HEAD COACH SARA O'LEARY

SARA
O'LEARY

Fourth Season

Sara O'Leary is in her fourth season as the head coach of the Virginia women's tennis program.

O'Leary continued to lead the Virginia program back to prominence as the Cavaliers reached a season-high ranking of ninth in the Oracle/ITA Rankings in the 2019-20 campaign. In a shortened season, Virginia posted a 10-5 record that included a 3-3 mark in the ACC as the Cavaliers faced 11 teams ranked in the top 25 and six wins over those opponents. Included in that group was a win at No. 3 NC State which was only the program's fifth win over a top-five opponent in program history.

During the 2019-20 campaign, O'Leary coached freshman Natasha Subhash to a top-10 singles rankings and the ITA Atlantic Championship in singles. Subhash also advanced to the semifinals at the Oracle/ITA Masters tournament and the second round at the ITA All-American Championship. Four players were nationally-ranked in singles when the season was halted and six different players had appeared in the singles rankings throughout the year. Three doubles teams also appeared in the rankings at season's end, with the pairing of Sofia Munera and Amber O'Dell taking a runner-up finish at the ITA Atlantic Regional.

Last season, her second at the helm of the program, O'Leary led the Cavaliers back to the second round of the NCAA Tournament with an 18-9 record, while coaching Meghan Kelley to All-ACC First Team honors. She also coached Kelley to an berth in the NCAA singles championship and Kelley and freshman Sofia Munera to a berth in the NCAA doubles championship. Five players were named ITA Scholar Athletes for the season, while Kelley and Munera were named to the ACC Women's Tennis All-Academic Team.

In her first season at the helm of the program (2017-18), O'Leary guided the Cavaliers to an impressive turnaround as she took Virginia back to the NCAA Tournament for the 18th time in program history. Virginia advanced to the second round of the tournament and posted a 16-9 record with the same roster that missed the post-season the year before her arrival. She also coached Rosie Johanson and Meghan Kelley to All-ACC honors. Johanson was selected to compete in the NCAA Singles Championships, while she and Johanson were selected as a pair to compete in the NCAA Doubles Championship.

O'Leary joined the Cavaliers after a three year stint as the head coach at Davidson. She took over the Davidson program in July of 2014 and guided the Wildcats to three consecutive winning seasons. Her team finished 12-10 in 2015, 18-5 in 2016 and 15-6 last season. She was named the Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year after the Wildcats reached the conference finals during her second season. During her time at Davidson, players she coached received all-conference honors 10 times.

"I am extremely excited to welcome Sara to UVA Tennis," Virginia director of tennis

Andres Pedrosa said at the time of her hiring. "Sara exemplifies all the coaching and leadership qualities we need to implement an unparalleled level of collaboration between our men's and women's tennis programs. Sara has shown to be a proven winner at the highest levels of collegiate tennis as both a player and as a coach but her greatest gift is her ability to connect, relate and build life-long relationships with her student-athletes. I am really looking forward to working together with Sara to make sure our student-athletes have a world-class experience at the University of Virginia."

Like Pedrosa, O'Leary has also been directly involved with USTA Player Development, as a coach for the USTA Collegiate National Team in the summer of 2015. During these three months, she coached and mentored some of the nation's top collegiate players including Jamie Loeb and Brooke Austin, who finished the 2015 season nationally-ranked No. 3 and No. 4, respectively.

Prior to taking over the Davidson program, O'Leary was an assistant coach at North Carolina, her alma mater, from August of 2008 to June of 2014. During her six years as assistant coach, O'Leary helped the Tar Heels reach the NCAA Tournament each year, including the 2014 season when UNC reached its first national championship match before falling to UCLA 4-3.

In addition to capturing the 2014 Atlantic Coast Conference regular season title and finishing third in the ITA national rankings, the Tar Heels posted a 29-6 record, which was one win shy of the program record set in 2010. O'Leary also coached four players in 2014 that received All-American honors, including Loeb, the No. 1 player in the country.

The Tar Heels won the 2013 ITA Indoor Team Championship and finished the season ranked No. 4 nationally, while Loeb won the 2013 ITA All American tournament and the 2013 ITA National Indoor tournament. That year, O'Leary helped North Carolina recruit one of the nation's top classes.

