolina Panthers.

BLANDING AND KISER GET HELP ON DEFENSE

- Despite ranking No. 1 and No. 2 in the ACC in tackles, FS Quin Blanding and ILB Micah Kiser are getting solid help on defense as UVA has three of the ACC's Top 5 tacklers.
- ILB Jordan Mack is No. 5 in the ACC with 8.8 tackles per game.
- Virginia is the only school in the nation with three players with 100+ tackles each this season as ILB Micah Kiser (134), FS Quin Blanding (121) and ILB Jordan Mack (105) complete the trio.

BLANDING DOUBLES UP THE TACKLES

- UVA's Quin Blanding has 24 double-digit tackle games over 48 collegiate games.
- Blanding has had six double-digit tackle games in each of his four seasons.
- Blanding has 479 career tackles, 9.98 per game.

CROSS IS A TRIPLE-THREAT

- Redshirt freshmen De'Vante Cross has played offense, defense and special teams in the same game three times this season, doing so against Duke, Boston College and Louisville.
- Prior to Cross, the last time UVA had a player accomplish that feat was Vic Hall in 2009, when he did so in numerous games, the last time coming against Virginia Tech.
- Against Boston College Cross saw his most time on defense, notching one tackle. He also rushed once for 13 yards out of the wildcat formation.
- Recruited as a quarterback, Cross has seen time in the wildcat and at wide receiver.

UVA RECEIVERS HAVE RARE ACCOMPLISHMENT IN 2017

- UVA is one of eight schools in all of FBS in 2017 with at least three different players with at least one 100-yard receiving game.
- UVA is tied for No. 4 in the nation with three.
- Oklahoma State, who had four receivers go over 100 yards against Pitt this year, is the only other team this season with at least three players in the same game reach the 100-yard receiving mark.

RECEIVING TRIO SETS RECORD AGAINST UCONN

- For the first time in program history, UVA had three different players record at least 100 yards receiving in the same game. Doni Dowling (136), Andre Levrone (127) and Olamide Zaccheaus (122) became the first UVA trio to accomplish the milestone in UVA's 38-18 win over UConn.
- It was only the 10th time UVA had multiple Cavaliers with at least 100 yards receiving in the same game and the first time since the 2013 Georgia Tech game (Tim Smith, 151 yard & Darius Jennings, 119 yards).
- Dowling, Levrone and Zaccheaus are only the sixth ACC trio to accomplish the feat since 2000.
- Since 2000, Florida State accomplished the feat twice in 2000 and once in 2005. Miami did it in 2012 and Virginia Tech in 2016.

Year	ACC School vs. Opponent	Players
2017	Virginia vs. UConn	Doni Dowling (136), Andre Levrone (127), Olamide Zaccheaus (122)
2016	Virginia Tech at Pitt	Bucky Hodges (145), Isaiah Ford (143), Cam Phillips (109)
2012	Miami vs. South Florida	Clive Walford (135), Herb Waters (130), Phillip Dorsett (111)
2005	Florida State vs. The Citadel	Chris Davis (125), De'Cody Fagg (113), Greg Carr (104)
2000	Florida State vs. Clemson	Snoop Minnis (163), Atrews Bell (111), Javon Walker (109)
2000	Florida State at Miami	Atrews Bell (146), Snoop Minnis (145), Anquan Boldin (108)

BENKERT HAS STRONG OUTING AT NO. 2 MIAMI

- QB Kurt Benkert completed 28-of-37 passes for 384 yards and four touchdowns at No. 2 Miami on Nov. 18.
- That was the most passing yards against Miami this season and the most passing TDs vs. the Hurricanes this year.
- In the first half, he completed his first 12 passes and finished the first half completing 17 of 18 throws for 262 yards and three scores. UVA led the third-ranked Hurricanes 21-14 at the half. He had TD passes of 33, 75, 33 and 26 yards.
- The 75-yard pass was the longest scoring play against Miami this season.
- Entering the game, Miami's defense had held opponents to an average of 192.6 passing yards per game and just nine passing TDs in its previous nine games.
- Benkert's passing total ties for the seventh most by an ACC QB this season.
- His 455 passing yards against UConn is the second most by an ACC QB this season.

UVA MAKES A LITTLE HISTORY AT BOISE STATE

- UVA's 42-23 win at Boise State on Sept. 22 created a little niche in history for the Cavaliers.
- It was UVA's first win on a Friday since Nov. 10, 1939 when UVA beat Washington & Lee, 7-0.
- It was UVA's first non-conference road win since 2011 (at Indiana).
- UVA is now 6-8-1 all-time on Fridays in the regular season.
- UVA handed Boise State its first double-digit loss at home since Sept. 8, 2001 vs. Washington State, which was a 41-20 triumph.
- UVA snapped Boise State's 32-game regular season non-conference home winning streak, which dated back to the 2001 Washington State game.
- Boise State lost by 19 points at home to Virginia. In its 102 previous home games, Boise State lost 4 games by a combined 17 points.
- It was UVA's first win west of the Mississippi River since winning at BYU in 1999.

HAMM RUSHES FOR A TOUCHDOWN IN FIVE STRAIGHT SEASONS

- After his five-yard rushing score against UConn, TB Daniel Hamm has rushed for at least one touchdown in five straight seasons.
- Hamm becomes the first Cavalier to rush for at least one touchdown in five straight seasons.
- With available records dating back to 2004, no ACC player has rushed for at least one touchdown in five straight seasons.
- Hamm played in two games as a true freshman in 2013 before being hurt at Pitt and receiving a medical hardship. In his collegiate debut, he set a UVA record for most rushing yards in a college debut with 136 against VMI. Hamm also rushed for two touchdowns against the Keydets in 2013.
- Hamm has six career rushing touchdowns.

BENKERT BREAKS UVA SINGLE-GAME PASSING/TOTAL OFFENSE RECORD

- QB Kurt Benkert was 30-of-40 for a career-high 455 passing yards against UConn on Sept. 16. He broke his own UVA single-game passing record (421) that he set last season against Central Michigan.
- Benkert's 455 passing yards against UConn are the most in the ACC this season for a game and ranks No. 16 among performances in the FBS this season.
- UVA has had a quarterback throw for over 400 yards only three times in program history and Benkert has done it twice.
- Marc Verica was the first Cavalier to throw for at least 400 yards in a game in 2010 when he threw for 417 at Duke.
- Benkert also broke Verica's record for total offense in a game with 465 yards of total offense. Verica's record was 413 at Duke in 2010.

DOWLING HONORS TIM HARRIS

- WR Doni Dowling moved from No. 7 to No. 5 prior to the Indiana game to honor CB Tim Harris. Wearing No. 5 since his arrival on Grounds in 2013, Harris had a season-ending injury in the opener against William & Mary.
- Dowling and Harris have been lifelong friends, as well as teammates at Richmond's Varina High School.

VIRGINIA FOOTBALL TO WEAR #HOOSTOGETHER PATCHES ON UNIFORMS IN 2017

- In the aftermath of the events that took place in Charlottesville this summer, the Virginia athletics department initiated the #HoosTogether campaign on social media in an effort to unite our community in support of love, diversity and inclusion.
- During the 2017-18 academic year, all UVA sports programs will incorporate a #HoosTogether patch on their uniforms or equipment. It is UVA's hope the patches serve as a reminder of what can be accomplished when we are united behind a common goal and we hope this effort continues to help bring our community together.

SEVENTEEN TRUE FRESHMEN HAVE PLAYED IN 2017

- Seventeen UVA true freshmen have played in 2017, which ranks No. 4 in the nation entering week No. 10. UVA is tied at No. 4 with Alabama, Arizona, Baylor, Miami and Tennessee.
- Ten true freshmen made their collegiate debut against William & Mary on Sept. 2. Mandy Alonso (DL), Lamont Atkins (TB), Joey Blount (FS), Germane Crowell (CB), Brian Delaney (PK), Matt Gahm (LB), Terrell Jana (WR), PK Kier (TB), A.J. Mejia (PK) and Jamari Peacock (FB) all made their collegiate debuts against the Tribe.
- ILB Zane Zandier became the 11th UVA true freshman to play in 2017 after he appeared on defense against Indiana.
- OLB Elliott Brown and DL John Kirven became the 12th and 13th UVA true freshmen to play in 2017. Brown saw time on defense and Kirven played on special teams against UConn.
- OLB Charles Snowden and CB Darrius Bratton made their collegiate debuts at Boise State.
- QB Lindell Stone made his collegiate debut against Boston College.
- OT Chris Glaser made his collegiate debut against Georgia Tech.
- The 10 true freshmen playing on the opening weekend ranked No. 8 among the nation's FBS teams.
- Six redshirt freshmen also made their collegiate debut against William & Mary. Dillon Reinkensmeyer (OT), Brenton Nelson (CB), DeVante Cross (WR), Nick Grant (CB) Nash Griffin (Holder) and Ben Knutson (OG) also made their collegiate debuts against the Tribe.

PLAYERS EARN THEIR NUMBERS

- On the night of Friday, Aug. 18, inside the locker room at Scott Stadium, 50 players earned their numbers in a special ceremony.
- For the second year in a row, TB Jordan Ellis earned the first pick of the number draft.
- Throughout the season players that earn their numbers will have the opportunity to make a selection on Wednesday after practice.
- To date, 83 Cavaliers have earned numbers.
- Below are the Cavaliers who have number changes from what they selected in 2016:

Player	Old Number	New Number
Jordan Ellis, TB	10	1
Chuck Davis, WR	66	19
Doni Dowling, WR	7	5 [^]
Hasise Dubois, WR	80	8
Kirk Garner, CB	32	10
Nick Grant, SS	69	20
Andrew King, PK	92*	87
Andre Levrone, WR	19	14
Joe Reed, WR	81	2
Chris Sharp, WR	25	31
Joe Spaziani, QB	99	11
Olamide Zaccheaus, HB	33	4

* - Andrew King wore No. 92 in 2015 ^ - Doni Dowling changed after W&M game to honor Tim Harris

BREAKING IN A NEW PLACEKICKER/PUNTER

- Entering 2017, zero of the UVA kickers on the 2017 roster had attempted a field goal or a punt in a collegiate game. In fact, no UVA kicker or punter had appeared in a college game.
- Virginia, Arizona State and UAB were the only programs in the nation that entered 2017 with a kicker or a punter on its roster with zero collegiate experience.
- Virginia was one of six schools in the nation that had zero career collegiate field goal attempts and punts among the kickers on its roster entering 2017. Arizona State, Georgia Tech, Hawaii, Troy and UAB are the other schools.
- This was the second year in a row UVA has entered a season without a kicker that had attempted a field goal in college.
- Punter Lester Coleman and placekicker A.J. Mejia both made debuts against William & Mary in the season-opening win.
- Mejia is 8-of-11 on field goals and 36-of-36 PATs. Coleman is averaging 44.0 yards per punt with 28 of his 71 punts landing inside the 20.

SCOTT STADIUM, HOME OF THE CAVALIERS

The Carl Smith Center, home of David A. Harrison III Field at Scott Stadium, with its unique architectural design, scenic setting on the University's Grounds and exceptional sight lines, is one of the nation's finest college football settings.

Opened in 1931, Scott Stadium might be one of the oldest campus college football stadiums in the nation, but you could never tell from its appearance. Numerous upgrades and expansions make it a modern home for the Cavaliers and their fans.

Scott Stadium was the gift of Frederic William Scott and Elisabeth Strother Scott, and was dedicated to the memory of his parents, Frederic Robert Scott and Frances Branch Scott.

Virginia played its dedication game at Scott Stadium on Oct. 15, 1931 against the Virginia Military Institute before a then-capacity crowd of 22,000. Prior to that season, the Cavaliers staged their home games at the University's Lambeth Field.

Virginia has played 464 games in the historic venue. UVA's all-time record at Scott Stadium stands at 260-192-12.

MICAH KISER NOTES

KISER GETS 19 STOPS AGAINST VIRGINIA TECH

- Micah Kiser set a new career high with 19 tackles against Virginia Tech last time out.
- His 19 stops against the Hokies are the most by any player in a single game this season in the ACC and the ninth most in the nation. His 18 tackles against Georgia Tech are the second most in a game this season amongst the ACC teams.

KISER WINS THE CAMPBELL TROPHY

- Micah Kiser was named the winner of the 2017 Campbell Trophy.
- Selected from a nationwide pool of 181 semifinalists from among all NCAA divisions and the NAIA, Kiser was one of 13 finalists for the award and attended the 60th NFF Annual Awards Dinner in New York City on Dec. 5.
- The Campbell Trophy recognizes the nation's top football scholar-athlete.
- It has been dubbed the "Academic Heisman."
- Kiser will receive an $25,000 postgraduate scholarship as the winner of the 2017 Campbell Trophy, presented by Fidelity Investments.
- Former Virginia standout Tom Burns was the Campbell Trophy's fourth recipient. He won the award in 1994.
- UVA is one of five schools in the nation to have multiple Campbell Trophy winners and the only one from the ACC.

