OPENING KICK

HOOS FLY WEST COAST TO EAST COAST

- Virginia returns to the road on Saturday when they travel to East Hartford, Conn., to face UConn in non-conference action.
- UVA will have traveled over 6,000 miles in over an eight-day span by the time of kickoff against the Huskies after playing at then-No. 24 Oregon on Sept. 10.
- The 2016 season marks the first time since 2003 that UVA has played back-to-back road non-conference games. In 2003 UVA played at South Carolina (L, 7-31) on Sept. 6 and a week later on Sept. 13 the Cavaliers traveled to Western Michigan (W, 59-16).
- UVA plays two non-conference road games for the first time in one season since 2007 when the Cavaliers traveled to Wyoming (L, 3-23) and Middle Tennessee (W, 23-21).

VIRGINIA VS. UConn, AAC

- Virginia and UConn are meeting for the third time in series history. The series is tied, 1-1, after the programs met in 2007 and 2008. UVA hosted UConn at Scott Stadium in 2007 and UConn hosted UVA at Rentschler Field in 2008. The home team won each time.
- Saturday is UVA's first all-time game against an AAC school while that program is an active member of the conference that began in 2013.
- UVA is 17-34 all-time against current members of the American Athletic Conference, this includes 38 games against Navy, a team UVA hasn't played since 1994. UVA has faced AAC member East Carolina (1-2), Navy (11-27), Temple (2-0), Tulane (2-4) and UConn (1-1).

FIVE TOP STORYLINES

- UVA running back Albert Reid owns two career 100-yard rushing games, both coming in UVA's last three contests. Reid rushed for a career-high 126 yards last Saturday at No. 24 Oregon and 103 yards against Virginia Tech in the 2015 season finale.
- Virginia is playing in Connecticut for only the second time in the last 72 years. Prior to the 2008 meeting at UConn, UVA had not visited Connecticut since playing at Yale in 1944.
- UConn head coach Bob Diaco's first career game as a head coach came in 2014 as UConn faced Bronco Mendenhall's BYU squad. Mendenhall led BYU to a 35-10 win at Rentschler Field.
- Anthony Poindexter, one of UVA's most loved alums, is the defensive coordinator for the Cavaliers. Poindexter earned first-team All-America honors at safety his junior and senior seasons. He also was named the 1998 ACC Defensive Player of the Year.
- Saturday marks the first time UVA has played an active member of the American Athletic Conference, since the AAC began operations in 2013.

#HoosRising: BY THE NUMBERS

- 7.1 UVA averaged 7.1 yards per rush from its running backs at then-No. 24 Oregon last week, improving on its 2.7 yards per rush in the opener.
- 99 Mendenhall enters Saturday's game with 99 career wins. He is the No. 14 winningest active coach among FBS coaches with five or more years.
- 126 Albert Reid rushed for a career-high 126 yards at No. 24 Oregon. His only two career 100-yard games have come in UVA's last three games.

UNIQUELY UVA

The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to UVA's culture.

Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the University dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.

First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why you may ask? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process.

Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES

Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."

Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.

Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos" during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general use around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

THE CAVALIER MASCOT

The costumed Cavalier with a large character head debuted during Virginia's 1984 football season and has remained the official mascot of the University.

The first documented Cavalier on horseback was Francis Bell, a Virginia student from Dublin, Va., in 1947. Bell rode onto the field dressed as Cavaliers for Virginia's home football game with Harvard on the afternoon of October 11.

The Cavalier on horseback returned as the University's mascot in 1963. The UVA Polo Club provided both the horse and rider. However, the mounted Cavalier and his horse parted company in 1974 with the inception of AstroTurf at Scott Stadium.

The mounted Cavalier made its return in the Florida Citrus Bowl at the end of the 1989 football season. Due to its instant popularity, the Cavalier on horseback returned the following season on a regular basis and continues to lead the Virginia football team onto the field at the beginning of all home games.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.

One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

WAH-HOO-WAH

The origin of "Wah-hoo-wah" is uncertain. The cheer was used to root on Virginia teams as early as 1890 and may have been borrowed from Dartmouth College, whose athletics teams were once known as the Indians.