O'Leary earned ITA Carolina Region Assistant Coach of the Year honors during the 2009-10 campaign, when the Tar Heels advanced to the national semifinals for the first time in school history. UNC finished with a school-record 30 wins and an ACC-record 11-0 mark in league play.

In 2011, O'Leary was named ITA National Assistant Coach of the Year after North Carolina won its first ACC title in nine years and reached the quarterfinals of the NCAA Championships.

O'Leary, who played at North Carolina under her maiden name of Anundsen, earned All-America honors in 2006 and 2007, and helped lead the Tar Heels to a pair of Sweet 16 and an Elite Eight appearances. During her senior season, she combined with Jenna Long to win the 2007 NCAA doubles title - the first national championship in UNC program history. They were named the ITA National Doubles Team of the Year. O'Leary reached the semifinals of the NCAA doubles championship as a junior in 2006.

O'Leary graduated from UNC with a degree in management and society in 2007. She twice was named to the Dean's List and earned ACC Honor Roll honors three times, while being named to the ACC All-Academic Team twice. During her senior year, she was named to the CoSIDA Academic All-District III team.

Following her graduation, O'Leary began her coaching career as an assistant at Princeton during the 2007-08 campaign. That year she helped the Tigers land the nation's top-ranked recruiting class.

A native of Littleton, Colo., she was named to the Colorado Tennis Hall of Fame as part of the Class of 2015 in January. She was also a three-time state singles champion while playing for Columbine High School. She and her husband, Tom, have one son.

ASSISTANT COACH GINA SUAREZ-MALAGUTI

GINA
SUAREZ-MALAGUTI

Fourth Season

Gina Suarez-Malaguti, an All-American and the 2013 ACC Player of the Year, is in her fourth season with the Virginia women's tennis program.

In her third season with the program, Suarez-Malaguti helped the program to a season-high ranking of ninth in the Oracle/ITA Rankings as the team went 10-5 in a shortened season that saw 11 matches against top-25 competition with six victories against those foes. Included in those matches was a win at No. 3 NC State, only the program's fifth over a top-five team and the first since the 2015-16 season. She helped coach freshman Natasha Subhash to a top-10 singles ranking and the singles title at the ITA Atlantic Regional. Subhash also advanced to the semifinals of the Oracle/ITA Masters.

In her second season with the program, she helped lead the Cavaliers to an 18-9 record on the way to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Meghan Kelley earned All-ACC First Team honors and a berth in the NCAA singles championship, while Kelley and Sofia Munera earned a berth in the NCAA doubles championship. Both players were named to the ACC Women's Tennis All-Academic Team, while five players were named ITA Scholar Athletes.

In her first season with the program (2017-18), she helped the Cavaliers to an impressive turnaround as she took Virginia back to the NCAA Tournament for the 18th time in program history. Virginia advanced to the second round of the tournament and posted a 16-9 record with the same roster that missed the post-season the year before her arrival. She also coached Rosie Johanson and Meghan Kelley to All-ACC honors. Johanson was selected to compete in the NCAA Singles Championships, while she and Johanson were selected as a pair to compete in the NCAA Doubles Championship.

Suarez-Malaguti joined the Cavalier coaching staff after spending the previous three seasons as an assistant coach at NC State where she helped the Wolfpack sign back-to-back top 25 recruiting classes in 2015 and 2016.

In her three seasons at NC State, Suarez-Malaguti helped build the program as the Wolfpack completed the best season in school history in 2017. Last year, NC State reached the highest ranking in school history at No. 16 in the Oracle/ITA Team Rankings and a final ranking of No. 26. Suarez-Malaguti also helped the Wolfpack advance a doubles team into the Round of 16 at the NCAA championships.

Prior to joining the staff at NC State, Suarez-Malaguti spent the 2014 season as an assistant coach at Maryland. That season, she helped the Terrapins break back into the national rankings for the first time in two years.

A four-year letterwinner at North Carolina from 2010-13 while O'Leary was an assistant coach, Suarez-Malaguti earned All-America honors as a senior and she was named the 2013 ACC Player of the Year. She was also named the ITA Regional Player of the Year that season, as she maintained a top 10 national-ranking in singles the entire year and reached a season-best ranking of No. 4. Suarez-Malaguti played the top spot in the singles lineup in 2013 and helped the Tar Heels advance to the Elite Eight at the NCAA championships and capture the ITA National Team Indoor Championship.

