RETIRED NUMBERS

Six Virginia players have had their uniform numbers retired and those numbers will not be worn again. Those numbers honor the most decorated players in the program's history, including Jim Dombrowski (73), Bill Dudley (35), Gene Edmonds (97), Shawn Moore (12), Joe Palumbo (48) and Frank Quayle (24).

12

Shawn Moore Martinsville, Va.

Shawn Moore (1988-90) quarterbacked UVa to two New Year's Day Bowl appearances and a share of the school's first-ever ACC championship. Virginia's all-time passing and total offense leader set over 30 combined NCAA, conference and school records. He led Virginia to the USF&G Sugar Bowl as well as a No. 1 ranking in the nation (Associated Press) for three consecutive weeks. Moore became the first ACC quarterback to lead the nation in passing efficiency (160.7) in 1990 while completing 144 of 241 passes for 2,262 yards and 21 touchdowns. Moore finished fourth in balloting for the 1990 Heisman Trophy. As a senior he was a first-team All-American and ACC Player of the Year.

Bill Dudley Bluefield, Va.

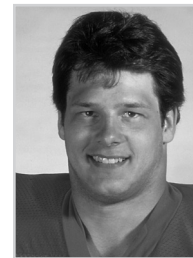

As a 19-year-old senior in 1941, "Bullet" Bill Dudley led Virginia to a sparkling 8-1 record and had a hand in 206 of the 279 points that the Cavaliers scored. A great runner, passer, kicker and defensive player, he led the nation that year in points scored (134) and finished second nationally in total offense (1,824 yards). A member of the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame and the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Dudley became the first Cavalier to have his number retired. He earned All-America honors at halfback in 1941 and finished fifth in the 1941 Heisman balloting. He was selected by the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1942 as the NFL's number-one draft choice.

Jim Dombrowski Williamsville, N.Y.

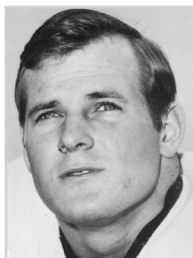

Jim Dombrowski anchored Virginia's offensive line for four straight seasons (1982-85) and finished his career as UVa's first-ever unanimous All-American. The two-time winner of the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the ACC's best blocker, he helped lead UVa to three straight winning seasons and a 27-24 victory over Purdue in the 1984 Peach Bowl. He received All-America honors following Virginia's 6-5 season in 1985. Dombrowski also went on to a successful NFL career. He was selected for induction into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2008.

Frank Quayle Garden City, N.Y.

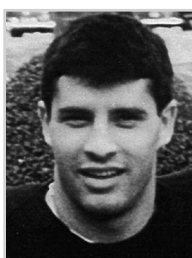

Frank Quayle established himself as Virginia's most versatile performer since the days of "Bullet" Bill Dudley. In addition to his career rushing total of 2,695 yards, the tailback caught 83 passes for 1,145 yards. He was named ACC Player of the Year and the conference's overall Athlete of the Year in 1968 after rushing 175 times for 1,213 yards and catching 30 passes for 426 yards. During his three seasons in the Cavalier backfield (1966-68), Virginia went 16-14, including a 7-3 mark in 1968.

48

Joe Palumbo Beaver, Pa.

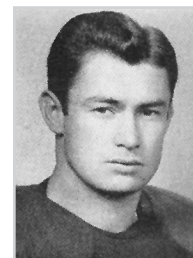

During Joe Palumbo's three varsity seasons (1949-51), Virginia posted a 23-5 mark and recorded seven shutouts. He was a first-team All-America selection that season. He was a three-time All-State selection. In 1951, Palumbo received the Outstanding Defensive Lineman Award from the Touchdown Club of Washington, D.C., was named the state of Virginia's Athlete of the Year, and participated in the Blue-Gray All-Star Game. Palumbo was inducted into the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame in August of 1999.

Gene Edmonds Hampton, Va.

Gene Edmonds was a halfback on winning Cavalier teams in 1948 and 1949. He was killed in a tragic automobile accident near Scott Stadium on Nov. 20, 1949, hours after scoring Virginia's second touchdown in a 28-14 loss to Tulane. Edmonds' jersey number (97) was retired as a memorial by Cavalier head coach Art Guepe and UVa Athletic Director Norton Pritchett.

