National Football Hall of Fame To Induct Miami's Jimmy Johnson

Atlantic Coast Conference schools will have one inductee this year at the annual National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame annual banquet in New York City. Former Miami head coach Jimmy Johnson, who also coached at Arkansas and went on to professional fame as head of the Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys, will be inducted at the annual National Football Foundation banquet, which will be held Tuesday, December 4 at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel in New York City. Johnson's induction brings the total to 16 former players or coaches who have been tabbed for induction into the College Hall of Fame from current Atlantic Coast Conference schools over the last seven years.

Johnson coached five seasons at Miami, leading the Hurricanes to record of 52-9 and a winning percentage .852. His 1987 Miami team captured the school's second National Championship and his 1986 team played for the national title, but lost to Penn State. During his years with the Hurricanes, his teams defeated 19 nationally-ranked teams, 8 teams ranked in the top five and three teams ranked No. 1. His teams played in two Fiesta Bowls, two Orange Bowls and one Sugar Bowl game. During his five years in Miami, his teams were ranked nationally on 55 occasions, including 13 times being ranked No. 1 nationally. Prior to joining the Hurricanes, he served as head coach at Oklahoma State, rebuilding that program and posting a 29-26-2 record. His overall record in college is 81-35-2. Johnson played his collegiate football at Arkansas, where he was a starter on the Razorback's 1964 national championship team. After leaving Miami he enjoyed a successful career in the National Football League as head coach of the Dallas Cowboys and Miami Dolphins. He coached the Cowboys to two Super Bowl Championships. Johnson joins 15 other former players or coaches from current ACC schools who have been selected for the Hall of Fame since 2006 including:

Bank of America Stadium, Charlotte, NC.....ABC or ESPN 8:00

RSN--Refers to the Regional Sports Networks of FOX SportsSouth, Sun Sports, Comcast Sports Atlantic, NESN, FSN West, FSN Southwest and FSN Houston.

Networks may declare a six-day option on four occasions during the course of the season, selecting games with six days advance notice.

2012 ACC Football By The Numbers

.889 - The winning percentage for Clemson head coach Dabo Swinney in four and half seasons with the Tigers. Swinney has compiled a 16-2 home field record at Death Valley and his winning percentage is the second best in league history for three of more seasons, trailing only former Clemson head coach Ken Hatfield who was 12-1-1 (.893) in four seasons in Tigerland.

3 - Florida State has clinched its third appearance in the Dr Pepper ACC Football Championship Game. The Seminoles won the inaugural event in 2005 with a 27-22 win over Virginia Tech and dropped a 44-33 decision to the Hokies in 2010.

8 - Clemson junior QB Tajh Boyd set an ACC single-game record for touchdown responsibility with 8 TDR in the Tigers 62-48 win over NC State. Boyd threw 5 TD passes and ran for 3 more scores in breaking the league mark of 6 TDR held by 11 other players including NC State QB Mike Glennon and tied most recently by Boyd against Duke. Boyd was named the Walter Camp Foundation National Offensive Player of the Week for his performance.

10 - The number of ACC pass receivers who topped 100 yards in receiving yardage this weekend, led by NC State's Tobais Palmer who had 219 yards on just 7 catches and 3 TDs.

15 - The number of touchdown pass receptions for Clemson junior WR DeAndre "Nuk" Hopkins. Hopkins' total is already tied for 3rd best in ACC history trailing only Duke's Clarkston Hines (17, 1989) and NC State's Torry Holt (16, 1998) and tied with Florida State's Andre Cooper (15, 1995) and Georgia Tech's Calvin Johnson (15, 2006).

16- The number of passes caught by North Carolina true freshman WR Quinshad Davis in the Tar Heels' 37-13 win over Virginia. The 16 catches tied an ACC and UNC school record for a single game held by five other ACC receivers including North Carolina's Charlie Carr, who originally set the record in 1966 against Air Force, and Wake Forest's Michael Campanaro, who tied it earlier this year against Boston College. Davis' total, though, was the most ever by an ACC freshman and the most by a freshman in the NCAA's FBS since 2005 when Earl Bennett of Vanderbilt recorded a 16-catch game against South Carolina. Davis took his 16 catches for 178 yards.

