Unbeaten Florida State, ranked third in the latest College Football Playoff Rankings and possessing the nation's longest current winning streak, last Saturday clinched their third consecutive Atlantic Division title and a berth in the 10th Annual Dr Pepper ACC Football Championship Game... Their opponent in the game will be either Coastal Division leader Georgia Tech or Duke...The Yellow Jackets have completed their ACC schedule and have a 6-2 conference record after an impressive, 28-6 win over 19th-ranked Clemson last Saturday in Atlanta...Duke, ranked 21st prior to a 17-16 loss to Virginia Tech last Saturday, is 4-2 in the ACC and can tie for the Coastal crown with wins over North Carolina this Thursday night and on Saturday, Nov. 29 against Wake Forest... Both games are at Wallace Wade Stadium in Durham and two victories by the Blue Devils would put them in the ACC Championship Game for the second consecutive year by virtue of their win at

Georgia Tech on Oct. 11...A loss by Duke in either game, though, sends the Yellow Jackets to their fourth appearance in the title contest...Tech has made previous appearances in Jacksonville, in 2006, Tampa in 2009 and in Charlotte in 2012...The appearance by Florida State will be its fourth in the last five years and fifth overall, having won the inaugural Dr Pepper ACC Football Championship Game in 2005, to go with titles in Charlotte in 2012 and 2013...In all, Florida State has won or shared 14 ACC football titles, Duke has seven and Georgia Tech two...NC State became the eighth ACC team to earn bowl eligibility, something North Carolina and Virginia Tech will attempt to do this Thursday night and Saturday, respectively as each needs just one win to do so...With Notre Dame in the ACC bowl mix, there are now nine teams available. (The ACC's bowl partners can be located on pages

33-34 of this release)...Three ACC teams are ranked in both the AP and Amway Coaches poll Top 25...Florida State is No. 1 and Duke is ranked 25th in both polls, with Georgia Tech ranked 17th in AP, 16th in the Coaches... Week 13 features five conference games and a pair of non-conference contests with Georgia Tech receiving a bye week, and the weekend begins early as Duke hosts North Carolina this Thursday night in a nationally-televised game at Wallace Wade Stadium (7:30 pm, ESPN)... The game marks Duke's first appearance on ESPN's Thursday night package since 1996 and its first home game since 1994... The Blue Devils, coached by David Cutcliffe, are led by QB Anthony Boone and WR Jamison Crowder and need the win to get to Charlotte...North Carolina, coached

FSU's Jalen Ramsey Named

National Defensive Player of the Week by Athlon Sports

Florida State S Jalen Ramsey (Smyrna, Tenn.) was named National Defensive Player of the Week by Athlon Sports after leading FSU to a 30-26 win over Miami. Ramsey had the game-saving interception and also four pass deflections, one tackle for loss, one forced fumble and he blocked a Miami PAT attempt.

Hornung Award Honors Pitt's Tyler Boyd

Pitt WR Tyler Boyd (Clairton, Pa.) was named to the Paul Hornung Award Honor Roll this week for his play against North Carolina. The Hornung Award is presented annually to the nation's most versatile college football player. Boyd touched the ball four different ways and accumulated 224 yards in the Panthers' narrow loss to the Tar Heels. Boyd had five catches for 160 yards and a TD, one carry for five yards, three KORs for 53 yards and a PR for one yard.

Manning Award Honors UNC's Marquise Williams

The Manning Quarterback of the Year Award has tabbed North Carolina junior QB Marquise Williams (Charlotte, N.C.) as one of its eight QB Stars of the Week. Williams totalled 276 yards passing and 122 yards rushing and ran for 3 TDs and threw for another in the Tar Heels' win over Pitt.

The ACC By The Numbers

.952 - The career field goal percentage of Florida State sophomore PK Roberto Aguayo, which is the best for any active placekicker in the nation. He has made 40 of his 42 attempts, including 19 of 20 this season. He also has made all 138 of his PAT attempts in his career.

1 - Louisville junior S Gerod Holliman leads the nation in pass interceptions with 13 in 10 games, an average of 1.3 per contest. His total of 13 picks ties the best single-season total in ACC history set by former NC State CB David Amerson (2011).

2 - Two ACC tight ends--Miami's Clive Walford and Florida State's Nick O'Leary--are among the eight semifinalists for the 2014 John Mackey Award, which is presented annually to the nation's top tight end. O'Leary was a finalist for the 2013 Award.

4 - The number of ACC teams listed in the most recent rankings released by the College Football Playoff Committee last Tuesday. Florida State was ranked third followed by Clemson (19th), Duke (21st) and Georgia Tech (22nd).

4 - Also the number of fumbles recovered and kicks blocked by Wake Forest junior DT Tylor Harris. Harris is tied for the nation's lead in both categories.

5 - The number of interception returns for touchdowns by Georgia Tech this season, which is the most for any team in the nation. Five different Yellow Jackets--LBs Quayshawn Nealy and Paul Davis and DBs D.J. White, Chris Milton and Jamal Golden--have each returned a pick for a score.

7.26 - The average yards per carry this year for Miami's Duke Johnson. He ranks seventh among all players in the nation in the NCAA's FBS.

9 - The number of bowl eligible teams in the ACC's bowl mix. Eight ACC teams are eligible, including NC State which became eligible just last Saturday. Notre Dame joins the ACC's bowl mix this year. The Irish can be the ACC's opponent in the Capital One Orange Bowl and then are eligible for the rest of the ACC's bowl games.

10.2 - The average number of tackles per game by Virginia true freshman S Quin Blanding. Blanding, who ranks 17th nationally among all players, is the leading freshman tackler in the nation by a wide margin. The next closest freshman--New Mexico State LB Derek Ibekwe--is averaging 8.6 tackles per game.

21 - The number of rushing touchdowns this year for Pitt sophomore RB James Conner. That already ties the ACC single-season mark set in 2009 by Virginia Tech's Ryan Williams.

26 - Florida State has won 26 consecutive games, the nation's longest current winning streak and ties for the 17th-longest of all time. The streak is also the ACC's longest winning streak, breaking a mark set by the Seminoles during the 1999 and 2000 seasons. FSU has also won 22 consecutive ACC games, dating back to a 17-16 loss at NC State in 2012.

