OPENING KICK

UVA OPENS 131ST SEASON OF FOOTBALL

- The University of Virginia opens its 131st season of football Saturday against Duke.
- It is the 90th season the Cavaliers have played in Scott Stadium.
- UVA is 83-38-9 (.673) all-time in season openers.
- The Cavaliers are 76-21-7 (.308) all-time in home season openers and have won 19 of their last 24 season openers in Scott Stadium.
- In his career as a head coach, Bronco Mendenhall is 11-4 in 15 season-openers, including 3-1 at UVA.

NOTING VIRGINIA IN ACC OPENERS

- Virginia begins its 67th season competing in the Atlantic Coast Conference on Saturday.
- Virginia holds a 27-39 all-time record in conference openers.
- This is the sixth time over the last 15 years that Virginia opens ACC play at Scott Stadium. During that span only the 2007 (Duke), 2010 (Florida State), 2014 (Louisville), 2017 (Duke) and 2018 (Louisville) seasons did UVA start ACC play in Charlottesville.

FIVE TOP STORYLINES

- UVA's season opener also serves as its ACC opener for the 19th time in program history. It is the first time since 1993-94 the Cavaliers opened up a season with an ACC opponent in back-to-back years when UVA opened 1993 at Maryland and 1994 at Florida State.
- UVA is opening a season against Duke for the fourth time in program history. Saturday's game breaks a four-way tie among ACC opponents for most season openers against. UVA had previously opened a season three times against Clemson, Maryland and Wake Forest.
- QB Brennan Armstrong will become just the second left-handed quarterback in Virginia history to start a game. He joins fellow southpaw Jameel Sewell, who started 32 career games for the Cavaliers over the 2006, 2007 and 2009 seasons.
- Bronco Mendenhall led UVA to back-to-back-to-back bowls (2017, 2018, 2019) for the first time since the Cavaliers went to four bowl games in a row from 2002 to 2005.
- Mendenhall is 4-0 all-time in ACC openers, including wins over Duke in 2016 and 2017. UVA also topped Louisville in 2018 and Pitt in 2019 ACC openers under Mendenhall. The 2016 UVA win by Mendenhall in his first-ever ACC game (at Duke) marked the first time a UVA coach won his first-ever ACC contest as the Cavalier head coach.

QB Brennan Armstrong will become just the fourth Cavalier to start at QB during the Bronco Mendenhall era. The last 40 UVA games have seen only two different starters at QB, both of which are currently in the NFL (Kurt Benkert, Falcons and Bryce Perkins, Rams).

#TheStandard: BY THE NUMBERS

- 1 A win over the Blue Devils gives UVA season-opening wins in back-to-back years over ACC opponents for the first time in program history.
- 6 The Cavaliers broke a single-season program record with 46 sacks in 2019, which ranked No. 6 in the nation.
- 20 Saturday marks the 20th time in program history UVA has opened ACC play against Duke. The Cavaliers are 9-10 all-time vs. Duke in ACC openers.

VIRGINIA ATHLETICS NEW BRAND IDENTITY

The University of Virginia athletics department introduced this year its new brand identity. The refreshed designs provide updates on a brand rich in history and tradition. The work was developed by Nike's Global Identity Group (GIG) and includes updates to the iconic V-Sabre mark, two new secondary marks, a revised color scheme and the introduction of new typography, numerals and patterns.

Nike's GIG team works with a select number of its sideline partners each year to update the athletics department's brand identity based on the goals provided by the institution. The launch of the new Virginia Athletics brand identity is the culmination of an 18-month collaborative process with Nike that began with discovery sessions with UVA coaches, student-athletes and administrators.

UNIQUELY UVA

The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to UVA's culture.

Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the University dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.

First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why you may ask? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process.

Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES

Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."

Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.

Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos" during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general use around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

THE CAVALIER MASCOT

The costumed Cavalier with a large character head debuted during Virginia's 1984 football season and has remained the official mascot of the University.

The first documented Cavalier on horseback was Francis Bell, a Virginia student from Dublin, Va., in 1947. Bell rode onto the field dressed as Cavaliers for Virginia's home football game with Harvard on the afternoon of October 11.

