MIKE LONDON

HEAD COACH

Mike London enters his fifth season at Virginia with a complete roster of players he has recruited, a large number of returning letterwinners and all of his coaching coordinators from the 2013 campaign. Fresh off a recruiting class that included two top-10 prospects for the first time in the program's history, London believes the Cavaliers are in position to return to the form that saw UVa win eight games in 2011 and compete in the Chick-fil-A Bowl.

Facing one of the nation's toughest schedules in 2014 will be a challenge, but the energetic London feels the Cavaliers are ready to turn the corner. With recruiting classes consistently ranked among the top-30 in the nation, Virginia is in a position to erase the memories of the 2013 campaign when it went 2-10 with a roster that featured just six seniors who played on a consistent basis. In both 2012 and 2013, the Cavaliers were among the nation's leading teams in terms of playing true freshmen.

Knowing London's backstory, it is easy to understand why he is so optimistic as well as why his players enjoy and embrace his coaching approach.

A former Richmond police detective, London's time in law enforcement dealing with the entire spectrum of human emotions and actions has provided a wealth of experience that he draws on to assist players both on and off the field. There are few stressful situations he has not faced – including having a loaded pistol pointed at him and the trigger pulled, only to have the weapon malfunction and not discharge its potentially lethal round.

London also had the remarkable opportunity to save one of his daughter's lives when he was identified as a perfect match for her rare bone marrow disorder. That opportunity is one reason why London is an advocate of servitude and makes sure his players understand and embrace the concept of giving back through a variety of community services activities. One of the most visible is the team's annual bone marrow donor registration drive as part of the national "Get in the Game, Save a Life" initiative.

London's biography includes plenty of chapters of football success on the field as well.

In the spring of 2013 OT Oday Aboushi was selected by the New York Jets to mark the 30th consecutive season a UVa player has been picked in the NFL Draft, the second longest streak among ACC schools.

In 2011, he led Virginia to one of its most outstanding seasons as the Cavaliers went 8-4 during the regular season, finished second in the ACC's Coastal Division with a 5-3 mark and played Auburn in the 2011 Chick-fil-A Bowl. The Cavaliers were one win from advancing to the ACC's Championship game.

The Virginia turnaround featured four games that the team won in the final seconds. Along the way the Cavaliers became the first college football program to ever win road games at Miami and Florida State in the same season on the way to UVa being ranked in the Associated Press Top-25 poll for the first time since the 2007 season.

For his efforts, London was recognized as the Atlantic Coast Conference's Coach of the Year. He was also selected by the Fellowship of Christian Athletes to receive its 2011 Grant Teaff Coach of the Year Award. Five of his players earned either first or second-team All-ACC honors. The 2011 team saw two players - CB Chase Minnifield and OG Austin Pasztor - receive All-America honors and CB Demetrious Nicholson was named a Freshman All-American.

Since taking over the Virginia program London has worked tirelessly to build relationships with the University's faculty and staff, alumni and former players, fans and supporters and the region's high school coaches. He has made dozens of appearances, spoke at clinics and been readily available to the media.

He has had the team hold spring practices and coaches clinics across the state, including in Virginia Beach to build support and interest in one of the state's most fertile recruiting areas.

He defines the culture for the football team by prescribing three basic tenets for his players:

- Go to Class
- Show Class
- Treat People with Dignity and Respect

The results of his actions were tangible. In his first spring semester at UVa the team posted its best cumulative grade point average in 10 years. Those results have continued to improve and during the spring of 2013, his players once again set a high mark for its GPA.

While all of those things are impressive, London is the first to remind everyone his primary goal is to reverse the fortunes of the Cavalier program on the field. Success has been a big part of the Mike London story even prior to being named the 39th coach in the Virginia program's history.

In two seasons at Richmond, London led the Spiders to a 24-5 record. In his first year at the helm, his team went 13-3 and won the Football Championship Series national title. The 2009 Spider team, ranked nine consecutive weeks at No. 1 in the FCS polls, went 11-2 and reached the quarterfinals of the FCS playoffs. His teams were 13-4 in the Colonial Athletic Association during the 2008 and 2009 campaigns.

London's efforts in 2008 earned him FCS National Coach of the Year honors from both the American Football Coaches Association and Schutt Sports/American Football Monthly magazine. London was also honored as the Black Coaches Association Male Coach of the Year in 2008, beating out Mike Tomlin of the Super Bowl Champion Pittsburgh Steelers for the award. In addition to the national honors, London was tabbed the State Coach of the Year from both VaSID and the Peninsula Sports Club.

Under London's watch, 16 Spiders were named to the All-CAA Football Team in 2009 after placing 12 in 2008. His first year at UR, nine Spiders garnered 15 All-America awards and six were recognized on the Academic All-Conference Team. DE Lawrence Sidbury was a fourth-round NFL draft pick by the Atlanta Falcons, while RB Josh Vaughan was a free-agent signee by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Before returning to coach his alma mater, London spent six of seven seasons coaching for Al Groh at Virginia. In 2001 London joined the UVa staff for the first time as the defensive line coach. He took over the responsibilities as recruiting coordinator in 2002. In 2005 London left UVa to work as the defensive line coach for the NFL's Houston Texas. He returned to Virginia in 2006 as the defensive coordinator and defensive line coach.

During his tenure with the Cavaliers, he saw five defensive players (Chris Long, Marcus Hamilton, Chris Canty, Andrew Hoffman and Monsanto Pope) drafted by NFL teams. Long was the ACC Defensive Player of the Year in 2007, earned unanimous All-America honors, was the Ted Hendricks Award winner as the nation's top defensive end and the second overall selection in the 2008 NFL Draft.

A native of Hampton, Va., London played defensive back at Richmond from 1979-82. Under head coach Dal Shealy, he led the Spiders with six interceptions as a senior captain in 1982. In addition to earning all-state honors, he was chosen the team's MVP and received the Spiders' Coaches Award. In 1982, the Virginia Peninsula Sports Club selected him as the male in-state Athlete of the Year.

London graduated from Richmond in 1983 with a bachelor's degree in sociology and a year later received a degree in law enforcement from the Richmond Police Academy, serving as a detective for the street crimes unit from November of 1984 to July of 1989. The Dallas Cowboys signed him as a free agent in 1983.

London broke into the collegiate coaching ranks in 1989, spending two seasons with Richmond as the outside linebackers coach and admissions liaison, followed by four seasons (1991-94) as the defensive line coach at William & Mary.

He returned to Richmond for two more years (1995-96) as the outside linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator, coaching All-America LB Shawn Barber, who was a fourth-round draft pick by the Washington Redskins in 1998 and played 10 years in the NFL. London served as defensive line coach at Boston College for the 1997-2000 seasons, where he helped lead the Eagles to two bowl appearances.

London and his wife Regina, are the parents of four children - Ticynn, Korben, Jaicyn and Madicyn. He has three older children, Michael, Jr., Brandon and Kristen through a previous marriage. The 51-year-old London was born in West Point, N.Y. in 1960.

His son, Brandon, led Massachusetts in receiving in 2006 and finished his career as the school's second leading receiver. He was signed to the Miami Dolphins active roster in 2008 after spending the 2007 season on the Super Bowl Champion New York Giants practice squad. Brandon since 2010 has been with the Montreal Alouettes of the CFL. One of London's daughters, Kristen, played on the UVa women's basketball team during the 2007-08 and 2008-09 seasons. His younger brother, Paul, was a defensive back at UVa from 1991-95.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH FOR OFFENSE/TIGHT ENDS

TOM O'BRIEN

Tom O'Brien is Virginia's associate head coach for offense and the tight ends coach after joining Mike London's coaching staff on Jan. 3, 2013. Entering his 40th season of coaching, O'Brien is enjoying his second stint at UVa after spending 15 seasons on George Welsh's staff from 1982-1996, the final six campaigns as the offensive coordinator.