16 - Georgia Tech will be going to a bowl game for the 16th-consecutive year with their 42-24 win over Duke. The streak ties the Yellow Jackets' opponent this week, archrival Georgia, for the 4th longest among NCAA schools.

29 - When Florida State defeated Maryland it marked the 29th career win for Seminole head coach Jimbo Fisher (29-9), now in his third season as head of the Seminoles. The only coaches who have won more games in the first three years of their ACC careers are Bobby Bowden (33), Frank Beamer (31) and Ralph Friedgen (31).

33 - The number of times ACC teams have topped the 500-yard mark in total offense through the first ten weeks of this year. In all of the 2011 season, conference teams only topped the 500-yard mark a total of 15 times.

36 - The number of times ACC teams have topped the 40-point mark this season. With a week remaining in the regular season, that is already an ACC record for a single season. The previous high of 30 40-point games was set in 2010.

37 - With a 45-point outing against Maryland Saturday, Clemson became the only team in ACC history to score 37 or more points in 9 consecutive games. The Tigers' streak began on Sept. 8 with a 52-point outing against Ball State and Clemson has averaged 44.8 points a game during the streak. The 1995 Florida State team opened the year with seven straight games of 42 or more points and averaged 56.1 points a game during that span.

46 - Duke's Conner Vernon has now caught a pass in 46 consecutive games, every game of his Blue Devil career. The streak is the longest, current streak in the NCAA's FBS and Vernon has broken the ACC record of 45 set by North Carolina's Corey Holliday during the 1990-93 seasons.

67.3 - Florida State quarterback EJ Manuel is one of the most accurate passers in ACC history. Manuel, who only became a full-time starter in 2011, has completed 557 of 828 passes in his career, a completion percentage of .673. If maintained, that would be the best mark in ACC history. Virginia's Matt Schaub (.670) and Wake Forest's Riley Skinner (.669) are currently 1-2 on the career list.

85- The number of career field goals for Florida State senior PK Dustin Hopkins, who is now the ACC's career leader. Hopkins' record-breaker was a career-long 56-yard field goal against Duke. He is tied for 2nd place on the NCAA's career list with UCLA's Kai Forbath and needs just 3 field goals to break the record set by Georgia's Billy Bennett during the 2000-03 seasons.

110 - The number of total points for both teams in Clemson's 62-48 win over NC State, the second highest total in ACC history. The record of 118 points was set just last week in Georgia Tech's 68-50 win over North Carolina.

181.56 - The pass efficiency rating for North Carolina QB Bryn Renner in the Tar Heels' 37-13 win over Virginia. Renner completed 29 of 36 passes for 315 yards and 3 TDs.

256 - Virginia Tech head coach Frank Beamer has a total of 256 coaching victories in his career and now leads all active NCAA FBS head coaches. With the Hokies' win over Boston College, Beamer passed former Nebraska head coach Tom Osborne for 7th place on the NCAA FBS all-time wins list.

262 - The number of career pass receptions for Duke senior wide receiver Conner Vernon. Vernon became the ACC's all-time career-leading receiver on Oct. 6 against Virginia. He has shattered the old mark of 232 catches set by Clemson's Aaron Kelly during the 2005-2008 seasons. Saturday against Georgia Tech he also broke the ACC career mark for reception yards. His career total of 3,521 receiving yards bettered the previous ACC standard held by FSU's Peter Warrick (3,517).

448 - With a 26-yard field goal at the 14:51 mark of the 2nd quarter, Florida State PK Dustin Hopkins became the NCAA career record-holder in points by kicking. Hopkins, already the ACC and Florida State career record holder, has 448 points bettering the NCAA mark of 439 points set by Boise State's Kyle Brotzman during the 2007-10 seasons. Hopkins' 448 points are the 4th best scoring total in NCAA FBS history trailing only Travis Prentice of Miami of Ohio (468, 1996-99), current Wisconsin standout Montae Ball (464, 2009-) and Ricky Williams of Texas (452, 1995-98).

