QUICK HITS - WEEK 13

Dr Pepper ACC Championship Game Matchup: No. 2 Clemson will face No. 3 Miami in the 2017 Dr Pepper ACC Football Championship Game on Saturday, Dec. 2, at Charlotte's Bank of America Stadium. Miami (Coastal Division Champion) will be making its first appearance in the game, while Clemson is in the game for the third straight year and fifth time overall. The Tigers won the championship game in 2011, 2015 and 2016.

Sold Out Again: The 2017 Dr Pepper ACC Football Championship Game is sold out for fourth time in seven years at Charlotte's Bank of America Stadium. The six previous ACC Football Championship Games in Charlotte averaged more than 69,000 fans per contest, including sellout crowds in 2010, 2011, and 2015. Over the last seven years, the ACC ranks second among all conferences in attendance at its football championship games.

Success For ACC Winner: The winner of the Dr Pepper ACC Football Championship Game has gone on to play in the National Championship Game or compete in the College Football Playoffs each of the previous four seasons.

Highest Ranking: With Clemson ranked No. 2 and Miami at No. 3, this is the first time two ACC teams have been ranked in the top four of the College Football Playoff Rankings. If those rankings hold for the ACC Championship Game, it would be a matchup of the two highest ranked teams in conference history.

Friday Matchups: Seeking a perfect regular season, Miami plays at Pitt at noon on Friday, Nov. 24. Later that evening, Virginia Tech heads to Charlottesville to face Virginia at 8 p.m.

ACC-SEC: Traditional rivalry games with the Southeastern Conference will be played on the final Saturday of the regular season when Georgia Tech plays host to Georgia, Louisville travels to Kentucky, Florida State plays at Florida and Clemson faces South Carolina in Columbia.

IN THE RANKINGS

• Louisville QB Lamar Jackson leads the nation in total offense, averaging 414.5 yards per game, is second in points responsible for (242), and is 16th among all players in rushing (117.0). He is ahead of the ACC total offense record of 393.4 yards per game that he set last year. Jackson's average is more than 37 yards more per game than his next closest competitor, Oklahoma State's Mason Rudolph (377.4).

• Wake Forest QB John Wolford leads the ACC and ranks seventh in the nation with a 163.5 pass efficiency rating. Wolford has thrown 23 touchdown passes with just four interceptions.

• Syracuse senior WR Steve Ishmael is second in the nation in receptions per game (8.5), second in total receptions (94), fourth in total receiving yards (1,160), and sixth in receiving yards per game (105.5). Ishmael is one of three ACC players in the top 10 in receptions per game, including his teammate Ervin Philips, who is sixth (7.4) and Virginia's Olamide Zaccheaus, who is ninth (6.9).

• Boston College's Michael Walker and North Carolina's Anthony Ratliff-Williams rank first and second in the nation in combined return yardage. Walker has 973 total return yards, including both punt (356) and kickoff (617) returns, while Ratliff-Williams has 836 yards, all on kickoff returns. Syracuse's Sean Riley is sixth and Pitt's Quadree Henderson is 13th.

• NC State senior DE Bradley Chubb ranks second in the nation in tackles for loss, averaging 2.2 per game. He is also seventh nationally in quarterback sacks, averaging 0.91 per game.

• Virginia's Joe Reed leads the ACC and ranks 10th nationally with a 28.6 kickoff return yards average. He returned three kickoffs for a total of 170 yards (56.7 avg.) against Georgia Tech including a 92-yarder for a TD. UNC's Anthony Ratliff-Williams is 13th, averaging 27.7 yards.

• Virginia senior S Quin Blanding leads all FBS players with 462 career tackles. That total places him 16th on the ACC career tackle list.

Miami at Pitt: Coastal Division foes Miami and Pitt meet for the 37th time in a series which began in Pittsburgh in 1950. Miami holds a 25-10-1 advantage and has won 18 of the last 20 meetings, including three of the last four games in ACC competition.

Virginia Tech at Virginia: The Hokies travel to Charlottesville seeking to maintain their 13-game winning streak in the series which began in Virginia Tech's first season in the ACC (2004). UVA's last win against Tech came in 2003 in Charlottesville. The two Coastal Division arch-rivals are meeting for the 99th time. The participating head coaches, Virginia's Bronco Mendenhall and Virginia Tech's Justin Fuente, have met only once, a 52-10 win for the Hokies last year in Blacksburg. Florida State at Florida: Florida State and Florida meet for the 62nd time when the Seminoles travel to Gainesville's Ben Hill Griffin Stadium. Though Florida holds an overall, 34-25-2 advantage in the series which began in 1958 in Gainesville, the Seminoles have won six of the last seven meetings under Jimbo Fisher, including the last three in Gainesville. The Seminoles are looking to keep their bowl hopes alive needing a win Saturday and the following week at home against ULM.