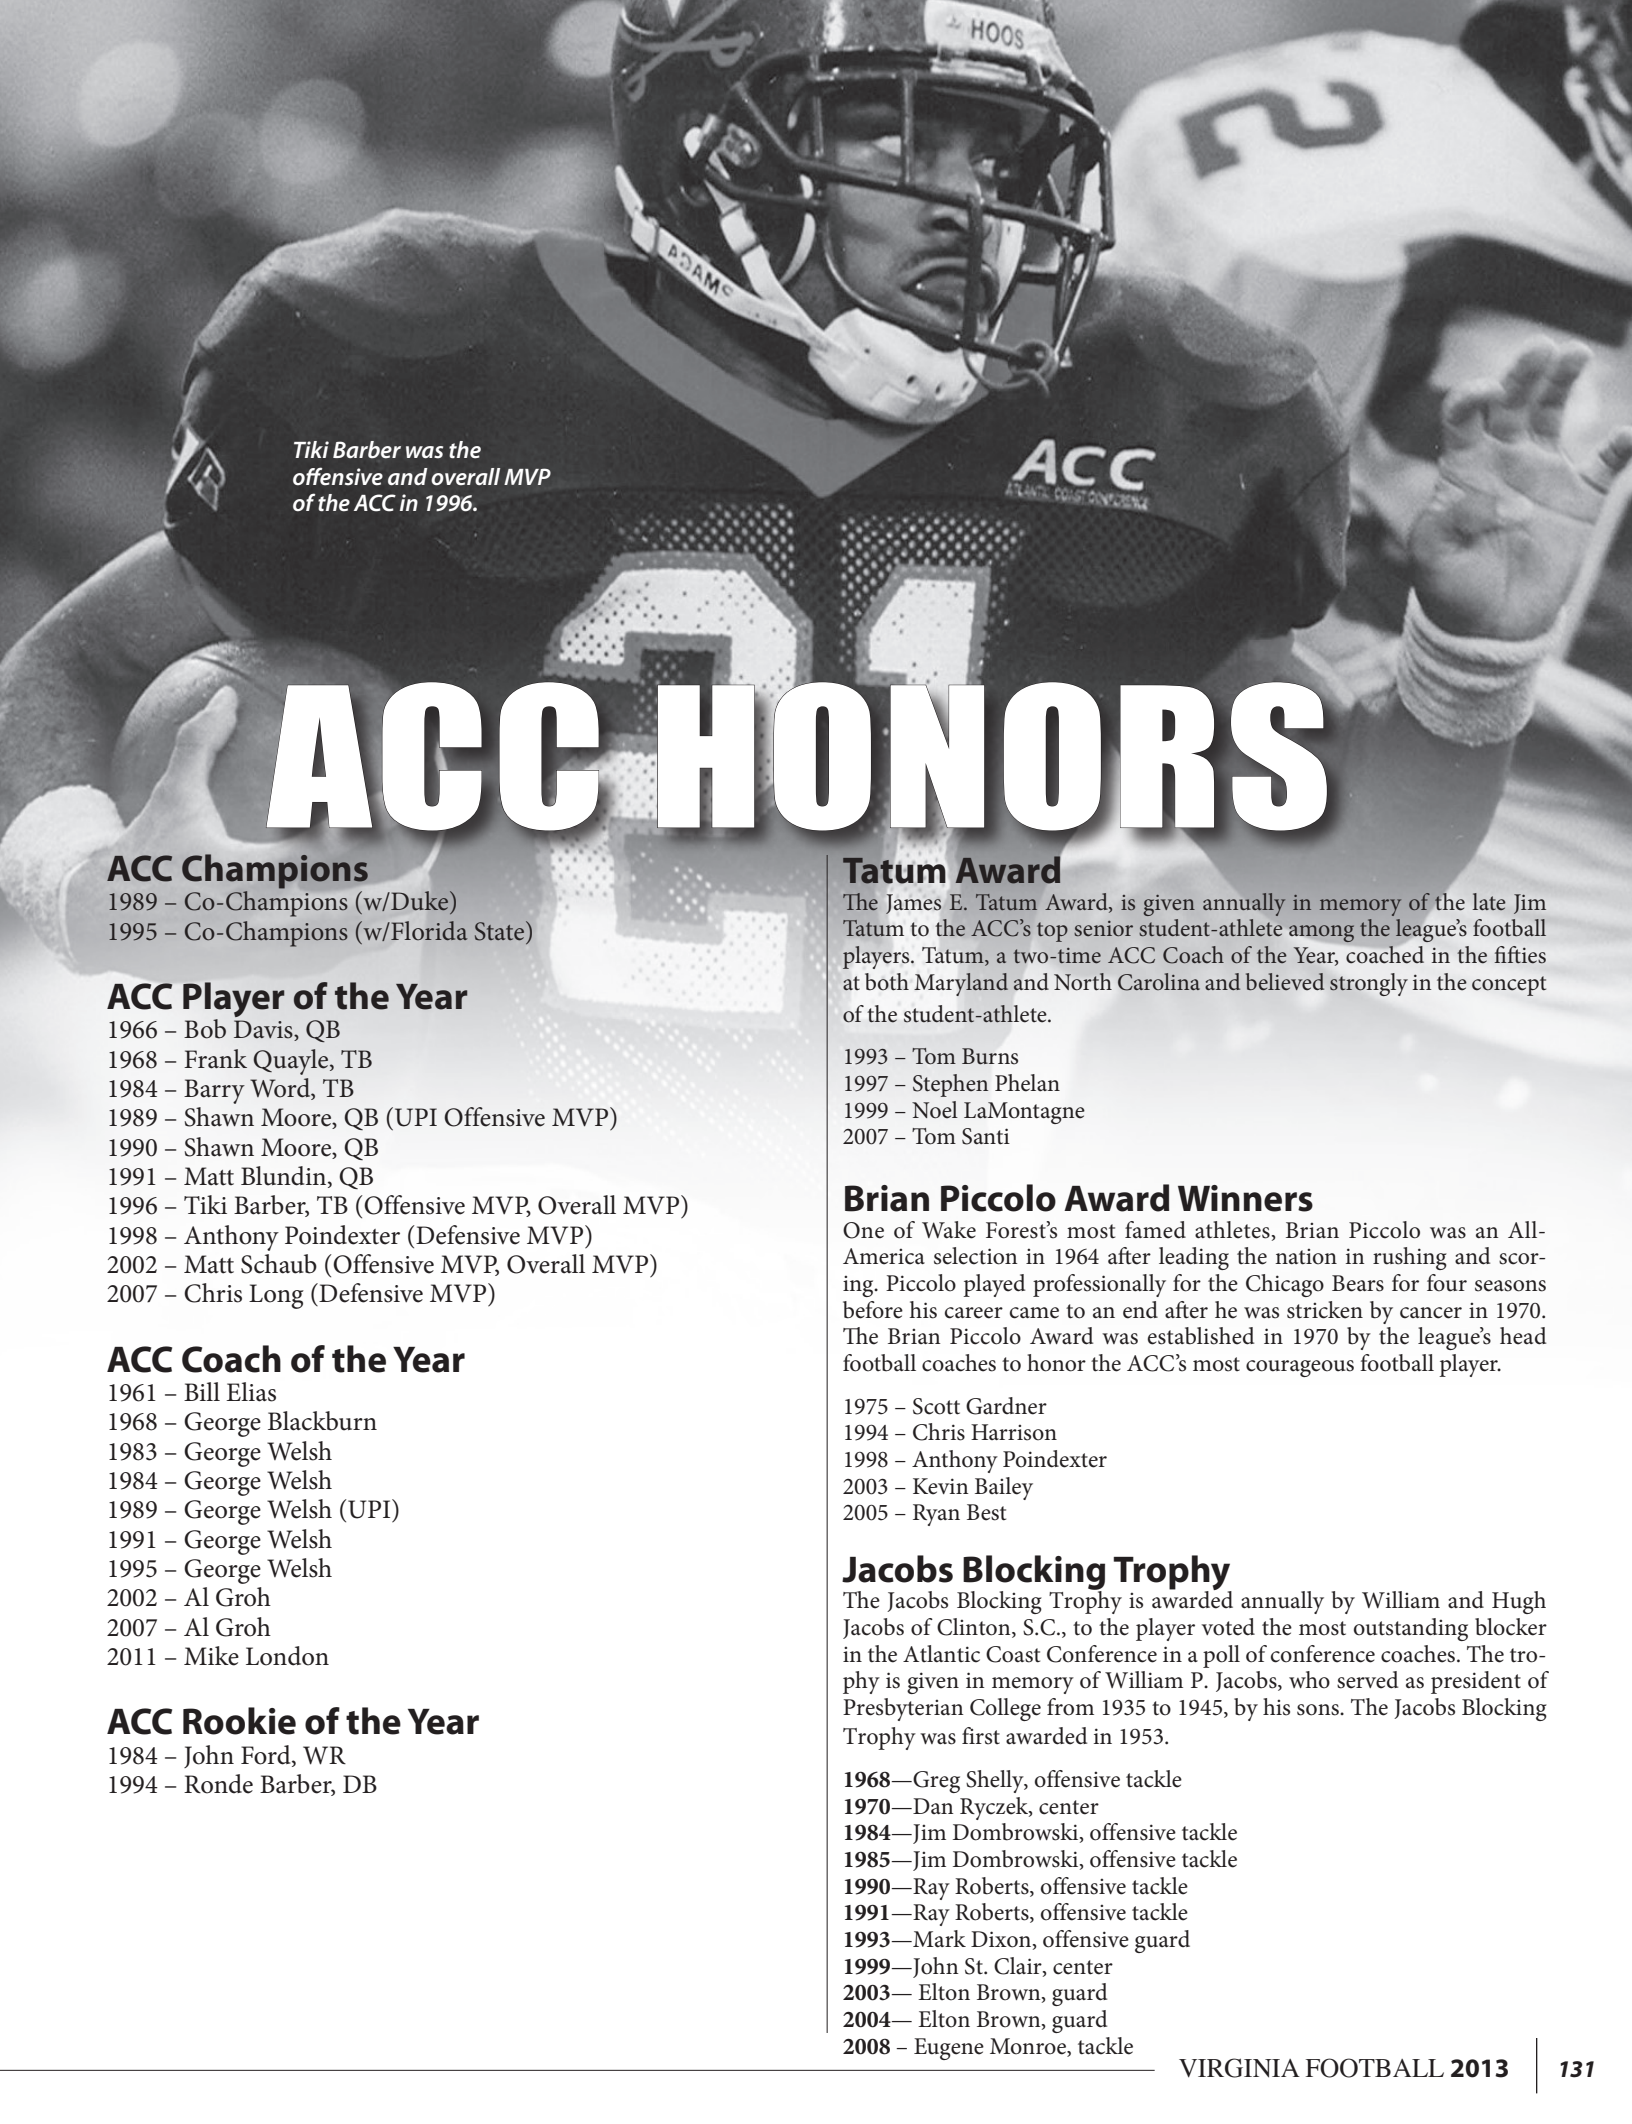

RETIRED JERSEYS

Jersey retirement honors Virginia players who have significantly impacted the program. Individuals recognized in this way will have their jerseys retired, but their number will remain active.