Legend attributes the yell to Natalie Floyd Otey, who sang the ballad "Where'er You Are, There Shall My Love Be" at Charlottesville's Levy Opera House in 1893. The predominantly student audience noticed that Otey warbled the first three words of the song between each of the stanzas and decided to join in the refrain. By evening's end, goes the legend, the crowd had corrupted "Where'er You Are" into "Wah-hoo-wah."

The Levy Opera House stands at the corner of High Street and Park Street and has since been renovated into an office building.

MORE ON UVA VS. UCONN

- In 2007 Chris Gould kicked a 19-yard field goal with 3:20 to play and Virginia knocked Connecticut from the ranks of the unbeaten with a 17-16 victory.
- The Cavaliers trailed 16-14 and had struggled on offense all day before driving 79 yards for the go-ahead field goal.
- The Huskies got consecutive 11-yard runs from quarterback Tyler Lorenzen after Gould's field goal to reach Virginia's 44, but UConn lost 21 yards when a snap in the shotgun zipped passed Lorenzen, a false start penalty that made it second-and-31 and then fumbled on the next snap.
- The last meeting UConn used 206 rushing yards from Donald Brown in a 45-10 triumph. It was the first career start for UVA quarterback Marc Verica, who is No. 6 all-time in program history with 4,992 career passing yards.

UVA MAKING SECOND TRIP TO STATE OF CONNECTICUT IN 72 YEARS

- Virginia is making its second-ever visit to East Hartford, Conn., to face UConn and its second trip to the state since 1944.
- Virginia has played seven games in the state of Connecticut – the first six vs. Yale, with the last coming in 1944 (6-6 tie).
- UVA has gone 2-4-1 in its seven trips to the state of Connecticut.
- UVA's last win in the state of Connecticut was a 19-14 win over Yale in 1940. A Yale assistant in that 1940 game was future U.S. President Gerald Ford, who was employed as an assistant football coach while he was attending Yale Law School.

VIRGINIA - UCONN CONNECTIONS

- UConn head coach Bob Diaco spent three seasons on Al Groh's UVA staff from 2006-2008 as the linebackers coach and worked with special teams. Diaco was on UVA's sideline for both the 2007 and 2008 meetings against UConn.
- UConn co-defensive coordinator Anthony Poindexter is one of UVA's most beloved football alums. Regarded as one of the fiercest hitters in the game during his collegiate career (1994-98), Poindexter earned first-team All-America honors at safety his junior and senior seasons. He also was chosen the 1998 ACC Defensive Player of the Year and is one of only three players in school history to earn first-team All-ACC recognition three times.
- As a freshman, Poindexter helped make perhaps the biggest single defensive play in school history when he and teammate Adrian Burnim stopped Florida State tailback Warrick Dunn inches from the goal line on the game's last play to preserve a 33-28 win over the second-ranked Seminoles. With the victory, Virginia ended FSU's four-year, 29-game conference winning streak since joining the league in 1992.
- UConn's other co-defensive coordinator Vincent Brown spent four seasons as an assistant coach at Virginia under Mike London. Brown spent three years with the linebackers (2010-12) and 2013 working with the defensive line.
- UConn's quarterbacks coach Wayne Lineburg is a 1996 Virginia alum and is a former Cavalier quarterback. Lineburg was a graduate assistant on George Welsh's 1998 and 1999 Virginia staffs. He then joined Al Groh's UVA staff as the wide receivers coach in 2007 and 2008, before moving to running backs in 2009.

MENDENHALL VS. DIACO

- UConn head coach Bob Diaco's first career game as a college football head coach came in 2014 against current UVA head coach Bronco Mendenhall and his BYU Cougars.
- Diaco is facing a Mendenhall-coached team for the third season in a row. Mendenhall's BYU team beat UConn 35-10 in East Hartford in 2014 and again, 30-13, in Provo in 2015.

UConn COMES TO CHARLOTTESVILLE

- UConn will return the trip to Charlottesville on Sept. 16, 2017.
- It will be just the second time the Huskies have come to Charlottesville and first since 2007.