29.0 - The number of career sacks for Clemson All-American DE Vic Beasley. He leads the nation among all active FBS players in career QB sacks, and, after recording one against Louisville on Oct. 11, he is tied for 10th nationally this year, averaging 0.89 per game. Beasley is tied with Wake Forest's Calvin Pace for 8th place on the all-time ACC sack list.

49 - The number of pass receiving yards needed by Pitt sophomore Tyler Boyd to reach the 1,000-yard mark in pass receiving for the second straight year.

55 - The number of victories to which Florida State head coach Jimbo Fisher has led the Seminoles now in his fifth season as head coach in Tallahassee. His winning percentage of .846 is the best of any ACC coach with three or more seasons.

101st - Thursday night's gridiron meeting between Duke and North Carolina is actually the 101st between the two long-time rivals. The conference series record does not include an 1889 disputed contest that both schools claim.

101.1 - The per-game rushing average for Boston College QB Tyler Murphy. Murphy needs just 56 yards to shatter the ACC single-season mark of rushing yardage for a quarterback (1,061 yards) set in 2001 by Clemson's Woodrow Dantzler. Murphy leads all quarterbacks in the FBS in total rushing yards with 1,011.

125.8 - The average number of rushing yards for Georgia Tech senior Synjyn Days since stepping in for injured B-Back Zach Laskey for the Yellow Jackets. Days has recorded three 100-yard rushing games, and has led Tech in rushing in all four games.

155.2 - The pass efficiency rating for Miami true freshman QB Brad Kaaya. He leads the ACC in pass efficiency and ranks 12th nationally. Among freshmen, only Ohio State's J.T. Barrett has a higher ranking.

161.22 - The pass efficiency rating for Georgia Tech sophomore QB Justin Thomas. Thomas would lead the ACC and would rank seventh nationally if he had enough attempts to qualify.

164.0 - Since returning to action from a preseason injury, Louisville WR DeVante Parker has record three straight 100+ yard receiving games and is averaging 164 yards per game while also averaging 8.3 catches per game.

220 - The number of rushing yards for Pitt RB James Conner in the Panthers' 40-35 loss to North Carolina. The game marked the fourth time in his last 11 contests that Conner has rushed for 200 or more yards.

262 - The number of career receptions for Duke senior WR Jamison Crowder. Crowder is in second place on the ACC career receptions list and now trails only former Duke standout Conner Vernon (283, 2009-12).

312.5 - The total offense average for North Carolina junior QB Marquise Williams. Williams leads UNC both in passing yards (2,502) and in rushing yards (623).

3,507 - The number of career pass receiving yards for Florida State senior WR Rashad Greene. With 53 yards against Miami, Greene, who is in third place on the ACC career list, is now just 10 yards behind second-place Peter Warrick for the Florida State school record. Greene is also in third place on the ACC career reception list, and now has caught 246 passes.

Noting ACC Football

DUKE'S TOMLINSON BECOMES 5TH FROM ACC TO BE NOMINATED FOR THE ORANGE BOWL-FWAA COURAGE AWARD

Becomes Fourth ACC Nominee for 2014

DALLAS (FWAA) – Duke's offensive guard Laken Tomlinson is the eighth weekly nominee for the 2014 Orange Bowl-FWAA Courage Award. Tomlinson, a 6-foot-3, 330-pound senior from Chicago (Lane Tech), is considered one of the top interior offensive linemen in college football and an Outland Trophy

Candidate. He spearheads an offensive line that has helped Duke to a 7-1 record and a Top 25 ranking. But just making a college roster and winding up in Durham was a challenge. Duke's current football captain offers a slightly different version of the "The Blind Side," the famous story of Michael Oher, who came from a broken family in Memphis, lived in numerous foster homes, and eventually became a star offensive tackle at Ole Miss and then on to the NFL. Tomlinson grew up in Jamaica and came to this country when he was 10. He gained about 80 pounds and grew seven inches within his first year in the United States and could have passed for a person much older. Eventually, because of his intelligence, Tomlinson wound up in a mentoring program and, despite early concerns of his mother, lived with the family of Bob Sperling, a Chicago-based attorney. When Tomlinson first was introduced to football because his sister believed his size offered him the opportunity, he thought they were referring to soccer. His abilities grew on the football field and he eventually was recruited by the Big Ten Schools. But Duke and Coach David Cutcliffe, caught his eye. Tomlinson wanted to be a doctor and someday may fulfill that goal. Tomlinson becomes the fifth ACC player to be nominated for the award this year. The 2014 nominees are:

CLEMSON'S BEASLEY, DUKE'S HELTON NAMED SEMIFINALISTS FOR LOTT IMPACT TROPHY

ACC Duo Are Two of Nine Semifinalists

Clemson defensive end Vic Beasley and Duke linebacker David Helton has been named as two of nine semifinalists for the 2014 Lott IMPACT Trophy. The announcement was made by the Pacific Club IMPACT Foundation on Nov. 12.

The student-athletes represent the qualities embodied by the award – Integrity, Maturity, Performance, Academics, Community and Tenacity.

The nine semifinalists include Beasley, Helton, Landon Collins of Alabama, Ifo Ekpere-Olomu of Oregon, Eric Kendricks of UCLA, Hau'oli Kikaha of Washington, Jordan Richards of Stanford, Deterrian Shackelford of Mississippi and Leonard Williams of Southern California.

Beasley has eight sacks and, 12.5 tackles for loss and 22 total tackles to help lead a Clemson defense that ranks second in the nation in total defense. The Tigers also lead the nation in fewest yards per play allowed (3.97), tackles for loss per game (10.2) and third down defense (.232)

Helton has led the ACC in tackles per game throughout the past two seasons. He averaged 9.5 hits per game in 2013 and this season is averaging 10.4 tackles per game through nine games. He leads a Duke defense which is second in the ACC in scoring defense and 11th nationally allowing just 18.2 points per game. He was recently honored by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame as one its 2014 Scholar-Athletes.