ALL-ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE

ALL-ACC

From 1953 to 1981, the All-Atlantic Coast Conference team was selected by the Atlantic Coast Sports Writers Association (ACSWA). The Associated Press (AP) started selecting its own All-ACC team in 1982. In 1989 the ACSWA and AP combined to select one team, while United Press International (UPI) also chose a team in 1989. In 2012 the ACC coaches started their own All-ACC team to go along with the one selected by the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association (ACSM). The players listed below, starting in 1982, made all teams unless otherwise indicated. UVA has had 115 first-team All-ACC selections, including 67 in the last 21 seasons.

A dominating punter who averaged 42.0 yards per punt in his career from 1993-96, Will Brice became only the third player in ACC history to earn all-conference honors all four years.

A four-year starter at left guard, Tom Glassic was a first-team All-ACC selection as a senior in 1975. He was a first-round draft choice of the Denver Broncos in 1976.

A first-team All-ACC guard in 1996, Jeremy Raley became the first offensive lineman in school history to start four bowl games.

Safety Kevin Cook was a first-team All-ACC selection in 1987 after finishing fourth in the nation with eight interceptions.

Jim Bakhtiar

1957 - FW

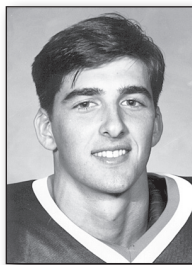

Jim Bakhtiar was an outstanding fullback, linebacker and kicker from 1955-57. Bakhtiar was selected to the Football Writers first-team All-America squad at fullback in 1957 after leading the ACC in rushing with 822 yards. He rushed for 2,434 yards and 13 touchdowns for his career and was the most dominant ballcarrier in the Atlantic Coast Conference's first decade. Upon completion of his career he was first in league history in rushing yards, rushing attempts and most 100-yard games.

Will Brice

1995 - FW

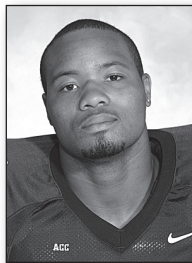

Will Brice was named a first-team All-America punter in 1995. He also was a second-team All-America selection by The Sporting News and first-team All-ACC selection. Brice's All-America season was instrumental in leading the 1995 Cavaliers to a 9-4 record, a share of the ACC championship and a 34-27 victory over Georgia in the Peach Bowl. He had 17 punts of 50 yards or longer and he buried 26 punts inside the 20.

Ahmad Brooks

2004 - SN, CSTV

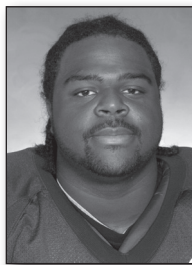

As a sophomore in 2004, Ahmad Brooks was one of three finalists for the Butkus Award. He led the team in tackling for the second year in a row (7.5/g) and earned first-team All-American honors from The Sporting News and CSTV. Brooks finished his career with 13 sacks, fourth most by a UVa linebacker, and 234 tackles. He was selected by the Cincinnati Bengals in the third round of the 2006 NFL Supplemental Draft.

Elton Brown

2004 - AFCA, WCFE

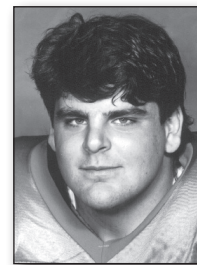

Elton Brown became just the third consensus All-American lineman in school history (joining T Jim Dombrowski in 1985 and G Mark Dixon in 1993) as a senior in 2004. That season, he won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the ACC's top blocker in voting by the league's head coaches for the second consecutive season. Brown started 39 games in his career and did not allow a sack during his senior season.

Mark Dixon

2004 - AP, UPI, FN, WCFE, FWAA, CPFN, SN

Mark Dixon earned consensus All-America honors at guard in 1993 as Virginia finished with a 7-5 record and played in the 1994 Carquest Bowl. He was also named a first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection in 1993 and received the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the ACC's best blocker. Dixon was named the ACC Offensive Lineman of the Week as a senior following his performance in Virginia's win over Georgia Tech.

Jim Dombrowski

1985 - AP, CPFN, FN, FWAA, K, SN, UPI

In 1985 Jim Dombrowski became UVa's first-ever unanimous All-American. In addition, the tackle became only the fifth Cavalier gridded to have his number (73) retired. The two-time winner of the Jacobs Blocking Trophy (recognizing the ACC's best blocker) helped lead UVa to three straight winning seasons and a 27-24 victory over Purdue in the 1984 Peach Bowl.

Bill Dudley

1941 - AP, UPI, INS, COL

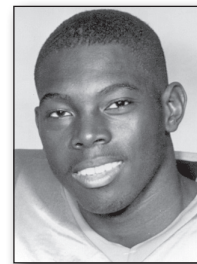

As a 19-year-old senior in 1941, "Bullet" Bill Dudley led Virginia to a sparkling 8-1 record and had a hand in 206 of the 279 points that the Cavaliers scored. He led the nation that year in points scored (134) and finished second nationally in total offense (1,824 yards). A member of the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame and the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Dudley became the first Cavalier to have his number (35) retired. He finished fifth in the 1941 Heisman balloting.

Percy Ellsworth

1995 - FN, AAFF

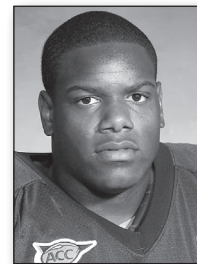

Percy Ellsworth became the first UVa defensive back to receive first-team All-America honors, earning that distinction in 1995. He tied for the team lead in interceptions (six) and pass breakups (12) in 1995 while leading UVa's defensive backs with 68 total tackles. Ellsworth finished his Cavalier career with 10 interceptions, tying for 12th-most in UVa history. He helped the team to back-to-back nine-win seasons as a junior and senior, a share of the 1995 ACC championship and two bowl victories.

D'Brickshaw Ferguson

2005 - AP

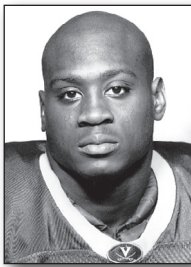

D'Brickshaw Ferguson finished his Virginia career as the most decorated offensive lineman in school history. He was named a first-team All-American as a senior in 2005 and was an all-ACC pick as both a junior and senior. He started all 49 games in which he played, the most by an offensive lineman in school history. His 49 career starts are the second-most starts by an offensive lineman in ACC history and a figure topped by only 13 O-linemen in FBS history at the time his career ended.

Thomas Jones

1999 – AP, FN, FWAA, WCFE, SN, CPFN, CBS, FD, CFD

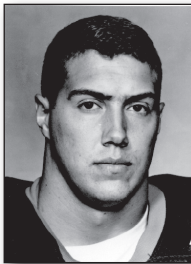

Thomas Jones was a consensus first-team All-American in 1999. He became the ACC's first consensus All-America running back since 1978 and just the third in league history. He was UVa's first consensus All-America offensive back since Bill Dudley in 1941 and the eighth consensus All-American in school history. Jones finished eighth in balloting for the Heisman Trophy. He established ACC and UVa records with 1,798 yards rushing and 2,054 all-purpose yards as a senior. Jones ranked third in the nation in rushing (163.5 ypg) and all-purpose yards (186.7 ypg), while his four 200-yard rushing games led the nation.

Patrick Kerney

1998 – FN, FWAA

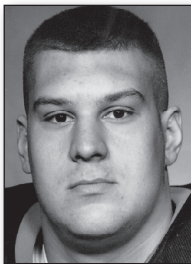

A first-team All-ACC selection, Kerney finished second in balloting for the 1998 ACC Defensive Player of the Year by one vote to fellow Cavalier All-American Anthony Poindexter. Kerney was one of five finalists for the Bronko Nagurski Award. He became the first Cavalier defensive end to earn first-team All-America honors since Chris Slade in 1992. Kerney led the ACC and ranked second in the nation in quarterback sacks in 1998 with 15. He finished second in the conference and 10th nationally with 21 tackles for loss.