496 - NC State WR Tobais Palmer recorded the second highest amount of all-purpose yardage in the history of the NCAA's FBS when he recorded 496 yards against Clemson in the Wolfpack's 62-48 loss. Palmer had 7 catches for 219 yards and 3 TDs and returned 8 kickoffs for 277 yards. Only Emmett White of Utah State (578) has had more.

766 - Despite missing a game with an injury Maryland true freshman WR Stefon Diggs has already recorded the 4th-best season by a freshman receiver in league history in reception yardage. Diggs has 766 receiving yards on 46 catches. Clemson's Sammy Watkins set the freshman record last year with 1,219 receiving yards in 14 games. Diggs ranks 7th nationally in all-purpose yardage.

1,065 - In just his 8th game this season, North Carolina sophomore TB Giovani Bernard topped the 1,000-yard mark for the second time in his career. Bernard now has 1,065 yards in just 9 games this year. Bernard, who totalled 1,253 yards as a redshirt freshman, becomes only the second player in ACC history to have rushed for 1,000 or more yards in his freshman and sophomore seasons joining former UNC standout Amos Lawrence, who has 1,211 yards as a freshman in 1977 and added 1,043 yards as a sophomore in 1978.

1,351 - The total number of yards of offense for both Clemson (754) and NC State (597) in the Tigers' 62-48 win. That is an ACC record. The old record of 1,292 yards was set by Florida State (858) and Maryland (434) in a 69-21 Seminoles victory in 1992.

Noting ACC Football

Florida State's Bjoern Werner Named Finalist For The FWAA Nagurski Award

Florida State junior DE Bjoern Werner was named one of the five finalists for the 2012 Bronko Nagurski Trophy announced last week by the Football Writers Association of America and the Charlotte Touchdown Club.

Vying for the honor of college football's National Defensive Player of the Year are four underclassmen and one senior: South Carolina sophomore end Jadeveon Clowney, Georgia junior linebacker Jarvis Jones, Alabama junior cornerback Dee Milliner, Notre Dame senior linebacker Manti Te'o and Florida State junior end Bjoern Werner.

ACC players have captured the Nagurski in each of the past two seasons. Clemson DE Da'Quan Bowers captured the Nagurski Award in 2010 after leading the nation in QB sacks while Boston College LB Luke Kuechly won the honor last year after leading the nation in tackles for the second consecutive year.

The winner will be announced on Dec. 3 and presented the Bronko Nagurski Trophy at a gala banquet at the Westin Hotel in Charlotte, N.C., where Notre Dame head coach Brian Kelly will give the keynote address. The event will be televised by NFL Network.

The FWAA's National Defensive Player of the Year Award is named after Bronko Nagurski, who dominated college football at Minnesota as a bruising fullback and defensive tackle from 1927-29. He could have been an All-American at any position and was the best player wherever the coaches put him. The FWAA has presented a National Defensive Player of the Year Award since 1993 and in the name of Nagurski since 1995.

Werner, a German-born player has sparked for the Seminoles' top-ranked defense. He has 29 tackles (22 unassisted). He has 12.5 tackles for 84 yards in losses, of which eight of those are sacks for 69 yards in losses. He has broken up six passes and deflected six passes, hurried the quarterback five times and forced a fumble. Werner is the third Florida State finalist for the Nagurski Trophy (Derrick Brooks, 1993; Sam Cowart, 1997).

ACC and Orange Bowl Committee Announce Opponent and Broadcast Partner

Discover Orange Bowl to match ACC vs. Big Ten, SEC or Notre Dame

The Atlantic Coast Conference and the Orange Bowl Committee have announced that the Discover Orange Bowl will annually feature the ACC Champion against an opponent from the Big Ten Conference, Southeastern Conference or the University of Notre Dame as part of the 12-year agreement that begins following the 2014 season. In addition, ESPN will serve as the broadcast partner, and the historic bowl game will either be played in an exclusive prime-time window New Year's Eve or on New Year's Day, pending the schedule of the new collegiate post-season playoff games.

The selection of the opponent will be based on the guiding principle of securing the highest-ranked team in the final standings available from the Big Ten, SEC or Notre Dame, but will also utilize criteria that shares the minimum appearance standards as agreed upon by all parties. The standards include at least three guaranteed appearances over the 12 years for both the Big Ten and the SEC and a maximum of two with no minimum for Notre Dame.