Ballots to select the winner (and finalists) will be sent to more than 400 national voters, a panel that includes former coaches and players, members of the media, past Lott IMPACT Trophy winners and finalists as well as members of the Board of Directors for the Pacific Club IMPACT Foundation, the sponsors of the award. The four finalists will fly to Newport Beach for a black-tie gala at the Pacific Club on Dec. 14 where the winner will be announced. The Pacific Club IMPACT Foundation will make a $25,000 donation to the general scholarship fund of the winner's university and $5,000 to each of the school's of the runner-ups.

In 10 years, the Foundation has now donated more than $1 million, including nearly $500,000 to universities throughout the country.

2014 ACC FB Game Summaries -- Nov. 15

#3/2/2 Florida State 30, Miami 26

FSU freshman RB Dalvin Cook, a Miami native, scored two touchdowns, including a 26-yarder late in the fourth quarter, to complete a 16-point comeback as the Hurricanes (10-0, 7-0) nailed down the ACC Atlantic Division title and earned a spot in the ACC Football Championship Game at Charlotte for the third consecutive year. The defending national champion Seminoles claimed their 26th consecutive victory and matched Nebraska (1994-96) for the second-longest streak of the last 20 years. Cook's go-ahead touchdown run came with 3:05 remaining in the game, and S Jalen Ramsey's interception with 39 seconds showing on the clock sealed it for FSU. The Hurricanes were down 16-0 and 23-7 in the first half before outscoring the Hurricanes 23-3 the rest of the way. After surrendering 320 yards and 23 points in the first half, the Seminole defense tightened up and allowed 172 yards and three points in the final two quarters. FSU QB Jameis Winston completed 25 of 42 passes for 304 yards and one touchdown. QB Brad Kaaya threw for 316 yards and two touchdowns for Miami. Duke Johnson added 130 rushing yards and a touchdown for the Hurricanes (6-4, 3-3), who were eliminated from the ACC's Coastal Division race. WR Phillip Dorsett and TE Clive Walford caught scoring passes for Miami. Five of FSU's 10 wins this season have come via second-half rallies and three – at NC State, at Louisville and at Miami – saw the Seminoles erase double-digit deficits.

#22/24/23 Georgia Tech 28, #19/18/17 Clemson 6

The Yellow Jackets shut down the visiting Tigers with a stout defense, returning two interceptions for touchdowns and becoming the first team since the 2007 Georgia Tech squad to not allow Clemson to score a touchdown. DB Jamal Golden returned an interception 85 yards for one score, and DB Chris Milton had a 62-yard pickoff return for a TD. Georgia Tech (9-2 overall) completed the ACC portion of its schedule at 6-2 in league play and is assured of at least a share of the Coastal Division title. The Tigers (7-3, 6-2) lost starting QB Deshaun Watson to another injury, this time to his left knee. With Watson making his first start since the Louisville game, the Tigers led 3-0 and threatened to add to their lead before Watson was injured on a first-down rush to the Tech 14 and left the game. Three plays later, QB Cole Stoudt's first pass was intercepted by Golden and returned for a touchdown, giving the Jackets a 6-3 lead. In the second half, Tech intercepted a Stoudt pass early to set up more points, and Milton later took his interception for a TD to blow the game open. Georgia Tech QB Justin Thomas was 8-of-11 for 102 yards, including a 5-yard touchdown pass to WR De'Andre Smelter. PK Harrison Butker added three field goals for the Yellow Jackets.

Virginia Tech 17, #21/19/19 Duke 16

Virginia Tech outscored Duke 17-6 over the final three quarters and held on to defeat the 19th-ranked Blue Devils in a key Coastal Division matchup at Wallace Wade Stadium. The loss ended Duke's eight-game home win streak. After Duke (8-2, 4-2) jumped out to a 10-0 lead with a dominant offensive performance in the first quarter, the Blue Devils struggled to move the ball on the Hokies. Virginia Tech (5-5, 2-4) chipped away and finally overtook the Duke for the lead, and then held off a late charge from the Blue Devils for the win. Ten of Virginia Tech's points were set up by Duke turnovers. Trailing by one point, the Blue Devils gained possession twice in the final three minutes. But Duke PK Ross Martin missed a 40-yard field goal attempt, and then the Hokies stopped Duke on downs with less than a minute to play. Virginia Tech QB Michael Brewer finished 12-of-23 for 138 yards with two touchdowns and an interception. TE Bucky Hodges caught six passes for 57 yards and a score, including the go-ahead touchdown early in the fourth quarter. Duke QB Anthony Boone finished the game 18-of-40 for 181 yards and two interceptions. RB Josh Snead paced the running game with 54 yards on nine carries and Duke's lone touchdown. WR Jamison Crowder moved into second place past Clarkston Hines on the Duke career yards chart with 3,364 yards after catching six passes for 73 yards.

North Carolina 40, Pitt 35

RB T.J. Logan's 1-yard touchdown run with 50 seconds to play capped a game-winning 75-yard drive for North Carolina (5-5, 3-3), which moved within one game of bowl game eligibility by defeating the visiting Panthers. Pitt (4-6, 2-4) fell short despite RB James Conner's 220-yard, four-touchdown performance. Conner's 22-yard run with 3:33 left in the game gave Pitt a brief 35-34 lead. After UNC went back ahead on Logan's run, Pitt (4-6, 2-4) moved the ball past midfield, but QB Chad Voytik fumbled as he was hit by UNC CB Malik Simmons following a long run, and LB Shakeel Rashad recovered with 15 seconds remaining to seal the win for the Tar Heels. UNC overcame the big day by Conner with one of its own from QB Marquise Williams, who rushed for 122 yards and three touchdowns and threw for 276 yards and another score. Williams completed a school-record 16 consecutive passes at one stretch and extended his school record for rushing touchdowns by a quarterback to 19. Following back-to-back 200-yard games, Pitt's Conner is now the most prolific sophomore rusher in both ACC and Pitt history. Through 10 games, Conner has amassed 1,562 yards, surpassing LeSean McCoy's Pitt sophomore mark of 1,488 set in 2008. Conner tied the ACC single-season touchdown record with four scores, giving him 21 on the year.