Noel LaMontagne

1999 – SN

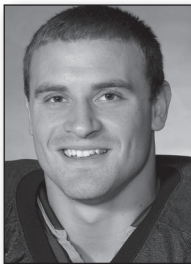

Noel LaMontagne was recognized as a first-team All-American in 1999 and earned first-team All-ACC honors for the second consecutive year that season. He and center John St. Clair became the first two UVa offensive linemen to win first-team All-America distinction in the same season. A 1999 tri-captain, LaMontagne also won the Jim Tatum Award, given annually to the top student-athlete among the ACC's senior football players. He helped open holes all season long for consensus All-America tailback Thomas Jones, who rushed for an ACC-record 1,798 yards.

Chris Long

2007 – AP, AFCA, SN, WCFE, FWAA, CBS, RIV, AAFF

In 2007 defensive end Chris Long became just the third unanimous All-American in Virginia history and the 11th player to receive consensus All-America status. He was named the ACC's Defensive Player of the Year and won the Ted Hendricks Award as the nation's outstanding defensive end. He was also a finalist for the Nagorski Trophy, Lombardi Award and the Lott Trophy. He finished third in the nation with 14 sacks and finished 10th in the voting for the Heisman Trophy.

Eugene "Buck" Mayer

1915 – INS

Eugene "Buck" Mayer became the first player from a Southern school to earn first-team All-America honors, gaining that distinction in 1915. In one of his best individual performances, he scored five touchdowns in a 74-0 win over Richmond in 1915. The Cavaliers went on to post an 8-1 record that year, losing only to Harvard. Mayer captained UVa's 1914 squad and helped lead Virginia to a four-year record of 39-6 record from 1912-15. During his career, he scored 46 touchdowns and 293 points, records that stood for more than 80 years.

Heath Miller

2004 – AFCA, AP, WCFE, FWAA, SN

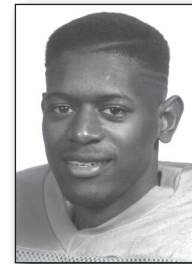

Heath Miller rewrote the UVa and ACC record books during a stellar three-year career with 144 passes for 1,703 yards and 20 touchdowns, all records for a tight end. He capped his UVa career in 2004 by winning the Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end, becoming Virginia's first major award winner since 1941. He became the second unanimous All-American in school history (Jim Dombrowski, 1985). The first unanimous All-American tight end in ACC history, he became the first UVa tight end to earn first-team All-ACC recognition twice.

Herman Moore

1990 – AP, UPI, SN, FN, FWAA

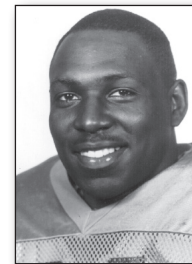

Herman Moore, half of UVa's highly-touted "Moore to Moore" pass-catch combination, was named a first-team All-American in 1990. Moore also was a unanimous first-team All-ACC selection in 1990 and finished sixth that season in the Heisman Trophy balloting. While at Virginia, he became the all-time ACC leader for most receiving yards in a season with 1,190 in 1990. He finished his career as the NCAA record-holder for most consecutive games in a season with a touchdown reception (nine in 1990) and most yards per catch in a career (22.0 average). Moore established UVa career records for most touchdown receptions (27) and most receiving yards (2,504).

Shawn Moore

2007 – FWAA, K

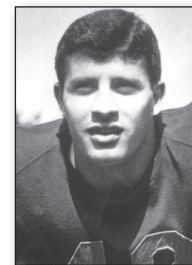

Shawn Moore quarterbacked UVa to two New Year's Day Bowl appearances and a share of the school's first-ever ACC championship. Virginia's all-time passing and total offense leader set over 30 combined NCAA, conference and school records. Moore became the first ACC quarterback to lead the nation in passing efficiency (160.7) in 1990 while completing 144 of 241 passes for 2,262 yards and 21 touchdowns. Moore finished fourth in balloting for the 1990 Heisman Trophy, capturing more votes than any other player in ACC history at that time and was the ACC Player of the Year.

Joe Palumbo

1951 – AP, NEA

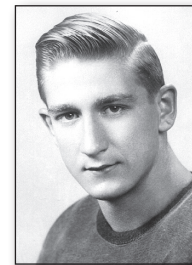

Joe Palumbo is considered the best defensive guard in Cavalier football history. During his three varsity seasons (1949-51), Virginia posted a 23-5 mark and recorded seven shutouts. Palumbo captained head coach Art Guepe's 1951 squad and was a first-team All-America selection that season. In 1951, He is one of six Cavaliers to have his number (48) retired. Palumbo was inducted into the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame in August of 1999.

John Papit

1949 – NEA

John Papit earned All-America honors in 1949. He was a rare fullback who had the speed and shiftness to go all the way anytime he carried the ball. As a member of the 1947-50 teams, he was always the leading rusher. His best game was a 224-yard effort against Washington & Lee in 1948, which still stands as UVa's single-game rushing record. In 1949, he rushed for 1,214 yards which was Virginia's single-season rushing record until broken by Barry Word (1,224) in 1985. He is Virginia's fourth all-time leading rusher with 537 carries for 3,238 yards.

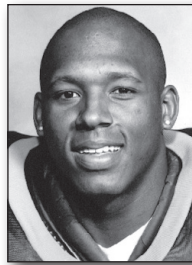

Anthony Poindexter

1998 - FWAA, AP, SN, CPFN

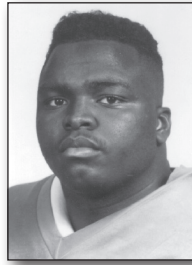

Anthony Poindexter earned first-team All-America honors as a defensive back in 1997 and 1998, just the only two-time first-team All-Americans in UVa history. The 1998 ACC Defensive Player of the Year, Poindexter became only the third player in school history to earn first-team All-Conference honors three times. The two-time team captain led UVa in a number of statistical categories, including tackles (73, 10.4 per game), interceptions (3), fumbles recovered (2) and fumbles caused (2). His three quarterback sacks in 1998 marked the most ever by a Cavalier defensive back. He finished his career ranked seventh in school history with 342 tackles.

Ray Roberts

1991 - SHNS, K

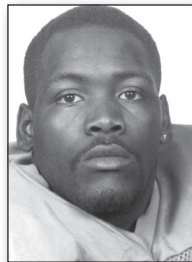

Ray Roberts started on three bowl teams and an ACC championship team at UVa. He culminated his outstanding Cavalier career as a senior in 1991, gaining first-team All-America status. Roberts was a first-team all-ACC selection and received the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the ACC's best blocker in each of his last two seasons. In 1990, the team captain blocked for an offense that scored a then ACC-record 442 points.

Ray Savage

1989 - K

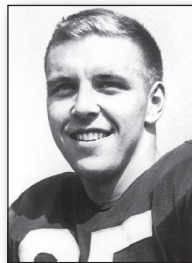

Ray Savage earned All-America honors at defensive end/outside linebacker in 1989 as a member of one of the most successful teams in Cavalier football history. Led by Savage's brilliant defensive play, the 1989 Cavaliers rolled up a school-record 10 victories, earned a share of Virginia's first-ever ACC championship and met Illinois in the 1990 Florida Citrus Bowl. Savage finished the 1989 season with 91 tackles, including 49 solo stops and one quarterback sack. He finished his outstanding career ranked fourth among UVa's all-time leading tacklers with 302 total stops.

