Head Coach

BOWEN SARGENT

Now in his 10th season directing the Virginia men's golf program, head coach Bowen Sargent's first decade with the Cavaliers has been marked by steady improvement to become one of the best programs in the Atlantic Coast Conference and the nation.

Sargent's unwavering approach has witnessed the Cavaliers become a regular in the national golf polls and an annual participant in postseason play. His teams have won numerous regular-season tournaments, produced All-Americans and seen players go on to qualify for the various professional golf tours, all while maintaining a solid reputation for excellence in the classroom.

The deliberate approach has laid a foundation for success that will only grow as more and more top junior golfers are attracted to the program. His ability to help develop player skills and create team chemistry will only add to the numerous milestones the Virginia program has achieved under his watch.

In his nine-plus seasons at Virginia, Sargent has seen the Cavaliers win 15 tournament titles and 14 individuals pick up medalists honors while rewriting the program's record book with a number of outstanding performances.

UVa has advanced to postseason NCAA play in eight of Sargent's first nine years, four times qualifying for the NCAA Championships.

There have been a number of highlight moments during his first 10 years at Virginia.

In 2014, Denny McCarthy finished sixth at the NCAA Championships to cement his All-America credentials. Later that summer he played in the British Amateur Championship, reached the semifinals of the U.S. Amateur Championship and helped the United States win the World Team Amateur Championship in Japan.

The 2014 season was highlighted by three tournament titles, none more impressive than UVa's record-setting showing at the Jim West Intercollegiate in McKinney, Texas. The Cavaliers shot 45-under 819 to run away with the tournament title. Virginia's score was the second best against par ever by an ACC program. Playing on a TPC network course, the Hoos' performance topped the school's previous best scoring mark by 23 strokes.

Sargent witnessed Ben Rusch capture the 2012 ACC individual crown to become the first Cavalier to win the ACC championship since 1955. That same season McCarthy was named the ACC Freshman of the Year and senior Ben Kohles crushed the program's all-time tournament scoring record, shooting 18-under 198 to win the Chris Schenkel Invitational.

Later that summer, Kohles, a collegiate

All-American, drew the attention of the golf world when he won his first two professional tournaments on the Web.com tour and earned his PGA Tour card.

In 2011, Virginia won three tournaments, was the runner-up in two other events and participated in the NCAA East Regional. Kohles repeated as the ACC player of the year.

In 2010, UVa made its third consecutive appearance at the NCAA Championships, one of just 12 teams in the 30-squad field to accomplish that achievement. Virginia tied for 11th overall, just one stroke out of a playoff for the final berth in the event's match play segment. The finish matched the best ever for a UVa squad at the national championships and was the best since regional qualifying was used to determine the championship field.

During the 2009-10 campaign, Virginia placed in the top five in 11 of 13 tournaments and capped its impressive season by being ranked No. 12 in the final Golfstat poll.

UVa was second at the ACC Championships, the team's best showing since 1996, won the Cavalier Classic and saw Kohles, a sophomore, named the ACC's co-player of the year. Kohles was later recognized as the sixth All-American in the program's history.

His conference peers recognized

Sargent's achievements when they voted him the 2010 ACC Coach of the Year. The honor was a well-deserved addition to the resume of the former collegiate All-American, All-ACC selection, professional golfer and national assistant coach of the year.

During the 2008-09, Sargent's team used a strong showing in the spring to move on to postseason play. The Cavaliers won the Argonaut Invitational and placed second at both the Seminole Invitational and the Hootie @ Bulls Bay tournament. Seeded ninth in the 14-team field at the NCAA East Regional, the Cavaliers cruised to a fourth-place finish, earning their second straight trip to the NCAA Championships, placing 27th.

For his efforts, Sargent was recognized for the second consecutive year as the state of Virginia's Golf Coach of the Year by his peers in the Commonwealth.

Sargent earned the honor a year earlier when the Cavaliers pulled off stunning rally at the 2008 NCAA East Regional Championships to return to the NCAAs for the first time under his watch.

When Sargent was named UVa's head coach Aug. 31, 2004, he became the eighth person to direct the program in the last 30 years.

In Sargent's first year at UVa, the Cavaliers qualified for the NCAA East Regional and placed 12th, just three shots from advancing to the NCAA Championships.

In 2006, the Cavaliers experienced some growing pains, failing to make a return trip to the NCAAs. Virginia picked up its first win under Sargent when the Cavaliers won the Mason Rudolph Intercollegiate. Senior Brad Tilley ended the year on a high note by taking medalist honors at the Cavalier Classic thanks to a dramatic six-hole playoff victory.

In 2007, Sargent saw sophomore Conrad Von Borsig earn All-ACC honors and the team finish the season on a positive note by winning the Cavalier Classic by a whopping 24 strokes.