The Cavalier on horseback returned as the University's mascot in 1963. The UVA Polo Club provided both the horse and rider. However, the mounted Cavalier and his horse parted company in 1974 with the inception of AstroTurf at Scott Stadium.

The mounted Cavalier made its return in the Florida Citrus Bowl at the end of the 1989 football season. Due to its instant popularity, the Cavalier on horseback returned the following season on a regular basis and continues to lead the Virginia football team onto the field at the beginning of all home games.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.

One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

WAH-HOO-WAH

The origin of "Wah-hoo-wah" is uncertain. The cheer was used to root on Virginia teams as early as 1890 and may have been borrowed from Dartmouth College, whose athletics teams were once known as the Indians.

Legend attributes the yell to Natalie Floyd Otey, who sang the ballad "Where'er You Are, There Shall My Love Be" at Charlottesville's Levy Opera House in 1893. The predominantly student audience noticed that Otey warbled the first three words of the song between each of the stanzas and decided to join in the refrain. By evening's end, goes the legend, the crowd had corrupted "Where'er You Are" into "Wah-hoo-wah."

The Levy Opera House stands at the corner of High Street and Park Street and has since been renovated into an office building.

VIRGINIA VS. DUKE

- Virginia leads the series with Duke by a 38-33 margin.
- Saturday marks the first time UVA has hosted Duke in back-to-back seasons since 1976 and 1977, both Cavalier losses.
- During UVA's current five-game winning streak, Duke has committed 18 turnovers to Virginia's seven. Nine of those 18 turnovers were interceptions thrown by current New York Giants' quarterback Daniel Jones. Nine of his 29 career interceptions thrown at Duke came against the Cavaliers.
- Virginia's 42-34 victory over Duke at Scott Stadium in 2015 snapped a three-game winning streak in the series by the Blue Devils and commenced UVA's current four-game winning streak. UVA's 34-20 win at Wallace Wade Stadium in 2016 preceded the Cavaliers' 28-21 win in Charlottesville in 2017, which was followed by last year's 28-14 triumph in Durham.
- After UVA won eight games in a row in the series from 2000-07, Duke has won six of the last 12 meetings.
- At one time Duke had a 12-game advantage in the series, but by winning 27 of the last 37 meetings since 1982, UVA now leads the all-time series by five wins over the Blue Devils.

OFFENSE TYPICALLY EXCELS VS. BLUE DEVILS

- The Cavaliers have put up some impressive offensive performances against Duke in recent games.
- Virginia has scored at least 30 points in 20 of the last 37 meetings against the Blue Devils and topped 40 points eight times.
- In the last 30 games, UVA has outscored Duke, 912-539 (avg of 30.40-17.87).
- The 2011 meeting between UVA and Duke at Scott Stadium marked one of the Cavaliers' six UVA victories in the last 12 meetings. UVA scored 17 third-quarter points in the win, including a Chase Minnifield pick-six and a Perry Jones one-yard rushing touchdown.
- In the 2010 meeting at Wallace Wade Stadium, Virginia's 48 points were the most scored in a UVA loss and there were 103 combined points between the two teams – at the time it was the second-highest combined total in ACC history.
- Former UVA quarterback Marc Verica set the then-school record for passing yards in a game with 417, which has been surpassed twice by Kurt Benkert. In 2016, Benkert first broke the record with 421 passing yards against Central Michigan and broke his own record in 2017 with 455 passing yards against UConn.
- The 417 passing yards in the 2010 meeting also stood as a school team record for passing yards until UVA broke the record with 480 team passing yards in the 2012 meeting with Louisiana Tech.
- When Duke came to UVA in 2015, the Cavaliers held on late for a 42-34 triumph.
- Matt Johns passed for a career-high 344 yards and two touchdowns as Virginia held off a late Duke rally to win 42-34.

Virginia 48, Duke 14
Oct. 19, 2019 • Charlottesville, Va.

Last Meeting

Virginia scored the first 27 points of the game to top Duke, 48-14, at Scott Stadium the last time these teams met.

