V KLÖCKNER STADIUM

Klockner Stadium remains one of the nation's premier college soccer facilities as it heads into its 25th season of play in 2016. The facility was tabbed as college soccer's 2015 Field of the Year by the Sports Turf Managers Association (STMA).

The Virginia men's soccer team has won over 80 percent of its matches during its 24 seasons at Klöckner Stadium, sporting a 257-52-20 (.812) all-time mark on the Klöckner pitch, including an 8-1-2 mark at home last year.

The venerable stadium has played host to 48 men's soccer NCAA tournament games, including nine NCAA quarterfinal matches. Virginia is 35-11-2 (.740) in NCAA Tournament games held at Klöckner Stadium.

In addition to serving as the home of the Cavaliers' men's soccer program, Klöckner Stadium also plays host to Virginia's women's soccer and the UVA men's and women's lacrosse teams.

The state-of-the-art facility was unveiled on Aug. 30, 1992, when 6,142 fans gathered for a dedication exhibition match between Santa Clara and Virginia. The rematch between the two finalists from the 1991 NCAA championship game was a fitting matchup to officially dedicate a facility where UVA would prove virtually unbeatable in the Built at a cost of $3.4 million, Klöckner Stadium was made possible through the generosity of the Klöckner Group donating $1.2 million to the construction the stadium.

Klöckner, with headquarters in Germany, is an established and well-known industrial conglomerate specializing in steel, machinery, equipment and packaging materials. Its subsidiary, Klöckner-Pentaplast, is one of the nation's leading plastic film manufacturers. Klöckner operates numerous manufacturing plants throughout the United States, including one in Gordonsville, Va., outside

The $1.2 million gift from Klöckner went toward completion of the first phase of the Klöckner Stadium project. The project's first phase included permanent seating in the grandstand for 3,600 (with additional hillside seating for approximately 3,500 people), a regulation-size natural grass field, a full-size practice field adjacent to the stadium, team locker rooms, a press box, an indoor VIP box, scoreboard, concession stands and restrooms.

The second phase of the stadium project, the installation of a lighting system, was completed during the summer of 1995. The Klöckner Group renewed its commitment to the University as the largest donor to this project. The lighting system provides lighting on the playing field as well as on the walkways leading to the stadium from surrounding streets and parking lots.

UVA played its first night game at Klöckner Stadium on September 13, 1995, against Virginia Tech as 3,358 fans braved a threatening thunderstorm to attend the historic game. Despite a 30-minute first-half rain delay, many fans remained to cheer the Cavaliers on to a 7-1 victory.

V HEAD COACH GEORGE GELNOVATCH

George Gelnovatch is in the midst of his 21st season as the head coach of the Virginia men's soccer program. The longest tenured head coach in program history, Gelnovatch has led the Cavaliers to a pair of national championships in 2009 and 2014 as well as five NCAA College Cup appearances and 20-consecutive berths in the NCAA tournament.

A former Cavalier soccer All-American and assistant coach, Gelnovatch has guided Virginia to four ACC tournament titles, two regular-season ACC championships and a record of 284-117-44 (.688) during his tenure as UVA head coach. Over the course of his 27 years as an assistant and head coach at Virginia, he has been a part of all seven of the Cavaliers' national championships.

Gelnovatch is the first coach in NCAA Division I men's soccer history to lead 20 straight teams to the NCAA tournament. He is one of just eight coaches in the Division I men's soccer annals to take 20 teams to the tournament and one of only four active coaches to do so.

Gelnovatch ranks as the 10th-winningest active head coach in Division I college soccer, with a .688 career winning percentage. He stands 20st in career wins among current head coaches. Among Division I coaches alltime, he ranks 37th in career winning percentage and 50th in wins. These figures are even more striking when considering Gelnovatch's teams play one of the nation's toughest schedules on a yearly basis.

Virginia has won at least 15 games in a season nine times under Gelnovatch, including 2009 when the team recorded 19 victories en route to the conference and national championships.

Gelnovatch has developed a number of Major League Soccer players during his UVA tenure, with 23 players going in MLS drafts and nine in the MLS Supplemental Draft, while five signed Project-40/Generation Adidas contracts and Jordan Allen (2014), Derrick Etienne (2015) and Scott Thomsen (2015) each signed MLS Homegrown contracts. Jason Moore (1999) and Alecko Eskandarian (2003) were selected No. 1 in the MLS Draft, as 10 Cavaliers have been picked in the first round of the various MLS drafts.

Gelnovatch was named the 10th coach of the Virginia program on Jan. 3, 1996, after Bruce Arena announced he would end his 18-year career at the helm of UVA soccer to become head coach and assistant general manager of Major League Soccer's D.C. United.

YEAR-BY-YEAR

Gelnovatch led Virginia to the NCAA tournament for the 20th straight time in his head coaching tenure in 2015 as the Cavaliers went 10-5-3, including a 4-2-2 mark in ACC play. Senior Todd Wharton earned All-Region honors while guiding a young squad, as over half of the minutes played came from underclassmen.