NC State 42, Wake Forest 13

The Wolfpack (6-5, 2-5) earned bowl eligibility in its second year under head coach Dave Doeren with Saturday's victory over the visiting Demon Deacons (2-8, 0-6). N.C. State rushed for 362 yards in the win, its highest total since 1990. RB Matt Dayes totaled 113 yards from scrimmage, including 66 rushing, and scored three touchdowns for the Wolfpack, while RB Shadrach Thornton rushed for 110 yards and another score. WR Bryan Underwood contributed a big chunk to the Wolfpack's rushing total when he scored on a 75-yard run off a reverse play at the opening of the second half. Seven players carried the ball for N.C. State, and each of them averaged at least six yards per rush. RB Tony Creecy added a 2-yard touchdown run for the Wolfpack. PK Niklas Sade made all six of his extra-point attempts for NC State, passing former All-America RB Ted Brown (1975-78) to become the school's career leader in points scored. RB Isaiah Robinson scored Wake Forest's lone touchdown on a 4-yard run with just under nine minutes left in the game, and PK Mike Weaver kicked a pair of field goals for the Demon Deacons.

ACC Players of the Week

Four from Florida State recognized following come-from-behind win at Miami

A quartet of Florida State student-athletes are among the eight honored as Atlantic Coast Conference Football Players of the Week following their performances on Saturday.

In his first career start at center, the Seminoles' Cameron Erving was recognized as the ACC Offensive Lineman of the Week following FSU's 30-26 win at Miami that clinched the outright Atlantic Division title for the unbeaten Seminoles, who will be making their third straight appearance in the Dr Pepper ACC Football Championship Game.

Erving was joined by FSU safety Jalen Ramsey (Defensive Back of the Week), place-kicker Roberto Aguayo (Specialist of the Week) and running back Dalvin Cook (Rookie of the Week).

Georgia Tech's DeAndre Smelter received ACC Receiver of the Week honors, and the Yellow Jackets' P.J. Davis was tabbed as Linebacker of the Week following Saturday's 28-6 win over 19th-ranked Clemson that clinched at least a share of the Coastal Division title.

North Carolina quarterback Marquise Williams was named the ACC Offensive Back of the Week for the third time this season after leading the Tar Heels' 40-35 win over Pitt.

Virginia Tech's Dadi Nicolas was recognized as the Defensive Lineman of the Week for the second time this year following his contributions to the Hokies' 17-16 road victory at No. 21 Duke.

The player of the week honors are also the second of the season for Florida State's Erving, Aguayo and Cook, as well as Georgia Tech's Davis.

OFFENSIVE BACK – Marquise Williams, North Carolina, Jr., QB, 6-2, 220, Charlotte, N.C.

Williams accounted for four touchdowns in UNC's 40-35 victory over Pitt, completing 23 of 40 attempts for 276 yards and one touchdown and rushing 19 times for 122 yards and three scores. Williams completed a school-record 16 consecutive passes during one stretch. Williams scored on runs of 23, 2 yards and 45 yards. He extended his UNC career record for rushing touchdowns by a quarterback to 19, including a team-best 10 this season. Williams' 628 yards rushing this season are also a UNC record for a quarterback.

OFFENSIVE LINEMAN – Cameron Erving, Florida State, Sr.-r, C, 6-5, 308, Moutrie, Ga.

Erving was impressive in his first career start at center, leading Florida State to a 30-26 victory over Miami on Saturday. Erving had started 37 consecutive games at left tackle, but moved to center to face the Hurricanes. He did not allow a sack and had the highest grade on the offensive line as FSU outscored Miami 20-3 after halftime and rolled up 244 yards of total offense in the second half. Quarterback Jameis Winston didn't skip a beat with Erving at center, throwing for 304 yards, while Erving helped open holes for true freshman running back Dalvin Cook to rush for 92 yards and two touchdowns on just seven carries.

RECEIVER – DeAndre Smelter, Georgia Tech, Sr., WR, 6-3, 225, Macon, Ga.

Smelter led all receivers with five catches for 77 yards and a touchdown in No. 22 Georgia Tech's 28-6 win over No. 19 Clemson. Smelter's 5-yard TD reception in the third quarter was Tech's first offensive score of the game. In the fourth quarter, Smelter's 18-yard catch on Tech's first drive made him the 21st 1,000-yard receiver in school history.

DEFENSIVE LINEMAN – Dadi Nicolas, Virginia Tech, Jr.-r, DE, 6-3, 234, Delray Beach, Fla.

Nicolas had a career-high eight tackles, including three tackles for loss and two sacks, to go along with five quarterback hurries as the Virginia Tech defense shut down Duke late in pulling off the 17-16 upset over the No. 21 Blue Devils in Saturday's ACC road game.

LINEBACKER – P.J. Davis, Georgia Tech, So., LB, 5-11, 218, Cairo, Ga.

Davis led the Yellow Jackets' defense with 13 tackles as No. 22 Georgia Tech knocked off No. 19 Clemson, 28-6. Davis' 13 tackles are the second double-digit tackles game of the season and one shy of a career high (14 at Pitt). He added one tackle for a loss of seven yards and 0.5 sack for loss of five yards. Clemson's six points were the fewest by a Top 25 team vs. Georgia Tech since 2007, when No. 13 Clemson scored three in a 13-3 loss. Davis leads all Tech defenders with 90 tackles.

DEFENSIVE BACK – Jalen Ramsey, Florida State, So., S, 6-1, 204, Smyrna, Tenn.

Ramsey's all-around defensive performance keyed the Seminoles' 30-26 win at Miami. Ramsey forced a fumble on Miami's first offensive play and had the game-ending interception on the Hurricanes' final play. In between, Ramsey broke up four passes, had three tackles, including a tackle for loss and blocked an extra point that loomed large in a game the Seminoles won by four points. Ramsey was also named the Athlon Sports National Defensive Player of the Week on Sunday.

SPECIALIST – Roberto Aguayo, Florida State, So.-r, PK, 6-1, 203, Mascotte, Fla.

In a game in which the Seminoles never led until the final minutes, Aguayo's perfect performance on field goals and extra points in Saturday night's 30-26 win at Miami proved essential. Aguayo hit a 37-yarder to bring the Noles within 23-20 at the start of the fourth quarter and tied his career long with a 53-yarder to again cut the deficit to three points – 26-23 – with 7:12 remaining. Aguayo leads the ACC scoring by kicking and is tied for second among kickers nationally (10.1 ppg).