All five of Virginia's touchdowns came on the ground as the Cavaliers rushed for 154 yards. Quarterback Bryce Perkins scored three times while running back Wayne Taulapapa added two rushing scores. The Cavaliers finished with 307 total yards while possessing the ball for 34:29 of game clock.

Virginia forced five Duke turnovers, three fumbles and two interceptions, and scored 20 points off those miscues. The defense added five tackles for loss and seven pass breakups.

Perkins hurdled a defender on 3rd-and-goal to put Virginia on the board with 11:10 to play in the second quarter. After Duke failed to convert on fourth down at its own 34, Perkins' second touchdown run of the day made it 17-0 Virginia at the half.

On the first play of the second half, Charles Snowden recovered a Duke fumble, leading to a 33-yard Brian Delaney field goal. Virginia made it 27-straight points as Taulapapa capped an eight-play, 70-yard drive with a three-yard touchdown run at the 8:13 mark of the third.

Duke broke through on a 36-yard pass from Quentin Harris to Scott Bracey. Virginia answered immediately when Joe Reed took the ensuing kickoff back 95-yards for the score. After Virginia's defense forced the second Duke fumble of the third quarter, Perkins extended the Cavalier lead to 41-7 with his third touchdown run of the day. Taulapapa added a nine-yard run for Virginia's final score of the day.

- Virginia is coming off its first ACC Coastal championship in 2019, becoming the seventh different ACC Coastal team to play in the ACC Championship game in seven seasons.
- The Cavaliers earned their first-ever Orange Bowl berth and first-ever "New Year's Six" Bowl invite, facing the No. 6 Florida Gators in South Florida.

BRONCO MENDENHALL LED VIRGINIA TO BACK-TO-BACK-TO BACK BOWLS

- After playing in the Military Bowl in 2017 and the Belk Bowl in 2018, Bronco Mendenhall led Virginia to back-to-back-to-back bowls in 2019 for the first time since 2003, 2004 and 2005 after the Cavaliers earned a Orange Bowl invite.
- Mendenhall's Cavalier squad shutout South Carolina, 28-0, in the 2018 Belk Bowl to give UVA its first bowl victory since the 2005 Music City Bowl. UVA's shutout performance was the first over an SEC team in a bowl game by a non-SEC team since the 1975 Gator Bowl.

BRONCO MENDENHALL IS IN SPECIAL COMPANY

- Bronco Mendenhall is one of two active coaches that has inherited at least two programs in his career that were coming off a losing season and in year one, or year two, played in a bowl game. The other to do it is Nick Saban (Alabama, LSU, Michigan State).
- Mendenhall inherited a BYU team that went 5-6 in 2004 and in his first season the Cougars went 6-6 and played in the 2005 Las Vegas Bowl. Mendenhall took over a Virginia team that went 4-8 in 2015 and took the Cavaliers to the 2017 Military Bowl in year No. 2, finishing 6-7.

UVA QUARTERBACKS IN THEIR FIRST-CAREER START

- QB Brennan Armstrong was named the starting quarterback by Bronco Mendenhall on Aug. 27. He is the third opening-day starting quarterback under Bronco Mendenhall, joining Kurt Benkert (2016-17) and Bryce Perkins (2018-19).
- Armstrong is the first left-handed starting QB at UVA since Jameel Sewell (2006, 2007, 2009).
- Armstrong enrolled at UVA in January 2018 and backed up Perkins the last two seasons, saving his redshirt season in 2018 under the NCAA participation rules.
- Armstrong will be the 13th different UVA starting quarterback to start an opener in the last 16 seasons. The list includes: Bryce Perkins (2018-19), Kurt Benkert (2016-17), Matt Johns (2015), Greyson Lambert (2014), David Watford (2013), Michael Rocco (2011-12), Marc Verica (2010), Vic Hall (2009), Peter Lalich (2008), Jameel Sewell (2007), Christian Olsen (2006) and Marques Hagans (2005).

