OPENING KICK

VIRGINIA WELCOMES PITT TO SCOTT STADIUM

• Virginia returns to action on Saturday when the Cavaliers welcome the Pitt Panthers to Scott Stadium for Homecomings. Kickoff is set for 12:30 p.m. and the game will be televised on the ACC Network.

IT IS HOMECOMINGS IN CHARLOTTESVILLE

• Saturday is Homecomings at UVA and the Cavaliers own a 46-43-2 (.516) all-time Homecomings record.
• UVA's last win on Homecomings was last year when the Cavaliers defeated Syracuse, 44-38, in three overtimes.

VIRGINIA COMING OFF A BYE WEEK

• Virginia is 27-30 all-time when playing a game after a bye week.
• Virginia has won six of its last nine games coming out of a bye week.
• Bronco Mendenhall was 11-4 coming off a bye week during his 11-year stint at BYU.

FIVE TOP STORYLINES

• Saturday is the 85th anniversary of the first game played at Scott Stadium on Oct. 15, 1931. UVA welcomed the VMI Keydets in the inaugural game, losing 18-3. Virginia is 6-3 all-time at Scott Stadium when playing on its anniversary date, including winning five in a row (1966, 1983, 1994, 2005, 2011). Current UVA statistician Dr. John Risher, age 106, stood on the sidelines as a member of the Cavalier football team during that inaugural game.
• The series between UVA and Pitt began in 1953, but until the Panthers joined the ACC in 2013, these two teams only met twice in the regular season between 1956 and 2012.
• Last time out, on Oct. 1, UVA intercepted five passes at Duke. That tied a team record and was the 10th time the mark had been set by a UVA team. Bryce Hall and Juan Thornhill led the way with two picks, while Quin Blanding had one interception.
• With an 84-yard pass at Duke and an 82-yard pass against Central Michigan, UVA quarterback Kurt Benkert became the first Cavalier to have passes of 80+ yards in back-to-back games. Benkert is the only QB in the nation with two passes of 82 or more yards this season.
• Bronco Mendenhall is only the second UVA head coach to win his ACC debut. Al Groh was the first in 2001 vs. then-No. 19 Clemson. While Mendenhall beat Duke, George Welsh (1982), Dick Bestwick (1976), Sonny Randle (1974), Don Lawrence (1971), George Blackburn (1965), Bill Elias (1961) and Ben Martin (1956) all lost their ACC debuts for UVA against Duke.

Bryce Hall (left) and Juan Thornhill (right) each had two interceptions against Duke, helping UVA match a program record with five picks in a game.

UNIQUELY UVA

The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to UVA's culture.

Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the University dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.

First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why you may ask? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process.

Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES

Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."

Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.

Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos" during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general use around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

THE CAVALIER MASCOT

The costumed Cavalier with a large character head debuted during Virginia's 1984 football season and has remained the official mascot of the University.

The first documented Cavalier on horseback was Francis Bell, a Virginia student from Dublin, Va., in 1947. Bell rode onto the field dressed as Cavaliers for Virginia's home football game with Harvard on the afternoon of October 11.

The Cavalier on horseback returned as the University's mascot in 1963. The UVA Polo Club provided both the horse and rider. However, the mounted Cavalier and his horse parted company in 1974 with the inception of AstroTurf at Scott Stadium.

The mounted Cavalier made its return in the Florida Citrus Bowl at the end of the 1989 football season. Due to its instant popularity, the Cavalier on horseback returned the following season on a regular basis and continues to lead the Virginia football team onto the field at the beginning of all home games.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.

One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

WAH-HOO-WAH

The origin of "Wah-hoo-wah" is uncertain. The cheer was used to root on Virginia teams as early as 1890 and may have been borrowed from Dartmouth College, whose athletics teams were once known as the Indians.

Legend attributes the yell to Natalie Floyd Otey, who sang the ballad "Where'er You Are, There Shall My Love Be" at Charlottesville's Levy Opera House in 1893. The predominantly student audience noticed that Otey warbled the first three words of the song between each of the stanzas and decided to join in the refrain. By evening's end, goes the legend, the crowd had corrupted "Where'er You Are" into "Wah-hoo-wah."

