HEAD COACH EILEEN SCHMIDT

Virginia All-American Eileen Schmidt is in her fifth season at the helm of the Cavalier softball program.

In just four seasons, Schmidt has led her alma mater to the program's first NCAA Tournament appearance in addition to mentoring five all-conference and four all-region honorees.

In 2011, freshman Stephanie Harris was a second-team All-ACC selection while junior Giannina Cipolloni was honored on the second team all-region squad. Schmidt, entering her 10th season as a head coach in the college ranks, also eclipsed the 200 win mark in 2011. At the ACC Championship, UVa became the first No. 8 seed to upset a No. 1 seed when the Cavaliers shut out host Georgia Tech 6-0 to earn a berth in the semifinals. Sophomores Marcy Bowdren and Melanie Mitchell were both selected to the ACC All-Tournament team, the first such honor for Virginia since 2005.

Prior to the 2011 campaign, the Amateur Softball Association (ASA) of America and USA Softball announced that Schmidt would be one of 24 coaches selected to the 2011-2012 Women's National Team Coaching pool, a prestigious appointment.

Schmidt guided Virginia to a year of firsts in 2010. The team recorded a second-place finish in the Atlantic Coast Conference standings with a school record 13 league victories and received its first-ever bid to the NCAA Tournament. The Cavaliers, playing in their first tournament game at the Knoxville Regional, tallied the program's first NCAA win in a 1-0 victory over Louisville.

In 2010, Schmidt coached freshman pitcher Melanie Mitchell to first-team All-ACC honors, while seniors Nicole Koren and Sarah Tacke were each second-team all-conference selections. The trio of Mitchell, Koren and Tacke each garnered first-team all-region honors as well.

Upon arriving at UVa in the summer of 2007, Schmidt spearheaded an effort to renovate the team's facility, The Park, which received a facelift prior to the 2009 season. Upgrades at The Park included a new playing surface, drainage and irrigation system, dugouts, bullpens, a second batting cage, and a new scoreboard, fence and backstop.

In her first season as the head coach at Virginia, Schmidt and the Cavaliers increased their ACC wins from one to six in 2008. Schmidt also helped guide shortstop Carly Winger to the all-conference second team. In 2009, her second year, the Cavaliers finished with a winning record (25-22) for the first time since the 2006 campaign.

Schmidt returned to her alma mater after serving a three-year stint as head coach at Kentucky and a two-year stint at Northwestern State.

Only the second head coach in Kentucky's history, Schmidt's quest to build the Wildcats into a contender in the highly competitive Southeastern Conference included several milestones for the UK program. In 2007, the Wildcats had three players earn All-SEC honors for the first time and senior shortstop Brooke Marnitz was named first team all-south region.

The 2007 Wildcats set a school record with 56 home runs, shattering the previous record of 37 set in 2004. They also tied the school mark with 66 doubles and broke the school record for RBI with 237. In 2006, her team earned votes in the national polls for the first time after knocking off 13th-ranked Washington in the season opener.

During Schmidt's two years at Northwestern State, the Demons compiled a 62-61 record including a 35-28 mark in 2004. Schmidt coached 12 All-Southland Conference selections while taking the Demons to the conference tournament both seasons. In 2004, NSU advanced to the tournament championship game.

Schmidt's coaching resume includes seven seasons in the SEC as an assistant. She began her coaching career at South Carolina in the fall of 1994 and helped guide the squad to a 50-win season and an NCAA Regional appearance in 1995.

Schmidt left Columbia and was named to the first-ever softball staff at Arkansas in the fall of 1995, where she helped build the Hogs' program from the ground up. Schmidt was on staff with the Lady Razorbacks for more than a year before they opened collegiate softball play in the spring of 1997. Schmidt assisted Arkansas to two NCAA Regional appearances and a 126-90 record in her final three seasons there.

Schmidt, a native of Barto, Pa., competed for Virginia from 1991-94. She was the first Cavalier softball player to earn all-ACC honors three times (1992, 1993 and 1994) and became Virginia's first All-American. Schmidt, a catcher, captured third-team All-America accolades in 1994. She was named the 1993 ACC Player of the Year and was chosen to the ACC all-tournament team in 1993 and 1994.