"We are pleased to have finalized our long-term partnership which brings tremendous exposure and value to the ACC and our member institutions," said ACC Commissioner John Swofford. "The Discover Orange Bowl has a rich history of prestige and featuring our teams against opponents from the Big Ten, SEC and potentially Notre Dame provides attractive matchups year in and year out. The opportunity to partner with ESPN to showcase the game on either New Year's Eve or New Year's Day provides us with a terrific way for fans to ring in the New Year in South Florida."

"The Orange Bowl Committee is truly excited about the completion of our bowl matchup with the ACC Champion by solidifying that their opponent will be from either the Big Ten, SEC or Notre Dame, at a special time of year in beautiful South Florida," said O. Ford Gibson, Orange Bowl Committee president and chair.

"Undoubtedly this arrangement will provide tremendous national visibility and generate significant economic impact to the South Florida Community. The Orange Bowl values our special partnership with the Atlantic Coast Conference, as we are looking forward to strengthening our already deep relationships with the Big Ten, SEC and Notre Dame."

"Our continued media partnership with ESPN is of great importance to the Discover Orange Bowl property," said Eric Poms, Orange Bowl Committee chief executive officer. "The worldwide leader in sports brings the optimal platform to annually showcase one of college football's great traditions."

"The Orange Bowl qualifies as one of the most prestigious events in college football's postseason and Notre Dame has played a part in that history, three times playing number-one ranked teams in our five previous appearances," said Notre Dame Athletic Director Jack Swarbrick. "We are honored to partner with two of the premier conferences, the SEC and the Big Ten, to make certain the ACC will have a top-flight opponent on a regular basis."

As was previously released, the ACC selected the Discover Orange Bowl to be its annual contract bowl partner, serving as the home of the ACC Champion in the new postseason college football arrangement recently announced by the BCS Presidential Oversight Committee. If the ACC Champion is identified as one of the top four teams by the Bowl Championship Series selection committee, then the ACC Champion will participate in the national semifinals and a replacement team from the ACC would participate in the Discover Orange Bowl.

In addition to the partnership between the ACC and the Orange Bowl Committee, it is anticipated that the Orange Bowl will host at least four semifinal games in the new postseason college football structure. In the years that the Orange Bowl serves as a semifinal host, the ACC Champion would then participate in one of the three host bowls that will be established as per the direction of the BCS Presidential Oversight Committee.

The Discover Orange Bowl has been the home of the ACC Champion since 2006 and in the first seven years of partnership, five different ACC teams have competed. Throughout the 78-year history, nine of the current ACC institutions have played in at least one Orange Bowl.

The Atlantic Coast Conference and the BCS

The Atlantic Coast Conference has been a member of the Bowl Championship Series (BCS) since its inception for the 1998 season. ACC Commissioner John Swofford, is the only Commissioner to twice serve as BCS Coordinator, having done so in the 2000 and 2001 seasons and again in the 2008 and 2009 campaigns, as the ACC successfully administered the BCS on two separate occasions. Swofford is also the last Commissioner to serve as BCS Coordinator. In 2009, the BCS group named longtime college administrator Bill Hancock to serve as the first Executive Director of the Bowl Championship Series. Hancock has since assumed most of the duties previously handled by the coordinator. Prior to being named Executive Director, Hancock served four years as the Administrator for the BCS.

BCS Standings

The BCS Standings are composed of three elements that are weighted equally: the USA Today Coaches poll, 2) the Harris poll, and 3) the average of six computer poll rankings. The highest and lowest computer ranking is discarded each week with the computer average based on the remaining four rankings. The BCS Standings are compiled and released by the National Football Foundation eight times during the season, beginning this year on Sunday, October 16 and ending on BCS Selection Sunday, December 4.

(2013 bowl games) is the third year of the current four-year television agreement with ESPN, which will televise all five BCS games.