ROOKIE – Dalvin Cook, Florida State, Fr., RB, 6-0, 200, Miami, Fla.

Cook made a triumphant return to his hometown, leading FSU to a come-from-behind 30-26 victory at Miami on Saturday night. With the Seminoles down 16-0, Cook scored on a 44-yard touchdown run to put the Seminoles on the board in the second quarter. Cook's 26-yard touchdown run with 3:05 left in the game erased a three-point deficit and served as the game-winner. He finished with 92 yards and two scores on just seven carries and added two receptions for 18 yards.

The ACC & ESPN Thursday Night

The ACC & ESPN Thursday Night: A Great College and ACC Tradition

When Duke hosts North Carolina this Thursday night (7:30 p.m.) at Wallace Wade Stadium in Durham, N.C. in a Coastal Division battle, the game will be the 93rd contest involving an ACC team on ESPN on Thursday night. It will also mark the first time Duke has hosted an ESPN Thursday night contest in 20 years. The Blue Devils were last on the ESPN Thursday package in 1996, dropping a 49-22 decision to Georgia Tech. But the last time Duke hosted a Thursday night game was on Sept. 15, 1994, when the Blue Devils, coached by Fred Goldsmith, downed Army, 43-7. Those are the only two appearances for the Blue Devils on the nationally-televised Thursday night package while the Tar Heels will be making their 13th appearance.

UNC is 6-6 overall on Thursday nights on ESPN but nine of those games have occurred on the road as the North Carolina has posted a 5-4 record.

Virginia Tech has won more games (20) on ESPN Thursday Night than any other ACC team. The Hokies of Frank Beamer have already made two appearances this year on the package, losing at Pitt on Oct. 16 (21-16) and dropping a 30-6 decision on Oct. 23 at home to Miami. Still, the Hokies are 20-9 overall and 9-4 in away games on ESPN Thursday night.

Georgia Tech has hosted more Thursday night games than any other ACC school, a total of 19. The Yellow Jackets actually began the Conference's Thursday night tradition, which, more often than not, has featured high drama. Tech hosted Virginia on Sept. 19, 1991, at Bobby Dodd Stadium in Atlanta, utilizing a 34-yard field goal by Scott Sisson on the game's final play to record a 24-21 victory. The Yellow Jackets are 11-15 overall.

Miami has the highest winning percentage (.857) of any ACC team on ESPN Thursdays, having posted an 18-3 mark, including a 7-2 record on the road. The Hurricanes have been better at home, with an 11-1 record in the Old Orange Bowl (8-0) and at Sun Life Stadium (3-1). The only UM loss at home came in 2011, when Virginia snapped the Canes' 10-game home win streak with a 28-21 verdict.

In all, after this week's game, ACC teams will have made 163 appearances on ESPN's Thursday night package.

After the Hokies and Yellow Jackets, Miami leads in total appearances with 21, followed by Pitt (20), NC State (19), Louisville (19), Florida State (14), Boston College (12), Virginia (12), Clemson (12) and North Carolina (12).

When Maryland was a member of the ACC, the Terrapins played in 13 Thursday ESPN games, 10 of them at home.

There have been many great moments in the series, including the 2007 game when 2nd-ranked Boston College rallied to beat 8th-ranked Virginia Tech, 14-10, behind a pair of touchdown passes from QB Matt Ryan in the game's final two minutes and 11 seconds. That game still stands as the only ESPN Thursday night meeting of ACC opponents that were both ranked in the Top Ten nationally.

The 2009 season featured a pair of thrillers both involving North Carolina. The Tar Heels and Seminoles were involved in an offensive gut-wrencher, as FSU overcame a 24-6 third quarter deficit to capture a 30-27 triumph. A week later, UNC turned the tables, upsetting 14th-ranked Virginia Tech, 20-17, on the game's final play, a 22-yard field goal by UNC placekicker Casey Barth.

The 2010 match-up between Georgia Tech and Virginia Tech was also a classic; a see-saw battle which featured a dramatic 90-yard kickoff return for a touchdown by the Hokies' David Wilson with 2:23 remaining as the deciding play. Perhaps the most memorable Thursday night moment and biggest upset on the Thursday night ESPN package was 24th-ranked Virginia's dramatic upset of 2nd-ranked Florida State in 1995. That game snapped the Seminoles' 29-game Conference winning streak, which began when FSU joined the ACC in 1992. Miami still has claim to the highest-rated game on Thursday night, when it met 10th-ranked Houston in an early season showdown in 1991. The Hurricanes and Cougars drew a 6.5 national rating as Miami took a lopsided 40-10 triumph.

The highest-rated Thursday ESPN battle between two ACC teams was the 1995 Virginia-Florida State telecast, which resulted in a 6.1 rating. New ACC member Louisville recorded a pair of strong ratings while a member of the Big East in 2006, a 5.33 in downing West Virginia and a 5.03 in losing to Rutgers.

This week's game is the last of five ACC Thursday ESPN contests this year. Virginia Tech lost, 21-16, at Pitt on Oct. 16 and at home to Miami on Oct. 23, 30-6. Second-ranked Florida State came from 21 points down in the first half to calm a dramatic, 42-31 triumph against Louisville in Papa John's Cardinals Stadium in Louisville on Oct. 30; and Wake Forest dropped as 34-20 decision to 19th-ranked Clemson on Nov. 6.

The ACC and ESPNU on Thursday Night

Two ACC games have been televised by ESPNU on Thursday night. Wake Forest hosted Vanderbilt in 2005 and Clemson and Temple met in Charlotte in 2006 and new member Louisville appeared on ESPNU as a member of the Big East in 2011.

Golden Continues

Building Miami's Program

The overall coaching record for UM Head

Coach Al Golden is now at 55-53. Golden, though, has had to undertake rebuilding projects in both of his first two head positions at Temple and now at Miami. If you look at his record after his third year at each school, it becomes much more impressive. Golden was a combined 22-16 in his final three seasons at Temple. in 2013 at Miami, just his third season in Coral Gables, he finished 9-4 and is 6-4 this year. That is an overall 37-23 mark after his first two seasons at each school, an impressive .627 winning percentage.