In addition to returning to the NCAAs for the first time since 2000, the Cavaliers won the Palmas Del Mar Collegiate in Puerto Rico and the Cavalier Classic for the sixth time in the program's history. The team saved its best performance for the NCAA East Regional when it made up a nine-stroke deficit and jumped from 16th to 10th on the final day of the tourney to grab the final berth to the NCAAs where UVa finished 26th.

Sargent took over the Cavalier program after working as an assistant coach at Tennessee for three seasons. He was intimately involved with the daily operations and recruiting efforts of the Volunteer program. In 2004, his last season at UT, Sargent became the second recipient of the Jan Strickland National Assistant Coach of the Year Award. Presented by the Golf Coaches Association of America, the award is given annually to the assistant coach who, among other things, has excelled in working with their student-athletes both on the course and in the classroom. That season he helped the Volunteers to three tournament wins and a No. 12 final national ranking.

Prior to coaching at Tennessee, Sargent was a professional golfer for nine years from 1992 to 2000. He is credited with eight professional victories. He has since regained his amateur status and annually competes in several area events. Sargent's first coaching opportunity came at Vanderbilt when he worked as a volunteer assistant for the 1993-94 season.

A 1992 graduate of NC State, where he earned a bachelor's degree in communications, Sargent was a two-time honorable mention All-American. He received the honor in 1988 after his freshman year and in 1991 when he was a junior. He received All-ACC honors in 1990 and 1991.

The Wolfpack team captain in 1991, Sargent helped NC State to a 14th-place finish at the NCAA Championships that season. The team also placed 14th during his junior campaign. He played at the NCAAs during all four of his seasons with the Wolfpack. The team was 18th in 1988 and 23rd in 1989. During his junior campaign NC State won its first ACC title.

An outstanding student, he was the recipient of NC State's Tom Coffey Award for academic excellence during his senior season.

Assistant Coach

JAY CALVO

Jay Calvo joined the Virginia men's golf program in September of 2013 as an assistant coach. He assists with recruiting, team travel, administrative duties and on-course instruction.

Prior to joining the Cavaliers, Calvo spent four seasons at Liberty. He served as a graduate assistant for two years before being elevated to a full-time position prior to the start of the 2011-12 season.

During his tenure at Liberty, Calvo helped the Flames to three consecutive appearances in the NCAA Championships and a pair of Big South Conference team titles. Liberty captured its conference championship during the 2011 and 2012 campaigns and was the runners-up last season. The Flames made NCAA Regional appearances in 2011 and 2013 and advanced to the NCAA Championships in 2012, finishing 10th overall after winning the NCAA Regional in Greensboro, N.C. Liberty's 2011 Big South title was the first in the program's history.

Calvo worked with three Liberty golfers who captured the last four Big South Conference individual titles. Mathieu Fénasse was the 2013 Big South champion, while Robert Karlsson placed first in 2010 and 2012. Preston Dembowiak took Big South medalist honors in 2011.

During his playing days at Liberty, Calvo was a two-time Big South All-Academic team member (2008 and 2009) and was named to the Golf Coaches Association of America Scholastic All-America team in 2008.

On the course, Calvo finished his career with a 75.5 stroke average that led to five top-10 finishes. He helped Liberty capture four team titles during his four-year career for the Flames. He also was part of Liberty's 2006 squad that received an at-large team bid to the NCAA East Regionals during his freshman season, where the rookie was among the starting five that participated at Lake Nona Golf Club in Orlando, Fla.

A native of Baird, Texas, Calvo was a four-year letterwinner at Baird High School. He graduated from Liberty in 2009 with a bachelor of science degree in sport management and earned a MBA from Liberty in 2011. He and his wife, Kayla, reside in Charlottesville. Their son, Porter, was born in 2014.

Volunteer Assistant Coach

Rory McIlroy, Padraig Harrington and Darren Clarke all have something in common in addition to their victories in Majors. They are all clients of Dr. Bob Rotella, who works with the Virginia golf programs as a volunteer assistant coach.

Internationally known for his work in the area of applied sports psychology, Dr. Rotella is consistently recognized as the Top Sports Psychologist in the world.

Harrington thought so much of “Dr. Bob” that as a show of appreciation he gave him one of the British Open trophies – the Claret Jug – from his back-to-back wins in 2007 and 2008.

Rotella, who resides in Keswick, meets with the Cavalier players on a regular basis to assist with their mental approach to the game. His work with many of the world’s best players provides a tremendous resource of information and knowledge for UVa’s aspiring student-athletes.

Rotella’s book, “Golf Is Not a Game of Perfect” is the best selling sport psychology book of all time and one of the three best selling golf books in history.