While working at Arkansas, Schmidt earned her master's degree in education in 2000. She earned her undergraduate degree in communications from Virginia in 1994.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Associate Head Coach

HEIDI FREITAGER

Heidi Freitager is in her fourth year at Virginia and her first as the associate head coach after being promoted following the 2011 season.

At Virginia, Freitager is in charge of the pitching corps and also spearheads all recruiting efforts. She is instrumental in alumni outreach and works closely with the marketing and promotions and media relations staffs to positively promote the program.

Freitager guided freshman hurler Melanie Mitchell to first-team all-region and first-team all-conference honors in 2010. Mitchell also tied the program record for wins in a season and was second among ACC pitchers in strikeouts.

In just two seasons, Mitchell already ranks among the top-10 in Virginia history in career strikeouts (fifth), complete games (fifth), shutouts (sixth), wins (seventh) and innings pitched (eighth), among others.

Freitager arrived in Charlottesville after a one-year stint at Temple. Before her time in Philadelphia, she spent two years as the head coach at Everglades High School in Miramar, Fla. She led Everglades to the 2007 6A state championship while claiming two district titles. She also guided the West Pines Diamond Dusters 18 Gold squad during her time in Florida.

Prior to coaching in the high school ranks, Freitager served as an assistant at Nova Southeastern (2005), Morehead State (2004) and New Mexico State (2003).

Freitager played at Northern Iowa (1997-2001) where she started at catcher for four seasons and led her team to the Missouri Valley Conference championship in 2000. She graduated with a bachelor's degree in science in 2001 and later went on to earn a master's degree in sports administration from Morehead State in 2002.

Freitager was inducted into the Irondale High School Athletics Hall of Fame in 2009.

Assistant Coach

YOLANDA McRAE

Yolanda McRae is in her first season as an assistant coach with the Cavalier softball program, having joined the staff in August 2011. At Virginia, McRae is responsible for coaching the hitters and assisting in recruiting efforts.

McRae comes to Charlottesville after spending the 2010 and 2011 seasons as an assistant at Maryland. The Terrapins finished third in the ACC last season and hosted a NCAA regional for the second straight year.

Prior to her stint in College Park, McRae had three successful seasons at Georgia Tech. In 2009, the Yellow Jackets won the ACC regular season and tournament titles, as well as a NCAA regional championship title. During her time in Atlanta, McRae helped recruit one of the strongest outfielders in the ACC, as well as the nation.

Before her time at Georgia Tech, McRae spent the 2006 season as a volunteer at Georgia, her alma mater, where the squad earned a top-10 national ranking.

A native of Dublin, Ga., McRae is a 2005 graduate of the University of Georgia, where she earned her bachelor's degree in health and physical education. She played one season there, helping the Bulldogs to their first SEC title. She was a two-year letterwinner at Georgia State before transferring to Georgia.

Volunteer Coach

SARAH TACKE

Former Cavalier Sarah Tacke is in her first season as the volunteer assistant coach with the Virginia softball program.

Tacke played at Virginia from 2006-10, redshirting her first year. She led the Cavaliers at the plate her junior and senior seasons in both batting average and RBI. As a senior in 2010, she paced the offense with a .354 average and a team-best 43 RBI in helping Virginia to its first NCAA Tournament berth. That year she was also a first team all-region and second team all-conference honoree.

A native of Merced, Calif., Tacke ranks among Virginia's top-10 career record holders in home runs, doubles, extra base hits, RBI and walks. She holds the school mark with 37 career hit by pitches.

Tacke received her bachelor's degree in biology from UVa in 2009 and earned a master's degree in conservation biology in 2011.

ADMINISTRATION

TERESA A. SULLIVAN
University President

Teresa A. Sullivan is the eighth president of the University. Before coming to U.Va., she was the Provost and Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs at the University of Michigan. She was also Professor of Sociology in the College of Literature, Science, and the Arts.

