HEAD COACH STEVE SWANSON

It is no coincidence that success has followed University of Virginia head coach Steve Swanson throughout his career. In his 24th season as a head coach, his 14th at Virginia, he has established himself as one of the elite coaches in collegiate soccer, and certainly one of the most respected. Swanson has led his teams to six conference championships, 18 NCAA Tournament appearances and 22 consecutive winning seasons during his 23-year career.

Swanson's track record of success, not only on the collegiate level but also at the international level, was evident in 2012. That year he won a pair of championships, leading Virginia to its second ACC title and guiding the United States to the FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup Championship in Japan. For those feats, he was one of ten coaches named to the shortlist for FIFA Women's World Coach of the Year.

Swanson came to Virginia after two highly successful stops at Stanford and Dartmouth. At Dartmouth, Swanson guided the Big Green to national prominence. He did an equally impressive job at Stanford, helping maintain the program's standing as one of the premier teams in the country while leading the Cardinal to two Pac-10 titles in four seasons. In 2004, he led Virginia to the first ACC Championship in school history, making him the only coach in Division I history to win titles in three different conferences. He has since become the only coach in history to win multiple conference championships in three different conferences. Swanson also enjoyed success as a player in college and as a professional.

In addition to his collegiate coaching experience, Swanson has been associated with the United States youth national teams for over a decade. Most recently he was the head coach of the U-20 Women's National Team from 2011-12, leading the team to a World Cup championship. It is the third different age group he has led for the US Soccer Federation.

As Swanson begins his 14th year as head coach of the Virginia women's soccer team, he's already had a dramatic impact on the program since he replaced former United States National Team Head Coach April Heinrichs in the spring of 2000. After 13 years, the Cavaliers are 188-71-34 (.700) under his direction, as Swanson has the highest winning percentage in the history of the program.

Last year the Cavaliers won their second ACC Championship, defeating three top-10 opponents to capture the title. Virginia finished the year with an 18-5-1 record and reached the round of 16 of the NCAA Tournament for the eighth consecutive year.

In 2011, Swanson led Virginia to a 17-5-2 record and a NCAA quarterfinal appearance. In 2010, the Cavaliers posted a 15-5-2 record, highlighted by a 3-2 overtime win over No. 1 Boston College, the program's first win over a top-ranked team and Swanson's 250th career victory. The Cavaliers went 10-6-6 in 2009 and 15-5-3 in 2008, reaching the NCAA round of 16 both seasons. In 2007, the Cavaliers went 13-4-6 and reached the round of 16 of the NCAA Tournament. A strong defense highlighted that year as Virginia led the nation with a 0.40 goals against average and set a school record with 15 shutouts.

In 2006, Virginia went 12-8-2, reaching the round of 16 of the NCAA Tournament. During the year, Swanson recorded his 200th career win and his 100th win at Virginia. In 2005, the Cavaliers tied a school record for wins in a season with 18. The team reached the quarterfinals of the NCAA Tournament for the third time in school history and finished the year with a top-10 ranking for the fourth time in the past five years.

In 2004, Swanson led the Cavaliers to a historic season, as the team captured its first ACC Championship, defeating North Carolina in penalty kicks in the tournament final and snapping the Tar Heels' 15-year ACC Championship streak. Virginia set six different season school records during the season, including most goals and fewest goals allowed. The Cavaliers were the No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament, the highest seed in school history, as they made their 11th consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance. The team concluded the season with a 17-3-2 record, and a No. 2 national ranking by Soccer America.

In 2003, the Cavaliers posted a 12-5-4 record and reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The previous season, Swanson led a young Cavalier team with 10 freshmen on the 23 player roster to a 13-7-2 record and a second place finish in the ACC for the second consecutive year. The team defeated Dayton and No. 5 seed West Virginia in the NCAA Tournament to reach the round of 16 for the fourth consecutive season. He guided the team to a 17-4-2 overall record, 5-2 in the ACC and 7-0 against in-state teams, during the 2001 season. UVa finished second in the ACC during the regular season and advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament before losing 3-2 to eventual national champion Santa Clara. The loss marked the second time in as many years the Cavaliers' national title hopes were ended by the eventual national champion. In Swanson's first year at UVa in 2000, Virginia finished with an 11-8-1 record and advanced to the third round of the NCAA Tournament before losing 2-1 to eventual national champion North Carolina.

During his four seasons at Stanford, Swanson guided the Cardinal to an overall record of 48-27-4, two Pac-10 championships and three NCAA Tournament appearances. His 1999 squad finished with an impressive 14-4-1 record, captured a Pac-10 title and advanced to the third round of the NCAA Tournament. Three of Swanson's players were named to the 1998 All-Pac-10 team and four earned Pac-10 All-Academic recognition. Swanson also coached the 1998 Pac-10 Co-Player of the Year. In 1999, he was honored as the Pac-10 Coach of the Year.