LAST MEETING • 2008

UConn 45, Virginia 10
Sept. 13, 2008 • East Hartford, Conn.*Last Meeting

Donald Brown ran for 206 yards and three scores and Connecticut had touchdowns on its first four drives in a 45-10 victory over Virginia in East Hartford, Conn. Brown had 112 yards and two touchdowns at halftime and didn't play in the fourth quarter.

The Huskies scored on first-half drives of 70, 77, 86 and 75 yards, keeping the ball for almost 20 minutes in building a 28-0 lead. They racked up 506 yards of offense, including 382 on the ground, while holding Virginia to 219 total yards.

Kevin Ogletree led UVA with seven catches for 58 yards and Cedric Peerman scored UVA's only touchdown.

- Blanding had six double-digit tackles games in 2015 and six as a freshman in 2014.
- Blanding has 254 career tackles, 9.8 per game.

EARNED NOT GIVEN

- UVA head coach Bronco Mendenhall has brought an "Earned Not Given" mentality to the Virginia Football program.
- When winter workouts started, players wore all black and nothing affixed with a Virginia logo. Players had to earn the right to wear the blue and orange. Then had to earn the right to wear the Virginia logo.
- Everything from access to the locker room, to numbers was part of the new "Earned Not Given" mentality. Even when it came to practice, players had to earn the next period, repeating the previous period as many times as needed until the next period was earned.

TASK UNIT LEADERS

- Bronco Mendenhall has entrusted the team with a leadership body with six units. With a military flair, there are six task unit leaders.
- The coaching staff selected the six task leaders. Each unit consists of 12-13 players, drafted by the task unit leaders themselves. Each task unit leader from his team names an assistant leader.
- A lot of activities over the summer was accomplished through the task units. Accountability and discipline were two really big emphasis.
- It was the task unit leaders that determined the draft order when it came time to select numbers.
- RB Jordan Ellis received the first pick and NT Donte Wilkins received the second pick.

PLAYERS EARN THEIR NUMBERS

- On the night of Saturday, Aug. 27, inside the locker room at Scott Stadium, 60 players earned their numbers in a special ceremony.

MENDENHALL NAMES THREE CAPTAINS

- During Monday's press conference UVA head coach Bronco Mendenhall announced that ILB Micah Kiser, C Jackson Matteo and DT Donte Wilkins were named captains, as voted on by their peers.

VIRGINIA FACES NINE TEAMS IN 2016 THAT PLAYED IN BOWL GAMES LAST YEAR

- UVA's 2016 schedule features nine teams on it that appeared in bowl games in 2015.
- Only USC (11), BYU (10), Colorado (10), Ohio State (10) and Ole Miss (10) have more.
- Virginia and Syracuse lead the ACC with nine games against 2015 bowl teams.
- Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, Hawaii, Illinois, Kansas, LSU, Northwestern, Purdue, Texas, Utah, Utah State and Wyoming also have nine 2015 bowl teams on its schedule.

ALL IN THE FAMILY

- UVA head coach Bronco Mendenhall brought seven coaches with him from BYU. Joining Mendenhall in Charlottesville from Provo, Utah were: Robert Anae, Mark Atuaia, Jason Beck, Nick Howell, Shane Hunter, Kelly Poppinga and Garrett Tujague.
- All seven of those assistants worked the last three seasons together as on Mendenhall's staff. Shane Hunter is only UVA assistant coach that wasn't a full-time assistant at BYU, serving as a graduate assistant during that three-year span.
- There are 32 combined years of coaching under Mendenhall between the seven assistant coaches on UVA's staff that came to Charlottesville from Provo.
- Three of UVA's graduate assistants also have ties to Mendenhall. Famika Anae and Vic So'oto graduated from BYU and played for Mendenhall. Kyle Visciglia was a graduate assistant at BYU in 2015. So'oto was a project coordinator for BYU in 2015.