Tom Scott

1952 - AP, NEA

Tom Scott was UVa's first two-sport All-American (in football and lacrosse). He was a standout two-way end on the Cavalier football team, leading UVa to a superb three-year record of 24-5 from 1950-52. Virginia finished the 1951 season with an 8-1 record and ranked 13th nationally in The Associated Press' final Top-20 poll. As a senior in 1952, Scott helped lead Virginia to an 8-2 record and was selected an All-American. He also was a member of Virginia's National Champion lacrosse team in 1952 and was an All-America defenseman in 1953.

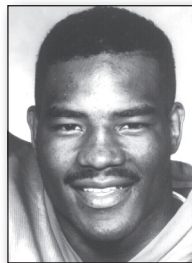

Chris Slade

1992 - AP, UPI, FN, SN, FWAA, WCFF

1991 - CPFN

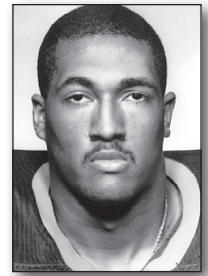

Chris Slade was the first UVa player to earn first-team All-America honors for two seasons (1991 and 1992). He set Virginia and ACC career records for quarterback sacks with 40, including 31 unassisted. A team captain in 1992, Slade was named Defensive Player of the Year in 1992 by Football News and was a first-team All-America selection in both 1991 and 1992. Slade was named Defensive MVP of the 1990 Florida Citrus Bowl after posting a game-high 11 tackles. Slade finished fifth on UVa's list for career tackles with 299.

John St. Clair

1999 - CNNSI, CFN

John St. Clair became the first center in school history to win first-team All-America distinction in 1999. He and OG/T Noel LaMontagne are the first two UVa offensive linemen to win first-team All-America honors in the same season. St. Clair also received the 1999 Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the ACC. His play was instrumental in clearing the way for consensus All-America tailback Thomas Jones, who rushed for an ACC-record 1,798 yards. St. Clair also started at center in 1998, helping UVa lead the ACC in rushing offense (213.1 yards per game).

ACADEMIC HONORS

A two-year starter at linebacker, Tom Burns majored in nuclear engineering and earned first-team Academic All-American honors in 1992 and 1993. The Draddy Award recipient—the “Academic Heisman”—in 1993, he later earned a master’s degree and Ph. D in nuclear engineering from UVa.

National Football Foundation Scholar-Athletes

In 1959, The National Football Foundation unveiled its National Scholar-Athlete program. The Foundation’s National Scholar-Athlete Awards program consists of graduate fellowships that are awarded on an annual basis to a select group of college football players in their senior year of eligibility who have demonstrated outstanding academic success, exemplary community leadership and superior football performance. Every fall, The National Football Foundation’s Awards Committee selects approximately 15 scholar-athletes from across the country for these prestigious fellowships that can be used for postgraduate studies.

The Draddy Award

Named in the honor of Vincent dePaul Draddy, who served The National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame for 33 years and 19 years as Chairman of the Board, the trophy has become the most prestigious and desirable “academic” award in college football. The trophy, often referred to as the “Academic Heisman,” recognizes an individual as the absolute best in the country for his academic success, football performance and exemplary community leadership.

- 1993 – Tom Burns

AFCA Academic Achievement Award

The Academic Achievement Award has been presented annually since 1981. The award recognizes a Football Bowl Subdivision school with the highest graduation rate among members of its football team. Virginia has earned the award twice (1985 and 1986). Schools with a 70 percent graduation rate are accorded an honorable mention listing. Virginia has earned that distinction 22 times.

Rhodes Scholar Athletes

Between 1913 and 1932 eight Virginia football players received the prestigious Rhodes Scholarship.

UVA HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

Former Cavalier standout Jim Dombrowski is one of 13 players who will be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame this year. He anchored Virginia's offensive line from 1982-85 and finished his brilliant college football career as UVA's first-ever unanimous All-American. In addition, he became only the fifth Cavalier to have his number (73) retired. A two-time winner of the Jacobs Blocking Trophy (recognizing the ACC's best blocker), he helped lead UVA to three straight winning seasons and a 27-24 victory over Purdue in the 1984 Peach Bowl, the school's first bowl appearance.

Henry Jordan, defensive tackle, inducted July 29, 1995

Henry Jordan

A three-sport athlete at Virginia (football, wrestling and track & field). Selected by the Cleveland Browns in the fifth round of the 1957 NFL Draft, Jordan was traded to the Green Bay Packers in 1959. He spent the next 11 years with the Packers, playing at right defensive tackle on some of the greatest teams in pro football history. Jordan's arrival in Green Bay coincided with that of legendary coach Vince Lombardi, who led the Packers to five NFL titles. Jordan was named All-NFL in five consecutive seasons (1960-1964) and in 1967. A four-time Pro-Bowl selection, he was named Most Valuable Lineman in the 1962 Pro Bowl. Jordan died of a heart attack in 1977 at age 42. He was posthumously inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame on July 29, 1995, in Canton, Ohio.

First World Championship Game AFL vs NFL

Virginia has had at least one player drafted in each of the past 30 drafts (since 1984), which is tied with Florida State for the second-longest active streak in the ACC. Only Miami (39 years) has a longer streak, however UVA is the only team to boast being a member of the ACC during the entirety of its active streak.

SCOTT STADIUM

The Home of Virginia Football

Entering its 83rd season as the home for Virginia football, the Carl Smith Center, home of David A. Harrison III Field at Scott Stadium, with its unique architectural design, scenic setting on the University's Grounds and exceptional sight lines, is one of the nation's finest college football settings.

Opened in 1931, Scott Stadium might be one of the oldest campus college football stadiums in the nation, but you could never tell from its appearance. Numerous upgrades and expansions over the decade fine it a modern home for the Cavaliers and their fans.

Scott Stadium was the gift of Frederic William Scott and Elisabeth Strother Scott, and was dedicated to the memory of his parents, Frederic Robert Scott and Frances Branch Scott.

Virginia played its dedication game at Scott Stadium on Oct. 15, 1931 against the Virginia Military Institute before a then-capacity crowd of 22,000. Prior to that season, the Cavaliers staged their home games at the University's Lambeth Field.

Since George Welsh's 1987 squad went a perfect 5-0 at home, Scott Stadium has provided Virginia's team a decided advantage. Over the past 26 seasons UVa's home record stands at 115-45.

Virginia has played 429 games in the historic venue; Miami's visit in 2008 marked the 400th game in the facility. UVa's all-time record at Scott Stadium stands at 244-173-12.

Here are some of the significant changes and moments that have happened at Scott Stadium over the last 40 years:

- 1974 – New aluminum seating is installed along with an AstroTurf playing surface. The facility's brickwork is restored.
- 1980 – The stadium's upper decks open adding 12,000 additional seats. A new press box—named in memory of longtime UVa athletic director Captain Norton Pritchett—and a President's box are also constructed.

- Oct. 9, 1982 – Using portable lights, UVa plays its first night game at Scott Stadium against defending national champion Clemson.
- 1983 – A permanent lighting system is installed before the start of the season.
- 1985 – Bryant Hall, a dining and locker room facility located in the south end zone of the stadium, opens. The building is named in honor of J.C. Herbert Bryant, a 1932 Virginia graduate and one of the principal benefactors of the structure.
- Nov. 3, 1990 – A stadium-record crowd of 49,700 attends at No. 1 Virginia faces No. 16 Georgia Tech on a nationally televised game. The Yellow Jackets win 41-38.

• Sept. 2, 1995 – Virginia dedicates its new natural grass playing field – David A. Harrison III Field – at the first home game of the season against William & Mary.

Nov. 24, 2007	61,711	Virginia Tech	Va. Tech won, 33-21

The field is named after David A. Harrison III of Hopewell, Va., who pledged $5 million to support the UVa football program. Harrison Field replaces artificial turf which was first installed at Scott Stadium in 1974.