Prior to her work at the University of Michigan, Ms. Sullivan was Executive Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs for the University of Texas System, a position she held from 2002 until May 2006. In that role, she was the chief academic officer for the nine academic campuses within the University of Texas System. Ms. Sullivan first joined the University of Texas at Austin in 1975 as an instructor and then assistant professor in the Department of Sociology. From 1977-81, she was a faculty member at the University of Chicago. Ms. Sullivan returned to Texas in 1981 as a faculty member in Sociology. In 1986 she was named to the Law School faculty as well. Ms. Sullivan also held several administrative positions at Texas including: Vice President and Graduate Dean (1995-2002), Vice Provost (1994-95), Chair of the Department of Sociology (1990-92), and Director of Women's Studies (1985-87).

Ms. Sullivan's research focuses on labor force demography, with emphasis on economic marginality and consumer debt. The author or co-author of six books and more than 50 scholarly articles, her most recent work explores the question of who files for bankruptcy and why.

Ms. Sullivan is a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science. She serves as chair of the National Research Council Panel on Measuring Higher Education Productivity, and as a member of the following committees and councils: National Research Council Committee on Research Universities; Council of Presidents for the Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges; National Security Higher Education Council; and the Northern Virginia Technology Council, the trade association of the technology industry in Northern Virginia. She serves as the AAU representative on the ACE Board of Directors, and as a member of the Higher Education Advisory Committee that provides guidance for implementation of the Virginia Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2011.

A graduate of James Madison College at Michigan State University, Ms. Sullivan received her doctoral degree in sociology from the University of Chicago.

CRAIG LITTLEPAGE
Director of Athletics

Committed to preserving and building on U.Va.'s longstanding tradition of academic and athletic excellence, Craig Littlepage is in his 11th year as Virginia's Athletics Director. Littlepage's appointment as athletics director was announced in August of 2001.

Littlepage served as Virginia's interim athletics director from June 1, 2001, until his appointment to the position. He had also served as the University's interim athletics director from December of 1994 until July of 1995.

The first African-American athletics director in Atlantic Coast Conference history, Littlepage was named the Black Coaches Association's "Athletics Administrator of the Year" in 2003 and 2006. He was also listed on Sports Illustrated's list of the 101 most influential minorities in sports in 2003 and 2004. In March 2005, Littlepage was named one of Black Enterprise magazine's "Most Powerful African-Americans in Sports."

Littlepage has been a member of U.Va.'s athletics administration since 1990 when he was appointed an assistant athletics director, a position he held from 1990-1991. He then spent four years as the associate director of athletics for programs and six years (1995-2001) as senior associate director of athletics, managing all aspects of the athletics department's day-to-day operations.

Littlepage leads a comprehensive 25-sport athletics program that routinely competes for championships and national rankings in many sports. At the same time, Cavalier student-athletes who exhaust their eligibility at Virginia graduate at a rate comparable to the student body as a whole. Annually, U.Va student-athletes rank among the top Division I-A public universities in the country in graduation rates.

Nine years ago, Littlepage outlined a number of ambitious 10-year goals for the department to achieve by 2012: graduate 100 percent of its student-athletes; win 12 national championships and 70 conference titles; fully endow all scholarships and provide the operational support required to meet all other stated goals; build and maintain high-quality facilities; annually recruit the best student-athletes in the country (based on how coaches rate their top prospects); and fully comply with Title IX.

Such goals reflect Littlepage's vision of "uncompromised excellence in intercollegiate athletics" as well as the department's overall mission to "enhance and support the intellectual purpose of the University and its exemplary academic standards and traditions."

The 2010-11 athletics year proved to be another very successful one as 21 of Virginia's 25 athletics programs advanced to postseason competition. U.Va finished seventh in the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup standings, the second highest finish in school history and the third consecutive year the Cavaliers finished in the Top 10.