Suarez-Malaguti played a part in North Carolina's ACC regular season championship in 2010 and runner-up finish in the ACC championships. During her sophomore season, the Tar Heels captured the ACC Championship and reached the national semifinals at the NCAA championships.

TYSON THOMAS

Volunteer Assistant Coach Second Season

Tyson Thomas is in his second season as a volunteer assistant coach with the Virginia women's tennis program. He joins the Cavaliers after a collegiate playing career at the University of Nebraska-Kearney and a most recently served as head coach of the men's tennis program at the University of Nebraska - Omaha.

While playing collegiate tennis at the University of Nebraska - Kearney, Thomas gained both singles and doubles all-conference honors in his junior and senior seasons. Thomas was a member of UNK's first conference championship team and helped the Lopers earn their first-ever berth in the NCAA Sweet 16.

After graduating from UNK in 2005, Thomas coached at the Stanford Nike Summer Camp. He then began working for Peter Burwash International Tennis Management Company. While a member of PBI, Thomas coached at and managed programs in Palm Springs and Carmel, Calif.; St. John, USVI; Seoul, South Korea; Beijing, China; Peninsula Papagayo, Costa Rica and Abu Dhabi and Dubai, UAE. In 2008, Thomas coached a student to win the Girls U18 Abu Dhabi ITF.

As a member of the Peace Corps, Thomas then moved to Mali, West Africa from 2009 to 2011, where he co-directed the creation of the Malian National Junior Tennis Center. While there, he trained Mali's top male and female junior athletes and accompanied them to International tournaments in Accra, Ghana and Dakar and Winneba, Senegal. In his second year, Thomas coached Malian Seydou Diallo to win the boy's U18 category at the ITF West African Junior Championships.

In the fall of 2013 Thomas joined the University of Nebraska - Omaha as the Men's and Women's Assistant coach. Following the 2013-14 season Thomas was named Head Men's Tennis coach. In his time as head coach Thomas guided the Mavericks to their first ever conference tournament final, coached six all conference award winners and helped Razvan Grigorescu reach a career high collegiate ranking of 52 and play in the NCAA singles championships.

ADAM BROOKS

Academic Coordinator

Adam Brooks joined the University of Virginia Academic Affairs staff in August 2009. Brooks serves as academic coordinator for the football and men's and women's tennis programs.

During his first four years at UVA Brooks worked as the academic coordinator for the men's lacrosse, softball and women's tennis programs in addition to men's tennis.

As an academic coordinator, Brooks conducts regular mentoring sessions with student-athletes, monitors eligibility and progress toward degree, and assists in areas such as course selection, major declaration, and career planning.

Prior to UVA, Brooks earned his Master's degree in Higher Education Administration from The University of Akron in 2008 while serving as a graduate assistant in Academic Support Services. Brooks worked primarily with at-risk student-athletes in developing individualized academic plans, implementing learning strategies and study skills, and making effective academic decisions. He also spent time as an intern in Athletics Development, helping create the "Adopt-a-Zip" program and generating revenue for the student-athlete scholarship fund.

A native of Bluffton, Ohio, Brooks earned his Bachelor of Education in Integrated Social Studies from Ashland University in 2007.

CAROLINE FITCH

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Caroline Fitch has been an assistant athletic trainer at Virginia since 2018, where she works with the men's and women's tennis teams. Fitch is responsible for the overall daily health care of UVA student-athletes, including prevention, evaluation, treatment, and rehabilitation for injuries and illnesses. Prior to coming to Virginia, Fitch spent one year as an athletic training resident at Texas Health Sports Medicine and Texas Christian, focusing on orthopedic rehabilitation and assisting with patient-care and on-field coverage of TCU athletics events.

Fitch received her bachelors degree in athletic training from King's College in 2015. While at King's College, she spent four years on the women's swim team. Fitch went on to complete her graduate studies at Toledo, where she served as the head athletic trainer at Toledo Waite High School for one year and at Toledo Christian School for one year. While at Toledo Christian, Fitch provided athletic training services for all home events, away football events, post-season competition, and practices.

Fitch is also a member of NATA, while also being involved in a variety of research projects during her time at Texas Health and Toldedo.