Gelnovatch guided Virginia to the program's seventh national championship in 2014 as part of a 14-6-3 campaign. Once it reached the NCAA tournament, UVA caught fire. The Cavaliers advanced through road matches at top-seeded Notre Dame and eighth-seeded Georgetown to reach the NCAA College Cup, where UVA topped UMBC, 1-0, before ousting second-seeded UCLA in a penalty-kick shootout for the championship.

UVA used a stifling defense to make its run to the title. The Cavaliers surrendered just two goals in the postseason, and none in the College Cup. Senior midfielder Eric Bird was named an All-American for the second straight season and was selected by the Philadelphia Union in the MLS SuperDraft following the season.

The year prior, he mentored Virginia to the program's fourth NCAA College Cup appearance during his tenure when he brought a young team into the final four. UVA posted a 13-6-5 record, recording wins over St. John's, Marquette and Connecticut to punch its ticket to the College Cup. UVA also handed eventual national champion Notre Dame its lone loss of the 2013 season (2-0 in South Bend) and also bounced them from the ACC tournament in a penalty-kick shootout.

In 2009 Gelnovatch guided the Cavaliers to the ACC championship before taking the team on a classic run through the NCAA tournament, culminating with a thrilling shootout win over Akron in the NCAA Championship Game for UVA's sixth NCAA title.

Career 284-117-44 73-52-21

Midfielder Tony Tchani and goalkeeper Diego Restrepo were named First-Team All-Americans in 2009, while Will Bates was named the National Freshman of the Year. Gelnovatch, meanwhile, earned National Coach of the Year honors at the conclusion of the season.

Tchani was selected in the first round of the 2009 MLS SuperDraft to continue a strong pipeline of prominent soccer talent from Charlottesville to the professional ranks under Gelnovatch.

In 2006, Gelnovatch led the Cavaliers to their eighth College Cup appearance. UVA finished with a 17-4-1 overall record and a 3rd-place showing in the ACC. Junior midfielder Nico Colaluca earned First-Team All-America honors from College Soccer News.

V HEAD COACH GEORGE GELNOVATCH

Gelnovatch had another successful season in 2005 as he guided the Cavaliers to a second-place finish in the ACC. Three Cavaliers earned All-ACC honors in 2005 as freshman forward Yannick Reyering was named First-Team All-ACC and an ACC All-Freshman team selection, while forward Adam Cristman and midfielder Nico Colaluca earned All-ACC Second Team honors.

In 2004, he led UVA to its sixth consecutive appearance in the ACC Championship Finals, where the Cavaliers were crowned conference champions for the 3rd time during his tenure. Virginia made another deep run in NCAA Tournament, advancing to the quarterfinal round. Following the season, Gelnovatch was honored as the 2004 NSCAA/ adidas South Atlantic Region Coach of the Year.

In 2003, the Cavaliers turned in a record of 11-10-2 overall and saved their best performances for last. Gelnovatch led Virginia to its first ACC Championship since 1997 and kept alive its consecutive streak of NCAA Tournament appearance by advancing to the NCAA Third

In 2002 after his team finished the season 15-7-0, Gelnovatch watched four of his players step into the professional ranks to pursue playing careers in Major League Soccer, including the Missouri Athletic Club's Hermann Trophy Award winner and National Player of the Year nominee - Alecko Eskandarian. Eskandarian became the eventual No. 1 pick in the 2003 MLS SuperDraft and was joined in the draft by teammates David Comfort, Kenny Arena and Jacob LeBlanc.

In 2001, Gelnovatch guided UVA through a fantastic regular season. He led Virginia to its first undefeated regular season since 1986 after going 16-0-1 overall, 6-0-0 in the ACC. More impressive than going undefeated in the conference, the Cavaliers became the first ACC team to ever go undefeated in the league after winning all of its games by shutout. Gelnovatch was named the ACC Coach of the Year after his Cavaliers finished the season 17-2-1.

In 2000, Gelnovatch led the Cavaliers to a 17-6-1 mark and a spot in the NCAA Quarterfinals. Virginia entered the tournament as the fifth-seeded team after playing one of the toughest schedules in the

In 1999, UVA went 14-9-1 and advanced to the NCAA Tournament quarterfinals and the ACC Finals. In 1998, Virginia finished 16-4-3 overall, advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals and Gelnovatch had two players named as finalists for the MAC Award and two players named finalists for the Hermann Trophy.

In 1997, the Cavaliers recorded the most wins ever under Gelnovatch (19), which ranks as the 3rd highest win total in a single season at UVA, after the Cavaliers posted an overall record of 19-4-3. Virginia finished as the NCAA runner-up after falling in the championship game. UVA won the ACC Tournament title, outscoring its opponents by the count of 8-1 in three games. The Cavaliers also earned a share of the ACC regular-season title, finishing with a 3-1-2 mark in conference games.