O'Brien oversaw tight end Jake McGee as he led the Cavaliers in receiving in 2013 with 43 catches and 395 yards. Adding Zachary Swanson's 19 catches, O'Brien's tight ends amounted for 22.4 percent of UVa's receptions in 2013.

O'Brien returned to Charlottesville in 2013 after a 16-year head coaching career that included stops at Boston College and NC State. O'Brien owns a 115-80 career record as a head coach and an 8-2 mark in bowl games. In his 16 years as a head coach, 12 of his teams advanced to bowl games and his .800 winning percentage is the highest all-time in bowl history.

When O'Brien was named NC State's head coach in December of 2006, he took over a program that had posted three straight losing seasons and was coming off a season where the Wolfpack won only three games. By year two in Raleigh, O'Brien took NC State to the Papajohns.com Bowl and then enjoyed a Champs Bowl victory in 2010 over West Virginia (23-7) behind the effort of game MVP and current Seattle Seahawks QB Russell Wilson. O'Brien and NC State followed up in 2011 with a Belk Bowl triumph over Louisville (31-24) behind 264 passings yards and three touchdowns by game MVP Mike Glennon, who was selected in the third round by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

The Glennon selection by the Buccaneers made O'Brien the first coach in ACC history to have back-to-back quarterbacks selected in the first three rounds of the NFL Draft. Russell Wilson, who preceded Glennon on the Wolfpack depth chart at quarterback, was selected in the third round of the 2012 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks. The Glennon and Wilson tandem also made the NC State program the only team in ACC history to have a 3,000-yard passer in four consecutive seasons.

Many players who have enjoyed O'Brien's tutelage have also enjoyed success at the next level. At the conclusion of the 2012 NFL season, 52 former players O'Brien either coached or recruited had made it to the NFL. Also, eight of the last 11 seasons at least one former O'Brien pupil was a member of a Super Bowl Championship squad.

O'Brien got his first opportunity to lead a major college program in December, 1996, when he took over at Boston College. There, he turned around a program that had been wracked by a gambling scandal and instability. After leading the Eagles to back-to-back 4-7 seasons in 1997 and 1998, O'Brien led BC to an 8-4 record in 1999 and the third-best turnaround in the NCAA FBS ranks. He then guided the Eagles to eight consecutive winning seasons and an NCAA-best eight consecutive bowl appearances. He posted nine-win seasons in four of his final five years at Chestnut Hill, posting a 75-45 record and leaving the school with more wins than any coach in Boston College history. Heading into the Eagles' 2006 bowl game, BC ranked as the 18th winningest program of the 21st century (from 2000-06). O'Brien left for NC State before coaching in BC's bowl game in 2006, the Meineke Car Care Bowl, but his success of reaching post-season play continued for Boston College past his tenure as the Eagles reached 12-straight bowl games before missing out in 2011. UVa head coach Mike London served as the defensive line coach on four of O'Brien's Boston College teams (1997-2000).

Just as impressively, O'Brien's teams were successful in the classroom. The American Football Coaches' Association gave him its 2004 Academic Achievement Award for posting a 100 percent graduation rate. He received honorable mention status seven additional times during his tenure at Boston College. BC was ranked No. 1 in the country by USA Today when that publication re-ordered its 2005 regular-season poll and the final 2005 football Top 25 by APR (Academic Progress Rate) score to measure a combination of athletic and academic success. At the time O'Brien left, BC boasted the highest success rate for football among any ranked team. Success followed O'Brien to NC State as his single year APR score of 990 obliterated the previous program best of 953 from the 2005-06 academic year. It was O'Brien's highest single year score achieved as a head coach.

O'Brien spent seven years under Welsh at the Naval Academy, coaching the team's tackles and tight ends and serving as recruiting coordinator. He was responsible for recruiting All-America and hall of fame running back Napoleon McCallum to the Naval Academy.

In 1982, O'Brien followed Welsh to Virginia, where they turned the Cavaliers into a nationally prominent and successful football power. In O'Brien's first 15 years in Charlottesville, Virginia had winning seasons 12 times, won four bowl games and was ACC co-champions twice. During his tenure, Virginia consistently ranked among the top offensive teams in the Atlantic Coast Conference. In 1996, the Cavaliers scored more than 320 points for an ACC-record eighth consecutive year.

A Cincinnati, Ohio native, O'Brien received a community-minded Jesuit education at St. Xavier High School that helped him earn his appointment to the Naval Academy. At Annapolis, where he was a three-year starter at defensive end, he learned to combine his hard work with discipline and leadership skills, traits that prepared him to become a Marine officer when his football career ended.

After his 1971 graduation from the Naval Academy, he served nine years in the Marines, beginning his football coaching career as an assistant for Navy's plebe (freshman) team, then serving at the Quantico Marine Base in Virginia and tours of duty in California and Japan. He eventually reached the rank of major in the Marine Corps Reserve.

In 1975, O'Brien returned to Navy as a Marine officer assigned to head coach George Welsh's staff. In 1980, he resigned his commission and was hired by Welsh as a full-time assistant coach. But O'Brien didn't accept before he examined all of his available options. To this day, he credits Welsh with allowing him to interview with several major corporations before accepting the coaching position. After examining all of his options, he chose a profession that wasn't for the faint of heart, deciding he'd "rather coach than work for a living."

O'Brien has spent his career influencing his peers and his players. During his 16 years as a head coach, he has mentored 23 assistant coaches - seven of whom have gone on to be collegiate head coaches, including current UVa head coach Mike London and current Miami head coach Al Golden.

He has also been recognized for his valuable contributions to the communities where he has served. He is on the board of directors for the Marine Corps' Toys for Tots Foundation. He received the John F. Kennedy National Award, given to "an outstanding American of Irish descent for distinguished service to God and country" in 2005.

O'Brien is married to the former Jennifer Byrd of San Diego, who is a member of the board of directors for Rostro de Cristo (Face of Christ), a program whose mission is to provide spiritual and educational opportunities for young people from the United States to live out the Gospel of Jesus Christ together with the people of Ecuador. They are the parents of three children: Colleen Frances, a 2002 Boston College graduate who is an associate producer at ESPN; Daniel Patrick, a 2005 BC graduate who is on the Elon football staff; and Bridget Jean, also a 2005 BC graduate who is the Museum Coordinator for the Historic Charleston Foundation.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH FOR DEFENSE/ DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/LINEBACKERS

JON TENUTA

Jon Tenuta is the associate head coach for the defense and the defensive coordinator. Tenuta joined Mike London's coaching staff on Jan. 3, 2013 after three seasons at NC State. The UVA alum returns to Charlottesville for the first time in a working capacity since being a graduate assistant for the Cavaliers in 1981 and 1982.

Entering his 34th season of collegiate coaching, Tenuta has a wealth of FBS coaching experience, including being the defensive coordinator at various BCS stops: Kansas State, Ohio State, North Carolina, Georgia Tech and Notre Dame. Tenuta also served Marshall and SMU as defensive coordinator as well during the 1980s and has served as a defensive coordinator in 16 of his 33 seasons as a collegiate coach.

