FIRST SERVE

LAST TIME OUT

- A short-handed Virginia squad fell 3-0 to No. 14 Duke on Oct. 2
- The Cavaliers were without five players in the match and an additional injury in Friday's match forced the cancellation of the third match against Duke and both North Carolina matches
- Grace Turner made her return from an ACL injury in the second match of the 2019 season, racking up 12 kills and nine digs against the Blue Devils
- Veteran middle blocker Milla Ciprian missed a second-consecutive match to open the season, forcing Christine Jarman to once again play in the middle

MOREY'S BIG DEBUT

- Very few freshmen have made a debut like libero Madison Morey turned in against The Citadel
- Morey's 20 digs were the most by a freshman since 2010 when Emily Rottman eclipsed the mark in a four-set match
- The 20 digs were the most by any freshman in a three-setter since 2004 when Melissa Caldwell last etched the mark
- Caldwell and Rottman rank first and third, respectively, in UVA history in career digs

AARON SMITH

HEAD COACH | THIRD SEASON

Smith is entering his fourth year as head coach and ninth overall with the Cavaliers in 2020.

The 2019 season, Smith's third at the helm of the Cavaliers, saw Virginia improve its win total for a third consecutive season. Virginia's 13 victories marked the most for the program since 2015, despite four starters having seasons cut short by injuries. The Cavaliers also swept rival Virginia Tech in the season series for the first time since 2013.

In his second season leading the Cavaliers, Smith guided the program's first victory over North Carolina since 2008. Virginia improved its hitting percentage on the offensive side while also posting the lowest opponent hitting percentage since 2010. In his first season as head coach in 2017, Smith guided outside hitter Sarah Billiard to an ACC All-Freshman recognition. Billiard averaged 2.84 kills per set, the ninth-highest mark by a Virginia freshman.

The following year, another freshman excelled under Smith's tutelage as Milla Ciprian set the Virginia freshman record with 1.35 blocks per set in 2018. Ciprian became just the fourth freshman to ever record 100 total blocks. She also set a school record for blocks in a five-set match with 13 against Boston College.

On the recruiting trail, Smith's 2019 signing class included four members on the AVCA Under Armour High School All-America rosters. The class boasts the third-most High School All-Americans in the country.

Smith was named the head coach of the Virginia volleyball program in February 2017 after serving as associate head coach for one season and assistant coach for four seasons. During that span, Smith helped guide UVA to three-straight winning seasons for the first time since 2006-08.

Smith was honored with the AVCA Thirty Under 30 award in 2013 as one of the country's up-and-coming coaching talents under the age of 30.

In his time with the Cavaliers, UVA has seen improvement in numerous areas. Three players have joined the 1,000 kills club, with Haley Kole finishing her career ranked fourth all-time with 1,457 kills. Under his tutelage, Jasmine Burton earned AVCA All-East Coast Region Honorable Mention and All-ACC Second Team honors as a senior and was the ACC Freshman of the Year in 2013.

With Smith at the helm, Natalie Bausback finished her Virginia career with 1,074 kills (13th) and 409 total blocks (8th). Anna Walsh played her freshman season under Smith's guidance, earning ACC Freshman of the Week honors four times and being named the AVCA All-East Coast Region Rookie of the Year after totaling 301 kills with a team-best .354 hitting percentage and 100 blocks (4th among UVA freshmen).

As a team, Smith was part of guiding UVA to its best non-conference record (8-3 in 2015) since 2006 and a 10-3 record at home with six-straight wins to begin the season. UVA also ended a 17-match losing streak to Duke with a 3-1 win on the road. In 2014, UVA opened the season 6-0 for the first time since 2003.

Smith also saw the Cavaliers receive eight All-ACC honors, four AVCA All-Region honors, ACC Freshman of the Year and four players named to the All-ACC Freshman Team.