KISER DOUBLES UP THE TACKLES

- Micah Kiser owns 20 double-digit tackle games during his 36 career starts.
- Selected from a nationwide pool of 181 semifinalists from among all NCAA divisions and the NAIA, Kiser was one of 13 finalists for the award and attended the 60th NFF Annual Awards Dinner in New York City on Dec. 5.
- Kiser has 400 career tackles during 48 career games, which ranks No. 5 all-time at UVA.
- Kiser has recorded 385 tackles during his 36 career starts, which is every game since the start of the 2015 season.
- Kiser played in all 12 games a redshirt freshman, mostly on special teams when he shared the UVA team lead with nine special teams tackles.

DID YOU KNOW?

• UVA senior Quin Blanding was named by his mother Cory Lee after the movie entitled "The Mighty Quinn," starring Denzel Washington and Mimi Rogers. It was the first movie she saw following a checkup during her seventh month of pregnancy and the moment held significant meaning to her. At that check-up the doctors told her they thought they saw a hole in Quin's head and that it appeared to them his cerebrum wasn't connected. Quin was born completely healthy. Cory named him Quin with one "n" instead of two in recognition of that moment during pregnancy. She knew he will be all right and that he will be the mighty one.

• Blanding's father, Kevin, played football at NCAA Division II Glenville State (W.Va.) for current Arizona football head coach Rich Rodriguez.

• When offensive coordinator Robert Anae finished playing football, he returned home to Hawaii and served as the body model for the towering stature of the father of surfing, Duke Kahanamoku, a five-time Olympian.

• The statue, created by artist Jan Fisher, is right next to the famous Waikiki Beach. Anae was a graduate assistant at Hawaii at the time and the artist needed a model, a surfer that was tall, and he went looking for the tallest surfer on the North Shore.

• Walk-on first year Tristan Hillerich is one of four boys. His parents, Brent and Colleen, are proud parents of two sets of twins. Tristan has a twin brother, Bart, while the pair has a younger set of twin brothers, Quinn and Grady.

• Virginia has five players on its roster who are the sons of former Cavalier football players. Joey Blount (Tony Blount), Germane Crowell (Germane Crowell, Sr.), Mikey McDonald (Geoff McDonald), Matthew Merrick (Nick Merrick) and Andrew Yavinsky (Marc Yavinsky).

• WR Chuck Davis won $100,000 playing the Virginia Lottery in June. He spent $1 for a Cash 5 game ticket at a 7-Eleven in Ashburn, Va. He used the numbers on his grandmother's license plate on the car he drove to the market.

• DB Donovan Rolle participated in the 2011 and 2013 Scripps National Spelling Bee.

GAME 3 • UVA 38, UConn 18 Sept. 16 • Charlottesville, Va.

Game Notes

- Virginia is 2-2 all-time vs. UConn in the series that dates back to 2007
- The Cavaliers' 38 points marked a series high vs. UConn (previous high was 17 in 2007)
- UVA's 24-point halftime lead was its largest at the break since a 30-point lead over Indiana in 2009
- UVA's first scoring drive of 9:46 marked its longest scoring drive by time in school history, surpassing its 9:15 scoring drive vs. NC State in 1984
- UVA's 626 yards of total offense is the sixth-most in school history and most since 643 vs. Duke in 2010
- QB Kurt Benkert passed for a school-record 455 yards, surpassing his own school record of 421 set last year vs. Central Michigan
- Only three times in UVA history has a quarterback passed for over 400 yards and Benkert has done it twice. Marc Verica was the first at Duke (417) in 2010
- UVA had three players – Doni Dowling (136 yards), Andre Levrone (127 yards) and Olamide Zaccheaus (122 yards) – with 100 or more receiving yards in a game for the first time in school history
- It was the 10th time in program history multiple Cavaliers had at least 100 yards receiving in a game
- The last time UVA had multiple players with 100 or more receiving yards in a game was Tim Smith (151 yards) and Darius Jennings (119 yards) vs. Georgia Tech in 2013
- Dowling had a career-high 136 receiving yards and extended his reception streak to eight games
- Levrone totaled a career-high 127 receiving yards, including a career-long 73-yard TD reception
- Zaccheaus extended his reception streak to 19 games and became the 37th Cavalier to reach 1,000 career receiving yards
- Zaccheaus totaled 225 all-purpose yards, second most in his career (231 vs. Boise State in 2015)
- Daniel Hamm tallied his first rushing touchdown of the season (sixth career) and became the first UVA player in school history to record at least one rushing TD in five straight seasons
- Jordan Ellis had a career-best 95 rushing yards and tallied his third rushing touchdown (sixth career)
- Micah Kiser (2 sacks) moved into 10th on UVA's all-time sack list with 19, passing Eli Harold (17.5 sacks, 2012-14) and Ron Mattes (18 sacks, 1981-84)
- Kiser led UVA with 15 tackles and recovered his fourth career fumble
- Quin Blanding (9 tackles) moved past Byron Thweatt (387 tackles, 1997-2000) into fourth on UVA's all-time tackle list with 391

BRONCO MENDENHALL

Mendenhall Is In His Second Season at the Helm of Cavaliers

Bronco Mendenhall is in his second season as Virginia's head football coach after being named the program's 40th head coach on Dec. 4, 2015.

In Mendenhall's first season on Grounds he oversaw a secondary that boasted first-team All-ACC honoree and All-American, Quin Blanding. Blanding finished the season No. 2 in the ACC in tackles for the third year in a row with 120 stops. Inside linebacker Micah Kiser, an All-American and first-team All-ACC honoree, thrived to lead the ACC in tackles for the second year in a row with 134, which is tied with former Cavalier great Wali Rainer for fourth-most in a single season in program history. Kiser was also a second-team CoSIDA Academic All-American, becoming the first Cavalier since Tiki Barber in 1996 to earn both academic and athletic All-America honors in the same season.

Offensively, in Mendenhall's first season, Taquan Mizzell became the first player in ACC history to record at least 1,500 career rushing and 1,500 career receiving yards. UVA quarterback Kurt Benkert set a couple of passing marks in UVA's new offense, including a program record for passing yards in a game with 421 against Central Michigan, which was only the second time in program history a UVA quarterback surpassed 400 passing yards in a game. Benkert reached 1,000 passing yards in four games and 2,000 passing yards in eight games, setting a program record for fastest to that standard in a season.

Mendenhall came to Charlottesville after 11 years as the head coach at Brigham Young University. In his 11 seasons, from 2005-2015, Mendenhall compiled an overall record of 99-43 at BYU to rank 12th in total wins among all FBS teams during that time.

In the three seasons prior to Mendenhall becoming the head coach at BYU, the Cougars compiled an overall record of 14-21. Over Mendenhall's 11 years at BYU, the Cougars were one of only 11 programs to advance to a bowl game each season. BYU was joined by Alabama, Boise State, Clemson, Florida State, Georgia, LSU, Oklahoma, Oregon, Virginia Tech and Wisconsin during that time frame.

Among those 11 teams, only Florida State achieved more bowl wins (seven) than BYU's six bowl game victories.

"Professionally and personally I seek to embrace the highest standards in college sports, on and off the field, and I love the high standards both academically and athletically at Virginia," Mendenhall said at the time of his hiring. "I am excited to not only help provide the continual growth and development of the student athletes academically but also reestablish Virginia as a consistent winner with a fiercely competitive and winning product on the football field.

BYU football student-athletes earned freshman All-America recognition in nine of the Mendenhall's 11 seasons. More than 60 BYU players have signed with NFL teams since Mendenhall arrived in Provo, including defensive end Ezekiel Ansah, the No. 5 overall pick in the 2013 NFL Draft and Kyle Van Noy, the No. 40 overall pick in the 2014 NFL Draft.

Under Mendenhall, the Cougars tied for seventh among all FBS programs for the most Academic All-America citations over the last decade and BYU tops all FBS programs with the most selections (39) to the National Football Foundation Hampshire Honor Society (recognizing starters and significant contributors finishing their eligibility with a 3.2 GPA or better over their college career) since the program began in 2007.

The success of Mendenhall's leadership approach in running the BYU football program has been highlighted in a management book, Running Into the Wind: Bronco Mendenhall -- 5 Strategies for Building a Successful Team, written by Alyson Von Feldt and Paul Gustavson, a leading management consultant specializing in leadership development and organizational design.

Mendenhall was elected in 2013 to the American Football Coaches Association Board of Trustees as the District 8 Representative and also serves on the AFCA Ethics Committee.

Mendenhall played for two years at Snow College (Utah) before finishing his career as a starter at Oregon State during the 1986 and 1987 seasons. He played both linebacker and safety for the Beavers.

Mendenhall began his coaching career as a graduate assistant in 1989 at his alma mater, Oregon State. After earning his master's degree in 1990, he moved to Snow College in Ephraim, Utah, where he served as the secondary coach and defensive coordinator from 1991-92 under current BYU assistant coach Paul Tidwell. Following two seasons with the Badgers, Mendenhall became the secondary coach at Northern Arizona, where the Lumberjacks boasted the top-ranked defense in the Big Sky Conference. He was elevated to co-defensive coordinator for the 1994 season.

In 1995, Mendenhall returned to Oregon State to become the defensive line coach under then defensive coordinator Rocky Long. When Long left to become the defensive coordinator at UCLA, Mendenhall was promoted to defensive coordinator for the 1996 season. At just 29 years of age, Mendenhall was the youngest defensive coordinator in Pac-10 history.

In 1997, Mendenhall became the secondary coach at Louisiana Tech where he helped the Bulldogs to a remarkable 9-2 record as his defensive unit was credited with 17 interceptions, allowing just 15 touchdowns on the season.

In 1998, Mendenhall moved to Albuquerque, N.M., to become the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at the University of New Mexico. Over the next five seasons, the Lobos improved from just three wins in 1998 to seven wins and an invitation to the Las Vegas Bowl in 2002. In the Lobos' 27-13 loss against UCLA in the Las Vegas Bowl, the Mendenhall-led defense held the Bruins to a season-low 167 yards.

Under Mendenhall, the Lobos led the Mountain West Conference in rushing defense for three straight seasons. In 2001, New Mexico gave up just 87.4 yards per game over the season. In his final season in Albuquerque, Mendenhall led the Lobos to a top ranking against league opponents in total defense, allowing just 316.4 yards per game. The Lobos also led the MWC in sacks in the 2000 and 2002 season, totaling 46 and 38, respectively.

"We're not going to compromise anything. I like the idea of "and," not "or." We will have fantastic students, fantastic people, and a fantastic football team, and it's not "or." You're not going to just have academics or football, and it won't just be football or character, and it won't just be character or being woven into the fabric of our community. It'll be "and." I want all of that."

– Bronco Mendenhall

At New Mexico, Mendenhall played a valuable role in the development of the 1999 Mountain West Player of the Year, Consensus All-American and first-round NFL Draft pick Brian Urlacher. The ninth overall selection in the 2000 NFL Draft, Urlacher was voted the NFL's Defensive Rookie of the Year and was a Pro Bowl selection. Urlacher was one of two rookies to play all 16 games, starting at middle linebacker the final 14 games to establish a team record for starts at the position by a rookie. He shattered Bears rookie records with 165 total tackles and eight sacks, making him the second Chicago first-year player to lead the team in tackles. Urlacher finished his collegiate career ranked third on New Mexico's all-time list with 442 tackles.

Mendenhall took over as BYU's defensive coordinator in 2003 before being named the Cougars head coach in 2005.

In his first year in 2005 after taking over a program coming off three losing seasons, Mendenhall led BYU to a 6-5 regular-season record and earned an invitation to the Maaco Bowl Las Vegas -- the team's first postseason bowl appearance in three seasons. The Cougars finished tied for second in the MWC with a 5-3 league ledger.

Following the 2006 season, Mendenhall was named the American Football Coaches Association Region IV Coach of the Year. In addition, the Football Writers Association of America named Mendenhall one of nine finalists for the prestigious Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award. On November 17, 2007, Mendenhall led the Cougars to a 35-10 victory over Wyoming to record his 25th career win. With the victory, Mendenhall became the only coach in BYU football history to win 25 games in his first 35 attempts.

In 2008, BYU finished 10-3 overall and 6-2 in the MWC to achieve three straight 10-win seasons and become the first teams in Cougar history to go unbeaten at home over three consecutive seasons. Mendenhall coached the Cougars to back-to-back 11-2 seasons in 2006 and 2007, while claiming consecutive outright MWC titles with a combined record of 16-0 against league opponents.