During Tenuta's first season on Grounds he oversaw a defense that featured first-team All-American Anthony Harris, who led the nation with eight interceptions. The All-ACC first-team honoree was third on the team with 80 tackles in 2013. Under Tenuta's tutelage defensive lineman Brent Urban led the nation in pass breaks for a defensive lineman, despite missing four games with an injury.

Prior to UVA Tenuta came from NC State, where his defense included David Amerson, who led the nation in 2011 with 13 INTs.

Tenuta has coached in 16 bowl games during his career and served as the interim head coach for Georgia Tech at the 2007 Humanitarian Bowl. After he arrived at Notre Dame, he helped the Irish defense improve in all defensive categories and coached 2012 Heisman Trophy runner-up Manti Te'o to a freshman All-American season.

While at Georgia Tech, 18 Yellow Jacket defenders earned first- or second-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference recognition and 18 players from his first four units were either drafted or signed to NFL free-agent contracts. In the six years Tenuta was in Atlanta, his defenses were ranked nationally in total, scoring and rushing defense, including 20th or better against the run the last five years.

In 2001, Tenuta guided the ACC's top-rated defense at North Carolina during his only season in Chapel Hill. Tenuta spent five seasons at Ohio State and he helped develop several All-Americans and first-round NFL draft picks. Ohio State's pass defense was consistently ranked among the nation's best during that span.

In 1989, he was an assistant coach at SMU, where he helped Forrest Gregg rebuild the program. Tenuta also has had stops at Maryland (graduate assistant), Vanderbilt (DBs) and Oklahoma (DBs).

Tenuta has coached more than 30 players who went on to play professional football. A three-year letterwinner as a defensive back at Virginia (1978, '79, '80), he won the team's John Acree Memorial Football Trophy and Kevin Bowie Award. Tenuta graduated with a degree in physical education and health in 1982. He met his wife, Dori, while at UVA. Dori was a four-year letterwinner in women's basketball while at Virginia. They have three sons: Zach, Matt and Luke. Son Matt is a left-handed pitcher in the Kansas City Royals Organization and opened the 2014 season with the Lexington Legends (Ky.) of the Class-A South Atlantic League.

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS

STEVE FAIRCHILD

Steve Fairchild enters his second season at Virginia as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. Fairchild boasts 33 years of coaching experience at both the NFL and collegiate levels, including 17 seasons as an offensive coordinator.

During Fairchild's first season on Grounds he guided an offense that saw Kevin Parks rush for 1,031 yards and earn All-ACC second-team honors. Parks was the first Cavalier to rush for over a 1,000 yards since Alvin Pearman in 2004.

Prior to UVa Fairchild was the senior offensive assistant for the San Diego Chargers after a four-year stint as the head coach at Colorado State, which included the highest-ranked recruiting class in program history and a victory in the 2008 New Mexico Bowl.

At Colorado State, Fairchild also was the offensive coordinator (1997-2000) and quarterbacks coach (1993-96) during the Rams' football rise. From 1993-2000 Colorado State won the Western Athletic Conference three times and the Mountain West Conference twice and was nationally ranked at various times during that span. During Fairchild's four seasons as the offensive coordinator, three Colorado State players were honored as the league's offensive player of the year and the Rams won three bowl games. In 1997, quarterback Moses Moreno was the WAC offensive player of the year and helped Colorado State finish No. 1 in the league in total and scoring offense.

Fairchild has worked with many dynamic players in college football and the NFL. He was a part of San Diego State's high-octane offenses that were highlighted by running back Marshall Faulk and quarterback Dan McGwire. During Fairchild's three seasons at San Diego State from 1990-92, the Aztecs enjoyed three straight top-10 finishes in NCAA scoring and total offense categories. Fairchild's first stint at San Diego State was for the 1986 season as the Aztecs' recruiting coordinator and tight ends coach, working with second-round NFL selection Rob Awalt. Fairchild also owns a stop at New Mexico as the offensive coordinator from 1987-89 where the Lobos ranked No. 8 in NCAA pass offense and No. 29 in total offense in 1989. Under Fairchild's guidance Terance Mathis became the first player to have more than 250 receptions, 4,000 receiving yards and 6,000 yards of total offense.

Fairchild spent eight seasons in the NFL. He worked as the offensive coordinator for the Buffalo Bills in 2006 and 2007, as quarterback J.P. Losman posted the 11th-best QB rating in the NFL in 2006 and passed for 3,051 yards. Prior to his stint with the Bills, Fairchild was the offensive coordinator for the St. Louis Rams from 2003-05. Teaming up again with Faulk, Fairchild and the Rams enjoyed three straight top-10 finishes in total offense, including the NFL's second-ranked scoring offense in 2003. Quarterback Marc Bulger was the 2003 Pro Bowl MVP. Fairchild's first NFL stint came in Buffalo in 2001 and 2002 where he was the running backs coach and boasted two Pro Bowl running backs, Larry Centers and Travis Henry. Centers is the NFL career reception and yardage holder for running backs.

Fairchild began his coaching career in 1982 as the offensive coordinator at San Diego Mesa Community College. After two seasons he moved to Ferris State as the offensive coordinator from 1984-85.

Fairchild is a 1981 graduate of Colorado State, where he spent three seasons as a quarterback and earned All-WAC second-team honors behind BYU's Jim McMahon. Fairchild also excelled in the classroom at Colorado State, earning first-team academic all-conference honors, the Merrill Gheen Award for athletic and academic achievement and the NCAA District Athletic Achievement Award. He earned a bachelor of arts in economics from Colorado State and later a master of education from Azusa Pacific in 1983.

The Decatur, Ill., native is married to the former Nancy A. Kolstoe. The couple has two daughters, Lindsey and Jill.

SPECIAL COORDINATOR/RUNNING BACKS

LARRY LEWIS

Larry Lewis joined Mike London's coaching staff on Jan. 12, 2013 as the special teams coordinator and the running backs coach. Lewis has 33 years of collegiate coaching experience, including an eight-year stint as the head coach at Idaho State. Lewis first started coaching special teams when he was an assistant on Mike Price's Weber State staff in 1981 and became one of the first college coaches to hold the title of special teams coordinator when he took on that role for Price's Washington State teams in the 1990s.

During Lewis' first season on Grounds he guided a running back corps that saw Kevin Parks rush for 1,031 yards and earn All-ACC second-team honors. Parks was the first Cavalier to rush for over a 1,000 yards since Alvin Pearman in 2004.

Lewis came to Virginia after working for Hall of Fame coach Chris Ault at Nevada in 2012. Ault announced his retirement in late December. Lewis served as the Wolfpack's special teams coordinator and running backs coach. Nevada averaged 271 rushing yards per game in 2012, the seventh-best average among FBS programs.

In his one season at Nevada, Lewis coached junior All-America running back Stefphon Jefferson, who rushed for 1,883 yards and 24 touchdowns. Both of those totals ranked second among FBS players in 2012. Jefferson was one of 10 semifinalists for the Doak Walker Award, presented to the nation's top running back.

Jefferson's rushing yardage and touchdown totals set Nevada and Mountain West Conference single-season records. He broke Colin Kaepernick's single-season rushing touchdown mark at Nevada.

The Wolfpack's special teams also showed improvement under Lewis. Nevada's Khalid Wooten led the Mountain West Conference and finished fourth in the nation in punt return average at 15.1 yards per return. Brock Kendall was sixth in MWC in kickoff returns at 23.4 yards per runback. Place kicker Allen Hardison converted nine of 10 field goal attempts and made 56 of 57 PATs. Chase Tenpenny averaged 43.3 yards per punt on 46 attempts. Wooten was a second-team all-conference selection, while Hardison earned honorable mention honors.