In his first season at the helm of the UVA program in 1996, Gelnovatch guided his team to an overall record of 16-3-3 and an ACC regular season title. His 16 victories were the most ever by a first-year coach at Virginia with his .795 winning percentage also being the best by a UVA coach in his first season. Gelnovatch also became the first-ever Cavalier men's soccer coach to lead his squad to the NCAA Tournament during his first year on the job. He was honored as the 1996 ACC Coach of the Year thanks to that feat.

ASSISTANT COACHING CAREER

Gelnovatch's first coaching position at Virginia began in 1989 when he became a part-time assistant and he helped guide the Cavaliers to a share of the NCAA title and then an outright national championship in 1991. He was promoted to Arena's top assistant in June 1992 and helped the program complete its unprecedented four-year run of national championships (1991-94) and a record-setting campaign in 1995, which included just the second unbeaten regular season (16-0-2) by any ACC team in 14 years. Virginia finished with a 21-1-2 record in 1995 after losing to Duke 3-2 in the NCAA semifinals.

During Gelnovatch's years as an assistant, the UVA program compiled a record of 25-2-2 in the NCAA Tournament and a mark of 37-4-4 in the entire postseason (including the ACC Tournament). Virginia compiled an overall record of 138-18-14 (.853 winning percentage) during Gelnovatch's tenure as an assistant coach.

After becoming a part of the UVA coaching staff, Gelnovatch helped recruit some of the greatest players to ever wear a Cavalier uniform. Virginia welcomed numerous high school All-Americans who went on to post All-America seasons on the collegiate level. Among the players that Gelnovatch helped recruit as a UVA assistant coach are National Players of the Year Mike Fisher and Ben Olsen and five players who competed for the U.S. in the 1996 Olympic games: Clint Peay, A.J. Wood, Brandon Pollard, Damian Silvera and Billy Walsh.

PLAYING CAREER

Gelnovatch graduated from Virginia in 1987 after playing a vital role on Cavalier teams that went 67-14-4 (.812) from 1983-86. He still ranks fifth on UVA's career scoring list (118 points) and fifth on the school's career goals list (49). From 1983-85, he teamed with UVA's second alltime leading scorer Jeff Gaffney to form one of the most potent forward tandems in Cavalier history. As a senior in 1986, Gelnovatch became UVA's 3rd first-team All-American, while earning first-team All-ACC honors after being selected to the conference second-team his first three seasons. UVA made four NCAA Tournament appearances and captured three ACC championships during Gelnovatch's collegiate years.

Following his collegiate career, Gelnovatch was drafted by the Minnesota Strikers of the Major Indoor Soccer League (MISL). His playing career also included three years in the American Professional Soccer League (APSL) from 1990-92, and a stint as a starting defender for Arena's D.C. United team in 1996.

Gelnovatch has rejoined Arena on several occasions, including as an assistant coach with the United States National Team in the 2002 World Cup. The U.S. team made a valiant run into the quarterfinal round of the World Cup and finished 2-2-1 in the event. In 1999, he was appointed to coach the Under-18 United States National Team.

PERSONAL

A native of Wall, N.J., Gelnovatch earned prep All-America honors while playing for Wall High School. He is married to the former Melissa Sanders. The couple has two children, Jake and Sunny.

Associate Head Coach 11th Season

Virginia alumnus and three-time All-American Matt Chulis is in his 11th season on the coaching staff of the Virginia men's soccer program in 2016, including his seventh as the team's associate head coach.

Chulis was instrumental in Virginia's runs to the 2009 and 2014 NCAA Championships. During Chulis's time on the UVA coaching staff, the Cavaliers have reached 10 straight NCAA tournaments and made four NCAA College Cup appearances (2006, 2009, 2013, 2014).

Following the 2009 season, Chulis was elevated from assistant coach to associate head coach.

Prior to joining the UVA staff, Chulis spent several years playing professionally. He played for the Long Island Rough Riders in 2005 after spending three seasons (2002-04) in the United Soccer League (USL) playing for the Pittsburgh Riverhounds and Portland Timbers (2001).

Chulis spent time in Major League Soccer (MLS) playing for the Columbus Crew (1999-00) and the Chicago Fire (2001). Off the field, he served as the Super Y League Director for the Rough Riders. Chulis was a student assistant coach at Virginia while finishing up his bachelor's degree in sociology during the 2004-05 academic year. He holds his USSF "A" coaching license and USSF national youth license.

One of the most decorated Cavalier defenders in school history, Chulis played four seasons for Virginia (1995-98). He was a three-time NSCAA All-American and three-time All-ACC first-team selection. Chulis was named NSCAA National Defender of the Year and was a finalist for the Hermann Trophy in 1998. He led the Cavaliers to 32 shutouts in four seasons. Chulis started 93 games (fifth in school history) and played 8,483 career minutes (second in program history).

Chulis earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from Virginia in 2005. He is married to Colleen Minnock Chulis. The couple has two sons, Luke and Declan, and a daughter, Adelle.