UVA QUARTERBACKS IN THEIR FIRST-CAREER START

- QB Brennan Armstrong is making his first collegiate start on Saturday at Scott Stadium.
- Armstrong would need 116 passing yards to pass Jameel Sewell (115, at GT, 2006) for most passing yards by a UVA left-handed QB in a first career start.
- Since 1955, 20 Virginia quarterbacks have passed for at least 150 yards in their first-career start. Here is a breakdown of the most passing yards by a Virginia QB in their first-ever start:

- UVA set a single-season record with 46 sacks in 2019, which ranked No. 6 in the nation.
- Of the 46 sacks in 2019 by Cavaliers, 27 were done by linebackers.
- Returning in 2019 and leading the way is OLB Noah Taylor who finished 2019 with 57 tackles, 13.5 TFL, 7.0 sacks, 2 INT, 4 PBU, 1 FF and 1 punt block. His 7.0 sacks was No. 2 among ACC linebackers in 2019, second to former UVA teammate Jordan Mack (Carolina Panthers).
- Taylor was one of three FBS players with 2+ INTs and 7+ sacks in 2019 and the only one returning to college football in 2020.
- Also back in the fold is OLB Charles Snowden, who was an honorable mention All-ACC honoree in 2019 after finishing with 72 tackles, 11 tackles for loss, 5.0 sacks, four pass breakups and one fumble recovery.
- Snowden was named the Walter Camp National Defensive Player of the Week after leading all players with 15 tackles, 3.5 tackles for loss and 2.0 sacks in a win over Old Dominion in 2019.
- In 2018, Snowden led the nation's linebackers with nine pass breakups and 11 passes defended. Snowden has been named to the Bednarik, Nagurski and Butkus preseason watch lists.
- Also returning is Zane Zandier, who led the Cavaliers with 108 tackles in 2019. He also added 12.5 tackles for loss and 5.0 sacks.
- Zandier intercepted his first career pass in the third quarter against ODU and returned it 22 yards for a touchdown last year. It is the second UVA interception by a linebacker in 2019 (Matt Gahm at Pitt). Zandier also snatched the INT with a cast on one hand.
- Zandier's INT is the first pick-six by a UVA linebacker since Byron Thweatt returned an interception 53 yards against Virginia Tech in 1998.

VIRGINIA RETURNS A SEASONED OFFENSIVE LINE

- Virginia returns all its starting offensive linemen from 2019 and the unit boasts 115 career starts at the position, which is No. 1 in the ACC and No. 3 in the FBS.
- Looking at UVA's top returning career starts, the top three returning players with most career offensive starts are all offensive linemen (Dillon Reinkensmeyer, 37; Ryan Nelson, 27; Chris Glaser, 22).
- Below is a list of the schools entering the 2020 season with at least 100+ career starts returning on the offensive line:

School	Career Starts Entering 2020
1. Minnesota	126
2. Marshall	123
3. Virginia	115
BYU	115
5. Notre Dame	109
6. Texas A&M	107
7. Nebraska	106
8. Western Kentucky	102

A RARE OFFENSIVE LINE FEAT COULD HAPPEN IN 2020

- Virginia fifth-year offensive lineman Dillon Reinkensmeyer has started a game at four of the five offensive line positions, needing at least one start at left guard to become the only FBS player to accomplish this feat in research dating back to the start of the 2010 season.
- Reinkensmeyer owns 21 starts at center, 12 starts at right tackle, two starts at right guard and two starts at left tackle.
- Reinkensmeyer's 37 career starts are top on the UVA offense.
- Research has found a number of players who started at center, and at guard and a tackle position over their careers prior to 2010, but no confirmations of all five.