In his first year at the helm of the Cardinal, Swanson led his team to a first-place finish in the Pac-10 and a spot in the 1996 NCAA Tournament. In both 1998 and 1999, his recruiting classes were ranked among the top six by national publications. The 1999 recruiting class was ranked first by Soccer America. Among that class were three members of the U.S. National Under-18 team and three Parade All-Americans.

Prior to serving as Stanford's head coach, Swanson served as both the head women's soccer coach and assistant director of athletics at Dartmouth College from 1990-1995. During his years at Dartmouth, he transformed the Big Green into a national powerhouse with an overall record of 55-35-7 (.603). Under his guidance, Dartmouth made its first two NCAA Tournament appearances in school history (1993 and 1994) and won its first two Ivy League Championships in school history (1991 and 1993). During his last three years at the helm, the Big Green was ranked in the year-end top 20. Named New England Coach of the Year in 1992, Swanson led his team to an undefeated conference season the following year en route to winning the Ivy League title for the second time in three years. His 1993 Dartmouth squad not only went through league play undefeated, but also was unscored upon in the conference.

Swanson has coached 21 All-Americans, nine conference players of the year, and 75 all-conference selections. Of his former players at Dartmouth, Stanford and Virginia, 28 have played professionally in the WUSA, WPS or NWSL. In 2002, Swanson became the third coach to win at least 40 games with three different NCAA Division I women's soccer programs.

Swanson has been heavily involved with the United States youth National Teams. In addition to his recent stint as head coach of the U-20 National Team, he was the head coach of the U-16 National Team and head coach of the U-18 National Team from 2000-02. In addition, Swanson has been an assistant coach with the U-17, U-18, U-19 and U-20 National Teams in recent years.

Swanson holds an 'A' license from the United States Soccer Federation and earned a master's degree in physical education (athletic administration and coaching) from the University of Iowa in 1989. In addition, Swanson was the Girls Director of the Upper Valley Lightning Soccer Club in New Hampshire and the head coach of the West High School boys team in Iowa City, Iowa (1987-89). He also helped initiate the youth soccer programs for the Milwaukee Wave professional club of the American Indoor Soccer Association.

A graduate of Michigan State in 1984, Swanson played professionally in the United States and Canada for four years before returning to school to obtain his master's degree at Iowa. He played more than 150 consecutive games in tours of duty with the Milwaukee Wave and the Chicago Shoccers of the American Indoor Soccer Association, and with AC Roma and the Windsor Wheels in the National Soccer League of Canada (NSLC). While at Michigan State, Swanson was a four-year letterwinner in soccer. He was the team's leading scorer, captain and a regional All-American his senior year.

Swanson and his wife Julie have three children, daughters Alexis and Kelsey, and son Sam.

COACHING STAFF

Kerry DZICZKANIEC

Assistant Coach

Kerry Dzikzkaniec is in her sixth year of her second tenure as an assistant coach with the Cavaliers. She returned to Charlottesville in 2008 after spending the past four seasons as the head coach at Vermont.

Over the past five seasons, the Cavaliers have posted a 75-26-14 record, won the 2012 ACC Championship and reached the third round of the NCAA Tournament each season, including a quarterfinal appearance in 2011. During that time, she worked with goalkeeper Chantel Jones, who set the ACC career shutout record.

In her four seasons in Burlington, Dzikzkaniec twice led Vermont to the America East Conference playoffs, including the program's first conference tournament appearance in seven years in 2005. Her 2006 and 2007 recruiting classes were both ranked among the best in the region, marking the first time in school history for back-to-back ranked classes. Her 2007 squad led the fall sports teams in the conference by having 24 of 25 players earn America East Academic Honors.

Dzikzkaniec began her collegiate coaching career at Virginia where she served on Lauren Gregg's staff in 1994 and 1995 and April Heinrichs' staff in the spring of 1996. She was also an assistant coach at Florida State for three seasons (1996-98) and at Maryland for five seasons (1999-2003) on the staff of Hall of Famer Shannon Higgins-Cirovski. During her time in College Park, the Terrapins made four NCAA Tournament appearances and she worked with two All-ACC goalkeepers.

A 1993 graduate of George Washington with a major of Exercise and Sport Science, Dzikzkaniec was a four-year letterwinner on the Colonials' soccer team. A two-year starter in goal, she was the team's MVP in 1991 when she posted a career-high six shutouts and was a two-year team captain. Following college, she played several seasons in the USISL W-League, including leading the Maryland Pride to the 1996 National Championship, being named to the all-tournament team.

She holds an "C" coaching license from the U.S. Soccer Federation and has served as a coach of the Region I ODP staff.

Ron RAAB

Assistant Coach

Ron Raab is in his seventh year of his second tenure as an assistant coach at Virginia. Raab also served as an assistant coach at UVa from 1997-2000 and was the program's volunteer assistant from 2004-2005.

In the six seasons since Raab returned as a full-time assistant with the Cavaliers, the team has posted a 88-30-20 record, won the 2012 ACC Championship, and reached the NCAA third round in all five years, including a quarterfinal appearance in 2011. Virginia had a school record 15 shutouts and led the nation with a 0.40 goals against average in 2007.