MENDENHALL BRINGS FAST-PACED OFFENSE TO CHARLOTTESVILLE

- When UVA offensive coordinator Robert Anae rejoined Bronco Mendenhall's BYU staff in 2013, he brought a faster pace to the offense. Virginia will follow that lead and run its offense at a faster tempo in 2016 as it looks to increase the offensive output from recent years.
- In Mendenhall's 11 seasons as the head coach of BYU, his teams averaged over 400 yards of total offense per game for a season 10 times. UVA has only averaged over 400 yards of total offense twice over the last 16 seasons.
- UVA averaged 404.8 yards of total offense per game in 2010 and 423.4 yards per game in 2004.
- Under Mendenhall, BYU had a quarterback throw for over 3,000 yards in six of his 11 seasons in Provo. UVA in its history has never had a 3,000-yard passer in a season. The program record for a season by Cavalier quarterback is Matt Schaub's 2,976 yards in 2002.

VIRGINIA CHANGES TO 3-4 DEFENSIVE SCHEME

- A new look for the Virginia defense in 2016 is the change from the 4-3 to 3-4 scheme.
- A lot of new faces will help usher in the defensive change as the Cavaliers have lost 150 career starts on defense with the graduation of David Dean (35), Demetrious Nicholson (35), Maurice Canady (34), Mike Moore (24), Trent Corney (11) and Kwontie Moore (11).

NEW LOOK ON THE DEFENSIVE LINE

- The Virginia defensive line has a fresh look in 2016 after losing 81 career starts to graduation. UVA graduated David Dean (35), Mike Moore (24), Trent Corney (11) and Kwontie Moore (11).
- Donte Wilkins entered 2016 with 10 career starts at defensive tackle, with five coming in 2014. Andrew Brown entered 2016 with one career start, coming in 2015 at defensive end.

INTERCEPTIONS HAVE ELUDED UVA OF LATE

- Virginia owns the NCAA record with 39 straight games with an interception, a streak that covered four seasons (1993-96). However, of late the interception has been hard to come by for UVA.
- UVA's four picks in 2015 tied a program low and marked the second time in four seasons UVA only managed four picks (2012).
- Former UVA All-American and current Minnesota Viking Anthony Harris led the nation in 2013 with eight interceptions, but the rest of the team only managed two.
- Head coach Bronco Mendenhall comes in from BYU where his defenses failed to reach double figures in interceptions twice, 2005 and 2008, both times finishing with nine.

CONTE ONE OF THE ACC'S TOP PUNTERS

- Senior Nicholas Conte finished 2015 No. 2 in the ACC with a 44.7 yards per punt average.
- Conte, a former walk-on, is now on scholarship. As a high school punter Conte was an unknown until he secured the last spot at a UVA high school camp. He left with a preferred walk-on offer. Conte redshirted his first season in 2012, then did not appear in any games during 2013 or 2014 while Alec Vozenilek was UVA's punter. Conte made his collegiate debut in the Rose Bowl against UCLA in the 2015 season opener.
- Phil Steele has tabbed Conte as his preseason first-team All-ACC punter.
- In the 2016 season opener Conte punted three times, twice for 46 yards and once for 48 yards.
- Against Oregon in game No. 2, Conte punted four times with an average punt of 44.2 yards per punt. He booted one over 50 and dropped two inside the 20-yard line.

SCOTT STADIUM, HOME OF THE CAVALIERS

The Carl Smith Center, home of David A. Harrison III Field at Scott Stadium, with its unique architectural design, scenic setting on the University's Grounds and exceptional sight lines, is one of the nation's finest college football settings.

Opened in 1931, Scott Stadium might be one of the oldest campus college football stadiums in the nation, but you could never tell from its appearance. Numerous upgrades and expansions make it a modern home for the Cavaliers and their fans.

Scott Stadium was the gift of Frederic William Scott and Elisabeth Strother Scott, and was dedicated to the memory of his parents, Frederic Robert Scott and Frances Branch Scott.

Virginia played its dedication game at Scott Stadium on Oct. 15, 1931 against the Virginia Military Institute before a then-capacity crowd of 22,000. Prior to that season, the Cavaliers staged their home games at the University's Lambeth Field.

Virginia has played 452 games in the historic venue. UVA's all-time record at Scott Stadium stands at 255-185-12.