TAULAPAPA LEADS RUNNING BACK CORPS INTO 2020

- Junior running back Wayne Taulapapa returns after starting 11 games in 2019. He notched 473 rushing yards and 12 touchdowns in his first season as the featured running back. His 12 rushing touchdowns are the most-ever by a UVA sophomore. Taulapapa also rushed for the most TDs since Keith Payne scored 14 in 2010.
- Taulapapa's 12 rushing touchdowns ranked No. 4 in the ACC in 2019.
- Taulapapa is a member of the 2016 recruiting class, but did not enroll until 2018 after serving a two-year LDS mission to Managua, Nicaragua.
- The native of Laie, Hawaii attended Punahou High School in Honolulu. Taulapapa's roundtrip to high school each day was an average of 3.5 hours (1:45 one way) on the road.
- UVA also welcomes Towson grad transfer, Shane Simpson, to the fold in 2020. Simpson is a 2018 FCS All-American that recorded 1,925 career rushing yards and 13 touchdowns as a running backs for the Tigers.
- Walk-on Perris Jones, who has seen all his time at kick return entering 2020, could find himself in the mix as well. Jones was a three-time first-team all-state running back at Episcopal High School in Alexandria, Va.
- UVA also welcomed Ronnie Walker Jr. to the roster in 2020, a transfer from Indiana. Walker is currently awaiting an appeal from the NCAA for immediate eligibility. Walker has two years of eligibility left for the Cavaliers. The Hopewell, Va., native appeared in 22 career games for the Hoosiers during the 2018 and 2019 seasons. He rushed 59 times for 221 yards and two touchdowns in his IU career.

FOURTEEN CAVALIERS FROM KEY POSITIONS OWN 30+ CAREER GAMES PLAYED

- Entering 2020, 14 different Cavaliers have appeared in at least 30 career games at Virginia.
- Richard Burney leads the way with 41 games played. De'Vante Cross and Brian Delaney are second with 40 games played. Terrell Jana (39), Joey Blount (38), Nick Grant (38), Zane Zandier (38), Nash Griffin (37), Charles Snowden (37), Mandy Alonso (34), Matt Gahm (34), Brenton Nelson (34) Chris Glaser (32) and Elliott Brown (31) all have appeared in at least 30 career games for UVA.

DELANEY HAS NATION'S LONGEST FIELD GOAL MADE STREAK

- Senior Brian Delaney has made 13-straight field goals, a streak that ranks No. 1 in the nation among active streaks.
- Delaney's streak started on Oct. 11, 2019 at Miami when he made three field goals in a row after missing his first attempt of the game.

Player, School	Field Goal Streak
1. Brian Delaney, Virginia	13
Hunter Duplessis, UTSA	13
3. Christopher Dunn, NC State	12
4. Parker White, South Carolina	10

NASH GRIFFIN RETURNS DEFERS JOB AT WELLS FARGO TO COME BACK AND PUNT

- Punter Nash Griffin returns for his fifth year after graduating with a degree in finance. Griffin was offered a investing banking job with Wells Fargo in San Francisco, but was able to defer for a year in order to finish his Virginia career.
- Griffin set UVA bowl records with longest punt (70) and best punting average (48.2) against Florida in the 2019 Orange Bowl.
- Griffin spent two years backing up former first-team All-ACC punter Lester Coleman (2017-18) and punted for the first time in 2019. He finished with a 41.9 yards per punt average with 24 going inside the 20 and six that went 50+ yards. Griffin is also the primary holder for Virginia.
- Griffin was high school basketball teammates at Lawrence Central High School in Indianapolis, Ind., with Kyle Guy, the 2019 NCAA Tournament's Most Outstanding Player from Virginia.
- Griffin was roommates for three years at UVA with Kyle Guy before he was drafted (and married) in the second round of the 2019 NBA Draft by the Sacramento Kings.

UVA PASSING GAME UNDER BRONCO MENDENHALL

- Five of the top eight single-game passing contests from a quarterback standpoint have happened during the head coach Bronco Mendenhall and offensive coordinator Robert Anae's tenure at UVA (2016-pres.).
- Kurt Benkert, the starting quarterback in 2016 and 2017 owns the No. 1 (455, vs. UConn, 2017), No. 2 (421, vs. Central Michigan, 2016) and No. 6 (384, at Miami, 2017) spots. Bryce Perkins, the starting quarterback in 2018 and 2019 has the No. 7 spot (379, vs. Ohio, 2018) and No. 8 spot (378, at UNC, 2019).
- Virginia also amassed 5,445 yards of total offense in 2019, marking the sixth time in program history a Cavalier team recorded over 5,000 yards in a single season. The 2019 season marked the second-best output in program history (1990, 5,516) and only the second time a Cavalier team tallied 5,000+ yards of total offense in back-to-back seasons after notching 5,033 total yards in 2018.
- Only ten times in program history has a UVA quarterback thrown for 20+ touchdowns in a season and five of those times have happened in the past five seasons: 2015 (Matt Johns, 20); 2016 (Kurt Benkert, 21); 2017 (Kurt Benkert, 25); 2018 (Bryce Perkins, 25); 2019 (Bryce Perkins, 22).