The Levy Opera House stands at the corner of High Street and Park Street and has since been renovated into an office building.

THE SERIES VS. THE PANTHERS

- Pittsburgh leads the all-time series by a 5-3 margin.
- Between 1956 and 2012 UVA and Pitt only met twice in the regular season and once in a bowl game. Once Pitt joined the ACC in 2013, the two programs have met every season as members of the ACC Coastal Division.
- Until UVA's 44-14 win in the 2007 Scott Stadium meeting, Pittsburgh had won all three regular-season meetings. The Panthers won 26-0 in Charlottesville in 1953, 18-7 in Pittsburgh in 1955 and 38-13 in Pittsburgh in 2006.
- Virginia's 23-16 win over Pittsburgh in the 2003 Continental Tire Bowl in Charlotte, N.C., has been one of the most closely contested game of the series.
- UVA's Tony Franklin played a big role on defense in the bowl game to end Larry Fitzgerald's 18-game streak with a touchdown reception.
- The teams seesawed back and forth in the first half with Virginia holding a 17-13 lead at halftime. The second half featured only field goals in UVA's seven-point win. Matt Schaub closed his stellar career by capturing MVP honors after passing for 244 yards. Former Pittsburgh Steeler tight end Heath Miller had a big day for UVA with four receptions for 84 yards, including a 52-yard touchdown reception from Schaub late in the first quarter for the game's first score.

MORE ON THE PITT SERIES DURING THE LEAN 1950'S

- The 26-0 loss in 1953 remains one of the worst offensive performances in the modern era of UVA football. The Cavaliers recorded three first downs, an all-time low, and had just 43 yards of total offense, their second-lowest modern-day total.
- Pittsburgh scored on its first possession 5:52 into the contest and scored in every quarter to win.
- In 1955, UVA ended more than 80 scoreless minutes against Pitt when halfback Ralph Kneeland scored UVA's first touchdown in the series on an eight-yard run at the 9:39 mark of the second quarter. That score gave UVA a brief 7-6 lead, but Pitt halfback Lou Cimarolli scored the game-winner on a 32-yard dash midway through the third quarter.

VIRGINIA - PITT CONNECTIONS

- Pitt special teams coordinator and running backs coach Andre Powell coached at Virginia under George Welsh from 1996-2000. While on Grounds Powell coached future NFL players Tiki Barber, Germaine Crowell, Thomas Jones, Charles Kirby, Pat Washington and Terrence Wilkins. Powell coached running backs in 1996 and 2000. From 1997-99 he coached wide receivers.
- UVA's freshman OLB Eric Gallon's father, Eric Gallon Sr., spent the 2013-14 seasons coaching at Youngstown State with current Pitt defensive line coach Tom Sims.

Last Meeting

Nate Peterman threw for 222 yards and two scores, Qadree Ollison added one on the ground and Pittsburgh held off Virginia 26-19 the last time these two teams met.

Virginia had the ball with a chance to tie it in the final seconds but Matt Johns' fourth-down pass to T.J. Thorpe sailed wide.

Johns completed 17 of 33 for 209 yards and a touchdown with an interception.

The Panthers came out sharp, racing to a quick 17-3 lead. Peterman hit tight end Scott Orndoff for a 37-yard touchdown pass on game's fifth play, Chris James ripped off a 48-yard sprint to set up a 4-yard scoring run by Ollison later in the first quarter and the Panthers appeared to be in firm control.

Several times the Cavaliers had receivers running open deep in the secondary in the first half only to narrowly miss a momentum-turning play. The defense produced a touchdown when Mike Moore hit Peterman. The ball popped up in the air and defensive end Kwontie Moore snagged it, taking the first turnover produced by Virginia all season and chugging 15 yards to the end zone to bring the Cavaliers within 17-10.

Pitt extended its lead back to 13 when Matt Galambos returned an interception 51 yards to set up Tyler Boyd's pretty 8-yard touchdown reception. When Johns was tackled in the end zone for a safety, the Panthers were up 26-13.