The men's lacrosse team won the NCAA Championship, the men's tennis team won its fourth consecutive ITA National Team Indoor Championship and U.Va won two individual NCAA championships. Other top finishes in NCAA postseason competition by U.Va athletics teams in 2010-11 included program-best finishes of second by the men's tennis team, a tie for third by the baseball team, fourth by the women's golf team and eighth by the men's swimming and diving team. The field hockey team reached the NCAA Tournament's semifinals for the second consecutive year and the women's rowing team finished sixth at the NCAA Championships. The baseball team earned the No. 1 national seed in the NCAA Baseball Championship and participated in the College World Series for the second time in three years.

Virginia has won six team NCAA Championships and 12 individual NCAA Championships in the last nine years. The Cavaliers have also won 47 ACC Championships in that time frame, more than any other conference school. U.Va won five ACC championships in 2010-11, tying for the most of any league member. It's the fourth-consecutive athletics season U.Va led the ACC in league titles.

Great progress has also been made in the area of athletics facility improvements during Littlepage's watch, including the addition of John Paul Jones Arena. The basketball arena/special events center opened in the summer of 2006 to rave reviews.

Littlepage has held many leadership roles within the NCAA, ACC, the University-at-large and professional organizations. He is currently a member of the John McLendon Foundation Steering Committee and served on the Executive Committee of the National Association of Collegiate Athletics Directors (NACDA) from 2006-10.

In February 2002, he was appointed to the 10-member Division I Men's Basketball Committee by the NCAA Championship/Competition Cabinet and served a five-year term which was completed Aug. 31, 2007. In 2005-06, Littlepage served as the chair of the Men's Division I Basketball Committee and administered its selection process.

Littlepage previously was a member of the NCAA Division I Infractions Committee and the NCAA Academics, Eligibility and Compliance Cabinet, serving on the Recruiting and Student-Athlete Reinstatement Subcommittees. He chaired the Reinstatement Subcommittee in 1999-2000. He also served the NCAA on committees that studied sports wagering, postgame crowd control, basketball issues, and the College Basketball Partnership. He has participated as a presenter and mentor to the NCAA's Ethnic Minority Male Institute.

Littlepage is currently the chairman of the ACC Women's Basketball Committee and the ACC Committee on Awards. He previously chaired the ACC Student-Athlete Welfare Committee, the ACC Men's and Women's Swimming/Diving Committees, and the ACC Men's Soccer Committee.

He is a member of the Associate Faculty for the University's Center for Alcohol and Substance Education, and participates in various alcohol and drug prevention/education conferences. Littlepage also has been active in the local community, having served on the Board of Directors for the Charlottesville Ronald McDonald House and serving as a Trustee with the Mount Zion Baptist Church.

Before beginning his career in athletics administration, Littlepage served two stints as an assistant coach with the Cavalier men's basketball program, from 1976 to 1982 and from 1988 to 1990.

Littlepage held head coaching positions at Pennsylvania (1982-85) and at Rutgers (1985-88) before returning to Virginia. While he was at Penn, the Quakers won the Ivy League championship and participated in the 1985 NCAA Tournament. Littlepage was an assistant basketball coach at Villanova for two years and at Yale for one year before joining the U.Va basketball program as an assistant coach in 1976.

The LaMott, Pa., native earned his bachelor's degree in economics from the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania in 1973. He was a member of three Ivy League basketball championship teams at Penn and was instrumental in the Quakers' drive to three consecutive NCAA Eastern Regional playoff appearances. Littlepage and his wife Margaret have three children, two daughters and a son.

DIRK KATSTRA

Executive Director of the Virginia Athletics Foundation/Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs

Dirk Katstra is in his 17th year as executive director of the Virginia Athletics Foundation and his ninth year as associate athletics director for external affairs with the athletics department.

In June 2004, Katstra was named Fundraiser of the Year by the National Association of Athletic Development Directors (NAADD) in recognition of his outstanding leadership and success in fundraising on behalf of Virginia athletics.

The annual campaign supports student athletes in all 25 sports programs in the form of scholarships, summer school, academic affairs and operational costs. The foundation is also responsible for all fund raising efforts for endowments for scholarships and operating costs. In addition, the foundation is responsible for supporting all fund raising efforts in the area of capital projects, including the new track and field facility, the recent $4 million expansion to Davenport Field and the John Paul Jones Arena, UVa's $129 million basketball arena and special events center, which opened in July 2006.