Operations Assistant 2nd Season

A.J. Barnold is serving in his second season as the operations assistant for the Virginia men's soccer program. Barnold's responsibilities include all aspects of video editing and analysis, overseeing the general welfare of the Virginia men's soccer student-athletes and assisting the coaching staff with day-to-day operations.

Prior to his move to Charlottesville, Barnold spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Lafayette. In 2014 he was elevated to first assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for the Leopards. Barnold was involved in all areas of the Lafayette program, including coaching, scheduling, recruiting and video and scouting analysis.

Barnold was an assistant coach at his alma mater, Muhlenberg College, from 2011-13 and began his coaching career by spending two years as an assistant at Arcadia University from 2009-11. Barnold also served as the head coach of FC Lehigh Valley United's 1999 Boys Gold team from 2011-14.

Barnold also worked as an adjunct lecturer in the psychology department at Muhlenberg from 2011-14, teaching sport psychology.

Associate Head Coach 3rd Season

Terry Boss is serving in his third season on the Virginia men's soccer staff and his first as an associate head coach after spending the first two years as an assistant coach. He primarily works with Virginia's goalkeepers after playing eight years of professional soccer as a goalkeeper.

As part of his second year at Virginia, Boss mentored goalkeeper Jeff Caldwell, who played in all 18 matches and was selected to the All-ACC Team, becoming UVA's first keeper to earn all-conference honors since Boss's first season at Virginia was a memorable one as the Cavaliers went 14-6-3 and rolled to the national championship. Goalkeeper Calle Brown was named the Most Valuable Defensive Player of the NCAA College Cup as UVA recorded clean sheets in wins over UMBC and UCLA.

Boss spent the 2013 season as an assistant coach at Oregon State after working as his alma mater, Tulsa. While an assistant at TU in 2012, Boss helped the Golden Hurricane to a 14-6-1 overall record and a Conference USA Tournament championship as the team advanced to the NCAA round of 16. Tulsa recorded eight shutouts and faced five opponents ranked among the nation's top-25.

Boss played professionally for eight seasons before retiring in 2012. His last three seasons were spent playing for the Seattle Sounders of Major League Soccer. During his time in Seattle, he played with Kasey Keller, one of the premier American goalkeepers of all time. As a Sounder, Boss won three consecutive US Open Cup titles and played against some of the best clubs in the world, including Chelsea, Barcelona, Manchester United, Celtic, Chivas de Guadalajara and Boca Juniors.

Boss played for three years with Major League Soccer's Seattle Sounders (2009-12). Prior to that, he was with the New York Red Bulls (2008-09), as well as the United Soccer League's Charlotte Eagles (2005, 2008) and Puerto Rico Islanders (2006-07). He was also a member of the Puerto Rico National Team from 2009-12. Boss recorded 10 caps for his national team and helped Puerto Rico compete in the 2010 and 2014 preliminary World Cup Qualifying Rounds.

During his tenure with the Sounders, Boss started eight games, logging 765 minutes in goal. He picked up 28 saves and three shutouts, and posted a 6-2-1 record. Before his MLS career, Boss earned USL-2 Goalkeeper of the Year honors while helping the Charlotte Eagles reach the USL-2 Championship match in 2008. During that season, Boss had a league-leading 11 wins and nine shutouts, and was ranked second with a 0.69 goals-against average.

Boss earned his bachelor's degree in finance in 2004 from Tulsa. He has a USSF B License and USSF Goalkeeping License.

A Philomath, Oregon, native, Boss is married to Hannah. His brother, Kevin, won a Super Bowl championship and played tight end with the New York Giants.

Barnold was a three-year starter at center back and part of a pair of NCAA tournament teams during his playing career at Muhlenberg. Barnold was a First-Team All-Centennial Conference honoree and a Centennial Conference Academic Honor Roll selection during his senior year in 2008. In 40 career starts on defense, he led the Mules to 19 shutouts.

He graduated Cum Laude from Muhlenberg with a bachelor's degree in psychology in 2009. During his time at Arcadia, Barnold earned a master's degree in exercise and sport psychology from Temple University.

VIRGINIA'S RETIRED NUMBER No. 14 - JEFF GAFFNEY

The University of Virginia retired former All-America soccer player Jeff Gaffney's number—14—in April of 1987. The 1984 and 1985 All-America selection is the only Virginia soccer player to have his number retired.

A graduate of Walt Whitman High School in Bethesda, Md., Gaffney finished his collegiate career as UVA's all-time leader in goals and scoring, totaling 69 goals and 17 assists for 155 points. His career scoring record has since been broken by Mike Fisher, who had 167 points from 1993-96. In his final season in 1985, Gaffney had 18 goals and three assists. He earned second-team All-America honors and led the Cavaliers to a 15-4-1 record and their fifth consecutive NCAA playoff

In 1984, Gaffney had 16 goals and seven assists. He was named the Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year and a first-team All-American. During his four years at Virginia, the Cavaliers compiled a 66-14-4 record (.810), won two ACC titles and earned four NCAA playoff berths. He finished his career 3rd on the ACC career goals list and fifth on the ACC points list.

