1915 All-American

William Strickling starred at center on three of the greatest Virginia teams of the head coach "Pop" Lannigan era (1905-29). Lettering from 1914-16, Strickling helped lead UVA to the best three-year winning percentage in school history (.920, 40-3-1).

In 1915, Strickling became the first Virginia basketball player to earn first-team All-America distinction after leading the team to a perfect 17-0 record. He averaged 17.8 points per game that season as a member of Virginia's "Famous Five" starting lineup and scored the winning foul shot in a 30-29 overtime victory over North Carolina in Raleigh, N.C.

Strickling captained the 1916 squad, which posted an 11-2 record. Virginia's 21-11 loss to Catholic in the fourth game of the season snapped a 22-game winning streak.

During Strickling's first season at Virginia in 1914, UVA compiled a 12-1-1 record and captured the South Atlantic Championship. Executing Lannigan's sophisticated pattern offense to precision, Virginia averaged 50.9 points a game that season and tallied 60 or more points on five occasions. No Virginia team would surpass the 1914 squad's offensive production until the 1946 Cavaliers averaged 54 points per game.

He is one of two Cavaliers to receive the Everett Case Award as the ACC Tournament’s Most Valuable Player, following Virginia’s upset of three nationally-ranked teams Walker’s scoring average of 22.1 points during the 1975-76 season ranks as the sixth best in UVA history and his 1,849 career points rank seventh on the all-time Cavalier list.

A two-time All-American, the 6-6 guard helped lead the Cavaliers to the NIT championship in 1980 and a berth in the 1981 NCAA Final Four. Virginia opened the 1980-81 campaign with 23 consecutive wins before finishing with a 29-4 mark. Lamp earned Most Valuable Player honors in the NCAA East Regional that year and was an All-Tournament selection at the NCAA Final Four in Philadelphia, Pa.

One of the most heralded cagers of all time, Ralph Sampson dominated the collegiate game during his four-year career from 1980-83.

including the Final Four in 1981. In addition, the Sampson-led Cavaliers won 112 of 135 games and were ranked in the Top 10 by The Associated Press for 49 consecutive weeks.

The three-time National and ACC Player of the Year also left his mark in the UVA record books.