In 2012 he published his most recent book “The Unstoppable Golfer.” It focuses on the short game--the putts, chips, pitches and bunker shots that have such a major impact on a player’s score.

“Many golf programs have outstanding resources but none more valuable than Dr. Bob Rotella,” said Virginia coach Bowen Sargent. “Confidence plays such an important role in our sport. Having the world’s foremost authority in golf psychology assisting our team is invaluable. We are very fortunate to work with Dr. Rotella as he has a genuine passion for the University of Virginia and, obviously, golf. When asked to be our assistant Doc was excited to offer his support as we build a nationally recognized program, and for that we are truly grateful.”

Since 1984 Dr. Bob Rotella has coached the winners of more than 74 major championships in men’s, women’s and senior professional golf. In 2011, he helped Darren Clarke win the British Open and Keegan Bradley win the PGA Championship. Dr. Bob Rotella also works with winners in tennis, baseball, basketball and other sports. Anyone whose work or play involves mental challenges can benefit from his proven wisdom – from performers to business leaders.

He has served on the editorial board of Golf Digest and been a columnist for that publication. He is the past president of the North American Association for Applied Sports Psychology and a contributing editor for the Sport Psychology Journal.

He has worked as a consultant for personnel for the NBA, NFL, Major League Baseball, NASCAR, PGA Tour, LPGA Tour, Senior Tour, U.S. Olympic Ski Team and the U.S. Olympic Equestrian Team.

He has served as a corporate consultant at companies including Merrill Lynch, General Electric, Ford, Tim Life, Coca Cola, Chrysler, Newsweek, Pepsi-Cola, Taco Bell and Pizza Hut.

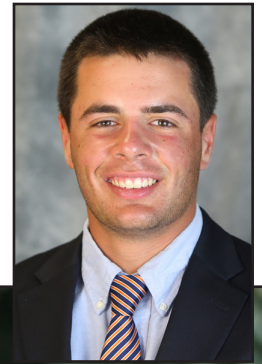

The list of professional golfers he has consulted is exhaustive. It includes players such as Davis Love, III, Brad Faxon, Nick Price, Paul Azinger, Trevor Immelman, Billy Mayfair, Padraig Harrington, David Toms, Scott Verplank, Jeff Sluman, Fred Funk and Tom Kite.

In his more than two decades of service at the University of Virginia, Dr. Rotella was most recently Director of the Sports Psychology Department, one of the nation’s best programs for sports psychology.

NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP HISTORY

The legacy of Virginia golf in the annals of NCAA Championship history is nearly as old as the event itself. The NCAA began tournament play in 1939, and the University of Virginia's Dixon Brooke was crowned as its national champion the next year.

Brooke, a junior from Birmingham, Ala., was not even the number-one golfer on the Cavalier squad when he headed for the Ekwanok course in Manchester, Vt. Nevertheless, the 20-year-old overcame more experienced competitors in battling from five strokes back, taking the 36-hole match by one stroke over Harry Haverstick of Swarthmore. Brooke's dramatic comeback caused The New York Times to report: "Seldom has there been a greater demonstration of courage than the Virginia junior gave today."

Led by Brooke, the Virginia squad tied for 15th place in the 1940 team competition. In 1946, Virginia posted its best NCAA result, finishing 11th in an 18-team field.

Dixon Brooke's legacy lives on in an endowed scholarship established by his family. In addition, the Dixon Brooke Award is given annually to the Cavalier golfer who best demonstrates leadership, cooperative spirit and unselfish service.

Since the 1990s, the Virginia golf program has again risen to national prominence. The Cavaliers have reached an NCAA Regional Tournament site in 17 of the last 23 years. Virginia reached the NCAA Championships seven times during that span.

Virginia hosted the NCAA East Regional Tournament at Birdwood Golf Course.

In 1996, Lewis Chitengwa turned in Virginia's best NCAA Championship performance since Brooke's historic victory in 1940. Competing as an individual, Chitengwa finished seventh with a 293 in a talented field. His 68 in the third round was the day's low round and missed the course record by only one stroke.

In 2008, 2009 and 2010 the Cavaliers made three consecutive appearances at the NCAA Championships for the first time in school history. Virginia set several school records during the 2010 NCAA Championships where the Cavaliers finished 11th to equal the best showing in school history. Henry Smart tied The Honors Course record with a remarkable 6-under 66 during the final round to set a UVa single-round NCAA scoring records. The team shot 8-under 280 during the second round, the best single-round team score at the NAAs.

The 2012 UVa team placed 22nd at the NAAs.

In 2014, Denny McCarthy placed sixth overall to cement All-America honors and post the second best finish ever by a Cavalier at the event. His opening round 5-under 65 was the lowest gross single round score by a UVa competitor at the NAAs.