After notching 14 goals and five assists as a first-year player in 1982, Gaffney set Virginia records with 21 goals and 44 points during the 1983 season as the Cavaliers advanced to the NCAA semifinals. Following his outstanding soccer career, Gaffney participated on the 1986 UVA football team as a place-kicker. He later tried out as a place-kicker with several teams in the National Football League.

Gaffney received his bachelor's degree in economics from UVA in the spring of 1987. He is currently a sales manager and the principle broker for the Forest Lakes residential community in Charlottesville.

Teams declared co-champions

December 4, 1989 • New Brunswick, N.J. Santa Clara 0 1 0 0 0 0 - 10 0 0 0 0 - 1 Virginia 1 Scoring: UVA-Fallon (Williams, Yorks) 26:48; SC-Baicher (Smith) 83:37.

Shots: SC 12 (Holocher 4, Bravo 2, Baicher 2, Broughton, Rast, Robertson, Barreras), UVA 10 (Fallon 4, Williams 2, Onalfo, J. The 1989 season opened with promise, as the Cavaliers won their first 11 games of the year. Despite losing to Duke in the ACC Tournament, UVA advanced in the NCAAs with a 4-1 win over Philadelphia Textile and a 1-0 triumph against South Carolina.

The Cavaliers moved on to the national semifinals, where they would play at Rutgers. UVa dispatched the Scarlet Knights 3-0 before 7,836 fans as John Maessner scored two goals, while Tim Kunihiro added a goal and freshman Brad Agoos equaled his season total with two timely assists.

The championship game was played two days later in sub-zero wind chill at Rutgers Stadium. Virginia would share the title with Santa Clara after a 1-1 draw at the end of regulation and 60 minutes of scoreless overtime. The coaches association had decided against a shootout in the NCAA title game and thus the Cavaliers and Broncos were declared co-champs.

UVA struck first in the title game, when Lyle Yorks sent a corner kick to Richie Williams, who headed the ball to Drew Fallon five yards from the goal. Fallon then beat Santa Clara goalkeeper Eric Yamamoto to give the Cavaliers a 1-0 lead at 26:48. UVA maintained the edge until late in the second half, when a pass intended for Tony Meola was intercepted. Jeff Baicher caught Meola going the wrong way for the equalizer, with just 6:23 remaining in regulation.

Neither team was able to score again in the worsening conditions, as the game went through the two regulation 15 minute overtime periods and then two 15 minute sudden-death overtimes. The game ended as the second-longest in NCAA Tournament history and yielded the first co-champions since 1968, when Maryland and Michigan State tied. Meola was named the tournament's Most Valuable Defensive Player, as he guarded against 12 shots, seven coming in the four overtimes.

UVA won 3-1 on penalty kicks December 8, 1991 • Tampa, Fla.

Shots: SC 10 (Broughton 2, Schmidt 2, Cochran, Hampton, Rast, Arya, Cruz, Stiles), UVA 16 (Wood 5, Reyna 4, Crawley 3, Williams, Imler, Bates, Champ); Saves: SC 6 (Rueda 6), UVA 5 (Causey 5); Corner Kicks: SC 8, UVA 9; Fouls: SC 34, UVA 30; Attendance: 3,912; Records: SC 20-1-2,

Combining a blend of youthful rookies and veterans, Virginia capped off another successful season in 1991 by capturing the NCAA title for the second time in three years.

The Cavaliers suffered a 2-0 loss to Wake Forest early in the season, despite outshooting the Demon Deacons 15-2, but would not lose another game the rest of the year while posting a 19-1-2 record.

After gaining revenge against Wake Forest with a 3-1 victory in the ACC title game, the Cavaliers moved on to the NCAA Tournament. UVA defeated Hartford 2-1 in overtime on a goal by A.J. Wood, then downed Yale 2-0 to make it back to the semifinals.

With the final four taking place at the University of South Florida, UVA trailed Saint Louis 2-1 late in the game and the Cavaliers' title hopes were in jeopardy. Virginia applied intense offensive pressure toward the end of regulation and it paid off when Ben Crawley headed in a pass from Mike Huwiler to send the game into overtime. After no one scored in the first two extra sessions, Crawley headed in a cross from Lyle Yorks at 121:50 to put UVA into the title game.

The opponent in the final was a familiar one, as UVA once again faced Santa Clara. As was the case two years earlier, the game was a close one, and neither team scored during regulation. The match would not go to overtime without some controversy however, as Scott Champ headed in a cross from Richie Williams just as the final second ticked away, but the goal was not allowed.

The teams played for 60 more minutes, but both sides remained unable to find the net. Unlike two years earlier, the game now moved on to a penalty-kick shootout, and Bruce Arena opted to use rested backup goalkeeper Tom Henske in the net. Henske would stop two of Santa Clara's first three shots, while Huwiler, Crawley and Erik Imler all converted to put the Cavaliers up 3-1. Henske then clinched the title by swatting away a low shot from Bruce Broughton.