"I celebrate effort. Very few people try as hard as they can at any one moment of their life, and when you do, you recognize it when it happens, and first and foremost, we will develop the will of our student-athletes. Skill will come along, the position mastery will come along, the execution will come along, but only after they learn to try hard."

- Team captain
- NJCAA National Champions (1985, 11-0)

Oregon State (1986-87)

- Played safety and linebacker; team captain (1987)
- Leo Gribkoff Memorial Award (1987) given to the most inspirational player

While recording an 11-2 record and 7-1 league mark in 2009, Mendenhall's team went 3-1 against ranked opponents, including a 14-13 season-opening win over No. 3 Oklahoma and a 44-20 season-finale Maaco Bowl Las Vegas victory over No. 16 Oregon State. BYU finished No. 12 in the final 2009 polls to earn the distinction of being one of only six programs nationally to be ranked in both final polls for four straight seasons.

In 2010, BYU's 52-24 New Mexico Bowl victory highlighted the progress and momentum the relatively young team gained over the course of the season as several freshmen played big roles in the season-ending victory. True freshman quarterback Jake Heaps became the first frosh signal caller in BYU history to start in a bowl, and he completed 25-of-34 passes for 264 yards and four touchdowns to be named New Mexico Bowl Offensive MVP. During the game, Heaps broke Heisman Trophy winner Ty Detmer's BYU record for freshman touchdown throws, finishing with 15 on the year to Detmer's 13. Redshirt freshman wide receiver Cody Hoffman caught three touchdowns on eight receptions for 137 yards in the bowl win, while true freshman running back Joshua Quezada ran for 101 yards on 15 carries and one touchdown.

In the first year of independence (2011), BYU posted yet another 10-win season, capped off by another comeback bowl victory over Tulsa in the Armed Forces Bowl. Riley Nelson took over the starting quarterback duties midway through the season and led BYU to a 6-1 record down the stretch. The Cougar defense also posted the No. 13 ranked defense.

A dominant defense led BYU to its seventh winning season in as many years as the BYU football team finished the 2012 season with eight wins, a program-best fourth consecutive bowl victory and the No. 3 defense in the nation. With an 8-5 record, BYU claimed its sixth season with at least eight wins under Mendenhall's eight-year head coaching tenure. Incredibly consistent all year long, BYU finished the year ranked No. 3 in total defense, allowing just 266.1 yards per game. The Cougars ended the season ranked in the top four in five major defensive categories.

BYU posted back-to-back 8-5 records in 2013 and 2014. The Cougars appeared in the 2013 Fight Hunger Bowl and in the 2014 Miami Beach Bowl.

Mendenhall served as the BYU's defensive coordinator for much of his tenure as the head coach. He returned to a full-time role with the defense again in 2015.

During his tenure in Provo, the Cougars consistently fielded one of the nation's strongest defenses. Mendenhall's defense excelled at keeping opponents out of the end zone. Entering the 2015 season, they averaged a No. 20 national ranking in scoring defense while he oversees the defense, including three top-10 ratings.

Mendenhall and his wife, Holly, have three sons, Raeder, Breaker and Cutter.

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/INSIDE RECEIVERS

ROBERT ANAE

Robert Anae enters his second season at Virginia on Bronco Mendenhall's staff and is the offensive coordinator and inside receivers coach.

Anae (Ah-NIGH) oversaw an offense in 2016 that boasted Taquan Mizzell, the first player in ACC history to record at least 1,500 career rushing and 1,500 career receiving yards. UVA quarterback Kurt Benkert set a couple passing marks in Anae's offense, including a program record for passing yards in a game with 421 against Central Michigan, which was only the second time a UVA quarterback surpassed 400 passing yards in a game. Benkert also became the fastest quarterback in a season to reach 1,000 and 2,000 yards of passing, doing so in four and eight games, respectively.

Anae came to Charlottesville after serving as Mendenhall's offensive coordinator and inside receivers coach in nine of his 11 seasons at BYU. Anae helped BYU finish the 2015 regular season ranked No. 21 in passing offense after directing the 2014 Cougar offense to a No. 14 ranking in scoring offense, putting up 37.1 points per game, the most points by a BYU team since the 2001 season.

In 2013, Anae led the BYU offense to a No. 14 national ranking, including a No. 10 finish in rushing offense, setting a school record with 3,475 rushing yards. He helped coach two 1,000-yard rushers in Taysom Hill and Jamaal Williams.

Anae was at BYU from 2005-10 and returned in 2013 after spending the 2010 and 2011 seasons at Arizona under Mike Stoops and Rich Rodriguez, serving as offensive line coach both seasons and run game coordinator under Stoops. Arizona's offense ranked in the top 16 both years and was in the top 25 in passing both seasons as well. Arizona produced the No. 3 passer nationally with Nick Foles, who averaged 360.8 passing yards per game in 2011 before being drafted in the third round of the NFL draft by the Philadelphia Eagles. The Wildcats' offensive line, under Anae's direction, blocked for the nation's leading rusher in 2012 as Ka'Deem Carey totaled 1,929 yards and 23 touchdowns on 303 carries.

Arizona ranked No. 7 in total offense in 2012 at 526.2 yards per game to help the Wildcats to an 8-5 record that included victories over nationally ranked Oklahoma State (59-38) and USC (39-36). The Wildcats scored 38.2 points per game to rank No. 16 nationally, including a 49-point output to defeat Nevada in the 2012 New Mexico Bowl. The point total was just three points off the New Mexico Bowl record of 52 points set by BYU in 2010 with Anae directing the Cougar offense.

During Anae's first tenure as offensive coordinator at BYU, the Cougar offense was extremely successful, earning top-25 NCAA statistical rankings in 10 different offensive categories a total of 35 times, including 15 top-10 ratings. BYU ranked in the top 25 in third-down efficiency each of Anae's six seasons (2005-10), including a No. 1 ranking in 2009 and No. 2 ratings in 2008 and 2006. The Cougars were in the top-6 in passing offense three times (2005, 2006, 2008) during his first tenure overseeing the BYU attack.

BYU's offensive production under Anae helped produce the school's top two rushers of all time (Harvey Unga: 3,455 yards; and Curtis Brown: 3,221 yards), the program's top wide receiver in receiving yards, catches and touchdowns (Austin Collie: 3,255 yards and 30 touchdowns on 215 catches), BYU's highest achieving tight end in both receiving yards and catches (Dennis Pitta: 2,901 yards on 221 receptions) and the Cougars' winningest all-time quarterback (Max Hall: 32 victories as a starter). Hall and John Beck, who also played quarterback during Anae's tenure, both went on to the NFL with Beck earning All-America accolades at BYU. Dennis Pitta, meanwhile, not only set the BYU record for receiving yards by a tight end, but also is No. 1 in that category in NCAA history.

As BYU's inside receivers coach from 2005-2010, Anae helped Pitta, Jonny Harline and Andrew George earn a combined six All-Mountain West Conference tight end honors, including five first-team awards. BYU tight ends also achieved national accolades under Anae's tutelage as Harline received first-team All-America honors in 2006 and Pitta was named an NCAA Consensus All-American in 2009.

Anae has been part of many of BYU's most successful teams as both a player and a coach. As BYU's offensive coordinator, the Cougars earned bowl invitations each season, while winning two outright MWC championships. He was an offensive lineman on BYU's National Championship team in 1984 and part of four bowl teams from 1981-84, while earning second-team All-Western Athletic Conference honors. BYU achieved a 43-7 record during Anae's playing days under Hall of Fame coach LaVell Edwards. He played in the Hula bowl in 1985 and was drafted by the New Jersey Generals of the USFL.

A three-time Frank Broyles Award nominee for Assistant Coach of the Year (nominated at Texas Tech, BYU and Arizona), Anae is a 27-year coaching veteran at eight different schools. Anae's first stint as offensive coordinator at BYU came following five seasons coaching with Mike Leach at Texas Tech from 2000-2004. As offensive line coach for the Red Raiders, Anae helped put together some of the most prolific offenses in the NCAA. The Texas Tech offense ranked No. 1 in the nation in passing three out of Anae's five years and in the top 11 the remaining two. The Red Raiders also ranked in the top six in total offense three times, including 582.8 yards per game to lead the nation in 2003—the fifth-best mark in NCAA history.

Anae began his coaching career as a graduate assistant working with the offensive line at Hawaii under Dick Tomey in 1986-87. He then was a graduate assistant for a pair of years at BYU in 1990 and 1991 before coaching the offensive line at Ricks College in Idaho from 1992-95. Anae coached the offensive front for a year at Boise State in 1996 before moving to UNLV for a pair of seasons, the final as running game coordinator along with his line duties in 1998.

Anae and his wife, Liane, have two sons and a daughter. His son Famika played on the offensive line at BYU before ending his career during the 2012 season due to injuries. He is now at graduate assistant coach at UVA. Anae's father, Famika Sr., and brothers Brad and Matt, also played football for BYU.

He was born in California in 1958 and raised in Laie on Hawaii's north shore. He served as a missionary for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Tulsa, Okla., from 1978-80. He graduated from BYU in 1986, obtained a master's degree in sociology from BYU in 1990 and earned his doctorate in sociology from BYU in 1999 while serving as an assistant director in the Brigham Young student-athlete center and NCAA Life Skills director.

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/SECONDARY

NICK HOWELL

Nick Howell enters his second season at Virginia on Bronco Mendenhall's staff and is the defensive coordinator/secondary coach.

In Howell's first season in Charlottesville he oversaw a secondary that boasted first-team All-ACC honoree and All-American, Quin Blanding. Blanding finished the season No. 2 in the ACC in tackles for the third year in a row with 120 stops. In his duties overseeing the defense, inside linebacker Micah Kiser thrived to lead the ACC in tackles for the second year in a row with 134, which is tied with former Cavalier great Wali Rainer for fourth-most in a single season in program history.

Howell served on Mendenhall's BYU staff in several roles from 2007-15, most recently as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach. Howell first came to BYU in 2007 as a defensive intern. From 2008-09 Howell was a defensive graduate assistant. Howell's first full-time position on Mendenhall's staff came in 2010 as the outside linebacker coach and from 2011-12 he was the secondary coach and a special teams coach.

Howell helped the defensive unit at BYU finish the 2015 regular season ranked No. 6 nationally in sacks per game and No. 15 in tackles for loss after the Cougars ranked No. 20 in rushing defense in 2014.

Despite having to defend more plays than all but four teams nationally in 2013 due to BYU's up-tempo offensive system, the Cougar defense ranked No. 12 nationally in yards-per-play defense, No. 16 in pass efficiency defense and No. 22 in scoring defense. Howell helped the BYU defense rank No. 3 in total defense (266.1 yards allowed) and No. 10 in passing yards allowed (179.2 yards per game) in 2012.

In 2011, Howell helped the defense rank No. 15 in pass efficiency defense, allowing a rating of 112.58. In that same year, the Cougars ranked No. 13 in overall defense.

Howell first came to BYU in 2007 as a defensive intern and then served two years as a graduate assistant before being hired as an assistant coach in 2010. Since first being hired at BYU by Mendenhall in 2007, he has helped coach defensive backs and linebackers. Howell started as a full-time coach working as the team's outside linebackers coach before taking over the BYU secondary partway through the 2010 season.

Prior to coming to BYU, Howell was the head coach at Ben Lomond High School (Ogden, Utah) from 2004-2006 and served as defensive coordinator at Weber High School (North Ogden, Utah) in 2003 and defensive line coach at Sky View High School (Smithfield, Utah) in 2002.

A native of Ogden, Utah, Howell earned a M.A. in education with teaching certification from the University of Phoenix in 2007 after receiving his undergraduate degree in history from Weber State in 2005. Howell and his wife Brooke have four children.

Howell's contributions at BYU helped the Cougars put one of the nation's top defenses on the field each year he was in Provo. In 2013, Howell was a candidate for the Broyles Award, given annually to the nation's top assistant coach.

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR/OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

KELLY POPPINGA

Kelly Poppinga enters his second season at Virginia on Bronco Mendenhall's staff and is the special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach.

Poppinga (PUH-ping-guh) oversaw one of the nation's most effective punters as Nicholas Conte was named a first-team All-ACC honoree and led the league with a 44.3 yards per punt average. The Ray Guy Award semifinalist led the nation through regular season with 34 punts inside the 20 and with 15 punts inside the 10, while six of his punts were downed at the one. Conte was No. 3 in the nation before bowl season with 23 punts of 50 yards or more. Between Conte's punts and the punt coverage team, 80 percent of UVA's punts were not returned. Conte concluded his UVA career No. 1 all-time at UVA and No. 3 all-time in the ACC with a 44.45 yards per punt average.