Raab began his coaching career at William & Mary, his alma mater, in 1989. In 1990, he was named an assistant coach at Princeton where he assisted on April Heinrichs' staff. A year later, he followed Heinrichs to Maryland when she took over the program there. In 1992, Raab left coaching to go into the banking business, but returned to coaching in 1997 at Virginia to serve on Heinrichs' staff again. He served on her staff for three seasons at UVa and on Steve Swanson's staff in his first season in Charlottesville. In each of his first four seasons at Virginia, the Cavaliers reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament. After leaving Virginia, Raab was the head coach at Evansville for three seasons.

A 1989 graduate of William & Mary with a double major of history and economics, Raab was a three-year letterwinner on the Tribe soccer team. In 1987, he set William & Mary's school record for goals in a game with four against Christopher Newport. He also played one season for the Washington Mustangs of the USISL in 1993.

He holds an "A" coaching license from the U.S. Soccer Federation and has served as a coach of the Region I ODP staff.

Raab and his wife Janice have two daughters, Natalie and Leah.

Jaime FRIAS

Volunteer Assistant Coach

Jaime Frias is in his fourth season on the Virginia women's soccer staff, his first as the volunteer assistant coach. He spent the previous three years at the program's Administrative Operations Assistant.

Frias came to Virginia with five years of Division I head coaching experience at Stephen F. Austin and Nevada. The 2005 Southland Conference Coach of the Year, he posted a 36-17-3 record at Stephen F. Austin from 2005-2007. He led the Ladyjacks to two regular season conference titles and the 2007 Southland Conference Tournament championship and a berth in the NCAA Tournament. From 2008-09, Frias was the head coach at Nevada. In his final season in Reno, he led the Wolf Pack to a school-record five WAC wins, tied the longest win streak in school history (five) and advanced to the final of the WAC Tournament. He has a career record of 49-33-6 as a collegiate head coach.

Frias began his collegiate coaching career at his alma mater, Centenary, serving as an assistant coach from 2000-01 before serving as an assistant at Stephen F. Austin from 2002-04. He has also spent time as an Olympic Development Program (ODP) and high school coach.

Frias spent part of 2011-12 assisting Steve Swanson with the United States U-20 Women's National Team, serving as a Scout and Performance Analyst as the team won the 2012 FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup in Japan.

A 2000 graduate of Centenary with a degree in health and physical education, Frias was a two-year captain on soccer field for the Gentlemen. He also played in Mexico in both the youth and professional ranks.

Frias and his wife Ta', the head women's track and field coach at James Madison, reside in Harrisonburg with their two children, Azari and Jaime Dhani.

ACC CHAMPIONSHIPS

2004 ACC CHAMPIONS

Virginia won its first ACC Championship in 2004 in a dramatic penalty kick shootout against North Carolina in the final in Cary, N.C. The Cavaliers thrashed Virginia Tech 8-0 in the quarterfinals and rallied from a halftime deficit to down Clemson 2-1 in the semifinals to set up a matchup with the 15-time defending champion Tar Heels.

In the final, the Cavaliers took an early lead in the 24th minute when Sarah Huffman crossed a ball to Lindsay Gusick, who one-timed the ball inside the far post for a 1-0 Virginia advantage. Virginia maintained that advantage at halftime. In the second half, the Tar Heels created several chances to equalize early in the second half and finally did in the 56th minute. Elizabeth Guess was fouled in the penalty area and Kacey White converted the penalty kick to tie the game at 1-1.

The game remained tied at 1-1 after a pair of 10-minute overtime periods and the championship would be decided by penalty kicks. Each team scored four times in the first five attempts, forcing extra kicks. In round six, Kristen Weiss converted her penalty kick for Virginia and Cavalier goalkeeper Christina de Vries saved Mary McDowell's kick to win the championship.

2012 ACC CHAMPIONS

Virginia became only the second school to win multiple ACC Championships when it took home its second title in 2012. Seeded fifth in the tournament, the Cavaliers knocked off three top-10 opponents in an eight-day span to win the championship.

In the quarterfinals, Virginia traveled to Chapel Hill and posted a 1-0 win over the eighth-ranked Tar Heels on Caroline Miller's goal in the 11th minute of play. With the goal, Miller became the only visiting player in history to score two game-winning goals at UNC's Fetzer Field. In the semifinals, the Cavaliers used a two-goal, one-assist performance from ACC Tournament MVP Morgan Brian to down second-ranked Florida State 4-2 and setup a matchup with Maryland in the final.

The Cavaliers claimed the trophy with a 4-0 victory over the seventh-ranked Terrapins at WakeMed Soccer Park. Gloria Douglas gave Virginia a 1-0 halftime lead with a goal midway through the first half. Morgan Brian and Caroline Miller added early second half goals and Makenzy Doniak pushed the final margin to four with her late goal.