The Cavaliers began the 1992 season by unveiling the premier facility in collegiate soccer, Klöckner Stadium. In the inaugural game, an exhibition contest against Santa Clara, Virginia posted a 1-0 win in front of 6,142 fans. Playing two-3rds of its games at home, UVA went on to win its first 14 contests of the season and push its unbeaten streak to an ACC record 32 games.

Despite two losses late in the regular season, the Cavaliers went on to win the ACC title and defeat both Penn State (4-1) and Dartmouth (3-0) to move on to the NCAA semifinals. Virginia went to Davidson, N.C., looking to become the first team to repeat as NCAA champions since Indiana took the title in 1982

ACC rival Duke was waiting in the semifinals but goalkeeper Jeff Causey and the UVA defense posted a shutout, with midfielder Tain Nix providing a clear off the goal line early in the second half. Ben Crawley, who had dedicated the postseason to the memory of his mother, Linda, scored the game winner against the Blue Devils, knocking home a onehop pass from Nix at 59:53. The Cavaliers then broke the game open, as A.J. Wood and Brian Bates both scored to give UVA a 3-0 win.

The Cavaliers' opponent in the title game was the University of San Diego, who had beaten perennial powers UCLA and Indiana, and downed local favorite Davidson in the semifinals (3-2 in OT). The championship game was scoreless until Nate Friends broke the tie at the 69:31 mark. Brad Agoos sent the ball into the box and Friends knocked an off-balance shot off goalkeeper Scott Garlick, but claimed the rebound and lofted the ball into the goal to give Virginia a 1-0 lead.

Claudio Reyna controlled the action for the majority of the time remaining. Reyna's pass down the right wing in the 77th minute found Agoos, who crossed the ball into a crowded box. Erik Imler came flying in near the left post for an easy header and the clinching 2-0 lead. Reyna was named the tournament's Offensive MVP for the second straight season.

Virginia 2, South Carolina 0 December 5, 1993 • Davidson, N.C.

Virginia 1 1 . – o – South Carolina 0 Scoring: UVA-Friends (Fisher) 39:54; UVA-Friends (Fisher) 85:59.

Shots: UVA 7 (Reyna 2, Friends 2, Fisher, Silvera, Slivinski), USC 6 (Baumhoff 2, Smith, Faklaris, Pier, Scheving); Saves: UVA 6 (Causey 6), USC 3 (Turner 3); Corner Kicks: UVA 6, USC 4: Fouls: UVA 12. USC 8: Offsides: UVA 1. USC 3; Attendance: 10,549; Records: UVA 22-3-0, USC 16-4-4.

Riding the momentum of the 1992 championship, UVa won its first 11 games and extended its winning streak to a record 17. Clemson would bring the streak to end, as the Cavaliers dropped a tough 2-1 game with the Tigers scoring in the final seconds. UVa later gained revenge against Clemson with a 2-1 win in the ACC title game.

In the NCAAs, the Cavaliers defeated both William & Mary and Loyola by scores of 2-1, then dominated Wisconsin in a 3-0 game which placed UVa in the semifinals for the 3rd year in a row. It also put the Cavaliers in position to win an unprecedented 3rd consecutive NCAA title.

Returning to Davidson for the semifinals, UVa faced Princeton and former UVa assistant Bob Bradley. The Tigers' zone gave Claudio Reyna room to control the ball and time to set up Nate Friends, who would go on a two-game tear. Friends opened the scoring at 3:14 off a long feed from A.J. Wood, then added another goal in the 34th minute when he put in a deflection off a shot by Wood. Three minutes prior to halftime, Friends would complete the hat trick, knocking home a rebound off a shot by Damian Silvera.

South Carolina outlasted Cal State Fullerton 1-0 in the other semifinal to extend its winning streak to 14 games and advance to its first-ever title game. But UVa had postseason experience in its favor . . . and it also had Friends.

UVa managed only seven shots in the title game, but Friends scored twice to give the Cavaliers a 2-0 win. Friends broke a scoreless tie at 39:54 when he headed home a corner kick from Mike Fisher. Later, at 85:59, Friends volleyed in a Fisher free kick to conclude the scoring. The Gamecocks had a chance to score midway through the second half, when Steve Pier broke free for a one-on-one chance against Jeff Causey, who saved the both the initial shot and a rebound try. Minutes later, Brandon Pollard knocked away a ball at the goal line to preserve the shutout.

Friends was named Offensive MVP after scoring all five of UVa's goals in the final two games, while Brian Bates was chosen as the tournament's Defensive MVP. In addition, Causey concluded his career with a 3rd straight shutout in the NCAA finals.

Virginia 1, Indiana 0 December 11, 1994 • Davidson, N.C.