Poppinga started his collegiate coaching career at BYU, which began in 2009 as a defensive intern on Mendenhall's staff. In 2010 Poppinga was a defensive graduate assistant and interim outside linebacker coach. His first full-time position came in 2011 when Poppinga was elevated to linebacker coach.

From 2013-15 Poppinga was BYU's special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach.

Poppinga helped outside linebackers Kyle Van Noy and Alani Fua advance to the NFL in recent years with Van Noy selected by the Detroit Lions in the second round of the 2014 NFL Draft and Fua earning a spot with the Arizona Cardinals in 2015.

In 2014 BYU ranked No. 20 in rushing defense and Poppinga helped a defensive unit finish the 2015 regular season ranked No. 6 nationally in sacks per game and No. 15 in tackles for loss. Under Poppinga, BYU's special teams also ranked No. 7 in punting average and No. 19 in kick return coverage in 2014.

Poppinga assisted one of BYU's best-ever defenses in 2012 when the Cougars finished No. 3 in the nation in total defense and ranked in the top 10 in six different defensive categories.

Poppinga started his coaching career at BYU in 2009 as the defensive intern and contributed to the team's 11-2 record and 44-20 Maaco Bowl Las Vegas victory over No. 16 Oregon State. After the team's 1-4 start in 2010, Poppinga was asked as the defensive graduate assistant to assume the role as outside linebackers coach and helped the Cougars finish 6-2 over the remaining games, including a 52-24 win over UTEP at the New Mexico Bowl.

As a player, Poppinga was an All-Mountain West Conference linebacker and Academic All-MWC honoree at BYU under Mendenhall while helping the Cougars achieve back-to-back conference championships in 2006 and 2007. Poppinga redshirted Mendenhall's first season as head coach at BYU in 2005 after transferring from Utah State where he played two years (2003-04). Poppinga helped BYU achieve Las Vegas Bowl wins over Oregon and UCLA and led the team with 113 tackles his senior season. He spent the 2008 season with three NFL teams before going to Super Bowl XLIII with the Arizona Cardinals.

A native of Evanston, Wyo., Poppinga has completed bachelor's (2007) and master's (2010) degrees from BYU in exercise science. Poppinga and his wife, Rebekah, have four daughters.

RUNNING BACKS

MARK ATUAIA

Mark Atuaia enters his second season at Virginia on Bronco Mendenhall's staff and is the running backs coach.

Atuaia (Ah-too-why-ah) helped All-ACC running back Taquan Mizzell take a big step as a senior in 2016 as the tailback became the first player in ACC history with at least 1,500 career rushing and 1,500 career receiving yards. Under Atuaia's watchful eye, Mizzell developed into one of the nation's most durable backs, and was one of four players in the nation in 2016 to led his team in rushing (940) and receptions (52).

Atuaia has been with Mendenhall since 2013 when he joined the BYU staff as the running backs coach. In 2013 BYU's run game ranked No. 10 in the nation averaging 267.3 yards per game, setting a school record with 3,475 rushing yards. He tutored Jamaal Williams as the Cougar rushed for 1,233 yards and seven touchdowns in 2013 as a sophomore. Atuaia assisted in BYU's offense ranking No. 14 in scoring offensive in 2014 as BYU put up 37.1 points per game, the most points by a BYU team since 2001. In 2015 the BYU offense ranked No. 4 in the nation in red zone offense, scoring at a 94.3 percent clip.

Most recently Atuaia mentored Paul Lasike, a former BYU rugby All-American from Auckland, New Zealand. Under Atuaia's tutelage, the big running back played football for the first time ever in his life and after three seasons at BYU Lasike signed with the Chicago Bears in 2015.

"Coach Atuaia does a great job recognizing NFL talent in young athletes," reflected Lasike. "Making the transition from a lifetime rugby player to a first-time football player, he saw the potential in me and cultivated it. The chances of making it to the NFL are small regardless of how long you have played the game, but Coach Atuaia recognized my potential and was persistent in my development. He had the utmost faith and belief in what I can become, even when I didn't see it myself."

Atuaia has a history of working with big, strong and powerful running backs. As a student assistant at BYU from 2005-11, Atuaia was instrumental in the development of former NFL running backs Fahu Tahi, Fui Vakapuna, Harvey Unga and Manase Tonga during their time at BYU.

A former running back at BYU during the 1991 and 1994-96 seasons, Atuaia first joined the BYU athletic department in June 2012 as the assistant to the athletics director for student services. He previously worked as the assistant to the dean of Student Life at BYU. He accepted that position after graduating in 2011 with both a doctor of jurisprudence from BYU's J. Reuben Clark Law School and a master of public administration from the George W. Romney Institute of Public Management at BYU's Marriott School of Management.

During Atuaia's four-year playing career, BYU achieved a 39-11-2 record, won three conference titles and was ranked in the final top-25 national rankings three times. In addition, the offense was ranked in the top 10 nationally during three of his four seasons.

As a senior in 1996 he started 13 games on BYU's 14-1 Cotton Bowl team that finished the year ranked No. 5 in the country after defeating Kansas State 19-15 on New Year's Day 1997. Atuaia also helped BYU defeat Oklahoma 31-6 in the 1994 Cooper Bowl to finish ranked No. 10 by CNN and No. 18 by The Associated Press with a 10-3 record.

Atuaia totaled 1,247 yards on 301 carries (4.1 yards per attempt) with 11 touchdowns during his college career, while adding 68 catches for 668 yards (9.8 yards per catch) and four scoring receptions. His career-long rush was 51 yards while his long reception went for 61 yards. Atuaia also added 113 return yards as a member of the kick return team his freshman and sophomore seasons.

A native of Laie, Hawaii, Atuaia prepped at Kahuku High School before attending BYU. He served as a missionary for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Tucson, Ariz., from 1992-93. He received his bachelor's degree from BYU-Hawaii in 2003.

Atuaia and his wife Elizabeth, an accomplished recording artist and lead singer for the 1980s pop group The Jets, are the parents of seven children. His brothers Alema (1993, 1995-96) and Donny (1995-1999) also played football at BYU.

QUARTERBACKS

JASON BECK

Jason Beck enters his second season at Virginia on Bronco Mendenhall's staff and is the quarterbacks coach.

Under Beck's watchful eye, UVA quarterback Kurt Benkert set a couple of passing marks, including a program record for passing yards in a game with 421 against Central Michigan, which was only the second time a UVA quarterback surpassed 400 passing yards in a game. Benkert also became the fastest quarterback in a season to reach 1,000 and 2,000 yards of passing, doing so in four and eight games, respectively. Benkert's 21 passing touchdowns rank in a three-way tie with Shawn Moore (1990) and Bobby Goodman (1992) for second-most in a season by a UVA quarterback.

Beck, a former Cougar quarterback and offensive intern on Mendenhall's BYU coaching staff, returned to Provo in 2013 with six years of coaching experience, including stints at LSU, Weber State and Simon Fraser.

Beck helped true freshman Tanner Mangum break all BYU freshman QB marks in 2015 after taking over for injured Heisman hopeful Taysom Hill in the season opener. Mangum earned 2015 Freshman of the Year honors from the Touchdown Club of Columbus (Ohio) after he was the only freshman to finish the regular season with more than 3,000 passing yards and a 60 percent completion percentage.

In 2014, Beck helped BYU successfully navigate a season-ending injury to Hill in the season's fifth game as Hill and Christian Stewart combined to total 3,623 yards and 32 touchdowns on the year, including 25 TDs by Stewart. As a sophomore quarterback in 2013, Hill passed for 2,938 yards and 19 TDs while also rushing for 1,344 yards and 10 TDs under Beck's tutelage.

In 2012, Beck was hired as the offensive coordinator at Simon Fraser located in Burnaby, British Columbia, Canada. SFU is the first and only member of the NCAA located outside of the United States. Beck turned an offense that ranked last in the Great Northwest Athletic Conference in total offense, passing offense and scoring offense in 2011 into the league's No. 1-rated attack in all three categories during the program's first year as a full NCAA Division II member in 2012. The team nearly doubled its total touchdowns scored, going from 28 to 52, and more than tripled its passing TDs, jumping from nine to 28.

Under Beck's direction, the Clan offensive attack improved from 24 points per game to 34.3 points per contest to rank No. 36 overall in Div. II compared to a ranking of 109th the prior season. SFU also averaged 440.4 yards in total offense (No. 31 in Div. II) compared to 335.4 yards the prior year (which ranked 111th) and 306.3 passing yards (No. 14 in Div. II) compared to 147.4 yards through the air (which ranked 131st) in 2011.

Players also thrived individually as SFU quarterback Trey Wheeler ranked No. 14 in Div. II in passing yards per game at 297.1 yards per game while receiver Lemar Durant ranked No. 4 in receiving yards per game (119.8), No. 7 in receptions per game (8.27) and No. 18 in scoring (9.27 ppg). Durant received first-team all-conference, conference newcomer of the year, and All-America Second Team recognition with 82 catches for 1,227 yards and 16 TDs.

Beck served as quarterbacks coach at Weber State in Ogden, Utah, for three years from 2009-2011 under head coach Ron McBride. Under his tutelage, Wildcat quarterback Cameron Higgins set school records for most career passing yards (12,274), most career touchdowns passes (98), most career total touchdowns (105), most career pass completions (935) and career passing efficiency rating (144.5). Higgins completed his career as one of the most prolific players in Big Sky Conference history, ranking No. 1 in passing touchdowns, No. 2 in total touchdowns and No. 3 in total offense.

Prior to Weber State, Beck served the 2008 season as an offensive intern at LSU working with the quarterbacks under offensive coordinator Gary Crowton on Les Miles' staff. He also assisted with quarterbacks as an offensive intern on Mendenhall's staff at BYU in 2007 with Robert Anae as the offensive coordinator.

As a player at BYU, Beck served as the backup to All-American quarterback John Beck from 2004-2006, including a redshirt year due to an injury suffered his junior season. He totaled 553 passing yards and 28 rushing yards, including 305 yards on 20-of-28 passing in his lone start in a 38-0 victory over Utah State his senior season.

Beck transferred to BYU from College of the Canyons in Santa Clarita, Calif., where he led the COC Cougars to an 11-1 season and Western States Conference Northern Division title as a sophomore. A unanimous first-team All-Western States Conference pick, he led COC to a No. 1 ranking in California and No. 4 national JC ranking, throwing for 2,052 yards while completing 77.5 percent of his passes. He also added 430 rushing yards. Current UVA offensive line coach Garrett Tujague was the COC offensive line coach during Beck's year in Santa Clarita.

A Junior College Academic All-American, Beck spent his freshman season at Ventura College after prepping at Hueneme High School in his hometown of Oxnard, Calif. Before starting college, he served a two-year mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Denver, Colo., from 1999-2001.

Beck earned bachelor's and master's degrees in communications from BYU in 2006 and 2011. He is married to former BYU soccer standout Jaime Rendich, and they have a daughter, Peyton, and twin sons, Cameron and Jackson. Jaime was a four-year starter and All-American midfielder/forward during her BYU career from 2002-05.

WIDE RECEIVERS

MARQUES HAGANS

Marques Hagans enters his fifth season at Virginia as a full-time assistant coach and his second on Bronco Mendenhall staff as the wide receivers coach. Hagans spent the 2011 and 2012 seasons at UVA as a graduate assistant, working with the offense.

In 2016 three members of the wide-receiving corps combined for 150 catches for 1,686 receiving yards and 14 touchdowns. Olamide Zaccheaus led the wide-receiving group with 51 receptions and seven touchdowns. Doni Dowling led the team with 626 receiving yards on his 50 catches and four scores. Rounding out the group was senior Keeon Johnson, who made 49 catches for 476 yards and three touchdowns. Johnson became the fourth UVA wide receiver to reach the career 1,000-yard receiving plateau under Hagans' watch. Johnson became the 36th Cavalier all-time to reach the milestone in 2016.

Wide receiver Canaan Severin thrived under Hagans earning second-team All-ACC honors in 2015 after finishing the regular season ranked No. 3 in the ACC with 759 receiving yards. Severin's 759 receiving yards also ranks No. 15 all-time in the UVA record book for a season. Severin caught 54 passes and eight touchdowns. The 54 receptions tie him with Herman Moore (1990) for No. 11 all-time in the UVA annals for catches in a season. In 2015 Severin became the 20th player in program history with 100 receptions and finished his career No. 19 all-time with 102 catches, 96 of which came over the 2014 and 2015 seasons. Severin finished his career with 1,383 receiving yards, which ranks No. 15 all-time in the UVA record book.