The Cavaliers made it 26-19 when Johns found Canaan Severin for a 32-yard score with 5:50 to play. Given one last shot, Virginia converted a fourth-and-25 and moved to the Pitt 42 with a minute to go. Four straight incompletions, however, ended any hopes of Virginia getting the win.

- Mizzell's streak started in his second career college game, Sept. 7, 2013, against then-No. 2 Oregon.

- QB Kurt Benkert has passed for 1,455 yards over his first five UVA starts. That is the most all-time among UVA quarterbacks.
- Benkert's 1,119 passing yards through his first four starts was also a program best, becoming the first Cavalier to amass over 1,000 passing yards through his first four career starts.

UVA WINS ACC OPENER FOR THE SECOND TIME IN THREE YEARS

- UVA's 34-20 win at Duke gave the Cavaliers a win in an ACC opener for the second time in three seasons after beating then-No. 21 Louisville at Scott Stadium in 2014 (23-21).
- It was UVA's first win in an ACC opener on the road since defeating North Carolina in Chapel Hill, 16-3, in 2009.
- Bronco Mendenhall is only the second UVA head coach to win his ACC debut. Al Groh was the first in 2001 vs. then-No. 19 Clemson. While Mendenhall beat Duke, George Welsh (1982), Dick Bestwick (1976), Sonny Randle (1974), Don Lawrence (1971), George Blackburn (1965), Bill Elias (1961) and Ben Martin (1956) all lost their ACC debuts at UVA against Duke.

REID IS UVA'S OTHER 1,000-YARD RUSHER

- With 1,395 rushing yards, UVA's Taquan Mizzell is No. 29 all-time at UVA in career rushing, but he isn't the only Cavalier with at least 1,000 career rushing yards at the college level.
- TB Albert Reid reached 1,000 career yards at the college level in Week 3 at UConn.
- Reid currently has 1,125 rushing yards at the college level with 10 career scores.
- He rushed 122 times for 447 yards and three scores at Maryland from 2012-14.
- Reid has rushed 125 times for 678 yards and seven touchdowns in 16 career games at UVA.

RED-ZONE OFFENSE

- Since Taquan Mizzell fumbled on the five-yard line against Richmond in the season-opening game, UVA scored on eight straight trips inside the red-zone, including seven touchdowns and one field goal.
- The streak was snapped on UVA's very last play of the UConn game. Alex Furbank's 20-yard field goal attempt as time expired at UConn on Sept. 17 halted UVA's streak at eight. The streak included four trips inside the red-zone at then-No. 24 Oregon, resulting in four touchdowns.
- UVA has scored on 16 of its last 17 trips inside the redzone, with 15 touchdowns and one field goal.
- UVA ranks tied for fourth in the nation in red zone chances that ended with a touchdown (83.3 percent).
- In 2015 UVA ranked 109 nationally in red zone chances that ended with a touchdown (51.5 percent).

BENKERT BREAKS UVA PASSING RECORD FOR A GAME

- Virginia quarterback Kurt Benkert broke Marc Verica's record for passing yards in a game. Benkert threw for 421 passing yards on Sept. 24 against Central Michigan, snapping Verica's 2010 record of 417 passing yards in a game that came at Duke.
- Benkert threw five touchdowns, making him the fifth Cavalier to throw five touchdowns in a game and the first since Matt Schaub in 2002 against Akron. The five touchdowns is tied for second-most by a UVA quarterback in a game.

UVA'S OFFENSIVE TOUCHDOWN DRIVES ARE SCORING QUICKLY

- Of UVA's 17 touchdown drives in 2016, 15 of them have been completed in 3:50 or less.
- All seven of UVA's touchdown drives against Central Michigan were completed in 3:50 or less.
- Two of UVA's touchdown drives against Central Michigan were under 37 seconds, while five were under 2:15.
- UVA's 99-yard touchdown drive against Central Michigan was a program record. The previous record was 98 yards, done various times. UVA's longest touchdown drive against Central Michigan was completed in 11 plays and 3:50, the longest touchdown drive play and time wise in the game for UVA.