Lewis coached at Colorado State for four seasons before joining the staff at Nevada. After coaching the Rams' special teams and safeties for three seasons, he was promoted to associate head coach prior to the 2011 campaign and given the responsibility of coaching running backs and fullbacks, in addition to special teams.

At Colorado State in 2011, Lewis guided the Rams to top 25 rankings in punting and kick returns. As the Rams' running backs coach, he tutored Chris Nwoke, who was third in the Mountain West in rushing at nearly 95 yards per game. Lewis also had the No. 19 kick return unit in 2010 and the top punter in the Mountain West in 2008.

Lewis has produced a number of NFL players in his career, perhaps most notably All-Pro defensive end Jared Allen, who was the nation's top defensive player in I-AA (FCS) in 2003 at Idaho State.

As the Bengals' head coach from 1999-2006, Lewis guided Idaho State to a share of the 2002 Big Sky Conference title and the school's first of consecutive eight-win seasons, in 2002 and 2003, in the program's 101-year history. For a stretch from 2001-04, Idaho State was ranked in 22 of 23 national polls. His Bengals' teams produced 13 All-Americans, 127 all-conference selections and 41 academic all-conference awards.

Lewis was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year in 2002, when Idaho State notched its best record in 21 years and captured a share of its first Big Sky title in more than two decades.

That season, the Bengals had 14 first- and second-team all-conference players; they had just one only three years earlier, in 1999. The Bengals closed the year No. 16 in the national polls.

Prior to his tenure at ISU, Lewis spent 10 years at Washington State, where he served as defensive ends coach (1989-94) and assistant head coach/special teams coordinator (1995-98). During that period, WSU experienced unprecedented success and his linemen helped the school post the nation's No. 2 defense against the run in both 1993 and 1994.

The Cougars went to three bowl games, including the Rose Bowl at the end of a 10-1 season in 1997. In that contest, WSU nearly upset eventual national champion Michigan. It was Washington State's first Rose Bowl appearance in 67 years.

From 1981-88, Lewis coached at Weber State, where he began as a part-time assistant. Promoted to full-time status by head coach Mike Price prior to the 1983 season, Lewis coached outside linebackers from 1981-85, then wore two caps as recruiting coordinator and defensive line coach from 1986-88. In 1987, the Wildcats enjoyed what remains the best season in program annals, a 10-3 campaign that saw them advance to the national Division I-AA quarterfinals and capture a share of the Big Sky Conference championship. In 1981, his first year at the school, the 7-4 team snapped a string of 10 losing seasons.

Lewis began coaching after a stellar playing career at Boise State, where he lettered four times. After red-shirting in 1976, he was the team's most improved player as a freshman. As a starter at outside linebacker, he helped the Broncos win the 1980 NCAA Division I-AA national championship, on the heels of a 10-1 season in 1979 and a Big Sky championship in 1977.

During his professional tenure he has coached in the Copper, Alamo, Rose and New Mexico (twice) bowls and in the Division I-AA championships twice.

The 55-year-old Lewis is a native of Vale, Ore. He graduated from Boise State in 1981 with a degree in physical education. He and his wife, Lisa, have a daughter named Hanna.

• Fifth Season at Virginia

• Named the ACC Recruiter of the Year in 2014 by Rivals.com and Scout.com

• In four seasons at UVA has worked with All-ACC cornerbacks Ras-I Dowling, Chase Minnifield and Demetrious Nicholson, while Minnifield & Nicholson (Frosh.) earned All-America honors

RECRUITING COORDINATOR/CORNERBACKS

CHIP WEST

Chip West enters his fifth season on the Virginia coaching staff in 2013. West, who coaches the Cavalier cornerbacks, took over the role of recruiting coordinator following the 2012 season and saw Virginia sign a top-30 class in February 2013 that featured the first five-star prospect in Mike London's tenure at Virginia. It was the third consecutive top-30 class for the UVA program.

The highly-energetic West has taken advantage of his personal and professional background in the Tidewater area to strongly enhance Virginia's recruiting efforts in that region. In February 2014 Rivals.com and Scout.com each named West its ACC Recruiter of the Year. West spearheaded a recruiting effort that landed UVA numerous top-rated recruits, including two of the nation's top-10 recruits. West was named the Atlantic Coast Conference's recruiter of the year for 2011 by 247Sports and was one eight finalists for the organization's national recruiter of the year honor.

As effective as West has been on the recruiting circuit, he has been equally successful as a position coach.

In 2012, sophomore cornerback Demetrious Nicholson was an honorable mention selection to All-ACC media and coaches teams. As a freshman in 2011, he was a second-team freshman All-American.

In 2011, senior cornerback Chase Minnifield earned All-ACC honors for the second straight year while being coached by West. Minnifield ended his career with 13 interceptions.

That same year, Nicholson, the state's high school player of the year in 2010, started all 13 games, recorded two interceptions and finished fourth on the team with 60 tackles.

In 2010 West coached Ras-I Dowling. Despite missing much of the season due to injury, Dowling was a second-round pick by the New England Patriots.

A Hampton, Va., native, West was the assistant head coach, recruiting coordinator and defensive backs coach for head coach Bobby Wilder at Old Dominion before joining the Virginia staff. He was responsible for recruiting the Hampton Roads and Tidewater areas for the Monarchs. ODU went 9-2 in 2009 in its first season as a NCAA FCS program.

Prior to joining the staff at Old Dominion, West coached at James Madison for three seasons (2004-2006) overseeing the defensive backs, including free safety Tony LeZotte, a 2005 All-American and Atlantic-10 Defensive Player of the Year, as well as the Atlantic 10 co-rookie of the year as a freshman. The Dukes won the NCAA Division I-AA national championship in 2004, finishing 13-2. In 2006 JMU returned to the FCS playoffs, losing in the first round at Youngstown State.

West coached the defensive backs at Fordham in 2003 when the Rams were 9-3. He served as the wide receivers coach at Colgate for four years and worked as a graduate assistant at West Virginia. Colgate shared the 2002 Patriot League title with Fordham, finishing with a 9-3 overall record and a 6-1 league mark. The Raiders led the Patriot League in 2002 in total offense, averaging 392.5 yards per game, including 215.0 yards per game passing. In 1999 Colgate won the Patriot League title and competed in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs.

As a graduate assistant at West Virginia for two seasons, West worked with the defense as the Mountaineers participated in the Carquest and Insight.com bowls.

West played football at Kecoughtan High School. He earned his bachelor's degree in computer information systems from Livingstone College, and his master's in physical education from West Virginia while working as a graduate assistant coach. West was an all-CIAA wide receiver at Livingstone.

He and his wife, Patrice, are the parents of five children: Zoe, David, Gwen, Justin and Jada.

SAFETIES

MIKE ARCHER

Mike Archer is the safeties coach and is in his first season on Mike London's staff, and in his third season at UVa overall. Archer joined London's coaching staff on Jan. 30, 2014 and returns to Virginia after spending the 1991 and 1992 seasons at UVa as the linebackers coach on George Welsh's staff.

Archer boasts 37 years of coaching experience, including four years as the head coach at LSU and seven years as an assistant coach in the NFL with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Most recently, Archer was the defensive coordinator for six seasons at NC State from 2007 to 2012. He served under current UVa associate head coach for offense Tom O'Brien. Archer and O'Brien previously worked together at Virginia during the 1991 and 1992 seasons.