Indiana Virginia 1

Scoring: UVA-Wood (Pollard, Nix) 20:06. Shots: IU 11 (Keller 3, Clark 2, Maisonneuve 2, Yeagley, Ward, Ginsberg, Weiss), UVA 9 (Wood 4, Friends 2, Silvera, Fitzmaurice, Nix); Saves: IU 4 (Coufal 4), UVA 3 (Peters 3); Corner Kicks: IU 8, UVa 6; Fouls: IU 18, UVA 28; Offsides: IU 2, UVA 1; Attendance: 12,035; Records: IU 23-3-0, UVA 22-3-1.

Heading into the 1994 season, the UVa senior class knew it could become the first in NCAA history to graduate with a championship in every year. But things would not come easy. The season opened with a 3-2 loss to Boston University, and also included a 5-1 loss at North Carolina, UVa's largest margin of defeat since 1975.

Two weeks later, in what may have been the turning point of the season, the Cavaliers rallied from a 4-1 halftime deficit to post a 6-4 win at Clemson. Virginia would go on to win the ACC Tournament for the fourth straight season, but had to battle through a 2-2 tie with Clemson in the semifinals for a victory on penalty kicks. UVa then opened NCAA Tournament play with wins over UNC Greensboro (3-0) and Maryland (2-1). Against James Madison in the quarterfinals, A.J. Wood recorded a hat trick in a 4-1 Cavalier victory as UVa advanced to the final four once again.

The semifinal opponent was Rutgers, which had lost at home to UVa in the memorably cold 1989 semifinals. The Knights' Kevin O'Connell scored in the ninth minute, but the lead would be short-lived as Damian Silvera hit the net off an assist from Tain Nix. Billy Walsh would knock home the game winner at 53:42, when he put in a cross from Brandon Pollard to seal the victory.

A crowd of over 12,000 turned out for the title game, which saw the Cavaliers face Indiana, a 4-1 victor over UCLA in the other semifinal. UVa jumped ahead in the 21st minute, on a play where Nix started the run up the left flank, crossed midfield and slid a pass to Pollard on the left flank. Pollard beat his man and used his speed to gain room down the side before sending a cross into the box. A.J. Wood knocked the ball off his chest and to his left foot before slipping it past goalkeeper Scott Coufal for the score.

Late in the first half, Indiana's Brian Maisonneuve blasted a direct kick toward the right corner, but Walsh was at the post and headed it away. Goalkeeper Mark Peters—the tournament's Defensive MVP-made two big saves in the final 10 minutes. Silvera took Offensive MVP honors and the senior class of Wood, Nix, Clint Peay and Nate Friends stood at midfield holding their fourth NCAA trophy, their names forever a part of NCAA history.

Shootout Summary

UVA. Tony Tchani (goal); Akron. Zarek Valentin (save); UVA. Ari Dimas (goal); Akron. Ben Zemanski (goal); UVA. Sean Hiller (goal); Akron. Kofi Sarkodie (post); UVA. Jonathan Villanueva (save); Akron. Scott Caldwell (goal); UVA. Greg Monaco (save); Akron. Blair Gavin (high)

Shots: Akron 12 (Bunbury 4, Speas 3, Sarkodie, Gavin, Ampaipitakwong, Zemanski, Korb), UVA 10 (Tchani 4, Bates 2, Ownby 2, Barry, Villanueva); Saves: Akron 3 (Meves 3), UVA 3 (Restrepo 3); Corner Kicks: Akron 6, UVA 4; Fouls: Akron 10, UVA 22; Offsides: Akron 2, UVA 1; Attendance: 5,679; Records: Akron 23-1-1, UVA 19-3-3

The 2009 NCAA title was the sixth for the Cavaliers in program history, having won the championship in 1989 and from 1991-94. The victory also gave the Virginia its 19th team National Championship in school history, the first since men's lacrosse in 2006.

Early in the game, the Cavaliers had a golden chance to take an early lead in the fifth minute, but Will Bates' point-blank header rattled off the post. In the 14th minute. Akron had its first scoring chance, but Diego Restrepo made a save on a shot by Anthony Ampaipitakwong. Virginia had another chance in the 27th minute as Tony Tchani headed a cross just over the bar. The Cavaliers had a 6-5 shot advantage over the first 45 minutes, but the teams remained scoreless at the half.

Akron (23-1-1) had the first scoring chance of the second half when Teal Bunbury headed a cross wide in the 54th minute. Later in the half, both teams had crosses go through the area, but neither side could get on the end of those passes and the game went to overtime scoreless.

In the overtime periods, neither side could find a game-winning goal, so the champion would be determined by a shootout. In round four with UVA leading 3-1, Jonathan Villanueva had a chance to clinch the title, but Akron keeper David Meves made a save and the Zips' Scott Caldwell converted the ensuing attempt to keep Akron alive.

Greg Monaco had Virginia's second attempt for a championship, but Meves once again made a save. Blair Gavin had the fifth attempt for Akron and needed to convert to force extra kicks, but his shot sailed over the bar to give Virginia the national championship.