KURT BENKERT SAYS 'I DO'

- Virginia quarterback Kurt Benkert got married this summer. Him and his sweetheart, Samantha, tied the knot on July 2 at Lovers Key State Park in Fort Myers, Fla.
- Benkert doesn't wear his actual wedding band while playing football, but he does wear a band made out of silicone as a representation of that wedding band. He rotates between three colors, black, grey and white.

Bronco Mendenhall Head Coach • First Season

Bronco Mendenhall was named Virginia's head football coach on Dec. 4, 2015. He served as the head football coach at Brigham Young University for 11 years before joining the Cavalier program. Mendenhall, Virginia's 40th head football coach, has compiled an overall record of 99-43 in his 11 seasons as head coach at BYU to rank 12th in total wins among all FBS teams during that time. Mendenhall also ranks 13th in winning percentage (.697) among all active coaches with at least five years of FBS experience, and he ranks 10th among active coaches with at least 10 years of experience.

In the three seasons prior to Mendenhall becoming the head coach at BYU, the Cougars compiled an overall record of 14-21. Over the last 11 years, the Cougars are one of only 11 programs to advance to a bowl game each season (includes the 2015 season). BYU is joined by Alabama, Boise State, Clemson, Florida State, Georgia, LSU, Oklahoma, Oregon, Virginia Tech and Wisconsin on that list.

Among those 11 teams, only Florida State has achieved more bowl wins (seven) than BYU's six bowl game victories.

BYU football student-athletes have earned freshman All-America recognition in eight of the past 10 seasons. More than 60 BYU players have signed with NFL teams since Mendenhall arrived in Provo, including defensive end Ezekiel Ansah, the No. 5 overall pick in the 2013 NFL Draft and Kyle Van Noy, the No. 40 overall pick in the 2014 NFL Draft.

Under Mendenhall, the Cougars tied for seventh among all FBS programs for the most Academic All-America citations over the last decade and BYU tops all FBS programs with the most selections (39) to the National Football Foundation Hampshire Honor Society (recognizing starters and significant contributors finishing their eligibility with a 3.2 GPA or better over their college career) since the program began in 2007.

The success of Mendenhall's leadership approach in running the BYU football program has been highlighted in a management book, Running Into the Wind: Bronco Mendenhall -- 5 Strategies for Building a Successful Team, written by Alyson Von Feldt and Paul Gustavson, a leading management consultant specializing in leadership development and organizational design.

Mendenhall was elected in 2013 to the American Football Coaches Association Board of Trustees as the District 8 Representative and also serves on the AFCA Ethics Committee.

In his first year in 2005 after taking over a program coming off three losing seasons, Mendenhall led BYU to a 6-5 regular-season record and earned an invitation to the Maaco Bowl Las Vegas -- the team's first postseason bowl appearance in three seasons. The Cougars finished tied for second in the MWC with a 5-3 league ledger.

Following the 2006 season, Mendenhall was named the American Football Coaches Association Region IV Coach of the Year. In addition, the Football Writers Association of America named Mendenhall one of nine finalists for the prestigious Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award.

A dominant defense led BYU to its seventh winning season in as many years as the BYU football team finished the 2012 season with eight wins, a program-best fourth consecutive bowl victory and the No. 3 defense in the nation. With an 8-5 record, BYU claimed its sixth season with at least eight wins under Mendenhall's eight-year head coaching tenure. Incredibly consistent all year long, BYU finished the year ranked No. 3 in total defense, allowing just 266.1 yards per game. The Cougars ended the season ranked in the top four in five major defensive categories.

Mendenhall has served as the BYU's defensive coordinator for much of his tenure as the head coach. He returned to a full-time role with the defense again in 2015.

During his tenure in Provo, the Cougars have consistently fielded one of the nation's strongest defenses. Mendenhall's defense excels at keeping opponents out of the end zone. Entering the 2015 season, they averaged a No. 20 national ranking in scoring defense while he oversees the defense, including three top-10 ratings.