- Nov. 2, 1995—Virginia hosts Florida State in the first-ever Thursday night game in Charlottesville. Playing in front of a sell-out crowd and a national television audience, the Cavaliers defeat the second-ranked Seminoles 33-28. Florida State becomes the highest-ranked team to ever fall to the Cavaliers.

- June 14, 1997 – Representing the largest single monetary gift in school history at that time, UVa alumnus and former Cavalier football player Carl W. Smith pledges $25 million to his alma mater. The University announces that the bulk of Smith’s gift—$23 million—will be used toward funding the expansion and enhancement of Scott Stadium, ultimately increasing its seating capacity to 61,500 by the year 2000.

- 1998 – Located in the north end of the stadium, the ‘Hoo Vision videoboard debuts for the Sept. 12 Maryland game. In conjunction with this project, the north end hillside seating area is moved 30 feet closer to the playing field

- 1999 – The lower level of the south bowl, including new locker rooms, is finished before the home opener vs. Wake Forest on Sept. 18.

- 2000 – The Carl Smith Center, home of David A. Harrison III Field, is dedicated during the 2000 season opener against Brigham Young on Sept. 2. The final phase of the stadium renovation project includes the completion of the Virginia Football Hall of Fame in the new Bryant Hall at the Carl Smith Center.

- 2001 – A crowd of 61,625 attends the home game vs. Virginia Tech, the largest attendance for a football game in Virginia state history at the time.

- 2003 – Video display panels, called “ribbon boards,” are installed below the upper decks on the east and west sides of the stadium.

- 2005 – The legendary rock band The Rolling Stones perform before a sold out crowd on Oct. 6.

- 2008 – A record-setting crowd of 64,947 attends the season opener vs. Southern California.

- 2009 – A new 32-foot by 57-foot videoboard replaces the existing 21-foot by 28-foot screen.

- 2009 – Rock band U2 brought its famous 360° Tour to a packed Scott Stadium on Oct. 1.

LAMBETH FIELD

Built in stages from 1901-1913, Lambeth Field served as the Cavaliers’ home until the construction of Scott Stadium in 1931. Named for Dr. William A. Lambeth, often called “the father of athletics” at UVa, Lambeth Field was also the home of the university’s successful track and baseball teams until the early 1970s.

Completion of the stadium in 1913 provided grandstand seating for 8000 people at a cost of $35,000. Student season tickets cost $7.50 that season, while alumni tickets were $9.50. The dedication game against Vanderbilt in November 1913 saw the Cavaliers wallop the Commodores 34-0 in a game called “the football classic of the South.”

GEORGE WELSH

Indoor Football Practice Facility

Officially opened during Spring 2013, the George Welsh Indoor Practice Facility gives Virginia Football one of the finest indoor facilities on the East Coast.

The 78,000 square-foot facility features a full-sized football field (120 yards long). It will have a clearance of 65 feet to its arched ceiling. A viewing platform is available for coaching and videotaping of practices.

The George Welsh Indoor Practice Facility was designed by VMDO Architects of Charlottesville, in association with Knight Architects from Atlanta.

"Anyone that has followed the development of our football program in the last 30 years knows that George Welsh is the person that consistently brought high levels of achievement on the football field at the University of Virginia," Virginia Athletics Director Craig Littlepage said. "Coach Welsh had great teams, great players, and great coaching staffs during his 19 years as our head coach. Through naming the new indoor practice facility in George Welsh's honor, we recognize the impact he and those he coached have had on our program and the University as a whole."

"At first I was surprised and didn't believe it," Welsh said. "This is a singular honor and I feel very humble about it. I had a lot of help, between the great staff people I had and the great players I had for 19 years. It is also a tribute to those people.

"I think the indoor facility is going to help the football program. When I first heard we were going to build an indoor facility, I started thinking about the late 80s when we finally got enough money together to start the McCue Center here. For us to stay current at that time we had to have a building like that. Listening to the coaches today, the indoor facility is the big thing you have to have. I feel very honored to be associated with this."

Welsh coached the Cavaliers for 19 years from 1982 to 2000. During that span he recorded a 134-86-3 record to become the winningest coach in UVA history. In nine years at Navy he produced a 55-46-1 record for a career mark of 189-

132-4 in 28 seasons. Welsh was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2004.

"It will be an honor for our team and future generations of Virginia football teams to practice and train in a facility named for Coach Welsh," said Virginia football coach Mike London. "If you want to talk about someone being a foundation for a football program, George would be that person at Virginia. He showed that Virginia football could be a nationally-competitive program.

"On a personal level, I'm thrilled for Coach Welsh. He coached my brother Paul and I know the type of impact he had on his players. His influence reached far beyond the football field. He helped to mold them into the men they are today."

When Welsh took over the Virginia program in 1982, the Cavaliers had managed just two winning seasons, won only 33 conference games over the previous 29 seasons and had never been to a bowl game. Welsh reversed that trend quickly. After finishing 2-9 in his first season in Charlottesville, the team posted a 6-5 mark in 1983. The following season the Cavaliers posted an 8-2-2 record, placed second in the ACC and won the Peach Bowl.

Starting in 1987, Virginia compiled a conference record streak of 13 consecutive seasons with at least seven victories. The Cavaliers shared the ACC crown in 1989 and in 1995 and made 11 more bowl appearances. Welsh's 1989 squad won a school-record 10 games and in 1990 the Cavaliers were ranked No. 1 in both major media polls for the first time in the program's history. In 1995 the Cavaliers defeated Florida State to hand the Seminoles their first-ever ACC defeat.

Welsh was named the ACC Coach of the Year four times - 1983, 1984, 1991 and 1995. He retired as the winningest coach in conference history with 134 victories. His career win total of 189 was the 24th most in Division I history at the time of his retirement.

ADMINISTRATION

TERESA A. SULLIVAN University President

Teresa A. Sullivan is the University of Virginia's eighth president. Since taking office in 2010, she has led UVa through a period of significant progress. In fall 2012, she launched a strategic planning effort to provide a road-map for the University's future, while gathering input from 10,000 alumni, parents, students, faculty, staff, and others. President Sullivan developed a new financial model for the University to ensure stability and transparency and to spur innovation in a period of significant financial pressure in higher education.

President Sullivan has assembled a highly effective leadership team, led by executive vice president and provost John Simon, executive vice president and chief operating officer Pat Hogan, senior vice president for university advancement Bob Sweeney, and a group of experienced deans, vice presidents, and staff. Working with her team, President Sullivan has prepared UVa to tackle the serious challenges in higher education related to cost-containment, affordability, faculty compensation, and the emergence of online education. UVa now has ongoing efforts, at both the unit and the pan-University levels, to reduce costs, improve processes, and enhance efficiency, while protecting the quality of the academic enterprise. In 2013, President Sullivan proposed a plan to aggressively improve faculty compensation after many years of stagnation in faculty salaries. Under her leadership, faculty and staff have been encouraged to experiment strategically with new technologies, such as massive open online courses, or MOOCs. President Sullivan also provided seed funding to allow professors to experiment with "hybrid" courses that combine the traditional classroom experience with technology-enhanced teaching.

In spring 2013, President Sullivan led the University to completion of its $3-billion capital campaign, and quickly announced plans to raise $400 million to support three strategic priorities: retaining and recruiting top faculty, restoring the University's Jeffersonian Grounds, and providing needy students with scholarships.

President Sullivan is a respected scholar in labor force demography. The author or coauthor of six books and many scholarly articles, her most recent research has focused on measuring productivity in higher education.