Severin's rise began in 2014 under Hagans. As a junior Severin led UVA with 42 catches for 578 yards and five touchdowns after entering the season with six career receptions.

Hagans oversaw the emergence of freshman wide receiver Keeon Johnson in 2013. Despite not playing the first four games of a potential redshirt season, Johnson completed one of the best true freshman seasons in recent UVA history, catching 20 passes for 282 yards and a score in the final eight games of the season.

Hagans was a four-year letterwinner at UVA from 2002-05 and currently is No. 7 all-time in passing at UVA with 4,877 passing yards. He finished his career at No. 5, but has since been passed by Jameel Seweel and Marc Verica, the two starting quarterbacks to follow him in Charlottesville. Hagans is No. 5 all-time at UVA in total offense with 5,779 yards and his 2005 season ranks No. 3 all-time with 2,802 total yards. Only his predecessor, Matt Schaub (2002 & 2003), and current quarterback Matt Johns (2015) had better seasons in the UVA annals in regards to total offense.

The St. Louis Rams selected Hagans in the fifth round (144 overall) of the 2006 NFL Draft. He spent three seasons with the Rams before being picked up by the Kansas City Chiefs for the 2009 campaign. Hagans finished the 2009 season with the Washington Redskins and was released in the summer of 2010 after injuring himself in off-season workouts.

Hagans is a native of Hampton, Va., and graduated from Hampton High School after spending two years at neighboring Bethel High School. As a junior at Hampton, Hagans led the Crabbers to the state championship in Group AAA, Division 5 of the Virginia High School League in 1998. Hampton advanced to the state semifinals in Hagans' senior season in 1999.

Hagans graduated with a degree in anthropology from UVA in 2005 and is currently finishing a graduate degree in professional studies.

Hagans resides in Charlottesville with his wife, the former Lauren Swierczek, a former Cavalier women's basketball player. The couple has two sons, Christopher Dex and Jackson Watford.

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

SHANE HUNTER

Shane Hunter enters his second season at Virginia on Bronco Mendenhall's staff and is the inside linebackers coach.

Hunter oversaw first-team All-ACC linebacker Micah Kiser who lead the ACC in tackles for the second year in a row with 134, which is tied with former Cavalier great Wali Rainer for fourth-most in a single season in program history. Kiser also earned All-American honors as he ranked No. 4 nationally in tackles. Kiser also was successful in the classroom, earning second-team CoSIDA Academic All-America honors.

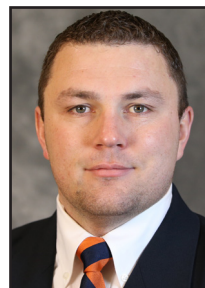

Hunter was a graduate assistant coach on Mendenhall's staff at BYU the last three seasons, where he worked with the defensive front seven and special teams. The former Cougar linebacker was the defensive line coach at Snow College during the 2011 and 2012 seasons and was also the special teams coordinator in his second season with the Badgers.

Hunter is a 2011 graduate of BYU where he earned his degree in exercise science. As a player, Hunter was a middle linebacker for the Cougars during the 2008, 2009 and 2010 seasons and he started all 13 games as senior. During the 2010 season, Hunter recorded 85 tackles, 3.5 tackles for loss, two interceptions, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery and earned honorable mention All-Mountain West Conference honors.

He was also named to the Academic All-Mountain West Conference team and was a member of the National Football Foundation Hampshire Honor Society. The Idaho Falls, Idaho native spent his freshman season at Snow College.

Hunter is married to Carrie Draper and the couple has three children.

DEFENSIVE LINE

VIC SO'OTO

In June of 2017, Vic So'oto was elevated to the position of assistant coach for the Cavaliers' defensive line after originally joining the Virginia football program in 2016 as a graduate assistant coach.

So'oto was a four-time letterwinner at BYU where he began his career as a tight end and played his final three seasons at linebacker and defensive end where he earned All-Mountain West Conference honors as a senior in 2010. He was the first player to commit to the Cougars' program when Bronco Mendenhall was named head coach.

During his career he suffered two season-ending injuries and was granted a sixth year of eligibility by the NCAA. He had 12 receptions for 124 yards on offense for the Cougars and tallied 55 tackles, 15.5 tackles for loss, six sacks and one interception on defense. He earned his undergraduate degree in geography in 2010.

So'oto made the Green Bay Packers roster in 2011 as a free agent and appeared in seven games. So'oto's NFL career spanned four seasons and he went on the play for the Oakland Raiders (2012), Washington Redskins (2012), Arizona Cardinals (2013), New Orleans Saints (2013) and Pittsburgh Steelers (2014).

So'oto started his post-playing career under Mendenhall at BYU as an intern in the football office in 2015 working with special projects and came to Charlottesville as a graduate assistant in 2016.

So'oto is a second cousin of NFL Hall of Fame linebacker Junior Seau. A native of Oceanside, Calif., he and his wife Ashley, who was Mendenhall's personal assistant in the football office at BYU, have four children -- Fia, Ave, Tre and Samson.

OFFENSIVE LINE

GARETT TUJAGUE

Garett Tujague enters his second season at Virginia on Bronco Mendenhall's staff and is the offensive line coach.

In 2016 Tujague (TOO-jay) oversaw a line headed by Rimington Trophy watch list member Jackson Matteo and four-year starter Eric Smith. Tujague's line helped make UVA running back Taquan Mizzell become the first player in ACC history with at least 1,500 career rushing and 1,500 career receiving yards. UVA quarterback Kurt Benkert set a couple passing marks in front of Tujague's line, including a program record for passing yards in a game with 421 against Central Michigan, which was only the second time a UVA quarterback surpassed 400 passing yards in a game. Benkert also became the fastest quarterback in a season to reach 1,000 and 2,000 yards of passing, doing so in four and eight games, respectively.

Tujague was Mendenhall's offensive line coach at BYU from 2013-15 after serving 15 years at the College of the Canyons in Santa Clarita, Calif., from 1997-2012, the last six as head coach. Under his direction, the COC Cougars earned a 43-25 record and received five bowl invitations in his six seasons. Under Tujague's guidance, BYU center Tejan Koroma earned freshman All-America honors in 2014 after helping BYU rank No. 14 in the nation in scoring.

While at College of the Canyons, Tujague coached and developed three conference players of the year, an all-state player of the year, eight all-state athletes and five JC All-Americans at COC. His teams earned three postseason wins and he was named the Southern California Football Association National Conference Coach of the Year in 2008 following a 12-1 season. He was also honored as the Western States Conference Co-Coach of the Year in 2007 after a 9-3 record.

Prior to his promotion to head coach in 2007, Tujague served nine years as assistant head coach and offensive line coach at COC under Chuck Lyon, helping build the program upon its reinstatement in 1998 after 17 years without football. Before College of the Canyons, he coached at Chabot College from 1993-95 and the University of Redlands from 1996-97. While at Redlands, the Bulldogs won two Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Championships.

As a player, Tujague was a left guard at BYU under LaVell Edwards from 1989-1991 after two years at Chabot College, where he earned All-America honors as an offensive lineman. After redshirting at BYU in 1989, he contributed to the Cougars' second-straight 10-3 season and top-25 final ranking in 1990. Statistically, the offense ranked No. 2 in the nation at 565.8 yards per game while also rating No. 2 in scoring, putting up 42.5 points per contest.

As a senior in 1991, Tujague earned starting duties protecting Heisman Trophy winner and consensus All-American quarterback Ty Detmer. The Cougar offensive front helped BYU rank No. 5 in total offense at 479.5 yards per outing and No. 11 nationally in scoring at 35 points per game. The Cougars won the conference championship all three seasons Tujague was in Provo.

Tujague received a bachelor's degree in recreation management from BYU in 1992 and a master's degree in educational counseling from the University of Redlands in 1997. A native of Pleasanton, Calif., Tujague and his wife, Cami, are the parents of three children, Savannah, Summer and Carson.

FRANK WINTRICH

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL PERFORMANCE

Frank Wintrich joined the Virginia football program as its director of football performance in January of 2016. He came to UVA with 13 years of experience on the collegiate level, including the 2015 season at BYU as a member of Bronco Mendenhall's staff.

Wintrich provides the Cavaliers with integrated short and long term physical preparation training. A highlight of this training is the implementation of the multi-year system of training known as P.A.D.S. This program incorporates a holistic approach to the development of athletes, ensuring the mastery of one skill before moving forward with the development of a more advanced skill.

Training begins with developing the minds of athletes through the utilization of the Self Aware Athlete program. This educational resource teaches athletes how to understand their bodies in order to better provide for their everyday physical and emotional needs. Performance Program Principles dictate athletes train safely, with a focus on strength development along with skills specific to their individual needs and most importantly developing the Warrior Mindset -- a program established in conjunction with former USMC Force Reconnaissance Marines and PhDs in sport psychology.

Prior to BYU, he spent four seasons at North Texas as the director of football performance where he helped the Mean Green advance to their first bowl appearance in 10 years. He arrived in Denton from South Florida, where he was the associate director of strength and conditioning for three seasons for the Bulls, helping USF advance to three bowl games from 2008 to 2010.

He spent two seasons (2006 and 2007) as the director of athletic development at The Citadel, directing the strength program that provided all aspects of athletic development for 15 varsity sports. Under his leadership, the program underwent a total makeover, including renovation of the strength training facility, expansion of the athletic development staff and the unification of training protocols for all athletes, while primarily working with football and baseball.

Wintrich served for two seasons (2004-05) as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Utah State and one year (2003) as a conditioning assistant at Arizona State. He began his strength and conditioning career as the head strength coach at Hardin-Simmons in 2002.

Wintrich earned his bachelor's degree in sports and fitness management from Kentucky Wesleyan College in 2002. While at KWC, Wintrich was nominated team captain two consecutive years and was a two-time All-American at linebacker.

Wintrich is from Seminole, Fla.

FAMIKA ANAE

GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Famika Anae is in his second season as a graduate assistant coach at Virginia. He is the son of Cavalier offensive coordinator Robert Anae.

Anae joins the UVA staff after graduating from BYU in 2015. He played three seasons for the Cougars before having his career cut short due to injuries. He stayed involved with the BYU program as an undergraduate assistant.

Anae enrolled at BYU in 2010 and suffered a ACL injury during spring camp. In 2011 he appeared in four games as a backup offensive lineman and earned his first letter.

In 2012, his last season as a player at BYU, he played in four games and started at Hawaii. During that game, he helped BYU rush for a season-best 396 yards in the 47-0 victory against the Rainbow Warriors. He retired from football shortly after that game due to chronic knee issues.

Anae played high school football at Timpview in Provo, Utah. He helped the team to the 2006 4A state title.

JACKSON MATTEO

GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Jackson Matteo is in his first season as a graduate assistant coach at Virginia. He will work with the defense.

Matteo, a four-year letter winner at Virginia, started 24 straight games for the Cavaliers at center from 2015-16. He was on the Remington Trophy Watch List in 2016 as one of the nation's top centers. Matteo helped block for Taquan Mizzell, the first player in ACC history with 1,500 career rushing and 1,500 career receiving yards. He earned VaSID second-team all-state honors after leading UVA with 36 cut blocks.

Matteo, a native of Ashburn, Va., is a 2016 graduate of Virginia with a degree in sociology. He played high school football at Broad Run High School.

DREW MEYER

GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Drew Meyer is in his first season as a graduate assistant coach at Virginia. He will work with the special teams.

Meyer is a former All-Big Ten punter from Wisconsin, earning four letters for the Badgers. Punting for Wisconsin from 2012-15, Meyer left Madison with more punts (256) than anyone in program history. He left Wisconsin third on the team's career punting yardage list (10,125 yards) and eighth all-time in punt average (39.8 yards per punt). Meyer is also tied for the program record for games played with 54.

Meyer, a native of Hartland, Wis., is a 2016 graduate of Wisconsin with a degree in agricultural business management. He played high school football at Arrowhead High School. In 2016 Meyer started his coaching career at his alma mater, Arrowhead High School, working with special teams.

ALBERT REID

GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Albert Reid is in his first season as a graduate assistant coach at Virginia. He will work with the defense.

Reid, a two-year letterwinner at UVA, appeared in 22 games for the Cavaliers after transferring from Maryland in 2015. He finished his college career with 1,287 combined rushing yards on 286 combined rushes between his two years at Virginia (2015-16) and his three seasons at Maryland (2012-14). Reid also rushed for 12 collegiate touchdowns between Maryland and UVA, nine of which came with the Cavaliers. Reid had his best collegiate season on the ground in 2016 when he rushed for 480 yards on 98 carries. Reid led UVA with six rushing touchdowns in 2016.