Noting the ACC--The Coaches

FSU's Fisher Joining Select Company

After just four seasons as head coach at Florida State, Jimbo Fisher joined some select company among ACC football coaches. Fisher compiled a 45-10 record (.818) during that time. His winning percentage put him in 2nd place among all ACC head coaches after four seasons, ahead of such prominent figures as NC State's Lou Holtz, Clemson's Danny Ford, Maryland's Ralph Friedgen and Georgia Tech's Bobby Ross. The best mark recorded by an ACC head coach in his first four years in the league was by Fisher's predecessor at FSU, Bobby Bowden, who posted a 43-5-1 record (.888). Virginia Tech's Frank Beamer has the 3rd-best record at 42-11-0 (.792).

Clemson's Swinney, Georgia Tech's Johnson In Good Company As ACC Head Coaches

After their first six seasons at Clemson and Georgia Tech, head coaches Dabo Swinney and Paul Johnson have recorded excellent numbers. Only five other coaches in league history have had a better winning percentage after six seasons than Swinney (.689) and only three have won more games. Only seven other coaches in league history have won more games (47) than has Johnson after his first six seasons in the league and he ranks 14th in winning percentage.

Home Sweet Home for Noles' Fisher, Tigers' Swinney

Florida State head coach Jimbo Fisher and Clemson head coach Dabo Swinney have both enjoyed coaching in the cozy and imposing confines of the Seminoles' Doak Campbell Stadium and the Tigers' Memorial Stadium, also known as Death Valley. Now, in his fifth season as head coach of the Seminoles, Fisher's teams have won 17 of 19 ACC games at home, a winning percentage of .895, the best by any ACC coach with a minimum of four years on the job. Swinney, whose teams have won 23 of the first 26 home ACC games, a winning percentage of .885, which is third-best among ACC coaches trails only former Tiger coach Ken Hatfield, who posted a 12-1-1 mark in four seasons (.893) and Fisher. They are both just ahead of legendary FSU coach Bobby Bowden, who also won more ACC home games than any other coach, with 62 triumphs in his 18 years in the league.

Program Builder Clawson Begins New Era at Wake Forest

Wake Forest new head coach Dave Clawson is in his first year as the Demon Deacons' head coach, but he is no rookie leading a program. Clawson, now in his 15th season as a head coach, has already re-built three football programs. He ranks fourth in years of experience among head coaches in the ACC, behind only Frank Beamer (34) and Paul Johnson (18). His overall, 92-84-1 (.523) record is more impressive when you take into account that he had to rebuild programs at Fordham, Richmond and Bowling Green, where his combined mark in his final three seasons (nine years total) at each stop was 75-37, a .670 winning percentage.

Duke Experiencing Success Under National and ACC Coach of the Year David Cutcliffe

David Cutcliffe, the ACC's 2012 and 2013 Coach of the Year, has led the Blue Devils to 39 victories since coming to Durham in 2008. That may not sound like a great record, except when you consider that it is more wins than the Blue Devils totalled in the 15 seasons before Cutcliffe came to Durham.

■ Duke's 2014 team is 8-2, and will be going to its third straight bowl game for the first time in school history. The Blue Devils have won 16 of their last 20 games.

■ Duke's 2013 team had 10 wins, the most in school history. Duke was Coastal Division champions for the first time since the ACC went to Divisional play in 2005 and the Blue Devils went to back-to-back bowl games for the first time in school history, dropping a last-second contest (52-48) to Texas A&M in the Chick-fil-A Bowl.

■ Duke made its first appearance in the BCS Standings on Nov. 25, 2013, getting ranked 24th. They also appeared in the inaugural College Football Playoff Committee Rankings on Oct. 28 at No. 24.

■ In the five-plus years that Cutcliffe has been in Durham, he has mentored a pair of quarterbacks who finished their careers ranked in the ACC's top seven of career passing yardage. Thaddeus Lewis (2006-09) threw for 10,065 yards, the second-highest total in league history and Sean Renfree (2009-12), threw for 9,465 career yards, the 7th-best total by an ACC player.

■ Also, under his guidance, the Blue Devils have produced three of the top nine career receivers in league history in record holder Conner Vernon (283), 2nd-place Jamison Crowder (249) and ninth-place Donovan Varner (207).

■ Cutcliffe was honored in 2013 by being named National Coach of the Year by five different outlets--the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA), The Maxwell Football Club, The Bobby Dodd Foundation, the Walter Camp Foundation and The Sporting News (Co-Coach of the Year).

Under Steve Addazio Boston College Becomes One of the Top Five Most Improved Teams

Under head coach Steve Addazio, Boston College in 2013 became on the nation's most improved football teams. Inheriting a program which had posted a 6-18 record over the past two seasons, including a 2-10 mark in 2012, Addazio led the Eagles to a 7-6 record and into the Independence Bowl in his first season on The Heights.

Addazio's physical style of football and a veteran offensive line allowed TB Andre Williams to set ACC single-game, multi game and single-season rushing records and to win the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back. Williams became the first running back in ACC history to top 2,000 rushing yards in a season (2,177).

The four-and-a-half win improvement from 2012 was the fifth-best turnaround in the FBS last year, bettered only by Auburn (8), Missouri (6) and Michigan State and UNLV (5 each).

UNC Has An Offensive and Special Teams Mindset Under Larry Fedora

fast-paced offense had his team scoring at a school-record pace in his first year in Chapel Hill. UNC ranked 8th nationally in scoring offense in 2012, averaging 40.6 points a game while also ranked 14th nationally in total offense,

■ Now in his third season as head coach at UNC, North Carolina has topped the 40-point mark 14 times and bettered 30 points 23 times. His Tar Heel teams have averaged 36.3 points per game. In the previous 13 seasons before Fedora came to Chapel Hill, UNC had averaged just 23.3 points per game, a 14-point difference.

■ Also, in his first two-plus seasons, UNC has averaged 446 yards per game of total offense. That compares with the previous 13 seasons when the Tar Heels averaged just 349.25 yards per game of offense.

■ Fedora's first two Tar Heel teams both bettered the previous school mark for scoring. UNC scored a school-record 487 points in 2012 and tallied 425 points in 2013. Previously, the school had only topped 400 points once (1993) in its history when it scored 421 points.