As associate director for external affairs, Katstra oversees the long-range planning and daily operations for media relations, sports publications, and the ticket office. From 1992 to 1996, Katstra served as director of annual giving for the Foundation.

A native of Stilwell, Kan., Katstra is a 1991 graduate of UVa with a degree in sport management. A member of the Cavalier basketball team from 1987 to 1991, Katstra played on three NCAA Tournament teams and was a senior captain on the 1990-91 squad.

Before joining the Virginia Athletics Foundation staff in 1992, Katstra served an internship with the athletics department's promotions and marketing office, and had administrative responsibilities with the men's basketball program.

Katstra is married to the former Michelle Massie of Charlottesville. The couple has two sons, Austin and Ryan, and daughter, Ryleigh. Katstra's father, the late Richard Katstra, lettered as a member of the UVa basketball team in 1963 and 1964.

KEITH VANDERBEEK

Associate Athletics Director for Business Operations

Keith VanDerbeek is in his 27th year as an associate athletics director. The scope of his duties encompasses planning, organizing, directing and evaluating the business operations of all UVa athletics department activities.

His responsibilities include the supervision of the business operations staff and the manager of information systems, acting as financial adviser to the athletics director, and coordinating the implementation and management of the department's operating budget. He serves as the department's liaison to the University's audit, budget, financial administration, and procurement offices.

A native of Spring Valley, N.Y., VanDerbeek received a B.S. degree in economics and business from Lafayette College in Easton, Pa., in 1972 and an M.S. degree in accounting from UVa in 1977.

From 1972 to 1975, he served as credit analyst and auditor for the Chemical Bank of New York, investigating market and industry studies and compiling portfolio analyses. During his enrollment in graduate school at UVa, he taught introductory and cost accounting classes at the McIntire School of Commerce. In 1977, he was recruited as budget officer for the College of Arts and Sciences at UVa before becoming Virginia's athletics business manager in the fall of 1978.

He is a member of the National Association of College and University Business Officers, the College Athletic Business Management Association, and the National Association of Accountants.

VanDerbeek has served on numerous University-wide committees, including: Air Travel Service Committee, Capital Project Planning Committee, Centralized Accounts Payable Project, Committee on Safety and Security, Committee on Women's Concerns, Computer Resource Allocation Committee, Dining Services RFP Selection Committee, Outstanding Awards Committee, Integrated Systems Project Advisory Committee, Administration Technology Council, Human Resources Management Advisory Group and the University's Strategic Task Force for Athletics.

He and his wife, Pam, have two children: Kate and Peter.

VALERIE RICHARDSON

Associate Athletics Director for Sports Programs

Valerie Richardson is in her fourth year as associate director of athletics for sports programs. Her primary area of responsibility is the supervision of multiple sports programs and their head coaches. She participates on various ACC, UVa and departmental committees and has responsibilities in long-range planning and scheduling, policy and procedure development and implementation, and budgeting. Richardson has served as both chair of the NCAA Honors Committee and as a member of the NCAA Minority Opportunities and Interests Committee.

She came to UVa from St. John's University in New York, where she was the associate athletics director for external affairs directing all major fundraising events for the office of athletics development while assisting with annual giving efforts for several programs.

Prior to working at St. John's, Richardson was the associate athletics director/senior woman administrator at Columbia University where she served as a member of the athletics department's executive management team and supervised eight athletics programs. She worked in a similar capacity at the University of California, Santa Barbara, where she supervised 10 sports programs, in addition to the compliance staff, in her role as Associate A.D./SWA.

Richardson spent six years at the West Coast Conference prior to assuming the UCSB position, serving first as Director of Championships and Membership Services before being promoted to Assistant Commissioner/SWA.

A California native, she graduated from Stanford University in 1995 with a degree in psychology. She worked as a media relations assistant at Washington State, and spent one year each as a championships intern with the NCAA and Director of Marketing for MAAC Properties. She is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics and the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletics Administrators.