Reid, a native of Washington, D.C., is a 2015 graduate of Maryland with a degree in criminology and criminal justice. He played high school football at Friendship Collegiate. He has one son, Ayden.

Peach Bowl

Dec. 31, 1984—Atlanta, Ga.
Virginia 27, Purdue 24

Using a potent rushing attack and an stifling second-half defense, Virginia stormed back from a 10-point halftime deficit to defeat Purdue 27-24 in the 1984 Peach Bowl. Playing in their first bowl ever, the Cavaliers completed the season at 8-2-2. Virginia was ranked 17th by The Associated Press and 20th by United Press International in the final polls.

The first half was all Purdue as quarterback Jim Everett threw for three touchdown passes to give the Big Ten opponent a 24-14 lead.

UVA's two touchdowns came on an 11-yard run by tailback Howard Petty and a three-yard pass from quarterback Don Majkowski to tight end Geno Zimmerlink. The Boilermakers contained Virginia's running game, holding running backs Petty and Barry Word to a combined 68 yards rushing in the first half.

In the second half Virginia managed to establish its running game and create a pass rush to disrupt Everett with a variety of blitzes. It worked and Purdue did not score in the final two quarters. On a crucial fourth quarter drive—with Purdue driving for a possible go-ahead touchdown—Ray Daly, the game's defensive MVP, preserved the Cavalier lead by intercepting an errant Everett pass.

Virginia's rushing attack was sparked by the blocking of linemen Jim Dombrowski and Bob Olderman, as the Cavalier backfield of Majkowski, Petty, and Word kept the Purdue defense off balance with a combination of sweeps, dives, and options. Churning out nearly 200 yards rushing in the second half, the Cavalier offense was virtually unstoppable, moving the ball consistently up the field. By the end of the game, Petty—the game's offensive MVP—had gained 114 yards on 21 carries while Word added 86 yards on 17 carries.

After a one-yard touchdown run by Majkowski and a 19-yard field goal by UVA kicker Kenny Stadlin, the Cavaliers and the Boilermakers were deadlocked at 24 midway through the fourth quarter. UVA then drove down to the Purdue one-yard line before Stadlin converted a 22-yard field goal with 7:17 remaining in the game to provide the winning margin.

All American Bowl

Dec. 22, 1987—Birmingham, Ala.
Virginia 22, Brigham Young 16

In what was billed as a high scoring, offensive shootout between Virginia quarterback Scott Secules—the ACC's top-rated passer—and BYU's Sean Covey, the Cavaliers relied instead on a conservative run-oriented attack and several big defensive stands to defeat pass-happy BYU, 22-16, in the 1987 All American Bowl at Legion Field in Birmingham, Ala.

Virginia captured its second bowl victory in as many tries to finish the 1987 season with an 8-4 overall record.

Hoping to keep Covey and a host of talented BYU receivers on the sidelines as long as possible, Virginia successfully controlled the tempo of the game, mixing hard-nosed rushing by running backs Kevin Morgan (82 yards), Marcus Wilson (77 yards) and Durwin Greggs (33 yards) with timely passing by Secules (10 completions for 162 yards and one TD)—the game's MVP.

Trailing 3-0 after BYU's initial drive in the first quarter, Virginia answered on its next possession with a two-yard TD run by Secules. The Cavaliers added another touchdown—this time on a 25-yard run by Morgan—to go up 14-3 at the half.

BYU opened the scoring in the third quarter with an eight-yard run by Fred Whittingham, but the Cougars' two-point conversion attempt failed. Virginia then widened its lead in the fourth quarter with a 22-yard touchdown pass from Secules to wide receiver John Ford. Secules' PAT fake allowed Marcus Wilson to get open in the end zone for a two-point conversion reception, giving the Cavaliers a 22-9 lead.

BYU's second touchdown—a one-yard pass from Covey to Whittingham—closed the gap to 22-16 before the UVA defense rose to the occasion to preserve the victory. In one of the game's biggest plays, Virginia held on downs with 3:50 left as defensive end Sean Scott tackled Covey just short of a first down on BYU's own 46-yard line. Earlier in the game—in the Cougars' first possession of the third quarter—Virginia halted BYU on fourth-and-goal at the Cavalier two-yard line.

"Without those plays, we don't win," said head coach George Welsh afterwards.

Florida Citrus Bowl

Jan. 1, 1990—Orlando, Fla.
Illinois 31, Virginia 21

Virginia capped a season of giddy firsts with a New Year's Day showdown against Big Ten runner-up Illinois in the 1990 Florida Citrus Bowl in Orlando, Fla.

Making their first-ever New Year's Day bowl appearance, the Cavaliers suffered only their third loss of the season with a 31-21 defeat. The setback did little, however, to detract from a success-filled campaign that included the school's first 10-win season as well as a share of Virginia's first-ever Atlantic Coast Conference Championship.

Although the Illini had the advantage in total offense (497 yards to 322) and time of possession (34:30 to 25:30), the game remained close most of the way, as the two teams combined for seven turnovers and failed to capitalize on a number of scoring opportunities.

In the end, it was Illinois—behind a solid running game and the passing of quarterback Jeff George—that prevailed.

The NFL's number-one draft pick in 1990 by the Indianapolis Colts, George was named the game's Most Valuable Player after completing 26 of 38 passes for 321 yards and three touchdowns. He was intercepted once.

Virginia's attack was centered around quarterback Shawn Moore, who accounted for 225 yards in total offense for the Cavaliers. He completed 17 of 27 passes for 191 yards while throwing two touchdowns and two interceptions. Moore also rushed 15 times for 34 yards and was named the team's offensive MVP.

After a first-quarter score by Illinois, Virginia tied the game 7-7 in the second quarter with a 30-yard touchdown pass from Moore to wide receiver Tim Finkelston. Illinois then took the lead for good after scoring on a key fourth-and-goal situation. George faked a handoff to fullback Howard Griffith—who dove into the end zone—and then hit wide-open tight end Dan Donovan for the go-ahead touchdown. Illinois added a 34-yard field goal with no time remaining on the clock to lead 17-7 at intermission.

Illinois led 24-7 in the third quarter before Virginia answered with a two-yard touchdown run by tailback Marcus Wilson. Following another Illinois touchdown in the fourth quarter, Virginia closed out the scoring with a four-yard touchdown pass from Shawn Moore to Herman Moore.

Freshman defensive end Chris Slade was UVA's defensive MVP. He recorded a game-high 11 tackles, including a 19-yard sack of George.

USF&G Sugar Bowl

Jan. 1, 1991—New Orleans, La.
Tennessee 23, Virginia 22

For 59 minutes and 29 seconds, Virginia didn't trail Tennessee in the 1991 USF&G Sugar Bowl. Unfortunately for the Cavaliers, the game lasts 60 minutes.

After leading the entire contest—including a 16-0 halftime cushion—Virginia allowed 20 points in the final quarter, to fall to Tennessee 23-22 in the 1991 Sugar Bowl. The Volunteers scored the winning touchdown with 31 seconds left in the game. The Cavaliers closed their season 8-4 after a 7-0 start and a number-one national ranking for three consecutive weeks.

Everything seemed to go right for UVA in the first half. Virginia had possession of the ball for nearly 22 minutes. The defense held a strong UT offense to just 125 total yards, eight first downs and no points. Virginia's Nikki Fisher and Terry Kirby combined for over 100 rushing yards and quarterback Shawn Moore completed nine of 14 passes.

The second half was a different story.

Tennessee erupted for 339 total yards in the half and scored touchdowns on all three possessions in the fourth quarter. The Cavaliers rushed for 139 second-half yards but did not complete a pass the entire half.

Moore, suffering from a late-season thumb injury, did not complete a pass in eight attempts in the second half.

The lack of an effective passing game also took away from Virginia's other explosive offensive weapon—All-America wide receiver Herman Moore. He caught two passes for 13 yards in the first quarter.

Possibly the turning point of the game came late in the third quarter. UVA led 16-3 and had the ball first-and-10 on the Tennessee 17-yard line. Three plays later, Shawn Moore was intercepted at the Vols' six-yard line with 35 seconds left in the quarter.

Tennessee marched 94 yards for a touchdown, cutting the lead to 16-10. Virginia responded with a field goal to move ahead 19-10. The Vols came right back with an 80-yard scoring drive but UVA again responded with another field goal to make it 22-17 with 2:31 left in the game.

Tennessee then marched 79 yards in two minutes to go ahead 23-22. Virginia took over on its 38-yard line with 31 seconds left and Matt Blundin was inserted at quarterback. He threw an incomplete pass, was sacked and was intercepted to end the game and Virginia's season.

Gator Bowl

Dec. 29, 1991—Jacksonville, Fla.
Oklahoma 48, Virginia 14

Departing from its traditionally conservative run-oriented game plan in favor of a more wide-open offensive attack, Big Eight Conference power Oklahoma rolled to a decisive 48-14 victory over Virginia in the 1991 Gator Bowl in Jacksonville, Fla.

For UVA, the loss snapped an eight-game unbeaten streak and was a disappointing ending to an otherwise outstanding season. Making its third consecutive bowl appearance and fourth in five years, the Cavaliers finished the 1991 season with an 8-3-1 record.

After punting to end its first possession of the game, Oklahoma opened the scoring in the first quarter with a 10-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Cale Gundy to tight end Joey Mickey. The Sooners then scored touchdowns on each of their next four possessions to run up a 34-0 second-quarter lead.

Virginia managed to get on the scoreboard with 2:24 remaining in the first half when quarterback Matt Blundin completed a 22-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Tyrone Davis. The Cavaliers had an opportunity to score again seconds later when UVA defensive end Mike Frederick recovered an Oklahoma fumble on the Sooners' own 22-yard line, but the OU defense held the Cavaliers on downs.

Oklahoma engineered two more touchdown drives in the third quarter to put the game out of reach. Virginia closed the scoring with a 23-yard fourth-quarter TD pass from Blundin to wide receiver Terrence Tomlin.

The Sooners' offensive strategy was executed to near-perfection by Gundy, who completed 25 of 31 passes for 329 yards and two touchdowns without an interception. He was named the game's Most Valuable Player.

Tailback Mike Gaddis led Oklahoma's rushing attack with 20 carries for 104 yards and three TDs.

Oklahoma controlled possession for nearly 38 minutes, piled up 618 yards in total offense and picked up 36 first downs. Virginia was held to a season-low 243 yards in total offense and managed just 13 first downs.

Blundin—the 1991 ACC Player of the Year—completed 12 of 26 passes for 142 yards and two touchdowns with one interception.

Carquest Bowl

Jan. 1, 1994—Miami/
Boston College 31, Virginia 13

Virginia fell to Boston College 31-13 in the 1994 Carquest Bowl, as a disappointing second-half performance enabled the Eagles to pull away after leading by four points at halftime. UVA, making its third New Year's Day bowl appearance in five years, finished the season with a 7-5 record.

Boston College quarterback Glenn Foley—named the game's Most Valuable Player—overcame a shaky first-half start, finishing with 391 yards and three passing touchdowns to spark the Eagles' victory.

The lead changed hands several times in the first 30 minutes before Boston College gained a 17-13 halftime advantage. Despite committing two first-half turnovers, BC also held the edge in total offensive yards (309 to 238), time of possession (16:01 to 13:59) and first downs (17 to 12). Virginia missed two field goals (37 and 29 yards) and an extra-point attempt.

UVA grabbed the early momentum on the third play of the game when linebacker Jamie Sharper tipped a Foley pass into the hands of Randy Neal. Neal returned the interception 19 yards to the BC 19-yard line. Tailback Jerrod Washington ran 11 yards for a touchdown two plays later, giving Virginia a 7-0 lead just over a minute into the game.

Trailing 10-7 midway through the second quarter, Virginia drove 91 yards in 12 plays to briefly retake the lead on a seven-yard touchdown run by fullback Charles Way. The extra-point attempt failed as UVA was held scoreless the rest of the game.

Boston College took the ensuing kickoff and drove 80 yards in nine plays for a touchdown to complete the first-half scoring. The Eagles reached the end zone on a five-yard pass from Foley to split end Clarence Cannon. Foley and Cannon also teamed up for a 78-yard touchdown pass play earlier in the second quarter.

UVA's best scoring opportunity of the second half came after Boston College failed on fourth-and-one from its own 49-yard line fewer than four minutes into the third quarter. The Cavaliers failed to capitalize, unable to pick up a first down on fourth-and-three from the BC 30-yard line.

The game seemed to quickly unravel for Virginia from that point on as Boston College took over on downs and scored five plays later on Foley's third touchdown pass of the game. The Eagles added a rushing touchdown in the fourth quarter to provide the final margin of victory. UVA managed just 60 yards of total offense and four first downs in the second half.