Current UVa associate head coach for defense/defensive coordinator Jon Tenuta also worked with Archer at NC State from 2010-12.

At NC State, Archer oversaw a defensive unit that picked off a school record 27 interceptions in 2011. The interception mark led the nation and tied as the second-best effort in ACC history. Archer's 2010 NC State defense held two opponents to negative yardage in rushing and ranked second in the league in rush defense. The Pack was also second in the ACC in sacks. The 2008 Wolfpack defense forced 28 turnovers, 20th in the NCAA. That mark included 17 interceptions which ranked 13th nationally. The 2007 Wolfpack defense ranked 25th nationally in passing efficiency defense.

Prior to his time at NC State, Archer spent seven seasons at Kentucky with a seven-year stint as the linebackers coach of the Pittsburgh Steelers breaking up his tenure with the Wildcats. Archer started at Kentucky in 1993 as the defensive coordinator and linebacker coach. In 1995 he was elevated to assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. In 1996 he left for the Steelers where he stayed through the 2002 season, helping Pittsburgh to four divisional championships. From 2003-06 Archer returned to Kentucky to be its defensive coordinator.

Kentucky's 2006 defense forced 28 turnovers, as the Wildcats ranked fifth nationally in turnover margin.

While with the Steelers, Archer coached a pair of two-time Pro Bowl selections (Jason Gildon, Levon Kirkland) and two other Pro Bowl selections (Joey Porter and Kendrell Bell). Kendrell Bell was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year in 2001. Archer assisted a Steeler defense that led the NFL in rushing defense in 2002.

In 1987, at 34 years of age, Archer became the youngest Division I FBS head coach when he succeeded Bill Arnsparger at LSU. Archer came to LSU as the defensive backs coach in 1984 and was elevated to defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach for the 1985 and 1986 seasons. When Arnsparger left his post to become the athletics director, he handpicked Archer as his successor. In his three seasons as an LSU assistant, the Tigers posted a 26-8-2 mark and played in three bowl games.

Archer's first LSU team finished the season ranked No. 5 in both major polls with a 10-1-1 record, losing only to Alabama and tying Ohio State. It was LSU's first 10-win season in more than 25 years. Archer's Tigers followed up with an 8-4 record and a Southeastern Conference title in 1988. Archer posted a 27-18-1 head coaching record at LSU from 1987-90.

A 1976 graduate of Miami (Fla.), Archer started his coaching career with the Hurricanes in 1976 as a graduate assistant. In 1978 he was elevated to a full-time assistant coach. From 1979-83 Archer served as the defensive backs coach on Howard Schnellenberger's Miami teams, including the 1983 national championship squad.

Archer was a defensive back and punter at Miami from 1973-75. The State College, Pa., native earned a master's of education from Miami in 1978.

Archer is married to the former Barbara Pollak of Kansas City, Mo. The couple has two children. Their son, Jeff, is a 2006 graduate from Kentucky where he played football and baseball. Their daughter, Betsy, graduated from Kentucky in 2007, finished her master's in elementary education at NC State in 2009, and is now a fourth grade teacher in Raleigh, N.C.

WIDE RECEIVERS

MARQUES HAGANS

Marques Hagans enters his second season as a full-time coach on Mike London's coaching staff after spending two years as a graduate coach, working with the offense. Hagans was named the wide receivers coach on Jan. 3, 2013.

Hagans oversaw the emergence of freshman wide receiver Keeon Johnson in 2013. Despite not playing the first four games of a potential redshirt season, Johnson completed one of the best true freshman seasons in recent UVa history, catching 20 passes for 282 yards and a score in the final eight games of the season.

Hagans was a four-year letterwinner at UVa from 2002-05 and currently is No. 7 all-time in passing at UVa with 4,877 passing yards. He finished his career at No. 5, but has since been passed by Jameel Seweel and Marc Verica, the two starting quarterbacks to follow him in Charlottesville. Hagans is No. 5 all-time at UVa in total offense with 5,779 yards and his 2005 season ranks No. 3 all-time with 2,802 total yards. Only his predecessor, Matt Schaub, had better seasons (2002 & 2003) in the UVa annals in regards to total offense.

The St. Louis Rams selected Hagans in the fifth round (144 overall) of the 2006 NFL Draft. He spent three seasons with the Rams before being picked up by the Kansas City Chiefs for the 2009 campaign. Hagans finished the 2009 season with the Washington Redskins and was released in the summer of 2010 after injuring himself in off-season workouts.

Hagans is a native of Hampton, Va., and graduated from Hampton High School after spending two years at neighboring Bethel High School. As a junior at Hampton, Hagans led the Crabbers to the state championship in Group AAA, Division 5 of the Virginia High School League in 1998. Hampton advanced to the state semifinals in Hagans' senior season in 1999.

Hagans graduated with a degree in anthropology from UVa in 2005 and is currently finishing a graduate degree in professional studies.

Hagans resides in Charlottesville with his wife, the former Lauren Swierczek, a former Cavalier women's basketball player. The couple has one son, Christopher Dex.

DEFENSIVE LINE

JAPPY OLIVER

Jerome "Jappy" Oliver is the defensive line coach and is in his first year at Virginia. Oliver joined Mike London's coaching staff on Jan. 13, 2014 after four seasons at Buffalo.

Oliver boasts 35 years of collegiate coaching experience, including stops at Air Force, Buffalo, Navy, Notre Dame, South Carolina, and Vanderbilt. Oliver comes to UVa after four seasons as the assistant head coach, defensive line coach and professional football liaison at Buffalo where the Bulls are coming off a 2013 appearance in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, only the second bowl appearance in program history.

Oliver will be reunited with defensive coordinator Jon Tenuta at Virginia. Oliver and Tenuta coached together at Notre Dame during the 2008 season.

In Oliver's first season at Buffalo in 2010, he coached a defensive line that had 23.5 tackles for loss and 6.5 sacks. His defensive line improved on those numbers in 2011 with 24 tackles for loss and 8.5 sacks. In 2012, Oliver coached the duo of Steven Means and Colby Way who combined for 21.5 tackles for loss and 13.5 sacks. Means was named second-team All-MAC. Way went on to be named a third-team All-MAC honoree in 2013 after making 32 tackles, including 8.5 for a loss and 5.0 sacks, and was drafted in the fifth round of the 2013 NFL Draft by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Oliver came to Buffalo in 2010 after spending four years at Notre Dame as the Irish defensive line coach. From 2005-08, Oliver helped the growth of Irish defensive ends Victor Abiamiri and Chris Frome as well as defensive tackles Derek Landri and Trevor Laws. Abiamiri was a second-round pick in the 2007 NFL Draft by the Philadelphia Eagles, while the Jacksonville Jaguars chose Landri that same year in the fifth round. Laws was drafted by the Eagles in the second round of the 2008 draft and became the earliest Irish defensive tackle selected since Bryant Young was taken in the first round 14 years earlier. Frome was signed as an undrafted free agent by the Chicago Bears in 2007.

Oliver spent the 2003 and 2004 seasons as defensive line coach under Lou Holtz at South Carolina, helping to achieve a noteworthy turnaround on the defensive side in 2004 as the Gamecocks finished with a national ranking of 20th in total defense (315.18 yards per game).

Oliver previously served on the staff of Air Force's Fisher DeBerry for eight seasons from 1995 through 2002, helping the Falcons to five postseason bowl appearances including wins in the Oahu Bowl (1998) and the Silicon Valley Bowl (2000).