OLAMIDE ZACCHEAUS A FAVORITE TARGET OF BENKERT

- Olamide Zaccheaus leads UVA with 26 catches, 340 receiving yards and four touchdowns. He shares the team lead with Keeon Johnson with 26 receptions.
- Zaccheaus had a career day against Central Michigan where he made eight catches for 141 yards and two touchdowns.
- His 82-yard touchdown reception from Kurt Benkert is the 21st longest reception in the nation this season and the 13th longest touchdown reception in UVA program history.
- Zaccheaus came to UVA as a running back, but switched to wide receiver as a true freshman to fill a need in 2015.
- The versatile Zaccheaus also ran back kicks in 2015 and is on the preseason watch list for the Paul Hornung Award, the national honor given to the most versatile player.
- Olamide is Nigerian for "the blessing has come."

BLANDING AND KISER PICKING UP IN 2016 WHERE THEY LEFT OFF IN 2015

- Micah Kiser (11.6) is leading the ACC in tackles per game and is No. 3 in the nation. Quin Blanding (9.2) is No. 6 in the ACC in tackles per game.
- At Oregon and UConn Blanding and Kiser were identical in tackle production. The duo has led the team at then-No. 24 Oregon and at UConn in tackles. At Oregon both finished with nine stops, with an identical five solo stops and four assisted tackles. At UConn it was the same thing, both had 11 tackles with an identical eight solo stops and three assisted tackles.
- The difference was the opening game against Richmond when Kiser led all players with 14 tackles. Blanding led all players against Central Michigan with 12 tackles. Kiser made 18 tackles against Duke.
- Not much is different from 2015 as Kiser finished the season No. 1 in the ACC in tackles with 9.8 tackles per game. Blanding has finished 2014 and 2015 No. 2 in the ACC in tackles.

BLANDING DOUBLES UP THE TACKLES

- UVA's Quin Blanding owns 14 double-digit tackle games over 29 collegiate games.
- Blanding owns two double-digit tackle games in 2016 (UConn, Central Michigan)
- Blanding had six double-digit tackle games in 2015 and six as a freshman in 2014.
- Blanding has 284 career tackles, 9.79 per game.

KISER DOUBLES UP THE TACKLES

- Micah Kiser owns 10 double-digit tackle games over his 17 career starts.
- Kiser has recorded 175 tackles over his 17 career starts, which is every game since the start of the 2015 season.
- Kiser played in all 12 games a redshirt freshman, mostly on special teams when he shared the UVA team lead with nine special teams tackles.

JOHNSON EMERGES AS BIG TARGET FOR BENKERT

- Senior WR Keeon Johnson has 26 receptions for 264 yards and three touchdowns.
- His 26 receptions are already equals his 2014 and 2015 output combined. Johnson only recorded 13 receptions each of those seasons after grabbing 20 catches as a freshman in eight games.
- Johnson's two touchdown catches through the first two games of 2016 equaled his career total entering 2016. He now has five career touchdowns.
- Johnson's 264 receiving yards are more than the 138 receiving yards the senior had in 2014 and his 2015 total of 173 yards.
- Eight of his receptions have given UVA a first down on third or fourth down, including a crucial 4th and 10 at UConn that went for 34 yards.

RUSHING ATTACK IS PICKING UP

- After the running backs rushed for only 35 yards as a team against Richmond in the season opener, UVA received a big performance from its ground game at then-No. 24 Oregon on Sept. 10.
- Albert Reid's 126-yard rushing game led UVA's 220 combined rushing yards from its three backs against Oregon. Taquan Mizzell added 48 rushing yards and Jordan Ellis added 46 in the loss at Oregon.
- At Oregon UVA's running backs gained 220 yards on 31 carries for an average of 7.1 yards per rush, while also scoring two touchdowns.
- Starting with the Oregon game, UVA's running backs have rushed for 599 yards and six touchdowns for an average 149.8 rushing yards per game.

EARNED NOT GIVEN

- UVA head coach Bronco Mendenhall has brought an "Earned Not Given" mentality to the Virginia Football program.
- When winter workouts started, players wore all black and nothing affixed with a Virginia logo. Players had to earn the right to wear the blue and orange. Then had to earn the right to wear the Virginia logo.
- Everything from access to the locker room, to numbers was part of the new "Earned Not Given" mentality. Even when it came to practice, players had to earn the next period, repeating the previous period as many times as needed until the next period was earned.