Six conferences (ACC, Big East, Big 12, Big Ten, SEC and Pac-12) have earned annual automatic qualification for the 2010-13 seasons by virtue of contracts to host the bowl games, and/or by having met a four-year metric based on competitive results (The ACC champion plays in the Discover Orange Bowl, the Big Ten and Pac-12 champs in the Rose Bowl presented by Vizio, Big 12 in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and SEC in the Allstate Sugar Bowl). Additionally, the highest-ranked champion of Conference USA, Mid-American, Mountain West, Sun Belt or Western Athletic conferences will be guaranteed a slot in a BCS game if that team is

Playoff Coming In 2014-15

On June 26, 2012, the BCS Presidential Oversight Committee agreed to launch a four-team playoff beginning with the 2014-15 season. The new format will continue at least 12 years, through the 2025-26 season. The semifinals will be rotated among six bowl games and will be played either New Year's Eve or New Year's Day. The championship game, to be managed by the 11 conferences and rotated among neutral sites every year, will be on a Monday at least six days after the last semifinal game. A selection committee will rank the teams for the playoff.

ranked 12th or higher in the final BCS standings, 16th or higher if its ranking is higher than that of a champion from one of the six conferences with automatic qualification. Other teams are eligible to be selected at large by a bowl game if they finish among the top 14.

The champions of the Big Ten and the Pac-12 will play in the Rose Bowl if they do not qualify for the National Championship Game. Other "regional consideration" tie-ins include the SEC champion in the Sugar Bowl, the ACC champion in the Orange Bowl and the Big 12 champion in the Fiesta Bowl if those teams are not ranked No. 1 or No. 2 in the final BCS Standings.

Bill Hancock, Executive Director

Longtime athletics administrator Bill Hancock was named the first Executive Director of the Bowl Championship Series on November 17, 2009 and, in doing so, achieved a unique double-double at the upper echelon of intercollegiate athletics. He was the first full-time director of the NCAA Final Four and is now the first executive director of the BCS. Hancock served for 13 years as director of the NCAA's Division I Men's Basketball Championship--the three-week March Madness event that culminates at the Final Four. After a family tragedy, he retired in 2002 and for three years was the tournament's media coordinator on a consulting basis before being named BCS administrator in October of 2005. He is a 1972 journalism graduate of the University of Oklahoma and worked in sports information at his alma mater and also on the staff of the Big Eight Conference before being named director of the Final Four in 1989.

Heading into its 15th year of determining the National Championship in college football, the Bowl Championship Series (BCS) is a five-game arrangement that is designed to match the two top-rated teams and to create competitive match ups among eight other highly regarded teams in four other games.

The bowl games participating are the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, the Discover Orange Bowl, the Rose Bowl Game presented by Vizio and the Allstate Sugar Bowl. In addition, the BCS National Championship Game is played at one of the bowl sites, this year at Sun Life Stadium in Miami Gardens Fla., on January 7, 2013.

The term "BCS conference" frequently is used incorrectly. Actually, all 11 NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) conferences are "BCS conferences" because the BCS arrangement is managed by the commissioners of the 11 NCAA FBS conferences and the director of athletics at the University of Notre Dame. The conferences are Atlantic Coast, Big East, Big Ten, Big 12, Conference USA, Mid-American, Mountain West, Sun Belt, Pacific-12, the Southeastern and the Western Athletic.

The conference commissioners and the Notre Dame athletics director make decisions regarding all BCS issues, in consultation with an athletics directors advisory group and subject to the approval of a presidential oversight committee whose members represent all 120 NCAA FBS programs.

The BCS games are operated by community-based organizations in each of the host cities. In addition, there are 30 other post-season bowls, which are managed independently by entities in 27 cities around the nation. All bowl games provide meaningful season-ending opportunities for student-athletes.

The BCS is remarkably successful. It maintains and enhances the importance of the regular season and preserves the unique bowl tradition to the benefit of the student-athletes. And it matches the top two teams. Before the creation of the BCS and its predecessors, the Bowl Coalition and Bowl Alliance, the top two teams had met in a bowl game only eight times in the previous 56 seasons. They have met in each of the last 14 seasons by BCS standards, and 11 of the last 14 seasons according to the Associated Press poll. The 2012 regular season