During Oliver's eight years as defensive line coach at Air Force, the Falcons finished a combined 65-33 and ended up 25th in the final USA Today/ ESPN poll in 1997 after finishing 10-3, then 10th in USA Today/ESPN in 1998 after finishing 12-1. Air Force won the Western Athletic Conference Mountain Division title in 1998.

One of Oliver's prize pupils, Bryce Fisher, earned WAC Mountain Division Defensive Player of the Year honors in 1998. Fisher was also the team's most outstanding player in the 1997 Las Vegas Bowl, and was later drafted in the seventh round by the Buffalo Bills. Oliver also helped turn Shawn Thomas into one of the Academy's best defenders. Thomas finished his career ranked fourth in school history in tackles for loss and quarterback sacks. In addition to his work with the defensive line, Oliver also worked with the Falcon kickoff team as well as the extra point and field goal blocking units.

From 1991-94 Oliver served on the staff at Vanderbilt, where he helped the Commodores defense set school records for quarterback sacks in consecutive seasons. Vanderbilt also lowered its team rushing yards allowed in each of Oliver's four seasons in Nashville under head coach Gerry DiNardo.

He began his coaching career in 1978 at Davison (Mich.) High School (near his hometown of Flint) where he coached the defensive backfield and wide receivers. He returned to his alma mater, Purdue University, as a graduate assistant coach in 1979 and 1980 (working with the wide receivers, tight ends and offensive line) for head coach Jim Young - and helped the Boilers to wins in the Bluebonnet (1979) and Liberty (1980) Bowls and consecutive 10-2 and 9-3 marks.

He then coached at Eastern Michigan (offensive backfield and receivers) from 1981-82 and Northeastern (outside linebackers) in 1983 under head coach Paul Pawlak. Oliver coached defensive linemen at the Naval Academy from 1984-86 under head coach Gary Tranquill. He also has coaching experience at Grand Valley State (defensive line in 1988) and Western Illinois (inside linebackers in 1989-90).

Oliver is a 1978 graduate of Purdue University where he earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education. He lettered three years in football as a wide receiver (15 career receptions) and also spent one season as a reserve on the Boilermakers' basketball squad.

Oliver was a standout athlete at Southwestern High School in Flint, Mich., earning all-city and all-district accolades in both football and basketball. He was the city's athlete of the year in 1973 and captained teams in football, basketball and baseball.

He has one daughter, Candace, and a son, Justin.

OFFENSIVE LINE

SCOTT WACHENHEIM

The 2014 season will be Scott Wachenheim's fifth year at Virginia and his fourth season coaching the Cavalier offensive linemen. He coached the tight ends during his first year with the Cavaliers. During his first three years at UVa coaching the offensive line and tight ends, Wachenheim helped Virginia's offense pass for at least 3,000 yards in three consecutive seasons, a first for the program.

In 2013, Wachenheim saw senior offensive tackle Morgan pick up a number of accolades. He was a third-team All-ACC selection, named the Touchdown Club of Richmond's Offensive Lineman of the Year and featured on the Watch Lists for the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award.

In 2012, Wachenheim saw senior offensive tackle Oday Aboushi pick up a number of accolades. He was a first-team All-ACC selection, named the Touchdown Club of Richmond's Offensive Lineman of the Year and featured on the Watch Lists for the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award. On the other side of the line, junior tackle Morgan Moses earned honorable mention All-ACC honors.

In 2011 Wachenheim had the unique experience of having all five players on the offensive line start all 13 games together. That group helped fuel an impressive Cavalier running game. Virginia rushed for 2,107 yards, the highest total since the 2004 campaign. The continuity showed in the passing game as well as UVa finished the year ranked No. 24 in the nation in fewest sacks allowed per game (1.23).

Senior offensive guard Austin Pasztor was a named a second-team All-American by the Associated Press and first-team All-ACC, while Aboushi was a second-team All-ACC pick. Wachenheim's players picked up ACC Lineman of the Week honors five times during the season for their performances.

Prior to coming to Virginia, Wachenheim spent the 2009 campaign as the tight ends coach with the Washington Redskins. During his lone season in Washington, Wachenheim helped with the development and emergence of tight end Fred Davis who had 48 receptions for 509 yards and six touchdowns in place of All-Pro Chris Cooley, who was lost with a season-ending injury.

Wachenheim first came to the Commonwealth in 2006 where he spent three seasons (2006-08) as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Liberty in Lynchburg, Va., under former UVa associate head coach Danny Rocco. Prior to the 2007 campaign, Rocco increased Wachenheim's responsibilities, naming him assistant head coach.

As the offensive coordinator at Liberty in 2008, the Flames went 10-2 on the way to a second straight Big South Conference championship, while averaging 33.7 points and 446.7 yards per game. The latter total ranked ninth in the Football Championship Subdivision and marked the second year in a row Liberty led the conference in total offense as they averaged 429.6 yards a game in 2007, while scoring 42.6 points per contest.

Highlighting Wachenheim's offense during his three years at Liberty was three-year starting running back Rashad Jennings, a seventh round selection by the Jacksonville Jaguars in the 2009 NFL Draft. A Walter Payton Award finalist and consensus first-team All-America selection, Jennings set Big South career records for rushing yards (3,633), attempts (633) and touchdowns (42).

Prior to his days with the Flames, Wachenheim spent 12 years as a member of Ken Hatfield's coaching staff at Rice in Houston, Texas. He spent the last five years with the Owls as offensive coordinator.

Wachenheim helped Rice build a dominant ball control offense which ranked among the nation's best during his tenure.

During the 2004 season, Rice led the nation in rushing offense (306.5 yards per game), and the Owls' 2003 squad ranked second in the country, racking up a school record of 3,800 rushing yards. In 2001, Wachenheim's direction enabled Rice to break the school record for points scored (333) and total offense (4,846 yards).

Prior to joining the Rice staff, Wachenheim served as recruiting coordinator, offensive tackles and tight ends coach at Utah State (1992-93). He culminated his tenure at the school with a Big West Conference title and a Las Vegas Bowl victory in 1993.

Wachenheim got his collegiate coaching career started in 1984. After graduating from the Air Force Academy with a bachelor's degree in civil engineering, he served as offensive coordinator of the Air Force Academy's junior varsity squad. He then went on to complete his military requirements.

Wachenheim returned to the coaching ranks at Arkansas in 1989-90, helping the Razorbacks to a Southwest Conference championship and a Cotton Bowl invitation. Additionally, Wachenheim earned his master's degree in athletic administration from the school in 1991.

Wachenheim spent the 1991 football season at Colorado under the leadership of head coach Bill McCartney, helping the Buffaloes win the Big 8 Conference championship and earn a berth in the Blockbuster Bowl.

As a player, Wachenheim was a four-year starter (1980-83) on the offensive line at the Air Force Academy. He earned first-team All-Western Athletic Conference and honorable mention All-American honors his senior year. The 1983 Falcons finished with a 10-2 season record, were ranked second in the nation in rushing offense, and were tabbed as the nation's 13th-ranked team overall.

A native of Woodland Hills, Calif., Wachenheim and his wife, Karla, have two sons: Kyle and Tyson. His son Tyson is a tight end at Christopher Newport University.

SEAN CASCARANO

GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Sean Cascarano is in his sixth season with the UVa football program and his first as a graduate assistant. He assists with the offense, primarily with the offensive line. Cascarano was a three-year letterwinner for the Cavaliers after serving as an offensive guard and offensive tackle from 2009-12.