TASK UNIT LEADERS

- Bronco Mendenhall has entrusted the team with a leadership body with six units. With a military flair, there are six task unit leaders.
- The coaching staff selected the six task leaders. Each unit consists of 12-13 players, drafted by the task unit leaders themselves. Each task unit leader from his team names an assistant leader.
- A lot of activities over the summer was accomplished through the task units. Accountability and discipline were two really big emphasis.
- It was the task unit leaders that determined the draft order when it came time to select numbers.
- RB Jordan Ellis received the first pick and NT Donte Wilkins received the second pick.

PLAYERS EARN THEIR NUMBERS

- On the night of Saturday, Aug. 27, inside the locker room at Scott Stadium, 60 players earned their numbers in a special ceremony.

SCOTT STADIUM, HOME OF THE CAVALIERS

The Carl Smith Center, home of David A. Harrison III Field at Scott Stadium, with its unique architectural design, scenic setting on the University's Grounds and exceptional sight lines, is one of the nation's finest college football settings.

Opened in 1931, Scott Stadium might be one of the oldest campus college football stadiums in the nation, but you could never tell from its appearance. Numerous upgrades and expansions make it a modern home for the Cavaliers and their fans.

Scott Stadium was the gift of Frederic William Scott and Elisabeth Strother Scott, and was dedicated to the memory of his parents, Frederic Robert Scott and Frances Branch Scott.

Virginia played its dedication game at Scott Stadium on Oct. 15, 1931 against the Virginia Military Institute before a then-capacity crowd of 22,000. Prior to that season, the Cavaliers staged their home games at the University's Lambeth Field.

Virginia has played 453 games in the historic venue. UVA's all-time record at Scott Stadium stands at 256-185-12.

- Nicholas Conte owns a 44.5 yards per punt average for his career. He is 21 punts shy of the 100 career punt minimum to rank on the career list at UVA.
- Currently Conte's 44.8 yards per punt average would rank No. 1 in the UVA annals, topping Russ Henderson's 43.3 yards per punt mark.

- Hayward was a member of UVA's men's soccer program in 2014 and 2015 after spending the 2013 season at Penn.
- Hayward was part of UVA's 2014 NCAA title team. He finished the second penalty kick in the shootout of the NCAA championship match against UCLA. He also converted on one of UVA's PKs in the quarterfinal win over Georgetown and tied the game late in the first half of the second round NCAA match with UNC Wilmington.
- Hayward played football as a kicker and wide receiver in the 8th, 9th and 10th grade.

UVA HAS ATTEMPTED ONLY TWO FIELD GOALS IN 2016

- UVA attempted its first field goal of 2016 in game three at UConn. Alex Furbank connected on a 23-yard field goal in his first career play of football at any level. He later missed from 20 as time expired. Furbank walked-on to the UVA team during fall camp after being on the soccer roster at DIII Randolph-Macon in 2015, but did not appear in any games.

BENKERT IS UVA'S STARTING QUARTERBACK

- Kurt Benkert was named the starting quarterback by head coach Bronco Mendenhall on August 24 following the final practice of fall camp.
- Benkert, a transfer from East Carolina, became (vs. Richmond) the first Cavalier quarterback to start his UVA debut since 1977 when Bryan Shumock started the season opener against NC State. Shumock switched to defensive back for the 1978 season and led UVA with four interceptions.
- Benkert was the 11th different UVA starting quarterback to start an opener in the last 12 seasons. The list includes: Matt Johns (2015), Greyson Lambert (2014), David Watford (2013), Michael Rocco (2011-12), Marc Verica (2010), Vic Hall (2009), Peter Lalich (2008), Jameel Sewell (2007), Christian Olsen (2006) and Marques Hagans (2005).

KURT BENKERT SAYS 'I DO'

- Virginia quarterback Kurt Benkert got married this summer. Him and his sweetheart, Samantha, tied the knot on July 2 at Lovers Key State Park in Fort Myers, Fla.
- Benkert doesn't wear his actual wedding band while playing football, but he does wear a band made out of silicone as a representation of that wedding band. He rotates between three colors, black, grey and white.