President Sullivan is a Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science. She serves as Vice Chair of the Council of Presidents for the Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges, and as a member of the Advisory Board for the Northern Virginia Technology Council, the trade association of the technology industry in Northern Virginia. She serves as the Association of American Universities (AAU) representative on the American Council on Education (ACE) Board of Directors, and as a member of the Higher Education Advisory Committee that provides guidance for implementation of the Virginia Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2011. In 2013, the Governor appointed her to the Innovation and Entrepreneurship Investment Authority.

President Sullivan came to UVa from the University of Michigan, where she was provost and executive vice president for academic affairs. Prior to her work at Michigan, Ms. Sullivan was executive vice chancellor for academic affairs for the University of Texas System, a position she held from 2002 until May 2006. She served as faculty member at the University of Texas at Austin from 1981 to 2006.

She is a graduate of Michigan State University's James Madison College, and earned her doctoral degree in sociology from the University of Chicago. She is married to Douglas Laycock, the Robert E. Scott Distinguished Professor of Law at UVa. They have two adult sons.

President Sullivan is a passionate fan of UVa athletics, and regularly attends sports events on and off Grounds.

CRAIG LITTLEPAGE Director of Athletics

Committed to preserving and building on UVa's longstanding tradition of academic and athletic excellence, Craig Littlepage is in his 13th year as Virginia's Athletics Director. Littlepage's appointment as athletics director was announced in August of 2001.

Littlepage served as Virginia's interim athletics director from June 1, 2001, until his permanent appointment to the position. He had also served as the University's interim athletics director from December of 1994 until July of 1995.

The first African-American athletics director in Atlantic Coast Conference history, Littlepage was named the Black Coaches Association's "Athletics Administrator of the Year" in 2003 and 2006. He was also listed on Sports Illustrated's list of the 101 most influential minorities in sports in 2003 and 2004. In March 2005, Littlepage was named one of Black Enterprise magazine's "Most Powerful African-Americans in Sports."

Littlepage has been a member of UVa's athletics administration since 1990 when he was appointed an assistant athletics director, a position he held from 1990-1991. He then spent four years as the associate director of athletics for programs and six years (1995-2001) as senior associate director of athletics, managing all aspects of the athletics department's day-to-day operations.

Littlepage leads a comprehensive 25-sport athletics program that routinely competes for championships and national rankings in many sports. At the same time, Cavalier student-athletes who exhaust their eligibility at Virginia graduate at a rate comparable to the student body as a whole. Annually, UVa student-athletes rank among the top Division I-A public universities in the country in graduation rates.

He has outlined a number of ambitious 10-year goals for the department to achieve by 2022: graduate 100 percent of its student-athletes; win 12 national championships and 70 conference titles; fully endow all scholarships and provide the operational support required to meet all other stated goals; build and maintain high-quality facilities; annually recruit the best student-athletes in the country (based on how coaches rate their top prospects); and fully comply with Title IX.

Such goals reflect Littlepage's vision of "uncompromised excellence in intercollegiate athletics" as well as the department's overall mission to "enhance and support the intellectual purpose of the University and its exemplary academic standards and traditions."

Virginia's first NCAA championship in men's tennis capped another successful athletics season in which teams or individuals from 19 of the Cavaliers' 25 intercollegiate athletics programs advanced to NCAA post-season competition in 2012-13. The Cavaliers finished 20th in the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup standings, their seventh consecutive top-20 finish including a school high of No. 3 in 2010.

Other team highlights from 2012-13 included the rowing team's fifth-place national finish, baseball's fourth NCAA Super Regional appearance in the last five years and the men's tennis team winning the ITA National Team Indoor Championship for the fifth time in the past six years. Jarmere Jenkins and Mac Styslinger became the third men's tennis duo in the past five years to win the NCAA Doubles Championship.

Virginia has won eight team NCAA Championships and 13 individual NCAA Championships in the last 11 years. The Cavaliers have also won 56 ACC Championships in that time frame, more than any other conference school. UVa claimed a league-leading five ACC championships in 2012-13 and has led the ACC in league championships in five of the last six athletics seasons.

Great progress has also been made in the area of athletics facility improvements during Littlepage's watch, including the additions of the George Welsh Indoor Practice Facility (2013) and John Paul Jones Arena (2006).

Littlepage has held many leadership roles within the NCAA, ACC, the University-at-large and professional organizations. He is currently a member of the John McLendon Foundation Steering Committee and served on the Executive Committee of the National Association of Collegiate Athletics Directors (NACDA) from 2006-10.

In February 2002, he was appointed to the 10-member Division I Men's Basketball Committee by the NCAA Championship/Competition Cabinet and served a five-year term which was completed Aug. 31, 2007. In 2005-06, Littlepage served as the chair of the Men's Division I Basketball Committee and administered its selection process.

Littlepage previously was a member of the NCAA Division I Infractions Committee and the NCAA Academics, Eligibility and Compliance Cabinet, serving on the Recruiting and Student-Athlete Reinstatement Subcommittees. He chaired the Reinstatement Subcommittee in 1999-2000. He also served the NCAA on committees that studied sports wagering, postgame crowd control, basketball issues, and the College Basketball Partnership. He has participated as a presenter and mentor to the NCAA's Ethnic Minority Male Institute and the Black Coaches and Administrator Association. Littlepage has chaired the ACC Women's Basketball Committee, ACC Committee on Awards, ACC Student-Athlete Welfare Committee, the ACC Men's and Women's Swimming/Diving Committees and the ACC Men's Soccer Committee.

He is a member of the Associate Faculty for the University's Center for Alcohol and Substance Education, and participates in various alcohol and drug prevention/education conferences. Littlepage also has been active in the local community, having served on the Board of Directors for the Charlottesville Ronald McDonald House and serving as a Trustee with the Mount Zion Baptist Church and the St. Anne's-Belfield School.

Before beginning his career in athletics administration, Littlepage served two stints as an assistant coach with the Cavalier men's basketball program, from 1976-82 and from 1988-90.

Littlepage held head coaching positions at Pennsylvania (1982-85) and at Rutgers (1985-88) before returning to Virginia. While he was at Penn, the Quakers won the Ivy League championship and participated in the 1985 NCAA Tournament. Littlepage was an assistant basketball coach at Villanova for two years and at Yale for one year before joining the UVa basketball program as an assistant coach in 1976.

The LaMott, Pa., native earned his bachelor's degree in economics from the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania in 1973. He was a member of three Ivy League basketball championship teams at Penn and was instrumental in the Quakers' drive to three consecutive NCAA Eastern Regional playoff appearances.

Littlepage and his wife Margaret have three children, two daughters Erica (27) and Erin (22), and a son Murray (24).

SENIOR STAFF

JON OLIVER
Executive Associate
Athletics Director

Jon Oliver is in his 13th year at Virginia. His primary responsibility is oversight of the day-to-day operations of the athletics department.

Oliver is the administrative liaison for football, men's basketball and men's tennis and he has senior staff administrative oversight responsibilities for Academic Affairs, Equipment Room Operations, Human Resources, Facilities and Game Operations, Lifeskills, Marketing and Promotions, Sports Medicine, Sports Nutrition, Sports Psychology, Strength and Conditioning and Video Services. Oliver also serves as the Department's representative on all major facility projects.

Before coming to UVa, Oliver spent the previous six years involved in various aspects of athletic administration at Washington State University. Oliver ended his tenure at WSU as the associate athletics director for external affairs and prior to that served as the associate athletics director for finance and facilities development, the assistant athletics director for business and compliance and the director of compliance.

Oliver earned a bachelor's degree in communications from Boise State in 1994 and his law degree from the Idaho School of Law in 1997.

Oliver is a former member of the University of Idaho Law School Advisory Board and served on the NCAA's Minority Opportunities and Interests Committee.

He is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and the Black Coaches & Administrators (BCA).

He and his wife, November, have a son, Dante, and two daughters, Ariana and Mia.