"BREAKING THE ROCK"

"Breaking the Rock," has also become a tradition in UVA football, started in 2018 by Shawn Griswold, the team's director of football development and performance. It represents how you move a mountain, one rock at a time. The hardest worker during summer workouts is awarded the honor of swinging the sledgehammer and breaking the designated rock to close the summer phase. After a Cavalier win, the "unofficial player of the game" breaks the rock for that week. Below is the collection of Cavaliers to Break the Rock since the tradition began. Griswold started the tradition while at Tulsa and also included it at Pitt and Arizona State.

SCOTT STADIUM, HOME OF THE CAVALIERS

The Carl Smith Center, home of David A. Harrison III Field at Scott Stadium, with its unique architectural design, scenic setting on the University's Grounds and exceptional sight lines, is one of the nation's finest college football settings.

Opened in 1931, Scott Stadium might be one of the oldest campus college football stadiums in the nation, but you could never tell from its appearance. Numerous upgrades and expansions make it a modern home for the Cavaliers and their fans.

Scott Stadium was the gift of Frederic William Scott and Elisabeth Strother Scott, and was dedicated to the memory of his parents, Frederic Robert Scott and Frances Branch Scott.

Virginia played its dedication game at Scott Stadium on Oct. 15, 1931 against the Virginia Military Institute before a then-capacity crowd of 22,000. Prior to that season, the Cavaliers staged their home games at the University's Lambeth Field.

Virginia has played 477 games in the historic venue. UVA's all-time record at Scott Stadium stands at 272-193-12.

Bronco Mendenhall

Head Coach • Fifth Season

Since arriving at Virginia for the 2016 season, head coach Bronco Mendenhall's impact on the Cavalier program has been immense. From a two-win season, to the ACC's Coastal Division Championship and a New Year's Six bowl invitation, Virginia football's ascent has both remarkable and historic.

Mendenhall came to Charlottesville after a highly successful 11-year career at BYU with a vision and a plan of execution for the daunting renovation project he faced. He has masterfully crafted principles and culture, and instilled pride and purpose, leading to a standard of unbroken growth in just four seasons.

Having a plan and being able to execute a strategic approach to achieving results have been mission critical to Mendenhall's formula for success.

"Teams and organizations are perfectly designed to get the results that they get,"

Mendenhall is fond of saying regarding both successes and failures. His pursuit of

"unbroken growth" centers around learning, applying and improving on tools, frameworks, networks, innovation and processes that deliver those results. His ultimate goal is more expansive than building a great football organization. He strives to build great people.

On-field success is just part of the story Mendenhall has scripted at Virginia. He is a powerful believer in balance, which he frequently sums up with one simple word ... AND. It has become the calling card for the UVA football program.

"I think decisions are made based on principle, and I think principles are governed by beliefs," Mendenhall said. "AND is one of our guiding principles, and that is based on my belief that football is a vehicle to develop people."

At his introductory press conference, Mendenhall stressed that he wanted students AND athletes and believed that combination was achievable, especially at an institution such as Virginia that ranks among the top three public universities in the nation. Since that time, he has not compromised his approach to achieving those means. More importantly, his teams have bought in on the concepts with great enthusiasm and demonstrated they can do so while also being successful on the field.

"I would love to win a national championship," Mendenhall said. "I'd love to develop a great program here.

But what I would really love is for every kid in my program to have an amazing life."

In the world of big-time football, Mendenhall's philosophy is unconventional, but that doesn't faze him.