Clemson at South Carolina: Clemson and South Carolina meet for 115th time in a series that began in 1896 in Columbia as the Tigers visit Williams-Brice Stadium. The Tigers have won the last three meetings between the arch-rivals, 13 of the last 20 games since 1997, and hold an overall 68-42-4 advantage. Last year's 49-point victory in a 56-7 decision was the second-highest margin Jackson in 36 career games has 12,474 yards, while Clemson's Tahj Boyd is in second-place with 13,069 yards. Jackson leads all active players in the FBS, averaging 346.5 total yards per game for his career, which, if maintained would be an ACC record.

Dillon Tops 200 yards Again: Boston College's AJ Dillon topped the 200-yard rushing mark in a game for the second time this season when he rushed for 200 yards on 24 carries and two TDs in the Eagles' 39-16 win over Connecticut. He becomes only the second freshman in ACC history to twice rush for 200 or more yards in a game. North Carolina's Amos Lawrence accomplished the feat twice in 1977, including an ACC freshman record 286 yards against Virginia. Dillon previously recorded the best rushing day in the ACC this year with a 272-yard, 39-carry effort against Louisville on Oct. 14. That showing is the best by a freshman in the FBS this season and still the seventh-best day by any player in the nation.

Louisville's Williams Gains 20 Yards A Carry: Louisville senior Malik Williams became only the 12th player in this century in the FBS to average 20 yards or more a carry and gain 180 yards in a game. Williams rushed for 180 yards on just nine carries against Syracuse, becoming only the fourth ACC player to do so since 2000, joining Georgia Tech's Marcus Marshall (2015 vs. Alcorn State), Duke's Shaun Wilson (2014 vs. Kansas) and Florida State Chris Thompson (2012 vs. Wake Forest).

Wake Forest Offensive Improvement: Wake Forest has increased its scoring by 14.26 points per game from last year. That's on pace to be the third-largest year-to-year improvement in ACC history. The Demon Deacons were tied for last in the ACC in scoring in 2016, averaging just 20.4 points per game. This year, behind QB John Wolford, who is seventh nationally in pass efficiency, the Deacons are averaging 34.6 points per game, good enough for third in the conference. Wake's 381 points this season are a school record.

Tackles For Loss: Four ACC teams rank in the top 15 of tackles for loss. Miami ranks fourth nationally in tackles for loss, averaging 9.0 hits behind the line of scrimmage per game. The Hurricanes are followed by Clemson (sixth, 8.5), Wake Forest (sixth, 8.2), Virginia Tech (13th, 7.8).

Butkus Award: Two ACC players – Clemson's Dorian O'Daniel and Virginia Tech's Tremaine Edmunds – have been named finalists for the Butkus Award, which is presented annually to the nation's top linebacker.

Thorpe Award: Three ACC players have been named semifinalists for the Paycom Jim Thorpe Award, which is presented annually to the nation's top defensive back. Named from the ACC were Jeremy McDuffie of Duke, Derwin James of Florida State and Quin Blanding of Virginia.

Lou Groza Award: Three ACC placekickers have been honored as semifinalists for this year's Lou Groza College Placekicker of the Year award. Named from the ACC were Miami's Michael Badgley, Louisville's Blanton Creque and Syracuse' Cole Murphy.

Wuerffel Trophy: The ACC had three of the 11 football student-athletes selected as semifinalists for this year's Wuerffel Trophy, the most of any conference. The Wuerffel is regarded as the premier award in College Football recognizing Community Service. Honored from the ACC were NC State P A.J. Cole III, Pitt T Brian O'Neill and Duke OL Gabe Brandner.

NFL Quarterbacks: Twelve quarterbacks from ACC schools have started an NFL game this season. Four of those signal callers are from NC State, including Philip Rivers (Chargers), Russell Wilson (Seahawks), Jacoby Brissett (Colts) and Mike Glennon (Bears). They are joined by Clemson's Deshaun Watson (Texans), Boston College's Matt Ryan (Falcons), North Carolina's Mitch Trubisky (Bears), Pitt's Tom Savage (Texans) and Nathan Peterman (Buffalo), Virginia Tech's Tyrod Taylor (Bills) and Florida State's Jameis Winston (Buccaneers) and E.J. Manuel (Raiders). All 12 played in the ACC.

Clemson has won 10 or more games in each of the last seven years.

The Tigers and Alabama are the only two teams that currently have active streaks of seven or more years with double-figure victories.

ACC COACHING SUCCESS

Six ACC coaches – the most of any conference – rank in the top 25 of all active coaches in career winning percentage with a minimum of five years as a head coach. Florida State's Jimbo Fisher ranks fourth (.781), followed by Clemson's Dabo Swinney (sixth, .773), Miami's Mark Richt (seventh, .749), Louisville's Bobby Petrino (10th, .712), Georgia Tech's Paul Johnson (17th, .664) and Virginia's Bronco Mendenhall (21st, .649).

Georgia Tech head coach Paul Johnson ranks fourth among all active head coaches in career victories, having recorded 182 wins in his 20-year career. Miami's Mark Richt is tied for eighth with 164 wins, followed by Louisville's Bobby Petrino, who is tied for 17th with 116 wins, Dave Clawson of Wake Forest (110) who is 21st, Virginia's Bronco Mendenhall, who is 23rd with 107 wins, and Duke's David Cutcliffe, who is 24th with 101 wins. Clemson's Dabo Swinney is tied for 25th with 99.