Independence Bowl

Dec. 28, 1994—Shreveport, La.
Virginia 20, Texas Christian 10

Not even a cold, driving rain that drenched both teams and transformed a grass football field into a virtual mud bath by halftime could dampen Cavalier spirits following Virginia's convincing 20-10 win over Texas Christian at the Poulan/Weed Eater Independence Bowl.

With the victory, Virginia finished the 1994 campaign with a 9-3 record and ended a four-game bowl losing streak. The victory also helped Virginia gain its highest final season rankings (15th) since the AP began conducting its final poll after the outcome of bowl games in 1965. In addition, the 1994 Cavaliers distinguished themselves by becoming only the third team in UVA history to win nine or more games.

Virginia relied on a dominating defense and a balanced offensive attack to overwhelm the Horned Frogs. The Cavaliers outgained TCU 436 to 191 in total offensive yards and controlled the ball for over 32 minutes.

Leading the Cavaliers' aerial assault was quarterback Mike Groh—named Offensive Player of the Game—who completed 14 of 23 passes for 199 yards and a touchdown with two interceptions. Tailback Kevin Brooks led all rushers with 114 yards on 17 carries while fullback Charles Way rushed for 90 yards and a touchdown.

Defensively, Virginia limited TCU's high-powered offense to just 65 yards passing and 126 yards rushing. Defensive end Mike Frederick was named Defensive Player of the Game after finishing with four tackles.

The Cavaliers scored twice in the second quarter to take a 10-3 halftime lead. Rafael Garcia opened the game's scoring with a 20-yard field goal with 10:20 remaining in the first half. Virginia later scored on a six-yard touchdown run by Way. UVA's touchdown drive was set up by a 52-yard run by Brooks. It was the longest non-scoring run in the bowl's history.

UVA opened up a commanding 20-3 lead in the third quarter on a 37-yard touchdown pass from Groh to wide receiver Tyrone Davis and a 32-yard field goal by Garcia.

Following a one-yard touchdown pass play by Texas Christian early in the fourth quarter, Virginia held TCU scoreless the rest of the way to seal the win.

Peach Bowl

Dec. 30, 1995—Atlanta, Ga.
Virginia 34, Georgia 27

Over 20,000 deliriously happy Virginia fans rocked Atlanta's Georgia Dome as Demetrius "Pete" Allen returned a kickoff 83 yards for the game-winning touchdown with 57 seconds remaining in UVA's 34-27 victory over Georgia in the 1995 Peach Bowl.

Virginia finished the season with a 9-4 record, clinching its second consecutive nine-win season. The Cavaliers were ranked 16th in the final AP poll and 17th in the final USA Today/CNN coaches' poll.

The victory was a fitting finale to one of the most suspenseful seasons in UVA football history. Virginia played seven games during the 1995 regular season that were decided in the final moments, including three which were decided on the last play.

Only seconds before Allen's spectacular return, Georgia defensive tackle Jason Ferguson picked up a Cavalier fumble behind the line of scrimmage and ran 10 yards for the game-tying score. Georgia was penalized 15 yards for unsportsmanlike conduct following the touchdown, forcing the Bulldogs to kick off from their own 20-yard line.

Although UVA never trailed in the game, the Bulldogs outgained the Cavaliers 525 yards to 256 yards in total offense. UVA managed to capitalize on big plays from its defense and special teams, however, to take a commanding 14-0 first quarter lead. Linebacker Skeet Jones—named the Defensive Player of the Game—set up UVA's first scoring drive by intercepting a pass and returning it 28 yards to the Bulldog seven-yard line. Barber scored three plays later on a one-yard run.

Virginia began its second scoring drive from the Georgia 14-yard line after James Farrior blocked a punt which was recovered by Josh Nowocin. Kevin Brooks rushed five yards for a score three plays later.

Virginia led 24-14 at halftime following a Georgia touchdown with 19 seconds remaining in the second quarter.

In addition to his late-game heroics, Allen caught an 82-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Mike Groh to give Virginia its biggest lead, 24-6, late in the second quarter. Allen led the Cavaliers in receiving with five catches for 111 yards and a touchdown. Groh completed 10 of 20 passes for 156 yards and a touchdown.

Carquest Bowl

Dec. 27, 1996—Miami, Fla.
Miami 31, Virginia 21

Miami defensive back Tremain Mack stole the show in the Hurricanes' 31-21 victory over Virginia in the 1996 Carquest Bowl. Named the game's MVP, Mack returned a first-quarter Cavalier fumble 79 yards for a touchdown and scored again in the second quarter on a 42-yard interception return. He also blocked a Virginia field goal attempt in the third quarter.

Making its eighth bowl appearance in the last 10 years, Virginia finished the 1996 season with a 7-5 overall record.

The Hurricanes set the tone early, capping their first possession of the game with a 70-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Ryan Clement to wide receiver Yatil Green. Miami bolted to a 14-0 lead on Mack's recovered fumble return before the Cavaliers answered with a 29-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Aaron Brooks to wide receiver Germane Crowell.

Miami led 24-7 at halftime, following a second-quarter field goal and Mack's second touchdown of the game.

Early in the third quarter UVA safety Anthony Poindexter blocked a punt and Virginia recovered the ball on the Miami one-yard line. The Cavaliers scored one play later on a quarterback sneak by Brooks.

Virginia was in good position to score again midway through the third quarter after driving deep into Miami to the six-yard line, but the Cavaliers' 29-yard field goal attempt was blocked by Mack.

UVA got the ball back two plays later after cornerback Ronde Barber intercepted his second pass of the day and returned it to the 50-yard line. Virginia then marched to the Miami 27-yard line only to have another field goal attempt—this time from 44 yards out—blocked. The Hurricanes went on to score to take a 31-14 lead with 10:14 remaining in the game.

Following the ensuing kickoff, Virginia put together a six-play, 51-yard scoring drive that culminated in a three-yard touchdown run by tailback Thomas Jones with 7:57 left to play.

Poindexter led the Cavalier defense with 11 tackles, including six solo stops. He also recovered a fumble in addition to blocking a punt.

Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl

Dec. 31, 1998—Atlanta, Ga.
Georgia 35, Virginia 33

For the second time in four years, Virginia and Georgia clashed in the Peach Bowl in front of a sellout Georgia Dome crowd. The ending to the sequel was not nearly as satisfying for Cavalier fans, however, as 19th-ranked Georgia overcame a 21-0 first-half deficit and withstood a late Virginia rally to defeat 13th-ranked UVA 35-33.

UVA trailed 35-27 in the fourth quarter before quarterback Aaron Brooks scored on a 30-yard run with 1:34 left in the game. Virginia's two-point conversion attempt failed, but the Cavaliers regained possession when defensive back Devon Simmons recovered the ensuing onside kick at UVA's own 47-yard line. Virginia then drove to the Georgia 31, setting up a potential game-winning 48-yard field goal attempt by Todd Braverman with 19 seconds remaining, but his kick drifted wide right.

Georgia quarterback Quincy Carter threw three second-quarter interceptions, all of which led to Virginia touchdowns. Running back Anthony Southern rushed two yards for UVA's first score with 10:30 left in the first half following a 26-yard interception return by linebacker Wali Rainer. On Georgia's next possession, Carter was intercepted by defensive back Adrian Burnim at the Cavaliers' 31. Virginia scored six plays later on a 43-yard pass from Brooks to wide receiver Terrence Wilkins. A 22-yard interception return by defensive back Tim Spruill set up UVA's first touchdown, a 24-yard scoring strike from Brooks to tailback Thomas Jones.

The Bulldogs capitalized on a blocked punt just before the half, taking over on downs at the UVA 49-yard line and scoring six plays later on an 11-yard pass. Georgia added two more touchdowns in the third quarter to tie the score at 21 before Virginia answered with a 67-yard touchdown pass play from Brooks to Wilkins, who broke free from several defenders on his way to the end zone. UVA missed the extra-point and led 27-21 late in the third quarter.

Georgia regained the lead 28-27 early in the fourth quarter on a two-yard scoring run by running back Olandis Gary and later added a one-yard touchdown run by Carter with 7:01 left to play.

Brooks completed 12 of 32 passes for 226 yards and three touchdowns with one interception. He also rushed 14 times for 88 yards and one touchdown. Jones led the Cavaliers with 96 yards rushing on 23 carries.

Micronpc.com Bowl

Dec. 30, 1999—Miami, Fla.
Illinois 63, Virginia 21

Sparked by the versatile play of quarterback Kurt Kittner, Illinois handed Virginia its worst postseason loss in school history, defeating the Cavaliers 63-21 in the Micronpc.com Bowl at Pro Player Stadium.

Virginia finished the 1999 season with a 7-5 overall record.

Kittner, who completed 14 of 24 passes for 254 yards and one interception, was named the bowl's Most Valuable Player. He scored the game's first touchdown on a one-yard run with 9:42 remaining in the first quarter. Later, in the second quarter, he caught a 30-yard scoring pass from wide receiver Brandon Lloyd and threw for touchdowns of 61 yards and one yard to halfback Jameel Cook.

Illinois scored 28 unanswered points in the second quarter, capitalizing on two blocked punts, to build a commanding 42-7 halftime lead. Adding to Virginia's woes, starting offensive linemen Noel LaMontagne and Josh Lawson were both injured in the first half and did not return.

Illinois scored touchdowns on nine of 14 possessions and amassed 611 yards in total offense, compared to 380 by the Cavaliers.

Virginia tailback Thomas Jones rushed 23 times for 110 yards and scored on a seven-yard run to tie the game at seven with 7:24 left in the first quarter. Jones also led UVA with five receptions for 31 yards.

Quarterback Dan Ellis completed 15 of 32 passes for 146 yards and one interception to lead the Virginia passing attack. He threw a five-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Kevin Coffey in the third quarter. Ellis was replaced late in the fourth quarter by David Rivers, who completed two of three passes for 62 yards, including a 55-yard touchdown strike to backup quarterback/wide receiver Will Thompson with 1:43 left to play.

Shannon Taylor led UVA with eight tackles. Byron Thweatt recovered a fumble, while Dwayne Stukes intercepted a pass. Donnie Scott averaged 45 yards on four punts, including a long of 53 yards.

Jeep O'ahu Bowl

Dec. 24, 2000 —Honolulu
Georgia 37, Virginia 14

In the final game of the "George Welsh era" Virginia fell to Georgia 37-14 in the Jeep O'ahu Bowl. UVA finished the season with a 6-6 record, snapping its ACC-record streak of 13 consecutive seven-win seasons.

Welsh, the winningest coach in Virginia and ACC football history, announced his retirement at the end of the 2000 regular season. He compiled a 19-year record of 134-86-3 at UVA, including a conference-record 85 ACC wins. Welsh led the Cavaliers to 12 bowl games, including UVA's first bowl trip ever—the 1984 Peach Bowl.

Georgia scored on three of its first four possessions of the game to take a 17-0 first quarter lead. Splitting time at wide receiver and quarterback for the Bulldogs, Terrence Edwards was named the bowl's Most Valuable Player after gaining 176 all-purpose yards (79 receiving, 97 rushing). He scored on a 40-yard reverse in the first quarter, after the Bulldogs kept the drive alive with a fake punt play, and later ran 57 yards to set up a touchdown in the second quarter.

Making the most of its opportunities, Georgia recovered a Cavalier fumble in UVA's end zone for a first quarter touchdown and returned another Virginia fumble four yards for a score in the fourth quarter.

Virginia cut Georgia's lead to 17-7 early in the second quarter, scoring on a 14-yard lateral from backup quarterback Bryson Spinner to Demetrius Dotson. The Cavaliers drove 97 yards in just five plays, sparked by a 78-yard pass from Spinner to wide receiver Tavon Mason.

Trailing 24-7 at the half, UVA scored again late in the third quarter when linebacker Byron Thweatt picked up a Georgia fumble and raced 58 yards to paydirt. The Bulldogs held UVA scoreless after that, however, while tallying their final two touchdowns within a span of 16 seconds (on a pass play and the fumble recovery return) early in the fourth quarter.

Spinner, who went most of the way at quarterback after starter Dan Ellis injured his ankle during Virginia's opening series, completed 14 of 22 passes for 153 yards with two interceptions. Matt Schaub replaced Spinner late in the fourth quarter, completing six of 10 passes for 47 yards.

Continental Tire Bowl

Dec. 28, 2002 —Charlotte, N.C.
Virginia 48, West Virginia 22

Virginia made its first bowl appearance under head coach Al Groh a memorable one, dominating No. 15 West Virginia 48-22 in the inaugural Continental Tire Bowl. The game was played in front of a sell-out crowd of 73,535 fans. It marked the second-highest attendance figure for a first-year bowl game in NCAA history.