Villanueva, who had two assists in the Cavaliers' semifinal win over Wake Forest was named the College Cup's Most Outstanding Offensive Player, while Restrepo, who posted his school record extending 16th shutout of the season in the final, was named the College Cup's Most Outstanding Defensive Player. Joining those players on the All-Tournament team were Brian Ownby, Mike Volk and Tchani.

Shootout Summary

UVA. Todd Wharton (goal); UCLA. Brian Iloski (goal); UVA. Scott Thomsen (save); UCLA. Gage Zerboni (crossbar); UVA. Sam Hayward (goal); UCLA. Willie Raygoza (crossbar); UVA. Patrick Foss (goal); UCLA. Larry Ndjock (goal); UVA. Riggs Lennon (goal)

Shots: UCLA 15 (Stolz 5, Danladi 3, Ndjock 2, Gasper 2, Tusaazemajja, Contreras, Simmons), UVA 9 (Bird 2, Thomsen 2, Wharton 2, Madison, Corriveau, Rozhansky); Saves: UCLA 3 (Edwards Jr. 3), UVA 3 (Brown 3); Corner Kicks: UCLA 7, UVA 5; Fouls: UCLA 19, UVA 16; Offsides: UCLA 1, UVA 0; Attendance: 8,015;

Records: UCLA 14-5-5, UVA 14-6-3

Virginia earned its seventh NCAA championship following a penalty-kick shootout against UCLA in front of 8,015 fans at WakeMed Soccer Park in Cary, N.C. After the teams played 110 scoreless minutes, Virginia won the shootout, 4-2, to earn the program's seventh national championship.

Virginia was the No. 16 seed in the field, while UCLA (14-5-5) was seeded No. 2. The Cavaliers also ousted top-seeded Notre Dame (round of 16) and eighth-seeded Georgetown (quarterfinals) on the road on their road to the championship. UVa matches the second-lowest seed to ever win a championship since the NCAA started seeding 16 teams in 2003, joining No. 16 seed Indiana in 2012. Unseeded UC Santa Barbara won the title in 2006.

Virginia converted on four of its five penalty-kick opportunities in winning the title.

Patrick Foss converted his kick, but Larry Ndjock scored on the ensuing kick to pull the Bruins within 3-2. Riggs Lennon then went right down the middle to bury the Cavaliers' fifth attempt and clinch the championship.

The teams played through a scoreless first half that was devoid of many scoring opportunities, with each side putting one shot on target

UCLA created a pair of quality scoring chances early in the second half. Ndjock was on the receiving end of both; his short shot from just outside the six was stopped by Brown, and minutes later his header to the near post sailed just wide. UVA absorbed the UCLA pressure throughout the match and particularly in the second half when the Cavaliers were out-shot, 10-3.

Virginia earned a free kick just outside the box in the 84th minute when Pablo Aguilar was tackled just prior to entering the box. Thomsen put the left-footed free kick on target, but it was stopped by Edwards Jr.

Following a set piece from 35 yards out in the 96th minute, UCLA's Abu Danladi had a point-blank shot from eight yards but Brown made a splendid save to keep the Cavaliers in it.

V COVERING THE CAVALIERS

The 2016 Virginia men's soccer fact book was prepared by the Athletics Media Relations office to assist the news media in its coverage of the Cavaliers this spring. Requests for additional information, feature materials and photographs should be made to AMR.

ATHLETICS MEDIA RELATIONS

University of Virginia P.O. Box 400853 Charlottesville, VA 22904-4853 (434) 982-5500 VirginiaSports.com

The UVA Athletics Media Relations Office is located on the first floor of John Paul Jones Arena. Regular business hours are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

PRESS CREDENTIALS/PARKING

Admission to the Klöckner Stadium press box is by official credential only and is strictly limited to members of the working press. Credentials are not intended for fans, friends or spouses.

Requests for credentials should be directed to Fledderjohann in the Athletics Media Relations Office no later than 24 hours before game time. Credentials will be left at the ticket window at the main entrance to Klöckner Stadium and can be picked up at media will call one hour before the start of the game.

Parking passes are not required and space is available on a first-come, first-served basis in the University Hall West lot, across Copeley Road from Klöckner Stadium.

PHOTO CREDENTIALS

All photographers and camera operators must wear a visible credential issued by the Athletics Media Relations Office. No tripod equipment may be used on the field level, for the safety of the players and photographers. Photographers may shoot from anywhere on the far sideline (across from the grandstand) and on the near sideline beyond the ends of the team benches. On the endlines, photographers are permitted only between the edges of the penalty box and the sideline.

INTERVIEWS

All interviews with coaches and players must be arranged through the Athletics Media Relations Office. It is requested that you allow the media relations staff at least one day, preferably longer, to arrange the interview. Coaches and players are not available for interviews on game day, prior to the Head coach George Gelnovatch is usually available immediately after morning practices or mid-afternoon.

Postgame interviews are conducted at Klöckner Stadium following a cooling off

TELEPHONES

Should you require your own telephone line for game coverage, please make the necessary arrangements at least three business days in advance through the Athletics Media Relations Office.
