

VIRGINIA

The University of Virginia is home to one of the most successful and consistent rowing programs in the history of NCAA women's rowing, finishing in the top 5 in the country 16 times and winning twice over the last 22 years. Our student-athletes possess unparalleled excellence in all aspects of their lives and are the driving force behind Virginia's winning legacy.

Virginia offers a premier student-athlete experience; combining a tradition of strong athletics with rigorous academics. Founded in 1819 by Thomas Jefferson, UVA was created to support the endless pursuit of knowledge and is one of the highest-ranked public institutions in the United States. The Rivanna Reservoir is among the best places to row in the world, hosting elite athletes who want to train where we get to train every day.

The best students, athletes and competitors come row for Virginia. If you want to be a part of something awesome, and you have a desire to compete at the Division I level in college, row for UVA. There is no rowing experience necessary. It is an opportunity to step up to and accept an extraordinary challenge, and we are here we are here to support you in every facet of your experience.