■ Fedora's 2013 team set a school record for most touchdowns by returns with eight, including five by punt return, two by kickoff return and one interception runback.

■ Now in his third season in Chapel Hill, Fedora's teams have had 15 returns for touchdowns including eight by punt return and three by kickoff return.

■ In 2012 and 2013 UNC returned 65 punts, averaging 16.0 per return. As a freshman in 2013, Ryan Switzer tied an NCAA FBS single-season record and set an ACC standard when he returned five punts for scores last year.

■ Now in his third season at Chapel Hill, UNC has scored 60 or more points three times, including an 80-point outburst against Old Dominion.

■ By posting records of 8-4 and 7-6 in his two years in Chapel Hill, he becomes the first UNC coach since Ray Wolf in 1936-37 to post winning records in each of his first two seasons.

Florida State Has Nation's Longest Current Win Streak

Florida State has the nation's longest current winning streak of 26 games which began in the 2012 ACC Championship. This streak is the longest in ACC history surpassing FSU's previous mark of 17 set during the 1999-2000 seasons and ties the 17th-longest win streak nationally. With a win over Boston College this week, FSU would have the 17th longest streak in NCAA history.

Current ACC members Miami and Pitt both had longer winning streaks before they joined the Conference. Miami, in fact, had two separate, longer streaks. The Canes won 34 straight games from 2000-03, which ties for the sixth-longest winning streak. Miami also won 29 straight games from 1990 through 1993, which ties for the 12th-longest winning streak.

Pitt won 31 games from 1914 through 1918, which ties for the nation's 8th-longest winning streak.

Eagle QB on Pace to Break ACC Rushing Mark for Quarterbacks

Boston College QB Tyler Murphy (Wethersfield, Conn.) is enjoying a successful season as the signal-caller for the Eagles. After rushing for 41 yards on 12 carries against Louisville, the graduate student has now accumulated 1,011 yards in just ten games, a per-game average of 101.1 yards per contest. He is just 51 yards away from the ACC single-season record set by Clemson's Woodrow Dantzler, having rushed for 1,061 yards in 2001 (81.6 avg.). Murphy has already topped the 100-yard mark in rushing yardage three times in a game this season, including a 191-yard effort against 9th-ranked Southern California that was the second-highest single-game effort by the quarterback in ACC history.

ACC 2014 Football Championship Game Legends Class

Legendary Virginia Coach George Welsh; National Football Foundation College Hall of Famers Derrick Brooks, Hugh Green and Art Monk Headline 2014 Class

Led by three members of the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame, two members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame and one of the most successful coaches in Atlantic Coast Conference history, the ACC announced the 2014 Class of Legends for its 10th Annual Dr Pepper Football Championship Game, which will be played in Charlotte, N.C. on December 6. Leading this year's class are former Virginia and Navy head coach George Welsh (Coaldale Pa.), Florida State's two-time consensus All-American linebacker Derrick Brooks (Pensacola, Fla.), four-time Pitt All-American defensive end Hugh Green (Natchez, Miss.), and Syracuse All-American wide receiver Art Monk (White Plains, N.Y.).

Welsh finished his coaching career as the winningest coach in league history, compiling a 189-132-4 record which included reclamation projects at the U.S. Naval Academy and at Virginia. In his near two-decade stint in Charlottesville, Welsh, a 2004 inductee into the College Hall of Fame, built the Cavaliers into one of the nation's premier football programs, winning seven or more games for 13 consecutive seasons. Brooks, a 2014 inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, is considered one of the greatest players in college and professional football history. The 1993 ACC Defensive Player of the Year, he was named to the NFL's Pro Bowl an astounding 11 times and led FSU to a national championship and Tampa Bay to the NFL title. Green, a 1996 inductee into the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame, is also considered by many to be one of the greatest collegiate players in history. He was a three-time consensus All-American and earned All-America honors in all four of his collegiate seasons for the Panthers. Monk is one of the few players to earn selection to both the College Football Hall of Fame (2012) and the Pro Football Hall of Fame (2008). He ended his 15-year professional career as the first wide receiver in NFL history to top 900 receptions, finishing with 940 career catches.

The group of 14 former gridiron standouts from current ACC schools includes a former ACC Football Player of the Year, an ACC Defensive Player of the Year, 12 former All-Americans, including 10 first-team and six consensus All-American honorees, and 12 players who combined for 118 years in the National Football League.

Joining Welsh, Brooks, Green and Monk are Boston College offensive lineman Chris Snee (Montrose, Pa.), who earned second-team All-America honors (AP) as a senior at guard; Clemson cornerback Donnell Woolford (Fayetteville, N.C.), a consensus All-America and key defensive figure for the Danny Ford-coached Tiger teams in the late 1980s; Duke wide receiver Chris Castor (Cary, N.C.), the first wide receiver to earn Player of the Year honors in ACC history; Georgia Tech offensive lineman John Davis (Ellijay, Ga.), who earned first-team All-America honors as a tackle and as a center for the Yellow Jackets; and Louisville cornerback Frank Minnifield (Lexington, Ky.), who led the nation in kickoff returns and was an excellent cover cornerback for the Cardinals.

Completing the ACC Football Legends Class of 2014 are Miami's Darrin Smith (Miami, Fla.), one of one-third of the famed Hurricane linebacker trio dubbed the "Bermuda Triangle" that helped lead "the U" to a pair of national championships in 1989 and 1991; North Carolina defensive end Greg Ellis (Wendell, N.C.), a two-time All-American who earned consensus All-America honors in 1997 playing for the Mack Brown-coached Tar Heel teams of the mid-1990s; NC State safety Jesse Campbell (Vanceboro, N.C.), a three-time All-ACC and two-time All-America defensive back for Coach Dick Sheridan's teams of the 1980s and 90s; Virginia Tech center Jake Grove (Forest, Va.), a unanimous first-team All-America in 2003 who was the winner of the Rimington Trophy, given annually to the nation's top pivotman; and Wake Forest running back Alan White (Elm City, N.C.), the runner-up for 1961 ACC Player of the Year who led the conference in rushing that year and went on to an award-winning career in athletic administration as director of athletics at Elon University.