NATIONAL TITLES & HEISMAN TROPHY WINNERS

Two of the last four national champions have come from the ACC (Clemson in 2016, Florida State in 2013), the only conference with multiple winners over that stretch. The ACC has had a team in the championship game in three of the four years.

The ACC is the first conference since 1994 to have a football national title winner (Clemson) and a Heisman Trophy winner (Lamar Jackson, Louisville) from two different schools in the same season.

ACC Divisional Tiebreaker
If more than one team in the same division is tied for the best winning percentage in its Conference games, the procedures listed below will be followed to determine the division's representative in the ACC Championship Game:

Two-Team Tie:
1. Head-to-head competition between the two tied teams.
2. Win percentage of the tied teams within the division.
3. Head-to-head competition versus the team within the division with the best overall win percentage. (Divisional and non-divisional) and proceding through the division. Multiple ties within the division will be broken from first-to-last using the league's tiebreaking procedures.
4. Overall win percentage versus all common non-divisional opponents.
5. Combined win percentage vs. all non-divisional opponents.
6. Win percentage versus common non-divisional opponents based on their order of finish (overall conference win percentage) and proceeding through other common non-divisional teams based upon their divisional order of finish.
7. The tied team with the higher ranking by the Team Rating Score metric provided by SportSource Analytics following the conclusion of regular season games.
8. The representative shall be chosen by a draw. (as administered by the Commissioner or the Commissioner's designee.)

Three-Team (or More) Team Tie:
(Once a team is eliminated from the tie, the tie-breaker procedures restart for the remaining teams. If the three (or more) team tie can be reduced to two teams, the two-team tiebreaker format will then be applied.)
1. Combined head-to-head win percentage among the tied teams.
2. Win percentage of the tied teams within the division.
3. Head-to-head competition versus the team within the division with the best overall (divisional and non-divisional) Conference win percentage, and proceeding through the division. Multiple ties within the division will be broken first to last, using the league's tie-breaker policies.
4. Combined win percentage versus all common non-divisional opponents.
5. Overall win percentage versus non-divisional opponents.
6. Win percentage versus common non-divisional opponents based upon their order of finish (overall win percentage) and proceeding through other common non-divisional opponents based upon their divisional order of finish.
7. The tied team with the highest ranking by the Team Rating Score metric provided by SportSource Analytics following the conclusion of regular season games.
8. The representative shall be chosen by a draw as administered by the Commissioner or the Commissioner's designee.

2017 ACC Bowl Quick Selection Order
The ACC is in the fourth year of six-year contracts with its current bowl partners.

College Football Playoff (four teams)
If the ACC Champion is not in one of the CFP semifinal games, it will appear the Capital One Orange Bowl. There is no limit on how many teams the College Football Playoff may choose from a particular conference. There is also a possibility an ACC team, if it is ranked high enough, could be chosen for a berth in one of the New Year's Six Bowls. This year the New Year's Six at-large berths will be in the Goodyear Cotton, PlayStation Fiesta and Chick-fil-A Peach Bowls.

Capital One Orange Bowl
The ACC champion, if not in the College Football Playoff, will appear this year in the Capital One Orange Bowl. The opponent will be the highest-ranked available team from the SEC, Big Ten or Notre Dame. If the ACC champion is selected for the College Football Playoff, then the next highest ranked ACC team will serve as the host team in the Capital One Orange Bowl.

Citrus Bowl
In a year in which the Capital One Orange Bowl (this year) will not host the national semifinals, and the ACC opponent in the Orange Bowl is a team from the Big Ten, then the ACC will have a team selected to the Citrus Bowl prior to the selection for the Camping World Bowl.

Camping World Bowl
The Camping World Bowl has first pick of ACC teams in 2017 after the College Football Playoff, the Capital One Orange Bowl, the Host Bowls (if applicable) and the Citrus Bowl (only should the ACC Orange Bowl opponent be a team from the Big Ten).

Tier One Bowls
All have equal selection status
Belk/Hyundai Sun/New Era Pinstripe/Franklin American Mortgage Music City or TaxSlayer

Tier Two Bowls
Military Bowl Presented by Northrop Grumman
Walk-ons Independence Bowl
Quick Lane Bowl
Bad Boys Mowers Gasparilla Bowl
Secondary Only--if not filled by the American Athletic Conference or Conference USA
Birmingham Bowl
Secondary only--if not filled by the Southeastern or American Athletic Conferences.

One Win Rule Applies To Notre Dame
Notre Dame is eligible for ACC Bowl selection beginning with the Citrus Bowl and continuing through the league's bowl selections. However, Notre Dame must be within one win of the available ACC team with the best overall record in order to be chosen. For example, if an ACC team is 9-3, a 7-5 Notre Dame team can not be chosen in its place. Notre Dame would have to be 8-4 to be chosen over a 9-3 league team.