Finishing with a 9-5 record (6-2 ACC), Virginia clinched its first nine-win season since 1998 and was ranked 22nd in the final Associated Press poll.

Trailing 10-7 at the end of the first quarter, the Cavaliers tallied 31 unanswered points to take a commanding 38-10 lead with 6:48 left in the third quarter.

Among the many Cavaliers who excelled was true freshman tailback Wali Lundy—the game's Most Valuable Player—who totaled 239 all-purpose yards. In addition to rushing for a game-high 127 yards and two scores, he caught five passes for 76 yards and two touchdowns. He also had a 36-yard kickoff return.

Lundy accounted for UVA's first score in the first quarter when he caught a 14-yard pass from backup quarterback Marques Hagans. Hagans took a lateral from quarterback Matt Schaub and then threw across the field to Lundy in the end zone. Lundy later capped the game's scoring with a 31-yard TD run in the fourth quarter. He also scored on a four-yard run and on a 48-yard pass play from Schaub.

In addition to his touchdown pass, Hagans scored on a 69-yard punt return to open up a 21-10 Cavalier lead midway through the second quarter.

Connecting on five of his first six passes of the game, Schaub finished 16 of 22 passing for 182 yards and a touchdown. The ACC Player of the Year also rushed for 39 yards, including a one-yard TD run.

Virginia played most of the game without star wide receiver Billy McMullen, who left the game in the first quarter with an injured elbow. He caught one pass for eight yards, giving him 210 career receptions—the second most in ACC history.

Freshman place-kicker Connor Hughes, who assumed UVA's kick scoring duties late in the season, connected on field goals of 27 and 30 yards.

Linebacker Angelo Crowell had a team-high 14 tackles, followed by safety Jerton Evans with eight.

Continental Tire Bowl

Dec. 27, 2003 —Charlotte, N.C.
Virginia 23, Pittsburgh 16

Quarterback Matt Schaub threw for 244 yards and a touchdown to lead the Cavaliers to a 23-16 win over Pittsburgh in UVA's second straight trip to the Continental Tire Bowl. Playing in his final game, Schaub was named the game's MVP.

After stopping Pittsburg on four straight plays from the UVA one-yard line, the Cavaliers needed just four plays to drive the length of the field for the game's first score. Schaub capped the drive by finding tight end Heath Miller for a 52-yard touchdown, the 56th of his career, setting a new school record.

After Pittsburgh responded with a score, Virginia used a 51-yard run by Alvin Pearman on a drive that ended with Wali Lundy's one-yard plunged into the end zone.

Pittsburgh drove 85 yards in 10 plays, however the Panthers missed the extra point and Virginia maintained its lead at 14-13. Connor Hughes' 44-yard field goal as time expired at the end of the half extend the lead to 17-13.

On the opening series of the second half, Pitt was intercepted by Robbie Catterton, who returned the ball 24 yards to the Pitt 18-yard line. That play set up a 30-yard field goal by Hughes that pushed UVA's lead to six points. Pittsburgh responded with a field goal drive of its own to trail 20-16. The Panthers had a chance to further chip away at the lead with 7:51 remaining, but Pittsburgh's missed a 36-yard field goal attempt.

Virginia then mounted its final scoring drive of the day, as Lundy rushed 27 yards on six carries and Schaub connected on three of four pass attempts to set up Hughes' third field goal of the day, a 39-yard score with 2:28 remaining.

Pittsburgh looked for a late scoring drive to tie the game. William Ferguson gave the Panthers excellent field position with a 45-yard kickoff return to the Pitt 48-yard line. On the first play of the drive, the Cavalier defense forced their second turnover of the day to end the threat. A Brennan Schmidt sack caused Rutherford to fumble, and the ball was recovered by Kai Parham. It was the fifth sack of the day by the Virginia defense.

In addition to Schaub's 244 yards through the air, the Cavaliers compiled 196 yards rushing led by Pearman's 104 yards and Lundy's 90 yards. Pearman also made a team-high six catches, while Miller led UVA with 84 receiving yards on four catches.

The Cavalier defense held Panther wideout and Heisman Trophy runner-up Larry Fitzgerald to 77 yards on five catches, snapping his NCAA record 18-game touchdown reception streak. Linebackers Parham and Brooks led Virginia with 13 and 12 tackles, respectively.

MPC Computers Bowl

Dec. 27, 2004 —Boise, Idaho
Fresno State 37, Virginia 34 OT

Fresno State rallied from a 14-point deficit to hand Virginia a 37-34 loss in overtime at the MPC Computers Bowl in Boise, Idaho. The Bulldogs tied the game in the final seconds of regulation before winning in overtime.

The Cavaliers scored touchdowns on their first three offensive series. Alvin Pearman capped UVA's first drive with a 13-yard touchdown run to give the Cavaliers the early 7-0 lead.

Fresno State's Paul Pinegar connected with Adam Jennings for a 13-yard score to tied the game before Virginia regained the lead less than two minutes later. Michael Johnson's 47-yard kickoff return plus a 17-yard run by Pearman and a 21-yarder by Jason Snelling gave the Cavaliers first-and-goal. Two plays later, Michael McGrew scored on a 7-yard toss from Marques Hagans.

In the second quarter the Cavalier offense put together a 12-play, 66-yard drive to extend the lead to two touchdowns. The drive was capped by an 8-yard Hagans touchdown run. The Bulldogs closed the Cavalier advantage to 21-10 at the half as Brett Visintainer connected on a 49-yard field goal as time expired in the half.

A 22-yard touchdown pass from Pinegar to Jermaine Jamison cut the Cavalier lead to 21-17 in the third quarter. UVA benefited by a pass interference penalty to help set up a 33-yard field goal by Connor Hughes to go up 24-17.

Fresno State tied the game at 24-24 early in the fourth quarter as Pinegar threw a 22-yard touchdown pass to Mark Wood. Virginia then drove 80 yard, capped by a 20-yard touchdown run by Wali Lundy, to lead 31-24.

Fresno State drove the length of the field and on fourth down, Pinegar found Jaron Fairman for the tying score with 11 seconds remaining.

The Cavaliers had the first possession in overtime and took the lead on a field 26-yard field goal by Hughes. On the first play for Fresno State, Pinegar connected on a pass to tight end Stephen Spach who fought his way to the goal line for the winning touchdown.

Hagans led the Cavalier offense with a team high 85 yards rushing while completing 18 of 30 pass attempts for 162 yards. Pinegar led Fresno State by completing 23 of his 36 attempts for 235 yards and five touchdowns.

Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl

Dec. 30, 2005 — Nashville, Tenn.
Virginia 34, Minnesota 31

Making its fourth consecutive bowl appearance, Virginia used a dramatic fourth-quarter effort to defeat Big Ten opponent Minnesota 34-31. Trailing 31-24 with 12:16 to play, UVA quarterback Marques Hagans connected on three passes for 71 yards to set up Wali Lundy's two-yard scoring run to tie the game.

Later in the fourth quarter Hagans threw an interception that gave Minnesota the ball back at Virginia's 38-yard line. A Gopher punt pinned Virginia at its own three-year line with just five minutes to play.

Hagans redeemed himself and drove UVA down the field. With 1:08 to play Virginia kicker Connor Hughes booted a 39-yard field goal that proved to be the game winner. UVA cornerback Marcus Hamilton came up with an interception in the endzone to end Minnesota's comeback effort.

Hagans, who had fumbled a punt at the start of the fourth quarter to set up the Gophers final score, was named the game's offensive MVP. He completed 25 of 32 pass attempts for a career best 358 yards, the fifth best passing game by a UVA quarterback and a school bowl record. Tight end Tom Santi, playing in his hometown, had his best day as a Cavalier, piling up 128 yards on five catches.

Ranked as the nation's second-best rushing team (279.9 ypg.), Minnesota relied on its passing game to take a 14-0 lead midway through the first quarter.

UVA finally scored when Hagans directed a 67-yard drive capped by his six-yard touchdown pass to Deyon Williams with 2:46 remaining in the first quarter.

Minnesota responded when Cupito threw his third TD pass, a 57-yarder to Jared Ellerson, but put the Gophers back up by two touchdowns at 21-7. Hughes booted his first field goal at the end of the half to close the gap to 21-10.

Virginia drove 84 yards in 13 plays to open the third quarter with a seven-yard scoring run by Lundy to make the score 21-17. Minnesota went up 24-17 following a field goal but the Cavaliers tied the game with four minutes left in the quarter when Hagans connected with Fontel Mines for a two-yard score.

Lundy's two scores gave him 53 touchdowns during his career, making him the ACC's career leader in touchdowns.

The Virginia defense, led by Kai Parham's 14 tackles, managed to shut down the Minnesota offense in the second half. The Gophers rushing game was held to 198 yards, 82 below their average, including only 74 rushing yards in the second half.

Konica Minolta Gator Bowl

Jan. 1, 2008 — Jacksonville, Fla.
Texas Tech 31, Virginia 28

Alex Trlica kicked a 41-yard field goal with seven seconds left to give Texas Tech a 31-28 come-from-behind victory over No. 21 Virginia in the Gator Bowl.

Tech rallied from a 28-14 fourth quarter deficit behind its aggressive pass offense and quarterback Graham Harrell, who set several Gator Bowl records. He completed 44 of 69 passes for 407 yards, all records, plus three TDs.

With eight minutes to play the Cavaliers seemed to have things sewn up when Texas Tech failed to convert on fourth down from the one-yard line. Getting the ball back with 5:38 to play, Harrell drove the Red Raiders 51 yards in just over two minutes to pull within 28-21 when he connected with All-American wideout Michael Crabtree from the 20-yard line.

Tech tied the score just 21 seconds later after forcing a fumble at the UVA four-yard line. After holding UVA on downs, Tech got the ball back with 2:11 left on the clock and drove 30 yards for the winning field goal.

Virginia jumped out to a 21-7 lead thanks to stellar play on defense and tailback Mikell Simpson, who ran for 170 yards on 20 carries - including a NCAA bowl-record 96-yard TD run - and caught another touchdown.

However, Virginia's offense wasn't the same after losing quarterback Jameel Sewell at the start of the fourth quarter. While he completed just 14 of 23 passes for 78 yards and a TD, Sewell carried nine times for 32 yards as the Cavaliers finished with 249 yards on the ground.

After UVA tight end Johnathan Stupar caught a 2-yard scoring pass in the first quarter, the Cavaliers sandwiched a pair of safeties around Simpson's long run to take an 18-7 lead. Chris Gould's 23-yard field goal at the end of the first half pushing UVA's advantage to 21-7. Texas Tech managed the only score during the third quarter to close the gap to 21-14 before Cavalier backup quarterback Peter Lalich hooked up with Simpson for an 11-yard touchdown pass that proved to be the team's final points.

Chick-fil-A Bowl

Dec. 31, 2011 — Atlanta, Ga.

Auburn 43, Virginia 24

Virginia couldn't put a postseason cap on its season of improvement. Hurt by special teams breakdowns, Virginia didn't keep pace with high-scoring Auburn, losing 43-24 in the Chick-fil-A Bowl.

Virginia, wearing orange helmets for the first time since 1978, led 14-7 in the first half before Auburn charged back behind a balanced running game and big plays on special teams.

The Tigers blocked two punts, including one for a safety, and recovered an onside kick.

Virginia receiver Kris Burd caught two touchdown passes before leaving with an injury in the fourth quarter. Burd had six catches for 103 yards. He said he hurt his collarbone.

Michael Rocco completed 26 of 41 passes for 312 yards with two touchdowns and an interception.

Onterio McCalebb scored for Auburn on a 3-yard run and 25-yard catch. McCalebb had 109 yards rushing. Tre Mason added 64 yards rushing, including a 22-yard scoring run.

Barrett Trotter started the first seven games for Auburn before losing his job to Moseley. He made a triumphant return to prominence against Virginia, completing 11 of 18 passes for 175 yards and a touchdown.

Auburn's Garrett Harper blocked a punt by Virginia's Jimmy Howell to give the Tigers possession at the Cavaliers' 15. Following a 12-yard run by McCalebb, Frazier scored from the 3.

Back-to-back unnecessary roughness penalties against Auburn's defense helped set up Burd's second touchdown catch from 35 yards for a 14-7 lead.

On the first play of Auburn's next possession, McCalebb broke free for a 60-yard run to the Virginia 25. He capped the drive with a 3-yard scoring run.

Chizik then called for an onside try and Cody Parkey recovered his own kick. After Trotter's 50-yard pass to Emory Blake, Frazier scored from the 1.

Auburn's Angelo Blackson blocked Howell's punt through the end zone for a safety in the third quarter. Virginia's only second-half points came on a 1-yard touchdown by Kevin Parks in the third quarter.