FUN FACTS

UVA'S EARLY FOOTBALL HISTORY AT LAMBETH FIELD

- The colonnades at Lambeth Field turn 103 in 2016. The playing surface at Lambeth Field hosted Virginia football from 1902 until Scott Stadium opened up in the midst of the 1931 season on Oct. 15, 1931.
- Lambeth Field is the location where the American game of football that we know today, played from youth league all the way up to the NFL, was first played.
- It all started in 1909 with the death of UVA's Archer Christian.
- Christian died in 1909 as a result of injuries sustained in a football game at Georgetown on Nov. 13, 1909. Christian's death highlighted 29 football related deaths during the 1909 season. Papers from all over the country carried the front-page headline of Christian's death.
- Former UVA President Edwin A. Alderman and the father of UV athletics, William Lambeth, went to New York City to meet with other presidents and administrators from other big time universities to discuss how they could make the game of football safer.
- At the time there was legislation happening in Washington to make it illegal to play the game of football in America.
- A new rules committee that was appointed from that meeting in New York City included Lambeth and the father of American football, Walter Camp.
- Lambeth noted to the committee, which met almost on a monthly basis, that the two deaths he had seen personally were due to exhaustion. At the time there were no substitutions, if you came out you could no longer return. The original game had a lot of pulling and pushing. Players were not considered down until they really couldn't move under the pile. Lambeth suggested that the game be split into four quarters, totaling 15 minutes a piece and that players could substitute back in. Walter Camp's notes from the committee meetings credit Lambeth, in the margins, with these changes.
- The committee asked Lambeth to take the new rules back to the University of Virginia and experiment with them during the spring of 1910.
- On the Grounds of the University of Virginia, under the watchful eye of William Lambeth, a new version of American football, divided into four quarters was played for the first time in history.
- Other notable rules that were played for the first time that spring at Lambeth Field were: seven men required on the line at the time of the snap, players could no longer push or pull the ball carrier and the forward pass could now be made across the line of scrimmage.
- Virginia football returned to its roots at Lambeth Field during camp in 2013, 2014, 2015 and 2016, taking part in various scrimmages and practices on the hallowed ground.

UVA ATHLETIC TRAINER FOR FOOTBALL IS ONE OF A FEW

- Virginia's Kelli Pugh is one of 10 women at the FBS level that is their school's sports medicine department's primary care provider for football.

DID YOU KNOW?

• UVA junior Quin Blanding was named by his mother Cory Lee after the movie titled "The Mighty Quinn," starring Denzel Washington and Mimi Rogers. It was the first movie she saw following a checkup during her seventh month of pregnancy and the moment held significant meaning to her. At that checkup the doctor's told her they thought they saw a hole in Quin's head and that it appeared to them his cerebrum wasn't connected. Quin was born completely healthy. Cory named him Quin with one "n" instead of two in recognition of that moment during pregnancy. She knew he will be all right and that he will be the mighty one.

• Blanding's father, Kevin, played football at NCAA Division II Glenville State (W.Va.) for current Arizona football head coach Rich Rodriguez.

• When offensive coordinator Robert Anae finished playing football, he returned home to Hawaii and served as the body model for the towering statue of the father of surfing, Duke Kahanamoku, a five-time Olympian.

The statue, created by artist Jan Fisher, is right next to the famous Waikiki Beach. Anae was a graduate assistant at Hawaii at the time and the artist needed a model, a surfer that was tall, and he went looking for the tallest surfer on the North Shore.

• UVA's oldest living football alum, Dr. John Risher, turned 106 years old this year; he also works in the press box on the UVA stats crew on game day.

• Matt Johns made his collegiate debut as the UVA holder in 2013. The first time Johns made it into a college game he had to hold in the rain on Ian Frye's 53-yard field goal in the 2013 season-opening win over BYU and now current UVA head coach Bronco Mendenhall. Frye's kick sailed through as time expired in the first half, tying the third-longest field goal in UVA history.

• Senior SS Kelvin Rainey has two brothers that have played FBS football. His older brother Johnathan played at New Mexico (2008-11), while his other older brother Derrick played at Arizona (2010-13).

• QB Connor Brewer spent two seasons playing for Rich Rodriguez at Arizona (2013-14).

• SS Kelvin Rainey's older brother, Derrick, spent four seasons (2010-13) playing at Arizona with his last two under Rodriguez. In 2013 Kelvin Rainey's brother, Derrick, was teammates with Brewer.