"I'm looking for the complete development of everyone in our program – and winning," he said. "One is not at the expense of the other. I think they go hand-in-hand, and winning, without the other, would be hollow to me."

Under Mendenhall, the UVA program has progressed from two to six to eight to nine wins. Achievements and recognitions on the field, in the classroom and around the community have exponentially increased as well.

In 2019, UVA placed 10 players on the ACC All-Academic team, the most in the program's history. Linebacker

Jordan Mack was named the ACC's Jim Tatum Award winner as the league's top football scholar-athlete and was a finalist for the William B. Campbell Trophy, known in the sport as the "academic Heisman." Linebacker Micah Kiser, now a member of the Los Angeles Rams, won the award in 2017.

Giving back has become a cornerstone of Virginia football. Players frequently visit the University's Children's Medical Center and speak at local elementary schools. The team's Thursday's Heroes program has been recognized for its efforts to honor individuals across the state of Virginia who are dealing with personal adversity. In 2020, the ACC honored the Thursday's Heroes program with its "Game Changers" award, which recognizes and highlights specific conference teams' involvement with their local communities.

"I'm in pursuit, and we're in pursuit as a football program, of both of those things, and without compromising our expectations for one or the other," Mendenhall said. "I want good young people. I'm talking about morals, values, character, behavior and contribution to the world. And I want a great team. I know it sounds idealistic, but I would not coach football if I did not think it could be done, and I would not coach at Virginia if I did not think there was support for doing it that way."

Mendenhall's pursuit of individual growth is only magnified by the success his teams have also achieved on the field. His name appears often when the accolades of college football's leading active coaches are charted.

"To me, football is just a magical and powerful platform to have motivated learners, and I get to teach life lessons through the sport of football," Mendenhall said. "The trophies, the wins, they're necessary for job security and the world makes a big deal of that. But it is hollow without the substance. Relationships are everything. Other than that, it would just be a game, and that does not sound quite meaningful enough to me."

DID YOU KNOW?

- When offensive coordinator Robert Anae finished playing football, he returned home to Hawaii and served as the body model for the towering stature of the father of surfing, Duke Kahanamoku, a five-time Olympian.
- The statue, created by artist Jan Fisher, is right next to the famous Waikiki Beach. Anae was a graduate assistant at Hawaii at the time and the artist needed a model, a surfer that was tall, and he went looking for the tallest surfer on the North Shore.
- Head coach Bronco Mendenhall has at least one career win against all 10 of the current FBS conferences.
- Virginia sophomore defensive tackle Jowon Briggs plays 10 instruments and sings. Briggs can play the guitar, bass guitar, piano, violin, viola, cello, stand-up bass, saxophone, flute and clarinet. Briggs is part of the choir at UVA.
- WR Terrell Jana taught himself to play the piano by watching YouTube videos in his spare time at Woodberry Forest. He originally started to learn a song to surprise his mom and ended up enjoying it so much he kept up the self-study. The song Jana set out to learn to play for his mom was Brian McKnight's "Crazy Love."
- DL Samson Reed's father, Tanoai, played offensive line at Hawaii from 1991-94. Reed's dad, Tanoai, is the cousin of Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson and works as his Hollywood stunt double.
- Virginia has three players on its roster who are the sons of former Cavalier football players. Joey Blount (Tony Blount), Tucker Finkelston (Tim Finkelston) and Andrew Yavinsky (Marc Yavinsky).
- WR Jalen Harrison came to Virginia to play baseball and was part of the 2017 and 2018 squads, appearing in 25 career games. The outfielder's first career hit was a home run against La Salle.
- S Vinnie Vlado's father, Larry Vlado, was college football teammates at Oregon State with UVA head coach Bronco Mendenhall in 1986 and 1987.
- PK Justin Duenkel's aunt, Virginia Duenkel, won Olympic gold in the 400 freestyle and the bronze in the 400 backstroke at the 1964 Olympics in Tokyo.
- OL Zachary Teter is the son of Doug Teter, the head athletic trainer for the Detroit Tigers.
