The 2013 Virginia lacrosse fact book was prepared by the staff of the UVa Athletics Media Relations office to assist the news media in its coverage of the Cavaliers. Requests for additional information, feature materials and photographs should be made to Melissa Dudek of the athletics media relations office. The UVa Media Relations office is located in John Paul Jones Arena.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All player interviews must be arranged through the UVa Athletics Media Relations Office. It is requested that you allow the staff at least one day, preferably longer, to arrange an interview. Please contact lacrosse SID Melissa Dudek for player interviews at mdudek@virginia.edu or at 434-962-0579.

TWITTER

Follow the Virginia women's lacrosse team on twitter @UVaWomensLax.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

There will be no interviews with players or coaches on the day of a game until after the completion of competition. Following each game, Coach Myers and requested players will be available on the field for interviews after a brief cooling down period.

ON THE WEB

Up-to-date information on Virginia lacrosse, as well as all Virginia varsity sports, is available on the UVa Athletics Department's official web site, virginiasports.com. The site includes the Cavaliers' roster, schedule, results, statistics, player profiles, press releases, game stories and historical information. Game stories and results will be posted on the site following each event. Video highlights and features of Virginia lacrosse can be viewed online at virginiasportstv.com.

PRESS ACCOMMODATIONS

The press area of Klöckner Stadium is located outside the donors box at the top of the stadium, and has many accommodations to assist you in your coverage of Virginia women's lacrosse. Wireless internet is available in the press area for working press. Please check with a representative from the Athletics Media Relations Office when you arrive to obtain a password to access the wireless internet. Use of the phone and copier are permitted, and are provided for the sole purpose of assisting members of the media and school officials. Radio and televisions interested in broadcasting games from Klöckner Stadium should make a request in writing to the Athletics Media Relations Office at least 10 days in advance of the game.

HEAD COACH JULIE MYERS

Head coach Julie Myers, the 2008 ACC Coach of the Year, helped Virginia win the ACC Championship for the fourth time in her career, including the third-straight year, in 2008. In each of her 17 seasons at the helm of the Cavaliers, Myers has guided her team to the NCAA Championships—a feat matched by no other Division I coach in the same period.

In addition, the Cavaliers have reached the finals of the NCAA championships eight times and have played in the title game of the ACC Tournament in nine of the 15 years it has been contested—more than any other team in the conference. It is a remarkable consistency matched by no other Division I coach in the country.

The numbers are staggering. Myers holds a 22-16 record in the NCAA tournament, which ranks third all-time in tournament victories and games coached. She is fourth in semifinal appearances and eighth in win percentage. With Virginia's national championship victory in 2004, Myers became the first person in women's lacrosse history at the NCAA Division I level to win a title as a player and a head coach. Her trip to the title game in 2005 was her third consecutive trip, an achievement reached by only five other coaches in NCAA women's lacrosse history.

In addition, Myers' win over Virginia Tech on April 15, 2005, was her 146th career win, giving her more wins than any other women's lacrosse coach at the University of Virginia. In 2008, Myers brought her career wins total to 200, making her the fourth active coach and sixth coach all-time to reach that milestone. She enters the 2013 campaign with 245 wins, which ranks 10th all-time and fourth among Division I coaches.

A proven winner, Myers enters her 18th year at Virginia with three NCAA titles; one as a player (1991), one as an assistant coach (1993) and one as a head coach (2004). In 1996, she became the first rookie coach to take her squad to the title game and also became the first person to compete for the championship both as a player and as a head coach.

In addition, Myers' .729 winning percentage already sits in the top-15 all-time in winning percentage among coaches.

Yet Myers' contributions include much more than simply winning games. She has already produced eight national players of the year, three national rookies of the year and 11 members of the United States National Lacrosse Squads. Myers has also been a member of the Tewaaron coaches' committee that selects the nation's top lacrosse player.

Cavaliers under her direction have won NCAA Woman of the Year honors, led the nation in both scoring and in defense and have been honored as Tewaaron Trophy finalists. Myers serves on a number of committees for the Intercollegiate Women's Lacrosse Coaches Association (IWLCA) and is an accomplished clinician who has made a number of appearances at camps and association meetings across the country.

The 2010 season saw Kaitlin Duff and Brittany Kalkstein wrap up stellar careers. Myers guided Duff into becoming the second player in program history to reach 100 in five different statistical categories, while Kalkstein broke the ACC and UVa career record for draw controls. She is also ranked eighth on the NCAA's all-time list in the category and was the program's third Tewaaron Trophy finalist.

As a squad, though plagued with injuries, Virginia earned a share of the regular season ACC title, finishing with a 4-1 conference record, and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Tournament.

In 2009, Myers saw Blair Weymouth become the program's second four-time All-American, while in 2008, Claire Bordley was honored as a first-team All-American, marking the 24th-consecutive year the Cavaliers had a first-team honoree. The 2008 Cavaliers also claimed their third-straight ACC Championship and fourth in five years.

The 2007 ACC Championship squad tied a school record with 19 wins, including six-consecutive games in the postseason, and advanced to the NCAA finals for the fourth time in five years. Kalkstein was honored as Virginia's second-consecutive National Rookie of the Year, a testament to Myers' ability to continue to bring in the top talent in the nation.