JANE MILLER
Senior Associate
Athletics Director for Programs/Senior Woman
Administrator

A 30-year veteran of the Virginia athletics department, Jane Miller has served as the senior associate director of athletics for programs since 2001. Previously,

Miller was the associate athletics director for programs/senior women's administrator.

Miller serves on the University Calendar Committee, Admissions Committee and Judicial Review Board. She is the Chair of the ACC Women's Lacrosse Committee and is a member of the ACC Women's Basketball, Baseball and Men's Lacrosse Committee.

Recently Miller was elected Chair of the NCAA Division I Championship/Sports Management Cabinet and Chair of the National Women's Lacrosse Hall of Fame Committee (women's division).

Head coach of the UVa women's lacrosse team for 12 seasons, Miller resigned her coaching duties in 1995 for a full-time administrative role. She retired as the winningest coach in UVa women's lacrosse history, compiling a record of 145-44, including two national championships and six Final Four appearances. She was elected to the Virginia chapter of the Lacrosse Hall of Fame in 1996, the New England chapter of the Lacrosse Hall of Fame in 2000 and the U.S. Lacrosse National Hall of Fame and Oliver Ames High School Hall of Fame in 2003.

A native of Easton, Mass., Miller graduated from Northeastern University in 1973 and was elected to her alma mater's Hall of Fame in 1983. She was a three-sport standout at Northeastern in basketball, field hockey and lacrosse.

Miller is a member and serves on the Board of Directors for the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletic Administrators and is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics. In May 1999, she received the Woman of Achievement Award from the UVa Women's Faculty and Professional Association and in 2009 she received the President's Award for Exemplary Service to the ACC.

TODD GOODALE
Associate Athletics Director
for External Affairs

Todd Goodale was named associate director of athletics for external affairs in July of 2013. In that role, he oversees the ticketing, marketing and promotions, media relations, and video services departments.

He also serves as the University's licensing director.

Goodale had supervised the marketing and video service areas for the last seven years after serving as UVa's director of video services since July of 2004.

He received the Bus Male Service Award in 2005 and was named the department's employee of the year in 2010.

Goodale was the creative director for Cavalier Sports Marketing from 1998-2004. Prior to that, he was a member of the Virginia Sports Marketing staff, serving as producer of the football and basketball coaches television shows and as an account executive.

He is a 1994 graduate of Virginia. Following his graduation, he was a sports reporter and anchor for WVIR-TV in Charlottesville.

Goodale and his wife, Tamar, have a daughter, Ava, and a son, Graham.

DIRK KATSTRA
Executive Director of the Virginia Athletics
Foundation/Senior
Associate Athletics Director

Dirk Katstra is in his 18th year as executive director of the Virginia Athletics Foundation. In July of 2013 he was named senior associate athletics director and took on the role as the sport administrator for men's and women's swimming and diving.

In June 2004, Katstra was named Fundraiser of the Year by the National Association of Athletic Development Directors (NAADD) in recognition of his outstanding leadership and success in fundraising on behalf of Virginia athletics. In June 2012, he was named to the executive committee of NAADD for a four-year term.

The annual campaign supports student athletes in all 25 sports programs in the form of scholarships, summer school, academic affairs and operational costs. The foundation is also responsible for all fund raising efforts for endowments for scholarships and operating costs. In addition, the foundation is responsible for supporting all fund raising efforts in the area of capital projects, including the new track and field facility, the recent $4 million expansion to Davenport Field and the John Paul Jones Arena, UVa's $129 million basketball arena and special events center, which opened in July 2006. He recently spearheaded the fund raising efforts for the $13 million indoor football practice facility scheduled that was completed in 2013.

Katstra previously served the athletics department as the associate director for external affairs, overseeing the long-range planning and daily operations for media relations, sports publications, and the ticket office. From 1992 to 1996, Katstra served as director of annual giving for the Foundation.

A native of Stilwell, Kan., Katstra is a 1991 graduate of UVa with a degree in sport management. A member of the Cavalier basketball team from 1987 to 1991, Katstra played on three NCAA Tournament teams and was a senior captain on the 1990-91 squad.

Before joining the Virginia Athletics Foundation staff in 1992, Katstra served an internship with the athletics department's promotions and marketing office, and had administrative responsibilities with the men's basketball program.

Katstra is married to the former Michelle Massie of Charlottesville. The couple has two sons, Austin and Ryan, and daughter, Ryleigh. Katstra's father, the late Richard Katstra, lettered as a member of the UVa basketball team in 1963 and 1964.

STEVE PRITZKER
Associate Athletics Director
for Business Operations

Steve Pritzker is in his first year as the associate athletics director for business operations and the chief financial officer (CFO) for the University of Virginia athletics department.

In addition to supervising the business operations staff and the manager of information systems, Pritzker serves as the financial adviser to the athletics department staff and coordinates the implementation and management of the department's operating budget. He serves as the department's primary liaison to the University's audit, budget, financial administration and procurement offices.

Pritzker returns to Virginia after one season as the head rowing coach at Iowa. He spent the previous nine years as a member of Virginia's coaching staff, from 2004 to 2012. After volunteering with the rowing team during the 2004 season, while earning his master's degree in business administration, Pritzker assumed full-time coaching responsibilities in the fall of 2004. In 2007 he was promoted to associate head coach. While at Virginia, Pritzker helped guide the Cavaliers to NCAA team championships in 2010 and 2012, along with runner-up finishes in 2005 and 2007. Virginia won eight ACC titles in his nine seasons.

While working with the Cavaliers' rowing program, Pritzker also worked with Oliver on finance and budgeting matters, including forecasting and achieving financial efficiencies. He worked directly with different units within the athletics department on budget management. He also developed risk analyses for long-term budget planning.

Pritzker's business background includes a two-year stint with Credit Suisse First Boston in New York City as a sales analyst where he conducted research and financial analysis for major institutional clients. He also worked for two years for Kingdon Capital Management as an associate. He developed proprietary valuation models to evaluate investments and advised portfolio managers.

A native of Alexandria, Va., Pritzker graduated from Yale in 1999 and received his master's degree from UVa's Darden Graduate School of Business in 2005. He was selected as a Schwartz Research Fellow at Yale, while earning four varsity letters as a coxswain on the rowing team.

While a graduate student, Pritzker was selected as a resident for the Range in the historical Academical Village at UVa on the basis of his academic achievement and service to the University.

VALERIE RICHARDSON
Associate Athletics Director for Sports Programs

Valerie Richardson is in her sixth year as associate director of athletics for sports programs. Her primary area of responsibility is the supervision of multiple sports programs and their head coaches. She participates on various ACC, UVa and departmental committees and has responsibilities in long-range planning and scheduling, policy and procedure development and implementation, and budgeting. Richardson has served as both chair of the NCAA Honors Committee and as a member of the NCAA Minority Opportunities and Interests Committee.

She came to UVa from St. John's University in New York, where she was the associate athletics director for external affairs directing all major fundraising events for the office of athletics development while assisting with annual giving efforts for several programs.

Prior to working at St. John's, Richardson was the associate athletics director/senior woman administrator at Columbia University where she served as a member of the athletics department's executive management team and supervised eight athletics programs. She worked in a similar capacity at the University of California, Santa Barbara, where she supervised 10 sports programs, in addition to the compliance staff, in her role as Associate A.D./SWA.

Richardson spent six years at the West Coast Conference prior to assuming the UCSB position, serving first as Director of Championships and Membership Services before being promoted to Assistant Commissioner/SWA.

A California native, she graduated from Stanford University in 1995 with a degree in psychology. She worked as a media relations assistant at Washington State, and spent one year each as a championships intern with the NCAA and Director of Marketing for MAAC Properties. She is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics and the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletics Administrators.