The 2012 ACC All-Academic honoree missed the 2013 season with an injury after he was one of 11 players to start all 12 games for the Cavaliers in 2012. Cascarano spent the 2013 season with the football program as a student assistant, working primarily with the offensive line.

Cascarano is a native of Glenview, Ill., and graduated from Virginia in December 2013 with a bachelor degree in history. Cascarano is taking classes in the Curry School and will start his Master of Teaching program in the fall.

JONATHAN LEWIS

GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Jonathan Lewis is in his second season with the UVa football program after a five-year career in the NFL. He assists with the defensive line and helps prepare scouting reports for the coaches.

Lewis was a four-year letterwinner at Virginia Tech as a defensive tackle before being selected in the sixth round of the 2006 NFL Draft by the Arizona Cardinals. He also spent time with the Raiders, Jaguars and Seahawks.

The All-ACC performer appeared in 53 career games for the Hokies, starting 42, and amassing 203 career tackles. A native of Richmond, Va., Lewis was a US Army All-American while at Varina High School.

Lewis graduated from Virginia Tech in 2005 with a degree in residential property management. He and his wife, Tiffany Lewis, were married in 2010.

JACOB HODGES

GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Jacob Hodges is in his seventh season with the UVa football program and his second as a graduate assistant. He assists with the defense, primarily with the linebackers. Hodges is a three-year letterwinner for the Cavaliers after serving as the UVa holder from 2010-12. He joined the team in 2010 after spending his first two seasons on Grounds as a student manager for the 2008 and 2009 UVa football teams.

Between 2010 and 2012 Hodges appeared in 37 games and was the holder on every field goal and PAT attempt. He completed his only career collegiate pass on a fake field goal in 2010 against Maryland. Terrence Fells-Danzer took the pass 16 yards for a touchdown. Hodges also made three career rushes for 29 yards on fake field goal attempts. His career-long of 20 yards came on a Thursday night ESPN game at Miami in 2011.

Hodges graduated from Virginia in 2012 with a bachelor degree in history. The Stafford, Va., native is currently working on a masters degree in teaching from the Curry School.

TOMMY REAMON, JR.

GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Tommy Reamon, Jr. is in his second season as a graduate assistant football coach at Virginia. He works with the offensive coaching staff and is carrying on a family tradition of coaching. His father, Tommy Reamon Sr., is a long-time high school coach in Newport News. He currently coaches at Landstown High School in Virginia Beach. Among the many former players that played for him was Virginia standout quarterback Aaron Brooks and current NFL quarterback Michael Vick.

Reamon played collegiate football at Old Dominion. He was a member of the school's first-ever recruiting class in 2008. He started his career at quarterback before switching to wide receiver and running back for his junior and senior seasons. During his three years with the Monarchs, ODU produced a 26-7 record and qualified for the NCAA playoffs twice.

Reamon graduated from Old Dominion in 2012 with a degree in recreation and tourism. He worked as a volunteer in the Cavalier football office during the 2012 season.

Game Notes

- Virginia falls to 44-32-2 all-time in the series with Maryland.
- UVa's streak of three wins in a row at Byrd Stadium was snapped.
- CB Tim Harris made his first career start due to the injured Demetrious Nicholson.
- Nicholson had started 30 games in a row before missing today's game with an injury.
- With 242 rushing yards, UVa has surpassed 200 rushing yards in game for the third time this season.
- With 114 receiving yards, TE Jake McGee registered the most receiving yards by a Cavalier this season.
- The 114 receiving yards is a career high for McGee.
- McGee is the first UVa tight end to surpass 100 receiving yards since Tom Santi caught five balls for 128 yards against Minnesota on Dec. 30, 2005 in the Music City Bowl.
- WR Kyle Dockins secured his first collegiate reception on UVa's first drive of the game.
- QB David Watford was credited with his first career reception after a pass attempt was batted back into his hands in the first quarter.
- Watford threw for a career-high 263 yards.
- Watford threw for over 200 yards for the third time in his career.
- Watford's 297 yards of total offense are a career high.
- DE Eli Harold forced his third career fumble and recovered his first career fumble all on his second quarter sack.
- Harold tied his career high with 2.0 sacks.
- In the fourth quarter TB Kevin Parks recorded his 20th career rushing yard, tying him with Charles Way (1991-94) for No. 10 all-time at UVa.
- With 112 rushing yards, Parks surpassed 100 rushing yards for the third time this season and for the sixth time in his career.
- PK/P Alec Vozenilek booted four field goals, a career high.
- Vozenilek's four field goals are the most by a Cavalier since Robert Randolph kicked four at Indiana in 2011.
- Jake Snyder had a career-high three pass breakups.
- With his fourth quarter catch, Dominique Terrell extended his streak of consecutive games with a catch to 20.

GAME 8 • Georgia Tech 35, Virginia 25 Oct. 26 • Charlottesville, Va.

Game Notes

- Georgia Tech is only the second team this season to score on its opening possession of the game against UVa. Oregon also scored on its opening drive against Virginia (Sept. 7).
- Georgia Tech had three players rush for over 100 yards (Zach Laskey -133, Robert Godhigh -111 and David Sims -107), marking only the second time in UVa history an opponent accomplished the feat. Clemson in 1982 also had three players rush for over 100 yards with Cliff Austin (105), Chuck McSwain (103) and Jeff McCall (103).
- Quarterback David Watford had a career-high 376 passing yards. The 376 passing yards are the fourth-most in a game in UVa history.
- Watford completed a career-high 43 passes on a career-high 61 pass attempts.
- The 43 pass completions is a UVa record, breaking Matt Schaub's 41 completions against Georgia Tech in 2002.
- The 61 passing attempts is also a UVa record, breaking Matt Schaub's 58 attempts against Georgia Tech in 2002.
- Darius Jennings (13 catches) and Tim Smith (10 catches) became the first UVa receiving duo in program history to amass at least 10 catches in the same game.
- Jennings (119 yards) and Smith (151 yards) became the first UVa receiving duo to record over 100 receiving yards in the same since Jennings (136) and Perry Jones (100) did so in 2012 against Louisiana Tech.
- The 13 catches for Jennings were a career high.
- Jennings' 13 receptions were the most by a Cavalier since Mikell Simpson had 13 at Maryland in 2007.
- The 13 receptions are tied for the second-most in a game by a UVa player. Besides Jennings and Simpson, Alvin Pearman had 13 in 2003 against NC State and Heath Miller had 13 against Virginia Tech in 2003.
- Kevin Parks tied a career high with his ninth rushing touchdown. Parks also had nine rushing TD's in 2011.
- The 10 catches and 151 receiving yards for Smith were career highs.
- Parks has scored 23 career rushing touchdowns, ranking 8th on UVa's all-time list.
- Anthony Harris intercepted his fourth and fifth passes of the season.
- The two interceptions was the first multi-interception game by a Cavalier since Rodney McLeod had three at Maryland in 2011.

GAME 9 • Clemson 59, Virginia 10 Nov. 2 • Charlottesville, Va.