Virginia returned to the top of the ACC in 1996, as the Cavaliers won the ACC Tournament, thanks to a pair of record-setting performances from MVP Tyler Leachman and Weymouth – the National Rookie of the Year.

Virginia's 2005 season saw the Cavaliers earn their 10th consecutive bid to the NCAA Championships, defeating 10 ranked teams along the way, including two wins over a top-10 Maryland team and three-top five teams. The Cavaliers again claimed a Tewaaron Trophy finalist, and Virginia's offense ranked in the top-10 for a fourth consecutive season.

In 2004, the Cavaliers led the nation for the third consecutive season in scoring offense en route to two tournament championships. Virginia defeated eight top-10 and 13 top-20 teams, including two wins over Maryland while the Terps were ranked in the top three, and defeated four teams who were ranked in the top three at the time. The Cavaliers were led by Amy Appelt, who won the Honda Sports Award, the Tewaaron Trophy, and was the consensus Player of the Year.

The 2003 Cavaliers advanced to the title game yet again, defeating four teams ranked in the top five and 11 top-20 teams in the course of the campaign. The Cavaliers led the nation for a second consecutive year in scoring and ranked second nationally in ground balls pickups. Virginia forged a six-game winning streak midway through the season in which they defeated three top-12 teams, including a victory over then-No. 2 and eventual national champion Princeton. Near the end of the season, the Cavaliers put together a five-game win streak that included a road win over the No. 1 team in the nation and then defeated the No. 5 and No. 2 teams in the NCAA tournament to advance to the final day.

In 2002, the Cavaliers once again led the nation, this time in scoring offense. Myers coached not only the ACC Rookie of the Year but also the national rookie of the year. Two of her players were Tewaaron Trophy finalists, more than any other school. Virginia swept through the ACC regular season, going 3-0 and reaching the No. 3 spot in the nation. The Cavaliers notched victories over eight tournament-bound teams and once again found themselves playing a first-round NCAA game in the friendly confines of Klöckner Stadium.

In 2001, Myers directed the team back into the NCAA tournament after five victories over tournament-bound teams and recorded at least eleven victories for the sixth consecutive year. For the sixth time, the Cavaliers earned the right to host a first-round NCAA playoff game at home, something only two other coaches have done in that span.

In 2000, the Cavaliers defeated 10 ranked teams and advanced to the NCAA Quarterfinals for the fifth consecutive year after earning a home playoff game. Myers' 1999 squad played in a school record 21 games, including the ACC and the NCAA Championships. In 1998, the Cavaliers claimed the ACC women's lacrosse title with a thrilling come-from-behind 9-7 victory. The win was in the midst of a national-best 12-game winning streak that took Virginia to the national title game. The Cavaliers also claimed both the ACC Player of the Year and a National Player of the Year en route to a then-school-record 17 victories in 20 games, a school record at that time. At the conclusion of the season, four members of the 1998 squad were named to the US National Squads and five also received All-America status.

Myers' 1997 team was ranked among the top five all season long and advanced to the finals of the inaugural ACC Championship. The 1997 Cavaliers defeated eight teams ranked in the top 10. Furthermore, the Cavalier defense ended the season ranked in the top four in scoring defense for the second consecutive year.

Myers guided her first team to a 14-4 record in 1996 and the number-two ranking at the end of the season. The Cavaliers returned to the post-season after a one-year hiatus in 1995, the first time in six years that Virginia did not participate in the NCAA tournament. Along the way, she coached the Cavaliers to a six-game winning streak and defeated eight top-15 teams, including two teams ranked second at the time of the game.

Myers served as an assistant on the Cavalier coaching staff from 1992-1994 under Jane Miller. She earned a degree in sociology from Virginia in 1990 and competed as a graduate student in the championship year of 1991. While at UVa, the Bryn Mawr, Pa., native earned a total of seven letters and Regional All-America status in both field hockey and lacrosse. Playing in her final season as a graduate student, Myers was the starting center on the 1991 National Championship team and earned second-team All-America honors. She is the proud mother of three children, Kelsey, Timmy and Kevin.

- Virginia is one of five programs in the NCAA to be ranked at least once in every year of the IWLCA Coaches Poll. The poll was created in 1988, with Dartmouth, Maryland, Penn State and Princeton joining Virginia as the only programs to be nationally ranked every year.
- Of those five programs, Virginia is the only program to be ranked in every week of the coaches poll, a span of 250-straight polls entering the 2013 season.
- Of those 250 polls, the Cavaliers have been ranked among the top-10 in the nation on 223 occasions, the second-most among all NCAA programs. Maryland leads the way with 243 top-10 weekly rankings.
- The Cavaliers have spent 15 weeks ranked No. 1, including the entire 1993 season, en route to the program's second national championship.
- Virginia debuted at No. 7 in the inaugural coaches poll on March 19, 1988. While the Cavaliers have climbed to a No. 1 ranking, the farthest they have ever fallen was to No. 12.
- All 16 of Virginia's 2011 opponents have been nationally ranked at one point throughout the 24-year history of the IWLCA Coaches Poll.
- A total of 49 NCAA women's lacrosse programs have been ranked at one point.
- Virginia has faced 34 of those 47 opponents in its program's history.