Bronco Mendenhall Head Coach • First Season

Bronco Mendenhall was named Virginia's head football coach on Dec. 4, 2015. He served as the head football coach at Brigham Young University for 11 years before joining the Cavalier program. Mendenhall, Virginia's 40th head football coach, has compiled an overall record of 99-43 in his 11 seasons as head coach at BYU to rank 12th in total wins among all FBS teams during that time. Mendenhall also ranks 13th in winning percentage (.697) among all active coaches with at least five years of FBS experience, and he ranks 10th among active coaches with at least 10 years of experience.

In the three seasons prior to Mendenhall becoming the head coach at BYU, the Cougars compiled an overall record of 14-21. Over the last 11 years, the Cougars are one of only 11 programs to advance to a bowl game each season (includes the 2015 season). BYU is joined by Alabama, Boise State, Clemson, Florida State, Georgia, LSU, Oklahoma, Oregon, Virginia Tech and Wisconsin on that list.

Among those 11 teams, only Florida State has achieved more bowl wins (seven) than BYU's six bowl game victories.

BYU football student-athletes have earned freshman All-America recognition in eight of the past 10 seasons. More than 60 BYU players have signed with NFL teams since Mendenhall arrived in Provo, including defensive end Ezekiel Ansah, the No. 5 overall pick in the 2013 NFL Draft and Kyle Van Noy, the No. 40 overall pick in the 2014 NFL Draft.

Under Mendenhall, the Cougars tied for seventh among all FBS programs for the most Academic All-America citations over the last decade and BYU tops all FBS programs with the most selections (39) to the National Football Foundation Hampshire Honor Society (recognizing starters and significant contributors finishing their eligibility with a 3.2 GPA or better over their college career) since the program began in 2007.

The success of Mendenhall's leadership approach in running the BYU football program has been highlighted in a management book, Running Into the Wind: Bronco Mendenhall -- 5 Strategies for Building a Successful Team, written by Alyson Von Feldt and Paul Gustavson, a leading management consultant specializing in leadership development and organizational design.

Mendenhall was elected in 2013 to the American Football Coaches Association Board of Trustees as the District 8 Representative and also serves on the AFCA Ethics Committee.

In his first year in 2005 after taking over a program coming off three losing seasons, Mendenhall led BYU to a 6-5 regular-season record and earned an invitation to the Maaco Bowl Las Vegas -- the team's first postseason bowl appearance in three seasons. The Cougars finished tied for second in the MWC with a 5-3 league ledger.

Following the 2006 season, Mendenhall was named the American Football Coaches Association Region IV Coach of the Year. In addition, the Football Writers Association of America named Mendenhall one of nine finalists for the prestigious Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award.

A dominant defense led BYU to its seventh winning season in as many years as the BYU football team finished the 2012 season with eight wins, a program-best fourth consecutive bowl victory and the No. 3 defense in the nation. With an 8-5 record, BYU claimed its sixth season with at least eight wins under Mendenhall's eight-year head coaching tenure. Incredibly consistent all year long, BYU finished the year ranked No. 3 in total defense, allowing just 266.1 yards per game. The Cougars ended the season ranked in the top four in five major defensive categories.

Mendenhall has served as the BYU's defensive coordinator for much of his tenure as the head coach. He returned to a full-time role with the defense again in 2015.

During his tenure in Provo, the Cougars have consistently fielded one of the nation's strongest defenses. Mendenhall's defense excels at keeping opponents out of the end zone. Entering the 2015 season, they averaged a No. 20 national ranking in scoring defense while he oversees the defense, including three top-10 ratings.