ACC Divisional Tiebreaker

If more than one team in the same division is tied for the best winning percentage in its Conference games, the procedures listed below will be followed to determine the division's representative in the ACC Championship Game:

Two-Team Tie:

1. Head-to-head competition between the two tied teams.
2. Win percentage of the tied teams within the division.
3. Head-to-head competition versus the team within the division with the best overall win percentage. (Divisional and non-divisional) and proceeding through the division. Multiple ties within the division will be broken from first-to-last using the league's tiebreaking procedures.
4. Overall win percentage versus all common non-divisional opponents.
5. Combined win percentage vs. all non-divisional opponents.
6. Win percentage versus common non-divisional opponents based on their order of finish (overall conference win percentage) and proceeding through other common non-divisional teams based upon their divisional order of finish.
7. The tied team with the higher ranking by the College Football Playoff Selection Committee following the conclusion of regular season games. (If both tied teams are not ranked in the ranking by the College Football Playoff Selection Committee, the higher ranked team in the Amway Coaches Poll (including others receiving votes).
8. The representative shall be chosen by a draw. (as administered by the Commissioner or the Commissioner's designee.)

Three-Team (or More) Team Tie

(Once a team is eliminated from the tie, the tie-breaker procedures restart for the remaining teams. If the three (or more) team tie can be reduced to two teams, the two-team tiebreaker format will then be applied.)

1. Combined head-to-head win percentage among the tied teams.
2. Win percentage of the tied teams within the division.
3. Head-to-head competition versus the team within the division with the best overall (divisional and non-divisional) Conference win percentage, and proceeding through the division. Multiple ties within the division will be broken first to last, using the league's tie-breaker policies.
4. Combined win percentage versus all common non-divisional opponents.
5. Overall win percentage versus non-divisional opponents.
6. Win percentage versus common non-divisional opponents based upon their order of finish (overall win percentage) and proceeding through other common non-divisional opponents based upon their divisional order of finish.
7. The tied team with the highest ranking by the College Football Playoff Selection Committee following the conclusion of regular season games, unless the second of the tied teams is ranked within five or fewer places of the highest ranked tied team. In this case, the two-team tiebreaker procedure shall be applied between the top two ranked tied teams. If none of the tied teams are ranked in the rankings of the College Football Playoff Committee, the higher ranked team in the officially released Amway Coaches poll (including others receiving votes), following the conclusion of regular season games, unless the second of the tied teams is within five or fewer places of the highest ranked team. (For the sake of clarity, the team receiving the second-most votes but not ranked in the Top 25 would be ranked 27th.) In this case the two-team tiebreaker procedure shall be applied between the top ranked tied teams.
8. The representative shall be chosen by a draw as administered by the Commissioner or the Commissioner's designee.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

Beginning with the 2014-15 season, college football enters a new era when a postseason playoff will begin. The format includes the top four teams, two semifinals played in bowl games, and a national championship game played in a different city each year. Each semifinal will be played during the New Year's holiday with the national championship game in prime time on a Monday night at least a week later.

A selection committee will choose the four teams for the playoff based on their performance during the regular season, including, strength of schedule, head-to-head results, championships won, and other factors. The teams will be seeded so that #1 will play #4 in one semifinal and #2 will meet #3 in the other, with the winners advancing to the national championship game. The selection committee will announce its rankings each week on Tuesdays beginning on Oct. 28. The final rankings, though, will be announced on Sunday, Dec. 7.

The semifinals will rotate among six different bowls: the Chick-fil-A Peach, Cotton, Fiesta and Capital One Orange Bowls; the Rose Bowl presented by Northwestern Mutual and the Sugar Bowl. In the years when the bowls are not hosting semifinals, the bowls will feature eight other teams in four compelling matchups.

ACC Bowl Quick Selection Order

(The ACC is in the first year of six-year contracts with its current bowl partners. The current College Football Playoff format is a 12-year agreement)

College Football Playoff (four teams)

If the ACC Champion is not in one of the semifinal games it will appear in the Capital One Orange Bowl, or, if the Capital One Orange Bowl is a semifinal or national championship site, one of the Playoff "host" bowls, either the Fiesta of Chick-fil-A Peach. There is no limit on how many teams the College Football Playoff may choose from a particular conference.

Capital One Orange

Opponent will be a team from the SEC, Big Ten or Notre Dame. If ACC Champion is in the College Football Playoff, a second ACC team will take its place in the Orange Bowl.

Buffalo Wild Wings Citrus

Only if the ACC opponent in the Orange Bowl, in a non-semifinal year, is a team from the Big Ten, which can occur a maximum of three times in six years.

Russell Athletic

Tier One Bowls

All have equal selection status

Belk /Hyundai Sun/New Era Pinstripe/Franklin American Mortgage Music City or Taxslayer

Tier Two Bowls

Military Bowl Presented by Northrop Grumman
Duck Commander Independence
Quick Lane Bowl

Bitcoin St. Petersburg

After the 2014 and 2016 seasons; all others as conditional selection if not filled by Conference USA or American Athletic.

Birmingham

Conditional all years if not filled by SEC or American Athletic Conference

The One-Win Rule Applies Only to Notre Dame

The ACC's bowl selection will no longer be bound by the rigidity of a "one-win rule" but will have a general list of criteria to emphasize regionality and quality matchups on the field. A one-win rule does apply to Notre Dame's participation in the ACC Bowl structure. Notre Dame is now eligible for ACC Bowl selection beginning with the Capital One Bowl and continuing through the league's bowl selections. However, Notre Dame must be within one win of the ACC available team which has the best overall record, in order to be chosen. In other words, if an ACC team was 9-3, a 7-5 Notre Dame team could not be chosen in its place. Notre Dame would have to be 8-4 to be chosen over a 9-3 league team.

ACC Bowl Expenses And Revenue

The Atlantic Coast Conference shares all bowl revenues. Each school is provided an initial expense allotment. The Conference will share in the cost of unsold tickets for participating bowl institutions. After all bowl expense allotments and ticket reimbursements are subtracted from the total bowl revenue, the remaining revenue is distributed evenly among the ACC schools.