Game Notes

- Virginia has now lost six games in a row to fall to 2-7, 0-5 ACC. They are 0-2 against ranked teams.
- Virginia trails Clemson 38-8-1 in the all-time series. Clemson is now 17-5 in Charlottesville.
- Because of the ACC's unbalanced schedule, the two teams will not meet again until the 2020 season at Clemson.
- Clemson QB Tajh Boyd's 96-yard touchdown pass completion to Sammy Watkins was the third-longest pass play by a Virginia opponent, trailing a 99-yard TD pass by South Carolina in 2003 and a 97-yard touchdown pass by Clemson in 1974.
- Clemson's 610 yards were the seventh-most allowed by Virginia in a single game in program history
- It was the first time Virginia allowed 600+ yards of total offense since allowing 627 against Georgia Tech in 2000
- Clemson's 435 passing yards was the fourth most in a single game by a Virginia opponent. It was the first time Virginia allowed 400+ passing yards since the 2008 Gator Bowl when Texas Tech had 407.
- Clemson's 34 completions tied for sixth-most by a Virginia opponent in a single game, matching Wake Forest in 1981 and BYU in 2000.
- P Alec Vozenilek set a Virginia record with 522 punting yards, eclipsing the old mark of 464 set by Ryan Weigand vs. Wyoming in 2007.
- SS Anthony Harris grabbed his sixth interception of the season in the first quarter. It was the third-straight game in which Harris had an interception. Harris came into the game in a four-way tie for the lead in the nation in interceptions.
- Harris now has six interceptions and is tied for No. 4 all-time for a season in the UVa record book.
- TB Taquan Mizzell's 27-yard reception in the third quarter is the longest of his career.
- WR Keeon Johnson had a career-high 77 receiving yards on a career-high five catches.
- CB Tim Harris had a career-high seven tackles as well as a pass breakup.
- DT David Dean tied a career high with seven tackles, including a sack.
- With his 82 rushing yards, TB Kevin Parks moves into 14th place on the Cavalier career rushing list with 2139 yards, passing Nikki Fisher (1988-91) and Kevin Brooks (1992-95).

GAME 10 • North Carolina 45, Virginia 14 Nov. 9 • Chapel Hill, N.C.

Game Notes

- With his first catch of the day, Darius Jennings reached 100 career catches. Jennings becomes the 17th different Cavalier to amass at least 100 career catches in program history.
- Jennings extended his streak of consecutive games with a catch to three.
- Kevin Parks' touchdown rush in the third quarter was his 10th of the season, surpassing his career-best nine from 2011.
- The touchdown was Parks' 24th rushing touchdown of his career, tying him for No. 7 all-time in the UVa annals with Terry Kirby (1989-92).
- Parks had 100 yards rushing, his fourth 100-yard rushing game of the season and the seventh of his career.
- Anthony Harris picked off his seventh interception of the season in the third quarter and the eighth of his career.
- The seven interceptions are the most by a UVa player since Ronde Barber led the ACC with eight in 1994.
- The seven interceptions place Harris No. 4 all-time at UVa for picks in a season.
- Harris now has an interception in four straight games and five total in that span.
- Connor Wingo-Reeves made his first collegiate catch for four yards in the fourth quarter.
- Greyson Lambert tossed his first career touchdown pass on a 23-yard scoring strike to Keeon Johnson in the fourth quarter.
- The touchdown score by Johnson was the first of his career.
- With three receptions, Jake McGee extended his consecutive games streak with a catch to 12.
- With 28 receiving yards, McGee passed John Phillips (670) for No. 11 all-time at UVa among tight ends. McGee now has 679 career receiving yards.
- Keeon Johnson extended his consecutive games streak with a catch to six games.
- Taquan Mizzell extended his consecutive games streak with a catch to seven games.
- Mizzell had a career-long 48-yard kick return in the fourth quarter.

GAME 11 • Miami 45, Virginia 26 Nov. 23 • Miami Gardens, Fla.

Game Notes

- UVa yielded 28 points off of its four turnovers and scored zero points off its two forced turnovers.
- UVa's PAT that was blocked in the fourth quarter snapped the nation's longest streak of consecutive games without a missed extra point (69 games).
- UVa last missed an extra point against Richmond in 2008.
- UVa outgained Miami in total yards, 483-304.
- For the second time in the Mike London era, UVa lost a game when rushing for over 100 yards and holding its opponent under 100 yards rushing.
- Tim Smith returned his first punt for a career-long 45 yards.
- Smith's punt return was the longest by a Cavalier since Vic Hall returned a punt 67 yards against Duke in 2007.
- With 10 completions, David Watford broke Michael Rocco's UVa sophomore record (222) for completions.
- Watford's 331 completions in 2013 rank No. 4 all-time at UVa for a season and the most by a Cavalier underclassman.
- With 130 rushing yards, Kevin Parks rushed for over 100 yards for the fifth time this season and the eighth time in his career.
- Parks had 73 rushing yards in the first quarter.
- Parks' 130 rushing yards gives the junior 926 rushing yards for the season, the most by a Cavalier in a season since Alvin Pearman rushed for 1,037 yards in 2004.
- Anthony Harris collected his eighth interception of the year and has recorded one pick in five straight games.
- The eight interceptions puts Harris in a three-way tie for No. 2 all-time at UVa for a season.
- Harris joins Ronde Barber (1994) and Kevin Cook (1987) in the No. 2 position. Former UVa safety
- Keith McMeans owns the program record with nine interceptions in a season (1987).
- Taquan Mizzell scored his first collegiate touchdown on a 10-yard pass from David Watford in the fourth quarter.
- Mizzell added his first career rushing touchdown on a seven-yard scamper in the fourth quarter.
- Mizzell had career highs in receptions (6) and receiving yards (45).
- Greyson Lambert notched career highs in completions (13), attempts (19) and passing yards (134).
- Kyle Dockins collected career highs in receptions (4) and receiving yards (48).
- DreQuan Hoskey collected a career-high eight tackles.

GAME 12 • Virginia Tech 16, Virginia 6 Nov. 30 • Charlottesville, Va.

Game Notes

- Kevin Parks rushed for 105 yards, reaching the century mark for the sixth time this season and the eighth time in his career. He was just the third running back to gain 100 yards against Virginia Tech this season.
- Parks became the first Cavalier to rush for over 100 yards in three straight games since Cedric Peerman in 2007. Peerman: Duke (137), North Carolina (186) and Georgia Tech (138). Parks; North Carolina (100), Miami (130) and Virginia Tech (105).
- Parks finishes the 2013 season with 1,031 yards, which ranks No. 12 all-time at UVa for a season.
- Parks becomes the first Cavalier to rush for over 1,000 yards in a season since Alvin Pearman rushed for 1,037 yards in 2004.
- Parks concludes the 2013 season with 2,474 career rushing yards which places him No. 8 all-time in career rushing yards in the UVa annals.
- Parks extends his consecutive game streak with a catch to 11 games.
- Eli Harold recorded a career-high 3.0 sacks.
- Harold became the first Cavalier to have 3.0 sacks since Clint Sintim at Duke in 2008.
- Jake McGee extends his consecutive game streak with a catch to 14 games.
- McGee's four catches pushed his career receptions to 71, which passes Ed Carrington (70) for No. 8 all-time at UVa among tight ends.
- McGee's 65 receiving yards pushed his career receiving yards to 769, which passes Jim Colleran (738) for No. 10 all-time at UVa among tight ends.
- Taquan Mizzell (9), Keon Johnson (8), Darius Jennings (5) and Kyle Dockins (2) extended their consecutive game streaks with a catch.
- UVa kicker Alec Vozenilek ended the season by converting his final six field goal attempts.
- With the win, Virginia Tech extends its lead in the all-time series to 53-37-5.
- UVa has now lost 10 in a row to the Hokies.
- Virginia lost 10 games in a season for the first time since 1981.
- With DreQuan Hoskey's interception, UVa has recorded a pick in six straight games.