FUN FACTS

UVA'S EARLY FOOTBALL HISTORY AT LAMBETH FIELD

- The colonnades at Lambeth Field turn 103 in 2016. The playing surface at Lambeth Field hosted Virginia football from 1902 until Scott Stadium opened up in the midst of the 1931 season on Oct. 15, 1931.
- Lambeth Field is the location where the American game of football that we know today, played from youth league all the way up to the NFL, was first played.
- It all started in 1909 with the death of UVA's Archer Christian.
- Christian died in 1909 as a result of injuries sustained in a football game at Georgetown on Nov. 13, 1909. Christian's death highlighted 29 football related deaths during the 1909 season. Papers from all over the country carried the front-page headline of Christian's death.
- Former UVA President Edwin A. Alderman and the father of UV athletics, William Lambeth, went to New York City to meet with other presidents and administrators from other big time universities to discuss how they could make the game of football safer.
- At the time there was legislation happening in Washington to make it illegal to play the game of football in America.
- A new rules committee that was appointed from that meeting in New York City included Lambeth and the father of American football, Walter Camp.
- Lambeth noted to the committee, which met almost on a monthly basis, that the two deaths he had seen personally were due to exhaustion. At the time there were no substitutions, if you came out you could no longer return. The original game had a lot of pulling and pushing. Players were not considered down until they really couldn't move under the pile. Lambeth suggested that the game be split into four quarters, totaling 15 minutes a piece and that players could substitute back in. Walter Camp's notes from the committee meetings credit Lambeth, in the margins, with these changes.
- The committee asked Lambeth to take the new rules back to the University of Virginia and experiment with them during the spring of 1910.
- On the Grounds of the University of Virginia, under the watchful eye of William Lambeth, a new version of American football, divided into four quarters was played for the first time in history.
- Other notable rules that were played for the first time that spring at Lambeth Field were: seven men required on the line at the time of the snap, players could no longer push or pull the ball carrier and the forward pass could now be made across the line of scrimmage.
- Virginia football returned to its roots at Lambeth Field during camp in 2013, 2014, 2015 and 2016, taking part in various scrimmages and practices on the hallowed ground.

UVA ATHLETIC TRAINER FOR FOOTBALL IS ONE OF A FEW

- Virginia's Kelli Pugh is one of 10 women at the FBS level that is their school's sports medicine department's primary care provider for football.
- Pugh is only one of four women at the FBS level that works with a Power-Five level program. Ariko Iso, who was with the Pittsburgh Steelers for years, is with Oregon State. Sally Nogle works with Michigan State and Kammy Powell took over football in 2016 at Minnesota.

DID YOU KNOW?

• UVA junior Quin Blanding was named by his mother Cory Lee after the movie titled "The Mighty Quinn," starring Denzel Washington and Mimi Rogers. It was the first movie she saw following a checkup during her seventh month of pregnancy and the moment held significant meaning to her. At that checkup the doctor's told her they thought they saw a hole in Quin's head and that it appeared to them his cerebrum wasn't connected. Quin was born completely healthy. Cory named him Quin with one "n" instead of two in recognition of that moment during pregnancy. She knew he will be all right and that he will be the mighty one.

• Blanding's father, Kevin, played football at NCAA Division II Glenville State (W.Va.) for current Arizona football head coach Rich Rodriguez.

• When offensive coordinator Robert Anae finished playing football, he returned home to Hawaii and served as the body model for the towering statue of the father of surfing, Duke Kahanamoku, a five-time Olympian.

The statue, created by artist Jan Fisher, is right next to the famous Waikiki Beach. Anae was a graduate assistant at Hawaii at the time and the artist needed a model, a surfer that was tall, and he went looking for the tallest surfer on the North Shore.

• UVA's oldest living football alum, Dr. John Risher, turned 106 years old this year; he also works in the press box on the UVA stats crew on game day.

• Matt Johns made his collegiate debut as the UVA holder in 2013. The first time Johns made it into a college game he had to hold in the rain on Ian Frye's 53-yard field goal in the 2013 season-opening win over BYU and now current UVA head coach Bronco Mendenhall. Frye's kick sailed through as time expired in the first half, tying the third-longest field goal in UVA history.

• Senior SS Kelvin Rainey has two brothers that have played FBS football. His older brother Johnathan played at New Mexico (2008-11), while his other older brother Derrick played at Arizona (2010-13).

• QB Connor Brewer spent two seasons playing for Rich Rodriguez at Arizona (2013-14).

• SS Kelvin Rainey's older brother, Derrick, spent four seasons (2010-13) playing at Arizona with his last two under Rodriguez. In 2013 Kelvin Rainey's brother, Derrick, was teammates with Brewer.
