- Steele Stanwick is averaging 4.5 points per game in his four career games against Johns Hopkins. He has 8 career goals and 10 career assists.
- Chris LaPierre needs 15 ground balls to become the 31st Cavalier to reach the 200 plateau - 75 ground balls will place him No. 10 all-time at UVa.

GAME OVERVIEW

The Virginia Cavaliers (8-0) are ranked No. 1 this week in both the USILA coaches and Nike/Inside Lacrosse media polls and will host Saturday the Johns Hopkins Blue Jays (7-0), who are No. 2 in both the coaches and media polls, and will battle for the Doyle Smith Cup. For the seventh time in the series history, the cup will be the spoils to the regular season winner of the UVa vs. Johns Hopkins men's lacrosse game. UVa won the Doyle Smith Cup the first five seasons it was awarded before losing it at Homewood Field during a 12-11 setback last season. Faceoff is set for 2 p.m. inside Klöckner Stadium.

THE SERIES VS. THE BLUE JAYS

Saturday marks the 66th straight-season the Cavaliers and the Blue Jays have clashed in an all-time series that began in 1904. Johns Hopkins holds the all-time advantage with a 55-28-1 mark, however Virginia has won six of the last seven meetings, including 2010's 15-6 triumph in the last meeting at Klöckner Stadium. Virginia's 84 all-time games against the Blue Jays equals the most games the Cavaliers have played against any opponent in their history. UVa and Johns Hopkins will battle for the seventh time for the Doyle Smith Cup, a spoil since 2006 that goes to the regular season winner in the series.

JHU head coach Dave Pietramala is in his 12th season with the Blue Jays and returns 35 letterwinners and nine starters off his 2011 squad that went 13-3 and appeared in the NCAA quarterfinal round.

THE SERIES VS. JOHNS HOPKINS

- Johns Hopkins holds a commanding 55-28-1 record in the all-time series
- The rivalry between the two schools goes all the way back to two meetings in 1904, well before lacrosse was recognized as a varsity sport at UVa
- The teams have met at least once every season since 1948, the longest current series of any Virginia opponent
- Virginia has closed the gap recently by winning 15 of the last 21
- John Hopkins' 55 wins over Virginia are by far the most wins by any school over the Cavaliers. Maryland, next week's opponent, is next with 45 wins over UVa
- Virginia has also played more games against Hopkins than any one else (84)

THE CLASH FOR THE DOYLE SMITH CUP

- Virginia and Johns Hopkins meet once again with the Doyle Smith Cup at stake
- The two schools have joined to honor E. Doyle Smith, Jr., for his lifetime of contributions to the lacrosse programs at both schools and on the national level with the annual winner laying claim to the cup
- Virginia won the cup there first five times it has been presented before losing possession last season at Homewood Field
- Smith served as team manager and statistician for Johns Hopkins under coach Bob Scott from 1963-1968
- He enrolled at UVa to pursue a doctorate in the fall of 1968, and became the university's first full-time assistant sports information director, a position he held for 31 years until his retirement in 1999, serving as the lacrosse team's publicist for four head coaches—Buddy Beardmore, Glenn Thiel, Jim Adams and Dom Starsia
- On the national level, Smith was one of the nation's foremost authorities on the sport as his name is synonymous with the game's history and record keeping
- He served as the information director compiling the weekly rankings and statistics for the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA) from 1973-95 and twice received its Man of the Year Award. The USILA media award bears his name
- In 2000 he was elected to the US Lacrosse Hall of Fame and is believed to be the only individual inducted who never played or coached the game at some level
- Smith passed away in June 2004, not long after the 2004 national championship game

MORE ON THE HOPKINS SERIES

- The Blue Jays have dominated the series in Baltimore, winning 35 of 45 matchups at Homewood Field (with one tie)
- The series is more even when played in Charlottesville with the Blue Jays holding the 18-14 advantage
- Five of the last nine games have been barn burners decided by one goal (Hopkins won three); the other two games were decided by just two goals, including UVa's 7-5 win in 2007 in Baltimore
- This game features some historical patterns that could bode well for the Cavaliers
- Known as a team that likes the up-tempo pace, Virginia would certainly like to see its offense explode vs. the Blue Jays since the Cavaliers are 22-8 all-time when scoring at least 10 goals
- In fact, when UVa scores more than 13 goals they have won 15 of 18 games against Hopkins
- The Cavaliers can also be successful if they are able to contain the Hopkins offense because they are 18-7-1 when allowing fewer than 10 goals (2008's 13-12 UVa overtime win ended a streak of 10 consecutive games with single-digit goals by the Blue Jays)

HISTORY SUGGESTS RANKINGS DON'T MEAN TOO MUCH

- One of the characteristics of the Virginia vs. Johns Hopkins series since the late 1980s is the inability to use rankings as a predictor of victory
- The higher ranked team has lost 15 of the last 25 regular season meetings dating back to 1987
- In fact, from 1990-1995, the higher ranked squad lost each time

IT'S 1 VS. 2

- This game pits top-ranked Virginia and No. 2 Johns Hopkins
- This is the 14th time since 1973 Virginia has played in a 1 vs. 2 game (the USILA coaches poll began in 1973)
- Overall Virginia is 7-6 in a 1 vs. 2 match-up, including 5-3 when being ranked second (simple math shows the record is 2-3 when the Cavaliers are ranked No. 1)
- A look at the results of UVa's previous 1-vs.-2 games is below (UVa's wins are in bold)

- Virginia has won five NCAA titles and the Cavaliers are 3-2 all-time in their season-opening games after winning a title. The wins came following the 1972, 2003 and 2011 seasons.
